6661. When license refused or revoked; fraud. The board of pharmacy may refuse to grant a license to any person guilty of felony or gross immorality, or who is addicted to the use of alcoholic liquors or narcotic drugs to such an extent as to render him unfit to practice pharmacy; and the board of pharmacy may, after due notice and hearing, revoke a license for like cause, or any license which has been procured by fraud, and any license or permit, or renewal thereof, obtained through fraud or by any fraudulent or false representations shall be void and of no effect in law.

Rev., s. 4483; 1905, c. 108, ss. 17, 25.

Board may refuse to grant license or renewal to one convicted of violating the law as to sale of drugs: Thomas v. Board of Pharmacy, 152-373.

6662. Expiration and renewal of license; failure to renew misdemeanor. Every licensed pharmacist who desires to continue in the practice of his profession, and every physician holding a permit to sell drugs in a village of not more than five hundred inhabitants, shall, within thirty days next preceding the expiration of his license or permit, file with the secretary and treasurer of the board of pharmacy an application for the renewal thereof, which application shall be accompanied by the fee hereinbefore prescribed. If the board of pharmacy shall find that an applicant has been legally licensed in this state, and is entitled to a renewal thereof, or to a renewal of a permit, it shall issue to him a certificate attesting that fact. And if any pharmacist shall fail, for a period of sixty days after the expiration of his license, to make application to the board for its renewal, his name shall be erased from the register of licensed pharmacists, and such person, in order to again become registered as a licensed pharmacist, shall be required to pay the same fee as in the case of original registration. And if any holder of a permit to sell drugs in a village of not more than five hundred inhabitants shall fail, for a period of sixty days after the expiration of his permit, to make application for the renewal thereof, his name shall be erased from the register of persons holding such permits, and he may be restored thereto only upon the payment of the fee required for the granting of original permit. The registration of every license and every permit issued by the board shall expire on the thirty-first day of August next ensuing the granting thereof: Provided, that the board of pharmacy, in its discretion, shall have the power to issue a license or permit, or renewals thereof, to any person whose license or permit has been revoked by operation of law or by the board of pharmacy, or whose renewal thereof has been refused by the board of pharmacy, after the expiration of one year from the date of such revocation of license or permit, or refusal of a renewal thereof, upon satisfactory proof that such person is entitled to such license or permit, or to a renewal thereof.

Every holder of a license or permit as a pharmacist, who after the expiration thereof continues to carry on the business for which the license or permit was granted, without renewing the same as required by this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars.

Rev., ss. 3653, 4484; 1905, c. 108, ss. 18, 19, 27; 1911, c. 48.

Mandamus will not lie to compel the board of pharmacy to renew license revoked for violation of pharmacy law (even if power existed prior to act of 1911): Thomas v. Board of Pharmacy, 152-373. As to indictment, see State v. Neal, 133-689.

6663. License to be displayed; penalty. Every certificate or license to practice as a pharmacist, and every permit to a practicing physician to conduct a pharmacy or drug store in a village of not more than five hundred inhabitants, and every last renewal of such license or permit, shall be conspicuously exposed in the pharmacy or drug store or place of business of which the pharmacist, or other person to whom it is issued, is the owner or manager, or in which he is employed.

The holder of such license, permit, or renewal who fails to expose it as required by this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars, and each day that such license, permit, or renewal thereof shall not be exposed shall be held to constitute a separate and distinct offense.

Rev., ss. 3651, 4485; 1905, c. 108, ss. 18, 26.

See State v. Neal, 133-689.

6664. Unlicensed person not to use title of pharmacist; penalty. It shall be unlawful for any person not legally licensed as a pharmacist to take, use or exhibit the title of pharmacist or licensed or registered pharmacist, or the title druggist or apothecary, or any other title, name, or description of like import.

Every person who violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Rev., ss. 3652, 4486; 1905, c. 108, ss. 22, 29.

See State v. Neal, 133-689.

6665. Purity of drugs protected; seller responsible; adulteration misdemeanor. Every person who shall engage in the sale of drugs, chemicals, and medicines shall be held responsible for the quality of all drugs, chemicals, and medicines he may sell or dispense, with the exception of those sold in the original packages of the manufacturers, and also those known as "patent or proprietary medicines."

If any person engaged in the sale of drugs, chemicals, and medicines shall intentionally adulterate, or cause to be adulterated, or exposed to sale knowing the same to be adulterated, any drugs, chemicals, or medical preparations, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and if he is a licensed pharmacist his name shall be stricken from the register of licensed pharmacists.

Rev., ss. 3648, 4488; Code, s. 3145; 1881, c. 355, s. 11; 1897, c. 182, s. 7; 1905, c. 108, s. 3.

Section cited in State v. Monroe, 121-677. For regulations as to pure foods and drugs, see sections 4750-4768.

6666. Prescriptions preserved; copies furnished. Every proprietor or manager of a drug store or pharmacy shall keep in his place of business a suitable book or file, in which shall be preserved for a period of not less than five years the original of every prescription compounded or dispensed at such drug store or pharmacy. Upon the request of the prescribing physician, or of the person for whom such prescription was compounded or dispensed, the proprietor or manager of such drug store or pharmacy shall furnish a true and correct copy of such prescription, and said book or file of original prescriptions shall at all times be open to the inspection and examination of duly authorized officers of the law or other persons authorized and directed by the board of pharmacy to make such inspection and examination.

Rev., s. 4490; 1905, c. 108, s. 21.

6667. Selling drugs without license prohibited; drug trade regulated. It shall be unlawful for any person not licensed as a pharmacist within the meaning of this article to conduct or manage any pharmacy, drug or chemical store, apothecary shop or other place of business for the retailing, compounding, or dispensing of any drugs, chemicals, or poison, or for the compounding of physicians' prescriptions, or to keep exposed for sale at retail any drugs, chemicals, or poison, except as hereinafter provided, or for any person not licensed as a pharmacist within the meaning of this article to compound, dispense, or sell at retail any drug, chemical, poison, or pharmaceutical preparation upon the prescription of a physician or otherwise, or to compound physicians' prescriptions except as an aid to and under the immediate supervision of a person licensed as a pharmacist under this article. And it shall be unlawful for any owner or manager of a pharmacy or drug store or other place of business to cause or permit any other than a person licensed as a pharmacist to compound, dispense, or sell at retail any drug, medicine, or poison except as an aid to and under the immediate supervision of a person licensed as a pharmacist.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to interfere with any legally registered practitioner of medicine in the compounding of his own prescriptions, nor with the exclusively wholesale business of any dealer who shall be licensed as a pharmacist or who shall keep in his employ at least one person who is licensed as a pharmacist, nor with the selling at retail of nonpoisonous domestic remedies, nor with the sale of patent or proprietary preparations which do not contain poisonous ingredients, nor with the sale of poisonous substances which are sold exclusively for use in the arts or for use as insecticides when such substances are sold in unbroken packages bearing a label having plainly printed upon it the name of the contents, the word "Poison," the vignette of the skull and crossbones, and the name of at least two readily obtainable antidotes.

In any village of not more than five hundred inhabitants the board of pharmacy may grant any legally registered practicing physician a permit to conduct a drug store or pharmacy in such village, which permit shall not be valid in any other village than the one for which it was granted, and shall cease and terminate when the population of the village for which such permit was granted shall become greater than five hundred: Provided, that the board of pharmacy may, after due investigation, grant to any legally registered practicing physician in towns or villages of more than five hundred, and not exceeding six hundred, inhabitants a permit to conduct a drug store or pharmacy in such towns or villages subject to the provisions of this article.

6668. Compounding prescriptions without license. If any person, not being licensed as a pharmacist, shall compound, dispense, or sell at retail any drug, medicine, poison, or pharmaceutical preparation, either upon a physician's prescription or otherwise, and any person being the owner or manager of a drug store, pharmacy, or other place of business, who shall cause or permit any one not licensed as a pharmacist to dispense, sell at retail, or compound any drug, medicine, poison, or physician's prescription contrary to the provisions of this article, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Liability of proprietor when clerk acts against his orders: State v. Neal, 133-689.

6669. Conducting pharmacy without license. If any person, not being licensed as a pharmacist, shall conduct or manage any drug store, pharmacy, or other place of business for the compounding, dispensing, or sale at retail of any drugs, medicines, or poisons, or for the compounding of physicians' prescriptions contrary to the provisions of this article, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, and each week such drug store or pharmacy or other place of business is so unlawfully conducted shall be held to constitute a separate and distinct offense.

See State v. Neal, 133-689.

6670. Pharmacist obtaining license fraudulently. If any person shall make any fraudulent or false representations for the purpose of procuring a license or permit, or renewal thereof, either for himself or for another, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars; and if any person shall wilfully make a false affidavit or any other false or fraudulent representation for the purpose of procuring a license or permit, or renewal thereof, either for himself or for another, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to like punishment as is now prescribed for the crime of perjury.

Rev., s. 3654; 1905, c. 108, s. 25.

Part 2. Dealing in Specific Drugs Regulated

6671. Poisons; sales regulated; label; penalties. It shall be unlawful for any persons to sell or deliver to any person any of the following described substances or any poisonous compound, combination, or preparation thereof, to wit: The compounds and salts of arsenic, antimony, lead, mercury, silver and zinc, oxalic and hydrocyanic acids and their salts, the concentrated mineral acids, carbolic acid, the essential oils of almonds, pennyroyal, tansy and savine, croton oil, creosote, chloroform, chloral hydrate, cantharides, or any aconite, belladonna, bitter almonds, colchicum, cotton root, conium, cannabis indica, digitalis, hyoscyamus, nux vomica, opium, ergot, cannabis stramonius, or any of the poisonous alkaloids or alkaloidal salts or other poisonous principles derived from the foregoing, or cocaine or any other poisonous alkaloids or their salts, or any other virulent poisons, except in the manner following: It shall first be learned by due inquiry that the person to whom delivery is made is aware of the poisonous character of the substance, and that it is desired for a lawful purpose, and the box, bottle, or other package shall be plainly labeled with the name of the substance, the word "Poison," and the name of the person or firm dispensing the substance.

Before a delivery is made of any of the following substances, to wit, the compounds and salts of arsenic, antimony and mercury, hydrocyanic acid and its salts, strychnine and its salts, and the essential oil of bitter almonds, there shall be recorded in a book kept for the purpose the name of the article, the quantity delivered, the purpose for which it is required as represented by the purchaser, the date of delivery, the name and address of the purchaser, the name of the dispenser, which book shall be preserved for at least five years and shall at all times be open to the inspection of the proper officers of the law: Provided, that the foregoing provision shall not apply to articles dispensed upon the order of persons believed by the dispenser to be lawfully authorized practitioners of medicine or dentistry: Provided, also, that the record of sale and delivery above mentioned shall not be required of manufacturers and wholesalers who shall sell any of the foregoing substances at wholesale; but the box, bottle, or other package containing such substances, when sold at wholesale, shall be properly labeled with the name of the substance, the word "Poison," and the name and address of the manufacturer or wholesaler: Provided further, that it shall not be necessary to place a poison label upon, or to record the delivery of, the sulphide of antimony or the dioxide or carbonate of zinc or lead, or of colors ground in oil and intended for use as paint, or paris green, when dispensed in the original package of the manufacturer or wholesaler, or calomel, paregoric, or other preparations of opium containing less than two grains of opium to the fluid ounce, nor in the case of preparations containing any of the substances named in this section when in a single box, bottle, or other package, or when the bulk of two fluid ounces or the weight of two avoirdupois ounces does not contain more than an adult medicinal dose of such poisonous substance.

If any person shall sell or deliver to any person any poisonous substance specified in this section without labeling the same and recording the delivery thereof in the manner prescribed, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Rev., ss. 3655, 4489; 1905, c. 108, ss. 20, 28.

6672. Narcotics and certain other drugs; sales regulated. 1. Dispensing without prescription forbidden. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to sell, furnish, or give away any cocaine, alpha or beta eucaine, novocaine, opium, morphine, heroin, codine, or any salt or compound of any of the foregoing substances, or any preparation or compound containing any of the foregoing substances, or their salts or compounds, in greater quantity than is prescribed in the United States Pharmacopœia, except upon the original written order or prescription of a lawfully licensed practitioner of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary medicine, which order or prescription shall be dated, and shall contain the name of the person for whom prescribed, or, if ordered by a practitioner of veterinary medicine, shall state the kind of animal for which ordered, and shall be signed by the person giving the order or prescription.

alpha or beta eucaine, novocaine, opium, morphine, heroin, codine, or any salt or compound of any of the foregoing substances, or any preparation or compound containing any of the foregoing substances, or their salts or compounds, in flake or crystals, but only in a solution, or ointment, which shall not contain over four per cent of the above named substances, or any of them, and no such order or prescription shall be for a greater quantity than one ounce of any such solution or ointment sold and dispensed in one-ounce bottles.

3. Prescription retained; duplicates. Such written order or prescription shall be permanently retained on file by the person, firm, or corporation who shall compound or dispense the article ordered or prescribed, and it shall not be again compounded or dispensed, except upon the written order of the original prescriber for each and every subsequent compounding or dispensing. No copy or duplicate of such written order or prescription shall be made or delivered to any person, but the original shall at all times be open to inspection by the prescriber and properly authorized officers of the law.

4. When section inapplicable. The above provisions shall not apply to preparations containing opium, or its derivatives, and recommended and sold in good faith for diarrhœa, cholera, or coughs, each bottle or package of which is accompanied by specific directions for use, and a caution against habitual use; nor to the compound powder of ipecac and opium, commonly known as "Dover's powders"; and the above provisions shall not apply to sales at wholesale by jobbers, wholesalers, and manufacturers to retail druggists or qualified physicians, or to each other, nor to sales at retail by retail druggists to regular practitioners of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary medicine, nor to sales made to manufacturers of proprietary or pharmaceutical preparations, for use in the manufacture of such preparations, nor to sales to hospitals, colleges, or scientific institutions.

Sufficient evidence in indictment for sale of cocaine: State v. Burno, 158-632.

6673. Limitations on sales of certain drugs to practitioners. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to sell, furnish, or dispense to any regular practitioner of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary medicine more than one dram of cocaine, alpha or beta eucaine, novocaine, or any salt or compound of any of the foregoing substances, or their salts or compounds, at one time; or more than one-half ounce of opium, morphine, heroin, codine, or any salt or compound of any of the said substances, or their salts or compounds, at one time.

P. L. 1913, c. 761, s. 2; 1919, c. 288.

6674. Limitations on possession of certain drugs by retail druggists. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation doing a retail drug business to have more than one ounce of cocaine, alpha or beta eucaine, novocaine, or any salt or compound of any of the foregoing substances, or their salts or compounds, or more than one and one-half ounces of opium, morphine, heroin, codine, or any salt or compound of any of them, or their salts or compounds, in his or its possession at any one time.

P. L. 1913, c. 761, s. 3; 1919, c. 288.

6675. Limitations on possession of certain drugs by practitioners; records to be kept. It shall be unlawful for any practitioner of medicine, dentist, or veterinarian to have or keep in his possession at any time more than one dram of cocaine, alpha or beta eucaine, novocaine, or any salt or compound of any of the foregoing substances, or their salts or compounds, or more than one-half ounce of opium, morphine, heroin, codine, or any salt or compound of any of them, or their salts or compounds, and each practitioner of medicine, dentist, and veterinarian shall keep a complete record of all purchases, the date and amount of each purchase, and the name of the person or party from whom each purchase was made, and a complete record of any disposition of said drugs, or any of them, and said record shall be open at all times to the inspection of the legally authorized officers of the law.

P. L. 1913, c. 761, s. 4; 1919, c. 288.

6676. Presumptive evidence of illegal sale. It shall be presumptive evidence of an illegal sale if the amount shown by the amount on hand, plus the amount legally dispensed, does not tally with the amount shown to have been purchased by the retail druggist, practitioner of medicine, dentist, or veterinarian.

P. L. 1913, c. 761, s. 5; 1919, c. 288.

6677. Prescriptions of certain drugs regulated. It shall be unlawful for any practitioner of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary medicine to furnish or to prescribe for the use of any habitual user of the same any cocaine, alpha or beta eucaine, novocaine, opium, morphine, heroin, codine, or any salt or compound of any of the foregoing substances, or their salts or compounds; and it shall also be unlawful for any practitioner of dentistry to prescribe any of the foregoing substances for any person not under his treatment in the regular practice of his profession, or for any practitioner of veterinary medicine to prescribe any of the foregoing substances for the use of any human being. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to prevent any lawfully authorized practitioner of medicine from furnishing or prescribing in good faith for the use of any habitual user of narcotic drugs, who is under his professional care, such substances as he may deem necessary for his treatment, when such prescriptions are not given or substances furnished for the purpose of evading the provisions of this article.

Action by husband for sale of laudanum to wife: Holloman v. Harward, 119-150.

6678. Limitations on sales of certain drugs by wholesalers; records to be kept. It shall be unlawful for any jobber, wholesaler, or manufacturer to sell or furnish to any retail druggist cocaine, alpha or beta eucaine, novocaine, or any salt or compound of any of the foregoing substances, or their salts or compounds, in greater quantity than one ounce, at one time, or to likewise sell or furnish opium, morphine, heroin, codine, or any salt or compound of any of them, or their salts or compounds, in greater quantity than one and one-half ounces at one time; and it shall be unlawful for any jobber, wholesaler, or manufacturer to sell or furnish to any practitioner of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary medicine, cocaine, alpha or beta eucaine, novocaine, or any salt or compound of any of the foregoing substances, or their salts or compounds, in greater quantity than one dram, at one time, or to likewise sell or furnish opium, morphine, heroin, codine, or any salt or compound of any of them, or their salts or compounds, in greater quantity than one-half ounce at one time; and every package sold or furnished by any jobber, wholesaler, or manufacturer shall bear a serial number, stamped upon the outside wrapper or cover; and all jobbers, wholesalers, and manufacturers shall keep a complete record of every sale made by them, showing the name of the buyer, his place of business, the date of sale, the kind of drug sold, and if a salt or compound, the percentage of any substance therein enumerated, the amount sold, the serial number of each package, and the name of the clerk or employer by whom each order was filled, and these records shall be open at all times to the inspection of the legally authorized officers of the law.

P. L. 1913, c. 761, s. 8; 1919, c. 288.

What is sufficient possession to constitute violation: State v. Ross, 168-130.

P. L. 1913, c. 761, s. 9; 1919, c. 288.

6681. Testimony enforced; immunity. No person shall be excused from testifying in any prosecution for violation of the provisions of this article relating to narcotics, cocaine, alpha or beta eucaine, or novocaine, or any investigation concerning the violating of any law prohibiting the sale, dispensing, or possession of any of these substances, mixtures, or compounds as enumerated in this article, or any other law of the state concerning the same; but no discovery made by such person shall be used against him in any penal or criminal prosecution, and he shall be altogether pardoned for the offense done or participated in by him.

P. L. 1913, c. 761, s. 10; 1919, c. 288.

6682. Search warrants; seizure and retention of drugs. If any credible witness shall make oath before any person authorized to issue process as herein-before provided in the second preceding section, that there is a reasonable cause to suspect that any provision of this article is being violated, or any other act prohibiting the sale, dispensing, or possession of the substances, mixtures, or compounds enumerated herein, it shall be the duty of such officer or person to grant a warrant, to be executed within the limits of the county in which such violation is alleged to have occurred, or to be occurring, to any lawful officer, authorizing him to search the place where, or the person by whom, it is alleged (in such affidavit) this law has been or is being violated, and to seize and preserve any evidence of the violation of this article, to be used in the trial of any person arrested by reason of the examination, search, or seizure herein provided. All cocaine, alpha or beta eucaine, novocaine, opium, morphine, heroin, codine, or any mixture of either, or any salt or compound of any of the foregoing substances, or any preparation or compound containing any of the foregoing substances, or their salts or compounds, seized under this article, shall be held, and upon acquittal of the person so charged shall be returned to him, and upon conviction shall be destroyed.

P. L. 1913, c. 761, s. 11; 1919, c. 288.

6683. Narcotics and certain other drugs; violation of law a misdemeanor. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this article relating to the prescription, sale or possession of any cocaine, alpha or beta eucaine, novocaine, opium, morphine, heroin, their salts or compounds, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the court; and if a licensed pharmacist, physician, dentist or veterinary surgeon, his license shall be revoked. It shall be the duty of all judges of the superior courts in this state, at every regular term thereof, to charge all regularly impaneled grand juries to diligently inquire into and investigate all cases of the violation of such provisions of this article and to make a true presentment of all persons guilty of such violations. It shall be the duty of the board of pharmacy to cause the prosecution of all persons violating such provisions of this article. No prosecution shall be brought for the sale of any patent or proprietary medicine containing any of the drugs or preparations hereinbefore mentioned until the board of pharmacy shall certify that such medicine contains any of the said drugs or preparations in excess of the maximum percentage hereinbefore mentioned. In any proceedings under the provisions of this article the charge may be brought against any or all of the members of a partnership, or against the directors or executive officers of a corporation, or against the agent or employee of any person, partnership or corporation.

1907, c. 77, ss. 3, 4; 1909, c. 713, s. 2; P. L. 1913, c. 761, s. 33; 1919, c. 288.

6684. Certain patent cures and devices; sale and advertising forbidden. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, or corporation in the state, or any agent thereof, to sell or offer for sale any proprietary or patent medicine or remedy purporting to cure cancer, consumption, diabetes, paralysis, Bright's disease, or any other disease for which no cure has been found, or any mechanical device whose claims for the cure or treatment of disease are false or fraudulent; and that it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, or corporation in the state, or any agent thereof, to publish in any manner, or by any means, or cause to be published, circulated, or in any way placed before the public any advertisement in a newspaper or other publication or in the form of books, pamphlets, handbills, circulars, either printed or written, or by any drawing, map, print, tag, or by any other means whatsoever, any advertisement of any kind or description offering for sale or commending to the public any proprietary or patent medicine or remedy purporting to cure cancer, consumption, diabetes, paralysis, Bright's disease, or any other disease for which no cure has been found, or any mechanical device for the treatment of disease, when the North Carolina board of health shall declare that such device is without value in the treatment of disease.

Any person, firm, association, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense. Each sale, offer for sale, or publication of any advertisement for sale of any of the medicines, remedies, or devices mentioned in this section shall constitute a separate offense.

6685. Certain patent cures and devices; enforcement of law. To provide for the efficient enforcement of the preceding section, the same shall be under the supervision and management of the North Carolina board of pharmacy, and it shall be the duty of all registered pharmacists to report immediately any violations thereof to the secretary of the board of pharmacy, and any wilful failure to make such report shall have the effect of revoking his license to practice pharmacy in this state.

6686. Department of agriculture to analyze patent medicines. The chemists and other experts of the department of agriculture shall, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the board of pharmacy, and upon request of the secretary of said board, make an analytical examination of all samples of drugs, preparations, and compounds sold or offered for sale in violation of the two preceding sections.

1917, c. 27, s. 6.

ART. 4. OPTOMETRY

6687. Optometry defined. The practice of optometry is hereby defined to be the employment of any means, other than the use of drugs, medicine, or surgery, for the measurement of the powers of vision and the adaptation of lenses for the aid thereof.

1909, c. 444, s. 1.

6688. Practice without registration unlawful. After the passage of this article it shall be unlawful for any person to practice optometry in the state unless he has first obtained a certificate of registration and filed the same, or a certified copy thereof, with the clerk of the superior court of his residence, as hereinafter provided.

1909, c. 444, s. 2.

6689. Board of examiners in optometry. There is hereby created a board, whose duty it shall be to carry out the purposes and enforce the provisions of this article, and which shall be styled the "North Carolina State Board of Examiners in Optometry." This board shall be appointed by the governor as soon as practicable, and shall consist of five regular optometrists who are members of the North Carolina state optometric society and who have been engaged in the practice of optometry in the state for five years. The terms of the members shall be as follows: One for one year, one for two years, one for three years, one for four years, one for five years. The terms of members thereafter appointed shall be for five years. The appointments to fill vacancies shall be for the unexpired terms. The members of the board, before entering upon their duties, shall respectively take all oaths taken and prescribed for other state officers, in the manner provided by law, which shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and the board shall have a common seal.

6690. Organization; meetings and powers thereat; records. The board of examiners shall choose, at the first regular meeting and annually thereafter, one of its members as president and one as secretary and treasurer. The board shall make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as may be necessary to the proper performance of its duties, and each member may administer oaths and take testimony concerning any matter within the jurisdiction of the board. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum. The board shall meet at least twice a year, the times and places of meeting to be designated by the president and secretary. The secretary of the board shall keep a full record of its proceedings, which shall at all reasonable times be open to public inspection.

6691. Examination for practice; prerequisites; registration. Every person, before beginning to practice optometry in this state after the passage of this article, shall pass an examination before the board of examiners. The examination shall be confined to such knowledge as is essential to the practice of optometry. Every applicant for examination at the time of examination must comply with the following conditions:

1. He must be twenty-one years of age.
2. He shall file with the secretary of the board a certificate of good moral character, signed by two reputable citizens of this state; but an applicant from another state may have such certificate signed by any state officer of the state from which he comes.
3. He shall satisfy the board that he is a graduate of a high school, or that his literary attainments are equivalent to that of a high school education, and that he has been in actual attendance at some recognized optical college for a period of not less than two years, or that he has had two years of continuous optometrical practice under a registered optometrist, or by reason of a registered certificate of any state.

4. He must pay to the board for the use of the board the sum of ten dollars, and if he shall successfully pass the examination he shall pay to the secretary for the use of the board a further sum of five dollars on the issuance to him of the certificate.

Any candidate presenting himself for examination and failing to successfully pass the board shall have returned to him the ten dollars fee required in this section. Every person successfully passing the examination shall be registered in the board registry, which shall be kept by the secretary, as licensed to practice optometry, and he shall also receive a certificate of registration, to be signed by the president and secretary of the board.

1909, c. 444, s. 5; 1915, c. 21, ss. 2, 3, 4.

Section cited in Vineberg v. Day, 152-355.

6692. Persons in practice before passage of statute. Every person who had been engaged in the practice of optometry in the state for two years prior to the date of the passage of this article shall hereafter file an affidavit as proof thereof with the board. The secretary shall keep a record of such persons who shall be exempt from the provisions of the preceding section. Upon payment of three dollars he shall issue to each of them certificates of registration without the necessity of an examination. Failure on the part of a person so entitled within six months of the enactment of this article to make written application to the board for the certificate of registration accompanied by a written statement, signed by him and duly verified before an officer authorized to administer oaths within this state, fully setting forth the grounds upon which he claims such certificate, shall be deemed a waiver of his right to a certificate under the provisions of this section. A person who has thus waived his right may obtain a certificate thereafter by successfully passing examination and paying a fee as provided herein.

The board has authority to pass upon the proof offered under this section: Vineberg v. Day, 152-355. This section applies only to residents of the state: Ibid.

6693. Filing of certificate by licensee; fees; failure to file, certified copies. Each recipient of the certificate of registration shall present the same for record to the clerk of the superior court of the county in which he resides, and shall pay a fee of fifty cents for recording the same. The clerk shall record it in a book to be provided by him for that purpose. Any person so licensed, before engaging in the practice of optometry in any other county, shall file the certificate for record with the clerk of the superior court of the county in which he desires to practice, and pay the clerk for recording it a fee of fifty cents. Any failure, neglect, or refusal on the part of a person holding a certificate to file it for record, for thirty days after the issuance thereof, shall forfeit the certificate and it shall become null and void. Upon the request of any person entitled to a certificate of registration the board shall issue a certified copy thereof, and upon the fact of the loss of the original being made to appear, the certified copy shall be recorded in lieu of the original, and the board shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for recording such certified copy.

See Vineberg v. Day, 152-355.

6694. Certificate to be displayed at office. Every person to whom a certificate of examination or registration is granted shall display the same in a conspicuous part of his office wherein the practice of optometry is conducted.

1909, c. 444, s. 10.

6695. Compensation of board; surplus funds. Out of the funds coming into possession of said board each member thereof may receive as compensation the sum of five dollars for each day he is actually engaged in the duties of his office and mileage of three cents per mile for all distances necessarily traveled in going to and coming from the meetings of the board. Such expenses shall be paid from the fees and assessments received by the board under the provisions of this article, and no part of the salary or other expenses of the board shall ever be paid out of the state treasury. All moneys received in excess of per diem allowance and mileage, as above provided, shall be held by the secretary as a special fund for meeting expenses of the board and carrying out the provisions of this article, and he shall give the state such bond as the board shall from time to time direct for the faithful performance of his duties, and the board shall make an annual report of its proceedings to the governor on the first Monday in January of each year, which report shall contain an account of all moneys received and disbursed by them pursuant to this article.

6696. Annual fees; failure to pay; collection by suit. Every registered optometrist shall, in every year after one thousand nine hundred and nine, pay to the board of examiners the sum of not over two dollars, the amount to be fixed by the board, as a fee for the year. Such payments shall be made prior to the first day of April in each year, and in case of default in the payment by any person his certificate may be revoked by the examiners upon twenty days notice of the time and the place of considering such revocation. But no license shall be revoked for nonpayment if the person so notified shall pay, before or at the time of consideration, his fee and such penalty as may be imposed by the board. The penalty imposed on any one person so notified as a condition of allowing his license to stand shall not exceed five dollars. The board of examiners may collect any dues provided for in this section by suit.

6697. Revocation and regrant of certificate. The board shall have the power to revoke any certificate of registration granted by it under this article for conviction of crime, habitual drunkenness for six months immediately before charge to be made, gross incompetency, contagious or infectious diseases. Before any certificate may be so revoked the holder thereof shall have a notice in writing of the charge or charges against him, and at a day specified in said notice, at least five days after the service thereof, be given a public hearing and have an opportunity to produce testimony in his behalf and to confront the witnesses against him. Any person whose certificate has been so revoked may, after the expiration of ninety days, apply to have the same regranted, and the same shall be regranted him upon a satisfactory showing that the disqualification has ceased.

6698. Violation of article forbidden. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this article, and any person who shall hold himself out to the public as a practitioner of optometry without a certificate of registration provided for herein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction may be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or imprisonment for not more than four months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

1909, c. 444, s. 14.

6699. Application of article. Nothing in this article shall be construed to apply to physicians and surgeons authorized to practice under the laws of North Carolina, or prohibit persons to sell spectacles, eyeglasses, or lenses as merchandise from permanently located and established places of business.

1909, c. 444, s. 15.

ART. 5. OSTEOPATHY

6700. Osteopathy defined. For the purpose of this article osteopathy is defined to be the science of healing without the use of drugs, as taught by the various colleges of osteopathy recognized by the North Carolina Osteopathic Society, Incorporated.

1907, c. 764, s. 8; 1913, c. 92, s. 3.

Examination and licensing of osteopaths required in order to protect the public: State v. Siler, 169-316. Act of 1913, c. 92, extends this requirement to all nondrug practitioners: Ibid. See State v. McKnight, 131-717; State v. Biggs, 133-729; Allen v. Traction Co., 144-288.

6701. Board of examiners; membership; officers; meetings. There shall be a state board of osteopathic examination and registration, consisting of five members appointed by the governor, in the following manner, to wit: within thirty days after this article goes into effect the governor shall appoint five persons who are reputable practitioners of osteopathy, selected from a number of not less than ten who are recommended by the North Carolina osteopathic society, and this number may be increased to fifteen, upon the request of the governor; the recommendation of the president and secretary being sufficient proof of the appointees' standing in the profession; and said appointees shall constitute the first board of osteopathic examination and registration. Their term of office shall be so designated by the governor that the term of one member shall expire each year. Thereafter in each year the governor shall in like manner appoint one person to fill the vacancy in the board thus created, from a number of not less than five, who are recommended by the state osteopathic society; the term of said appointee to be for five years. A vacancy occurring from any other cause shall be filled by the governor for the unexpired term in the same manner as last above stated. The board shall, within thirty days after its appointment, meet in the city of Raleigh, and organize by electing a president, secretary and treasurer, each to serve for one year. Thereafter the election of said officers shall occur annually. The treasurer and secretary shall each give bond, approved by the board, for the faithful performance of their respective duties, in such sum as the board may from time to time determine. The board shall have a common seal, and shall formulate rules to govern its actions; and the president and secretary shall be empowered to administer oaths. The board shall meet in the city of Raleigh at the call of the president, in the month following the election of its officers, and in July of each succeeding year, and at such other times and places as a majority of the board may designate. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but no certificate to practice osteopathy shall be granted on an affirmative vote of less than three. The board shall keep a record of its proceedings, and a register of all applicants for certificates, giving the name and location of the institution granting the applicant the degree of doctor of or diploma in osteopathy or other nondrug-giving school of medical practice; the date of his or her diploma, and also whether the applicant was rejected or a certificate granted. The record and registers shall be prima facie evidence of all matters recorded therein.

6702. Examination and certification of applicant; prerequisites. Any person, before engaging in the practice of osteopathy in this state, shall, upon the payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars, make application for a certificate to practice osteopathy to the board of osteopathic examination and registration on a form prescribed by the board, giving, first, his name, age (which shall not be less than twenty-one years), and residence; second, evidence that such applicant shall have, previous to the beginning of his course in osteopathy, a certificate of examination for admission to the freshman class of a reputable literary or scientific college, a diploma from a high school, academy, state normal school, college, or university, approved by aforesaid board; third, the date of his diploma, and evidence that such diploma was granted on personal attendance and completion of a course of not less than four terms of five months each, and after July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, of four terms of not less than nine months each in three separate years; fourth, the name of the school or college of osteopathy from which said applicant was a graduate, and which shall have been in good repute as such at the time of the granting of his diploma, as determined by the board. The board may, in its discretion, accept as the equivalent of any part or all of the second, third, and fourth requirements evidence of five or more years reputable practice of osteopathy, provided such substitution be specified in the certificate, if the facts thus set forth, and to which the applicant shall be required to make affidavit, shall meet the requirements of the board, as prescribed by its qualifications for the practice of osteopathy, which shall include the subjects of anatomy, physiology, physiological chemistry, toxicology, osteopathic pathology, bacteriology, osteopathic diagnosis, hygiene, osteopathic obstetrics and gynecology, minor surgery, principles and practice of osteopathy, and such other subjects as the board may require. A physician's certificate issued by a reputable school of osteopathy to a graduate from a reputable school of medicine, after an attendance of not less than two terms of nine months each in two separate years, may be accepted by the board on the same terms as a diploma, and the holder thereof be subject to the same regulations in all other respects as other applicants before the board. The board may refuse to grant a certificate to any person convicted of a felony, or of gross unprofessional conduct, or who is addicted to any vice to such a degree as to render him unfit to practice osteopathy, and may, after due notice and hearing, revoke such certificate for like cause.

See annotation under section 6700.

6703. When examination dispensed with; temporary permit. The board may, upon the payment of a fee of two dollars, grant a certificate to practice osteopathy in this state without examination, if application therefor is filed within ninety days after the passage of this act, to any person having a diploma from a legally chartered school or college of osteopathy, which was in good standing at the time of issuing of such diploma as defined by the board, and who shall meet the requirements of the board in other respects, and who was in active practice in this state at the time of the passage of this act.

The board may, in its discretion, dispense with an examination in the case, first, of an osteopathic physician duly authorized to practice osteopathy in any other state or territory, or the District of Columbia, who presents a certificate of license issued after an examination by the legally constituted board of such state, territory, or District of Columbia, accorded only to applicants of equal grade with those required in this state; or, second, an osteopathic physician who has been in the actual practice of osteopathy for five years, who is a graduate of a reputable school of osteopathy, who may desire to change his residence to this state, and who makes application on a form to be prescribed by the board, accompanied by a fee of twenty-five dollars.

The secretary of the board may grant a temporary permit until a regular meeting of the board, or to such time as the board can conveniently meet, to one whom he considers eligible to practice in the state, and who may desire to commence the practice immediately. Such permit shall only be valid until legal action of the board can be taken. In all the above provisions the fee shall be the same as charged to applicants for examination, except to those who are practicing in the state on the eighth day of March, 1907.

6704. Provisions of this article extended to nondrug-giving practitioners. The provisions of the two preceding sections shall apply to all other nondrug-giving practitioners, except chiropractors, by whatever name they are known or call themselves, or of whatever school they claim to be graduates or hold diplomas, and to any one who holds himself out as being able to diagnose, treat, operate, or prescribe for any human diseases, pain, injury, deformity, or physical condition, and who shall offer or undertake by any means or method to diagnose, treat, operate, or prescribe therefor without the use of drugs, but shall not apply to those practicing their profession as licensed physicians, nor to Christian Scientists or masseurs or any one following in his or her practice the orders of licensed drug-giving physicians: Provided, however, that all such persons so applying to said board for examination shall be examined only on the subject of anatomy, physiology, pathology, and diagnosis, by said board, but no license shall be issued by such board to those who claim to be correspondence school course graduates to practice in this state.

1913, c. 92, s. 2.

See State v. Siler, 169-314. For chiropractors, see section 6710 et seq.

6705. Fees held by board; salaries; payment of expenses. All fees shall be paid in advance to the treasurer of the board, to be by him held as a fund for the use of the state board of osteopathic examination and registration. The compensation and expenses of the members and officers of said board, and all expenses proper and necessary, in the opinion of said board, to discharge its duties under and to enforce the law, shall be paid out of such fund, upon the warrant of the president and secretary of said board, and no expense shall be created to exceed the income of fees or fines as herein provided. The salaries shall be fixed by the board, but shall not exceed ten dollars per day per member, and railroad and hotel expenses.

1907, c. 764, s. 3.

6706. Subject to state and municipal regulations. Osteopathic physicians shall observe and be subject to all state and municipal regulations relating to the control of contagious diseases, the reporting and certifying of births and deaths, and all matters pertaining to public health, the same as physicians of other schools of medicine, and such reports shall be accepted by the officers or department to whom the same are made.

1907, c. 764, s. 4.

6707. Record of certificates; fees. Every person holding a certificate from the state board of examination and registration shall have it recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which he or she expects to practice. Until such certificate is filed for record, the holder shall exercise none of the rights or privileges therein conferred. Said clerk of the county shall keep in a book for that purpose a complete list of all certificates recorded by him, with the date of the recording of each certificate. Each holder of a certificate shall pay to said clerk a fee of one dollar for making such record.

1907, c. 764, s. 5.

6708. Practice without compliance with law prohibited. Any person who shall practice, or pretend or attempt to practice, or use the science or system of osteopathy in treating diseases of the human body by fraud or misrepresentation; or any person who shall buy, sell, or fraudulently obtain any diploma, license, record, or registration to practice osteopathy, illegally obtained, or signed or issued unlawfully, or under fraudulent representation; or who shall use any of the forms, or letters, "Osteopathy," "Osteopath," or "Osteopathist," "Diplomate in Osteopathy," "D. O.," "D. Sc.O.," "Osteopathic Physician," "Doctor of Osteopathy," or any other title or letters, either alone or with other qualifying words or phrases, under such circumstances as to induce the belief that the person who uses such term or terms is engaged in the practice of osteopathy, without having complied with the provisions of this article, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense, or imprisoned not less than three months nor more than six months in the county jail.

The punishment prescribed in this section shall likewise apply to other non-drug-giving practitioners to whom this article is extended by the fifth section [6704] thereof and who violates any of its provisions.

1907, c. 764, s. 6; 1913, c. 92, s. 5.

6709. Objects of North Carolina osteopathic society. The object of the North Carolina osteopathic society shall be to unite the osteopaths of this state for mutual aid, encouragement, and improvement; to encourage scientific research in the laws of health and treatment of diseases of the human family; to elevate the standard of professional thought and conduct in the practice of osteopathy and to restrict the practice of osteopathy to persons educated and trained in the science and possessing a diploma from a reputable college of osteopathy.

1907, c. 764, s. 7.

ART. 6. CHIROPRACTIC

6710. Creation and membership of board of examiners. There is hereby created and established a board to be known by the name and style of the state board of chiropractic examiners. The board shall be composed of three practicing chiropractors of integrity and ability, who shall be residents of the state, and no more than two members of said board shall be graduates from the same school or college of chiropractic.

1917, c. 73, s. 1.

6711. Appointment; term; successors; recommendations. The governor shall appoint the members of the state board of chiropractic examiners, whose terms of office shall be as follows: One member shall be appointed for a term of one year from the close of the next regular annual meeting of the North Carolina board of chiropractors; one member shall be appointed for a term of two years from such time, and one member shall be appointed for a term of three years from such time. Annually thereafter, at the time of the annual meeting or immediately thereafter, the governor shall appoint one member of the state board of chiropractic examiners, whose term of office shall be three years, and such members of the board of examiners shall be appointed from a number of not less than five who shall be recommended by the North Carolina board of chiropractors.

6712. First appointments. Until the members of the board are appointed as aforesaid the governor shall appoint the state board of chiropractic examiners, who shall hold office until the close of the next regular annual meeting of the North Carolina board of chiropractors.

1917, c. 73, s. 3.

6713. Organization and vacancies. The board of chiropractic examiners shall elect such officers as they may deem necessary, and in case of a vacancy, caused by death or in any other manner, a majority of the board shall have the right to fill the vacancy by the election of some other member of the North Carolina board of chiropractors.

1917, c. 73, s. 4.

6714. Rules and regulations. The state board of chiropractic examiners may adopt suitable rules and regulations for the performance of their duties.

1919, c. 148, s. 4.

6715. Definitions of chiropractic; examinations; educational requirements. Chiropractic is herein defined to be the science of adjusting the cause of disease by realigning the twenty-four movable vertebræ of the spine, releasing pressure on nerves radiating from the spine to all parts of the body, and allowing the nerves to carry their full quota of health current (nerve energy) from the brain to all parts of the body. It shall be the duty of the board of examiners to examine all applicants who shall furnish satisfactory proof of good character and of graduation from a regular chiropractic school of good standing, and such examination shall embrace such branches of study as are usually included in the regular course of study for chiropractors in chiropractic schools or colleges of good standing, including especially an examination of each applicant in the science of chiropractic as herein defined. Every applicant for license shall, after the organization of the North Carolina board of chiropractors, which organization shall be perfected immediately after the passage of this law, furnish to said board of examiners sufficient and satisfactory evidence that, prior to the beginning of his course in chiropractic, he had obtained a high school education, or what is equivalent thereto, entitling him to admission in a reputable college or university; and he shall also exhibit to said board of chiropractic examiners, or satisfy them that he holds, a diploma from a reputable chiropractic college, and not a correspondence school, and that said diploma was granted to him on a personal attendance and completion of a regular three years course in such chiropractic college, and such applicant shall be examined in the following studies: Chiropractic analysis, chiropractic philosophy, chiropractic neurology, palpation, nerve tracing, microscopy, histology, anatomy, gynecology, jurisprudence, chemistry, pathology, hygiene, physiology, embryology, eye, ear, nose, and throat, dermatology, symptomology, spinography, chiropractic orthopody, and the theory, teaching, and practice of chiropractic.

Any person who has been practicing chiropractic in this state prior to the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, may apply for and receive license to practice chiropractic in this state upon proof of good character and proper proficiency upon examination; and all those practicing chiropractic prior to the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, shall be granted license without an examination.

Any chiropractor holding a license issued to him in another state by a regular board of chiropractic examiners may apply for and receive a license to practice chiropractic in this state upon proof of good moral character and that he has been practicing chiropractic under such license for one year.

6716. Annual meetings. The board of chiropractic examiners and the North Carolina board of chiropractors shall hold their annual meetings at the same time and place. But the said board of examiners may, in their discretion, meet not more than three days in advance of the annual meeting of the North Carolina board of chiropractors.

6717. Grant of license; temporary license. The board of chiropractic examiners at such regular annual meeting of the board shall grant to each applicant who is found to be competent, upon examination, a license authorizing him or her to practice chiropractic in North Carolina. Any two members of said board may grant a temporary license to any applicant who shall comply with the requirements of this article as to proof of good character and of graduation from a chiro-practice school or college as prescribed in this article; but such temporary license shall not continue in force longer than until the next annual meeting of the said board of examiners, and in no case shall a temporary license be granted to an applicant who has already been refused a license by the board of examiners at an annual meeting.

6718. Graduates from other states. A graduate of a regular chiropractic school who comes into this state from another state may be granted a license by the board of examiners as required in this article.

1917, c. 73, s. 8.

6719. Practice without license a misdemeanor. Any person practicing chiropractic in this state without having first obtained a license as provided in this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the court.

1917, c. 73, s. 9.

6720. Records of board. The secretary of the board of chiropractic examiners shall keep a record of the proceedings of the board, giving the name of each applicant for license, and the name of each applicant licensed and the date of such license.

1917, c. 73, s. 10.

6721. Application fee. Each applicant shall pay the secretary of said board a fee of twenty-five dollars.

1917, c. 73, s. 11.

6722. Extent and limitation of license. Any person obtaining a license from the board of chiropractic examiners shall have the right to practice the science known as chiropractic, in accordance with the method, thought, and practice of chiropractors, but shall not prescribe for or administer to any person any medicine or drugs, nor practice osteopathy or surgery.

1917, c. 73, s. 12.

6723. Registration of license. Any person desiring to engage in the practice of chiropractic, having first obtained a license as herein provided, shall appear before the clerk of the superior court of the county in which he resides, or proposes to practice, for registration as a chiropractor. He shall produce and exhibit to the said clerk a license obtained from the board of chiropractic examiners, and upon such exhibition the clerk shall register the name and residence of the applicant, giving the date of such registration, in a book to be kept for the purpose of registering chiropractors, and shall issue to him a certification of such registration under the seal of the superior court of such county, for which the clerk shall be entitled to collect from said applicant a fee of fifty cents. The person obtaining such certificate shall be entitled to practice chiropractic anywhere in this state; but if he shall remove his residence to another county, he shall exhibit said certificate to the clerk of the superior court of such other county and be registered. Any one receiving a temporary license as provided in this article shall not be entitled to register, but may practice anywhere in this state during the time such temporary license shall be in force.

6724. Licensed chiropractors may practice in public hospitals. A licensed chiropractor in this state may have access to and practice chiropractic in any hospital or sanitarium in this state that receives aid or support from the public.

1919, c. 148, s. 3.

6725. Grounds for refusal or revocation of license. The board of chiropractic examiners may refuse to grant or may revoke a license to practice chiropractic in this state, upon the following grounds: immoral conduct, bad character, the conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude, habitual intemperance in the use of ardent spirits, narcotics, or stimulants to such an extent as to incapacitate him or her for the performance of such professional duties.

6726. Annual fee for renewal of license. All persons practicing chiropractic in this state shall, on or before the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January in each year after licenses issued to them as herein provided, pay to the secretary of the board of chiropractic examiners a renewal license fee of two dollars, the payment of which, and a receipt from the secretary of the board, shall work a renewal of the license fee for twelve months.

6727. Pay of board and authorized expenditures. The members of the board of chiropractic examiners shall receive their actual expenses, including railroad fare and hotel bills, when meeting for the purpose of holding examinations, and performing any other duties placed upon them by this article, such expenses to be paid by the treasurer of the board out of the moneys received by him as license fees, or from renewal fees. The board shall also expend out of such fund so much as may be necessary for preparing licenses, securing seal, and all other necessary expenses in connection with the duties of the board.

6728. Chiropractors subject to state and municipal regulations. Chiropractors shall observe and be subject to all state and municipal regulations relating to the control of contagious and infectious diseases.

1917, c. 73, s. 17.

ART. 7. TRAINED NURSES

6729. Board of examiners and inspector of training schools. A board of examiners of trained nurses, composed of five members, two physicians and three registered nurses, to be elected by the medical society of the state of North Carolina and the North Carolina state nurses' association, respectively, except the first board, is hereby created, to be known by the title "The Board of Examiners of Trained Nurses of North Carolina." Each member of said board shall serve a term of three years or until his or her successor is appointed, except the first board elected under this article, the members of which shall be and serve as follows: For terms expiring July the first, nineteen hundred and nineteen, or until their successors are qualified, Julia Libby, R.N., of Mecklenburg, and Delia Dixon-Carroll, M.D., of Wake; for terms expiring July the first, nineteen hundred and twenty, or until their successors are qualified, Lois Toomer, R.N., of New Hanover; Maria P. Allen, R.N., of Burke; and Thompson Fraser, M.D., of Buncombe. The board shall fill any vacancy for an unexpired term. An inspector of training schools for nurses shall be annually appointed by the North Carolina state nurses' association, who shall report annually to the board of examiners. Said inspector shall be a registered nurse, her duties and compensation to be fixed by the board of nurse examiners.

6730. Board; organization; officers; compensation; expenses. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum, two of whom shall be nurses. The board shall adopt and have custody of a seal and shall frame by-laws and regulations for its own government and for the execution of the provisions of this article. The officers of said board shall be a president and a secretary-treasurer, both to be elected from its nurse members. The treasurer shall give bond in such sum as may be fixed in the by-laws, and the premium therefor to be paid from the treasury of said board. The members of the board of examiners shall each receive as compensation for his or her services four dollars per diem and actual traveling and hotel expenses. The secretary-treasurer may receive an additional salary, to be fixed by the board, not to exceed two hundred and fifty dollars per annum, said expenses and salaries to be paid from fees received by the board under the provisions of this article, and in no case to be charged upon the treasury of the state. All moneys received in excess of said allowance, and other expenses provided for, shall be held by the secretary-treasurer for the expenses of the board and for extending nursing education in the state.

6731. Meetings for examinations; prerequisites of applicants. The board of examiners of trained nurses of North Carolina shall convene not less frequently than once annually and at any time ten or more applicants shall notify the secretary that they desire an examination. Thirty days prior to such meetings notice, stating time and place of examinations, shall be published in one nursing journal and three daily state papers. At such meetings it shall be the duty of the board of examiners to examine graduate nurses applying for license to practice their profession in North Carolina. An applicant must prove to the satisfaction of the board that he or she is twenty-one years of age, is of good moral character, and has received at least one year high school education or its equivalent. Applicants shall have graduated from a training school for nurses connected with a general hospital where a systematic course of practical and theoretical instruction covering a period of three years is given in the hospital, or from a training school connected with small or special hospitals and sanatoria meeting the aforesaid requirements by affiliation with one or more training schools. Training schools for nurses may give such credits for college work on the three-year course as they may deem wise, such credits not to total more than one year for any one person.

6732. Scope of examinations; fees; licensing. Examinations shall be held in anatomy, physiology, materia medica, dietetics, hygiene, and elementary bacteriology, obstetrical, medical, and surgical nursing, nursing of children, contagious diseases and ethics of nursing, and such other subjects as may be prescribed by the examining board. The subject of contagious diseases may be given in theory only. If on examination the applicant should be found competent, the board shall grant a license, authorizing him or her to register as herein provided, and to use the title "Registered Nurse," signified by the letters "R. N." Before an applicant shall be permitted to take such an examination he or she shall pay to the secretary of the examining board an examination fee of ten dollars. In the event of the failure of applicant to pass examination, one-half of the above-named fee shall be returned to applicant.

6733. Licenses without examination. The board shall have authority to issue licenses, without examination, to nurses registered in other states, provided that said states shall maintain an equivalent standard of registration requirements. The examination fee shall accompany each such application for license.

1917, c. 17, s. 5.

6734. Only licensed nurses to practice; provisos. On and after the ratification of this article all "trained," "graduate," "licensed," or "registered" nurses must obtain license from the nurses' examining board before practicing their profession in this state, and before using the abbreviation "R. N." must obtain a certificate of registration from the clerk of the superior court of any county as hereinafter provided: Provided, that all nurses graduating prior to the ratification of this article who shall show to the satisfaction of the board of examiners that they are graduates, in good standing, and were engaged in the profession of nursing in the state of North Carolina before the ratification of this article, shall be entitled to registration without examination and without the payment of the examination fee, provided such application be made before June first, nineteen hundred and seventeen. This article shall not apply to nurses who began their training course prior to the second day of February, nineteen hundred and seventeen, and who apply for examination on or before the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen. It is provided, furthermore, that nothing contained in this section shall be construed as a requirement for renewal of license or registration of nurses already licensed and registered in North Carolina.

6735. Certain persons not affected by this article. This article shall not be construed to affect or apply to the gratuitous nursing of the sick by friends or members of the family, or any hospital or sanatorium that send their nurses into private homes or elsewhere for hire during the time they are in said institution taking training, or to any person taking care of the sick for hire, who does not represent himself or herself or in any way assume to practice as a "trained," "graduate," "licensed," or "registered nurse."

1917, c. 17, s. 7.

6736. Registration of nurses. The clerk of the superior court of any county, upon presentation to him of a license from the state board of nurse examiners, issued at a date not more than twelve months previous, shall enter the date of registration and the name and residence of the holder thereof in a book to be kept in his office for this purpose and marked "Record of Registered Nurses," and shall issue to the applicant a certificate of such registration, under the seal of the superior court of the county, upon a form to be prescribed by the board of examiners. For such registration he shall charge a fee of fifty cents.

6737. Revocation of licenses. The board shall have power to revoke the license of any registered nurse upon conviction of gross incompetence, dishonesty, intemperance, or any act derogatory to the morals or standing of the profession of nursing. No license shall be revoked except upon charges preferred. The accused shall be furnished a written copy of such charge and given not less than twenty days notice of the time and place when said board shall accord a full and fair hearing on the same. Upon the revocation of a license and certificate, the name of the holder thereof shall be stricken from the roll of registered nurses in the hands of the secretary of the board, and by the clerk of the superior court from his register, upon notification of such action by said secretary.

6738. Violation of article misdemeanor. Any person procuring license under this article by false representation or who shall refuse to surrender a license which has been revoked in the manner prescribed in the preceding section, or who shall use the title "trained," "graduate," "licensed" or "registered nurse," or the abbreviation "R.N." without having first obtained a license, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days. Each act shall constitute a new offense.

Rev., s. 3656; 1917, c. 17, s. 10.

6739. Training school for nurses at Sanatorium. The state sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis, located at Sanatorium, North Carolina, is hereby authorized and power is hereby expressly given it to organize and conduct a training school for nurses in connection with the said sanatorium. The superintendent of the North Carolina sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis shall be ex officio dean of the training school for nurses, and he shall have power and authority to appoint such faculty, prescribe such course or courses of lectures, study and clinical work, and award such diplomas, certificates, or other evidence of the completion of such course or courses as he may think wise and proper, and perform such other functions and do such other acts as he may think necessary in the conduct of the said training school.

6740. Colored nurses for colored patients. In every public and private hospital, sanatorium, and institution in North Carolina where colored patients are admitted for treatment and where nurses are employed it shall be mandatory upon the management of every such hospital, sanatorium, and institution to employ colored nurses to care for and wait upon colored patients.

Every person, firm, or corporation violating the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined the sum of fifty dollars for each and every offense.

1915, c. 284.

ART. 8. FEMALE STUDENTS IN MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTIONS

6741. Definitions. 1. The words "medical and surgical institution" in this article shall mean any and all hospitals, sanitariums, sanatoriums, or any other institution whose purpose it is to care for the sick in this state.

2. The word "student" in this article shall mean any and all female persons engaged in the care of the sick in any medical or surgical institution in this state: Provided, this article shall not apply to registered nurses.

6742. Hours on duty per week and day. No medical or surgical institution nor the agent or employee of the same in this state shall require, or cause to be required, any student to remain on duty for more than eighty hours in any week, or to remain on duty for a longer period than twelve hours in any day of twenty-four hours, except in special and emergency cases. In such cases any student may be required to remain on duty for a period of sixteen hours in twenty-four: Provided, that sleeping facilities are furnished in the room in which special duty is required, and that an opportunity is given to the student to sleep for at least half the period on special duty.

6743. Reduction of pay forbidden. No medical or surgical institution, or the agent or employee of the same, in this state shall require or cause to be required any student to receive less for her services than she is receiving on June first, nineteen hundred and seventeen.

1917, c. 181, s. 6.

6744. Orders in conflict with article forbidden. No medical or surgical institution, or agent or employee of the same, in this state shall issue, orally or in writing, any orders conflicting in any way with the provisions of this article.

1917, c. 181, s. 7.

6745. Seats to be furnished. It shall be the duty of every medical or surgical institution in this state, or the agent or employee in charge of the same, to furnish comfortable seats for all students for their use while not actively engaged in the care of their patients.

1917, c. 181, s. 8.

6746. Homes to be sanitary. It shall be the duty of every medical or surgical institution in this state, or the agent or employee in charge of the same, maintaining a home for students of such institution, to keep such home properly heated, ventilated, and in a sanitary condition.

1917, c. 181, s. 9.

6747. Provisions of article to be posted. It shall be the duty of every medical or surgical institution in this state, or the agent or employee in charge of the same, to print, or cause to be printed, all the provisions of this article upon cardboard, in type large enough that a person with normal sight can read the same at a distance of six feet. It shall be the further duty of such institution or persons in charge of the same to post or have posted a copy of this article upon the wall of every room and ward in which patients are placed.

6748. Violation of article misdemeanor. Any medical or surgical institution, or the agent or employee of the same, in this state violating the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or imprisoned, in the discretion of the judge presiding: Provided, that each violation of any of the provisions of this article shall constitute a separate offense.

6749. Health officer to inspect semiannually and report for prosecution. The city health officer, if there is such an officer, and if not, the county health officer, in the city or county in which any medical or surgical institution is situated, is hereby empowered and authorized to make personal investigation and inspection semiannually, on or about the first day of July and the first day of January in each year next after the passage of this act, of such institutions and homes of students of such institutions, and it shall be the duty of such health officer to report to the prosecuting attorney in the city or county recorder's court, if there be such court, and if not, to the solicitor of the judicial district, any violations of any of the provisions of this article, furnishing to such prosecuting attorney or solicitor any and all information which will aid in the conviction of the institution or institutions, person or persons violating the provisions of this article.

1917, c. 181, s. 12.

ART. 9. MIDWIVES

6750. Midwives to register. All persons, other than regularly registered physicians, practicing midwifery in this state shall register, without fee, their names and addresses with the secretary of the North Carolina state board of health, as required by the provisions of article 14, entitled Inflammation of Eyes of New-born, of the chapter Public Health.

1917, c. 257, ss. 8, 9.

NOTE.—For penalty for failure to register, see Public Health, s. 7187.

6751. Persons forbidden to practice midwifery. It shall be unlawful for any person who habitually gets drunk, or who is addicted to the excessive use of cocaine or morphine or other opium derivative, to practice midwifery for a fee.

1911, c. 34, s. 1.

6752. Disinfection of hands of practitioners. It shall be unlawful for any midwife or other person who practices midwifery for fees to touch or otherwise handle the private parts of the person of any patient upon whom such person is in attendance unless the person so in attendance shall first and immediately previous thereto thoroughly wash and disinfect his or her hands.

1911, c. 34, s. 2.

6753. Violation of two preceding sections misdemeanor. Any person violating the two preceding sections shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than five nor more than ten dollars.

1911, c. 34, s. 4.

NOTE.—For duty of midwives to disinfect eyes of newborn, see Public Health, art. 14.

ART. 10. VETERINARIES

6754. State veterinary medical association incorporated. The association of veterinary surgeons and physicians calling themselves the North Carolina state veterinary medical association is declared to be a body politic and corporate under the name and style of The North Carolina State Veterinary Medical Association.

Rev., s. 5431; 1903, c. 503.

6755. Board of veterinary medical examiners; appointment; membership; organization. In order to properly regulate the practice of veterinary medicine and surgery there shall be a board to be known as the North Carolina board of veterinary medical examiners, to consist of five members of the North Carolina veterinary medical association. The governor shall annually appoint one member of such board, who shall hold his office for five years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. Every person so appointed shall, within thirty days after notice of appointment, appear before the clerk of the superior court of the county in which he resides and take oath to faithfully discharge the duties of his office.

Rev., s. 5432; 1903, c. 503, s. 2.

6756. Meeting of board; powers. The board of examiners shall meet at least once a year at such times and places as the association may decide upon, and remain in session sufficiently long to examine all who may make application at the appointed time for a license. Three members of said board shall constitute a quorum. The board of examiners shall elect a president and a secretary, who shall also perform the duties of a treasurer. They shall keep a regular record of their proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall always be open for inspection, and shall keep a record of all applicants for a certificate and of all who are granted a certificate, and shall publish the names of the successful applicants at least once each year in two newspapers published in the state. The board shall have authority to adopt such by-laws and regulations as may be necessary.

Rev., s. 5433; 1903, c. 503, ss. 3, 4, 6, 7.

6757. Compensation of board. The members of such board shall receive such compensation for their services, not to exceed four dollars per day, and their traveling expenses, as the association may decide upon, to be paid by the secretary of the board out of any money coming into his hands as secretary. None of the expenses of the board or of the members shall be paid by the state.

Rev., s. 5434; 1903, c. 503, s. 9.

6758. Examination and licensing of veterinaries. The board of examiners shall, at their annual meeting, examine all applicants who desire license to practice veterinary medicine or surgery. If upon such examination the applicant be found to possess sufficient skill to practice veterinary medicine or surgery, and of good moral character, a license or certificate shall be issued to him. No certificate shall be granted except with a concurrence of a majority of the members present. To prevent delay and inconvenience two members of the board of examiners may grant a temporary certificate to practice veterinary medicine or surgery, which shall be in force only until the next regular meeting of the board of examiners, but in no case shall such temporary certificate be granted to any person who has been an unsuccessful applicant for a certificate before the board. The board shall have power to require each applicant to pay a fee of not more than ten dollars before issuing a certificate and five dollars before issuing a temporary certificate.

Rev., s. 5435; 1903, c. 503, ss. 3, 5, 8.

6759. Rescission of license. The board shall have power to rescind any certificate that may have been granted by it or annul any registration made under this article, upon satisfactory proof that the person thus licensed has been guilty of grossly immoral conduct or malpractice as determined by the board. And it shall be the duty of said board to furnish any information pertaining to the practice of veterinary medicine or surgery upon application for same by any one practicing under this article.

Rev., s. 5436; 1903, c. 503, s. 10.

6760. Practitioners before one thousand nine hundred and three. All persons who have been practicing veterinary medicine or surgery previous to the first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and three, shall be allowed to practice veterinary medicine or surgery in this state: Provided, they make affidavit to the effect that they have practiced veterinary medicine or surgery as a profession previous to the said date, and have had their names registered in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the county in which they reside on or before June first, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, in a book that shall be kept for that purpose.

Rev., s. 5437; 1903, c. 503, s. 11; 1905, c. 320; 1913, c. 129; 1919, c. 94.

6761. When may practice without license. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit any member of the medical profession from prescribing for domestic animals in cases of emergency and collecting a fee therefor, nor to prohibit gratuitous services by any person in an emergency, nor to prevent any person from practicing veterinary medicine or surgery on any animal belonging to himself, or to prevent any one from castrating or spaying any of the domestic animals. And this article shall not apply to commissioned veterinary surgeons in the United States army.

Rev., s. 5438; 1903, c. 503, s. 12.

6762. Violation of article misdemeanor. Any person practicing veterinary surgery or medicine in this state, without first having complied with the provisions of this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than fifty dollars or imprisoned not less than thirty days, in the discretion of the court.

1913, c. 129, s. 2.

ART. 11. CHIROPODISTS

6763. Chiropody defined. Chiropody (podiatry) as defined by this article is the surgical, medical and mechanical treatment of all ailments of the human foot, except the correction of deformities requiring the use of the knife, amputation of the foot or toes, or the use of an anesthetic other than local.

1919, c. 78, s. 2.

6764. Unlawful to practice unless registered. On and after the first of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, it shall be unlawful for any person to practice or attempt to practice chiropody (podiatry) in this state or to hold himself out as a chiropodist (podiatrist) or to designate himself or describe his occupation by the use of any words or letters calculated to lead others to believe that he is a chiropodist (podiatrist) unless he is duly registered as provided in this article.

1919, c. 78, s. 1.

6765. Board of chiropody examiners; how appointed; terms of office. There shall be established a board of chiropody (podiatry) examiners for the state of North Carolina. This board shall consist of three members who shall be appointed by the North Carolina pedic association. All of such members shall be chiropodists who have practiced chiropody in North Carolina for a period of not less than one year. The members of the board shall be appointed by said association for a term of three years: Provided, the members of the first board shall be appointed to hold office for one, two and three years respectively, and one member shall be appointed annually thereafter by said association. The board shall have authority to elect its own presiding and other officers.

6766. Applicants to be examined; examination fee; requirements. Any person not heretofore authorized to practice chiropody (podiatry) in this state shall file with the board of chiropody examiners an application for examination accompanied by a fee of twenty-five dollars, together with proof that the applicant is more than twenty-one years of age, is of good moral character, and has obtained a preliminary education equivalent to two years instruction in a high school; on and after January first, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, three years instruction in a high school or its equivalent; and on and after January first, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, four years instruction in a high school or its equivalent. Such applicant, before presenting himself for examination, must be a graduate of a legally incorporated school of chiropody (podiatry) acceptable to the board.

1919, c. 78, s. 9.

6767. Examinations; subjects; certificates. The board of chiropody examiners shall hold at least one examination annually for the purpose of examining applicants under this article. The examinations shall be held at such time and place as the board may see fit, and notice of the same shall be published in one or more newspapers in the state. The board may make such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary to conduct its examinations and meetings. It shall provide such books, blanks and forms as may be necessary to conduct such examinations, and shall preserve and keep a complete record of all its transactions. Examinations for registration under this article shall be in the English language and shall be written, oral, or clinical, or a combination of written, oral, or clinical, as the board may determine, and shall be in the following subjects wholly or in part: Anatomy, physiology, pathology, bacteriology, chemistry, diagnosis and treatment, therapeutics, clinical chiropody and asepsis; limited in their scope to the treatment of the foot. No applicant shall be granted a certificate unless he obtains a general average of seventy-five or over, and not less than fifty per cent in any one subject. After such examination the board shall, without unnecessary delay, act on same and issue certificates to the successful candidates, signed by each member of the board; and the board of chiropody examiners shall report annually to the North Carolina pedic association.

6768. Reëxamination of unsuccessful applicants. An applicant failing to pass his examination shall within one year be entitled to reëxamination upon the payment of two dollars, but not more than two reëxaminations shall be allowed any one applicant. Should he fail to pass his third examination he shall file a new application before he can again be examined.

1919, c. 78, s. 6.

6769. Practitioners before enactment of this article; certificates. Every person who is engaged in the practice of chiropody (podiatry) in this state one year next prior to the enactment of this article shall file with the board of chiropody examiners on or before the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, a written application for a certificate to practice chiropody (podiatry), together with proof satisfactory to the board that the applicant is more than twenty-one years of age and has been practicing chiropody in this state for a period of more than one year next prior to the passage of this article, and upon the payment of a fee of ten dollars the said board of chiropody examiners shall issue to such applicant a certificate to practice chiropody (podiatry) in this state.

6770. Certificates to registered chiropodists of other states. Applicants registered or certified by examiners of other states whose requirements are equal to those of this state may, upon the payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars, be granted a certificate without examination: Provided, that the provisions of this section shall be extended only to those states which extend to this state the same privilege.

1919, c. 78, s. 8.

6771. Certificates filed with clerk of court; clerk to keep record. Every person receiving a certificate from the board shall file the same with the clerk of the court of the city or county in which he resides. It shall be the duty of the clerk to register the name and address and date of the certificate in a book kept for such purpose as a part of the records of his office, and the number of the book and the page therein containing said recorded copy shall appear on the face of the certificate over the name of the clerk recording the same. The person thus registering shall pay to the clerk a fee of fifty cents.

1919, c. 78, s. 7.

6772. Revocation of certificates; grounds for; suspension of certificate. The board of chiropody examiners may revoke by a majority vote of its members any certificate it has issued, and cause the name of the holder to be stricken from the book of the registration by the clerk of the court in the city or county in which the name of the person whose certificate is revoked is registered, for any of the following causes:

1. The wilful betrayal of a professional secret.
2. Any person who in any affidavit required of the applicant for certificate, registration, or examination under this article shall make a false statement.
3. Any person convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude.
4. Any person habitually indulging in the use of narcotics, ardent spirits, stimulants or any other substance which impairs intellect and judgment to such an extent as in the opinion of the board to incapacitate such person for the performance of his professional duties.

Any person against whom charges have been made shall be notified of the fact and a copy of the charges shall be sent him by the board, and he shall be given a fair and impartial trial by the board, whose decisions shall be made by a majority vote of its members.

The board may suspend any certificate granted under this article for a period not exceeding six months on account of any misconduct on the part of the person registered which would not, in the judgment of the board, justify the revocation of his certificate.

6773. Fees for certificates and examinations; compensation of board. To provide a fund in order to carry out the provisions of this article the board shall charge ten dollars for each certificate issued and fifteen dollars for each examination. From such funds all expenses and salaries, not exceeding four dollars per diem for each day actually spent and actual railroad expenses in addition, shall be paid by the board: Provided, that at no time shall the expenses exceed the cash balance on hand.

1919, c. 78, s. 14.

6774. Unlawful practice of chiropody a misdemeanor. Any person who shall practice or attempt to practice chiropody (podiatry) in this state without having complied with the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, or shall be imprisoned for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days. Nothing in this article shall be construed to interfere with physicians in the discharge of their professional duties.

1919, c. 78, s. 10.

6775. Sheriffs and police to report violators of this article. It shall be the duty of the police department of the cities and the sheriff of each county in the state to see that all practitioners of chiropody (podiatry) in the state are legally registered according to the provisions of this article, and to report to the state's attorney of the city or county all cases of violation of this article; whereupon the state's attorney shall promptly prosecute those violating the provisions of this article.

1919, c. 78, s. 11.

6776. Provisions of this article to be published. Within thirty days after the enactment of this article the board of chiropody examiners shall give notice of the provisions of this article by publishing the same or an abstract thereof in two or more newspapers published in this state.

1919, c. 78, s. 4.

ART. 12. EMBALMERS

6777. State board; election; qualifications; term; vacancies. The State board of embalmers shall consist of five members, elected by the state board of health, three of whom shall be members of the state board of health, the other two shall be practical embalmers, having experience in the care and disposition of dead human bodies. One member of such board shall be elected in June, one thousand nine hundred and five, and annually thereafter during the month of June one member of such board shall be elected. The term of office shall begin on the first day of July next after the election, and continue for five years. The state board of health shall fill all vacancies in such board.

Rev., s. 4384; 1901, c. 338, ss. 1, 2, 3.

6778. Members; removal; oath. The state board of health shall have power to remove from office any member of said board for neglect of duty, incompetency, or improper conduct. The state board of health shall furnish each person appointed to serve on the state board of embalmers a certificate of appointment. The appointees shall qualify by taking and subscribing to the usual oath of office before some person authorized to administer oaths, within ten days after said appointment has been made, which oath shall be filed with the board of embalmers.

Rev., s. 4385; 1901, c. 338, ss. 3, 4.

6779. Common seal; powers. The board shall adopt a common seal, and shall have all the powers and privileges conferred on it by the laws of the state.

Rev., s. 4386; 1901, c. 338, s. 6.

6780. Meetings; quorum; by-laws; officers; president to administer oaths. The board shall meet at least once every year, during the month of July, at such place as it may determine. Three members shall constitute a quorum. At each annual meeting the board from its members shall select a president and a secretary, who shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors are elected. The board shall, from time to time, adopt rules, regulations, and by-laws not inconsistent with the laws of this state or of the United States, whereby the performance of the duties of such board and the practice of embalming of dead human bodies shall be regulated. The president of the board (and in his absence a president pro tempore elected by the members present) is authorized to administer oaths to witnesses testifying before the board.

Rev., s. 4387; 1901, c. 338, ss. 5, 6, 7, 8.

6781. Grant and renewal of licenses; fees; license displayed. Every person not licensed as an embalmer, now engaged or desiring to engage in the practice of embalming dead human bodies, shall make written application to the state board of embalmers for a license, accompanying the same with a license fee of five dollars, whereupon the applicant shall present himself before the board at a time and place to be fixed by the board, and if the board shall find, upon due examination, that the applicant is of good moral character, possessed of skill and knowledge of said science of embalming and the care and disposition of the dead, and has a responsible knowledge of sanitation and the disinfection of bodies of deceased persons and the apartment, clothing, and bedding, in case of death from infectious or contagious diseases, and has had a special course in embalming in an approved school, or two years practical experience with a licensed and practical embalmer, who shall make affidavit upon the application that said applicant has had such experience under him, the board shall issue to such applicant a license to practice the art of embalming and the care and disposition of the dead, and shall register such applicant as a duly licensed embalmer. Such license shall be signed by a majority of the board and attested by its seal. All persons receiving a license under the provisions of this article shall also register the fact at the office of the board of health of the city, and where there is no board of health, with the clerk of the superior court in the county or counties in which it is proposed to carry on said practice, and shall display said license in a conspicuous place in the office of such licentiate. Every registered embalmer who desires to continue the practice of his profession shall annually, during the time he shall continue in such practice, on such day as the board may determine, pay to the secretary of the board a fee of two dollars for the renewal registration.

Rev., s. 4388; 1901, c. 338, ss. 9, 10; 1917, c. 36; 1919, c. 88.

6782. Embalming without license. If any person shall practice or hold himself out as practicing the art of embalming, without having complied with the provisions of this article, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense.

Rev., s. 3644; 1901, c. 338, s. 14.

6783. Expenses and salaries of board. All expenses, salary, and per diem to members of this board shall be paid from fees received under the provisions of this article, and shall in no manner be an expense to the state. All moneys received in excess of said per diem allowance and other expenses provided for shall be held by the secretary of said board as a special fund for meeting the expenses of said board.

Rev., s. 4389; 1901, c. 338, s. 11.

6784. Embalming schools have privileges of medical schools as to cadavers. Schools for teaching embalming shall have extended to them the same privileges as to the use of bodies for dissection while teaching as those granted to medical colleges.

Rev., s. 4390; 1901, c. 338, s. 15.

ART. 13. CADAVERS FOR MEDICAL SCHOOLS

6785. Board for distribution. The professors of anatomy of the several medical schools of the state shall be a board for the distribution of dead human bodies for the purpose of promoting the study of anatomy in this state, and shall have power to make proper rules for its government and the discharge of its functions under this article.

Rev., s. 4287; 1903, c. 666, s. 1.

6786. What bodies to be furnished. All officers, agents, or servants of the state of North Carolina or of any county or town having charge or control of any dead human body required to be buried at public expense, or of the dead body of any person who at the time of death was under sentence of death or imprisonment at hard labor for the violation of the criminal laws of the state, shall, upon the request of the board or its authorized agent, deliver such dead body to any one designated by the board for the purpose aforesaid: Provided, such body be not claimed within thirty-six hours, to be disposed of without expense to the state, county, or town, by any relative within the second degree of consanguinity, or by the husband or wife of such deceased person: Provided further, that the body of a Confederate soldier or of the wife of a Confederate soldier shall be excepted from the provisions of this article, and that the body of no white person shall be delivered to any school for the colored race.

This section shall not apply to the dead bodies of persons who are inmates of state hospitals, or to the bodies of travelers or strangers who die suddenly, or to the bodies of persons who die in the state schools for the blind or the deaf and dumb, or any other state school, or in county homes.

Rev., s. 4288; 1903, c. 666, s. 2; 1911, c. 188.

6787. How bodies distributed. The bodies obtained under this article shall be distributed among the several medical schools in proportion to the number of students studying anatomy in such schools. Upon the written application of the professor of anatomy, or his accredited representative, of any medical school established by law in the state, the person or persons having charge or control of said dead body or bodies, as specified, shall give such professor of anatomy, or his accredited representative, permission to take, at the expiration of twenty-four hours after death, the body or bodies of such persons, to be used within the state for the advancement of anatomical science; and it shall be the duty of any professor of anatomy receiving such body or bodies to immediately report this fact to the secretary of the anatomical board. If any medical school, in the operation of this section, shall obtain more than its equitable proportion of bodies, as determined by the said secretary, then two-thirds of such excess shall be shipped to some other medical school in the state, to be designated by the secretary of the anatomical board.

Rev., s. 4289; 1903, c. 666, s. 3; 1911, c. 188.

6788. Bodies to be embalmed. The bodies obtained under this article shall be embalmed before being used for the purposes of dissection.

Rev., s. 4290; 1903, c. 666, s. 4.

6789. How expenses paid. All expenses for the delivery, distribution, and embalming of such dead bodies shall be borne by the medical school receiving same, and in no case shall the state or any county or town be liable therefor.

Rev., s. 4291; 1903, c. 666, s. 5.

6790. Violation of article misdemeanor. If any person shall fail or refuse to perform any duty imposed upon him by this article he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Rev., s. 3567; 1903, c. 666, s. 6.

ART. 1. CLASSIFICATION OF MILITIA

6791. Composition of militia. The militia of the state shall consist of all able-bodied male citizens of the United States and all other able-bodied males who have or shall have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, who shall be more than eighteen years of age and, except as hereinafter provided, not more than forty-five years of age, and the militia shall be divided into three classes: the national guard, the naval militia, and the unorganized militia.

1917, c. 200, s. 1.

6792. Composition of national guard. The national guard shall consist of the regularly enlisted militia between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, organized, armed, and equipped as hereinafter provided, and of commissioned officers between the ages of twenty-one and sixty-four years.

1917, c. 200, s. 2.

6793. Composition of naval militia. The naval militia shall consist of the regularly enlisted militia between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, organized, armed, and equipped as hereinafter provided, and commissioned officers between the ages of twenty-one and sixty-two years (naval branch), and twenty-one and sixty-four years (marine corps branch); but enlisted men may continue in the service after the age of forty-five years, and until the age of sixty-two years (naval branch), or sixty-four years (marine corps branch), provided the service is continuous.

1917, c. 200, s. 3.

See Winslow v. Morton, 118-486.

6794. Composition of unorganized militia. The unorganized militia shall consist of all other able-bodied male citizens of the state and all other able-bodied males who have or shall have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, who shall be more than eighteen years of age, and, except as otherwise provided by law, not more than forty-five years of age.

1917, c. 200, s. 4.

6795. Exemption from military duty. The officers, judicial and executive, of the government of the United States and of the state of North Carolina, persons in the military or naval service of the United States, custom-house clerks, persons employed by the United States in the transmission of the mail, artificers and workmen employed in the armories, arsenals, and navy yards of the United States, pilots, mariners actually employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States, shall be exempt from military duty without regard to age, and all persons who, because of religious belief, shall claim exemption from military service, if the conscientious holding of such belief by such person shall be established under such regulations as the president shall prescribe, shall be exempted from militia service in a combatant capacity; but no person so exempted shall be exempt from militia service in any capacity that the president shall declare to be noncombatant.

6796. White and colored enrolled separately. The white and colored militia shall be separately enrolled, and shall never be compelled to serve in the same organization. No organization of colored troops shall be permitted where white troops are available, and while permitted to be organized, colored troops shall be under command of white officers.

1917, c. 200, s. 6.

6797. Maintenance of other troops. In time of peace the state shall maintain only such troops as may be authorized by the president of the United States; but nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed as limiting the rights of the state in the use of the national guard within its borders in time of peace. Nothing contained in this chapter shall prevent the organization and maintenance of state police or constabulary.

6798. Corps entitled to retain privileges. Any corps of artillery, cavalry, or infantry existing in the state on the passage of the act of congress of May eighth, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, which by the laws, customs, or usages of the state has been in continuous existence since the passage of such act, under its provisions and under the provisions of section two hundred and thirty-two and sections one thousand six hundred and twenty-five to one thousand six hundred and sixty, both inclusive, of title sixteen of the revised statutes of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three and the act of congress of January twenty-first, one thousand nine hundred and three, relating to the militia, shall be allowed to retain its ancient privileges, subject, nevertheless, to all duties required by law of the militia; but such organizations may be a part of the national guard, and entitled to all the privileges of this chapter, and shall conform in all respects to the organization, discipline, and training of the national guard in time of war. For purposes of training and when on active duty in the service of the United States they may be assigned to higher units, as the president may direct, and shall be subject to the orders of officers under whom they shall be serving.

1917, c. 200, s. 87.

ART. 2. GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

6799. Governor as commander-in-chief. The governor shall be commander-in-chief, and shall have power to call out the militia to execute the law, suppress riots or insurrections, and to repel invasions.

1917, c. 200, s. 11.

Const., Art. 12, s. 3; 1907, c. 316. For powers of governor as commander-in-chief, see Winslow v. Morton, 118-486; Worth, Treas., v. Comrs., 118-112.

For power of president of United States over state militia, see Winslow v. Morton, 118-486.

6800. Commander-in-chief to prescribe regulations. The commander-in-chief shall have the power and it shall be his duty from time to time to issue such orders and to prescribe such regulations relating to the organization of the national guard and naval militia as will cause the same at all times to conform to the federal requirements of the United States government relating thereto.

6801. Division of military staff. The military staff shall be divided into two kinds: the personal staff of the governor and the administrative staff. The governor may detail from the active list not more than ten national guard officers and two naval militia officers, who shall in addition to their regular duties perform the duties of aides-de-camp on the personal staff of the governor. There shall be an administrative staff which shall be as is now or may from time to time be authorized by the secretary of war for the national guard and the secretary of the navy for the naval militia.

6802. Adjutant general. The governor shall appoint an adjutant general, who shall have had not less than five years commissioned service in the national guard, naval militia, regular army, United States navy or marine corps; but while holding such office the adjutant general shall not be a member of the active national guard or naval militia.

6803. Adjutant general's department. There shall be an adjutant general's department. The adjutant general shall be the head of the department and as such subordinate only to the governor in matters pertaining thereto. He shall make such returns and reports to the secretary of war and secretary of the navy or to such officers as the secretary of war and secretary of the navy may designate, at such times and in such form as may from time to time be prescribed. He shall keep a record of all officers and enlisted men, and shall also keep in his office all records and papers required by law or regulations to be filed therein. He shall make an annual report to the governor on or before the thirty-first day of December of each year, including a detailed statement of all expenditures made for military purposes during that year. He shall also make a biennial report to the general assembly. He shall cause the military laws, the regulations governing the national guard and naval militia, and the articles of war and articles for the government of the navy to be printed, indexed, and bound in proper and compact form and distributed to the commissioned officers of the state at the rate of one copy for each officer. He shall cause to be prepared and issued all books, blank forms, etc., required to carry into full effect the provisions of this statute. All such books and blank forms shall be and remain the property of the state. The adjutant general shall perform such other duties not herein specified as may be required by the military laws and regulations or by the governor. The adjutant general shall be allowed all such necessary expenses as may be incurred for printing, postage, stationery, blank books, orders, and reports required in his office, the same to constitute a charge against the general fund. The adjutant general may have an assistant who shall be detailed from the adjutant general's department of the administrative staff, and such clerks and employees as may be prescribed by the governor. An officer detailed as such assistant shall receive during the period of such service such compensation as may be authorized by the governor. The pay of such officer shall constitute a charge against the whole sum appropriated annually for the support of the national guard.

6804. Property and disbursing officer for the United States. The governor of the state shall appoint, designate, or detail, subject to the approval of the secretary of war, an officer of the national guard of the state, who shall be regarded as property and disbursing officer for the United States. In consideration of his services, for the care, responsibility, and issue of federal property, the property and disbursing officer for the United States shall receive from the state such salary as the governor may authorize to be just and proper; the salary to constitute a charge upon the military fund of the state; but such salary shall in no case exceed the sum of one thousand dollars. When ordered into actual service and receiving the pay of his rank for such service, from either state or federal funds, he shall not be entitled to, or receive, any salary from the state for the period of time for which he shall receive the pay of his rank.

6805. Property and disbursing officer for North Carolina. The governor shall appoint, designate, or detail an officer, active or retired, of the national guard or naval militia, who shall be the property and disbursing officer for the state. He shall receipt for and account for all funds and all property belonging to the state for military purposes, and shall make such returns and reports concerning the same as may be required by the governor. The state treasurer is authorized, on the requisition of the governor, to pay to the property and disbursing officer so much of the annual appropriation for the national guard as shall, in the judgment of the governor, be necessary for the purposes enumerated herein. The disbursing officer shall render through the adjutant general such accounts of state funds entrusted to him for disbursement as may be required by the state treasurer. Before entering upon the performance of his duties as property and disbursing officer he shall be required to give a good and sufficient bond to the state, the amount thereof to be determined by the governor, for the faithful performance of his duties and for the safe-keeping and proper disposition of the state property and funds entrusted to his care. He shall, after having qualified as property and disbursing officer, receive pay for his services at the rate of one thousand dollars per annum, and such compensation shall be a charge against the whole sum annually appropriated for the support of the national guard. All payments made by the property and disbursing officer for the state must first have the approval of the adjutant general, and be made upon such forms and under such rules as may be prescribed by the proper authority. All necessary blank forms, books, stationery, etc., for the use of the property and disbursing officer shall be furnished by the adjutant general's department.

6806. Inspector general. The inspector general shall annually inspect all organizations and departments in the militia at such times and places as the governor may order, and inspect and audit the accounts of all officers accountable or responsible for public funds; he will inquire as to the necessity, economy, and propriety of all disbursements, their strict conformity to the law appropriating the money, and whether the property and disbursing officer complies with the law in keeping his accounts and making his deposits. He shall make an annual report to the governor of such audits and inspections, a copy of them to be furnished the advisory board.

6807. Advisory board. There shall be an advisory board composed of the brigade commander, the commanding officer of each regiment of infantry, the commanding officer of the naval militia, the commanding officer of the coast artillery corps, the chief surgeon, and the senior officer of engineers, and senior officer of cavalry, which shall meet once each year in Raleigh at such time as ordered by the governor, and at such other times and places as may be ordered by the governor. This board shall make such recommendations to the governor as it may deem for the best interests of the militia. The adjutant general, the property and disbursing officers, and the inspector general shall furnish such information as may be requested by the board.

1917, c. 200, s. 27.

ART. 3. NATIONAL GUARD

6808. Organization of national guard units. Except as otherwise specifically provided by the laws of the United States, the organization of the national guard, including the composition of all units thereof, shall be the same as that which is or may hereafter be prescribed for the regular army, subject in time of peace to such general exceptions as may be authorized by the secretary of war.

6809. Location of units. The governor shall determine and fix the location of the units and headquarters of the national guard within the state; but no organization of the national guard, members of which shall be entitled to and shall have received compensation under the provisions of the act of congress approved June third, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, shall be disbanded without the consent of the president, nor without such consent shall the commissioned or enlisted strength of any such organization be reduced below the minimum that is now or shall be hereafter prescribed therefor by the president.

6810. Reserve battalions for recruit training. Under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the president, reserve battalions for infantry, cavalry, field artillery, and coast artillery may be organized by the commander-in-chief when organizations of the national guard have been called into the service of the United States in time of war. The organization of such reserve battalions shall be effected in the manner prescribed in section seventy-nine of the act of congress approved June third, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, or subsequent federal enactments.

6811. Officers appointed and commissioned. All officers of the national guard shall be appointed and commissioned by the governor as follows, viz.:

1. The appointment and promotion of all officers below the grade of brigadier general shall be by seniority within the organization or department; but if the total commissioned service of the senior officer is less than the total commissioned service of the next ranking officer, the names of both officers shall be forwarded to the war department, and promotion shall be based upon the result of the prescribed examination.

2. Original appointments of second lieutenants in the line or staff shall be made from the enlisted men within the organization. Candidates for such appointment shall make written application, accompanied by their military record, to the commanding officer through intermediate commanders for comment by endorsements. The commanding officer shall forward the application of the three best qualified and most promising candidates with his endorsement to the adjutant general's office for consideration by the governor.

6812. Commissions for commandants and student officers at educational institutions. The governor of the state is authorized to issue to the commandants or directors of military training at the university of North Carolina, agricultural and engineering college, North Carolina school for the deaf, at Morganton, and other colleges and schools of the state giving a military course, commissions with rank not to exceed major in the North Carolina reserve militia, and to issue to the student officers of the institutions herein named commissions with the rank not to exceed captain in the North Carolina reserve militia. The persons to whom commissions are issued under this section shall be known as cadet officers, and they shall have no connection with the national guard or other military forces of the state, nor shall they, or any of them, exercise any military authority other than in the discharge of their duties in their respective institutions.

6813. Appointment of staff officers. No person shall be appointed a staff officer, including officers of the pay, inspection, subsistence, and medical departments, unless he shall have had previous military experience, nor who shall fail to qualify as to fitness for military service under such regulations as the secretary of war shall prescribe; such officers shall hold their positions until they have reached the age of sixty-four years, unless separated from the service prior to that time by reason of resignation, disability, or for cause to be determined by a court-martial legally convened for the purpose. Vacancies among such officers shall be filled by appointment from the officers of the militia.

6814. Qualifications of national guard officers. Persons hereinafter commissioned as officers of the national guard shall not be recognized as such under any of the provisions of this chapter unless they shall have been selected from the following classes and shall have taken and subscribed to the oath of office prescribed in this article for officers: Officers or enlisted men of the national guard, officers active or retired, and former officers of the United States army, navy, and marine corps, graduates of the United States military and naval academies and graduates of schools, colleges, and universities where military science is taught under the supervision of an officer of the regular army, and, for the technical branches and staff corps or departments, such other civilians as may be especially qualified for duty therein.

6815. Test as to fitness for officers. No person shall hereafter be appointed an officer of the national guard unless he first shall have successfully passed such tests as to his physical, moral, and professional fitness as the president shall prescribe. The examination to determine such qualifications for commission shall be conducted by a board of three commissioned officers appointed by the secretary of war from the regular army or the national guard, or both.

6816. Rank according to date of commission. Commissioned officers shall take rank according to the date of their commissions. The date of appointment of an officer shall be expressed in his commission, and be considered as the date thereof. When two commissions bear the same date the officer who has had priority of rank in any lower grade shall have precedence; and if the officers have not served in a lower grade, the commander-in-chief shall designate their respective ranks. Whenever an officer shall be recommissioned in the same or lower grade than that in which he has served, his new commission shall bear such date as will give credit for time actually served under former commission.

6817. Oath of national guard officers. Commissioned officers of the national guard shall take and subscribe to the following oath of office: "I,....., do solemnly swear that I will support and defend the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of North Carolina against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I will obey the orders of the president of the United States and of the governor of the state of North Carolina; that I make this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of..... in the national guard of the United States and of the state of North Carolina, upon which I am about to enter: so help me, God."

1917, c. 200, s. 20.

6818. Elimination and disposition of officers. At any time the moral character, capacity, and general fitness for the service of any national guard officer may be determined by an efficiency board of three commissioned officers senior in rank to the officer whose fitness for service shall be under investigation, and if the findings of such board be unfavorable to such officer and be approved by the official authorized to appoint such officer, he shall be discharged. Commissions of officers of the national guard may be vacated upon resignation, absence without leave for three months, upon the recommendation of an efficiency board, or pursuant to sentence of a court-martial. Officers of such guard rendered surplus by disbandment of their organization shall be placed in the national guard reserve. Officers may, upon their own application, be placed in the reserve.

6819. Retirement of officers. When an officer reaches the age of sixty-four years he shall be retired.

1917, c. 200, s. 29.

6820. Enlistments in national guard. Hereafter the period of enlistment in the national guard shall be for six years, the first three years of which shall be in an active organization and the remaining three years in the national guard reserve, and the qualifications for enlistment shall be the same as those prescribed for admission to the regular army; but in the national guard the privilege of continuing in active service during the whole of an enlistment period and of re-enlisting in the said service shall not be denied by reason of anything contained in this chapter.

6821. Enlistment contract. Enlisted men shall not be recognized as members of the national guard until they shall have signed an enlistment contract and taken and subscribed to the following oath of enlistment: "I do hereby acknowledge to have voluntarily enlisted, this day of, 19....., as a soldier in the national guard of the United States and of the state of North Carolina, for the period of three years in service and three years in the reserve, under the conditions prescribed by law, unless sooner discharged by proper authority. And I do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America, and to the state of North Carolina, and that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever, and that I will obey the orders of the president of the United States and of the governor of the state of North Carolina, and of the officers appointed over me according to law and the rules and articles of war."

1917, c. 200, s. 31.

6822. Discharge of enlisted men. An enlisted man discharged from service in the national guard shall receive a discharge in writing in such form and with such classification as is or shall be prescribed for the regular army, and in time of peace discharges may be given prior to the expiration of terms of enlistment under such regulations as may be prescribed by proper authority.

6823. Discipline of national guard. The discipline of the national guard shall conform to the system which is now or may hereafter be prescribed for the regular army, and the training shall be carried out so as to conform to the provisions of an act of congress approved June third, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and subsequent federal enactments.

1917, c. 200, s. 33.

6824. Uniform and equipment of national guard. The national guard shall, as far as practicable, be uniformed, armed, and equipped with the same type of uniforms, arms, and equipment as is or shall be provided for the regular army.
1917, c. 200, s. 37.

6825. Courts-martial for national guard. Courts-martial for organizations of the national guard not in the service of the United States shall be of three kinds, namely, general courts-martial, special courts-martial, and summary courts-martial. They shall be constituted, have cognizance of the same subjects, and possess like powers, except as to punishments, as similar courts provided for by the law and regulations governing the army of the United States, and the proceedings of courts-martial of the national guard shall follow the forms and modes of procedure prescribed for such similar courts.

6826. General courts-martial. General courts-martial of the national guard not in the service of the United States may be convened by orders of the president, or of the governor of the state, and such courts shall have the power to impose fines not exceeding two hundred dollars; sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances; to a reprimand; to dismissal or dishonorable discharge from the service; to reduction of noncommissioned officers to the ranks; or any two or more of such punishments may be combined in the sentences imposed by such courts.

6827. Special courts-martial. In the national guard, not in the service of the United States, the commanding officer of each garrison, fort, post, camp, or other place, brigade, regiment, detached battalion, or other detached command, may appoint special courts-martial for his command; but such special courts-martial may in any case be appointed by superior authority when by the latter deemed desirable. Special courts-martial shall have power to try any person subject to military law, except a commissioned officer, for any crime or offense made punishable by the military laws of the United States; and such special courts-martial shall have the same powers of punishment as the general courts-martial, except that fines imposed by such courts shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

6828. Summary courts-martial. In the national guard, not in the service of the United States, the commanding officer of each garrison, fort, post, or other place, regiment, or corps, detached battalion, company, or other detachment of the national guard, may appoint for such place or command a summary court to consist of one officer, who shall have power to administer oaths and try the enlisted men of such place or command for breaches of discipline and violations of laws governing such organizations; and the court, when satisfied of the guilt of such soldier, may impose fines not exceeding twenty-five dollars for any single offense; may sentence noncommissioned officers to reduction to the ranks; may sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances. The proceedings of such court shall be informal, and the minutes thereof shall be the same as prescribed for summary courts of the army of the United States.
1917, c. 200, s. 58.

6829. Powers of courts-martial. All courts-martial of the national guard, not in the service of the United States, including summary courts, shall have power to sentence to confinement in lieu of fines authorized to be imposed, and shall have power to direct that upon the nonpayment of a fine the person convicted shall be confined in any county jail; but such sentences of confinement shall not exceed one day for each dollar of fine authorized.

6830. Procedure of courts-martial. In the national guard, not in the service of the United States, presidents of courts-martial and summary court officers shall have power to issue warrants to arrest accused persons and to bring them before the court for trial whenever such persons shall have disobeyed an order in writing from the convening authority to appear before such court, a copy of the charge or charges having been delivered to the accused with such order, and to issue commitments in carrying out sentences of confinement, and to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum, and to enforce by attachment attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers, and to sentence for a refusal to be sworn or to answer as provided in actions before civil courts. He shall also have power to punish for contempt occurring in the presence of the court.

6831. Manual of courts-martial. Trials and proceedings by all courts and boards shall be in accordance with the plan and procedure laid down in the manual of courts-martial, courts of inquiry, and retiring boards, and other procedures under military law, as may from time to time be prescribed by the secretary of war.

1917, c. 200, s. 64.

6832. Sentences, where executed. All sentences to confinement imposed by any military court of this state shall be executed in such prisons as the court may designate.

1917, c. 200, s. 61.

6833. Execution of process and sentences. All processes and sentences of any of the military courts of this state shall be executed by any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, or police officer into whose hands the same may be placed for service or execution, and such officer shall make return thereof to the officer issuing or imposing the same. Such service or execution of process or sentence shall be made by such officer without tender or advancement of fee therefor; but all costs in such cases shall be paid from funds appropriated for military purposes. The actual necessary expenses of conveying a prisoner from one county in the state to another, when the same is authorized and directed by the adjutant general of the state, shall be paid from the military fund of the state upon a warrant approved by the adjutant general.

6834. Commitments. When any sentence to fine or imprisonment shall be imposed by any military court of this state, it shall be the duty of the president of said court, or summary court officer, upon the approval of the findings and sentence of such court, to make out and sign a certificate entitling the case, giving the name of the accused, the date and place of trial, the date of approval of sentence, the amount of fine, or manner, place, and duration of confinement, and deliver such certificate to the sheriff, or deputy sheriff, constable, or police officer of the county wherein the sentence is to be executed; and it shall thereupon be the duty of such officer to carry said sentence into execution in the manner prescribed by law for the collection of fines or commitment to service of terms of imprisonment in criminal cases determined in the courts of this state.

6835. Sentence of dismissal. No sentence of dismissal from the service or dishonorable discharge, imposed by a national guard court-martial not in the service of the United States, shall be executed until approved by the governor. Any officer convicted by a general court-martial and dismissed from the service shall be forever disqualified from holding a commission in the militia.

1917, c. 200, s. 65.

ART. 4. NAVAL MILITIA

6836. Organization and equipment. The organization of the naval militia shall be units of convenient size, in each of which the number and rank of officers and the distribution of the total enlisted strength among the several ratings of petty officers and other enlisted men shall be such as are prescribed by the secretary of the navy, who may also prescribe the number of officers and the number of petty officers and other enlisted men required for the organization of such units into larger bodies for administrative and other purposes, and the arms and equipment of the naval militia shall be those which are now or may hereafter be prescribed by the secretary of the navy.

6837. Officers appointed to naval militia. Officers of the United States navy and marine corps may, with the approval of the secretary of the navy, be elected or appointed and commissioned as officers of the naval militia.

1917, c. 200, s. 67.

6838. Officers assigned to duty. Line officers of the naval militia may be for line duties only, for engineering duties only, or for aeronautic duties only.

1917, c. 200, s. 68.

6839. Discipline in naval militia. The naval militia shall be subject to the system of discipline prescribed for the United States navy and marine corps, and the commanding officer of a naval militia battalion or brigade, or a naval militia officer in command of naval militia forces on shore or on any vessel of the navy loaned to the state, or on any vessel on which such forces are training, whether within or without the state, or wherever, either within or without the state, naval militia forces of the state shall be assembled pursuant to orders, shall have power without trial by courts-martial to impose upon members of the naval militia the punishments which the commanding officer of a vessel of the navy is authorized by law to impose.

6840. Disbursing and accounting officer. The governor shall appoint a disbursing officer, approved by and of such rank as may be prescribed by the secretary of the navy, to perform such duties as the secretary of the navy may prescribe. The governor shall also appoint the above described disbursing officer, or such other officer of the pay corps of the naval militia as he may elect, as accounting officer for each battalion thereof, or at his option for each larger unit or combination of units of the same, who shall be responsible for the proper accounting for all public property issued to and for the use of such battalion or larger unit or combination of units.

6841. Rendition of accounts. Accounting officers shall render accounts as prescribed by the governor or by the secretary of the navy, and shall be required to give good and sufficient bond to the state and to the United States, in such sums as the governor or the secretary of the navy may direct, and conditioned upon the faithful accounting for all public property and for the safe-keeping of such part thereof as may be in the personal custody of such officer. Accounting officers may issue any or all such property to other officers or enlisted men of the naval militia under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed.

6842. Disbandment of naval militia. No part of the naval militia which is entitled to compensation under the provisions of an act of congress approved August twenty-ninth, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, shall be disbanded without the consent of the president.

1917, c. 200, s. 86.

6843. Courts-martial for naval militia. Courts-martial in the naval militia shall consist of general courts-martial, summary courts-martial, and deck courts.

1917, c. 200, s. 72.

6844. General courts-martial. General courts-martial shall consist of not less than three nor more than thirteen officers, and may be convened by order of the governor.

1917, c. 200, s. 73.

6845. Summary courts-martial. Summary courts-martial may be ordered by the governor, or by the commanding officers of a naval militia battalion or brigade.

1917, c. 200, s. 74.

6846. Deck courts. Deck courts may be ordered by the commanding officer of a naval militia battalion or brigade, or by a naval militia officer in command of naval militia forces on shore or on any vessel loaned to the state or on any vessel on which said forces may be serving.

1917, c. 200, s. 75.

6847. Jurisdiction and procedure of courts-martial and deck courts. The above courts-martial and deck courts herein provided for shall be constituted and have cognizance of the same subjects, and possess like powers, except as to punish-tence of such court, to make out and sign a certificate entitling the case, giving the name of the accused, the date and place of trial, the date of approval of sentence, the amount of fine, or manner, place, and duration of confinement, and deliver such certificate to the sheriff, or deputy sheriff, constable, or police officer of the county wherein the sentence is to be executed; and it shall thereupon be the duty of such officer to carry said sentence into execution in the manner prescribed by law for the collection of fines or commitment to service of terms of imprisonment in criminal cases determined in the courts of this state.

6835. Sentence of dismissal. No sentence of dismissal from the service or dishonorable discharge, imposed by a national guard court-martial not in the service of the United States, shall be executed until approved by the governor. Any officer convicted by a general court-martial and dismissed from the service shall be forever disqualified from holding a commission in the militia.

1917, c. 200, s. 65.

ART. 4. NAVAL MILITIA

6836. Organization and equipment. The organization of the naval militia shall be units of convenient size, in each of which the number and rank of officers and the distribution of the total enlisted strength among the several ratings of petty officers and other enlisted men shall be such as are prescribed by the secretary of the navy, who may also prescribe the number of officers and the number of petty officers and other enlisted men required for the organization of such units into larger bodies for administrative and other purposes, and the arms and equipment of the naval militia shall be those which are now or may hereafter be prescribed by the secretary of the navy.

6837. Officers appointed to naval militia. Officers of the United States navy and marine corps may, with the approval of the secretary of the navy, be elected or appointed and commissioned as officers of the naval militia.

1917, c. 200, s. 67.

6838. Officers assigned to duty. Line officers of the naval militia may be for line duties only, for engineering duties only, or for aeronautic duties only.

1917, c. 200, s. 68.

6839. Discipline in naval militia. The naval militia shall be subject to the system of discipline prescribed for the United States navy and marine corps, and the commanding officer of a naval militia battalion or brigade, or a naval militia officer in command of naval militia forces on shore or on any vessel of the navy loaned to the state, or on any vessel on which such forces are training, whether within or without the state, or wherever, either within or without the state, naval militia forces of the state shall be assembled pursuant to orders, shall have power without trial by courts-martial to impose upon members of the naval militia the punishments which the commanding officer of a vessel of the navy is authorized by law to impose.

6840. Disbursing and accounting officer. The governor shall appoint a disbursing officer, approved by and of such rank as may be prescribed by the secretary of the navy, to perform such duties as the secretary of the navy may prescribe. The governor shall also appoint the above described disbursing officer, or such other officer of the pay corps of the naval militia as he may elect, as accounting officer for each battalion thereof, or at his option for each larger unit or combination of units of the same, who shall be responsible for the proper accounting for all public property issued to and for the use of such battalion or larger unit or combination of units.

6841. Rendition of accounts. Accounting officers shall render accounts as prescribed by the governor or by the secretary of the navy, and shall be required to give good and sufficient bond to the state and to the United States, in such sums as the governor or the secretary of the navy may direct, and conditioned upon the faithful accounting for all public property and for the safe-keeping of such part thereof as may be in the personal custody of such officer. Accounting officers may issue any or all such property to other officers or enlisted men of the naval militia under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed.

6842. Disbandment of naval militia. No part of the naval militia which is entitled to compensation under the provisions of an act of congress approved August twenty-ninth, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, shall be disbanded without the consent of the president.

1917, c. 200, s. 86.

6843. Courts-martial for naval militia. Courts-martial in the naval militia shall consist of general courts-martial, summary courts-martial, and deck courts.

1917, c. 200, s. 72.

6844. General courts-martial. General courts-martial shall consist of not less than three nor more than thirteen officers, and may be convened by order of the governor.

1917, c. 200, s. 73.

6845. Summary courts-martial. Summary courts-martial may be ordered by the governor, or by the commanding officers of a naval militia battalion or brigade.

1917, c. 200, s. 74.

6846. Deck courts. Deck courts may be ordered by the commanding officer of a naval militia battalion or brigade, or by a naval militia officer in command of naval militia forces on shore or on any vessel loaned to the state or on any vessel on which said forces may be serving.

1917, c. 200, s. 75.

6847. Jurisdiction and procedure of courts-martial and deck courts. The above courts-martial and deck courts herein provided for shall be constituted and have cognizance of the same subjects, and possess like powers, except as to punishments, as similar courts-martial provided for in the navy of the United States; and the proceedings of courts-martial of the naval militia shall follow the forms and modes of procedure prescribed for such courts in the navy of the United States.

1917, c. 200, s. 76.

6848. Place of holding courts. Every precept or order for the convening of any such court may authorize the court to sit at any place or places within the territorial limits of the state as the convening authority may designate, and may further provide that any such court may be convened and sit on board any such naval or other vessel, wherever the same from time to time happens to be, or at such place or places ashore, outside the territorial limits referred to above, as in the judgment of the said convening authority may be convenient or desirable for the purposes of such court-martial.

6849. Powers of general courts-martial. General courts-martial shall have power to impose fines not exceeding two hundred dollars, to sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances, to a reprimand, to dismissal or dishonorable discharge from the service, to reduction in rank or rating; or any two or more of such punishments may be combined in the sentences imposed by such courts.

1917, c. 200, s. 78.

6850. Powers of summary courts-martial. Summary courts-martial shall have the same powers of punishment as general courts-martial, except that fines imposed by summary courts-martial shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

1917, c. 200, s. 79.

6851. Powers of deck courts. Deck courts may impose fines not exceeding fifty dollars for any single offense; may sentence enlisted men to reduction in rank or rating, to forfeiture of pay and allowances, to a reprimand, to discharge with other than dishonorable discharge, or a fine in addition to any one of the other sentences specified.

1917, c. 200, s. 80.

6852. Process of courts-martial. Presidents of general courts-martial, senior members of summary courts-martial, and deck court officers of the naval militia shall have the power to issue warrants to arrest accused persons, and to bring them before the court for trial whenever such persons have disobeyed an order in writing from the convening authority to appear before such court, a copy of the charge or charges having been delivered to the accused with such order, and to issue commitments in carrying out sentences of confinement, and to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum, and to enforce by attachment attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers, and to sentence for a refusal to be sworn or to answer, all as authorized for similar proceedings for courts-martial in the navy of the United States. He shall also have power to punish for contempt occurring in the presence of the court. All processes, warrants, and sentences of such courts shall be executed by any sheriff or deputy sheriff or any constable or police officer of any township, county, city, or town, who shall be authorized by law to execute or serve any civil or criminal process.

6853. Sentence to confinement in lieu of fines. All courts-martial of the naval militia, including deck courts, shall have the power to sentence to confinement in lieu of fines authorized to be imposed, and shall have the power to direct that upon nonpayment of a fine the person convicted shall be confined in any county jail; but such sentences to confinement shall not exceed one day for each dollar of fine authorized. When naval militia forces are embarked on any vessel, the confinement in whole or in part may be had in prisons provided on said ship.

6854. Dismissal or dishonorable discharge. No sentence of dismissal or dishonorable discharge from the naval militia shall, except when the naval militia shall have been called into the service of the United States, be executed without the approval of the governor.

1917, c. 200, s. 82.

6855. Collection of fines. The amount of any fine imposed under sentence of the courts heretofore named on any member of the naval militia may be collected from him, or may be deducted from any amount due said member as accrued pay.

1917, c. 200, s. 84.

6856. Courts of inquiry. Courts of inquiry in the naval militia shall be instituted, constituted, and conducted in the same manner and shall have like powers and duties as similar courts in the navy of the United States, except that they shall be ordered by the governor.

1917, c. 200, s. 85.

ART. 5. REGULATIONS AS TO ACTIVE SERVICE

6857. National guard and naval militia first ordered out. In all cases the national guard and naval militia as provided for in this chapter shall be first ordered into service.

6858. Regulations enforced on actual service. Whenever any portion of the militia shall be called into service to execute the law, suppress riot or insurrection, or to repel invasion, the articles of war, and articles for the government of the navy, governing the army and navy of the United States, and the regulations prescribed for the army and navy of the United States, and the regulations issued thereunder, shall be enforced and regarded as a part of this chapter until said forces shall be duly relieved from such duty. As to offenses committed when such articles of war and articles for the government of the navy are so in force, courts-martial shall possess, in addition to the jurisdiction and power of sentence and punishment herein vested in them, all additional jurisdiction and power of sentence and punishment exercisable by like courts under such articles of war and articles for the government of the navy or regulations or laws governing the United States army and navy or the customs and usages thereof; but no punishment under such rules and articles which will extend to the taking of life shall in any case be inflicted except in time of war, invasion, or insurrection, declared by a proclamation of the governor to exist, and then only after approval by the governor of the sentence inflicting such punishment. Imprisonment other than in guardhouse shall be executed in county jails or other prisons designated by the governor for that purpose.

6859. Regulations governing unorganized militia. Whenever any part of the unorganized militia is ordered out, it shall be governed by the same rules and regulations and be subject to the same penalties as the national guard or naval militia.

1917, c. 200, s. 35.

ART. 6. UNORGANIZED MILITIA

6860. Unorganized militia ordered out for service. The commander-in-chief may at any time, in order to execute the law, suppress riots or insurrections, or repel invasions, in addition to the national guard, the national guard reserve, and the naval militia, order out the whole or any part of the unorganized militia. When the militia of this state or a part thereof is called forth under the constitution and laws of the United States, the governor shall first order out for service the national guard or naval militia, or such part thereof as may be necessary, and if the number available be insufficient, he shall then order out such a part of the unorganized militia as he may deem necessary. During the absence of organizations of the national guard or naval militia in the service of the United States, their state designations shall not be given to new organizations.

6861. Manner of ordering out unorganized militia. The governor shall, when ordering out the unorganized militia, designate the number. He may order them out either by calling for volunteers or by draft. He may attach them to the several organizations of the national guard or naval militia, or organize them into separate brigades, regiments, battalions, companies, separate corps, batteries, troops, or divisions, as may be best for the service.

6862. Draft of unorganized militia. If the unorganized militia is ordered out by draft, the governor shall designate the persons in each county to make the draft, and prescribe rules and regulations for conducting the same.

1917, c. 200, s. 48.

6863. Punishment for failure to appear. Every member of the militia ordered out for duty, or who shall volunteer or be drafted, who does not appear at the time and place ordered, shall be liable to such punishment as a court-martial may determine.

1917, c. 200, s. 49.

ART. 7. PAY OF MILITIA

6864. Rations and pay on service. The militia of the state, both officers and enlisted men, when called into the service of the state, shall be rationed and receive the same pay as when called into the service of the United States. When called in aid of the civil authorities, enlisted men shall receive in addition to such pay the sum of sixty cents per day.

Rev., s. 4856; Code, s. 3248; R. C., c. 70, s. 84; 1813, c. 850, s. 5; 1907, c. 316; 1917, c. 200, s. 50. See Comrs. v. Comrs., 75-240; Worth, Treas., v. Comrs., 118-112.

6865. Rate of pay for service. The governor may, whenever the public service requires it, order upon special or regular duty any officer or enlisted man of the national guard or naval militia, and the expenses and compensation therefor of such officer and enlisted man shall be paid upon the approval of the governor and warrant of the auditor. Such officer and enlisted man shall receive the same pay as officers and enlisted men of the same grade and like service of the regular army or navy; but officers when on duty in connection with examining boards, efficiency boards, advisory boards, general or special courts-martial and courts of inquiry, shall be allowed actual expenses and four dollars per diem for such duty. No staff officer who receives a salary from the state as such shall be entitled to any additional compensation other than actual and necessary expenses incurred while traveling upon orders issued by the proper authority.

6866. Paid by the state. When the militia or any portion thereof shall be called into service to execute the law, suppress riots or insurrections, and to repel invasions, the pay, subsistence, transportation, and other necessary expenses incident thereto shall be paid by the state treasurer, upon the approval of the governor and warrant of the auditor.

1917, c. 200, s. 52.

For former law, see Rev., s. 4857; Code, s. 3247; 1869-70, c. 164, s. 3; 1907, c. 316. See Comrs. v. Comrs., 75-240; Worth, Treas., v. Comrs., 118-112.

6867. Pay of general and field officers. General and field officers when away from their home stations visiting the organizations of their commands, for inspection and instruction under orders from proper authority, shall receive actual necessary expenses and the pay of their rank.

6868. Pay and care of soldiers injured in service. A member of the national guard and naval militia who shall, when on duty or assembled therefor in case of riot, tumult, breach of peace, insurrection, or invasion, or to repel invasion or in aid of the civil authorities, receive any injury, or incur or contract any disability or disease, by reason of such duty or assembly therefor, or who shall without fault or neglect on his part be wounded or disabled while in line of duty, which shall temporarily incapacitate him from pursuing his usual business or occupation, shall during the period of such incapacity receive the actual necessary expenses for care and medicine and medical attendance, to be paid out of the state treasury from funds not otherwise appropriated, upon order of the governor and warrant of the auditor.

ART. 8. PRIVILEGE OF ORGANIZED MILITIA

6869. Leaves of absence for state officers and employees. All officers and employees of the state who shall be members of the national guard or naval militia shall be entitled to leaves of absence from their respective duties, without loss of pay, time, or efficiency rating, on all days during which they shall be engaged in field or coast-defense training ordered or authorized under the provisions of this chapter.

6870. Exemption from road and jury duty. All members of the national guard and naval militia who comply with and perform all duties required of them as members of the national guard and naval militia are hereby exempted from duty upon the public roads of the counties in which they reside, and shall also be exempt from service as jurors. On the first day of January and July of each year, beginning with the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, the commanding officer of each company, troop, battery, detachment, or division of the national guard and naval militia of North Carolina, residing in the above mentioned counties, shall file with the clerk of the superior court of the county in which such company, troop, battery, detachment, or division is located a statement giving the name and rank of each member of his organization who has performed all military duties during the preceding six months; and any member of such military organization whose name does not appear upon such statement shall not receive the benefit of the exemption provided for herein during the six months immediately following the filing of the statement.

6871. Contributing members. Each organization of the national guard and naval militia may, besides its regular and active members, enroll twenty-five contributing members on payment in advance by each person desiring to become such contributing member of not less than ten dollars per annum, which money shall be paid into the company treasury. Each contributing member shall be entitled to receive from the commanding officer thereof a certificate of membership, which certificate shall exempt the holder from jury duty.

6872. Organizations may own property. Organizations of the national guard and naval militia shall have the right to own and keep real and personal property, which shall belong to and be under the control of the members of the organization; and the commanding officer of any organization may recover for its use any debts or effects belonging to it, or damages for injury to such property, action for such recovery to be brought in the name of the commanding officer thereof before any court of justice within the state having jurisdiction; and no suit or complaint pending in his name shall be abated by his ceasing to be commanding officer of the organization; but upon motion of the commander succeeding him such commander shall be admitted to prosecute the suit or complaint in like manner and with like effect as if it had been originally commenced by him.

1917, c. 200, s. 92.

6873. When families of soldiers supported by county. When any citizen of the state is absent on duty as a member of the national guard or naval militia, and his family are unable to support themselves during his absence, the board of commissioners of his county, on application, shall make towards their maintenance such allowance as may be deemed reasonable.

1917, c. 200, s. 93.

ART. 9. CARE OF MILITARY PROPERTY

6874. Custody of military property. All public military property, except when used in the performance of military duty, shall be kept in armories, or other properly designated places of deposit; and it shall be unlawful for any person charged with the care and safety of said public property to allow the same out of his custody, except as above specified.

1917, c. 200, s. 38.

6875. Property deposited in arsenal. All the public arms of every description which may not be distributed among the militia according to law shall be deposited and kept in the public arsenal established at Raleigh.

1917, c. 200, s. 39.

6876. Arsenal provided. The board of public buildings and grounds shall provide a suitable building for an arsenal. The governor may make such provisions as he may deem necessary for the care and issue of property and for guarding and protecting the arsenal, and for the purpose of defraying the expenses under this section. He may, upon certificate of the adjutant general and warrant of the auditor, from time to time draw upon the treasurer for such sums as may be necessary.

1917, c. 200, s. 96.

6877. Property kept in good order. Every noncommissioned officer and private belonging to any company equipped with public arms shall keep and preserve his arms and accoutrements in good order and in a soldierly manner; and for every neglect to do so may be punished as a court-martial may direct.

1917, c. 200, s. 40.

6878. Horses and vehicles used only for military purposes. Horses, motor trucks, and other vehicles issued by the secretary of war to the national guard shall be used solely for military purposes.

1917, c. 200, s. 41.

6879. Transfer of property. All officers accountable or responsible for public funds, property, or books, before being relieved from the duty shall turn over the same according to the regulations prescribed by the governor.

1917, c. 200, s. 42.

6880. Replacement of lost or damaged property. Whenever any military property issued to the militia of the state shall have been lost, damaged, or destroyed, and upon report of a disinterested survey officer of the regular army, navy, or the militia it shall appear that the loss, damage, or destruction of property was due to carelessness or neglect, or that its loss, damage, or destruction could have been avoided by the exercise of reasonable care, the money value of such property shall be charged to the accountable and responsible officer or enlisted man, and the pay of such officers and enlisted men from both federal and state funds at any time accruing may be stopped and applied to the payment of any such indebtedness until the same is discharged. In addition thereto any officer accountable or responsible for military property shall be liable on his bond to the state and the property and disbursing officer or accounting officer for any lost, damaged, or destroyed property for which he is accountable or responsible.

6881. Injuring military property. If any person shall wantonly or wilfully injure or destroy any arms, equipment, or other military property of the state, and refuse to make good such injury or loss, or shall sell, dispose of, secrete, or remove the same with intent to sell or dispose thereof, he shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

Rev., s. 3536; Code, s. 3274; 1876-7, c. 272, s. 19.

6882. Member of national guard failing to return property. If any member of the North Carolina national guard shall wilfully fail to return any property of the state or the United States to the armory or other place of deposit, when notified by competent authority so to do, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not exceeding fifty dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days.

Rev., s. 3537.

6883. Selling accoutrements. If any person shall sell, dispose of, pawn or pledge, destroy or injure, or wilfully retain after demand made, any public property issued for the purpose of arming or equipping the militia of the state, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 3541; Code, s. 3274; 1893, c. 374, s. 30.

6884. Selling public arms. If any person to whom shall be confided public arms or accoutrements shall sell, or in any manner embezzle the same, or any part thereof, or if any person shall purchase any of them, knowing them to be such, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 3542; Code, s. 3556; R. C., c. 89, s. 8; 1831, c. 45, s. 5.

6885. Refusing to deliver public arms on demand. Every commissioned officer of the militia, whenever and wherever he shall see or learn that any of the arms or accoutrements or other military property belonging to the state is in the possession of any person other than in whose hands they may be placed for safe-keeping, under the provisions of the law, shall make immediate demand for the same personally or in writing; and should such person refuse to deliver them to the officer he shall be guilty in like manner, and punished in like manner as for selling or embezzling public arms.

Rev., s. 3540; Code, s. 3558; R. C., c. 89, s. 10; 1831, c. 45, s. 7.

6886. Freight on property paid out of general fund. The auditor of the state is hereby authorized and directed to issue his warrant upon the state treasurer for the payment of such sums as may be certified by the adjutant general and the governor to be actually necessary to pay freight upon ammunition, uniforms, and equipment shipped out from and returned to the state arsenal.

1917, c. 200, s. 95.

ART. 10. SUPPORT OF MILITIA

6887. Requisition for funds. The governor shall annually make requisition upon the secretary of war for such state allotment from federal funds as may be necessary for the support of the militia.

1917, c. 200, s. 23.

6888. County appropriations. The county commissioners may appropriate such sums of money to the various organizations of the national guard or naval militia in their counties and at such times as the board may deem proper.

1917, c. 200, s. 91.

6889. Allowances made to different organizations; appropriation. The commanding officer of each brigade, regiment, the coast artillery, and the naval militia, shall maintain a headquarters office, for which actual expense therefor shall be allowed, to include office rent, light, heat, stamps, stationery, printing, and other necessary expenses, not to exceed two hundred and twenty-five dollars per annum. There shall be allowed to each major of the line not exceeding fifty dollars per annum with which to defray the necessary expenses of their respective offices. The chief surgeon and the commanding officer of each company of infantry, headquarters company, supply company, machine-gun company, coast artillery company, company of engineers, battery of field artillery, signal corps company, troop of cavalry, field hospital, ambulance company, aero squadron, division of naval militia, company of marines, and aeronautic section shall be allowed annually the sum of one hundred dollars; each lieutenant of such organization, battalion adjutants, and officers of corresponding grades and duties in the naval militia, the sum of fifty dollars; the commanding officer of each infirmary, sanitary unit, the sum of fifty dollars, for the purpose of defraying the necessary expenses of their respective offices. There shall be allowed annually to each company of infantry, headquarters company, supply company, machine-gun company, coast artillery company, company of engineers, battery of field artillery, signal corps company, troop of cavalry, field hospital, ambulance company, aero squadron, aeronautic section, division of naval militia, or company of marines, the sum of four hundred dollars, and to each regimental infirmary the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, and to each sanitary detachment the sum of one hundred dollars, to be applied to the payment of armory rent, heat, light, stationery, printing, and other necessary expenses. There shall be allowed annually to the supply sergeant of each company of infantry, headquarters company, supply company, machine-gun company, coast artillery company, company of engineers, battery of field artillery, signal corps company, troop of cavalry, field hospital, ambulance company, aero squadron, and to a petty officer of each division of naval militia, aeronautic section, and marine company the sum of fifty dollars, and to corresponding warrant officers of each regimental infirmary and sanitary detachment the sum of twenty-five dollars.

All payments are to be made by the state disbursing officer in semiannual installments on the first day of July and the first day of January of each year; but no payment shall be made unless all drills and parades required by law are duly performed by all organizations named. No officer shall be entitled to receive any part of the amounts named herein unless he has performed satisfactorily all duties required of him by law and has pursued such course of instruction as may from time to time be required.

The commanding officer of all organizations participating in the appropriations herein made shall render an itemized statement of all funds received from any source whatsoever for the support of their respective organizations in such manner and on such forms as may be prescribed by the adjutant general. Failure on the part of any officer to submit promptly when due the financial statement of his organization will be sufficient cause to withhold all appropriations for such organizations.

The sum of sixty-five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated annually, out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated. All moneys not used by January first of each year shall be paid to the state treasurer and turned into the general fund of the state.

1917, c. 200, s. 97; 1919, c. 311.

ART. 11. GENERAL PROVISIONS

6890. Reports of officers. All officers of the national guard and the naval militia shall make such returns and reports to the governor, secretary of war, secretary of the navy, or to such officers as they may designate, at such times and in such forms as may from time to time be prescribed.

1917, c. 200, s. 21.

6891. Officer to give notice of absence. When any officer shall have occasion to be absent from his usual residence one week or more, he shall notify the officer next in command, and also his next superior officer in command, of his intended absence, and shall arrange for the officer next in command to handle and attend to all official communications.

1917, c. 200, s. 22.

6892. Articles of war applicable in time of peace. The national guard and naval militia, when not in the service of the United States, shall, except as to punishments, be governed respectively by the United States army regulations and articles of war, and the navy regulations and articles for the government of the navy.

1917, c. 200, s. 34.

6893. Commanding officer may prevent trespass and disorder. The commanding officer upon any occasion of duty may place in arrest during the continuance thereof any person who shall trespass upon the camp ground, parade ground, armory, or other place devoted to such duty, or who shall in any way or manner interrupt or molest the orderly discharge of duty by those under arms, or shall disturb or prevent the passage of troops going to or returning from any duty. He may prohibit and prevent the sale or use of all spirituous liquors, wine, ale, beer, or cider, the holding of huckster or auction sales, and all gambling within the limits of the post, camp ground, place of encampment, parade, or drill under his command, or within such limits not exceeding one mile therefrom as he may prescribe. And he may in his discretion abate as common nuisance all such sales.

6894. Organizing company without authority. If any person shall organize a military company, or drill or parade under arms as a military body, except under the militia laws and regulations of the state, or shall exercise or attempt to exercise the power or authority of a military officer in this state, without holding a commission from the governor, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 3538; 1893, c. 374, s. 38.

6895. Placing name on muster roll wrongfully. If any officer of the militia of the state shall knowingly or wilfully place, or cause to be placed, on any muster roll the name of any person not regularly or lawfully enlisted, or the name of any enlisted man who is dead or who has been discharged, transferred, or has lost membership for any cause whatsoever, or who has been convicted of any infamous crime, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 3539; 1893, c. 374, s. 33.

ART. 1. OPERATION OF MINES

6896. Lessor not held partner of lessee. No lessor of property, real or personal, for mining purposes, although the lessor may receive an uncertain sum of the proceeds or net profits, or any other consideration, which, though uncertain at first, may afterwards become certain, shall be held as a partner of the lessee; nor shall any of the legal or equitable relations or liabilities of copartners exist between them, unless it is so stipulated in the contract between the lessor and lessee.

Rev., s. 4930; Code, s. 3292; R. C., c. 72; 1830, c. 46.

6897. Minors under sixteen not to be employed. No minor under sixteen years of age shall be allowed to work in any mine, and in all cases of minors applying for work the agent of such mine shall see that the provisions of this section are not violated; and the inspector may, when doubt exists as to the age of any person found working in any mine, examine under oath such person and his parents, or other witnesses, as to his age.

Rev., s. 4931; 1897, c. 251, s. 7; 1919, c. 100, s. 6.

6898. Operator to furnish timber. The owner, agent, or operator of every coal mine shall keep a supply of timber constantly on hand, and shall deliver the same to the working place of the miner, and no miner shall be held responsible for accident which may occur in the mine where the provisions of this section have not been complied with by the owner, agent, or operator thereof, resulting directly or indirectly from the failure to deliver such timber.

Rev., s. 4932; 1897, c. 251, s. 8.

6899. Unused mines to be fenced. All underground entrances to any place not in actual course of working or extension shall be properly fenced across the whole width of such entrance so as to prevent persons from inadvertently entering the same.

Rev., s. 4933; 1897, c. 251, s. 5.

6900. Means of ingress and egress provided. No owner or agent of any coal mine worked by shaft shall permit any person to work therein unless there are, to every seam of coal worked in such mine, at least two separate outlets, separated by natural strata of not less than one hundred feet in breadth, by which shafts or outlets distinct means of ingress and egress are always available to the persons employed in the mine; but it is not necessary for the two outlets to belong to the same mine if the persons employed therein have safe, ready, and available means of ingress or egress by not less than two openings. This section shall not apply to opening a new mine while being worked for the purpose of making communications between the two outlets, so long as not more than twenty persons are employed at one time in such mine; neither shall it apply to any mine or part of a mine in which the second outlet has been rendered unavailable by reason of the final robbing of pillars previous to abandonment, as long as not more than twenty persons are employed therein at any one time. The cage or cages and other means of egress shall at all times be available for the persons employed when there is no second outlet. The escapement shafts shall be fitted with safe and available appliances, which shall always be kept in a safe condition, by which the persons employed in the mine may readily escape in case an accident occurs; and in no case shall an air shaft with a ventilating furnace at the bottom be construed to be an escapement shaft within the meaning of this section. To all other coal mines, whether slopes or drifts, two such openings or outlets must be provided within twelve months after shipments of coal have commenced from such mine; and in case such outlets are not provided as herein stipulated, it shall not be lawful for the agent or owner of such slope or drift to permit more than ten persons to work therein at any one time.

Defective hoisting appliance causing death of workman: Hardister v. Richardson, 169-186.

6901. Hoisting engines; how operated. No owner or agent of any mine operated by a shaft or slope shall place in charge of any engine used for lowering into or hoisting out of mines persons employed therein any but experienced, competent, and sober engineers, and no engineers in charge of such engine shall allow any persons except as may be deputed for such purposes by the owner or agent to interfere with it or any part of the machinery, and no person shall interfere or in any way intimidate the engineer in the discharge of his duties, and in no case shall more than six men ride on any cage or car at one time, and no person shall ride upon a loaded cage or car in any shaft or slope.

Rev., s. 4935; 1897, c. 251, s. 6; 1911, c. 183.

6902. Ventilation. The owner or agent of any coal mine, whether shaft, slope, or drift, shall provide and maintain for every such mine an amount of ventilation of not less than one hundred cubic feet per minute per person employed in such mine, which shall be circulated and distributed throughout the mine in such a manner as to dilute, render harmless and expel the poisonous and noxious gases from every working place in the mine. No working place shall be driven more than sixty feet in advance of a break-through or airway, and all break-throughs or airways, except those last made near the working places of the mine, shall be closed up by brattice trap-doors, or otherwise, so that the currents of air in circulation in the mine may spread to the interior of the mine when the persons employed in such mine are at work. All mines governed by this chapter shall be provided with artificial means of producing ventilation, such as forcing or suction fans, exhaust steam furnaces, or other contrivances of such capacity and power as to produce and maintain an abundant supply of air, and all mines generating fire damp shall be kept free from standing gas.

Rev., s. 4936; 1897, c. 251, s. 5.

6903. Daily examinations; safety lamps. Every working place shall be examined every morning with a safety lamp by a competent person before any workmen are allowed to enter the mine. All safety lamps used in examining mines, or for working therein, shall be the property of the operator of the mine, and a competent person shall be appointed, who shall examine every safety lamp before it is taken into the workings for use, and ascertain it to be clean, safe, and securely locked, and safety lamps shall not be used until they have been so examined and found safe and clean and securely locked, unless permission be first given by the mine foreman to have the lamps used unlocked. No one except the duly authorized person shall have in his possession a key, or any other contrivance, for the purpose of unlocking any safety lamp in any mine where locked lamps are used. No matches or any other apparatus for striking lights shall be taken into any mine, or parts thereof, except under the direction of the mine foreman.

Rev., s. 4937; 1897, c. 251, ss. 5, 6.

6904. Report of ventilation. The mine foreman shall measure the ventilation at least once a week, at the inlet and outlet, and also at or near the face of all the entries, and the measurement of air so made shall be noted on blanks furnished by the inspector; and on the first day of each month the mine boss of each mine shall sign one of such blanks, properly filled with the actual measurement, and present the same to the inspector.

Rev., s. 4938; 1897, c. 251, s. 6.

6905. Notice of opening or changing mines given. The owner, agent, or manager of any mine shall give notice to the inspector in the following cases: 1. When any working is commenced for the purpose of opening a new shaft, slope, or mine, to which this chapter applies. 2. When any mine is abandoned, or the working thereof discontinued. 3. When the working of any mine is recommenced after an abandonment or discontinuance for a period exceeding three months. 4. When a squeeze or crush, or any other cause or change, may seem to affect the safety of persons employed in the mine, or when fire occurs.

Rev., s. 4939; 1897, c. 251, s. 7.

6906. Notice of accidents given. The owner, agent, or manager of every mine shall, within twenty-four hours next after any accident or explosion, whereby loss of life or personal injury may have been occasioned, send notice, in writing, by mail or otherwise, to the inspector, and shall specify in such notice the character and cause of the accident, and the name or names of the persons killed and injured, with the extent and nature of the injuries sustained. When any personal injury of which notice is required to be sent under this section results in the death of the person injured, notice in writing shall be sent to the inspector within twenty-four hours after such death comes to the knowledge of the owner, agent, or manager; and when loss of life occurs in any mine by explosion, or accident, or results from personal injuries so received, the owner, agent, or manager of such mine shall notify the coroner of the county in which such mine is situated, and the coroner shall hold an inquest upon the body of the person whose death has been thus caused, and inquire carefully into the cause thereof, and return a copy of the finding of the jury and all the testimony to the inspector.

Rev., s. 4940; 1897, c. 251, s. 6.

6907. Report to inspector. The owner, lessee, or agent in charge of any mine, any limestone quarry, or who is engaged in mining or producing any mineral whatsoever in this state, shall, on or before the thirtieth day of November in every year, send to the office of the inspector upon blanks to be furnished by him a correct return, specifying with respect to the year ending on the preceding first day of October the quantity of coal, iron ore, fire-clay, limestone, or other mineral product of such mine or quarry, and the number of persons ordinarily employed in or about such mine or quarry below and above ground, distinguishing the persons and labor below ground and above ground.

Rev., s. 4941; 1897, c. 251, s. 3.

6908. Liability for injuries. For any injury to person or property occasioned by any wilful violation of this chapter, or any wilful failure to comply with its provisions, by any owner, agent, or manager of the mine, a right of action shall accrue to the party injured for any damage he may sustain thereby; and in any case of loss of life by reason of such wilful neglect or failure a right of action shall accrue to the personal representative of the deceased, as in other actions for wrongful death.

Rev., s. 4942; 1897, c. 251, s. 6.

Death resulting from negligence in providing appliances: Hardister v. Richardson, 169-186.

6909. Punishment for violation. If any person shall knowingly violate any of the provisions of the law relating to mines or shall do anything whereby the life or health of persons or the security of any mine and machinery is endangered, or if any miner or other person employed in any mine governed by the statutes shall intentionally or wilfully neglect or refuse to securely prop the roof of any working place under his control, or neglect or refuse to obey any orders given by the superintendent of a mine in relation to the security of a mine in the part thereof where he is at work and for fifteen feet back of his working place, or if any miner, workman, or other person shall knowingly injure any water-gauge, barometer, air-course, or brattice, or shall obstruct or throw open any air-ways, or shall handle or disturb any part of the machinery of the hoisting engine or signaling apparatus or wire connected therewith, or air pipes or fittings, or open a door of the mine and not have the same closed again, whereby danger is produced either to the mine or those that work therein, or shall enter any part of the mine against caution, or shall disobey any order given in pursuance of law, or shall do any wilful act whereby the lives and health of the persons working in the mine or the security of the mine or the machinery thereof is endangered, or if the person having charge of a mine whenever loss of life occurs by accident connected with the machinery of such mine or by explosion shall neglect or refuse to give notice thereof forthwith by mail or otherwise to the inspector and to the coroner of the county in which such mine is situated, or if any such coroner shall neglect or refuse to hold an inquest upon the body of the person whose death has been thus caused, and return a copy of his findings and a copy of all the testimony to the inspector, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days, or both.

Rev., s. 3797; 1897, c. 251, s. 8.

ART. 2. INSPECTION OF MINES

6910. Commissioner of labor and printing is inspector. The commissioner of labor and printing shall perform the duties of mine inspector as provided in this chapter.

Rev., s. 4943; 1897, c. 251, s. 1.

6911. Inspector to examine mines. It shall be the duty of the inspector to examine all the mines in the state as often as possible to see that all the provisions and requirements of this chapter are strictly observed and carried out; he shall particularly examine the works and machinery belonging to any mine, examine into the state and condition of the mines as to ventilation, circulation, and condition of air, drainage, and general security.

Rev., s. 4944; 1897, c. 251, s. 2.

6912. May enter to make examinations. For the purpose of making the inspection and examinations provided for in this chapter, the inspector shall have the right to enter any mine at all reasonable times, by night or by day, but in such manner as shall not unnecessarily obstruct the working of the mine; and the owner or agent of such mine is hereby required to furnish the means necessary for such entry and inspection; the inspection and examination herein provided for shall extend to fire-clay, iron ore, and other mines as well as coal mines.

Rev., s. 4945; 1897, c. 251, s. 2.

6913. Death by accident investigated. Upon receiving notice of any death resulting from accident it shall be the duty of the inspector to go himself, or send a representative, at once to the mine in which the death occurred and inquire into the cause of the same, and to make a written report fully setting forth the condition of that part of the mine where such death occurred and the cause which led to the same; which report shall be filed by the inspector in his office as a matter of record and for future reference.

Rev., s. 4946; 1897, c. 251, s. 6.

6914. Record of examinations. He shall make a record of all examinations of mines, showing the date when examination is made, the condition in which the mines are found, the extent to which the laws relating to mines and mining are observed or violated, the progress made in the improvements and security of life and health sought to be secured by the provisions of this chapter, number of accidents, injuries received, or deaths in or about the mines, the number of mines in the state, the number of persons employed in or about each mine, together with all such other facts and information of public interest, concerning the condition of mines, development and progress of mining in the state as he may think useful and proper, which record shall be filed in the office of the inspector, and as much thereof as may be of public interest to be included in his annual report.

Rev., s. 4947; 1897, c. 251, s. 2.

6915. Papers to be preserved. He shall keep in his office and carefully preserve all maps, surveys, and other reports and papers required by law to be filed with him, and so arrange and preserve the same as shall make them a permanent record of ready, convenient, and connected reference.

Rev., s. 4948; 1897, c. 251, s. 3.

6916. Inspector to enforce law; counsel furnished. In case of any controversy or disagreement between the inspector and the owner or operator of any mine or the persons working therein, or in case of conditions or emergencies requiring counsel, the inspector may call on the governor for such assistance and counsel as may be necessary. If the inspector finds any of the provisions of this chapter violated or not complied with by any owner, lessee, or agent in charge, unless the same is within a reasonable time rectified, and the provisions of this chapter fully complied with, he shall institute an action in the name of the state to compel the compliance therewith. The inspector shall exercise a sound discretion in the enforcement of this chapter.

Rev., s. 4949; 1897, c. 251, s. 2.

6917. Operation enjoined when law violated. On application of the inspector, after suit brought as directed in the preceding section, any court of competent jurisdiction may enjoin or restrain the owner or agent from working or operating such mine until it is made to conform to the provisions of this chapter; and such remedy shall be cumulative, and shall not take the place of or affect any other proceedings against such owner or agent authorized by law for the matter complained of in such action.

Rev., s. 4950; 1897, c. 251, s. 7.

6918. Report to governor. The inspector shall annually make report to the governor of all his proceedings, the condition and operation of the different mines of the state, and the number of mines and the number of persons employed in or about such mines, the amount of coal, iron ore, limestone, fire-clay, or other mineral mined in this state; and he shall enumerate all accidents in or about the mines, and the manner in which they occurred, and give all such other information as he thinks useful and proper, and make such suggestions as he deems important relative to mines and mining, and any legislation that may be necessary on the subject for the better preservation of the life and health of those engaged in such industry.

Rev., s. 4951; 1897, c. 251, s. 3.

6919. Application of law. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to or affect any mine in which not more than ten men are employed at the same time; but the inspector shall at all times have free ingress to such mines for the purpose of examination and inspection, and shall direct and enforce any regulation in accordance with the provisions of this chapter that he may deem necessary for the safety of the health and lives of the miners employed therein.

Rev., s. 4952; 1897, c. 251, s. 8.

ART. 3. WATERWAYS OBTAINED

6920. Water and drainage rights obtained. Any person or body corporate engaged or about to engage in mining, who may find it necessary for the furtherance of his operations to convey water either to or from his mine or mines over the lands of any other person or persons, may make application by petition in writing to the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the lands to be affected or the greater part are situate, for the right so to convey such water. The owner of the lands to be affected shall be made a party defendant, and the proceeding shall be conducted as other special proceedings.

Rev., s. 4953; Code, ss. 3293, 3294, 3300; 1871-2, c. 158, ss. 1, 3.

6921. The petition, what to contain. The petition shall specify the lands to be affected, the name of the owner of such lands, and the character of the ditch or drain intended to be made.

Rev., s. 4954; Code, s. 3294; 1871-2, c. 158, s. 3.

6922. Appraisers; appointment and duties. Upon the hearing of the petition, if the prayer thereof be granted, the clerk shall appoint three disinterested persons, qualified to act as jurors, and not connected either by blood or marriage with the parties, appraisers to assess the damage, if any, that will accrue to the lands by the contemplated work, and shall issue a notice to them to meet upon the premises at a day specified, not to exceed ten days from the date of such notice. The appraisers having met, shall take an oath before some officer qualified to administer oaths to faithfully perform their duty and to do impartial justice in the case, and shall then examine all the lands in any way to be affected by such work, and assess the damage thereto, and make report thereof under their hands and seals to the clerk from whom the notice issued.

Rev., s. 4955; Code, ss. 3295, 3296, 3299; 1871-2, c. 158, ss. 4, 5, 9.

6923. Confirmation of report; payment of damages; rights of petitioner. After the filing of the report and confirmation thereof by the clerk, who shall have power to confirm or, for good cause, set aside the same, the petitioner shall have full right and power to enter upon such lands and make such ditches, drains, or other necessary work: Provided, he has first paid or tendered the damages, assessed as above, to the owner of such lands or his known and recognized agent, if he be a resident of this state, or have such agent in this state. If the owner be a nonresident and have no known agent in this state, the amount so assessed shall be paid by the petitioner into the office of the clerk of the superior court of the county for the use of such owner.

Rev., s. 4957; Code, s. 3298; 1871-2, c. 158, s. 12.

6924. Registration of report. The petitioner, or any other person interested, may have the report of the appraisers registered upon the certificate of the clerk and shall pay the register a fee of twenty-five cents therefor.

Rev., s. 4957; Code, s. 3298; 1871-2, c. 158, s. 8.

6925. Obstructing mining drains. If any person shall obstruct any drain or ditch constructed under the provisions of this chapter, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 3380; Code, s. 3301; 1871-2, c. 158, s. 12.

6926. Disposition of waste. In getting out and washing the products of kaolin mines, the persons engaged in such business shall have the right to allow the waste, water, and sediment to run off into the natural courses and streams.

ART. 4. ADJUSTMENT OF CONFLICTING CLAIMS

6927. Liability for damage for trespass. If any owner or person in possession of any mine or mining claim shall enter upon, either on the surface or underground, any mine or mining claim, the property of another, and shall mine or carry away any valuable mineral therefrom, he shall be liable to the owner of the mine so trespassed upon for double the value of all such mineral mined or carried away, and for all other damages; and the value of the mineral mined or carried away shall be presumed to be the amount of the gross value ascertained by an average assay of the excavated material or vein or ledge from which it was taken. If such trespass is wrongfully and wilfully made, punitive damages may be allowed.

6928. Persons entitled to bring suit. The owner of a mine in this state, or any person in possession under a lease or other contract, may maintain an action to recover damages to such property arising from the operation of any adjacent mine by the owner thereof or other person in possession and working the same under lease or contract, and also to prevent the continuance of the operation of the adjacent mine in such a manner as to injure or endanger the safety of the complainant's mine.

6929. Application and order for survey. The person entitled to bring an action, as provided in the preceding section, may apply to any judge of the superior court having jurisdiction to grant injunctions and restraining orders, and obtain an order of survey in the following manner: He shall file an affidavit giving the names of the parties and the location, as near as may be, of the mine complained of; the location of the plaintiff's mine, and that he has reason to believe that the defendant, or his agents or employees, are or have been trespassing upon his mine, or working the defendant's mine in such a manner as to damage or endanger the plaintiff's property. Upon the filing of the affidavit, the judge shall cause a notice to be issued to the defendant or his agents, stating the time and place and before whom the application will be heard, and requiring them to appear, in not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date thereof, and show cause why an order of survey should not be granted. Upon the hearing, and for good cause shown, the judge shall grant an order directed to some competent disinterested surveyor or mining engineer, or both, as the case may be, who shall proceed to make the necessary examination and surveys, as directed by the court, and report their action to the court. The persons selected by the judge to make the survey and examination shall be residents of the state, and, before entering upon the discharge of their duty, shall take and subscribe an oath that they will fairly and impartially survey the mines described in the petition. In all other respects, except as stated above, the surveyors appointed by the judge shall proceed as in surveys in disputed boundaries.

1913, c. 51, s. 2.

6930. Free access to mine for survey. Upon the order made for the survey in the manner, at the time, and by the persons mentioned in the order, which shall include a representative of the party making the application, who shall not be one of the surveyors, there shall be given free access to the mine for the purpose of survey, and any interference with the persons acting under the order of survey shall be contempt of court and punished accordingly. If the persons named in the order of survey so require, they, with their instruments, shall be carefully lowered and raised in and out of the mine with the cage, bucket, or skip ordinarily used in the shafts of the mine; and they may demand of the owner of the mine, or his manager or agent, that they be so raised and lowered at a speed agreeable to them and not to endanger their comfort and safety or to injure the accuracy of their instruments. The owner of the mine, his managers or agents, shall be liable in damages to the persons making the examination for any injury to them or to their instruments, caused by the careless and negligent operation of any bucket, cage, or skip at such a high rate of speed as to injure the persons or their instruments while being lowered or raised in the mine.

6931. Costs of the survey. The costs of the order and survey shall be paid by the person making the application; but if he shall maintain an action and recover damages for the injury done or threatened prior to such survey and examination, the costs of the order and survey shall be taxed against the defendant as other costs in the action. The party obtaining the survey shall be liable for any unnecessary injury done to the property examined and surveyed in making the survey.

1913, c. 51, s. 2.

MONUMENTS, MEMORIALS, AND PARKS

ART. 1. CONFEDERATE MONUMENTS.

- 6932. Land at Appomattox Court House accepted.
- 6933. Appomattox commission.
- 6934. County commissioners may protect monuments.

ART. 2. MEMORIALS.

- 6935. Memorial building commission created.
- 6936. Meetings of commission; term of office; successors.
- 6937. Commission to raise funds by voluntary contributions and erect memorial building.
- 6938. Counties, cities, and towns may contribute toward erection of memorials.

ART. 3. MOUNT MITCHELL PARK COMMISSION.

- 6939. Commission created.
- 6940. Duties.
- 6941. Meetings; term of service; annual reports to governor; successors.
- 6942. Roads, trails, and fences authorized; protection of property.

ART. 1. CONFEDERATE MONUMENTS

6932. Land at Appomattox Court House accepted. Whereas all North Carolinians are justly proud of their state's glorious record in the war between the states, and that her heroic soldiers were "first at Bethel, farthest at Gettysburg and Chickamauga, last at Appomattox"; and whereas a deed has been generously given by a gallant officer of the Union army, Major George A. Armes, U. S. A., retired, to Hon. Henry A. London, for three lots or parcels of land on the battlefield of Appomattox Court House for the purpose of placing thereon permanent memorials to commemorate—

1. The last volley fired by Cox's brigade of Grimes's division,
2. The capture of a battery of artillery by Roberts's brigade of cavalry, and
3. The last skirmish by Captain W. T. Jenkins; and whereas a tender of said lots has been made by said London as a gift to the state of North Carolina: Now, therefore, the governor is authorized and directed to receive, for the state, a deed from said London (as a gift from said Armes) for the aforesaid three lots of land on the battlefield of Appomattox Court House in the state of Virginia.

Rev., s. 3925; 1905, c. 10.

6933. Appomattox commission. The governor is authorized and directed to appoint every four years five special commissioners, to be known as The North Carolina Appomattox Commission, who shall serve for four years and until their successors are appointed, with full power to select their chairman and to fill any vacancy in their number that may occur, and to serve without compensation, except their actual necessary expenses, for a time not exceeding six days in any one year, which are to be paid by the state treasurer upon the warrant of the auditor, who shall issue his warrant when approved by the governor. The commissioners shall have the charge and control of said lots, and of the erection thereon of such permanent memorials as they may deem proper, but no cost of such memorials shall be paid by the state, except a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, which is hereby appropriated for the erection of a monument on the lot where the last volley was fired by Cox's brigade of Grimes's division.

Rev., s. 3926; 1905, c. 10, ss. 2, 3.

6934. County commissioners may protect monuments. When any monument has been or shall hereafter be erected to the memory of our Confederate dead or to perpetuate the memory and virtues of our distinguished dead, if such monument is erected by the voluntary subscription of the people and is placed on the courthouse square, the board of county commissioners of such county are permitted to expend from the public funds of the county an amount sufficient to erect a substantial iron fence around such monument in order that the same may be protected.

Rev., s. 3928; 1905, c. 457.

NOTE.—For marking places of historic interest, see 1917, c. 277.

ART. 2. MEMORIALS

6935. Memorial building commission created. A memorial building commission is hereby created, to consist of the governor, the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, and nine other well-qualified persons who shall be appointed by the governor, which shall be and is hereby created a body politic and corporate under the name and style of the North Carolina Memorial Building Commission. The governor shall be the chairman of the commission.

6936. Meetings of commission; term of office; successors. The memorial building commission shall have power to fix the time and place of its meetings. The commissioners shall hold office until the work hereinafter provided for shall have been completed and they shall have made report of the same to the general assembly and shall have been discharged. In the event of the death or resignation of any member of the commission, his successor shall be appointed by the governor. The commissioners shall receive no compensation. The position of commissioner under the provisions of this article shall not be construed to be an office within the meaning of section seven, article fourteen, of the constitution of North Carolina.

6937. Commission to raise funds by voluntary contributions and erect memorial building. As a recognition of the valor and distinguished service of the state's soldiers and sailors, and in the honor and to the memory of all North Carolina citizens who gave their lives, services or property to the end that the war with Germany and her allies might be won, the commission is hereby authorized to formulate plans, rules and regulations and to raise by voluntary contributions sufficient funds, as soon as practicable, and to acquire, either by gift, purchase or condemnation, a suitable site at the state capital, and shall proceed to erect thereon, or, with the consent of the council of state, on land already owned by the state not otherwise used, a suitable, useful and fireproof memorial building to be used as a depository for preserving, exhibiting and administering the records, relics and memorials of said war, and other historical records and effects of this state, and when said building is completed the same shall be the property of the state of North Carolina.

1919, c. 3, s. 4.

1919, c. 21, ss. 1, 2, 3.

ART. 3. MOUNT MITCHELL PARK COMMISSION

6939. Commission created. A commission is hereby created to consist of five citizens of North Carolina, interested in the preservation of Mitchell's Peak, who shall be appointed by the governor, to be known as the Mount Mitchell park commission, who shall serve without compensation. The commission is created a body politic and corporate under the name and style of Mount Mitchell Park Commission.

1919, c. 316, ss. 1, 2.

6940. Duties. The commission shall have complete control, care, protection and charge of that part of Mitchell's park acquired by the state.

1919, c. 316, s. 3; 1915, c. 76.

6941. Meetings; term of service; annual reports to governor; successors. The commission shall meet soon after its appointment by the governor, and organize by the election of one of its members as chairman and another as secretary. They shall hold their offices for such term of years as the governor may direct, and their successors shall be appointed by the governor. They shall keep a complete record of their proceedings and make annual report to the governor.

6942. Roads, trails, and fences authorized; protection of property. The commission is authorized and empowered to enter upon the land hereinbefore referred to, and to build a fence or fences around the same, also roads, paths, and trails, and protect the property against trespass and fire and injury of any and all kinds whatsoever; to cut wood and timber upon the same, but only for the purpose of protecting the other timber thereon and improving the property generally.

1919, c. 316, s. 5.

ART. 1. CAPE FEAR RIVER

6943. Board of commissioners of navigation and pilotage; harbor master. A board of commissioners of navigation and pilotage for the Cape Fear river and bar is hereby constituted, and shall consist of five members, four of whom shall be residents of the city of Wilmington and one of the city of Southport. The members of the board shall be appointed by the governor, and their terms of office shall begin on April fifteenth of the year in which they are appointed, and continue for four years and until their successors shall be appointed and qualified. It shall be the duty of the governor to appoint, on or before the fifth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and on or before the fifth day of April of every fourth year thereafter, the members of the said board of commissioners. A majority of said board shall constitute a quorum and may act in all cases. Said board shall have power to fill vacancies, as they occur, in the board during their term; to appoint a clerk to record in a book, rules, orders, and proceedings of the board; and they shall have authority in all matters that may concern the navigation of waters from seven miles above Negro-Head Point downwards, and out of the bar and inlets. They shall annually, on the first Monday in May, appoint a harbor master for the port of Wilmington.

Right of the state to regulate pilotage: St. George v. Hardie, 147-88; Morse v. Heide, 152-625. The statute is constitutional, and should be construed liberally as a part of the maritime law: St. George v. Hardie, 147-88.

6944. Rules to regulate pilots. The commissioners shall from time to time make and establish such rules and regulations respecting the arrangement and station of pilots for the purpose of compelling them to be on duty at all times as to them shall seem most advisable, and shall impose reasonable fines, forfeitures, and penalties for the purpose of enforcing the execution of such rules and regulations.

1907, c. 625, s. 2.

The commissioners have the power to regulate cruising grounds for pilots, and such regulations must be obeyed: Morse v. Heide, 152-625.

6945. To examine and commission pilots. The board, or a majority of them, shall from time to time examine, or cause to be examined, such persons as may offer themselves to be pilots for the Cape Fear river and bar, and shall give to such as are approved, commissions, under their hands and seals, to act as pilots both for the bar and river, according as they shall be by the commissioners found qualified: Provided, that all Cape Fear pilots who held branches on January first, one thousand nine hundred and five, shall be given branches or licenses by the said commissioners upon application and the tender of the required bond without examination: Provided further, that no new branches shall be given until after the number of pilots commissioned shall have been reduced by death, resignation, or otherwise to the number of fifteen, and there shall not be at any one time thereafter a greater number than fifteen nor a less number than ten commissioned by the board.

Requiring a license and limiting the number of pilots is a valid exercise of police power: St. George v. Hardie, 147-88.

6946. To regulate pilots' apprentices. When the number of pilots shall have been reduced to twenty, then the board of commissioners of navigation and pilotage shall make such rules and regulations for apprentices as they may deem best. No apprentice shall be required to serve for a longer period than three years for a fifteen-foot branch, and one year thereafter for a full branch.

6947. Applicants for pilot's license to establish competency. Before the commissioners of navigation shall grant a commission or license to pilot vessels on Cape Fear river or its bar, it shall be the duty of the board to require the applicant to prove, by at least three nautical men under oath, his competency to manage or work vessels, and such knowledge of the Cape Fear river and its bar as may be necessary to qualify him to pilot vessels: Provided, that this shall not apply to pilots who held branches on January first, one thousand nine hundred and five.

1907, c. 625, s. 5.

6948. Classes of licenses issued. Commissioners shall issue two classes of license, as follows: (1) A license to pilot vessels whose draught of water does not exceed fifteen feet, to such applicants above the age of twenty-one years who have served as apprentices for at least three years, and complied with this chapter. (2) An unlimited or full license to those who have served at least one year under a license of the first class, to pilot vessels of any draught of water.

1907, c. 625, s. 6.

6949. Renewal of pilots' licenses; fee. All licenses shall be renewed annually upon the payment of a fee of five dollars, but the board of commissioners of navigation and pilotage shall not grant a renewal of license to any pilot who has refused or failed to perform the duties of pilot during the preceding two years.

1907, c. 625, s. 7.

6950. Pilots to give bond. Every person before being commissioned as a pilot shall give the bond required of pilots by the third section of the fifth article of this chapter. The board may from time to time, and as often as they may deem it necessary, enlarge the penalty of the bond, or require new and additional bonds to be given, in a sum or sums not to exceed in all one thousand dollars. Every bond taken of a pilot shall be filed with and preserved by the board of commissioners, in trust for every person that shall be injured by the neglect or misconduct of such pilot or his apprentices, who may severally bring suit thereon for the damage by each one sustained.

6951. To license pilots on steamboats. The commissioners shall have power to grant permission, in writing, to any pilot in good standing and authorized to pilot vessels, to run regularly as pilots on steamers running between the port of Wilmington and other ports in the United States, said pilot to have all the rights and emoluments that belong to the river and bar pilots.

1907, c. 625, s. 9.

Section construed to limit the operation of pilots to the established cruising grounds: Morse v. Heide, 152-625.

6952. Branches may be canceled. The board of commissioners shall have power to call in and cancel the branch of any pilot who has refused or neglected, except in case of sickness, his branch for the space of two years in succession, and any pilot who has been absent from the state for a longer period than six months shall, upon his return, surrender his branch to the board of commissioners, or they may declare the same null and void, except when absent under permission from the commissioners as provided in section 6951.

6953. Commissioners' jurisdiction over pilotage. Each commissioner or any justice of the peace of the counties of New Hanover and Brunswick shall have power and authority to hear and determine all matters of dispute between any pilot and master of a vessel, or between the pilots themselves, respecting the pilotage of vessels; and any one of them may issue a warrant against any pilot for the recovery of any demand which one pilot may have against another, relative to pilotage, and for the recovery of any forfeiture or penalty incurred by any act of the general assembly for regulating the pilotage of Cape Fear river and bar, or incurred by any by-law or rule passed in virtue thereof; which warrant the sheriff or any constable of New Hanover or Brunswick counties shall execute, together with all other process authorized by this article. On any warrant, issued as aforesaid, any one of said commissioners may give judgment for any sum not exceeding sixty dollars, and may issue execution thereon, in the manner of issuing execution on judgments given by justices of the peace, which may be executed agreeably to the rules and regulations prescribed for the levy and sale under executions issuing on judgments rendered by justices of the peace; and such commissioner shall issue summons for witnesses and administer oaths as is done in cases of trials before justices of the peace.

1907, c. 625, s. 11.

See St. George v. Hardie, 147-88.

6954. No stay of execution in certain pilots' cases. There shall be no stay of execution on any judgment obtained by pilots against masters of vessels, or by masters of vessels against pilots, or by pilots against pilots, on account of any compensation or detention or for any forfeiture or penalty payable to any pilot or master of a vessel, by pilot or master of a vessel, in virtue of any act of the general assembly or by-law made in pursuance thereof; but appeals shall be allowed in such cases, under the rules which regulate appeals from the judgments of justices of the peace: Provided, that if on the appeal of any defendant the recovery shall not be lessened, and it shall be the opinion of the court that the appeal was obtained for the purpose of delay, the court shall adjudge the defendant to pay twenty per cent of the original judgment, which shall be added thereto, and execution shall issue for the whole amount.

See St. George v. Hardie, 147-88.

6955. When employment compulsory; rates of pilotage. All vessels, coast-wise or foreign, over sixty gross tons, shall, on and after the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, take a state-licensed pilot from sea to Southport, and from Southport to sea, and the rates of pilotage shall be the rates given in column number one below, designated “From Sea to Southport, or vice versa”; the employment of pilots from Southport to Wilmington and from Wilmington to Southport is optional, but any vessel taking a pilot from Southport to Wilmington, or from Wilmington to Southport, shall employ only a state-licensed pilot, and the rates of pilotage shall be the rates given in column number two below, designated “From Southport to Wilmington, or vice versa”:

Column No. 1.		Column No. 2.

1907, c. 625, s. 13.

Pilot is entitled to fees for services properly tendered and refused: St. George v. Hardie, 147-88. He is entitled to his fees until his license is revoked: Davis v. Heide, 161-476.

6956. Pay for detention of pilots. Every master of a vessel who shall detain a pilot at the time appointed, so that he cannot proceed to sea, though wind and weather permit, shall pay such pilot three dollars per day during the time of his actual detention.

1907, c. 625, s. 14.

6957. Vessels not liable for pilotage. Any vessel coming into Southport from sea without the assistance of a pilot, the wind and weather being such that such assistance or service could have been reasonably given, shall not be liable for pilotage inward from sea, and shall be at liberty to depart without payment of any pilotage, unless the services of a pilot be secured.

1907, c. 625, s. 15.

Section construed in St. George v. Hardie, 147-88.

6958. First pilot to speak vessel to get fees. The first pilot speaking a vessel shall be entitled to the pilotage fees over the bar to Southport, and out to sea again, provided said pilot shall be ready and willing to serve as pilot when the vessel is ready to depart.

1907, c. 625, s. 16.

See St. George v. Hardie, 147-88; Morse v. Heide, 152-625.

6959. Vessels entering for harborage exempt. Any vessel coming in from sea for harbor shall not be required to take a pilot either from sea inward or back to sea.

1907, c. 625, s. 17.

6960. Harbor master of Wilmington; duties. The harbor master appointed for the port of Wilmington shall hold his office for one year next ensuing and until his successor is appointed. The harbor master shall have power and is required—

1. To keep the channel-way of the Cape Fear river and the track of vessels clear; to berth vessels at appropriate wharves or docks; to change the berth of any vessel at request of the owner of the wharf or dock; to move such vessels to some other wharf or to a safe anchorage in the stream; and he is further authorized and required to determine in all cases how far and in what instances it is the duty of masters and others having charge of vessels, flats, rafts, or crafts to accommodate each other in their respective berths and situations.

2. To arrest any person violating this chapter, and to immediately bring such offender before some justice of the peace of the county in which such offense may be committed, for trial.

3. Whenever in his judgment it shall be necessary, to cast loose from any wharf or dock any raft, flat, vessel, or other craft by untying or cutting the lines by which it is made fast, if the owner after notice refuse to remove such vessel.

4. Whenever any of the public docks of the city of Wilmington are obstructed by any vessels, flats, barges, logs, hulks, trash, or garbage, and the owner thereof cannot be found or fails to remove the same from said docks, to take the most speedy method to clear the docks.

5. To appoint in writing some competent person to act in his place and stead during his temporary absence, or at such times as he is unable to attend to the duties of his office, and such person shall, while acting for such harbor master, have all the power and authority conferred upon and vested in the harbor master by law.

6. To collect from all vessels arriving in the port of Wilmington the following fees and no others, to wit: If over one hundred tons and under three hundred tons, three dollars; if over three hundred tons and under five hundred tons, five dollars; if over five hundred tons and under seven hundred tons, seven dollars; if over seven hundred tons, ten dollars.

Rev., s. 4958; Code, s. 3482; 1903, c. 662; 1905, c. 321.

6961. Port wardens of Wilmington; election; oath. There shall be three competent persons at the port of Wilmington, to be known as port wardens. The persons so elected shall at once take and subscribe before the clerk of the superior court of New Hanover county the following oath:

I, A. B., do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will faithfully, honestly, and impartially execute and discharge the duty of port warden for the port of Wilmington, by duly appraising and estimating the damage sustained on any vessel or goods arriving in or stranded within the bounds of said port, and will make a true and fair estimate and report of and regarding the seaworthiness of any vessel by me surveyed.

Rev., s. 4959; 1889, c. 437; 1905, c. 321.

6962. Port wardens of Wilmington; duties; fees. The port wardens of Wilmington shall, on request made by the master, owner, freighter, or supercargo of any vessel arriving in said port, or stranded within the bounds thereof, survey and make report of her situation and condition, and the causes thereof, and whether she should be repaired or condemned; inspect the conditions of vessels which may arrive in distress or may have suffered by gales of wind or otherwise at sea; the situation and condition of goods, wares, and merchandise which may arrive in said vessels or may have received damage at sea, and report thereon and the probable causes thereof; inspect the storage of cargoes of vessels arriving as aforesaid, or having received damage as aforesaid, before the same shall be discharged, except where vessels may be stranded, in which cases their cargoes may be inspected after the same are removed, and report thereon, whether faulty or not, in which report shall be stated the probable cause of the damage; make surveys of goods, wares, and merchandise, and the cargoes of vessels damaged as aforesaid, and make and report estimates of the amount of the damage sustained as aforesaid; and make and report, if required, surveys of vessels outward bound, and report whether they are seaworthy or not, and fit for the voyage intended. All goods which shall be sold by reason of their having received damage as aforesaid, and shall have been surveyed or inspected by the said port wardens, shall be sold under their inspection and direction; and the said port wardens shall respectively receive for their services: For a survey at the town of Wilmington, the sum of ten dollars; for a survey at the Flats, the sum of twelve dollars; and for a survey at Fort Johnson, the sum of fifteen dollars, to be paid by the party at whose request the same is made, and recovered before any court of competent jurisdiction.

Rev., s. 4960; 1889, c. 437, ss. 2, 3.

6963. Repairing boats in street docks at Wilmington forbidden. If any person shall, for the purpose of repair, put any flat, steamboat, or other craft, in any of the street docks of the city of Wilmington, or shall, for the purpose of repair, ground any such flat, steamboat, or other craft in any of the public docks of such city on the east side of the Cape Fear river between Church street dock and Red Cross street dock, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days.

Rev., s. 3554; 1903, c. 662, s. 2.

6964. Obstructing docks by flats and barges at Wilmington forbidden. The owner of any rafts, flats, vessels, or other craft lying alongside any wharf or wharves or before the entrance of any public dock, his or their agents or servants, shall, upon notice from the harbor master, immediately remove the same, and upon his or their refusal so to do, it shall be the duty of the harbor master, and he is hereby authorized and directed, after notice as aforesaid to the owner or owners thereof, their agents or servants, forthwith to cause all such rafts, flats, vessels, or other craft to be removed at the cost and expense of such owner or owners or their agent or agents, and the owner shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 3549; 1903, c. 662, s. 3.

6965. Obstructing harbor master of Wilmington forbidden. If any person shall hinder, delay, obstruct, or in any manner wilfully interfere with the harbor master of Wilmington in the discharge of his duty he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days.

Rev., s. 3552; 1903, c. 662, s. 8.

6966. Encumbering docks at Wilmington forbidden. If any person shall encumber any of the public docks of the city of Wilmington with logs, hulks, flats, or barges, trash or garbage, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined ten dollars, and if the encumbrance be not removed immediately upon notice from the harbor master, he shall be fined ten dollars for each and every day thereafter such nuisance shall remain.

Rev., s. 3547; 1903, c. 662, s. 9.

ART. 2. BEAUFORT HARBOR

6967. Commissioners of navigation; election. The commissioners of navigation for Old Topsail inlet and Beaufort harbor shall be composed of three persons, to be elected as follows: The board of commissioners of Carteret county shall elect one, the commissioners of the town of Beaufort shall elect one, and the commissioners of the town of Morehead City shall elect one. They shall be elected at the regular meeting of such boards in June, one thousand nine hundred and five, and every two years thereafter, and shall qualify by taking the oath required by law before the clerk of the superior court or some justice of the peace of Carteret county, and enter upon the discharge of their duties on the first Monday in July following their election.

Rev., s. 4964; 1899, c. 9, ss. 1, 2.

6968. Authority of commissioners. They shall have authority in all matters that may concern the navigation of the harbor, Old Topsail inlet, and all the waters of the sound and rivers within ten miles of the town of Beaufort, and in the construction of wharves, and when there is no harbor master, the commissioners aforesaid shall decide all disputes about the moving of vessels and other matters which properly fall within the department of harbor master.

Rev., s. 4965; Code, s. 3528; 1868-9, c. 208, s. 3.

6969. Harbor master for Beaufort. The said commissioners immediately after their election shall appoint a harbor master for the port of Beaufort, who shall hold his office for the term of one year, unless sooner removed by the commissioners for neglect of duty. He shall be entitled to receive of the master of each vessel that shall enter said port, and for other services, such fees as the commissioners may prescribe.

Rev., s. 4966; Code, s. 3529; 1868-9, c. 208, s. 4.

6970. Pilots; how appointed and licensed. Such commissioners shall elect the pilots for said inlet and harbor, and may make such rules and regulations for their government as the commissioners may deem right and proper, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state or of the United States. Application for pilot licenses or branches shall be made to the commissioners in writing, giving the name, age, and occupation of applicants for two years next preceding the date of application. The commissioners shall examine all applicants for pilot's licenses, and may also examine other persons as to qualification of applicants to perform the duties of pilot, and may in their discretion reject any applicant whom they may deem incompetent.

Rev., s. 4967; 1899, c. 9, ss. 3, 4, 5.

6971. Fees for issuing pilot's license. The said commissioners shall give to every pilot elected by them a license or branch under their hands and seals, which shall be and remain in force for one year unless, for good cause to said commissioners appearing, the same shall be sooner revoked by them. They shall charge for each license or branch, five dollars, which they may retain for their expenses and services.

Rev., s. 4968; 1899, c. 9, s. 6.

6972. Expiration of pilot's license; reinstatement. Each pilot shall forfeit his branch after fifteen days expiration of the same; however, such pilot may be reinstated by securing two pilots in good standing to sign his branch.

1915, c. 142, s. 3.

6973. Pilot boats to be numbered. After the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, each and every pilot vessel in Carteret county shall be numbered; and any pilot after that date piloting a vessel or barge in or out of the territory as set out in this article, without a number, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to a fine of not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court. The commissioners of navigation of Beaufort harbor shall make provision for numbering of pilot vessels as required by this section. All said fines collected under this act to be applied to the public school fund of Carteret county.

6974. Rates of pilotage. The pilotage for Old Topsail inlet and Beaufort harbor shall be as follows: For vessels drawing eight feet and under, two dollars per foot; ten feet and over eight, two dollars and fifty cents per foot; twelve feet and over ten; three dollars and fifty cents per foot; all over twelve feet, four dollars per foot. The above fees to be collectible in Beaufort harbor from Middle marsh to Lewis thoroughfare, and from the Neuse river side of the inland waterway through the said waterway and out of Beaufort inlet. For every vessel piloted without these bounds an additional charge of fifty cents per foot may be charged. The commissioners shall have the rates of pilotage printed or written on every license or branch issued by them, and every pilot shall exhibit his license to the master of every vessel he has in charge, when demanded by said master. No vessel entering Old Topsail inlet without a pilot shall be required to take one on going to sea; nor shall any vessel be required to take a pilot that has to enter the harbor in distress. This section is applicable to all vessels including barges in tow of tugboats.

Rev., s. 4969; 1899, c. 9, ss. 7, 8; 1901, c. 639; 1909, c. 250, s. 1; 1915, c. 142, s. 1.

6975. Vessel under sixty tons not liable for pilotage. No pilot, acting under the authority of the commissioners of navigation for Old Topsail inlet, shall be entitled to pilotage for any vessel under sixty tons burden, unless such vessel shall have given a signal for a pilot, or otherwise shall have required the assistance of a pilot.

Rev., s. 4970; Code, s. 3523; R. C., c. 85, s. 33; 1801, c. 600, s. 3; 1806, c. 711, s. 1.

See Gerrish v. Johnson, 46-335.

ART. 3. BOGUE INLET

6976. Commissioners of navigation for Bogue inlet. The board of commissioners of the county of Onslow shall appoint five commissioners of navigation for Bogue inlet and its waters. When vacancies occur in said board, by refusal to act, by resignation, or otherwise, the remaining members of such board shall fill the same until the same be supplied by the appointing board, which is directed to be done at the first meeting after the vacancy occurs. And the said board shall have the same powers and authority as to pilots and pilotage as the commissioners for Old Topsail inlet and Beaufort harbor.

Rev., s. 4971; Code, s. 3515; R. C., c. 85, s. 25; 1783, c. 194; 1784, c. 208, s. 2; 1879, c. 216, s. 4.

6977. Rates of pilotage. The branch pilots for Bogue inlet shall be entitled to receive of the commander of such vessel as they may have charge of the following pilotage, namely: For bringing any vessel into the said inlet, drawing less than seven feet, from the outside of the bar to the anchorage before the town, or the customary place in Hill's channel, one dollar per foot; for a vessel drawing more than seven feet, one dollar and fifty cents per foot; and the same fees for pilotage outward as inward.

Rev., s. 4972; Code, s. 3535; 1889, c. 121.

ART. 4. HATTERAS AND OCRACOE

6978. Board of commissioners of navigation; organization; oaths; pilots' licenses. John W. Rolinson, R. R. Quidley, George L. Styron, William Balance, and Charles L. Odine shall constitute a board of commissioners of navigation for the port of Hatteras inlet, of the county of Dare; William E. Howard, Christopher O. Neal, Sr., and Gilbert O. Neal, of the county of Hyde; D. R. Roberts and J. W. Gilgo, of the county of Carteret, shall constitute a board of navigation for the port of Ocracoke inlet, whose duty it shall be to meet at Hatteras and Ocracoke respectively three times in each year, or a majority of the respective board, after giving at least twenty days notice of each meeting, and when any person is desirous of becoming a pilot at Hatteras or Ocracoke inlets, over the Swashes through Pamlico and Albemarle sounds, he shall be examined by said board, and when found competent to take charge of any ship or vessel as a pilot the board shall issue to him a branch and take the bond authorized by law, and no person shall be authorized to act as a bar or swash pilot unless he shall have a branch from said boards. The said boards shall have their offices at Hatteras and Ocracoke respectively, in which shall be filed the bonds of the pilots, and every pilot receiving a branch from said boards shall pay to the board from which he receives such branch two dollars and fifty cents, of which sum the commissioners of Ocracoke who live in Carteret county shall receive ten cents per mile traveling to and from the meeting of said board, and the residue shall be divided between all the members of said board, and the commissioners shall belong to each board respectively. When a vacancy shall occur in either board by death, resignation, or refusal to act, a majority thereof of each board shall appoint some suitable person thereto, whose residence shall be at the same place where the vacancy occurred; said commissioners shall keep a regular journal of their proceedings, and before entering on the duties of their office they shall take and subscribe before any justice of the peace of the counties of Dare, Carteret, or Hyde the following oath:

I do solemnly swear that I will truly and faithfully and impartially examine every person who shall apply to me for a branch, to the best of my ability: so help me, God.

The branch shall expire in three years from the date thereof.

Rev., s. 4961; Code, s. 3512; R. C., c. 85, s. 24; 1871-2, c. 134; 1897, c. 211; 1879, c. 216.

6979. Rates of pilotage. Branch pilots of Ocracoke or Hatteras shall be entitled to receive of the commander of such vessel as they may have in charge the following pilotage, namely: For every vessel of sixty and not over one hundred and forty tons burden, from the other side of the bar, at any place within the limits of the pilot ground, to Beacon Island road, or Wallace's channel, ten cents for each ton, and the further sum of two and a half cents for each ton over one hundred and forty, and two dollars for each vessel over either of the swashes (that is, over said swashes either to or from Beacon Island road, or Wallace's channel, or over any shoal lying intermediate between either of said swashes and Beacon Island road or Wallace's channel); for every ship or vessel from the mouth of the swash to either of the ports of New Bern or Washington, one dollar per foot, and for every ship or vessel from the same place to the port of Edenton, twelve dollars; and to the port of Elizabeth City, ten dollars; and the same allowance down as up, and outward as inward.

Rev., s. 4962; Code, s. 3524; R. C., c. 85, s. 34; 1794, c. 426; 1806, c. 711; 1846, c. 49, ss. 1, 2, 3.

See Gerrish v. Johnson, 46-335.

6980. Who may be pilots for Hatteras or Ocracoke inlet. The said boards shall not issue or grant any branch to pilot vessels through Hatteras inlet to any person who does not reside in Hatteras precinct, which precinct extends from Cape Hatteras lighthouse to Hatteras inlet. And the said boards shall not issue or grant a branch to pilot vessels through or over Ocracoke inlet to any person who does not reside upon the island of Ocracoke or in the precinct of Portsmouth.

Rev., s. 4963; Code, s. 3514; 1856-7, c. 29; 1879, c. 216, s. 3.

ART. 5. GENERAL PROVISIONS

6981. Obstructing navigable waters; removing beacons; penalty; pilot's liability. If any person shall cast or throw from any vessel, into the navigable waters of Carteret or Onslow counties, of Tar or Pamlico rivers, or into the navigable waters of the Cape Fear, or any other river in the state, or into any channel of navigable water elsewhere than in a river, any ballast, stone, shells, earth, trash, or other substance likely to be injurious to the navigation of such waters, rivers, or channel; or if any person shall wilfully pull down any beacon, stake, or other mark, erected or placed by virtue of any by-law, order, or regulation passed or ordained by any commissioners of navigation, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall forfeit and pay two hundred dollars, to be recovered for the use of the commissioners in whose waters the offense was committed. If any pilot shall knowingly suffer any such unlawful act to be done, and shall not within ten days thereafter give to the said commissioners, or one of them, information thereof, such pilot shall likewise be guilty of a misdemeanor; and, besides the usual punishment of such offense, on conviction, shall be forever incapable of acting as a pilot in the state.

Rev., s. 3560; Code, ss. 3537, 3538; R. C., c. 85, ss. 40, 41; 1833, c. 146; 1784, c. 206, s. 11; R. S., c. 88, ss. 23, 24, 45; 1811, c. 839; 1842, c. 65, s. 4; 1846, c. 60, s. 3.

Section cited in State v. Eason, 114-796.

6982. Local: Obstructing waters of Currituck sound. It shall be unlawful for any person to obstruct navigation in the waters of Currituck sound and tributaries, and all persons, corporations, companies, or clubs, who have heretofore placed or caused to be placed any hedging across the mouth of a bay, creek, strait, or lead of water in Currituck sound or tributaries, made of iron, wire, or wood or other material, for the purpose of preventing the free passage of boats or vessels of any size or class, or to stop the public use of such bay, creek, strait, or lead of water, are required to forthwith remove the same. Any person, corporation, or club violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not more than fifty dollars nor less than ten dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days, at the discretion of the court.

Rev., s. 3553; 1897, c. 277.

6983. Local: Lumbermen to remove obstructions in Albemarle sound. If any lumberman shall fail to remove all obstructions placed by him in the waters of Albemarle sound and its tributaries, as soon as practicable, after they have ceased to use them for the purpose for which they were placed in said waters, from all places where the water is not less than two feet deep, and also from all landing places on both sides, for the space of sixty feet from the shore outward, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not less than one dollar nor more than fifty dollars, at the discretion of the court.

Rev., s. 3551; Code, s. 3303; 1880, c. 37, ss. 1, 2.

6984. Anchoring in range of lighthouses. If the master of any vessel shall anchor on the range line of any range of lights established by the United States lighthouse board, unless such anchorage is unavoidable, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by a fine not to exceed fifty dollars.

Rev., s. 3550; Code, s. 3086; 1883, c. 165, s. 2.

6985. Vessels on inland waterways exempt from pilot laws; proviso as to steam vessels. All vessels, barges, schooners, or other craft passing through the inland waterway of this state, when bound to a port or ports in this or any other state, be and the same are hereby exempt from the operations of the pilot laws of North Carolina and are not compelled to take a state licensed pilot: Provided, that steam vessels not having a United States licensed pilot for the waters navigated on board shall be subject to the state pilot laws.

6986. Bond of pilot. Every person, before he obtains a commission or a branch to be a pilot, shall give bond with two sufficient sureties payable to the state of North Carolina, in the sum of five hundred dollars, with condition for the due and faithful discharge of his duties, and the duties of his apprentices; and the body appointing such pilot may, from time to time, and as often as they may deem it necessary, enlarge the penalty of the bond, or require new and additional bonds to be given; and every bond taken of a pilot shall be filed with, and preserved by, the said body appointing such pilot in trust for every person that shall be injured by the neglect or misconduct of such pilot, or his apprentices; who may severally bring suit thereon for the damage by each one sustained.

For action on official bond, see section 354.

6987. Pilots to have spyglasses. Every pilot, within such convenient time as the commissioners may direct, who has control over the waters within which he acts, shall furnish himself with a good telescope or spyglass, under the penalty of fifty dollars, to be paid to the commissioners.

Rev., s. 4973; Code, s. 3517; R. C., c. 85, s. 27; 1790, c. 320, s. 3.

6988. Penalty for acting as pilot without license. If any person shall presume to act as pilot, who is not qualified and licensed in the manner herein prescribed, he shall forfeit and pay, for the use of the commissioners, forty dollars for every attempt at piloting: Provided, that should there be no pilot in attendance, any person may conduct into port any vessel in danger from stress of weather or in a leaky condition.

Rev., s. 4974; Code, s. 3519; R. C., c. 85, s. 29; 1783, c. 194, s. 3; 1784, c. 208, s. 4.

See Gerrish v. Johnson, 46-335.

6989. Penalty on pilot neglecting to go to vessel having signal set. When any pilot shall see any vessel on the coast, having a signal for a pilot, or shall hear a gun of distress fired off the coast, and shall neglect or refuse to go to the assistance of such vessel, such pilot shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars, to be recovered in the name of the state, one-half to the use of the informer and the other half to the master of the vessel, unless such pilot is then actually in charge of another vessel.

Rev., s. 4975; Code, s. 3521; R. C., c. 85, s. 31; 1784, c. 207, s. 10; 1790, c. 320, s. 2; 1783, c. 194, s. 6.

6990. Pilots may be removed. Unless otherwise provided in the first article of this chapter for the Cape Fear river, whenever any pilot appointed, as authorized in this chapter, shall, on trial, be found incompetent, or shall be guilty of improper conduct by intoxication or otherwise, or of any misbehavior in his office, or shall absent himself from the state for a period of six months, the pilot so offending may be removed from his office by the board of commissioners under whose authority he is acting, by a notice to him in writing; and if after such removal he shall attempt to take charge of any vessel, he shall forfeit and pay two hundred dollars for the use of said board. And it shall be the duty of the board to put up a written notice of the removal, in the public places within the port, or publish it in some convenient newspaper. But no pilot for the navigation of Hatteras inlet shall be required to surrender or forfeit his branch by reason of absence from the state for a period of less than six months.

Rev., s. 4976; Code, ss. 3518, 3490; 1869-70, c. 235, s. 7; 1881, c. 261, s. 2; R. C., c. 85, s. 28; R. S., c. 88, ss. 7, 31, 35; 1784, c. 207, s. 4; 1819, c. 1025, s. 4; 1800, c. 565; 1876-7, c. 22; 1881, c. 261, s. 1.

A duly licensed pilot, who is guilty of an act for which his license may be revoked, is entitled to his fees until such revocation: Davis v. Heide, 161-476.

6991. Pilots refused, entitled to pay. If a branch pilot shall go off to any vessel bound in, and offer to pilot her over the bar, the master or commander of such vessel, if he refuses to take such pilot, shall pay to such pilot, if not previously furnished with one, the same sum as is allowed by law for conducting such vessel in, to be recovered before a justice of the peace, if the sum be within his jurisdiction: Provided, that the first pilot, and no other, who shall speak such vessel so bound in shall be entitled to the pay provided for in this section.

Rev., s. 4978; Code, s. 3522; R. C., c. 85, s. 32; 1871-2, c. 117.

See Gerrish v. Johnson, 46-335; Saulter v. Steamship Co., 88-126; St. George v. Hardie, 147-88.

6992. Pay of pilots when detained by vessel. Every master of a vessel who shall detain a pilot at the time appointed, so that he cannot proceed to sea, though wind and weather should permit, shall pay to such pilot three dollars per day during the time of his actual detention.

Rev., s. 4979; Code, s. 3495; 1858-9, c. 23, s. 7.

6993. Rates of pilotage annexed to commission. The commissioners of navigation for the several ports of this state shall annex to the branch or commission, by them given to each pilot, a copy of the fees to which such pilot is entitled.

Rev., s. 4980; Code, ss. 3497, 3536; R. C., c. 85, ss. 9, 38; 1784, c. 208, s. 4; 1796, c. 470, s. 5.

6994. Harbor masters; how appointed. The several boards of commissioners of navigation may appoint a harbor master for their respective ports. They shall appoint a clerk to keep books, in which shall be recorded all their proceedings.

Rev., s. 4981; Code, s. 3525; R. C., c. 85, s. 35.

6995. Commissioners of navigation may hold another office. A commissioner of navigation and pilotage shall be deemed a commissioner for a special purpose within the meaning of section seven of article fourteen of the constitution of North Carolina, so as not to be prohibited from holding at the same time with his commissionership another office under the national or state governments.

Ex. sess. 1913, c. 76.

6996. Commissioners of navigation to designate place for trash. The several boards of commissioners established by this chapter may, subject to such regulations as the United States may make, designate the places whereat, within the waters under their several and respective control, may be cast and thrown ballast, trash, stone, and like matter.

Rev., s. 4982; Code, s. 3537; R. C., c. 85, s. 40; R. S., c. 88, ss. 23, 24, 45; 1833, c. 146, ss. 1, 2, 3; 1846, c. 60, s. 3.

Referred to in State v. Eason, 114-787.

6997. Harbor master; how appointed where no board of navigation. Where no board of navigation exists the governing body of any incorporated town, situated on any navigable water course, shall have power to appoint a harbor master for the port, who shall have the same power and authority in their respective ports as the harbor master of Wilmington is by this chapter given for that port, and shall receive like fees and no others.

Rev., s. 4983.

NOTE.—For liens on vessels for tonnage, etc., see Liens.

6998. Rafts to exercise care in passing buoys, etc.; penalty. If any person having charge of any raft passing any buoy, beacon, or day-mark, shall not exercise due diligence in keeping clear of it, or, if unavoidably fouling it, shall not exercise due diligence in clearing it, without dragging from its position such buoy, beacon, or day-mark, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by fine not to exceed fifty dollars.

Rev., s. 3545; Code, s. 3087; 1883, c. 165, s. 3.

6999. Interfering with buoys, beacons, and day-marks. If any person shall moor any kind of vessel, or any raft or any part of a raft, to any buoy, beacon, or day-mark placed in the waters of North Carolina by the authority of the United States lighthouse board, or shall in any manner hang on with any vessel or raft, or part of a raft, to any such buoy, beacon, or day-mark, or shall wilfully remove, damage, or destroy any such buoy, beacon, or day-mark, or shall cut down, remove, damage, or destroy any beacon erected on land in this state by the authority of the said United States lighthouse board, or through unavoidable accident run down, drag from its position, or in any way injure any buoy, beacon, or day-mark, as aforesaid, and shall fail to give notice as soon as practicable of having done so, to the lighthouse inspector of the district in which said buoy, beacon, or day-mark may be located, or to the collector of the port, or, if in charge of a pilot, to the collector of the port from which he comes, he shall for every such offense be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not to exceed two hundred dollars, or imprisoned not to exceed three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Rev., s. 3546; Code, s. 3085; 1858-9, c. 58, ss. 2, 3; 1883, c. 165, s. 1.

PAWNBROKERS

SEC.

- 7000. Pawnbroker defined.
- 7001. License; business confined to municipalities.
- 7002. Municipal authorities to grant and control license; bond.
- 7003. Records to be kept.
- 7004. Pawn ticket.
- 7005. Sale of pledges.
- 7006. Usury law applicable.
- 7007. Violation of chapter misdemeanor.

7000. Pawnbroker defined. Any person, firm, or corporation who shall engage in the business of lending or advancing money on the pledge and possession of personal property, or dealing in the purchasing of personal property or valuable things on condition of selling the same back again at stipulated prices, is hereby declared and defined to be a pawnbroker.

7001. License; business confined to municipalities. No person, firm, or corporation shall engage in the business of lending money, or other things, for profit or on account of specific articles of personal property deposited with the lender in pledge in this state, which business is commonly known as that of pawnbrokers, except in incorporated cities and towns, and without first having obtained a license to do so from such incorporated cities and towns, and by paying the county, state, and municipal license tax required by law, and otherwise complying with the requirements made in this and succeeding sections.

For license tax required, see section 7816.

7002. Municipal authorities to grant and control license; bond. The board of aldermen, or other governing body, of any city or town in this state may grant to such person, firm, or corporation as it may deem proper, and who shall produce satisfactory evidence of good character, a license authorizing such person, firm, or corporation to carry on the business of a pawnbroker, which said license shall designate the house in which such person, firm, or corporation shall carry on said business, and no person, firm, or corporation shall carry on the business of a pawnbroker without being duly licensed, nor in any other house than the one designated in the said license. Every person, firm, or corporation so licensed to carry on the business of a pawnbroker shall, at the time of receiving such license, file with the mayor of the city or town granting the same, a bond payable to such city or town in the sum of one thousand dollars, to be executed by the persons so licensed and by two responsible sureties, or a surety company licensed to do business in the state of North Carolina, to be approved of by such mayor, which said bond shall be for the faithful performance of the requirements and obligations pertaining to the business so licensed. The board of aldermen, or other governing body, shall have full power and authority to revoke such license and sue for forfeiture of the bond upon a breach thereof. Any person who may obtain a judgment against a pawnbroker and upon which judgment execution is returned unsatisfied, may maintain an action in his own name upon the said bond of said pawnbroker, in any court having jurisdiction of the amount demanded, to satisfy said judgment.

7003. Records to be kept. Every pawnbroker shall keep a book in which shall be legibly written, at the time of the loan, an account and description of the goods, articles or things pawned or pledged, the amount of money loaned thereon, the time of pledging the same, the rate of interest to be paid on said loan, and the name and residence of the person pawning or pledging the said goods, articles, or things.

1915, c. 198, s. 3.

7004. Pawn ticket. And every such pawnbroker shall at the time of each loan deliver to the person pawning or pledging any goods, articles, or things a ticket or memorandum or note signed by him containing the substance of the entry required to be made by him in his book as aforesaid, and a copy of the said ticket, memorandum, or note so given to the person pawning or pledging any goods, articles, or things of value, shall be filed within forty-eight hours in the office of the chief of police of the city or town issuing the license to such pawnbroker. The said tickets or memorandums so issued shall be numbered consecutively and dated the day issued.

7005. Sale of pledges. No pawnbroker shall sell any pawn or pledge until the same shall have remained sixty days in his possession after the maturity of the debt for which the property was pledged. And no pawnbroker shall advertise or sell at his place of business as unredeemed pledges any articles of property other than those received by him as pawns or pledges in the usual course of his business at the place where he is licensed to do business.

1915, c. 198, s. 4.

7006. Usury law applicable. The provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to relieve any person from the penalty incurred under the laws against usury in this state.

1915, c. 198, s. 5.

For usury penalty, see section 2306.

7007. Violation of chapter misdemeanor. Any person, firm, or corporation violating the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the court.

1915, c. 198, s. 5.

CHAPTER 116

PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

SEC.

- 7008. State board of accountancy created.
- 7009. Terms of members; appointment of successors.
- 7010. Duties of board.
- 7011. Organization of board; officers; quorum.
- 7012. Bond of treasurer.
- 7013. Record and reports of board.
- 7014. Board to grant certificates.
- 7015. Prerequisites for certification.
- 7016. Times of examinations for applicants.
- 7017. Fees for certification; reexamination.
- 7018. Pay of board.
- 7019. Disposition of fees by board.
- 7020. Certification without examination; public accountant defined.
- 7021. Certification from other states or countries.
- 7022. Revocation of certificates.
- 7023. Practice without certificate misdemeanor.
- 7024. Chapter not applicable to officers of state or municipality.

7008. State board of accountancy created. Within thirty days after the passage of this act the governor shall appoint four persons to constitute a state board of accountancy. Three members of said board shall be persons skilled in the knowledge and practice of accounting and actively engaged as professional accountants within the state of North Carolina, and the other a recognized attorney of the state; being of good standing as such.

7009. Terms of members; appointment of successors. The members of such board shall hold office for three years or until their successors are appointed and have qualified, except that of the members first appointed under this chapter one shall hold office for one year, one for two years, and two for three years. The term of office for each to be designated by the governor in his appointment. Upon the expiration of the terms of each of the members first appointed a member shall be appointed by the governor for the term of three years, and after this date the members of the board shall be appointed from among the holders of certificates issued under this chapter.

1913, c. 157, s. 2.

7010. Duties of board. The board shall determine the qualifications of persons applying for certificates under this chapter, and make rules for the examination of applicants and the issue of certificates herein provided for.

1913, c. 157, s. 3.

7011. Organization of board; officers; quorum. The board shall organize by the election of one of its members as president, one member as secretary, and one member as treasurer, but the office of secretary and treasurer may be held by one person. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum, and the vote of three members shall be considered as the action of the board.

7012. Bond of treasurer. The treasurer shall give bond to the state in such sum as may be determined by the board.

1913, c. 157, s. 5.

7013. Records and reports of board. The board shall keep a complete record of all its proceedings, and shall annually submit a full report to the governor.

1913, c. 157, s. 6.

7014. Board to grant certificates. The board shall grant certificates of qualification to such applicants as may, upon examination, be qualified in "theoretical" and "practical" accounting, "auditing," "commercial law" as affecting accountancy, and in such other subjects as the board may deem advisable.

1913, c. 157, s. 7.

7015. Prerequisites for certification. Any citizen of the United States, or person who has duly declared his intention of becoming such citizen, over the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character, being a graduate of a high school or having had an equivalent education, who has had at least three years experience in the practice of accounting, and has passed a satisfactory examination as herein provided, shall be entitled to a certificate to practice accounting and shall be styled and known as a certified public accountant.

1913, c. 157, s. 8.

7016. Times of examinations for applicants. The examination shall be held as often as may be necessary in the opinion of the board, and at such times and places as it may designate, but not less frequently than in each calendar year.

1913, c. 157, s. 9.

7017. Fees for certification; reexaminations. The board shall charge for each examination and certificate provided for in this chapter a fee of twenty-five dollars. This fee shall be payable to the treasurer of the board by the applicant at the time of filing application. In no case shall the examination fee be refunded, but said applicant may be reexamined within eighteen months from the date of his application without payment of an additional fee.

1913, c. 157, s. 10.

7018. Pay of board. The members of the board to be appointed under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid for the time actually expended in pursuance of the duties imposed upon them by this chapter an amount not exceeding ten dollars per day, and they shall also be entitled to necessary traveling expenses.

1913, c. 157, s. 11.

7019. Disposition of fees by board. From the fees collected the board shall pay all expenses incident to the examination to be held under this chapter, the expenses of preparing and issuing certificates, the traveling expenses of examiners and their compensation while performing their duties; but no expense incurred under this chapter shall be charged against the state. Any surplus arising shall, at the end of each year, be deposited by the treasurer of the board with the state treasurer to the credit of the general fund.

1913, c. 157, s. 12.

7020. Certification without examination; public accountant defined. Any public accountant who files his application (and be it understood that by "public accountant" is meant one actively engaged and practicing accountancy as his principal vocation during the business period of the day) within ninety days after the organization of the board, and is at the time of filing his application a public accountant, and has practiced as such for at least three years next preceding the date of his application, the last six months of which has been in the state of North Carolina, shall file with his application proofs of said facts. The board shall consider the proofs and such other evidence as may be procured, and if it be satisfied that the statements contained in the application and proofs are true, and that the applicant is of good moral character, it shall accept the foregoing evidence in lieu of examination and grant the applicant a certificate.

7021. Certificates from other states or countries. Any citizen of the United States or person who has declared his intention of becoming such citizen, over twenty-one years of age, of good moral character, and who has complied with the rules and regulations of the board pertaining to such cases, and who holds a valid and unrevoked certificate as a certified public accountant, or the equivalent thereof, issued by or under the authority of any other state of the United States, or of the United States, or the District of Columbia, or any territory of the United States, or by or under the authority of a foreign nation, when the board shall be satisfied that their standards and requirements for a certificate as a certified public accountant are substantially equivalent to those established by this chapter, may, at the discretion of the board, receive a certificate as a certified public accountant, and such person may thereafter practice as a certified public accountant and assume and use the name, title, and style of "Certified Public Accountant," or any abbreviation or abbreviations thereof, in this state: Provided, however, that such other state or nation extends similar privileges to certified public accountants of this state.

7022. Revocation of certificates. The board may revoke any certificate issued under this chapter for sufficient cause if written notice has been mailed to the holder of such certificate at his last known address at least twenty days before any hearing thereof, stating the cause of such contemplated action, and appointing a time for a hearing thereon by the board. But no certificate issued under this chapter may be revoked until such hearing has been had. At all such hearings the attorney-general of the state or one of his assistants designated by him shall sit with the board with all the powers and pay of a member thereof.

7023. Practice without certificate misdemeanor. If any person shall represent himself as having received a certificate as provided in this chapter, or shall practice as a certified public accountant, or use the abbreviation "C. P. A." (without specifying the state that granted said certificate), or in similar words or letters to indicate that the person using the same is qualified to practice in this state as a certified public accountant, without having received such certificate as provided for by this chapter, or if any person having received a certificate as provided for in this chapter, and having thereafter lost such certificate by revocation as herein provided, shall practice as a certified public accountant, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than fifty dollars and not exceeding two hundred dollars for each offense.

7024. Chapter not applicable to officers of state or municipality. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to restrict or limit the power or authority of any state, county, or municipal officer or appointee engaged in or upon the examination of the accounts of any public officer, his employees or appointees.

1913, c. 157, s. 17.

For system of accounting in municipal corporations, see sections 2840, 2841.

ART. 1. OFFICERS IN CHARGE

7025. Board of public buildings; keeper of capitol. The board of public buildings and grounds shall appoint a keeper of the capitol, public grounds and arsenal, who shall hold his office until his successor is appointed and files his bond, as required in the chapter entitled Bonds. The keeper of the capitol shall perform all the duties and have all the rights as hereinafter prescribed. As to the manner of performing his duties he shall be under the general direction of a board known as the board of public buildings and grounds, consisting of the governor, secretary of state, treasurer, and attorney-general; but he shall have the absolute right to appoint and control all lawful subordinates, such as watchmen of the capitol, workmen on the grounds, domestic servants for the executive mansion, and servants about the capitol and its appurtenances, except the servant and messenger waiting and attending upon the supreme court. And, with the approval of the marshal of the supreme court, he shall appoint one janitor, but not more than one, of the supreme court building, whom he shall, in like manner, have the right to remove: Provided, that the compensation of the domestic servants shall not exceed seven hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

Rev., s. 5006; Code, s. 2301; 1899, c. 482; 1870-1, cc. 8, 175; 1880, c. 61; 1909, c. 860.

Office-holding case: Cherry v. Burns, 124-761.

7026. Bond of keeper of capitol. Before entering upon the duties of his office the keeper of the capitol shall execute a bond, with good security, in the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, payable to the state of North Carolina, and conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. The bond shall be deposited in the office of secretary of state, and be renewed every two years under the care of the board of public buildings; and shall be put in suit whenever in their judgment the conditions thereof, or any of them, may have been broken; and the same shall not be discharged until the whole penalty is exhausted in damages.

For actions on official bonds, see section 354.

7027. Duties of the board and the keeper. The board of public buildings and grounds shall take charge of and keep in repair the public buildings of the state in the city of Raleigh; shall, from time to time, as the same may be needed, procure, furnish, and keep in repair for the halls of the senate and house of representatives and the public offices of the capitol all necessary furniture. The keeper shall take care of the furniture, sweep and cleanse off cobwebs and dust from all the unoccupied parts of the buildings; keep the keys of the several doors not occupied as offices, and conduct visitors through the capitol, whenever requested to do so; shall, under the direction of the board, trim or remove trees standing in the public square, and remove the leaves and other rubbish as often as may be necessary; and shall perform any other duty required by this chapter, of which he is capable, whenever especially ordered by the board to do so. The board at all times is required to use such means as may secure the capitol from fire.

Rev., s. 5008; Code, s. 2303; R. C., c. 103, s. 3.

7028. Arsenal provided. The board of public buildings and grounds shall provide a suitable building for an arsenal. The governor may make such provision as he may deem necessary for the care and issue of property and for guarding and protecting the arsenal.

Rev., s. 5007; Code, s. 2302; 1870-1, c. 175, s. 3; 1917, c. 200, s. 96.

NOTE.—See Militia, s. 6876.

7029. Accounts for labor audited. No account for work or labor done on the capitol square or public grounds in the city of Raleigh, or in the senate chamber, or house of representatives, or in any room or office in the capitol, or in any building connected with the square or grounds, shall be audited or paid until the same is sworn to before the secretary of state, to be just and true, and so certified by that officer. Nor shall the secretary of state certify the account of any laborer for work done or services rendered in any of such buildings or on any of such grounds, unless it be made to appear that such laborer or employee has been employed by the keeper of the capitol.

Rev., s. 5017; Code, s. 2310; 1870-1, c. 80, s. 2.

7030. Accounts for fuel audited. No account for fuel shall be audited or paid until the claimant make oath, as in the preceding section, that the account is just and true, and that the number of cords of wood, or tons of coal, charged for, have been delivered to the authorities authorized to receive the same at the public building.

Rev., s. 5018; Code, s. 2311; 1870-1, c. 80, s. 3.

ART. 2. PUBLIC BUILDINGS

7031. Rooms assigned in capitol. The rooms of the capitol, other than the senate chamber and house of representatives, shall be appropriated as follows: The two west rooms of the southern division of the capitol shall be appropriated to the executive; the two east rooms in the southern division shall be appropriated to the treasurer; the two east rooms in the northern division shall be appropriated to the secretary of state, and the two rooms opposite to the auditor; the upper room in the east wing to the insurance commissioner; and the room number three, in the west wing, shall be appropriated and set apart to the enrolling clerks of the general assembly. The other rooms shall be used for state purposes under the direction of the board of public buildings.

For relocation of Department of Insurance, see s. 7036.

7032. Custodian of administration building. The judges of the supreme court, the state librarian, and the secretary of the state historical commission shall appoint a custodian of the administration building, who shall hold his office until his successor is appointed. The custodian shall, under the general direction of the officials above named, have the management and control of the administration building, take care of the furniture and keep clean all parts of the building, keep the keys to the several rooms not occupied as offices, conduct visitors through the building whenever requested to do so, and perform any other duty, of which he is capable, whenever especially ordered by the above officials to do so.

1913, c. 96, s. 1.

NOTE.—For compensation, see Salaries and Fees, s. 3881.

7033. Custodian to employ assistants. The custodian of the administration building is empowered to employ such laborers and assistance as is needed to keep the building clean and in order to run the elevators: Provided, that the number of laborers and the wages paid shall be approved by the board of public buildings and grounds and be paid by the keeper of the capitol as other laborers are paid.

Ex. sess. 1913, c. 67.

7034. Rooms assigned in administration building. The first floor of the state administration building shall be occupied by the state library; the second floor by the hall of history, hall of records and portraits, and the North Carolina historical commission; the third floor by the supreme court, the clerk of the supreme court, and the attorney-general; the fourth floor by the supreme court library and the supreme court records, and the basement of the building shall be used for storing the printed journals of the general assembly, printed laws, supreme court reports, the publications of the board of trustees of the state library and of the historical commission, and for such other purposes as the board of public buildings and grounds may direct.

7035. Custodian and janitor of state departments building. The building formerly occupied by the supreme court and the state library and others shall be designated as the State Departments Building. The board of public buildings and grounds is authorized to employ a custodian and a janitor for such building.

1915, c. 187, ss. 1, 2.

NOTE.—For compensation, see Salaries and Fees, s. 3881.

7036. Rooms assigned in state departments building. The first floor of the state departments building shall be occupied by the corporation commission and the state tax commission, if created. The second floor shall be occupied by the departments of labor and printing and public instruction. The third floor shall be occupied by the department of insurance. The fourth floor shall be occupied by the board of health. The basement of the building shall be used as a store-room for the departments occupying the building and used as may be necessary by them.

7037. Building for department of agriculture. The building commission is authorized to contract for or have erected on the site of the present agricultural building site a building suitable for the department of agriculture and the work it is authorized to promote. The said building commission is hereby authorized to construct such building at such time as they deem advisable at a cost not to exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to be provided for by this general assembly. One entire floor of the building shall be fitted up in committee rooms for the committees of the general assembly with necessary cloak and lavatory rooms.

7038. Agricultural building. The rooms in the agricultural building shall be used by the department of agriculture and for a museum.

Rev., s. 5012; 1893, c. 228; 1913, c. 99, s. 2.

7039. No sleeping apartments in certain buildings. The rooms in the capitol and supreme court building shall not be used as sleeping apartments, and no beds shall be kept in any room save only that used by the keeper; and he shall remove all beds and sleeping couches which may be introduced by any person into any of the rooms; and shall take charge of and keep all the keys of the rooms, except only such as are used by the heads of the departments; and of them for such time as they are not so used.

Rev., s. 5013; Code, s. 2304; R. C., c. 103, s. 5; 1842, c. 54.

ART. 3. PUBLIC GROUNDS

7040. Keeper of capitol supervisor of public lots. The keeper of the capitol is appointed supervisor of all the other public lots belonging to the state in the city of Raleigh, except such as may be occupied by the institution for the deaf and dumb, and the public schools, and Moore and Nash squares, and such other vacant lots as are by this chapter placed in charge of the city of Raleigh, and he is authorized to lease such lots or such parts thereof as it may be proper to lease, and upon such terms as may be reasonable and proper, for the period of twelve months, and he is required to turn over the proceeds of such renting to the governor whenever the same be demanded, after retaining for his services ten per cent thereof.

Rev., s. 5009; Code, ss. 2312, 2314; 1870-1, c. 282, s. 3; 1871-2, c. 205.

7041. Repair of walks. Whenever the walks in and immediately around the capitol square become so worn by action of the weather or other causes that in the judgment of the board of public buildings they should be repaired, relocated, or resurveyed, the board is authorized to direct the keeper of the capitol to contract for suitable material for such repairs; but the work shall be done by convict labor as far as the same can be used; and the auditor shall audit the accounts for said material and labor on the approval of the board of public buildings and the keeper of the capitol; and the board is authorized and empowered to use such brick and other material from the state's prison as is not otherwise appropriated and such labor from the state's prison as may not otherwise be employed as may be necessary for such repair.

Rev., s. 5014; Code, s. 2316; 1881, c. 325, ss. 1, 2; 1905, c. 509.

7042. Work of convicts on public grounds. The superintendent and board of directors of the state's prison are authorized, upon application by the board of public buildings and grounds, to furnish not more than four trustees from the state's prison, to be worked, under the supervision of the board of public buildings and grounds, on the grounds of the capitol and mansion squares. The state's prison shall be given credit by the state for the time made by such convicts.

7043. Appropriation for public grounds. A sum not exceeding six hundred dollars shall be set apart annually, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, which may be used in caring for the capitol square and public grounds in the city of Raleigh.

Rev., s. 5016; Code, s. 2309; 1887, c. 409, s. 12; 1870-1, c. 80.

7044. Moore and Nash squares and other public lots. The board of aldermen of the city of Raleigh shall have power to grade, lay out in walks, plant with trees, shrubbery, and flowers, and otherwise adorn Moore square and Nash square in said city, so as to make the same an ornament to the city, and to that end they shall have the general charge and management of those squares. They may improve in like manner any of the vacant lots belonging to the state within the city limits not otherwise specially appropriated. But they shall not have power to prevent the free access of well-behaved persons to such squares and lots except at unreasonable hours or for some temporary purpose specially to be designated by the board.

Rev., s. 5015; Code, ss. 2314, 2315; 1871-2, c. 205, ss. 1, 2.

7045. Trespass upon public grounds. If any person shall wilfully trespass upon any of the public lots belonging to the state in the city of Raleigh, or shall cut any timber or commit any waste, or shall refuse to surrender possession after the expiration of their leases, or if any person in possession of any of said lots above mentioned shall refuse to leave the same and shall further refuse to surrender possession within ten days after demand made by the keeper of the capitol, said person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and it shall be the duty of said keeper of the capitol to report all such violations of law to the governor or to the attorney-general, and if any of the said persons shall be convicted, they shall be fined or imprisoned at the discretion of the court.

Rev., s. 3745; Code, s. 2313; 1870-1, c. 282, s. 4.

7046. Injuring trees in capitol square. No person shall drive, screw, or otherwise insert any nails, screws, or other devices into or upon any of the trees in the capitol square in the city of Raleigh for any purpose whatsoever, and any person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than ten dollars or imprisoned not more than ten days: Provided, this section shall not apply to preparing or repairing the small houses and drinking fountains for the squirrels in said park.

7047. Metallic support for wires. All electric light companies, telephone companies, or any person requiring support for wires or cables, shall use such iron or metallic poles as may be prescribed by the board of public buildings and grounds, for supporting said wires within the capitol square, or shall be required to place said wires or cables in underground conduits at the direction of the board of public buildings and grounds.

1907, c. 67, s. 3.

SUBCHAPTER I. ADMINISTRATION OF PUBLIC HEALTH LAW

ART. 1. STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

7048. Creation and members. The medical society of the state of North Carolina shall choose from its members by ballot four members, and the governor of the state shall appoint five other persons (one of whom shall be sanitary engineer), and they shall constitute the North Carolina board of health.

Rev., s. 4435; Code, s. 2875; 1879, c. 177, s. 1; 1885, c. 237, s. 1; 1893, c. 214, s. 1; 1911, c. 62, s. 1.

By the act of 1911, c. 62, the legislature adopted a new scheme for the protection of public health: Comrs. v. Henderson, 163-114.

7049. Term of office; vacancies; how filled. The members of the board of health elected by the state medical society shall be chosen to serve for six years. Their term of office shall begin immediately upon the expiration of the meeting at which they were elected. Those appointed by the governor shall serve for six years, their term of office beginning with the first regular meeting of the board after their appointment. In case of death or resignation the board shall elect new members to fill the unexpired terms: Provided, the governor shall fill such vacancies as may occur where he has made appointments.

Rev., s. 4436; Code, s. 2877; 1879, c. 117, s. 3; 1885, c. 237, s. 3; 1893, c. 214, s. 2; 1901, c. 245; 1911, c. 62, s. 2.

7050. Duties of board. The board of health shall take cognizance of the health interests of the people of the state; shall make sanitary investigations and inquiries in respect to the people, employing experts when necessary; shall investigate the causes of diseases dangerous to the public health, especially epidemics, the sources of mortality, the effect of location, employments, and conditions upon the public health. They shall gather such information upon these matters for distribution among the people, with the especial purpose of informing them about preventable diseases. They shall be the medical advisers of the state, and are herein specially provided, and shall advise the government in regard to the location, sanitary construction, and management of all state institutions, and shall direct the attention of the state to such sanitary matters as in their judgment affect the industries, prosperity, health, and lives of the people of the state. They shall make an inspection once in each year, and at such other times as they may be requested to do so by the state board of charities, of all public institutions, including all convict camps under the control of the state's prison, and make a report as to their sanitary conditions, with suggestions and recommendations, to their respective boards of directors or trustees; and it shall be the duty of the officials in immediate charge of said institutions to furnish all facilities necessary for a thorough inspection. The secretary of the board shall make biennially to the general assembly, through the governor, a report of their work.

Rev., s. 4437; Code, s. 2876; 1879, c. 117, s. 2; 1885, c. 237, s. 2; 1893, c. 214, s. 3; 1911, c. 62, s. 3.

7051. May make regulations in epidemics. In times of epidemics of smallpox, yellow fever, typhoid fever, scarlet fever, diphtheria, typhus fever, bubonic plague, and cholera, the state board of health shall have sanitary jurisdiction in all cities and towns not having regularly organized local boards of health, and are hereby empowered to make all such regulations as they may deem necessary to protect the public health, and to enforce them by suitable penalties.

Rev., s. 4438; 1893, c. 214, s. 17; 1911, c. 62, s. 4.

The public safety is the highest law: State v. Hay, 126-999.

7052. To issue bulletins; to check diseases; compensation. Bulletins of the outbreak of disease dangerous to the public health shall be issued by the state board whenever necessary, and such advice freely disseminated to prevent and check the invasion of disease into any part of the state. It shall also be the duty of the board to inquire into any outbreak of disease, by personal visits or by any method the board shall direct. The compensation of members on such duty shall be four dollars a day and all necessary traveling and hotel expenses.

Rev., s. 4439; 1893, c. 214, s. 26; 1911, c. 62, s. 5.

7053. Officers of; salary of secretary; pay of members. The state board of health shall have a president, a secretary who shall also be treasurer, and an executive committee, said executive committee to have such powers and duties as may be assigned it by the board of health. The president shall be elected from the members of the board and shall serve six years; the secretary-treasurer shall be elected from the registered physicians of the state and shall serve six years. The executive committee shall be composed of the president of the board, ex officio, and two other members of the board to be elected from those composing it. The executive office of the board shall be in the city of Raleigh, and the secretary shall reside there. The secretary shall be the executive officer of the board and shall, under its direction, devote his entire time to public-health work, and shall be known as the "state health officer." He shall receive for his services such yearly compensation as shall be fixed by the board, not to exceed three thousand dollars and his actual traveling and hotel expenses when engaged in the work of the board. The board may in its discretion elect as a special assistant to the state health officer, for the antituberculosis work, the secretary of the state association for the prevention of tuberculosis, at an annual salary not to exceed six hundred dollars. The members of the board shall receive no pay, except that each member shall receive four dollars and necessary traveling and hotel expenses when on actual duty in attending the meetings of the board or of the executive committee or in pursuing special investigations in the state; but when attending important meetings beyond the limits of the state, the number of delegates thereto being limited to one in addition to the secretary, only actual traveling and hotel expenses shall be allowed. These sums shall be paid by the treasurer on authenticated requisition, approved and signed by the president.

Rev., s. 4440; Code, ss. 2878, 2881; 1879, c. 117, ss. 5, 7; 1885, c. 237, s. 4; 1893, c. 214, s. 4; 1911, c. 62, s. 6; 1913, c. 181, ss. 1, 2.

7054. Meetings to elect officers. The meeting of the state board of health for the election of officers shall be on the second day of the annual meeting of the medical society of the state of North Carolina in the year one thousand nine hundred and one and every six years thereafter.

Rev., s. 4441; 1901, c. 245, s. 4; 1911, c. 62, s. 7.

7055. Annual and special meetings. Special meetings of the state board of health may be called by the president through the secretary. The regular annual meeting shall be held at the same time and place as the state medical society, at which time the secretary shall submit his annual report. The executive committee shall meet at such times as the president of the board may deem necessary, and he shall call such meetings through the secretary.

Rev., s. 4442; 1893, c. 214, s. 27; 1911, c. 62, s. 8.

ART. 2. STATE LABORATORY OF HYGIENE

7056. Laboratory established under control of state board of health. For the better protection of the public health and to prevent the spread of communicable diseases there shall be established a state laboratory of hygiene, the same to be under the control and management of the state board of health.

Rev., s. 3057; 1905, c. 415; 1907, cc. 721, 884; 1911, c. 62, s. 36.

7057. To analyze potable waters. It shall be the duty of the state board of health to have made in such laboratory monthly examinations of samples from all the public water supplies of the state; of all waters sold in bottle or other package, and of all spring waters that are maintained and treated as an adjunct to any hotel, park, or resort for the accommodation or entertainment of the public. In the case of springs in connection with hotels, parks, or resorts intermittently operated, examinations of the water shall be made monthly during the period only that they are open for the accommodation or entertainment of the public; but if upon the examination of the water of any such spring it shall be found to be infected or contaminated with intestinal bacilli or other impurities dangerous to health, examinations shall be made weekly until its purity and safety are shown.

The board shall also cause examinations to be made of well and spring waters, when in the opinion of any county superintendent of health or any registered physician there is reason to suspect such waters of being contaminated and dangerous to health.

Rev., s. 3057; 1905, c. 415; 1907, cc. 721, 884; 1911, c. 62, s. 36.

7058. To make examination for communicable diseases. The board shall likewise have made in this laboratory examinations of sputum in cases of suspected tuberculosis, of throat exudates in cases of suspected diphtheria, of blood in cases of suspected typhoid and malarial fever, of fæces in cases of suspected hookworm diseases, and such other examinations as the public health may require.

Rev., s. 3057; 1905, c. 415; 1907, cc. 721, 884; 1911, c. 62, s. 36.

7059. Support of laboratory; tax on waters. For the support of the state laboratory of hygiene in addition to the annual appropriation there is hereby appropriated an annual tax of sixty-four dollars, payable quarterly, by every water company, municipal, corporate, and private, selling water to the people. The annual tax for waters from springs or wells sold in bottles or otherwise shall be as follows: For springs or wells, the gross annual sales from which for the previous calendar year are less than two thousand dollars and more than one thousand five hundred dollars, fifty dollars; less than one thousand five hundred and more than one thousand dollars, forty dollars; less than one thousand and more than five hundred dollars, thirty dollars; less than five hundred and more than two hundred and fifty dollars, twenty dollars; less than two hundred and fifty dollars, fifteen dollars; for any spring maintained and treated as an adjunct to any hotel, park, or resort for the accommodation and entertainment of the public, fifteen dollars, and an additional tax for water sold in bottle or other package from such spring in accordance with the above schedule. The tax shall be collected quarterly by the sheriff, as other taxes, and shall be paid by the sheriff directly to the treasurer of the state board of health.

Rev., s. 3057; 1905, c. 415; 1907, cc. 721, 884; 1911, c. 62, s. 36.

7060. Duty of seller to make reports and transmit samples; penalties. Every corporation, firm, or person selling water in the manner set forth in the preceding section shall file with the treasurer of the state board of health, annually in the month of January, an affidavit as to the gross amount received from sales of water for the previous calendar year, and upon this affidavit the tax for the current year shall be based. Failure to file such affidavit within the time prescribed shall subject the corporation, firm, or person to double tax for the current year. Failure to transmit sample within five days after receipt of sterilized bottle or container from the laboratory of hygiene shall be a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall subject the delinquent to a fine of twenty-five dollars. Transportation charges, by mail, shall be paid by the sender; by express, by the laboratory. When deemed advisable, the laboratory of hygiene shall analyze samples purchased by it in the open market in lieu of those sent direct from the spring.

7061. Nonresidents selling water. Any person, firm, or corporation not a citizen of the state who shall sell or offer for sale any water in bottle or other package for consumption by the people of the state shall obtain a license from the treasurer of the state board of health and shall pay for said license the sum of sixty-four dollars per annum, or a less amount, equal to the tax paid by springs of the same class within the state, upon compliance with the conditions applying to them, payable in advance: Provided, that satisfactory evidence of purity furnished by the state hygienic laboratories of other states agreeing to reciprocate in the matter with this state shall be accepted in lieu of the license tax.

1911, c. 62, s. 36.

7062. Publication of dangerous waters. If water sold by any person, firm, corporation, or municipality shall be discovered by three successive analyses made by the state laboratory of hygiene to be dangerous to the public health, publication of that fact shall be made in the monthly bulletin of the state board of health. The result of said analyses shall be immediately forwarded by mail to the person, firm, corporation, or municipality selling the water so analyzed. When upon subsequent analysis the water shall be found to be no longer dangerous to health, a certificate thereof shall be furnished the person, firm, corporation, or municipality offering the water for sale, and publication of the fact shall be made in the monthly bulletin: Provided, that this shall not apply to therapeutic waters so medicated as to render them sterile, the question of their sterility to be decided by the director of the state laboratory of hygiene.

1911, c. 62, s. 36.

7063. Printing and stationery for laboratory. The printing and stationery necessary for the laboratory shall be furnished upon requisition upon the state printer, and paid for out of the appropriation to the state board of health.

1911, c. 62, s. 36; 1913, c. 181, s. 14; 1917, c. 220, s. 1; 1919, c. 145, s. 25.

ART. 3. COUNTY ORGANIZATION

7064. County board of health; organization; terms of members; chairman. The chairman of the board of county commissioners, the mayor of the county town, and in county towns where there is no mayor the clerk of the superior court, and the county superintendent of schools shall meet together on the first Monday in April, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and thereafter on the first Monday of January in the odd years of the calendar, and elect from the regularly registered physicians of the county two physicians who, with themselves, shall constitute the county board of health. The chairman of the board of county commissioners shall be the chairman of the county board of health, and the presence of three members at any regular or called meeting shall constitute a quorum. The term of office of members of the county board of health shall terminate on the first Monday in January in the odd years of the calendar, and while on duty they shall receive four dollars per diem to be paid by the county.

Rev., s. 4444; 1901, c. 245, s. 3; 1911, c. 62, s. 9. This section designating certain officials as a county board of health is constitutional: McCullers v. Comrs., 158-75.

7065. Duties of county board of health; meetings; expenses. The county board of health shall have the immediate care and responsibility of the health interests of their county. They shall meet annually in the county town, and three members of the board are authorized to call a meeting of the board whenever in their opinion the public health interest of the county requires it. They shall make such rules and regulations, pay such fees and salary, and impose such penalties as in their judgment may be necessary to protect and advance the public health. All expenditures shall be approved by the board of county commissioners before being paid.

Rev., s. 4444; 1901, c. 245, s. 3; 1911, c. 62, s. 9.

It is the duty of the board of county commissioners to approve the salary of the county health officer before it is paid: Halford v. Senter, 169-546; McCullers v. Comrs., 158-75.

7066. Violation of rules of county board a misdemeanor. If any person shall violate the rules and regulations made by the county board of health he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days.

Rev., s. 3453; 1901, c. 245, s. 3; 1911, c. 62, s. 10.

7067. To elect county physician or health officer. The board of health shall meet on the first Monday of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and thereafter on the second Monday of January in the odd years of the calendar, and elect either a county physician or a county health officer, whose tenure of service shall be terminable at the pleasure of the county board of health, and who shall serve thereafter until the second Monday in January of the odd years of the calendar. If the county board of health of any county shall fail to elect a county physician or county health officer within two calendar months of the time set in this section, the secretary of the state board of health shall appoint a registered physician, of good standing in the said county, to the office of county physician, who shall serve the remainder of the two years, and shall fix his compensation, to be paid by the said county, in proportion to the compensation paid by other counties for like service, having in view the amount of taxes collected by said county.

Rev., ss. 4444, 4446; 1897, c. 201, s. 1; 1901, c. 245, s. 3; 1911, c. 62, s. 9; 1913, c. 181, s. 1; 1915, cc. 214, 233.

It is the duty of the secretary of the state board of health to appoint a county physician, if the county board of health fails to elect: McCullers v. Comrs., 158-75. The fees fixed for the services of the county physician must be approved by the board of county commissioners: Ibid.

As to county quarantine officer, see section 7070.

7068. Duties of county health officer; nonperformance a misdemeanor. The duties of the county health officer shall be to devote his entire time to the county public-health work, and he shall perform the duties of county physician, the duties of quarantine officer, and the following additional duties: he shall make a sanitary examination during the summer months of every public school building and grounds in the county, and no school committee or teacher shall make use of any school building or grounds until the county superintendent of health shall certify in writing that said building and grounds have been inspected and found to be in a satisfactory sanitary condition within four months of the date of the certificate. He shall examine every school child that has previously been examined by the teacher according to methods furnished said teacher by the county superintendent of schools, and reported to said county superintendent of schools as probably defective in the condition of its eyes, ears, nose, or throat, and he shall further endeavor to have examined the feces of every child whom he suspects of having hookworm disease. He shall notify on blank forms and in accordance with instructions furnished by the state department of public instruction, every parent or guardian of a child having any defect of the aforesaid organs, or hookworm disease, and he shall suggest to said parent or guardian the proper course of treatment and urge that such treatment be procured. He shall coöperate fully with the county board of education, the county superintendent of schools, and the teachers in the public schools, to the end that children may be better informed in regard to the importance of health and the methods of preventing disease. He shall, through the county press, public addresses, and in every available way, endeavor to educate the people of his county to set a higher value on health, and to adopt such public and private measures as will tend to a greater conservation of life. Any violation of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor, and shall subject the defendant to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

7069. Duties of county physician; may employ another physician. The duties of the county physician shall be to make the medico-legal post-mortem examinations for the coroners' inquests, to make examination of lunatics for commitment, to render professional service to the sick inmates of the convict camp, jail, and county home, upon request of the superintendent or the keeper of these institutions, and to determine the nature of any particular disease, upon the request of the quarantine or deputy quarantine officer. The county physician shall have the right to employ any other regularly registered physician of his county, to perform any or all of the duties pertaining to the jail, county home, or convict camp, when in his judgment it is desirable to do so; but the terms under which such physician is employed by the county physician shall be approved by the board of county commissioners.

Rev., s. 4445; 1901, c. 245, s. 3; 1911, c. 62, s. 11; 1913, c. 181, s. 2.

NOTE.—For duties of county health officer or physician in respect to examining school children, see further, Education, Art. 45.

For right to receive pay for services rendered, under act of 1893, c. 214, s. 9, in caring for smallpox patient, see Copple v. Comrs., 138-127.

7070. County quarantine officer. The election, term of office, and compensation of county quarantine officer are regulated as provided in article 9 of this chapter, entitled Infectious Diseases Generally. The county physician, county health officer, municipal physician, or municipal health officer shall be eligible to the position of quarantine officer. The county board of health shall arrange with the quarantine officer to accept and discharge the duties assigned in this chapter to him and any other duties relating to the control of infectious diseases which may be assigned to him by the county board of health.

The quarantine officer is charged with the enforcement of article 9 of this chapter, entitled Infectious Diseases Generally, and nothing herein contained shall interfere with the performance of his duties under that article. He shall faithfully enforce all laws pertaining to inland quarantine and disinfection and the rules and regulations governing these matters as prescribed by the local, county, or municipal boards of health, but any child or other person may remain in the custody and care of parents or family.

The quarantine of ports shall not be interfered with, but the officers of the local and state boards shall render all aid in their power to quarantine officers in the discharge of their duties.

The failure of the quarantine officer to perform the duties imposed in this section shall be a misdemeanor, and he shall be punished for each offense, except as otherwise specifically provided, by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

1911, c. 62, ss. 16, 20.

7071. Abatement of nuisances. Whenever and wherever a nuisance shall exist which in the opinion of the county physician or county health officer is dangerous to the public health, it shall be his duty to notify in writing the parties responsible for its continuance, of the character of the nuisance and the means of abating it. Upon this notification, the parties shall proceed to abate the nuisance: Provided, however, that if the party notified shall make oath or affirmation before a justice of the peace of his or her inability to carry out the directions of the county physician or county health officer, it shall be done at the expense of the town, city, or county in which the offender lives. In the latter case the limit of the expense chargeable to the city, town, or county shall not be more than one thousand dollars in any case: Provided further, that nothing in this section shall be construed to give the county physician or county health officer the power to destroy or injure property without a due process of law as now exists for the abatement of nuisances.

Rev., s. 4450; 1893, c. 214, s. 22; 1911, c. 62, s. 12; 1913, c. 181, s. 3.

Duty of officer to notify person responsible for dangerous nuisance: State v. Wilkes, 170-735. The officers cannot burn a residence to prevent spread of contagious disease: Pritchard v. Comrs., 126-908.

Rev., s. 3446; 1893, c. 214, s. 22; 1911, c. 62, s. 13; 1913, c. 181, s. 3.

Evidence sufficient to convict under this section: State v. Wilkes, 170-735.

7073. Certain nuisances in seaport towns. All ponds of stagnant water, all cellars and foundations of houses, whose bottoms contain stagnant and putrid water; all dead and putrefied animals lying about the docks, streets, lanes, alleys, vacant lots, or yards; all privies that have no wells sunk under them; all slaughter-houses, all docks whose bottoms are alternately wet and dry by the ebbing and flowing of the tide, all accumulations of vegetable and animal substances undergoing putrefactive fermentation, in any of the seaport towns of the state, are declared common nuisances, productive of offensive vapors and noxious exhalations, the causes of disease, and ought to be restrained, regulated, and removed.

7074. Duty of owners of sunken lots in seaport towns; penalty. Every person possessed of a lot in any seaport town, which from its low or sunken situation is liable to retain tide or rain water, or on which cellars or foundations for buildings may be dug (whether a tenement be erected over the same or not), shall during the months of June, July, August, September, and October, preserve and keep the said lot, cellars, and foundations dry and free from stagnant or putrid water and other filth; and any person offending herein shall forfeit and pay five dollars for the use of the town for every week he shall suffer such stagnant or putrid water or other filth to remain therein. And if the said owner shall, notwithstanding the above provisions, neglect to remove such stagnant or putrid water or other filth, the commissioner of the town may employ any person, upon such terms as to them may seem reasonable and just, to remove such filth or stagnant or putrid waters; and the expense shall be considered as a further fine for not complying with this section, and shall be collected accordingly, and shall also be a lien upon the lot upon which the same has been expended.

7075. County commissioners may levy special tax to protect health. The board of county commissioners of each county is hereby authorized at any time to levy a special tax, to be expended under the direction of a committee composed of the chairman of the board of county commissioners and the county health officer or county physician for the preservation of the public health.

Rev., s. 4455.

ART. 4. MUNICIPAL ORGANIZATION

7076. Municipal physician or health officer; municipal regulations. The authorities of any city or town, not already authorized in its charter, are hereby authorized to elect a municipal physician or municipal health officer when in their judgment municipal health would be improved thereby, and to make such regulations, pay such fees and salaries, and impose such penalties as in their judgment may be necessary for the protection and the advancement of the public health.

Rev., s. 4454; 1893, c. 214, s. 25; 1911, c. 62, s. 14; 1913, c. 181, s. 4.

7077. Duties of the municipal physician or health officer; enforcement. The duties of the municipal physician within the jurisdiction of the town or city for which he is elected shall be identical with those of the county physician for the county, with the exception of the duties of the county physician pertaining to the jail, convict camp, and county home. The authorities of any city or town shall have the power to assign the duties of quarantine officer to the municipal physician or health officer, and in such cases the municipal health officer shall faithfully perform the duties of the quarantine officer as prescribed in this chapter, and shall be subject to the penalties provided for the refusal or nonperformance of such duties. If the physician is employed to devote his entire time to the public health interests of his town or city, he shall be known as the municipal health officer, and shall discharge all duties pertaining to the public schools of his town or city which were assigned in this chapter to the county health officer, and such other duties as may be assigned him by the municipal board of health.

Any one violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

Rev., s. 4509; 1893, c. 214, s. 9; 1911, c. 62, s. 15; 1913, c. 181, s. 5. Section referred to in Comrs. v. Henderson, 163-114.

ART. 5. SPECIAL-TAX SANITARY DISTRICT

7078. Question of special sanitary tax submitted; district formed. Special-tax sanitary districts may be formed by the county board of health in any county, without regard to township lines, under the following conditions: Upon a petition of a majority of the freeholders within the proposed special sanitary district, in whose names real estate in such district is listed in the tax lists of the current fiscal year, endorsed by the county board of health, the board of county commissioners, after thirty days notice at the courthouse door and three public places in the proposed district, shall hold an election to ascertain the will of the people within the proposed special sanitary district, whether there shall be levied in such district a special annual tax of not more than the amount specified in the petition on the one hundred dollars valuation of property and on the poll to conduct the health work of the district as is hereinafter provided, in case such special tax is voted. The board of county commissioners shall appoint a registrar and two pollholders, and shall designate a polling place and order a new registration for such district, and the election shall be held in the district under the law governing general elections, as near as may be, and the registrar and pollholders shall canvass the vote cast and declare the result, and shall duly certify the returns to the board of county commissioners, and the same shall be recorded in the records of said board of commissioners. The expense of holding said election shall be paid out of the general funds of the county. At such election those who are in favor of the levy and collection of the tax shall vote a ticket on which shall be printed or written the words "For Special Tax," and those who are opposed shall vote a ticket on which shall be printed or written the words "Against Special Tax." In case a majority of the qualified voters at the election is in favor of the tax, the same shall be annually levied and collected in the manner prescribed for the levy and collection of other taxes. All moneys levied under the provisions of this section shall, upon collection, be placed to the credit of the health committee or board in such district, which committee shall be appointed by the county board of health, and such health committee shall have the authority to carry on the health work in the district as hereinafter provided.

1913, c. 154, s. 1.

7079. Election as to enlarging district. Upon the written request of a majority of the health committee of any special-tax district, the county board of health may enlarge the boundaries of any special-tax district established under this article, so as to include any contiguous territory, and an election in such new territory may be ordered and held in the same manner as prescribed in this article for elections in special-tax districts; and in case a majority of the qualified voters in such new territory shall vote at such election in favor of a special tax of the same rate as that voted and levied in the special-tax district to which said territory is contiguous, then the new territory shall be added to and become a part of the said special-tax district; and in case a majority of the qualified voters shall vote against said tax, the district shall not be enlarged.

1913, c. 154, s. 1.

7080. Election to abolish or to restore district or increase tax. Upon petition of two-thirds of the qualified voters residing in any special-tax sanitary district established under this article, endorsed and approved by the county board of health, the board of county commissioners shall order another election in said district, to be held under the provisions prescribed in this article for holding other elections. If at such election the majority of the qualified voters in said district shall vote "Against Special Tax," said tax shall be deemed revoked and shall not be levied, and said district shall be discontinued. No election for revoking a special tax in any special-tax district shall be ordered and held in such district within less than two years from the date of the election at which the tax was voted and the district established, nor at any time within less than two years after the date of the last election on said question in said district; and no petition revoking such tax shall be approved by the county board of health oftener than once in two years. These provisions for ordering a new election to revoke a special tax in any special-tax district shall not apply to elections in such districts for increasing or restoring the special-tax levy in such district, which elections may be ordered and held at any time in accordance with the provisions of this article for establishing new special-tax districts.

1913, c. 154, s. 1.

7081. Sanitary committee; appointment; qualifications; pay. The county board of health of each county shall immediately after the formation of a special-tax sanitary district, and on the first Monday in July of the odd years of the calendar thereafter, appoint in each sanitary district three intelligent men of good business qualifications, who are known to be in favor of public education, who shall serve for two years from the date of their appointment as health or sanitary committee-men in their respective district and until their successors are elected and qualified. If a vacancy shall occur at any time, by death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the county board of health to fill such vacancy. Such board shall have the power to pay out of the special-tax fund to each member of the committee thus appointed one dollar per day for not more than six days per annum.

7082. Election of chairman and secretary; records kept. The sanitary committee, as soon as practicable after their election and qualification, not to exceed twenty days, shall meet and elect from their number a chairman and secretary, and shall keep a record of their proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose. The name and address of the chairman and secretary shall be reported to the county health officer and to the state health officer.

1913, c. 154, s. 3.

7083. Powers of committee; may make rules. The authority and duties of the special-tax sanitary committee shall be the same as those given by the public laws of the state to the county board of health in so far as they are applicable to the special-tax sanitary district. The committee shall have the immediate care and responsibility of the health interest of this district. They shall make such rules and regulations, pay such fees and salary, purchase supplies, and impose such penalties as in their judgment may be necessary to protect and advance the public health, but no rules or regulations they may promulgate shall conflict with the rules and regulations of the boards of health of the state and county of which the district is a part.

1913, c. 154, ss. 4, 5.

7084. Employment of health officer; disbursement of funds. The committee shall have authority to employ a registered physician of the state as health officer, and if he should persistently neglect the performance of his full duties for a period of ninety days he may be dismissed by the committee and his successor employed to fill the unexpired term. If the committee is satisfied that the provisions of this act have been complied with they shall give an order approved by the chairman and secretary of the committee on the treasurer of the county, payable to the health officer for the full monthly amounts due for services in accordance with the contract, but monthly statements of the work done by the health officer shall be made to the committee; and he shall supply reports promptly of such information as he can on blanks supplied by and returnable to the state board of health. Orders for all funds to the credit of the special-tax sanitary district before it shall be a valid voucher on the county treasurer must be first approved by the chairman and secretary of the committee for the sanitary district.

7085. Powers and duties of health officer. The duties and powers of the health officer elected for the special-tax sanitary district shall be the same as those prescribed by the public laws of the state for the county health officer, in so far as they are applicable to the sanitary district, and such additional duties as may be imposed on him by the special-tax sanitary committee.

1913, c. 154, s. 6.

SUBCHAPTER II. VITAL STATISTICS

ART. 6. REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS AND DEATHS

7086. State board of health to enforce regulations. The state board of health shall have charge of the registration of births and deaths, shall prepare the necessary instructions, forms, and blanks for obtaining and preserving such records, and shall procure the faithful registration of the same in each local registration district as constituted in the second succeeding section, and in the central bureau of vital statistics at the capital of the state. The said board shall be charged with the uniform and thorough enforcement of the law throughout the state, and shall from time to time recommend to the general assembly any additional legislation that may be necessary for this purpose.

1913, c. 109, s. 1.

7087. State registrar. The secretary of the state board of health shall be state registrar of vital statistics, and shall have general supervision over the central bureau of vital statistics, which is hereby authorized to be established by said board. Adequate fireproof space in one of the state buildings for filing cases for the death and birth certificates made and returned under this article shall be provided by the committee on public buildings and grounds.

1913, c. 109, s. 2.

7088. Registration districts. For the purposes of this article the state shall be divided into registration districts as follows: Each city, each incorporated town, and each township shall constitute a local registration district.

1913, c. 109, s. 3.

7089. Appointment of local registrar. Within ninety days after the taking effect of this article, or as soon thereafter as possible, the chairman of every board of county commissioners in the state shall appoint a local registrar of vital statistics for each township in his county, and the mayor of every incorporated town or city in the state shall appoint a local registrar of vital statistics for his town or city, and the chairmen of the boards of county commissioners and the mayors of the cities or towns shall notify the state registrar, in writing, of the name and address of each local registrar so appointed. The term of office of each local registrar so appointed shall be four years, beginning with the first day of January of the year in which the local registrar is appointed, and until his successor has been appointed and has qualified, unless such office shall sooner become vacant by death, disqualification, operation of law, or other cause. In cities where health officers or other officials are, in the judgment of the state board of health, conducting effective registration of births and deaths under local ordinances at the time of the taking effect of this article, such officials may be appointed as registrars in and for such cities, and shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the state registrar, and to all the provisions of this article. Any vacancy occurring in the office of local registrar of vital statistics shall be filled for the unexpired term by a local registrar appointed by the same official who appointed the local registrar whose retirement creates the vacancy. Any chairman of a board of county commissioners or mayor of a city or town who appoints a local registrar to fill a vacancy in the office of local registrar shall notify the state registrar, in writing, of the name and address of the local registrar so appointed. At least ten days before the expiration of the term of office of any such local registrar, his successor shall be appointed by the chairman of the board of county commissioners for the township local registration office, and by the mayor of the city or town for the town or city registration office. Each local registrar shall be a bona fide resident of the township, city, or precinct for which he is appointed, and removal from the township, city, or precinct shall terminate the office.

7090. Removal of local registrar. Any local registrar who, in the judgment of the secretary of the state board of health, fails or neglects to discharge efficiently the duties of his office as laid down in this article, or who fails to make prompt and complete returns of all births and deaths, as required thereby, shall be forthwith removed from his office by the secretary of the state board of health, and such other penalties may be imposed as are provided under section 7113.

1913, c. 109, s. 4.

7091. Appointment of deputy and sub-registrars. Each local registrar shall, immediately upon his acceptance of appointment as such, appoint a deputy, whose duty it shall be to act in his stead in case of absence, illness, or disability, and such deputy shall in writing accept such appointment, and be subject to all rules and regulations governing local registrars. And when it may appear necessary for the convenience of the people in any rural district, the local registrar is hereby authorized, with the approval of the state registrar, to appoint one or more suitable persons to act as sub-registrars, who shall be authorized to receive certificates and to issue burial or removal permits in and for such portions of the district as may be designated; and each sub-registrar shall note on each certificate, over his signature, the date of filing, and shall forward all certificates to the local registrar of the district within ten days, and in all cases before the third day of the following month: Provided, that each sub-registrar shall be subject to the supervision and control of the state registrar, and may be by him removed for neglect or failure to perform his duties in accordance with the provisions of this article or the rules and regulations of the state registrar, and he shall be subject to the same penalties for neglect of duties as the local registrar.

7092. Permit for burial or other disposition of body. The body of any person whose death occurs in this state, or which shall be found dead therein, shall not be interred, deposited in a vault or tomb, cremated or otherwise disposed of, or removed from or into any registration district, or be temporarily held pending further disposition more than seventy-two hours after death, unless a permit for a burial, removal, or other disposition thereof shall have been properly issued by the local registrar of the registration district in which the death occurred or the body was found. And no such burial or removal permit shall be issued by any registrar until a complete and satisfactory certificate of death has been filed with him as hereinafter provided: Provided, that when a dead body is transported into a registration district in North Carolina for burial, the transit and removal permit, issued in accordance with the law and health regulations of the place where the death occurred, shall be accepted by the local registrar of the district into which the body has been transported for burial or other disposition, as a basis upon which he may issue a local burial permit. He shall note upon the face of the burial permit the fact that it was a body shipped in for interment, and give the actual place of death; and no local registrar shall receive any fee for the issuance of burial or removal permits under this article other than the compensation provided in section 7111.

7093. Stillborn children to be registered. A stillborn child shall be registered as a birth and also as a death, and separate certificates of both birth and death shall be filed with the local registrar, in the usual form and manner, the certificate of birth to contain in place of the name of the child, the word "stillbirth"; but no certificate of birth nor certificate of death shall be required for a child that has not advanced to the fifth month of uterogestation. The medical certificate of the cause of death shall be signed by the attending physician, if any, and shall state the cause of death as "stillborn," with the cause of the stillbirth, if known, whether a premature birth, and, if born prematurely, the period of uterogestation, in months, if known; and a burial or removal permit of the prescribed form shall be required. Midwives shall not sign certificates of death for stillborn children; but such cases, and stillbirths occurring without attendance of either physician or midwife, shall be treated as deaths without medical attendance, as provided for in this article.

1913, c. 109, s. 6.

7094. Contents of death certificates. The certificate of death shall contain the following items, which are hereby declared necessary for the legal, social, and sanitary purposes subserved by registration records:

1. Place of death, including state, county, township, or town, village or city. If in a city, the ward, street, and house number; if in a hospital or other institution, the name of the same to be given instead of the street and house number. If in an industrial camp, the name of the camp to be given.

2. Full name of decedent. If an unnamed child, the surname preceded by "Unnamed."

3. Sex.

4. Color or race—as white, black, mulatto (or other negro descent), Indian, Chinese, Japanese, or other.

5. Conjugal condition—as single, married, widowed, or divorced.

6. Educational attainments—as illiterate, able to read and write, common school education or equivalent, high school education or equivalent, college education or equivalent. If the deceased is less than fifteen years of age the educational attainments of the mother, if living, or of the father, if living, or of the guardian, in the order named, shall be given.

7. Date of birth, including the year, month, and day.

8. Age, in years, months, and days. If less than one day, the hours or minutes. If exact information is unobtainable, give approximate age.

9. Occupation. The occupation to be reported of any person who had any remunerative employment, stating (a) trade, profession, or particular kind of work; (b) general nature of industry, business, or establishment in which employed (or employer).

10. Birthplace; at least state or foreign country, if known.

11. Name of father.

12. Birthplace of father; at least state or foreign country, if known.

13. Maiden name of mother.

14. Birthplace of mother; at least state or foreign country, if known.

15. Signature and address of informant.

16. Official signature of registrar, with the date when certificate was filed, and registered number.

17. Date of death—year, month, and day.

18. Certification as to medical attendance on decedent, fact and time of death, time last seen alive, and the cause of death, with contributory secondary cause or complication, if any, and duration of each, and whether attributed to dangerous or insanitary conditions of employment; signature, date of signature, and address of physician or official making the medical certificate.

19. Length of residence (for inmates of hospitals and other institutions; transients or recent residents) at place of death and in the state, together with the place where disease was contracted, if not at place of death, and former or usual residence.

20. Place of burial or removal; date of burial.

21. Signature and address of undertaker or person acting as such.

The personal and statistical particulars (items one to thirteen) shall be authenticated by the signature of the informant, who may be any competent person acquainted with the facts.

The statement of facts relating to the disposition of the body shall be signed by the undertaker or person acting as such.

The medical certificate shall be made and signed by the physician, if any, who last treated the deceased for the disease or injury which caused death, and such physician shall specify the time in attendance, the time he last saw the deceased alive, and the hour of the day at which death occurred, and he shall further state the cause of death, so as to show the course of disease or sequence of causes resulting in the death, giving first the name of the disease causing death (primary cause), and the contributory (secondary) cause, if any, and the duration of each. Indefinite and unsatisfactory terms, denoting only symptoms of disease or conditions resulting from disease, will not be held sufficient for the issuance of a burial or removal permit; and any certificate containing any such indefinite or unsatisfactory terms, as defined by the state registrar, shall be returned to the physician or person making the medical certificate for correction and more definite statement. Causes of death, which may be the result of either disease or violence, shall be carefully defined; and if from violence, the means of injury shall be stated, and whether (probably) accidental, suicidal, or homicidal. In deaths in hospitals, institutions, or of nonresidents, the physician shall supply the information required under subsection 18 above, if he is able to do so, and may state where, in his opinion, the disease was contracted.

7095. Death without medical attendance; duty of undertaker and officials. In case of death occurring without medical attendance, it shall be the duty of the undertaker or person acting as such to notify the local registrar of such death, and when so notified the registrar shall, prior to the issuance of the permit, inform the local health officer and refer the case to him for immediate investigation and certification. When the local health officer is not a qualified physician, or when the death takes place in a township registration district, or where there is no such official, and in such cases only, the registrar is authorized to make the certificate and return from the statement of relatives or other persons having adequate knowledge of the facts. If the registrar has reason to believe that the death had been due to unlawful act or neglect, he shall refer the case to the coroner or other proper officer for investigation and certification, who shall make the certificate of death required for a burial permit, stating therein the name of the disease causing death; or, if from external causes, (1) the means of death, and (2) whether (probably) accidental, suicidal, or homicidal; and shall, in any case, furnish such information as may be required by the state registrar in order properly to classify the death.

7096. Undertaker to file death certificate and obtain permit. The undertaker or person acting as undertaker shall file the certificate of death with the local registrar of the district in which the death occurred, and obtain a burial or removal permit, prior to any disposition of the body. He shall obtain the required personal and statistical particulars from the person best qualified to supply them, over the signature and address of his informant, and shall present the certificate to the attending physician, if any, or to the health officer or coroner, as directed by the local registrar, for the medical certificate of the cause of death and other particulars necessary to complete the record, as specified in sections 7094 and 7095. He shall then state the facts required relative to the date and place of burial, over his signature and with his address, and present the completed certificate to the local registrar in order to obtain a permit for burial, removal, or other disposition of the body. He shall deliver the burial permit to the person in charge of the place of burial, before interring or otherwise disposing of the body; or shall attach the removal permit to the box containing the corpse, when shipped by any transportation company, this permit to accompany the corpse to its destination, where, if within the state, it shall be delivered to the person in charge of the place of burial.

1913, c. 109, s. 9.

7097. Sales of caskets regulated. Every person, firm, or corporation selling a casket shall keep a record showing the name of the purchaser, purchaser's post-office address, name of deceased, date of death, and place of death of deceased, which record shall be open to inspection of the state registrar or his agent at all times. On the first day of each month the person, firm, or corporation selling caskets shall report to the state registrar each sale for the preceding month, on a blank provided for that purpose. But no person, firm, or corporation selling caskets to dealers or undertakers only shall be required to keep such record, nor shall such report be required from undertakers when they have direct charge of the disposition of a dead body. Every person, firm, or corporation selling a casket at retail, and not having charge of the disposition of the body, shall enclose within the casket a notice furnished by the state registrar, calling attention to the requirements of the law, a blank certificate of death, and the rules and regulations of the state board of health concerning the burial or other disposition of a dead body.

7098. Permit for burial in state. If the interment, or other disposition of the body is to be made within the state, the wording of the burial or removal permit may be limited to a statement by the registrar, over his signature, that a satisfactory certificate of death having been filed with him, as required by law, permission is granted to inter, remove, or dispose otherwise of the body, stating the name, age, sex, cause of death, and other necessary details upon the form prescribed by the state registrar.

1913, c. 109, s. 10.

7099. Interment without permit forbidden. No person in charge of any premises in which interments are made shall inter or permit the interment or other disposition of any body unless it is accompanied by a burial, removal, or transit permit, as herein provided. Such person shall endorse upon the permit the date of interment, over his signature, and shall return all permits so endorsed to the local registrar of his district within ten days from the date of interment. He shall also keep a record of all bodies interred or otherwise disposed of on the premises under his charge, in each case stating the name of each deceased person, place of death, date of burial or disposal, and name and address of the undertaker; which record shall at all times be open to official inspection. When burying a body in a cemetery or burial ground having no person in charge, the undertaker, or person acting as such, shall sign the burial or removal permit, giving the date of burial, and shall write across the face of the permit the words "No person in charge," and file the burial or removal permit within ten days with the registrar of the district in which the cemetery is located.

1913, c. 109, s. 11.

7100. Registration of births. The birth of every child born in this state shall be registered as hereinafter provided.

1913, c. 109, s. 12.

7101. Birth certificate to be filed within five days. Within five days after the date of each birth there shall be filed with the local registrar of the district in which the birth occurred a certificate of such birth, which certificate shall be upon the form adopted by the state board of health with a view of procuring a full and accurate report with respect to each item of information enumerated in the following section. Where a physician, midwife, or person acting as midwife, was in attendance upon the birth, it shall be the duty of such person to file the required certificate. Where there was no physician, midwife, or person acting as midwife, in attendance upon the birth, it shall be the duty of the father or mother of the child, the householder or owner of the premises where the birth occurred, or the manager or superintendent of the public or private institution where the birth occurred, each in the order named, within five days after the date of the birth, to report the fact to the local registrar. In such case and in case the physician, midwife, or person acting as midwife, in attendance is unable, by diligent inquiry, to obtain any of the items specified in the following section, it is the duty of the local registrar to secure from the person reporting the birth, or from any other person who knows the facts, information to enable him to prepare the required certificate of birth, and it is the duty of the person questioned to answer correctly to the best of his knowledge all such questions, and to verify his statement by his signature, when requested to do so by the local registrar.

7102. Contents of birth certificate. The certificate of birth shall contain the following items, which are hereby declared necessary for the legal, social, and sanitary purposes subserved by registration records:

1. Place of birth, including state, county, township or town, village or city. If in a city, the ward, street, and house number; if in a hospital or other institution, the name of the same to be given, instead of the street and house number.

2. Full name of child. If the child dies without a name before the certificate is filed, enter the surname preceded by "Unnamed." If the living child has not yet been named at the date of filing certificate of birth, the space for "full name of child" is to be left blank, to be filled out subsequently by a supplemental report, as hereinafter provided.

3. Sex of child.

4. Whether a twin, triplet, or other plural birth. A separate certificate shall be required for each child in case of plural births.

5. For plural births, number of each child in order of birth.

6. Legitimate or illegitimate: Provided, that in illegitimate births the word "illegitimate" shall be written across the face of the certificate and all items on the certificate which would in any way reveal the identity of the father, mother, or illegitimate child itself shall be omitted.

7. Date of birth, including the year, month, and day.

8. Full name of father: Provided, that if the child is illegitimate, the name of the putative father shall not be entered without his consent, but the other particulars relating to the putative father (items nine to thirteen) may be entered if known, otherwise as "Unknown."

9. Residence of father.

10. Color or race of father.

11. Educational attainments—illiterate, able to read and write, common school education or equivalent, high school education or equivalent, college education or equivalent.

12. Age of father at last birthday, in years.

13. Birthplace of father; at least state or foreign country, if known.

14. Occupation of father. The occupation to be reported if engaged in any remunerative employment, with the statement of (a) trade, profession, or particular kind of work; (b) general nature of industry, business, or establishment in which employed (or employer).

15. Maiden name of mother.

16. Residence of mother.

17. Color or race of mother.

18. Educational attainments—illiterate, able to read and write, common school education or equivalent, high school education or equivalent, college education or equivalent.

19. Age of mother at last birthday, in years.

20. Birthplace of mother; at least state or foreign country, if known.

21. Occupation of mother. The occupation to be reported if engaged in any remunerative employment, with the statement of (a) trade, profession, or particular kind of work; (b) general nature of industry, business, or establishment in which employed (or employer).

22. Number of children born to this mother, including present birth.

23. Number of children of this mother living.

24. The certification of attending physician or midwife as to attendance at birth, including statement of year, month, day (as given in item seven), and hour of birth, and whether the child was born alive or stillborn. This certification shall be signed by the attending physician or midwife, with date of signature and address; if there is no physician or midwife in attendance, then by the father or mother of the child, householder, owner of the premises, or manager or superintendent of public or private institution where the birth occurred, or other competent person, each in the order named, whose duty it shall be to notify the local registrar of such birth, as required by section 7101.

25. Exact date of filing in office of local registrar, attested by his official signature, and registered number of birth, as hereinafter provided.

1913, c. 109, s. 14.

7103. Blank furnished for report of name. When any certificate of birth of a living child is presented without the statement of the given name, then the local registrar shall make out and deliver to the parents of the child a special blank for the supplemental report of the given name of the child, which shall be filled out as directed, and returned to the local registrar as soon as the child shall have been named.

1913, c. 109, s. 15.

7104. Institutions to keep records of inmates. All superintendents or managers, or other persons in charge of hospitals, almshouses, lying-in or other institutions, public or private, to which persons resort for treatment of diseases, confinement, or are committed by process of law, shall make a record of all the personal and statistical particulars relative to the inmates in their institutions at the date of approval of this article, which are required in the forms of the certificates provided for by this article, as directed by the state registrar; and thereafter such record shall be, by them, made for all future inmates at the time of their admittance. In case of persons admitted or committed for treatment of disease, the physician in charge shall specify for entry in the record the nature of the disease, and where, in his opinion, it was contracted. The personal particulars and information required by this section shall be obtained from the individual himself if it is practicable to do so; and when they cannot be so obtained, they shall be obtained in as complete a manner as possible from relatives, friends, or other persons acquainted with the facts.

7105. State registrar to supply blanks; to perfect and preserve birth certificate. The state registrar shall prepare, have printed, and supply to all registrars all blanks and forms used in registering, recording, and preserving the returns, or in otherwise carrying out the purposes of this article; and shall prepare and issue such detailed instructions as may be required to procure the uniform observance of its provisions and the maintenance of a perfect system of registration; and no other blanks shall be used than those supplied by the state registrar. He shall carefully examine the certificates received monthly from the local registrars, and if any such are incomplete or unsatisfactory he shall require such further information to be supplied as may be necessary to make the record complete and satisfactory. And all physicians, midwives, informants, or undertakers, and all other persons having knowledge of the facts, are hereby required to supply, upon a form provided by the state registrar or upon the original certificate, such information as they may possess regarding any birth or death upon demand of the state registrar, in person, by mail, or through the local registrar. No certificate of birth or death, after its acceptance for registration by the local registrar, and no other record made in pursuance of this article, shall be altered or changed in any respect otherwise than by amendments properly dated, signed, and witnessed. The state registrar shall further arrange, bind, and permanently preserve the certificates in a systematic manner, and shall prepare and maintain a comprehensive and continuous card index of all births and deaths registered, such index to be arranged alphabetically, in the case of deaths, by the names of decedents, and in the case of births, by the names of fathers and mothers.

7106. To inform registrars as to dangerous diseases. He shall inform all registrars what diseases are to be considered infectious, contagious, or communicable and dangerous to the public health, as decided by the state board of health, in order that when deaths occur from such diseases proper precautions may be taken to prevent their spread.

1913, c. 109, s. 17.

7107. Birth certificate as evidence. At the expiration of five years after the ratification of this article, certified copies of birth registration certificates shall be accepted by public school authorities in this state as prima facie evidence of age of children registering for school attendance, and no other proof shall be required. At the expiration of fourteen years from the passage of this article certified copies of birth registration certificates shall be required by all factory inspectors, and employers of youthful labor, as prima facie proof of age, and no other proof shall be required from children born in this state or states which for fourteen years previous to the date of such certificate have had registration laws essentially identical with this article. When, however, it is not possible to secure such certified copy of birth registration certificate for any child, the school authorities and factory inspectors may accept as secondary proof of age any competent evidence by which the age of persons is usually established.

7108. Church and other records filed and indexed; fees for transcript. If any cemetery company or association, or any church or historical society or association, or any other company, society, or association, or any individual, is in possession of any record of births or deaths which may be of value in establishing the genealogy of any resident of this state, such company, society, association, or individual may file such record or a duly authenticated transcript thereof with the state registrar, and it shall be the duty of the state registrar to preserve such record or transcript and to make a record and index thereof in such form as to facilitate the finding of any information contained therein. Such record and index shall be open to inspection by the public, subject to such reasonable conditions as the state registrar may prescribe. If any person desires a transcript of any record filed in accordance herewith, the state registrar shall furnish the same upon application, together with a certificate that it is a true copy of such record, as filed in his office, and for his services in so furnishing such transcript and certificate he shall be entitled to a fee of (fifty cents per hour or fraction of an hour necessarily consumed in making such transcript) and to a fee of fifty cents for the certificate, which fees shall be paid by the applicant.

7109. Duties of local registrar as to certificates; reports. Each local registrar shall supply blank forms of certificates to such persons as require them. Each local registrar shall carefully examine each certificate of birth or death when presented for record in order to ascertain whether or not it has been made out in accordance with the provisions of this article and the instructions of the state registrar; and if any certificate of death is incomplete or unsatisfactory, it shall be his duty to call attention to the defects in the return, and to withhold the burial or removal permit until such defects are corrected. All certificates, either of birth or of death, shall be written legibly, in durable black ink, and no certificate shall be held to be complete and correct that does not supply all of the items of information called for therein, or satisfactorily account for their omission. If the certificate of death is properly executed and complete, he shall then issue a burial or removal permit to the undertaker: Provided, that in case the death occurred from some disease which is held by the state board of health to be infectious, contagious, or communicable and dangerous to the public health, no permit for the removal or other disposition of the body shall be issued by the registrar, except under such conditions as may be prescribed by the state board of health. If a certificate of birth is incomplete, the local registrar shall immediately notify the informant, and require him to supply the missing items of information if they can be obtained. He shall number consecutively the certificates of birth and death, in two separate series, beginning with number one for the first birth and the first death in each calendar year, and sign his name as registrar in attest of the date of filing in his office. He shall also make a complete and accurate copy of each birth and each death certificate registered by him in a record book supplied by the state registrar, which record book the local registrar shall deposit with the register of deeds of the county not later than the fifteenth of January each year. And the register of deeds shall make and keep an index, the form of which shall be of the births and deaths that have occurred in the county, and these records shall be open at all times to official inspection. And he shall, on the fifth day of each month, transmit to the state registrar all original certificates registered by him for the preceding month. And if no births or no deaths occurred in any month the local registrar shall, on the fifth day of the following month, report that fact to the state registrar, on a card provided for such purpose.

7110. Pay of local registrars. Each local registrar shall be paid the sum of twenty-five cents for each birth certificate and each death certificate properly and completely made out and registered with him, correctly recorded and promptly returned by him to the state registrar, as required by this article. And in case no births or deaths were registered during any month, the local registrar shall be entitled to be paid the sum of twenty-five cents for each report to that effect, but only if such report be made promptly as required by this article. The compensation of local registrars for services required of them by this article shall be paid by the county treasurers for registration work outside of incorporated municipalities, and by the town or city treasurer for registration work in incorporated municipalities. The state registrar shall certify every six months to the treasurers of the several counties and incorporated municipalities the number of births and deaths properly registered, with the names of the local registrars and the amounts due each at the rates fixed herein.

1913, c. 109, s. 19; Ex. sess. 1913, c. 15, s. 1; 1915, c. 85, s. 3; 1919, c. 210, s. 1.

7111. Certified copy of records; fee. The state registrar shall, upon request, supply to any applicant a certified copy of the record of any birth or death registered under provisions of this article, for the making and certification of which he shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents, to be paid by the applicant. The United States census bureau may, however, obtain, without expense to the state, transcripts or certified copies of births and deaths without payment of the fees herein prescribed, and for transcripts so furnished the state registrar may receive from the census bureau such compensation for this service, not exceeding two cents for each certificate, as the state board of health may approve. Any copy of the record of a birth or death, properly certified by the state registrar, shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and places of the facts therein stated. For any search of the files and records when no certified copy is made, the state registrar shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents for each hour or fractional part of an hour of time of search, said fee to be paid by the applicant. And the state registrar shall keep a true and correct account of all fees by him received under these provisions, and turn the same over to the treasurer of the state board of health.

1913, c. 109, s. 20; Ex. sess. 1913, c. 15, s. 2; 1919, c. 145, s. 25.

7112. Violations of article; penalty. Any person, who for himself or as an officer, agent, or employee of any other person, or of any corporation or partnership, shall do or omit any of the following acts:

1. Inter, cremate, or otherwise finally dispose of the dead body of a human being, or permit the same to be done, or shall remove said body from the primary registration district in which the death occurred or the body was found, without the authority of a burial or removal permit issued by the local registrar of the district in which the death occurred or in which the body was found;

2. Refuse or fail to furnish correctly any information in his possession, or shall furnish false information affecting any certificate or record, required by this article;

3. Wilfully alter, otherwise than as provided by section 7105, or shall falsify any certificate of birth or death, or any record established by this article;

4. Being required by this article to fill out a certificate of birth or death and file the same with the local registrar, or deliver it, upon request, to any person charged with the duty of filing the same, shall fail, neglect or refuse to perform such duty in the manner required;

5. Being a state registrar, a chairman of a board of county commissioners, a mayor of a city or town, a local registrar, a deputy registrar, or sub-registrar, shall fail, neglect, or refuse to perform his duty as required by this article and by the instructions and direction of the state registrar thereunder, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall for the first offense be fined not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars, and for each subsequent offense not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days.

7113. Duties of registrars and others in enforcing this article. Each local registrar is hereby charged with the strict and thorough enforcement of the provisions of this article in his registration district, under the supervision and direction of the state registrar. He shall make an immediate report to the state registrar of any violation of this article coming to his knowledge, by observation or upon complaint of any person or otherwise.

The state registrar is hereby charged with the thorough and efficient execution of the provisions of this article in every part of the state, and is hereby granted supervisory power over local registrars, deputy local registrars, and sub-registrars, to the end that all of its requirements shall be uniformly complied with. The state registrar, either personally or through an accredited representative, shall have authority to investigate cases of irregularity or violation of this article, and all registrars shall aid him, upon request, in such investigations. When he shall deem it necessary, he shall report cases of violation of the provisions of this article to the prosecuting attorney of the county, or the solicitor of the district, with a statement of the facts and circumstances; and when any such case is reported to him by the state registrar, the prosecuting attorney or solicitor of the district, as the case may be, shall forthwith initiate and promptly follow up the necessary court proceedings against the person or corporation responsible for the alleged violation of law. Upon request of the state registrar, the attorney-general shall likewise assist in the enforcement of the provisions of this article.

7114. Appropriations. For the purposes of the thorough execution of this article the sum of ten thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby annually appropriated to be paid by the state auditor on requisition signed by the president and secretary of the state board of health.

1913, c. 109, s. 23; 1915, c. 62.

7115. Local systems abrogated. No systems for the registration of births and deaths shall be continued or maintained in any of the several municipalities of this state other than the one provided for and established by this article.

1913, c. 109, s. 24.

SUBCHAPTER III. SANITATION AND PROTECTION OF PUBLIC

ART. 7. WATER PROTECTION

7116. Persons supplying water to protect its purity. In the interest of the public health, every person, company, or municipal corporation or agency thereof selling water to the public for drinking and household purposes shall take every reasonable precaution to protect from contamination and assure the healthfulness of such water, and any provisions in any charters heretofore granted to such persons, companies, or municipal corporations in conflict with the provisions of this article are hereby repealed.

Rev., s. 3058; 1899, c. 670, s. 1; 1903, c. 159, s. 1; 1911, c. 62, s. 24.

7117. Board of health to control and examine waters; rules; penalties. The state board of health shall have the general oversight and care of all inland waters, and shall from time to time, as it may deem advisable, cause examinations of said waters and their sources and surroundings to be made for the purpose of ascertaining whether the same are adapted for use as water supplies for drinking and other domestic purposes, or are in a condition likely to impair the interests of the public or of persons lawfully using the same, or to imperil the public health. For the purpose aforesaid, it may employ such expert assistants as may be necessary. The said board shall make such reasonable rules and regulations as in its judgment may be necessary to prevent contamination and to secure other purifications as may be required to safeguard the public health. Any individual, firm, corporation, or municipality, or person responsible for the management of water supply, failing to comply with said rules and regulations, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court.

7118. Systems of water supply and sewerage; plans submitted; penalties. The state board of health shall from time to time consult with and advise the boards of all state institutions, the authorities of cities and towns, corporations, or firms already having or intending to introduce systems of water supply, drainage or sewerage, as to the most appropriate source of supply, the best practical method of assuring the purity thereof, or of disposing of their drainage or sewage, having regard to the present and prospective needs and interests of other cities, towns, corporations, or firms which may be affected thereby. All such boards of directors, authorities, corporations, and firms are hereby required to give notice to said board of their intentions in the premises and to submit for its advice outlines of their proposed plans or schemes in relation to water supplies and disposal of sewage, and no contract shall be entered into by any state institution or town for the introduction of a system of water supply or sewage disposal until said advice shall have been received, considered, and approved by the said board. For the purpose of carrying out the general provisions of this and the preceding sections, every municipal or private corporation, company, or individual supplying or authorized to supply water for drinking or other domestic purposes to the public shall file with the secretary of the state board of health, within ninety days after the receipt of notice from said secretary, certified plans and surveys, in duplicate, pertaining to the source from which the water is derived, the possible source of infections thereof, and the means in use for the purification thereof, in accordance with the directions to be furnished by the said secretary. Failure on the part of any individual, firm, corporation, or municipality to comply with this section shall be a misdemeanor, and upon conviction those responsible therefor shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, at the discretion of the court.

1911, c. 62, s. 24.

7119. Condemnation of lands for water supply. All municipalities operating water systems and sewer systems, and all water companies operating under charter from the state or license from municipalities, which may maintain public water supplies, may acquire by condemnation such lands and rights in lands and water as are necessary for the successful operation and protection of their plants, said proceedings to be the same as prescribed by law under the chapter Eminent Domain.

Rev., s. 3060; 1903, c. 159, s. 16; 1905, c. 287, s. 2; c. 544; 1911, c. 62, s. 25.

NOTE.—For power of state institutions to condemn land for water supplies and to enter on lands to lay and repair water pipes, see State Departments, Institutions and Commissions, ss. 7522, 7523.

7120. Compensation for land. If damages shall be claimed for the use of such lands, and the parties cannot agree as to the amount of compensation to be paid, they may proceed in the manner now provided by law under the chapter Eminent Domain.

1911, c. 62, s. 27.

7121. Inspection of watersheds. The state board of health shall have quarterly sanitary inspections made of the entire watershed of any waterworks that derives its water from a surface supply, except in those cases where the supply is taken from large creeks or rivers that have a minimum daily flow of ten million gallons, in which case the inspection shall apply to the fifteen miles of watershed above the waterworks intake. Whenever in the opinion of the board of health of the city or town to which the water is supplied, or, where there is no such local board of health, in the opinion of the county board of health, or county physician or county health officer, or in the opinion of the state board of health, there is special reason to apprehend the infection of the water from any particular locality by the germs of typhoid fever or cholera, then the state board of health shall cause to be made at least once in every week a sanitary inspection of that particular locality. The inspection of the entire watershed as herein provided for shall include a particular examination of the premises of every inhabited house on the watershed, and, in passing from house to house, a general inspection for dead bodies of animals or accumulations of filth. It is not intended that the term "entire watershed" shall include uninhabited fields and wooded tracts that are free from suspicion. The sanitary inspector shall give in person to the head of each household on the watershed, or, in his absence, to some member of the household, the necessary directions for the proper sanitary care of his premises, and shall deliver to each family residing on the watershed such literature on pertinent sanitary subjects as may be supplied him by the municipal health officer or by the secretary of the state board of health. Full report in duplicate of all such inspections shall be made promptly by the sanitary inspector to the secretary of the state board of health, and their accuracy certified to by the affidavit of the inspector.

The authorities of any town or city that makes use of a public surface water supply or the officers of a public surface water supply company may make such additional inspections as such officials may deem necessary.

Rev., ss. 3045, 3046; 1899, c. 670; 1903, c. 159, s. 2; 1911, c. 62, s. 28; 1919, c. 71, s. 14.

NOTE.—See section 7142.

7122. Inspectors may enter premises. Each sanitary inspector is authorized and empowered to enter upon any premises and into any building upon his respective watershed for the purpose of making the inspections required.

Rev., s. 3050; 1899, c. 670, s. 8; 1903, c. 159, s. 10; 1911, c. 62, s. 30.

7123. Control of residents on watersheds. Every person residing or owning property on the watershed of a lake, pond, or stream from which a drinking supply is obtained shall carry out such reasonable instructions as may be furnished him in the matter hereinbefore set forth directly by the municipal health officer or by the state board of health. Any one refusing or neglecting to comply with the requirements of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned for not less than ten nor more than thirty days.

Rev., ss. 3049, 3859; 1903, c. 159, s. 7; 1911, c. 62, s. 31.

7124. Defiling water supply misdemeanor. If any person shall defile, corrupt, or make impure any well, spring, drain, branch, brook, creek, or other source of public water supply by collecting and depositing human excreta on the watershed, or depositing or allowing to remain the body of a dead animal on the watershed, or in any other manner, and if any person shall destroy or injure any pipe, conductor of water, or other property pertaining to an aqueduct, or shall aid and abet therein, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., ss. 3457, 3857; Code, s. 1114; R. C., c. 34, s. 97; 1893, c. 214; 1850, c. 104; 1903, c. 159, s. 12; 1911, c. 62, s. 32.

NOTE.—Damage to water supply of public institutions is a misdemeanor, see State Departments, Institutions and Commissions, sec. 7526.

7125. Discharge of sewage into water supply prohibited. No person, firm, corporation, or municipality shall flow or discharge sewage above the intake into any drain, brook, creek, or river from which a public drinking-water supply is taken, unless the same shall have been passed through some well-known system of sewage purification approved by the state board of health; and the continued flow and discharge of such sewage may be enjoined upon application of any person.

If any person, firm, or corporation, or officer of any municipality having a sewerage system in charge shall violate the provisions of this section he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., ss. 3051, 3858; 1903, c. 159, s. 13; 1911, c. 62, ss. 33, 34.

This section is constitutional: Board of Health v. Comrs., 173-250; Durham v. Cotton Mills, 141-615—and is not limited to watershed of 15 miles as specified in section 7121, Ibid. It may extend 75 miles above the intake for water supply: Board of Health v. Comrs., 173-250. No prescriptive right can be acquired by long usage to violate this section: Ibid.

An action to enjoin a town from emptying sewage into a stream may be maintained by the state board of health, or by the secretary of the board in his individual name: Board of Health v. Comrs., 173-250. No arbitrary or fixed method of treating sewage is required, but the parties should confer with the state board of health as to most reasonable requirements: Ibid.

7126. Cemeteries on watersheds forbidden. No burying ground or cemetery shall be established on the watershed of any public water supply nearer than five hundred yards of the source of supply, nor in violation of the rules and regulations of the state board of health as authorized by this article.

Rev., s. 3053; 1903, c. 159, s. 15.

7127. Water supply of communities without sewerage systems. All schools, hamlets, villages, towns, or industrial settlements which are now located or may be hereafter located on the shed of any public water supply not provided with a sewerage system shall provide and maintain a reasonable system approved by the state board of health for collecting and disposing of all accumulations of human excrement within their respective jurisdiction or control. Any one refusing or neglecting to comply with the requirements of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned for not less than ten nor more than thirty days.

Rev., ss. 3052, 3860; 1903, c. 159, s. 14; 1907, c. 585; 1911, c. 62, s. 35.

7128. Damage to private water supply misdemeanor. If any person shall wilfully put into the well, spring, or cistern of water of any other person any substance or thing whereby such well, spring, or cistern may be endamaged, or the water thereof be made less wholesome or fit for use, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 3456; Code, s. 1114; R. C., c. 34, s. 97; 1850, c. 104.

ART. 8. PRIVIES

7129. Privy defined. The term "privy" as used in this article shall be understood to include any and all buildings which are not connected with a system of sewerage, or with septic tanks of such construction and maintenance as approved by the state board of health and which are used for affording privacy in acts of urination or defecation.

1919, c. 71, s. 1.

7130. Sewerage, septic tank or approved privy required, when. No person shall maintain or use a residence, located within three hundred yards of another residence, that is not provided with sewerage, or with septic tanks approved by the state board of health, or with a sanitary privy which complies in construction and maintenance with the requirements of this article.

1919, c. 71, s. 2.

7131. License form to be fastened on certain privies. The state board of health, through its officers and inspectors, shall fasten a license form on all privies within three hundred yards of the residence of any person other than that of the owner or tenant thereof during the last three calendar months of every year, when, on inspection, the said privy is approved by the officer making the inspection as constructed in a sanitary manner and to be in good repair, in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations to be prescribed by the state board of health for the sanitary construction and maintenance of privies. The license shall apply to the calendar year following its issuance, except as hereinafter provided.

7132. Certain privies to be maintained in accordance with regulations. Every privy located within three hundred yards of the residence of any person other than that of the owner or tenant thereof shall be maintained in a sanitary manner and in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations to be prescribed by the state board of health and posted in suitable form inside of the privy by an officer of the said board.

1919, c. 71, s. 4.

7133. Responsibility for sanitary maintenance of privy. The head of a family or household, the proprietor of a boarding-house, hotel, restaurant, or store, the principal or superintendent of a school, the agent or station-master of a railroad station or depot, or the person in charge of an office building, establishment, or institution, shall be responsible for the sanitary maintenance, as prescribed in section 7132, of such privy or privies as may be used by his or her household, guests, customers, pupils, passengers, occupants, employees, workers or other persons.

1919, c. 71, s. 5.

7134. Supervision of privies by board of health. The state board of health, through its officers and inspectors, shall exercise such supervision over the sanitary construction and maintenance of privies as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this article.

1919, c. 71, s. 6.

7135. Use of insanitary privies prohibited. If an officer or an inspector of the state board of health shall find a privy located within three hundred yards of the residence of a person other than that of the owner or tenant thereof which is not constructed in accordance with the provisions of section 7131 of this article, he shall securely fasten on the said privy a notice reading, "Insanitary; unlawful to use"; and if the inspector or officer of the board shall find, in the course of his inspection, a privy not being maintained in a sanitary manner and in accordance with the reasonable rules and regulations of the state board of health for the maintenance of privies, he shall remove the license from the privy and securely fasten on the privy a notice, reading, "Insanitary; unlawful to use."

1919, c. 71, s. 7.

7136. Privy license not to be removed or defaced. No person shall remove or deface a privy license or other official notice fastened on or in a privy by an officer of the state board of health.

1919, c. 71, s. 8.

7137. Violation of this article. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this article, and any person who is responsible for the sanitary maintenance of a privy, and who permits such privy after an official notice reading, "Insanitary; unlawful to use," has been fastened on it, to be used, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days.

1919, c. 71, s. 9.

7138. Privy license fees. The owner of each privy shall pay to the officer or inspector of the state board of health, at the time the privy is inspected and approved for license, a license fee of forty cents, for which the said officer or inspector shall issue a receipt; and the said officer or inspector shall pay to the treasurer of the state board of health, and account for, all fees so received. The officers and employees of the state board of health authorized to receive license fees for the inspection and licensing of privies shall, before beginning their work, be bound by a bond sufficient to insure the state against the loss of funds which may come into their hands under the provisions of this article.

1919, c. 71, s. 10.

7139. Bureau of sanitary engineering and inspection; duties. For the faithful execution of this article, the state board of health shall organize and maintain a bureau of sanitary engineering and inspection which shall (1) study, ascertain, and recommend for installation suitable types of privies for the variety of geologic, sociologic, and economic conditions found in the state of North Carolina; (2) exercise such oversight over the construction and maintenance of privies coming within the meaning of this article as may be necessary for the protection of public health; (3) organize, supervise, and direct a force of sanitary inspectors who shall (a) inspect, license, and close privies in accordance with the provisions of this article and the rules and regulations of the state board of health, as provided for in this article; (b) make such other sanitary inspections as are required of the state board of health by law; (c) assist in the enforcement of the public health laws of the state, more especially the vital statistics law and the quarantine law; (d) collect samples of water from public water supplies for analyses by the state laboratory of hygiene when such analyses are deemed necessary by the state board of health.

1919, c. 71, s. 11.

7140. Powers of board of health and inspectors; penalty for interference. The members of the executive staff of the state board of health, and such additional state sanitary inspectors as shall be appointed for the enforcement of this article, are hereby authorized and are empowered to enter upon any premises and into any buildings or institutions for the purposes of inspection as provided for or required by state laws or regulations of the state board of health pursuant to such laws, but the privacy of no person shall be violated. Any person or persons who wilfully interfere with or obstruct the officers of the state board of health in the discharge of any of the aforementioned duties shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

1919, c. 71, s. 12.

7141. Provisions of this article applicable to all privies on watersheds. That the provisions of this article shall apply to all residences, institutions, and establishments, and all privies without regard to their distance from the homes of persons other than that of the owners or tenants thereof, which are located on the watershed of a public surface water supply. For the purpose of this article, the term "watershed" shall include the entire watershed of all streams, creeks, and rivers that have a daily average flow of less than ten million gallons, but for watersheds of streams, creeks or rivers that have a daily average flow of more than ten million gallons, the watershed shall include only such drainage areas as lie within fifteen miles of the waterworks intake.

1919, c. 71, s. 13.

7142. Water companies using surface supply relieved of inspections. The officers of public water companies using surface supplies are hereby relieved after October first, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, of making the inspections and reports of sanitary conditions obtaining on watersheds as required heretofore by law, and the state board of health shall assume and discharge these duties: Provided, that nothing in this article shall prevent the authorities of any town or city that makes use of a public surface water supply, or the officers of the public surface water supply company, to make such additional inspections as such officials may deem necessary.

1919, c. 71, s. 14.

NOTE.—See section 7121.

7143. Funds from licenses used for enforcement of this article. The funds received by the treasurer of the state board of health under the provisions of this article shall be expended in the enforcement of its provisions, and if there is a surplus over that which is necessary for the enforcement of this article, it shall be paid to the treasurer of the state, to be expended as provided by law. All funds received and disbursed under the provisions of this article shall be accurately accounted for in the biennial report of the state board of health.

1919, c. 71, s. 15.

7144. Exceptions to provisions of this article. This article shall not apply to any city the population of which shall be in excess of twenty thousand according to the latest official estimates of the bureau of the census, if the authorities of such city, before October first, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, shall officially request the state board of health to exempt it from its provisions. This article shall not apply to the residences of farmers and the homes of their tenants that are located more than three hundred yards from residences that come within the meaning of this article.

1919, c. 71, s. 16.

ART. 9. INFECTIOUS DISEASES GENERALLY

7145. County quarantine officers enforce article; oath. On the second Tuesday of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, all county quarantine officers and all county health officers to whom the duties of county quarantine officer have been assigned, as provided in this chapter, shall appear before the clerk of the superior court in their respective counties and make official oath or affirmation to faithfully enforce the provisions of this article. In those counties where a county board of health fails or neglects to elect a county quarantine officer on or before the second Tuesday of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, the secretary of the North Carolina state board of health shall appoint a quarantine officer for the county. On refusal or neglect of any quarantine officer, or county health officer acting as quarantine officer to make, within a period of ten days of the time named in this section, the aforesaid official oath or affirmation, the secretary of the North Carolina state board of health is hereby empowered to remove such quarantine or county health officer and to appoint a quarantine officer to enforce the provisions of this article, and on the appointee are conferred all the powers, privileges, and compensation herein provided for the county quarantine officer.

7146. Quarantine officers; election; term; vacancies. The official term of service of a county quarantine officer, including those in office and serving on June first, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, except in those counties where there is a county health officer, shall expire on the first Monday in January of the fourth year from the year of their appointment or election. In those counties having a county health officer who makes official oath or affirmation to enforce this article, the office of county quarantine officer shall be coterminous with the office of the said county health officer. The county board of health shall elect a successor to the county quarantine officer, or the county health officer acting as county quarantine officer, on or before the expiration of the term of service of said officer as herein defined. If the county quarantine officer, or the county health officer acting as such, is disqualified to continue in office by resignation, death, or otherwise, the county board of health shall, within five days thereafter, elect a county health officer or county quarantine officer to fill out the unexpired term. If the county board of health fails so to elect a successor to complete the unexpired term, the secretary of the North Carolina state board of health shall immediately appoint a county quarantine officer who shall make official oath or affirmation to enforce this article.

1917, c. 263, s. 2.

NOTE.—For further provisions as to the quarantine officer, see this chapter, sec. 7070.

7147. Election notified to state board of health; officer to qualify. The county board of health on electing a county quarantine officer shall promptly notify, in writing, the secretary of the North Carolina state board of health of such action, and failure to do so shall nullify the election. The officer-elect shall promptly notify the secretary of the North Carolina state board of health, in writing, of his having taken the oath or affirmation of office, inclosing a certified copy thereof, and failure to do so shall be construed as failure to have taken such official oath or affirmation.

7148. Failure of officer to enforce article; penalty. Any county quarantine officer, or county health officer acting as county quarantine officer, who fails or refuses to enforce this article in his county shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, fined not exceeding fifty dollars, and may, if the secretary of the North Carolina state board of health so decide, be disqualified for continuance in office.

1917, c. 263, s. 4.

7149. Municipalities; how far included. This article shall not apply to incorporated towns and cities of the state having a population, according to the last decennial census, of ten thousand or over; nor shall it apply to those counties the sanitary administration of which is directed by a joint board of health presiding over both the county and a town or city having a population, according to the last federal decennial census, of ten thousand or more; but the system of quarantine in force in such cities and counties shall be approved by the North Carolina state board of health, and reports of the occurrence of contagious diseases therein shall be made to the North Carolina state board of health as from all other cities and counties in the state.

1917, c. 263, s. 5.

7150. Compensation of quarantine officers. For his services the county quarantine officer shall be paid monthly, on certification from the secretary of the North Carolina state board of health that he has performed the duties of his office in a satisfactory manner, out of the county funds by the county treasurer, or in those counties that have no county treasurer by that official who performs the usual duties of the treasurer's office. Monthly payments shall be made on a population basis, according to the last decennial federal census, as follows:

	Per month.
Counties with a population less than 10,000.....	$ 15.00
Counties with a population of from 10,000 to 15,000.....	17.50
Counties with a population of from 15,000 to 25,000.....	25.00
Counties with a population of from 25,000 to 40,000.....	35.00
Counties with a population of from 40,000 to 50,000.....	45.00
Counties with a population over 50,000.....	50.00

In addition to such monthly salary, the county treasurer, or the person acting as county treasurer, shall pay to the quarantine officer all financial statements with receipted bills attached for sums paid out for postage, registration of letters, and disinfectants, the total sum not to exceed ten dollars in any month nor one hundred dollars in any one year. The secretary of the North Carolina state board of health shall supply the county quarantine officer, without cost to the county, with all forms, placards, and literature necessary for carrying out the provisions of this article. County authorities may revise their understandings with those county physicians who are acting as both physicians to county charges and as quarantine officers, and whose terms of office as quarantine officer shall expire in January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, unless discontinued by death, resignation, or other disqualification, on a basis of compensation adequate to the new duties herein required; but in no case shall the compensation allowed for the services required of quarantine officers be less than that herein named.

7151. Physicians to report infectious diseases. It shall be the duty of every physician to notify the county quarantine officer of the name, address, including the name of the school district, of any person living or residing, permanently or temporarily, in the county about whom such physician is consulted professionally and whom he has reason to suspect of being afflicted with whooping-cough, measles, diphtheria, scarlet fever, smallpox, infantile paralysis, typhoid fever, typhus fever, Asiatic cholera, bubonic plague, yellow fever, or other disease declared by the North Carolina state board of health to be infectious or contagious, within twenty-four hours after obtaining reasonable evidence for believing that such person is so afflicted. If the afflicted person is a minor, the physician consulted professionally about him shall notify the county quarantine officer of the name and address of the parent or guardian of the minor in addition to the name, address, and school district of the minor himself.

Rev., s. 3448; 1893, c. 214, s. 11; 1917, c. 263, s. 7.

7152. Parents and householders to report. It shall be the duty of every parent, guardian, or householder, in the order named, to notify the county quarantine officer of the name, address, including the name of the school district, of any person in their family or household about whom no physician has been consulted but whom they have reason to suspect of being afflicted with whooping-cough, measles, diphtheria, scarlet fever, smallpox, infantile paralysis, typhoid fever, Asiatic cholera, typhus fever, bubonic plague, yellow fever, or other disease declared by the North Carolina state board of health to be infectious or contagious.

7153. Quarantine officers to report cases to state board of health. It shall be the duty of the county quarantine officer to report all cases of whooping-cough, measles, diphtheria, scarlet fever, smallpox, infantile paralysis, typhoid fever, Asiatic cholera, typhus fever, bubonic plague, yellow fever, or other disease declared by the North Carolina state board of health to be infectious or contagious, reported to him by physicians and parents, guardians, or householders, within twenty-four hours of the receipt of such report to the secretary of the North Carolina state board of health at Raleigh, and to make this report on forms supplied him by the secretary and in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the North Carolina state board of health.

1917, c. 263, s. 9.

7154. Rules of state board of health; rules of local authorities. The North Carolina state board of health shall adopt what in their judgment seems to be the necessary rules and regulations governing the management, supervision, or control of the diseases coming within the meaning of this article, and shall cause the rules and regulations adopted to be published in the North Carolina state board of health bulletin and to be supplied in suitable quantities to all concerned with the execution of this article, and the North Carolina state board of health shall revise such rules and regulations from time to time to adjust their requirements to new discoveries and improved methods for dealing with the sources and modes of infection of the diseases specified. The rules and regulations so adopted shall be regarded as the minimum requirements, and the authorities of any county, town, or city may adopt such additional rules and regulations for the control of the diseases mentioned in this article, and pay such additional fees and salaries as in their judgment seem necessary.

7155. Violation of article or rules misdemeanor. Any person wilfully violating any of the provisions of this article and any person violating any of the rules and regulations adopted by the North Carolina state board of health, as provided in the preceding section, shall, in the absence of specific provisions in other sections of this article, be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not exceeding fifty dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days, at the discretion of the court. In case the offender be stricken with the disease for which he is quarantinable, he shall be subject to the penalty on recovery, unless in the opinion of the secretary of the North Carolina state board of health the penalty should be omitted.

Rev., s. 3448; 1893, c. 214, s. 11; 1917, c. 263, s. 11.

7156. Bureau of epidemiology; appropriations. For the purpose of seeing that this article and the rules and regulations adopted by the North Carolina state board of health, as provided in this article, are faithfully executed, a bureau of epidemiology and the office of state epidemiologist is hereby created, and an appropriation of four thousand dollars for the fiscal year of one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and thereafter an annual appropriation of six thousand dollars is hereby appropriated. The aforesaid bureau and the state epidemiologist shall be under the control and supervision of the North Carolina state board of health.

7157. Contingent fund in case of pestilence. A contingent fund of five thousand dollars is appropriated, subject to the auditor's warrant, upon the recommendation of the governor, to be expended in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter, when rendered necessary by the visitation of cholera or any other pestilential disease.

1911, c. 62, s. 39.

7158. Disposal of bowel discharges in typhoid and cholera; penalties. Any householder in whose family there is to his knowledge a person sick of cholera or typhoid fever, who shall permit the bowel discharges of such sick person to be emptied without first having disinfected them according to instructions to be obtained from the attending physician or county superintendent of health, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than two nor more than twenty-five dollars, or imprisoned not less than ten nor more than thirty days. In cases where such undisinfected discharges are emptied on the watershed of any stream or pond furnishing the source of water supply for any public institution, city, or town, the penalty shall be a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisonment for not more than thirty days. And any physician attending a case of cholera or typhoid fever who refuses or neglects to give the proper instructions for such disinfection as soon as the diagnosis is made shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

During an epidemic of cholera all common carriers shall so arrange their water-closets as to catch in water-tight receptacles the dejections of all persons using the same, and shall disinfect the said dejections in a manner satisfactory to the state board of health before emptying them.

Rev., s. 4459; 1893, c. 214, s. 16; 1909, c. 793, s. 8.

7159. Travel of infected persons regulated; inspectors; penalty. The county or municipal boards of health in counties, cities, or towns near to or bordering upon either of the neighboring states, may appoint, by writing, suitable persons to attend at places by which travelers may pass from infected places in other states, who may examine such travelers as may be suspected of bringing any infection dangerous to the public health, and, if need be, may restrain them from traveling until licensed thereto by the quarantine officer or by the proper municipal health authorities of the city or town to which they may come. A traveler coming from such infected place who, without such license, travels within this state, except to return by the most direct route to the state whence he came, after he has been cautioned to depart by the persons so appointed, shall be isolated or ejected, at the discretion of the quarantine officer or of the municipal health authorities last mentioned. And all common carriers bringing into this state any such persons as named above are hereby required to return them to some point without this state, if required by the quarantine officer or municipal health authorities above specified; and upon refusal to comply with the regulations of such boards of health or municipal health authorities upon this subject, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days. Nothing in this section shall prevent the state board of health in time of epidemics from appointing such additional examiners as they may deem necessary to the preservation of the public health.

Rev., ss. 3454, 4506; 1893, c. 214, s. 15; 1901, c. 245, s. 6.

Compare Levin v. Burlington, 129-184.

7160. Quarantine of infected travelers. When a person comes to a city or town from abroad or from some other place in this state which is infected or has lately been infected with either of the diseases specified in this article or other disease declared by the North Carolina state board of health to be infectious or contagious, the quarantine officer or lawful municipal authority specified in this article shall make effective provision in the manner deemed best for the safety of the inhabitants by removing such person to a separate house or otherwise, and by providing nurses and other assistance and necessaries, which shall be at the charge of the person himself or his parents, where able, otherwise at the charge of the city, town, or county to which he belongs.

Rev., s. 4507; 1893, c. 214, s. 14; 1901, c. 245, s. 5.

7161. Transportation of bodies of persons dying of infectious diseases. No railroad corporation or other common carrier or persons shall convey or cause to be conveyed through or from any city, town, or county in this state the remains of any person who has died of smallpox, measles, scarlet fever, diphtheria, typhus fever, yellow fever, or cholera until such body has been disinfected and encased in such manner as shall be directed by the state board of health, so as to preclude any danger of communicating the disease to others by its transportation; and no local registrar, clerk, or health officer or any other person shall give a permit for the removal of such body until he has received from the local board of health or other proper health authorities of the city, town, or county where the death occurred a certificate stating the cause of death and that the said body has been prepared in the manner set forth in this section; which certificate shall be delivered in duplicate to the agent or person who receives the body, and one copy shall be pasted on the box containing the corpse; said certificate shall be furnished in blank by the transportation company when no local board of health exists.

Rev., s. 4459; 1893, c. 214, s. 16.

ART. 10. SMALLPOX

7162. Notification of occurrence required; vaccination of school children. On the appearance of a case of smallpox in any neighborhood, town, or city, the quarantine officer shall use all due diligence to warn the public of its existence and to notify the public of the proper means for preventing its spread; the said warning and notification to be according to the instructions of the state health officer. The board of health of any town, city, or county shall have authority to require children attending the public schools to present certificate of immunity from smallpox either through recent vaccination or previous attack of the disease. If any parent, guardian, school committee, principal, or teacher shall permit a child to violate such a requirement of the aforesaid authorities, he or she shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

Vaccination may be required for children attending public school: Hutchins v. Durham, 137-68. Regulations providing for vaccination of public school children are valid: Morgan v. Stewart, 144-424.

7163. Free vaccination. On the appearance of a case of smallpox in any neighborhood due warning of the existence of the disease shall be given, and all persons not able to pay shall be vaccinated free of charge by the county physician or health officer or by the municipal physician or health officer, and the county physician or health officer shall vaccinate every person admitted into a public institution, jail, or county home as soon as practicable, unless he is satisfied, upon examination, that the person is already successfully vaccinated; the money for vaccine to be furnished by the county commissioners.

Rev., s. 4451; 1913, c. 181, s. 12.

Rules, regulations or orders made hereunder, when reasonable and relevant to the purpose, are a valid exercise of authority: Morgan v. Stewart, 144-424.

Empowering authorities of county and town to make regulations and provisions for vaccination of inhabitants, and to enforce them by penalties, is a valid exercise of governmental police power for public welfare, health and safety: State v. Hay, 126-999—for the public safety is the highest law, Ibid.

If there are exceptional cases where, owing to the peculiar state of the health or system, vaccination would be dangerous, that would be matter of defense, the burden of which would be on the defendant, and a fact to be found by the jury: State v. Hay, 126-999.

A city is not liable to one arrested on the ground of having been exposed to smallpox, where the officers act without malice: Levin v. Burlington, 129-184.

7164. Rules as to vaccination; violations punished. The board of health of any city, town, or county may make such regulations and provisions for the vaccination of the inhabitants of their city, town, or county, and impose such penalties as they may deem necessary to protect the public health, and the violations of such rules shall be a misdemeanor, punishable by fine not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days.

Rev., s. 3455; 1913, c. 181, s. 12.

Section constitutional: State v. Hay, 126-999. Burden of proof on defendant to show matter in excuse, where prima facie case made out, Ibid. That defendant bona fide believed it was dangerous to be vaccinated, or believed that his former vaccination would protect him, or that his physician expressed an opinion, is no defense hereunder: Ibid. The opinion of the physician supervising vaccination would be presumed to be correct: Ibid.

ART. 11. DIPHTHERIA

7165. Antitoxin furnished to indigents. The state board of health is hereby authorized and directed to arrange for a sufficient supply of diphtheria antitoxin for the treatment therewith, free of charge, of indigent persons sick of diphtheria, and for immunizing against infection such indigent persons as may be exposed to the disease, and to extend the facilities for making the diagnosis of the disease.

1909, c. 389, s. 1.

7166. Laboratory of hygiene to furnish antitoxin to counties. The board of health shall keep on hand in the state laboratory of hygiene a supply of reliable diphtheria antitoxin, and shall distribute it, through the said laboratory, to the several counties of the state, whenever the boards of county commissioners thereof shall request it, and shall notify the secretary of the state board of health that they will pay for the same upon presentation of a bill, and shall designate the person or persons with whom it shall be deposited. The antitoxin shall be furnished at the lowest figure obtainable for a reliable preparation.

1909, c. 389, s. 2.

7167. Physician's requisitions for antitoxin. Whenever a physician is called to a case of diphtheria in an indigent person or one in immediate need and unable to pay for antitoxin, he may obtain the same from one of the depositories or diphtheria stations by filling out and signing in duplicate the blank requisition form to be supplied with the antitoxin by the said board of health, and presenting the same to the county superintendent of health or any member of the county sanitary committee, or to such person as the said county sanitary committee may appoint, who, after satisfying himself as to the indigency of the person or persons for whom the antitoxin is intended, shall approve and countersign in duplicate the requisition. The person dispensing the antitoxin shall retain one copy of the requisition and shall mail the duplicate promptly to the director of the laboratory of hygiene. He shall also return to the said director all packages of antitoxin in his possession as soon as they become out of date.

1909, c. 389, s. 3.

7168. Article applicable to cities and towns. The provisions of this article shall apply to cities and towns upon the same conditions as it does to counties.

1909, c. 389, s. 4.

7169. Use of certain state lands for preparation of sera. The state laboratory of hygiene, under direction of the state board of health, shall have the use and control of so much of a tract of land owned by the state and more particularly referred to in the chapter Agriculture, section 4880, as may be deemed necessary for the manufacture of diphtheria antitoxin and other curative sera. The president of the state board of health and the state veterinarian shall amicably allot the portion of said land to be used by the state board of health and by the state board of agriculture in their respective operations.

1913, c. 161, s. 2.

ART. 12. HYDROPHOBIA

7170. Board of health to provide treatment. The state board of health is hereby authorized and empowered to provide for and have conducted under its direction the preventive treatment of hydrophobia or rabies, whenever in its judgment circumstances, financial and other, will justify it. To meet the expenses of this treatment the said board is hereby given authority to supplement the revenue derived from the fees for the treatment by such sums from the treasury of the state laboratory of hygiene as may be necessary: Provided, that the usefulness and efficiency of the said laboratory is not thereby impaired.

1907, c. 891, s. 1.

7171. Treatment to be without charge. The benefits of said treatment shall be given free of charge to all residents of the state who shall present to the secretary of the state board of health or its representative having in charge the management of this special work, an affidavit of inability to pay, duly sworn to and subscribed before a justice of the peace, or, if the case be a minor, such an affidavit by the parent or guardian. To meet as far as may be the expenses of this special work the said state board of health is hereby authorized and directed to demand from those able to do so the payment in advance of a reasonable fee, not to exceed in any case the usual charge made by the reputable Pasteur institutes of this country.

1907, c. 891, s. 2.

ART. 13. TUBERCULOSIS

7172. Members of board of health directors of state sanatorium for tuberculosis. The board of directors managing and controlling the body politic and corporate existing under the name and style of "North Carolina Sanatorium for the Treatment of Tuberculosis" is hereby dissolved, and in lieu thereof the members of the state board of health shall be and are hereby declared to be ex officio the directors of said corporation as heretofore created and established by law.

1907, c. 964; Ex. sess. 1913, c. 40, s. 1.

Change in organization and effect upon extension work explained in Sanatorium v. State Treas., 173-810.

7173. Powers of directors; election of officers. The North Carolina sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis is hereby empowered and authorized to elect and employ such officials and to pay such fees and salaries (provided the appropriation is not exceeded) as the directors shall find necessary for the proper management and maintenance of the institution; the directors shall determine the qualifications for admission of those applying as patients to the institution; the directors shall make all such by-laws and regulations for the government of the said institution as shall be necessary, among which shall be such as shall make the institution as nearly self-supporting as shall be consistent with the purpose of its creation; and the directors shall do such other things as seem reasonably necessary and incident to the proper management and maintenance of the institution.

1907, c. 964; Ex. sess. 1913, c. 40, s. 2.

7174. Bureau for tuberculosis; register of tuberculous persons. The directors shall equip, operate, and maintain a bureau for tuberculosis, located in their offices in Raleigh, to which bureau the reports of cases of tuberculosis, as hereinafter provided, shall be made; and the bureau of tuberculosis shall keep a register of all persons in this state known to be afflicted with tuberculosis. The bureau shall have exclusive control of such register and shall not permit the inspection thereof, nor disclose any of its personal particulars, except to representatives of municipal or county governments, the state government, or organizations, orders, churches, or corporations interested in and contemplating making financial provision in the institution for the care and treatment of afflicted citizens or members of their respective organizations, orders, churches, or corporations.

Ex. sess. 1913, c. 40, s. 3.

7175. Bureau to maintain correspondence school. The bureau of tuberculosis shall develop and maintain a correspondence school with those of the state's tuberculous population, to the end that the tuberculous population of this state shall be properly advised and directed both as to methods for obtaining cures and as to methods for preventing the spread of the disease to other persons.

Ex. sess. 1913, c. 40, s. 4.

7176. Cases of tuberculosis reported to bureau. All physicians and the executive officers of every private or public hospital, institution for the treatment of disease, or dispensary shall report, on blank forms and in accordance with the instructions of the bureau of tuberculosis, the names and other particulars of all persons afflicted with tuberculosis whom they are called upon to examine or treat or who are to be examined or treated in the hospital, institution, or dispensary of which he or she is the executive head, within seven days after the disease is recognized by such physician or executive officer. Any violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and the judge, in addition to imposing the said fine, may, upon the evidence produced in the trial or upon such further evidence as may be produced before him, find and cause to be entered upon the records of the court that the physician deliberately and falsely diagnosed the disease, tuberculosis, as some other disease in order to avoid the requirements of this section, and the North Carolina board of medical examiners upon such record shall revoke the license of such physician. Nothing in this section shall abrogate the rights and powers of municipalities and counties to require the reporting of cases of tuberculosis by physicians to the local authorities; but municipalities and counties may, when desired, in lieu of such reports by physicians, call upon the bureau of tuberculosis for notification of cases of tuberculosis reported to the bureau from the municipality or county.

Ex. sess. 1913, c. 40, s. 5.

7177. Directors may receive gifts for sanatorium. The directors shall be empowered to receive or accept the gifts or donations for the benefit of the state sanatorium, and the directors shall, in their discretion, use the same for carrying out the purpose for which the sanatorium is established.

1907, c. 964, s. 14; Ex. sess. 1913, c. 40, s. 6.

7178. Pay of directors. Each director shall be entitled to receive, as compensation, the sum of four dollars per day while engaged in conducting the affairs of the sanatorium, in addition to his necessary traveling expenses.

1907, c. 964, s. 15; Ex. sess. 1913, c. 40, s. 7.

7179. Indigent tuberculous to be treated at state sanatorium. Any city or town in the state of North Carolina, through its board of aldermen, town council, or other governing body, and any county in the state, through its board of commissioners, is hereby authorized and empowered to provide for the treatment of any tubercular person or persons resident in and who is a bona fide citizen of said city, town, or county, at the North Carolina sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis, and pay therefor to the North Carolina sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis an amount which shall not be more than one dollar per day per patient.

ART. 14. INFLAMMATION OF EYES OF NEWBORN

7180. Ophthalmia neonatorum described. Any inflammation, swelling, or unusual redness in either one or both eyes of any infant, either apart from or together with any unnatural discharge from the eye or eyes of such infant, independent of the nature of the infection, if any, occurring any time within two weeks after the birth of such infant, shall be known as "inflammation of the eyes of the newborn" (ophthalmia neonatorum).

1917, c. 257, s. 1.

7181. Inflammation of eyes of newborn to be reported. It shall be the duty of any physician, surgeon, obstetrician, midwife, nurse, maternity home, or hospital of any nature, parent, relative, and any persons attendant on or assisting in any way whatsoever any infant, or the mother of any infant at childbirth or any time within two weeks after childbirth, knowing the condition, hereinabove defined, to exist, immediately to report such fact, as the state board of health shall direct, to the local health officer of the county, city, town, village, or whatever other political division there may be within which the infant or the mother of any such infant may reside. For such services the attending physician, surgeon, obstetrician, midwife, nurse, maternity home, or hospital shall receive from the state treasurer a fee of fifty cents. In the event of there being no health officer in the city, village, or town in which the infant resides, midwives shall immediately report the condition to some qualified practitioner of medicine, and thereupon withdraw from the case, except as she may act under a physician's instructions. On receipt of such receipt, the health officer, or the physician notified by a midwife where no health officer exists, shall immediately give to the parents or persons having charge of such infant a warning of the dangers to the eye or eyes of said infant, and shall for indigent cases provide the necessary treatment at the expense of the said county, city, village, or town.

7182. Eyes of newborn to be treated; penalty for omission. It shall be unlawful for any physician or midwife practicing midwifery in the state of North Carolina to neglect or otherwise fail to instill or have instilled, immediately upon its birth, in the eyes of the newborn babe, two drops of a solution prescribed or furnished by the state board of health.

1917, c. 257, s. 3.

7183. Duties of local health officer. It shall be the duty of the local health officer:

1. To investigate or to have investigated each case as filed with him in pursuance with the law, and any other such cases as may come to his attention.
2. To report all cases of inflammation of the eyes of the newborn and the result of all such investigations as the state board of health shall direct.
3. To conform to such other rules and regulations as the state board of health shall promulgate for his further guidance.

1917, c. 257, s. 4.

7184. Duties of state board of health. It shall be the duty of the North Carolina state board of health:

1. To enforce the provisions of this article.
2. To promulgate such rules and regulations as shall, under this article, be necessary for the purposes of this article, and such as the state board of health may deem necessary for the further and proper guidance of local health officers.
3. To provide for the gratuitous distribution of the scientific prophylactic for inflammation of the eyes of the newborn, as designated in section 7182, together with proper directions for the use and administration thereof, to all physicians and midwives as may be engaged in the practice of obstetrics or assisting at childbirth.
4. To publish and promulgate such further advice and information concerning the dangers of inflammation of the eyes of the newborn, and the necessity for prompt and effective treatment.
5. To furnish copies of this law to all physicians and midwives as may be engaged in the practice of obstetrics or assisting at childbirth.
6. To keep a proper record of any and all cases of inflammation of the eyes of the newborn as shall be filed in the office of the state board of health in pursuance with this law and as may come to their attention in any way, and to constitute such records a part of the biennial report to the governor and the legislature.

1917, c. 257, s. 5.

7185. Treatment in hospitals and institutions. It shall be the duty of physicians, midwives, or other persons in attendance upon a case of childbirth in a maternity home, hospital, public or charitable institution, in every infant's eyes, within two hours after birth, to use the prophylactic against inflammation of the eyes of the newborn specified in this article, and to make record of the prophylactic used. It shall also be the duty of such institution to maintain such records of cases of inflammation of the eyes of the newborn as the state board of health shall direct.

1917, c. 257, s. 6.

7186. Violations of article; penalties. Whoever being a physician, surgeon, midwife, obstetrician, nurse, manager, or person in charge of a maternity home or hospital, parent, relative, or person attendant upon or assisting at the birth of any infant, violates any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof be fined in a sum not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, and, if possessed of the required amount of property, subject to suit by the parent or guardian of the child for damages resulting to the child; and if such a suit shall be brought the establishment of the fact that the physician or midwife did not place the drops in the child's eyes within two hours of its birth shall be accepted as prima facie evidence of the physician's or midwife's responsibility for the injury of the disease to the eye or eyes of the child. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney to prosecute all violations of this article.

1917, c. 257, s. 7.

7187. Registration of midwives. All midwives who now practice midwifery in North Carolina, other than regularly registered physicians, shall register, without fee, their names and addresses with the secretary of the North Carolina state board of health on or before the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, in order that the prophylactic solution and necessary instructions may be furnished them. After the aforesaid date no person, physician, or midwife shall practice midwifery in North Carolina until at least ten days have elapsed following the registration of the name and address of the person who intends to engage in the practice of midwifery, and in this period of ten days elapsing between the registration and beginning of the practice of midwifery by the registered person the state board of health shall furnish the necessary directions and solution to the physician or midwife for compliance with this article.

1917, c. 257, s. 8.

NOTE.—See further as to midwives, Medicine and Allied Occupations, art. 9.

7188. Failure to register; penalty. Any physician or midwife failing to register their names and addresses with the North Carolina state board of health as required in the preceding section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of from ten dollars to fifty dollars.

1917, c. 257, s. 9.

7189. Appropriation, disposal of fines and penalties; expenses. The sum of three thousand dollars shall be annually appropriated for the use of the state board of health in enforcing and carrying out the provisions of this article. Any and all necessary and legitimate expenses that may be incurred in prosecuting a case under this article shall, on proper showing, be met by the state board of health out of this appropriation. In addition thereto, all fines and penalties recovered hereunder shall be paid into the state treasury and shall constitute a special fund for the use and purposes of the state board of health as herein enacted.

1917, c. 257, s. 10.

7190. Copies of article to be distributed. Every health officer shall furnish a copy of this article to each person who is known to him to act as midwife or nurse in the county, city, or town for which such health officer is appointed, and the secretary of state shall cause a sufficient number of copies of this article to be printed and supply the same to the health officer of the county, city, or town, and the state board of health, on application.

1917, c. 257, s. 11.

ART. 15. VENEREAL DISEASES

Part 1. Control and Treatment

7191. Venereal infection. Syphilis, gonorrhea, and chancroid, hereinafter designated as venereal diseases, are hereby declared to be contagious, infectious, communicable, and dangerous to the public health. It shall be unlawful for any one infected with these diseases or any of them to expose another person to infection.

1919, c. 206, s. 1.

7192. Physicians and superintendents of institutions to report cases. Any physician or other person who makes a diagnosis in or treats a case of venereal disease, and any superintendent or manager of a hospital, dispensary, or charitable institution in which there is a case of venereal disease, shall make a report of such case to the health authorities according to such form and manner as the North Carolina state board of health shall direct.

1919, c. 206, s. 2.

7193. Sources of infection investigated; suspected persons examined. State, county, and municipal health officers, or their authorized deputies, within their respective jurisdictions are hereby directed and empowered, when in their judgment it is necessary to protect the public health, to make examinations of persons reasonably suspected of being infected with venereal disease, and to detain such persons until the results of such examinations are known; to require persons infected with venereal disease to report for treatment to a reputable physician and continue treatment until cured or to submit to treatment provided at public expense until cured; and also, when in their judgment it is necessary to protect the public health, to isolate or quarantine persons infected with venereal disease. It shall be the duty of all local and state health officers to investigate sources of infection of venereal disease, to coöperate with the proper officials whose duty it is to enforce laws directed against prostitution, and otherwise to use every proper means for the repression of prostitution.

7194. Prisoners examined and treated; isolation of patients. All persons who shall be confined or imprisoned in any state, county, or city prison in the state shall be examined for and, if infected, treated for venereal diseases by the health authorities or their deputies. The prison authorities of any state, county, or city prison are directed to make available to the health authorities such portion of any state, county, or city prison as may be necessary for a clinic or hospital wherein all persons who may be confined or imprisoned in any such prison and who are infected with venereal disease, and all such persons who are suffering with venereal disease at the time of the expiration of their terms of imprisonment, and, in case no other suitable place for isolation or quarantine is available, such other persons as may be so isolated or quarantined under the provisions of the first preceding section, shall be isolated and treated at public expense until cured; or, in lieu of such isolation, any of such persons may, in the discretion of the North Carolina state board of health, be required to report for treatment to a licensed physician or submit to treatment provided at public expense as provided in section 7193. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to interfere with the service of any sentence imposed by a court as a punishment for the commission of crime.

7195. Board of health may make rules and regulations to enforce this article.

The North Carolina state board of health is hereby empowered and directed to make such rules and regulations as shall in its judgment be necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of this article, including rules and regulations providing for the control and treatment of persons isolated or quarantined under the provisions of section 7193, and such other rules and regulations, not in conflict with provisions of this article, concerning the control of venereal diseases, and concerning the care, treatment, and quarantine of persons infected therewith, as it may from time to time deem advisable. All such rules and regulations so made shall be of force and binding upon all county and municipal health officers and other persons affected by this article, and shall have the force and effect of law.

7196. Expenses authorized. The North Carolina state board of health, through its officers, are hereby empowered and authorized to incur such expenses in the examination, detention, quarantine, and treatment of persons suspected of having, or having, venereal diseases as in their judgment is necessary.

1919, c. 206, s. 6.

7197. Statements of expenses to county commissioners; payment of expenses.

The North Carolina state board of health shall submit to the county commissioners of the county in which persons suspected of having, or having, venereal diseases are suspected of having spread the disease, an itemized statement of expenses incurred in the examination, detention, quarantine, or treatment of such persons, and the county commissioners shall, within thirty days after the receipt of such statement of expenses, pay to the treasurer of the North Carolina state board of health a sum equal to that expended.

1919, c. 206, s. 7.

7198. Violation of this article or authority pursuant thereto a misdemeanor. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this part of this article or any lawful rule or regulation made by the North Carolina state board of health pursuant to the authority herein granted, or who shall fail or refuse to obey any lawful order issued by any state, county, or municipal health officer, pursuant to the authority granted in this article, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days.

1919, c. 206, s. 8.

Part 2. Prescriptions and Reports

7199. Treatment except by physician unlawful. It shall be unlawful for any person except a regularly licensed physician to prescribe or give away any medicine for the treatment of any person afflicted with venereal disease.

1919, c. 214, s. 1.

7200. Patented and proprietary remedies; druggists to report sales of. Any druggist or other person who sells at retail any patented, proprietary, or trademark remedy or alleged remedy advertised or recommended or sold for or used in the treatment of venereal diseases (gonorrhea, syphilis, or chancroid) or lost manhood, impotency, or sterility, or medicinal preparations containing the oils of cubebs, copaiba, sandalwood, or the oils themselves, iodides of mercury, or preparations compounded for urethral injections, shall report weekly on forms and in accordance with instructions supplied by the North Carolina state board of health the sale of such remedies or alleged remedies to the bureau of venereal diseases of the North Carolina state board of health.

1919, c. 214, s. 2.

7201. Obtaining prescription or remedy under false name a misdemeanor. Any person who, in obtaining a prescription from a physician under section 7199, or in obtaining drugs or remedies mentioned in section 7200, gives a false or assumed name or address, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to the penalties imposed in section 7206.

1919, c. 214, s. 3.

7202. Quarantine officer may appoint physicians as agents to issue prescriptions. For the convenience of the public, a quarantine officer, either municipal or county, shall appoint, on the official request of the North Carolina state board of health, from the regularly registered physicians of the county one or more agents to issue prescriptions for drugs or remedies, necessary for treatment of such diseases.

1919, c. 214, s. 4.

7203. Fees of quarantine officer and agents. A quarantine officer or agent of a quarantine officer who issues a prescription for any such drug, remedy, or alleged remedy, and who instructs a person infected with venereal disease as required by the state laws and reports by number but without identification as now prescribed for reports by physicians for such diseases to the North Carolina state board of health, shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents, twenty-five cents of which shall be paid by the bureau of venereal diseases of the North Carolina state board of health, and twenty-five cents of which shall be paid by the county commissioners of the county in which the quarantine officer has jurisdiction, on a certification of the bureau of venereal diseases of the North Carolina state board of health of the number of prescriptions issued by the quarantine officer or the quarantine officer's agent: Provided, that the municipal authorities shall pay the above amount for prescriptions issued by a municipal quarantine officer or his agent. No quarantine officer shall be entitled to any pay from either county or city for issuing prescriptions to persons who pay the quarantine officer in part or in full for the issuance of prescriptions. Several prescriptions issued on a single visit of the infected person to the quarantine officer shall entitle the said officer to not more than the fee for a single prescription.

7204. Druggists to keep record of prescriptions; subject to inspection. Any and all prescriptions for venereal diseases (gonorrhea, syphilis, or chancroid), or impotency, sterility, or lost manhood, or prescriptions containing the drugs, remedies, or alleged remedies mentioned in section 7200, shall be kept by a druggist on a separate file, and shall be subject at any reasonable hour to inspection by an officer of the North Carolina state board of health.

1919, c. 214, s. 6.

7205. Purchaser of remedies may be examined. The state health officer or his deputy or agent may require any purchaser of remedies or alleged remedies designated in section 7200, and who may be reasonably supposed to be infected with a venereal disease, to appear before a regularly licensed physician, quarantine officer or agent, for an examination for such disease.

1919, c. 214, s. 7.

7206. Violation of this article a misdemeanor. Any person violating any of the provisions of this part of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned for not exceeding thirty days.

1919, c. 214, s. 8.

ART. 16. HEALTH OF PRISONERS

Part 1. Segregation of Tuberculous Prisoners

7207. Tuberculous county prisoners to be segregated. The board of county commissioners of the respective counties of North Carolina shall provide in the jail-house or in any camp or place where prisoners are committed for keeping or sentenced to a term of imprisonment in any county in the state of North Carolina, separate cells or rooms or a place in which shall be confined any prisoner or prisoners who may be committed for keeping or sentenced to said prison or place of confinement for a term of imprisonment, who has been examined by the county physician or county health officer and pronounced to be affected with tuberculosis.

1907, c. 567, s. 1.

7208. Sheriff to have prisoners suspected to be tuberculous examined and separated. When a prisoner is placed in the custody of a sheriff for the purpose of being committed to jail or to any place where prisoners are kept, and the sheriff has reason to believe or suspect that the prisoner is suffering with tuberculosis, it shall be the duty of the sheriff to have such prisoner examined by the county physician or county health officer, and if upon examination the prisoner is pronounced tubercular, then he shall be separated from other prisoners and confined in a separate cell or other place of confinement.

1907, c. 567, s. 2.

7209. Tuberculous state prisoners to be segregated. It shall be the duty of the board of directors of the state's prison to provide separate cells or apartments for the confinement of prisoners sentenced to that institution for a term of imprisonment, who have been examined and pronounced by the physician in charge to be affected with tuberculosis.

1907, c. 567, s. 3.

7210. Separate cells for tuberculous prisoners; fumigation. Cells or places of confinement provided for prisoners affected with tuberculosis must be kept exclusively for such prisoners, and when they have been occupied by tuberculous prisoners they shall not be used for other prisoners until the county physician or county health officer, or the physician in charge and the health authorities of the state's prison, have been notified, and until such cells or places of confinement have been thoroughly fumigated and disinfected under the supervision of such officials in the manner required by the state board of health.

7211. Prison authorities to have prisoners suspected to be tuberculous examined. When a prisoner is committed to any prison or place of confinement designated in this article, and the sheriff of the county, the warden of the state's prison or other authorities of the prison know or suspect the prisoner to be suffering with tuberculosis, it shall be the duty of such authorities to cause the prisoners to be examined by the county physician, the county health officer, or the physician in charge within five days after the prisoner has been committed or sentenced to the prison.

1907, c. 567, s. 5.

7212. Prisoners may be worked together. Nothing contained in any of the preceding sections of this article shall be so construed as to interfere with or prevent the county or state authorities from working together all prisoners on public works as now provided for by law.

1907, c. 567, s. 6.

Part 2. Prevention of Tuberculosis Among Prisoners

7213. Tuberculous prisoners to be sent to state farm; prisoner's consent. No prisoner suffering with tuberculosis shall be kept in any county convict camp, or on any public or private works, or in any jail (except, in the latter case, when said prisoner is awaiting trial), but such prisoner suffering with tuberculosis shall be sent to the state farm within forty-eight hours after the physician in charge shall have made a diagnosis of tuberculosis, the county in which said prisoner is confined bearing the expense of transfer, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff to make such transfer. But no such prisoner shall be sent to the state farm unless he has first consented thereto in writing in the presence of the sheriff of the county where the prisoner may be under sentence. The sheriff shall subscribe his name as a witness thereto and shall take and file the same with the clerk of the superior court of the county, who shall enter the same in a book to be kept for that purpose: Provided, that no such prisoner shall be kept at the state farm or central prison for a longer term than the length of his original sentence.

7214. Provision for care and cure of prisoners. The board of directors of the central prison and state farm and the superintendent of the said central prison and state farm shall without delay make such provision for the care of such prisoners suffering with tuberculosis as will prevent their communicating the disease to the other prisoners, and to the end that such prisoners suffering with tuberculosis may be restored to health, if it be possible.

1917, c. 262, s. 2.

7215. Board of health must approve plans for prisoners. It shall be the duty of the prison management to submit the plans for carrying into effect the two preceding sections to the state board of health for its approval, and they are required to make their plans, both for buildings and care of patients, conform to the recommendations of the state board of health.

1917, c. 262, s. 3.

7216. Health authorities to examine all prisoners. It shall be the duty of every county physician or city physician, or county health officer or city health officer, or other physician having in charge the medical care of prisoners in any city or county in this state, or on any public or private works where prisoners or convicts are employed, to make a thorough physical examination of every prisoner committed to the county or city jail or to the county or city chain-gang or road force, or any public or private works within forty-eight hours after the admission of such prisoner; and when he finds a prisoner suffering with tuberculosis, he shall make a written report of same to the state board of health, stating in detail the conditions found and the stage of the disease, within twenty-four hours after making such diagnosis, and he shall also report same to the superintendent of the chain-gang or the jailer or the superintendent of the public or private works, and to the sheriff of the county, in writing, within twenty-four hours after having made such diagnosis of tuberculosis.

7217. Officials in charge of prisoners to report on health. Every superintendent of convicts, or superintendent of public or private works where convicts are employed, and the superintendent of the central prison and state farm, and every jailer, shall make such reports as to the existence of cases of tuberculosis or suspected cases of tuberculosis, or other disease or diseases, and loss of time on account of sickness, and the disease or diseases causing such loss of time and such other things that may have a bearing on the health of the prisoners and the sanitation of the camp, prison, or jail, to the state board of health at such stated periods and on such stated forms as may be requested by the state board of health. And every health officer or other physician having charge of prisoners in county convict camps, on county or city roads or streets or public or private works, or in jails or prisons, state, city, or county, shall likewise make such reports to the state board of health as to the physical condition and transfer of prisoners and as to the sanitary condition of camps, jails, or prisons, as may be requested by the state board of health.

7218. Reports to include transference and particulars as to tuberculous. The superintendent of the central prison or state farm, convict camp, or of any public or private works where convicts are used, and the jailers of the county jails and the sheriff of the county, and the medical officer connected with any of the above mentioned places where convicts are kept or worked, shall make such reports to the state board of health as to transference of prisoners suffering with tuberculosis, giving name of prisoner, length of time said prisoner had been under his jurisdiction, the stage of the disease, point or place to which he was transferred, name and address and official title of the person to whom he was transferred, and such other information as may be requested by the state board of health.

1917, c. 262, s. 6.

7219. Food and work of tuberculous prisoners. In order more effectively to promote the recovery of tuberculous prisoners, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of the central prison and state farm and such other officers as may have jurisdiction under him to provide such additional food for prisoners suffering with tuberculosis as may be prescribed or requested by the physician in charge. And such prisoners suffering with tuberculosis shall only do such work as may be prescribed by the prison physician.

1917, c. 262, s. 7.

7220. Violation of article misdemeanor. Any person violating any of the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished in the discretion of the court.

1907, c. 567, s. 7; 1917, c. 262, s. 8.

ART. 17. SURGICAL OPERATIONS ON INMATES OF STATE INSTITUTIONS

7221. Operations for improvement of mental, moral, or physical condition. The medical staff of any penal or charitable hospital or institution of the state of North Carolina is hereby permitted and instructed to have any surgical operation performed by competent and skillful surgeons upon any inmate of any such penal or charitable hospital or institution when, in the judgment of the board hereinafter created in the next succeeding section, such operation would be for the improvement of the mental, moral, or physical condition of such inmate of any such institution: Provided, such operation shall not be performed until same shall have been affirmed by the governor and the secretary of the state board of health.

7222. Board of consultation for carrying out provisions of this article. At least one representative of the medical staff of the several charitable and penal institutions of the state, and one from the state board of health, such representatives to be designated by the governing bodies of the several institutions, shall constitute a board of consultation for the carrying out of the provisions of this article. Such board shall cause a permanent record to be kept by one of its members, designated as secretary, of all its actions and judgments, taken at a meeting held only after due notice has been issued to all its members.

1919, c. 281, s. 2.

ART. 18. MARITIME QUARANTINE

Part 1. Quarantine on Cape Fear River

7223. North Carolina station for maritime quarantine. There shall be established, at the nearest suitable site, opposite the present quarantine anchorage at Deepwater Point, a station to be known and designated as The North Carolina Station for Maritime Sanitation. For the purpose of selecting a suitable site, the quarantine board, the chairman of the board of commissioners of navigation and pilotage of the port of Wilmington, and the mayor of Southport shall constitute a board, who shall acquire by purchase, or otherwise, sufficient land and water privileges for the purpose—the title to which shall be vested in the quarantine board and their successors in office, who are hereby constituted trustees to hold said quarantine site for the state of North Carolina. Upon the site so acquired shall be erected such wharves, buildings, apparatus, and machinery as are necessary for all the purposes of maritime sanitation, and the system of sanitation to be used shall be devised by and subject to the approval of a board to consist of the quarantine board and the president and secretary of the state board of health. The said station, with its wharves, buildings, apparatus, and machinery, shall be erected under the direction and be under the supervision of the quarantine board, and they shall prescribe all such rules and regulations as are necessary for its government and its maintenance.

Rev., s. 4530; 1893, c. 505.

7224. North Carolina station available for all state ports. Such quarantine station, established as provided in the preceding section, shall be and the same is hereby made a relief station to which vessels having on board persons who have been or are sick with infectious diseases, or the baggage of persons who have died of infectious disease during the voyage of said vessels, applying at any other port or ports of North Carolina, shall come for disinfection, whenever so directed by the quarantine officer of such other port or ports.

Rev., s. 4531; 1893, c. 505, s. 3.

7225. Appropriation for North Carolina station. For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the preceding section the sum of twenty thousand dollars is appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be paid from time to time as required in the prosecution of the work, on the requisition of the treasurer of the quarantine board and approved by its president: Provided, that the funds appropriated by this section shall not be paid over by the treasurer until the governor and state board of health of North Carolina shall certify to the treasurer that there is imminent danger of cholera visiting the city of Wilmington or other sections of the state.

Rev., s. 4532; 1893, c. 505, s. 2.

7226. Fees and penalties for upkeep of North Carolina station. All fees collected from vessels, as provided in section four thousand five hundred and twenty-two, and all penalties and forfeitures collected for violations of the quarantine regulations of the port of Wilmington, shall constitute a fund in the hands of the quarantine board, and shall be used by them for the purpose of preserving the site established on the Cape Fear river, improving the buildings and wharves and keeping them in repair, and for such other purposes as may be necessary for the efficient management of the quarantine service.

Rev., s. 4533; 1889, c. 521, s. 6.

7227. Cape Fear quarantine station; quarantine board and officer. For the preservation of the public health there shall be established opposite Deepwater Point, near the mouth of the Cape Fear river, a quarantine station, where all vessels subject to quarantine shall be brought to anchor, and await the inspection of the quarantine medical officer, appointed as provided in the following section, and he may prescribe rules and regulations to which vessels subject to quarantine shall conform. The rules and regulations so prescribed may be revised and added to from time to time as circumstances require by the quarantine medical officer and two physicians of skill and experience, residing in the city of Wilmington, who shall be designated by the president of the state board of health, and they shall meet annually on the first Monday in May, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and organize for the purposes before mentioned by the election of a president and secretary; and it shall be the duty of the president to call meetings whenever any special emergency shall arise requiring new quarantine rules and regulations, and of the secretary to keep a record of all such proceedings; and they shall be entitled to compensation for their services at the rate of one hundred dollars per year.

Rev., s. 4526; Code, s. 2912; 1889, c. 521; 1868, c. 33, s. 1; 1879, c. 123.

7228. Governor to appoint quarantine officer; duties. It shall be the duty of the governor to designate some physician of experience, who shall act as medical quarantine officer for the station referred to in the preceding section, and who shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary for the protection of the inhabitants from infectious diseases, and all persons shall be bound by such regulations, under penalties to be hereafter designated. The quarantine officer shall duly advertise all quarantine regulations and cause the pilots to be especially notified of them. He shall make a monthly report of all receipts and disbursements, and shall pay over all moneys to the treasurer of the state, and shall be removable at the pleasure of the governor.

Rev., s. 4527; Code, s. 2913; 1868, c. 33, s. 2.

7229. Boat and crew for use of officer. There shall be provided for the use of the quarantine officer on the Cape Fear river a suitable boat furnished with all necessary materials, and he shall employ a crew of four men, at such seasons as quarantine regulations are in force, or when the public health may require it. He shall cause the boat to be kept in repair and always ready for service, and may employ some competent person for the service, who shall be paid by the state treasurer, on the certificate of the medical officer that the services were necessary and the charges just and reasonable.

Rev., s. 4529; Code, s. 2914; 1868, c. 33, s. 3.

7230. Pay of quarantine officer and boat's crew. The compensation of the quarantine medical officer on the Cape Fear river shall be six hundred dollars per year, and the compensation of the boat's crew shall be thirty dollars per month each, while regularly employed: Provided, one of the crew may be designated by the quarantine officer to take care of the buildings, boats, and materials at an extra compensation of ten dollars per month while so employed.

Rev., s. 4528; Code, s. 2921; 1889, c. 521, s. 4; 1868, c. 33, s. 10.

7231. Fees charged on vessels. Every vessel subject to visit and inspection shall pay a fee of five dollars, if of less than two hundred and fifty tons burden; if of more than two hundred and fifty and less than five hundred tons burden, eight dollars; if of more than five hundred and less than one thousand tons burden, ten dollars; if over one thousand tons, fifteen dollars, which shall be collected and accounted for by the quarantine officer, as provided for in this article, and every person taken to the hospital shall pay a fee not exceeding three dollars per day, until discharged by the quarantine officer, for the payment of which the vessel shall be responsible, and only such vessel shall be subject to visit and inspection as may be from ports designated, from time to time, by the medical officer, except that all vessels having sickness on board shall be brought to the visiting station for examination.

Rev., s. 4522; Code, s. 2916; 1868, c. 33, s. 5; 1891, c. 533.

7232. Pilots to bring vessels to station; penalty. It shall be the duty of all pilots to bring vessels to the visiting station, as they may be required from time to time by the quarantine officer, and they shall not take any vessel subject to quarantine or visitation, past the station, until released by the quarantine officer; and any pilot who shall wilfully violate any quarantine regulation shall forfeit his branch or commission, and thence be incapable to act as a pilot in any port in the state.

Rev., s. 4512; Code, s. 2917; 1868, c. 33, s. 6.

7233. Master refusing to obey regulations; penalty. Any master of a vessel who shall refuse to obey the quarantine regulations shall forfeit and pay a fine of two hundred dollars for each day he shall refuse to obey the same, for which forfeiture the property of the captain, together with the vessel and cargo, shall be held responsible.

Rev., s. 4523; Code, s. 2918; 1868, c. 33, s. 7.

7234. Violating quarantine regulations; penalty. Any person who shall violate the quarantine regulations, as prescribed from time to time by the quarantine officers, shall forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred dollars for each offense; and all penalties and forfeitures imposed by this chapter may be recovered before any court having jurisdiction, one-half to the informer, the other half to the payment of the expenses of the quarantine establishment. Any person who shall violate any of the rules and regulations made by the quarantine board for the control, government, and maintenance of the quarantine station on Cape Fear river, as provided for in this part of this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., ss. 3450, 4524; Code, s. 2919; 1868, c. 33, s. 8.

7235. Quarantine officer may issue warrants. The quarantine medical officer may issue a warrant to any sheriff or other officer, commanding him to arrest the body of any person violating the quarantine, and have him without delay before some competent jurisdiction for trial.

Rev., s. 4525; Code, s. 2920; 1868, c. 33, s. 9.

7236. Site may be sold and new site purchased. If the quarantine board, on investigation, shall consider a site further removed from inhabited places as essential to the public safety, and shall so recommend, it shall be the duty of the governor to sell the present hospital site at Price's Creek in such manner as he may deem best, and make title to the purchaser thereof, and the moneys received for said site to turn over to the quarantine board, to be used by them for quarantine purposes at some other point as convenient as possible to the quarantine anchorage off Deepwater Point.

Rev., s. 4534; 1889, c. 521, s. 5.

Part 2. General Provisions

7237. Control of maritime quarantine; rules. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the commissioners of navigation in the respective ports and inlets of the state, or where there are no commissioners of navigation, the governing authorities of any seaport town, may appoint such place or places as they may think proper for vessels to perform quarantine; and when a vessel shall arrive at any port or inlet of this state, having an infectious distemper on board, or shall come from any place or port which at the time of her sailing, or shortly before, was infected with any malignant disorder, the master and pilot of such vessel shall anchor her at the place so appointed, and give immediate information thereof to the county physician or health officer of the county in which such port is situated or to the municipal physician or health officer of such town, who shall thereupon cause such vessel and her crew to be examined by the county or municipal health authorities, who shall have power to order and command the master of the vessel, crew, and passengers to perform such quarantine as shall be deemed most proper and reasonable to check or prevent any infectious distemper from spreading in this state, and to require every person on board such vessel strictly to perform quarantine, and to obey the orders given by the health authorities aforesaid respecting the victualing, purifying, and cleansing of such vessel and all articles on board, and to regulate and control the intercourse of such persons with the inhabitants of the state, the receiving any person on board or the putting them on shore; and if any pilot or master neglect to give such information as above required, the pilot for such neglect shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars, and the master for a like neglect shall forfeit and pay two hundred dollars. In case the master of any vessel ordered to perform quarantine should refuse to comply with or fail to fulfill the orders for performing quarantine with his vessel, he shall forfeit and pay two hundred dollars for each day he shall fail to perform the quarantine. The property of the captain, together with the vessel and cargo, whether owned by the captain or not, shall be liable for the penalty herein imposed. If there be at the port where the vessel enters a port physician, as provided for in this article, he shall perform the duties and have all the power by this section conferred upon the health authorities aforesaid. The state authorities shall coöperate in all matters of quarantine with the federal authorities.

Rev., s. 4510; Code, s. 2893; R. C., c. 94, s. 1; 1783, c. 194, s. 12; 1793, c. 379, s. 1; 1802, c. 624.

NOTE.—For the office and duties of commissioners of navigation, see Navigation.

7238. Commissioners of navigation; appoint harbor master and health officer. The commissioners of navigation of the several seaport towns in the state shall have power to appoint a harbor master and health officer, to prescribe their duties and authority, to make rules and regulations for their government, allow them a reasonable compensation for their services, and determine how such compensation is to be paid. And they shall have power to pass such by-laws (not inconsistent with the laws of the land) for the better regulation of the quarantine to be performed by vessels arriving from ports infected or suspected to be infected with any infectious disease, and for preventing all intercourse between such vessels and persons on shore, as to them may seem meet and proper, and to enforce obedience to such by-laws by imposing such penalties as they may think proper.

Rev., s. 4537; Code, s. 2905; R. C., c. 94, s. 13.

7239. Governing authorities of seaport towns; powers. The governing authorities of the several seaport towns and towns having a port of entry, where there are no commissioners of navigation, shall have the same power and authority and be subject to the same duties as are prescribed for the commissioners of navigation in relation to the quarantine of vessels in the ports of their respective towns; and all persons offending against the regulations of such governing authorities shall be subject to the same fines, penalties, and forfeitures as though the said regulations had been made by the commissioners of navigation.

Rev., s. 4536; Code, s. 2906; R. C., c. 94, s. 14.

7240. Port physician; appointment. The commissioners of navigation in the several ports of the state, and, where there are no such commissioners, the governing authorities of the several seaport towns, may appoint port physicians, and regulate and prescribe the fees to which they shall be respectively entitled, according to the different quarantine stations, which they shall be bound to attend for the purpose of inspecting vessels, as required by this article, and giving certificates of their situation and condition, in regard to the health of their respective crews and passengers.

7241. Vessels from infected ports to anchor at quarantine; punishment for failure. If any vessel shall be brought into the state from a place which at the time of her departure was infected with the yellow fever, smallpox, or other infectious disorder, or if any vessel, arriving in the state, shall have the smallpox or yellow fever or other infectious disorder on board, or shall have had such disorder on board during her passage to the state, such vessel shall be anchored at the place appointed for quarantine, and there remain until permitted to remove by the commissioners of navigation, or by the municipal authorities of the town to which the vessel is bound, or by the county physician or health officer. If such vessel shall come to any town or harbor without permission obtained as herein required, the pilot or master conducting the vessel or permitting her to be so conducted shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not less than one thousand dollars and imprisoned not exceeding one year.

7242. Pilots bringing in vessels without certificate; penalty. If any pilot shall bring any vessel beyond the place fixed and limited by the commissioners of navigation without a certificate of the health officer declaring that there is no danger to be apprehended from any infectious disease on board said vessel, such pilot shall forfeit his branch or commission, and thence be incapable to act as a pilot in any port of the state.

Rev., s. 4513; Code, s. 2904; R. C., c. 94, s. 12; 1797, c. 486, s. 2.

7243. Master must declare health of crew. The commissioners of navigation or the county physician or health officer may, whenever they think proper, require the master of a vessel, on his arrival in the state, to declare on oath the state of the health of himself, crew, and passengers, and the place whence he came. And if any master shall give a false declaration, or any physician shall wilfully give a false certificate of the health of the persons on board any such vessel, he shall forfeit and pay two thousand dollars.

Rev., s. 4514; Code, s. 2901; R. C., c. 94, s. 9; 1793, c. 379, s. 6.

7245. Vessel furnished with provisions. The commissioners of navigation or (where there are no such commissioners) the governing authorities of the seaport town are empowered and directed to furnish any vessel, ordered to ride quarantine, with a sufficient quantity of good wholesome provisions, for the expense of which the master, vessel, and cargo shall be liable.

Rev., s. 4516; Code, s. 2902; R. C., c. 94, s. 10; 1793, c. 379, s. 7.

7246. Going on quarantined vessel; penalty. When any vessel shall be directed to perform quarantine, and any person knowing of such order, by the information of the master or otherwise, shall go on board of such vessel without permission of the commissioners of navigation or the county physician or county health officer aforesaid, such person shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars. If any person shall be permitted by the master to come on board without informing him of the orders as to quarantine and intercourse given as provided in section 7237 of this article, the master shall forfeit and pay two hundred dollars for every person so offending, and four hundred dollars for suffering any person so on board to depart his vessel without permission as provided in this article, and the commissioners of navigation or the county physician or county health officer are empowered to order every person who shall go on board any such vessel to remain there for such length of time as they may think proper; and if he disobey such order, he shall pay one hundred dollars.

7247. Landing goods from quarantined vessels; penalty. If any master of a vessel ordered to ride quarantine shall convey, or cause or permit to be conveyed, any article of goods, wares, and merchandise from his vessel on any other lands or into any other boat or vessel than the commissioners of navigation or the county physician or county health officer shall authorize, he shall forfeit and pay two hundred dollars for every such offense. And any other person so conveying, or causing to be conveyed, any article as above mentioned, shall be liable to the like penalty.

Rev., s. 4519; Code, s. 2900; R. C., c. 94, s. 8; 1793, c. 379, s. 5.

Rev., s. 4520; Code, s. 2899; R. C., c. 94, s. 7; 1793, c. 379, s. 4.

7249. Penalty for breaking quarantine. When a vessel shall be directed to perform quarantine, and any seaman or passenger shall, contrary to the order and direction of the commissioners of navigation or the county physician or county health officer, leave the vessel and land on any other place than they shall allow, the seaman or passenger offending shall forfeit and pay two hundred dollars for each offense; and when he has left the vessel with the master's consent, the master shall pay a like penalty of two hundred dollars for every such offense of any of his passengers or seamen.

7250. Disposition of penalties and forfeitures. All penalties and forfeitures imposed by this article may be recovered and applied, one-half to the use of the informer, the other half by the commissioners of navigation for the use and benefit of the navigation of the port within whose jurisdiction the penalty or forfeiture may have been incurred.

ART. 1. ORTHOPÆDIC HOSPITAL

7252. Appropriation for buildings; condition. There is hereby appropriated out of the money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of twenty thousand dollars for the purpose of the erection of buildings and the furnishing of the same to the North Carolina orthopædic hospital: Provided, that this sum shall not be available until twenty thousand dollars shall have been subscribed in good faith, for the same purpose, from sources other than the state of North Carolina.

1917, c. 199, s. 1.

7253. Committee to select site. The governor shall appoint a committee of five to select a proper site for the location of said orthopædic hospital, which committee, in making its selection, shall be governed by the advantages offered for the maintenance and support of the institution, and the board of trustees hereinafter named shall thereupon proceed to erect suitable buildings necessary to carry out the purposes of said orthopædic hospital.

1917, c. 199, s. 3.

7254. Board of trustees; term of office; organization and powers. The governor shall appoint a board of trustees, consisting of nine members, for said institution, and they shall be divided into three classes of three members each. The first class shall be appointed for two years, the second for four years, and the third class for six years. They shall hold their offices until their successors have been appointed, and the term of office of each shall begin from the date of the selection of the site as above mentioned. The governor shall fill all vacancies occurring by reason of death, resignation, or otherwise. The board of trustees shall organize by electing from its members a president, a secretary, and a treasurer, and three of its members as an executive committee. The board shall have power to erect any buildings necessary, make improvements, or in general do all matters and things that may be beneficial to the good government of the institution, and to this end they may make by-laws for the government of the same.

1917, c. 199, s. 4.

ART. 2. MUNICIPAL HOSPITALS

Part 1. Hospitals in Counties, Townships, and Towns

7255. Establishment of public hospitals; election, tax, and bond issue. Any county, township, or town may establish a public hospital in the following manner:

1. Petition presented. A petition may be presented to the governing body of any county, township, or town, signed by two hundred resident freeholders of such county, township, or town, one hundred and fifty of whom, in the case of a county, shall not be residents of the city, town, or village where it is proposed to locate such hospital, asking that an annual tax may be levied for the establishment and maintenance of a public hospital at a place in the county, township, or town named therein, and specifying the maximum amount of money proposed to be expended in purchasing or building such hospital.

2. Election ordered. Upon the filing of such petition the governing body of the county, township, or town shall order a new registration and shall submit the question to the qualified electors at the next general election to be held in the county, township, or town, or at a special election called for that purpose, first giving ninety days notice thereof in one or more newspapers published in the county, township, or town, if any be published therein, and by posting such notice, written or printed, in each township of the county, in case of a county hospital, which notice shall include the text of the petition and state the amount of the tax to be levied upon the assessed property of the county, township, or town. The election shall be held at the usual places in such county, township, or town for electing officers, and the vote shall be canvassed in the same manner as in elections for officers for such county, township, or town.

3. Tax to be levied. The tax to be levied under such election shall not exceed one-fifteenth of one cent on the dollar for a period of time not exceeding twenty years, and shall be for the issue of county, township, or town bonds to provide funds for the purchase of a site and the erection thereon of a public hospital and hospital buildings.

1913, c. 42, s. 1; 1917, cc. 98, 268; 1919, c. 332, s. 1.

7256. Election on tax levy; collection and application of funds. The governing body of such county, township, or town shall submit to the qualified electors thereof, at a regular or special election, the question whether there shall be levied upon the assessed property of such county, township, or town a tax of one-fifteenth of one cent on the dollar for the purchase of real estate for hospital purposes, for the construction of hospital buildings, and for maintaining same, or for either or all of such purposes. The ballots to be used at any election at which the hospital question is submitted shall be printed with a statement substantially as follows:

☐ Yes.

For a cent tax for a bond issue for a public hospital and for maintenance of same.

☐ No.

If a majority of the qualified voters at such election on the proposition shall be in favor of a tax as submitted for a bond issue for a public hospital and for maintenance of same, the governing body shall levy the tax so authorized, which shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes are collected, and credited to the "Hospital Fund," and shall be paid out on the order of the hospital trustees for the purposes authorized by this article, and for no other purposes whatever.

1913, c. 42, s. 2; 1917, c. 268; 1919, c. 332, s. 2.

7257. Trustees; term of office; qualification and election. Should a majority of the qualified voters upon the question be in favor of establishing such county, township, or town hospital, the governing body shall proceed at once to appoint seven trustees chosen from the citizens at large with reference to their fitness for such office, three of whom may be women, all residents of the county, township, or town, not more than four of said trustees to be residents of the city, town, or village in which said hospital is to be located, in case of a county hospital, who shall constitute a board of trustees for such public hospital. The trustees shall hold their offices until the next following general election, when seven hospital trustees shall be elected and hold their offices, two for two years, two for four years, three for six years, and who shall by lot determine their respective terms. At each subsequent general election the offices of the trustees whose terms of office are about to expire shall be filled by the nomination and election of hospital trustees in the same manner as other officers are elected, none of whom shall be practicing physicians.

1913, c. 42, s. 3; 1917, c. 98, s. 2; 1917, c. 268.

7258. Officers elected by trustees; compensation. The trustees shall, within ten days after their appointment or election, qualify by taking the oath of civil officers and organize as a board of hospital trustees by the election of one of their number as chairman, one as secretary, and by the election of such other officers as they may deem necessary, but no bond shall be required of them. The treasurer of the county, township, or town in which such hospital is located shall be treasurer of the board of trustees. The treasurer shall receive and pay out all moneys under the control of said board, as directed by it, but shall receive no compensation from such board. No trustee shall receive any compensation for his services performed, but he may receive reimbursement for any cash expenditures actually made for personal expenses incurred as such trustee, and an itemized statement of all such expenses and money paid out shall be made under oath by each of such trustees and filed with the secretary, and allowed only by the affirmative vote of all the trustees present at a meeting of the board.

7259. Trustees to have control, and to make regulations. The board of hospital trustees shall make and adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations for their own guidance and for the government of the hospital as may be deemed expedient for the economic and equitable conduct thereof, not inconsistent with this article and the ordinances of the city or town wherein such public hospital is located. They shall have the exclusive control of the expenditure of all money collected to the credit of the hospital fund, and the purchase of the site or sites, the purchase or construction of any hospital building or buildings, and of the supervision, care, and custody of the grounds, rooms, or buildings purchased, constructed, leased, or set apart for that purpose.

7260. Power of board to appoint superintendent and assistants. The board of hospital trustees shall have power to appoint a suitable superintendent or matron, or both, and necessary assistants, and fix their compensation, and shall also have power to remove such appointees; and they shall in general carry out the spirit and intent of this article in establishing and maintaining a county, township, or town public hospital with equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

7261. Meetings of board; reports required. The board of hospital trustees shall hold meetings at least once each month, and shall keep a complete record of all its proceedings. Four members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. One of the trustees shall visit and examine the hospital at least twice each month, and the board shall, during the first week in January of each year, file with the governing body of the county, township, or town a report of their proceedings with reference to such hospital, and a statement of all receipts and expenditures during the year; and they shall at such time certify the amount necessary to maintain and improve the hospital for the ensuing year. No trustee shall have a personal pecuniary interest, either directly or indirectly, in the purchase of any supplies for such hospital, unless the same are purchased by competitive bidding.

7262. Vacancies filled. Vacancies in the board of trustees occasioned by removals, resignations, or otherwise shall be reported to the governing body of the county, township, or town and be filled in like manner as original appointments, appointees to hold office until the next following general election, when such vacancies shall be filled by election in the usual manner.

1913, c. 42, s. 5; 1917, c. 268.

7263. Deposit and payment of funds. All money received for such hospital shall be deposited in the treasury of the county, township, or town to the credit of the hospital fund, and paid out only upon warrants drawn by the auditor, or other proper officer, of such county, township, or town upon the properly authenticated vouchers of the hospital board.

1913, c. 42, s. 4; 1917, c. 268.

7264. Regulations as to bond issue. Whenever any county, township, or town in this state shall have provided for the appointment and election of hospital trustees, and voted a tax for a term not exceeding twenty years for hospital purposes, as authorized by law, the county, township, or town may issue bonds in anticipation of the collection of such tax in such sums and amounts as the board of hospital trustees shall certify to the governing body of such county, township, or town to be necessary for the purposes contemplated by such tax, but such bonds in the aggregate shall not exceed the amount which might be realized by said tax, based on the amount which may be yielded on the property valuation of the year in which the tax is voted. Such bonds shall mature in twenty years from date and shall be in sums not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, drawing interest at a rate not exceeding five per cent per annum, payable annually or semiannually; the bonds shall be payable at pleasure of county, township, or town after five years, and each of said bonds shall provide that it is subject to this condition, and shall not be sold for less than par, and shall be substantially in the form provided for county bonds, but subject to changes that will conform them to the provisions of this article, and be numbered consecutively and redeemable in the order of their issuance.

7265. Condemnation of land. If the board of hospital trustees and the owners of any property desired by them for hospital purposes cannot agree as to the price to be paid therefor, they shall report the fact to the governing body of the county, township, or town, and condemnation proceedings shall be instituted by such governing body and prosecuted in the name of the county, township, or town wherein such public hospital is to be located, by the attorney for such county, township, or town, under the provisions of law for the condemnation of land for railroads.

7266. Plans to be approved; advertisement for bids. No hospital buildings shall be erected or constructed until the plans and specifications have been made therefor and adopted by the board of hospital trustees, and bids advertised for according to law for other county buildings.

1913, c. 42, s. 8.

7267. Additional appropriation. In the counties, townships, or towns exercising the rights conferred by this article, the governing body may appropriate each year, in addition to tax for hospital fund hereinbefore provided for, not exceeding five per cent of its general fund for the improvement and maintenance of any public hospital so established.

7268. Power to accept donations. Any person, firm, corporation, or society desiring to make donations of money, personal property, or real estate for the benefit of such hospital shall have the right to vest title of the property so donated in said county, township, or town, to be controlled, when accepted, by the board of hospital trustees according to the terms of the deed, gift, devise, or bequest of such property.

7269. Persons entitled to benefit of hospital. Every hospital established under this article shall be for the benefit of the inhabitants of such county, township, or town, and of any person falling sick or being injured or maimed within its limits; but every person who is not a pauper shall pay to such board of hospital trustees, or such officers as it shall designate, for such county public hospital, a reasonable compensation for occupancy, nursing, care, medicine, or attendance, according to the rules and regulations prescribed by the board, such hospital always being subject to such reasonable rules and regulations as the board may adopt, in order to render the use of the hospital of the greatest benefit to the greatest number. The board may exclude from the use of such hospital all persons who shall wilfully violate such rules and regulations; the board may extend the privileges and use of such hospital to persons residing outside of such county, township, or town, upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed from time to time by its rules and regulations.

7270. All persons subject to hospital regulations. When such hospital is established, the physicians, nurses, attendants, the persons sick therein, and all persons approaching or coming within the limits of same, and all furniture and other articles used or brought there, shall be subject to such rules and regulations as said board may prescribe.

1913, c. 42, s. 12.

7271. Municipal jurisdiction extended. The jurisdiction of the city, town, or village in or near which a public hospital is located shall extend over all lands used for hospital purposes outside the corporate limits, if so located, and all ordinances of such cities and towns shall be in full force and effect in and over the territory occupied by such public hospital.

1913, c. 42, s. 9.

7272. Equal privileges to all physicians. In the management of such public hospital no discrimination shall be made against practitioners of any school of medicine recognized by the laws of North Carolina, and all such legal practitioners shall have equal privileges in treating patients in such hospital. The patient shall have the absolute right to employ, at his own expense, his own physician, and the physician so employed shall have exclusive charge of the care and treatment of such patient in the hospital, and nurses therein shall, as to such patient, be subject to the directions of such physician, subject always to such general rules and regulations as shall be established by the board of trustees under the provisions of this article.

1913, c. 42, s. 14.

7273. Training school for nurses. The board of trustees of such county, township, or town public hospital may establish and maintain, in connection therewith and as a part of said public hospital, a training school for nurses.

1913, c. 42, s. 15; 1917, c. 268.

7274. Room for examination of insane persons. The board of trustees shall at all times provide a suitable room for the detention and examination of all persons who are brought before the commissioners of insanity for such county, provided that such public hospital is located at the county-seat.

1913, c. 42, s. 16.

7275. Charity patients determined. The board of hospital trustees shall have the power to determine whether or not patients presented at the public hospital for treatment are subjects for charity, and shall fix the compensation to be paid by patients other than those unable to assist themselves.

1913, c. 42, s. 18.

7276. Department for tuberculous patients. The board of trustees are authorized to provide as a department of the public hospital, but not necessarily attached thereto, suitable accommodations and means for the care and treatment of persons suffering from tuberculosis, and to formulate such rules and regulations for the government of such persons, and for the protection from infection of other patients and of nurses and attendants in such public hospital, as they may deem necessary; and it shall be the duty of all persons in charge of or employed at such hospitals, or residents thereof, to faithfully obey and comply with all such rules and regulations. The board of hospital trustees shall, if practicable, employ as head nurse to be placed in charge of the public tuberculosis sanatorium one who has had experience in the management and care of tuberculous persons.

7277. Plans for county and municipal tubercular sanatoria. Any county or town desiring to erect a sanatorium or hospital, shack, tent, or other structure in which it is intended to keep persons suffering with tuberculosis shall first submit to the state board of health for its approval or rejection the plans of said sanatorium, hospital, shack, tent, or other structure, and it shall be unlawful for any county or town to begin the erection of any such structure referred to above without the consent or approval of the state board of health.

Any person, firm, or corporation failing, neglecting, or refusing to comply with the provisions of this part of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

1917, c. 216, ss. 1, 2.

7278. Nonresident tuberculous patients. The governing body of any county, township, or town where no suitable provision has been made for the care of indigent tuberculous residents may contract with the board of hospital trustees of any public hospital for the care of such persons in the sanatorium department of such hospital, upon such reasonable terms as may be agreed upon.

1913, c. 42, s. 19; 1917, c. 268.

Part 2. County Tuberculosis Hospitals

7279. Power to establish. Any county within the state shall have power and authority at any time to establish, erect, and maintain a hospital for the care and treatment of persons suffering with the disease known as tuberculosis, as hereinafter provided in this article.

1917, c. 99, s. 1.

7280. Election for bond issue; special tax. The board of county commissioners of any county in the state may, by majority vote of the board, or upon petition of one-fourth of the freeholders of the county shall, after thirty days notice at the courthouse door and publication in one or more newspapers published in the county, order an election to be held at the next general election, or order a special election to be held at such time as they may fix, to determine the will of the people of the county whether there shall be issued and sold bonds to an amount not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars, to bear interest at such rate as the board may fix and to be payable, both principal and interest, when and where they may decide. The proceeds of the bonds to be used in securing lands and erecting or altering buildings and equipping same, to be used as a hospital for the treatment of tuberculosis. If the majority of the qualified voters at said election shall vote in favor of the issuing of such bonds, then the bonds shall be issued and sold by the board and a special tax shall be levied to pay the interest and to provide a sinking fund to pay the bonds at maturity. The board of commissioners are also authorized to levy a special annual tax not to exceed five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property and fifteen cents on the poll to be used as a maintenance fund for the hospital for tuberculosis. The question of levying such special tax shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such county at an election to be held as hereinbefore provided.

7281. Manner of holding election. The county commissioners at the next general election or special election shall cause to be placed at each voting precinct in the county a ballot box marked "County Tuberculosis Hospital," and cause to be printed and distributed official ballots labeled "For County Tuberculosis Hospital," and official ballots labeled "Against County Tuberculosis Hospital," said election to be governed by the laws of the state. The county commissioners shall, if they propose to levy the tax for a maintenance fund as hereinbefore provided, also cause to be placed at each voting precinct in the county a ballot box marked "Maintenance of County Tuberculosis Hospital," and cause to be printed and distributed official ballots labeled "For Maintenance of County Tuberculosis Hospital," and official ballots labeled "Against Maintenance of County Tuberculosis Hospital," such election to be held as hereinbefore provided.

7282. Board of managers; term of office; compensation. For each hospital so established the board of county commissioners shall, by a majority vote, elect a board of managers consisting of five members, who shall hold office for the term of five years, unless sooner removed for cause by the board of county commissioners: Provided, that at the first election of a board of managers one member shall be elected for the term of one year, one member for the term of two years, one member for the term of three years, one member for the term of four years, and one member for the term of five years: Provided, also, that any vacancies in such board may be filled by the board of county commissioners for the unexpired term. In all counties having a health officer, such health officer shall, in addition to the five elected members, be ex officio a member of such board of managers. Women shall be eligible for election to such boards of managers. The compensation for such board shall be the same as that of the county commissioners.

1917, c. 99, s. 4.

7283. Powers of board; title to property. Authority in regard to the purchase of lands, erection and maintenance of buildings, selection of officers, employees, and attendants, formulation of rules and regulations for the admission and government of patients, and general conduct of the hospital, shall vest in the board of managers. No one related by blood or marriage to any member of the board of managers shall be appointed to any office or position in connection with the hospital, except by unanimous vote of the board of managers. All property, both real and personal, pertaining to such hospital, shall be vested in the county: Provided, however, that any donations, bequests, or devises made for the use of such hospital shall be held by the county in trust according to the terms of such donation, devise, or bequest.

7284. Contract power; regulations for admission. The board of county commissioners, or the board of managers, according to the authority vested in them by the board of county commissioners or by this article, shall have power and authority to purchase property, both real and personal, to make contracts, to formulate, change, and alter rules and regulations for the admission and government of patients, and to do all things reasonably incidental or necessary to carry out the true intent and purpose of this article. Patients may be admitted and kept without charge or for such compensation as may be deemed just and proper in each particular case: Provided, that no person who is not a bona fide resident of the county maintaining such hospital shall be kept for less than actual cost. The county commissioners of any county may, instead of erecting the institution in the county where the vote is taken, use a part or all of the funds in erecting and maintaining a building or buildings at the state sanatorium at Montrose, or the county commissioners may in their discretion erect and maintain a tuberculosis hospital in the county where the bonds are issued, and may also use part of the funds to erect and maintain a building or buildings at Montrose, as they may deem best. Before erecting any building or buildings at Montrose the county commissioners shall make due arrangements and enter into the necessary contract or contracts with the board having charge of the state sanatorium at Montrose. And the board having in charge the state sanatorium at Montrose is hereby authorized and empowered to make contracts with any county in the state, specifying the terms upon which such building or buildings may be erected and making such arrangements as it may deem wise for the maintenance of such buildings and the care and support of such county patients. In case the county commissioners of any county or the people of any county do not decide to issue bonds for the erection of such hospital, but do decide to levy the special tax hereinbefore provided for, or the county commissioners of any county wish to use the necessary funds from the general fund of the county, they may in either case make arrangements with the board having in charge the state sanatorium at Montrose for the maintenance and care of tuberculous patients of such county.

NOTE.—Plans of buildings to be approved by state board of health, see under part 1 of this article, s. 7277. For state sanatorium for tuberculosis, see Public Health, ss. 7172-7179.

Any person to whom may be awarded the public printing and binding shall give bond, with approved surety, payable to the state of North Carolina, in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and undertakings under his contract. The surety herein required shall justify before some person authorized to administer oaths.

Rev., s. 292; Code, s. 3621; 1899, c. 250, s. 2.

Case involving printer's bond: Worth v. Stewart, 122-263.

7289. Public printer failing to perform contract; course pursued. If any person who has contracted to do the public printing for the state shall fail to perform his contract according to the terms thereof, the governor, council of state, attorney-general, and commissioner of labor and printing shall procure the public printing to be done by other parties, and the attorney-general shall institute suit in the superior court of Wake county in the name of the state to recover of the public printer and his bond any damages for failure to perform the contract.

Rev., s. 5094; 1899, c. 724; 1901, cc. 280, 401, 667.

7290. Work to be examined and approved; accounts audited. The commissioner of labor and printing, aided by the assistant commissioner, shall carefully examine all printing and binding done for the state, or any department thereof, by the public printer, and shall certify that the workmanship of the printing and binding is properly executed and that the accounts rendered by the public printer for the same are accurate and just before the auditor shall issue any warrant for the payment thereof. Such accounts shall not be approved by the commissioner nor audited by the state auditor oftener than forty-eight times in a year.

Rev., s. 5095; Code, ss. 3622, 3623; 1871-2, c. 180, s. 4; 1885, c. 331; 1899, c. 373, s. 5, c. 622.

See Worth v. Stewart, 122-258, 263.

Duty of commissioner of labor and printing to examine workmanship in printing supreme court reports: In re Printing Supreme Court Reports, 153-649.

7291. Paper and stationery for public printing. The commissioner of labor and printing shall purchase for the use of the state the paper and stationery used for public printing.

Rev., s. 5095.

7292. Binding of laws regulated. The public laws shall be bound separately. The public-local and private laws shall be bound together in one volume, or in two volumes, according to the size of such volumes, in the discretion of the printing commission. Some of the volumes shall be bound in sheep or buckram and the residue in half-binding. The number to be bound in each shall be determined by the officials authorized by this chapter to contract for state printing and binding.

Rev., s. 5096; Code, s. 3633; 1893, c. 146; 1919, c. 314, s. 4.

7293. Size and style of state publications. The printing commission shall regulate the sizes of books and publications and the general style of publication, the style of type and the paper to be used, to the end that a uniform standard may be established for state publications.

1911, c. 211, s. 8.

7294. Reports and publications; conciseness. The reports and publications of every kind now authorized or required to be printed by the several state departments and state institutions shall be as compact and concise as is consistent with an intelligent understanding of the work of the department. The details of the work of the departments shall not be printed when not necessary to an intelligent understanding of the work of the departments, but totals and results shall be tabulated and printed in said reports. It shall be the duty of the governor and council of state, the attorney-general, and the commissioner of labor and printing to determine what details of the work of any department or state institution shall be printed. The details shall be kept on file and subject to the inspection of the public.

Rev., s. 5097; Code, s. 3632; 1893, c. 146, s. 2; 1897, c. 135; 1901, c. 401, s. 2; 1919, c. 314, s. 4.

7296. Supreme court reports; contract for printing. The supreme court is authorized to contract from time to time for the printing of its reports, to select the printer for the same, and to prescribe such terms of the contract as will insure, under the supervision of the court, the prompt issue of the reports as soon as practicable after a sufficient number of opinions are filed: Provided, no contract shall be made for a longer period than two years, nor at a price higher than that paid the state printer for the same period: Provided further, that in letting said contract preference shall be given to printers of this state.

Rev., s. 5093; 1905, c. 400.

In re Printing Supreme Court Reports, 153-649.

7297. Supreme court reports; number printed. Of the supreme court reports there shall be printed and bound in full sheep or buckram as many copies, not less than seven hundred and fifty, as in the opinion of the attorney-general and secretary of state may be sufficient to supply the demand. All such copies shall be delivered to the secretary of state.

Rev., s. 5097; Code, s. 3632; 1893, c. 146, s. 2; 1897, c. 135; 1901, c. 401, s. 2; 1919, c. 314, s. 4.

7298. Journals; number printed and bound. Of each the senate and house journals there shall be printed four hundred and fifty copies in separate volumes, bound in sheep or buckram; all of which copies shall be delivered to the secretary of state.

Rev., s. 5099; Code, s. 3636; 1881, c. 16; 1872-3, c. 45, s. 10; 1919, c. 314, s. 4.

7299. Journals; preparation and filing by clerks of houses. It shall be the duty of the principal clerks of the two houses of the general assembly to hasten the preparation of their journals for the public printer, so that in no case at any time shall the journal of either house of any one day's proceedings remain unprepared for the printer by the clerk for a longer period than six days after its approval, and such clerks shall, immediately after the preparation of any and every day's proceedings of their respective houses, send the same to the office of the secretary of state.

Rev., s. 5100; Code, ss. 3627, 3628; 1872-3, c. 45, ss. 2, 3.

7300. Public documents. Of the reports of state officers, constituting a part of the public documents, the secretary of state shall be and is hereby required to file and keep in his office one copy of each, and the state librarian shall likewise be required to keep five copies of each, in the best binding in which any such report is issued; and these files shall take the place of these same reports as have heretofore been bound in the volumes known as the "Public Documents." The volumes known as the public documents shall contain only the reports of the various state institutions that are aided or sustained by special appropriations. Of these, there shall be bound not to exceed four hundred copies, one copy of which shall be furnished to each of the members and officers of the general assembly, and to the various state officers, and one copy to each of the state institutions, and one copy to the secretary of state, and five copies to the state librarian for filing. The remainder, if any, shall be delivered to the secretary of state.

Rev., s. 5101; 1911, c. 211, s. 7.

7301. Bills and legislative documents. The bills and all other documents ordered to be printed by either branch of the general assembly shall be printed in octavo form without a title page. But the first page shall be printed as follows: At the head of the page there shall be four rules, one double, two single, and one parallel, extending across the page. Between said rules shall be printed, first, the name of the house where the bill originated, with the year and date of the session, the name of the introducer, and the name of the printer; after leaving a space the width of two-line pica, a synopsis, or caption of the bill, or report of the committee, or whatever it may be, shall be set up with pica capitals. After such heading, the said document to follow immediately, commencing with a paragraph, allowing a space the width of small pica between the heading and commencement of the same.

Rev., s. 5102; Code, s. 3644; R. C., c. 93, s. 3.

7302. Departmental reports to legislature; number printed. Not to exceed eight hundred copies each of the annual or biennial reports of the several departments of the state government shall be printed, a copy of each of these to be furnished to each of the members and officers of the general assembly, one copy to each state officer, and five copies to the state librarian for filing, the remaining copies to be distributed in the discretion of the officer making such report: Provided, that the printing commission may permit the publication of a greater number of reports if in their judgment the same are necessary.

1911, c. 211, s. 2.

7303. Reports and blanks for state offices. The governor, secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction, attorney-general, insurance commissioner and adjutant general may have printed and prepared for their several offices such blank-books, blank forms, and other necessary printing as may be suitable and proper to enable them to discharge their official duties. They shall also be allowed all necessary postage, telephone, telegraph, postoffice box, and express charges; and the auditor and treasurer shall each have two hundred copies of their respective reports printed for the use of their offices. The printing herein authorized shall be done by the public printer according to the rates prescribed by law; and charges for all items shall be approved by the commissioner of labor and printing.

Rev., s. 5103; Code, s. 3646; 1873-4, c. 174; R. C., c. 93, s. 10; 1891, c. 352; 1919, c. 16.

7304. Agricultural department, printing for. The North Carolina agricultural experiment station is allowed to have the bulletins of the agricultural department printed as other state printing and paid for out of the general fund to an amount not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars for each biennial period, the first biennial period ending on the first day of December, nineteen hundred and sixteen.

7305. Department of public instruction, printing for. The department of the superintendent of public instruction is hereby allowed to expend for the necessary printing of its department a sum not to exceed eighteen thousand dollars for each biennial period, the first biennial period ending on the first day of December, nineteen hundred and sixteen.

1915, c. 209.

7306. State institutions, printing of reports of. The following institutions, and all others sustained by appropriations from the state treasury, are required to furnish to the commissioner of labor and printing, not later than December fifteenth of each biennial period, duplicates of the reports required to be furnished to the governor for his use and for the records of his office, for inclusion in the public documents; not to exceed two hundred copies of such reports may be furnished to the executive head of such institutions: The university of North Carolina, Chapel Hill; the North Carolina state college of agriculture and engineering, Raleigh; the North Carolina agricultural experiment station, Raleigh; the negro agricultural and technical college of North Carolina, Greensboro; the state school for the blind and the deaf, Raleigh; the Cullowhee normal and industrial school, Painter; the Appalachian training school, Boone; the North Carolina school for the deaf, Morganton; the central hospital, Raleigh; the state hospital, Morganton; the state hospital (colored), Goldsboro; the state prison, Raleigh; the East Carolina teachers' training school, Greenville; the state board of health, including the bureau of vital statistics, the state laboratory of hygiene, and the North Carolina sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis, Sanatorium: Provided, that these reports shall carry only such matters as are essential to a proper understanding of the work and purposes of the institution, together with a financial statement covering the previous biennial period ending December first.

1915, c. 62, s. 5.

7307. Printer's duties during session of general assembly. It shall be the duty of the printer aforesaid, in person or by agent, to call on the secretary of state, or his chief clerk at the office of said secretary daily, within office hours, and apply for such certified copies of the acts and resolutions of said assembly, and for such proceedings of the two houses as have been filed by the clerks aforesaid in the office of said secretary; and these applications shall be continued daily by the public printer until all of the acts, resolutions, and proceedings aforesaid of the session have been received by him.

Rev., s. 5105; Code, s. 3629; 1872-3, c. 45, s. 4.

7308. How amount of printing for state departments settled. Whenever in the judgment of the commissioner of labor and printing any requisition received by him from any state officer or department goes beyond the intent of the laws allowing printing, he may decline to allow the expenditure required to cover the cost of printing or other similar matter required. The officer or department making the requisition shall have the right of appeal from the decision of the commissioner of labor and printing to the printing commission, whose decision shall be final. A full account of such appeal shall be filed with the joint committee on printing of the general assembly at the succeeding session.

NOTE.—For the duties of secretary of state as to the printing and distribution of state publications, see State Officers, article Secretary of State.

ART. 2. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND PRINTING

7309. Creation and officials of department. A department of labor and printing is hereby created and established. The duties of the department shall be exercised and discharged by a commissioner, who shall be designated as commissioner of labor and printing, and an assistant commissioner, who shall be appointed by the commissioner, and who shall be a practical printer.

Rev., s. 3909; 1919, c. 314, s. 4.

7310. Commissioner and assistant commissioner. The commissioner shall be elected by the people in the same manner as is provided for the election of the secretary of state. His term of office shall be four years. The office of the department shall be kept in the city of Raleigh and same shall be provided for as are other public offices of the state. The assistant commissioner shall perform the duties of the commissioner in his absence from office or in case of a vacancy therein.

Rev., ss. 3909, 3910; 1919, c. 314, s. 4.

7311. Duties and powers of commissioner. The commissioner, aided by the assistant commissioner, shall collect and collate information and statistics concerning labor and its relation to capital, the hours of labor, the earnings of laborers and their educational, moral, and financial condition, and the best means of promoting their mental and moral and material welfare; shall also collect and collate information and statistics concerning the various mining, milling, and manufacturing industries in this state, their location, capacity, and actual output of manufactured products, the kind and quantity of raw material annually used by them and the capital invested therein; shall also collect and collate information and statistics concerning the location, estimated and actual horse-power and condition of valuable water-powers, developed and undeveloped, in this state; also concerning farm lands and farming, the kinds, character, and quantity of the annual farm products in this state; also of timber lands and timbers, truck gardening, dairying, and such other information and statistics concerning the agricultural and industrial welfare of the citizens of this state as he may deem to be of interest and benefit to the public, and shall also perform the duties of mine inspector as prescribed in the chapter entitled Mines; and shall have the powers and perform the duties in relation to the public printing that are set forth in this chapter.

Rev., s. 3910; 1897, c. 251; 1899, c. 373, ss. 3, 4; 1899, c. 622 ss. 1, 2; 1901, c. 280, s. 2; 1901, c. 401, s. 2.

7312. Official reports. The commissioner shall annually publish a report, embodying therein such information and statistics as he may deem expedient and proper, which report shall be printed and paid for by the state just as the reports of other public officers are printed and paid for. The number of copies of such report to be printed to be designated by the commissioner. The distribution of the reports will be paid for from the general fund and not from the appropriation. The commissioner shall send or cause to be sent a copy of the report to every newspaper in this state and a copy to each member of the general assembly; a copy to each of the several state and county officers; a copy to each labor organization in the state, and a copy to any citizen who may apply for the same either in person or by mail, and he may also send a copy to such officers of other states and territories and to such corporations or individuals in other states and territories as may apply for the same or as he may think proper. He shall also make a full report to the governor as other state officers are required to do, embodying therein such recommendations as he may deem calculated to promote the efficiency of his department.

Rev., s. 3911; 1899, c. 373, s. 6.

NOTE.—For salaries of the commissioner and assistant commissioner, see Salaries and Fees, s. 3873.

ART. 1. STONEWALL JACKSON MANUAL TRAINING AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

7313. Incorporation. Mrs. May Anna Jackson, Maggie S. Burgwyn, Miss Easdale Shaw, Mrs. W. Faison, and eleven others, trustees or directors, and their successors, are hereby incorporated under the name and style of the Stonewall Jackson Manual Training and Industrial School, by which name they may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, hold, use, and sell and convey real estate, receive gifts and donations and appropriations, and do all other things necessary and requisite for the purposes of its organization as hereinafter specified.

The act establishing the Stonewall Jackson training school is constitutional, and committing a child to this institution is not imprisonment as a punishment for crime: In re Watson, 157-340.

7314. Purpose of the school. The trustees are empowered to establish and operate a school for the training and moral and industrial development of the criminally delinquent children of the state; and when such school has been organized the trustees may, in their discretion, receive therein such delinquent and criminal children under the age of sixteen years as may be sent or committed thereto under any order or commitment by the judges of the superior courts, the judges of the juvenile courts, or the recorders or other presiding officers of the city or criminal courts, and shall have the sole right and authority to keep, restrain, and control them during their minority, or until such time as they shall deem proper for their discharge, under such proper and humane rules and regulations as may be adopted by the trustees. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this section are hereby repealed.

7315. Power to purchase land and locate school. The board of trustees shall select a suitable place outside of and away from any city, town, or village, for the location of such school, and they are empowered to purchase, at some suitable and convenient place in this state, not less than one hundred acres nor more than five hundred acres of land whereon to erect and operate such school.

1907, c. 509, ss. 2, 15.

7316. Election of trustees; vacancies; appropriation. The trustees herein named and the eleven other persons shall be divided into three classes:

- (1) Mrs. Jackson.....
To serve for six years.
- (2)
To serve for four years.
- (3)
To serve for two years.

At the expiration of the terms of office of each class of trustees, if the state shall at such time be appropriating to the support of the institution a sum of not less than five thousand dollars per annum, the governor shall have the right to fill by appointment two of the vacancies so occurring, and the board to fill the other three by election of such persons as they may see fit, and all vacancies in said board shall continue to be filled in the above manner; but in case the state shall refuse to appropriate at least the aforesaid sum, then the state shall forfeit all rights to appoint any trustees or require any account of statements as herein provided, and said school shall then be governed by the general laws applicable to charitable institutions of like character not receiving state appropriations, and said board may fill all vacancies therein by election. If, however, the general assembly shall at its session of one thousand nine hundred and seven vote an appropriation to said school, then it shall be the duty of the governor to call, not later than the first day of September, one thousand nine hundred and seven, a meeting of the trustees herein named, at his office in Raleigh, and at such meeting the trustees shall proceed to the election of a treasurer, superintendent for the school, and such other officers for the board and school as they deem proper. The eleven other trustees not herein selected shall be selected in the following manner: If the general assembly shall make an appropriation to said school, the eleven other trustees shall be selected by the governor, by and with the advice of the four trustees herein named; but if the general assembly shall refuse to vote such appropriation, then the four trustees herein named shall have the power and right to select the eleven other trustees.

NOTE.—The appropriation was made 1907, c. 871, and has been continued by each session of the general assembly. 1909, c. 449, s. 16; 1911, c. 121, s. 10; 1913, c. 106, s. 8; 1915, c. 98, s. 6; 1917, c. 193, s. 7; 1919, c. 145, s. 7.

7317. Application of funds; account required. All moneys received by the trustees by private gifts, donations, or otherwise shall be expended in the establishment, operation, and maintenance of the school for the training and the moral and industrial development of such delinquent children, and in securing homes for them; and in case the trustees receive or are allowed any state aid for said school, it shall be their duty to duly account for all moneys so received by them and to make report of the manner of its expenditure and of the work done by them as hereinafter more particularly provided for.

7318. Trustees to employ superintendent and assistants, and make regulations. The board of trustees shall have the management and control of the school, and shall have authority to employ a superintendent and such other assistants as they may deem necessary; to fix their salaries, to define their duties, to discharge any employees, and to make any and all rules and regulations as they may deem necessary for the management and conducting of such reformatory under the provisions of this article, and not inconsistent therewith.

1907, c. 509, s. 8.

7319. Treasurer and superintendent to give bond. The treasurer and superintendent shall, before receiving any of said funds, make a good and sufficient bond, payable to the state of North Carolina, in such sums as may be named by the governor and approved by the state treasurer.

1907, c. 509, s. 7.

7320. Powers of superintendent. The superintendent employed by the board is authorized to require obedience from all the inmates of the school, and is intrusted with the authority for correcting and punishing any inmate thereof to the same extent as a parent may under the law impose upon his own child, and the trustees shall have the right at any time to discharge the superintendent for cause.

1907, c. 509, s. 9.

7321. Governor to visit reformatory. It shall be the duty of the governor of the state to visit the reformatory at least once in each year, and oftener if he deem it necessary, and to make such suggestions to the board of trustees as he may deem wise and for the best interests of the school or reformatory.

1907, c. 509, s. 10.

7322. Courts may commit offenders to reformatory. The judges of the superior courts, recorders, or other presiding officers of the city or criminal courts of this state, shall have authority, and it shall be their duty, to sentence to the school all persons under the age of sixteen years convicted in any court of this state of any violation of the criminal laws: Provided, that such judge or other of said officers shall be of the opinion that it would be best for such person, and the community in which he may be convicted, that he should be so sentenced. Any commitment under this article, whether by judge or court, as hereinbefore provided, shall be full, sufficient, and competent authority to the officers and agents of the school for the detention and keeping therein of the child so committed.

1907, c. 509, ss. 11, 17; 1907, c. 955, s. 1.

NOTE.—See juvenile courts, art. 2, chapter Child Welfare.

Committing a child to this institution is not imprisonment as a punishment for crime: In re Watson, 157-340. See section 5047.

7323. Governor may transfer prisoners to reformatory. The governor of the state may by order transfer any person under the age of sixteen years from any jail, chain-gang, or penitentiary in this state to such reformatory.

1907, c. 509, s. 12.

7324. Department first established; sexes separated. The board of trustees shall first establish and maintain such departments of the manual training school as shall be adapted to the use of such class of boys as in the discretion of the board may be most in need of such care and training and will probably be most benefited thereby. When both sexes are admitted, the males and females shall be kept in separate apartments or buildings.

1907, c. 509, ss. 17, 18.

7325. Industrial training provided. There shall be established and conducted on such lands as may be owned in connection with the school such agriculture, horticulture, workshops, and other pursuits as the board of trustees may deem expedient so as to keep regularly at work all able-bodied inmates.

1907, c. 509, s. 4.

7326. General instruction and training given. The officers of the school shall receive and take into it all children committed thereto by competent authority, or received therein as aforesaid, and shall cause all such children in the school to be instructed in such rudimentary branches of useful knowledge as may be suited to their various ages and capacities. The children shall be taught such useful trades and given such manual training as the board may direct, and shall perform such manual labor as the principal or other superintending officers, subject to the direction of the board, may order. All the inmates shall, if possible, be taught the precepts of the Holy Bible, good moral conduct, how to work and to be industrious.

7327. Ungovernable inmates removed. If it shall appear to the board of trustees that any inmate of the school is or becomes ungovernable and is exerting an unwholesome influence over any other inmate, it shall be their duty to certify the same to the governor of the state, and he may order such inmate to the state's prison or to the jail or chain-gang in the county in which such inmate was convicted, where such person shall serve out his unexpired term.

1907, c. 509, s. 13.

7328. General legislative control. Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to prevent the general assembly from altering, changing, and modifying the law and regulations governing such school and its officers and directors in such manner and at such time as to it may seem best.

1907, c. 509, s. 19.

NOTE.—A similar institution for the negro criminal youth was authorized by law, to be known as the Foulks Reformatory and Manual Training School, with the same powers and subject to the same conditions as to appropriations, but no appropriation was made. 1909, c. 817.

ART. 2. STATE HOME AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS AND WOMEN

7329. Incorporation and name. A corporation to be known and designated as the State Home and Industrial School for Girls and Women is hereby created, and as such corporation it is authorized and empowered to accept and use donations and appropriations and to do all other things necessary and requisite to be done in furtherance of the purpose of its organization and existence as hereinafter set forth.

1917, c. 255, s. 1.

7330. Board of managers; term of office; compensation. The institution shall be under the control and management of a board of five managers, three of whom shall be women and two shall be men. All of the managers shall be appointed by the governor of the state, who in the first appointment shall appoint one of the managers for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, one for a term of three years, one for a term of four years, and one for a term of five years; and at the end of the term of any manager the governor shall appoint the successor for a term of five years. All vacancies on the board, occurring for any cause, shall be filled by the governor. Each member of the board shall be entitled to receive necessary expenses for every day engaged in the business of the institution.

7331. Power to purchase land and erect buildings. The board of managers is authorized to secure by gift or purchase suitable real estate within the state, not less than fifty acres, at such place as the board may deem best, and with the money or other property which the corporation may have received for that purpose, either by donations from individuals or by appropriation from the state, the board shall proceed to erect on such real estate buildings suitable for carrying out the purposes for which the corporation is created.

1917, c. 255, s. 3.

7332. Power of control. The board of managers shall have the general superintendence, management, and control of the institution; of the grounds and buildings, officers, and employees thereof; of the inmates therein and all matters relating to the government, discipline, contracts, and fiscal concerns thereof; and may make such rules and regulations as may seem to them necessary for carrying out the purposes of the institution. And the board shall have the right to keep, restrain, and control the inmates of the institution until such time as the board may deem proper for their discharge under such proper and humane rules and regulations as the board may adopt. The board shall endeavor as far as possible to classify the inmates and keep the different classes in separate wards or divisions, so as to produce the best results in the reformatory work. The board of managers shall constitute a board of parole of the institution and shall have power to parole and discharge the inmates under such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe.

1917, c. 255, s. 4.

7333. Appointment of officers; compensation; by-laws. The board of managers shall appoint from among its members a president, a secretary, and a treasurer, who shall hold office for one year from the date of appointment; and if the board deem it proper to do so, the office of secretary and treasurer may be combined in one. The board shall also appoint a superintendent, who shall be a woman of experience and training. The board shall fix the compensation of the superintendent and all officers and employees of the institution, and shall prescribe the duties of each. The board shall further adopt such by-laws as, in the judgment of the board, may be necessary, fixing the time and place of the meetings of the board and making such other provisions as may be necessary for the proper management of the institution.

1917, c. 255, s. 5.

7334. Persons committed to the reformatory; time of detention. Any girl or woman who may come or be brought before any court of the state, and may either have confessed herself guilty or have been convicted of being a habitual drunkard, or being a prostitute, or of frequenting disorderly houses or houses of prostitution, or of vagrancy, or of any other misdemeanor, may be committed by such court for confinement in the institution aforesaid: Provided, such person is not insane or mentally or physically incapable of being substantially benefited by the discipline of such institution: and Provided further, that before sentencing such person to confinement in the institution the court shall ascertain whether the institution is in position to care for such person; and it shall be at all times within the discretion of the board of directors as to whether the board will receive any person in the institution. No commitment shall be for any definite term, but any person so committed may be paroled or discharged at any time after her commitment by the board of managers, but no inmate shall in any case be detained longer than three years. When any such person shall come before any court for the purpose of confessing guilt or for trial, the court shall, as far as feasible and as far as consistent with public policy, give a private hearing, and in all respects avoid unnecessary publicity in connection with the proceedings before the court.

1917, c. 255, ss. 6, 12.

7335. Delivery of inmates to institution; expenses. It shall be the duty of the county authorities of the county from which any girl or woman is sent to the home, or the city authorities, if any girl or woman is ordered to be sent to the home by any city court, to see that such girl or woman is safely and duly delivered to the home, and to pay all the expenses incident to her conveyance and delivery to the home.

1919, c. 122.

7336. Voluntary application for admission; care of children. In addition to caring for such persons as may be committed to the institution by order of court, the board of managers may, in their discretion, receive into the institution any such person who may have in writing confessed herself guilty of any offense or any wayward conduct and may in writing express her desire to become an inmate of the institution; but the board shall not admit any such person unless upon examination of such person, freely and voluntarily held under the direction of the board, the board shall conclude that confinement in the institution will probably aid in the reformation of such person. Any person becoming an inmate of the institution under the provisions of this section shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as those who have been committed by order of court, and shall be detained for such time as the board, in its judgment, may deem best, not exceeding, however, the term of three years. And it shall further be the duty of the board of managers to make suitable provision for the care and maintenance of children born in the institution, and also of the infant children that any woman may have when she is committed to the institution.

1917, c. 255, s. 7.

7337. Law as to juvenile delinquents applied. The provisions of the chapter pertaining to the reclamation and training of juvenile delinquents shall apply to young girls, and any court before whom a young girl is brought pursuant to the provisions of said chapter may be by order of court placed in the institution herein established, and shall be subject to all the provisions of law relating thereto: Provided, however, that no girl shall be admitted to the institution under this provision without the previous consent of the board of managers.

1917, c. 255, s. 8.

See Child Welfare, chapter 90.

7338. Discharge on parole; arrest for escape or violation of parole. The board of managers may conditionally discharge any person at any time, and if any such person shall violate any condition of her parole or shall violate any condition upon which she has been discharged, or if any inmate escape from the institution, the board of managers may cause any such person to be rearrested and returned to the institution and be detained therein for the unexpired portion of her term, dating from the time of her parole, conditional discharge, or escape. The board of managers is empowered to issue to any person designated by the board a commitment signed by the president and attested by the secretary, and having attached thereto the common seal of the corporation, by the terms of which commitment such person may be authorized and empowered to apprehend any such person who may have violated her parole or any condition of her discharge or that may have escaped, and carry such person back to the institution. Such commitment shall briefly state the reason for the issuance of the same, and the person designated to execute the same may execute it in any county of the state.

7339. Industrial training; compensation; power to detain. The board of managers is authorized and empowered to establish and maintain within the institution an industrial school, and shall provide for the safe-keeping and employment of the inmates for the purpose of teaching each of them a useful trade or profession and improving her mental and moral condition. If the board of managers sees fit, they may pay each inmate reasonable compensation for labor performed, after deducting such sum as they may deem reasonable for necessary expenses of her maintenance and discipline. To secure the safe-keeping, obedience, and good order of the inmates, the superintendent shall have the same power as to such inmates as keepers of jails and other penal institutions possess as to persons committed to their custody.

1917, c. 255, s. 10.

7340. Bond issue authorized. For the purpose of purchasing land and erecting buildings for a state home and industrial school for girls and women, the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to issue bonds of the state of North Carolina, payable ten years after the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, to an amount not to exceed the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

1917, c. 265, s. 1.

7341. Rate of interest on bonds. All of such bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, until paid, which interest shall be payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July of each year, so long as any portion of the bonds shall remain due and unpaid.

1917, c. 265, s. 2.

7342. Manner of issue and sale of bonds. The bonds authorized and directed to be issued by the preceding sections shall be coupon bonds of the denomination of five hundred dollars and one thousand dollars each, as may be determined by the state treasurer, and shall be signed by the governor and state treasurer and sealed with the great seal of the state. The coupons thereon may be signed by the state treasurer alone or may have a facsimile of his signature printed, engraved, or lithographed thereon, and the bonds shall in all other respects be in such form as the state treasurer may direct; and the coupons thereon shall, after maturity, be receivable in payment of all taxes, debts, dues, licenses, fines, and demands due the state of North Carolina of any kind whatsoever, which shall be expressed on the face of the bonds. Before selling the bonds herein authorized to be issued, the treasurer shall authorize the sale and invite sealed bids in such manner as in his judgment may seem to be most effectual to secure the best price. He is authorized to accept bids for the entire issue or of any portion thereof, and where the conditions are equal he shall give the preference of purchase to the citizens of North Carolina; and he is authorized to sell the bonds herein authorized in such manner as in his judgment will produce the best price.

1917, c. 265, s. 3.

7343. Bonds exempt from taxation; investment for fiduciaries. The bonds and coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, or municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for purposes of general revenue or otherwise, and the interest paid thereon shall not be subject to taxation as for income, nor shall the bonds and coupons be subject to taxation when constituting a part of the surplus of any bank, trust company, or other corporation. It shall be lawful for all executors, administrators, guardians, and fiduciaries generally to invest in said bonds.

1917, c. 265, ss. 4, 5.

ART. 3. REFORMATORIES OR HOMES FOR FALLEN WOMEN

7344. Counties and cities authorized to establish reformatories. In all cities that have a population of over twenty thousand people the governing body of such city and the board of county commissioners of the county in which the city is situated are authorized and empowered to establish jointly a reformatory or home for fallen women.

1917, c. 264, s. 1.

7345. Power to purchase land, erect buildings, and maintain the institution. The said city and county are authorized jointly to purchase a tract of land, not exceeding one hundred acres, for the use of such reformatory or home, the title to which shall be vested jointly in the city and county, and the reformatory shall be managed jointly by such city and county. The city and county are authorized to build such buildings and improvements on the land so purchased, to keep and maintain such reformatory or home for fallen women, and to make all necessary appropriations for buildings and keeping and caring for the inmates thereof: Provided, however, the cost of said buildings shall not exceed the sum of twenty thousand dollars, and the maintenance and upkeep and operating expenses per annum shall not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars.

7346. Board of directors elected; officers; regulations. The governing body of the city, at its annual election of officers for the city in May, shall elect for the term of two years two men as directors for such institution, and the board of county commissioners shall, in the same year, at their meeting in May, elect two men as directors for such institution to serve for two years. The mayor of the city and the chairman of the board of county commissioners shall be ex officio members of such board with equal right to vote, and the six directors shall have entire management and control of such reformatory for fallen women. The board shall elect one of their number president, and also elect a secretary and treasurer, and they shall have and exercise the usual powers incident to such officers. They shall make such rules and regulations as they see fit for the government and management of such institution. The directors shall take an oath to perform their service faithfully, and they shall continue as directors until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

1917, c. 264, s. 1.

7347. Advisory board of women. The directors are authorized to appoint as an advisory board not more than twenty-five nor less than twelve discreet women to supervise and attend to the actual running of such institution. The advisory board of women shall be appointed for such term, not exceeding four years, as the directors may in their discretion think best.

1917, c. 264, s. 1.

7348. Special tax authorized. To assist in carrying out the provisions of this article the county commissioners and governing body of the city shall each levy annually a tax not exceeding two cents on each one hundred dollars valuation of real and personal property in such city and county respectively. The tax shall be levied and collected in the same manner as the other county and city taxes are collected. This fund shall be used exclusively for the purposes contemplated and set forth in this article, and shall be kept separate from all other funds.

1917, c. 264, s. 2.

7349. Employment of superintendent and assistants; rules and regulations. The board of directors shall have the management and control of the institution and shall have authority to employ superintendents and such other assistants as they may deem necessary; to fix their salaries, to define their duties, and to discharge any employee; and to make any and all rules and regulations as they may deem necessary for the management and conducting of the institution under the provisions of this article and not inconsistent therewith.

1917, c. 264, s. 5.

7350. Power of superintendent. The superintendent of the institution employed by the board of directors shall have the right to require obedience from all the inmates of the institution, and to use such lawful measures as may be necessary to enforce the same to the same extent as the superintendent of any other penal institution in this state is empowered in like case.

1917, c. 264, s. 6.

7351. Physician employed. For the purpose of treating the inmates of the institution for the whiskey, drug, or other habit or disease, the directors shall employ a competent physician or physicians to attend and treat said inmates.

1917, c. 264, s. 14.

7352. Purpose of home; persons to be admitted. The reformatory or home shall be conducted for the correction of fallen women, and for the moral and industrial training of criminally delinquent women and girls, by teaching them useful trades and domestic science, etc.; and the directors may, in their discretion, receive into the institution such women or girls as shall be committed thereto by the judge or other presiding officer of any superior or recorder's court held anywhere in the state of North Carolina within that judicial district in which county the reformatory is now or may hereafter be situated, as hereinafter provided: Provided, that the reasonable cost of maintaining any woman or girl committed to such institution from any county other than that in which such reformatory shall be located shall be borne by the county from which such person shall have been committed.

1917, c. 264, s. 3.

7353. Right of directors to control inmates. The board of directors shall have the sole right to keep, restrain, and control the persons committed or otherwise received into the institution as hereinafter provided, during the term of their commitment thereto, under such proper and humane rules and regulations as may be adopted by the directors.

1917, c. 264, s. 4.

7354. Power of courts to commit persons to reformatory. When the institution is ready to receive and care for inmates, the board of directors shall notify the clerks of the courts hereinbefore specified; and the judges or other presiding officers of the superior, recorders', county, or other courts having like criminal jurisdiction, in that judicial district in which the reformatory is now or may hereafter be situated and established, shall have authority to sentence to the reformatory for fallen women for a term of not less than thirty days nor more than one year all those women who are convicted in their several courts of drunkenness or the drug habit, where it appears that they are habitual drunkards or drug fiends; and the judges or other presiding officers of such courts shall have authority to sentence to the "Reformatory for Women" for a term of not less than thirty days nor more than three years all female persons convicted in the said courts of any violation of the criminal laws of this state prohibiting and punishing fornication and adultery, keeping a house of ill-fame, or a bawdy-house, or disorderly house, or violating the criminal laws of this state as to chastity or vagrancy: Provided, that such judge or other presiding officer as aforesaid shall be of the opinion that it would be best for such persons and the community in which such persons may be convicted hereunder. The order of commitment of such judge or other presiding officer as hereinbefore provided shall be full, sufficient, and competent authority to the officers and agents of the institution for the detention and keeping therein of the persons so committed: Provided, that nothing herein shall authorize a justice of the peace to impose a sentence of longer than thirty days: Provided further, that judges and recorders holding courts in counties other than that in which the reformatory is located shall have power to commit such persons to the institution on the conditions heretofore set forth in this article.

7355. Clerk of superior court may commit in certain cases. The clerk of the superior court shall have power and authority to commit to the institution for treatment any female person found by such clerk to be a habitual drunkard or habitually addicted to the drug habit, as such clerk is now authorized by law to commit to the hospital for the insane, private hospital, persons adjudged to be of unsound mind, and to that end such clerk of the court shall have all the power and authority conferred upon him by law with reference to insane persons.

1917, c. 264, s. 15.

7356. Voluntary application for admission. Any person fulfilling the requirements as to sex and age as hereinbefore provided may, upon written application to the directors, setting forth that the applicant wishes to reform and the term for which such applicant wishes to be detained, be admitted to such institution, in the discretion of the board of directors; and any inmate so admitted shall be subject to the same restraint, control, and treatment as persons committed thereto, and such applications signed by the applicants shall be full and sufficient authority for the detention and control of the applicants in the institution for and during the full term as set out in the application: Provided, that the directors may, in their discretion, discharge any inmate so admitted at any time.

1917, c. 264, s. 8.

7357. Instruction and training to be given. The officers of the institution shall take into the reformatory or home all persons committed thereto by competent authority, and shall cause all such persons to be instructed in such rudimentary branches of useful knowledge as may be suited to their various ages and capacities, and to be taught such useful trades and occupations as the board may direct; and such persons shall perform such labor as the principal and other superintending officers may order, subject to the discretion of the board of directors. All inmates of the institution shall, if possible, be taught the precepts of the Holy Bible, good moral conduct, how to work and be industrious.

7358. Industrial training; assistance to discharged inmates. There shall be established and conducted on such lands as may be owned in connection with the institution such useful pursuits as the board of directors may deem expedient, so as to keep regularly at work all able-bodied inmates thereof, and as far as may be practicable the board of directors shall assist the inmates, when paroled or discharged, in procuring suitable homes and honorable and respectable employment.

1917, c. 264, s. 12.

7359. Discharge on parole; rearrest for escape or violation of parole. The board of directors of the institution may detain therein, under the rules and regulations adopted by them, any person legally committed thereto, according to the terms of sentence and commitment; and with the approval and concurrence of the governor of the state first had and obtained, may conditionally parole or discharge such person at any time prior to the expiration of the term of commitment. If, however, any inmate shall escape or be conditionally paroled, or be conditionally discharged from the institution as aforesaid, and violate and break the condition of her parole or conditional discharge, the board of directors may, by and through their superintendent, cause her to be arrested and returned to the institution, to be detained therein for the unexpired portion of the commitment, dating from the time of escape or parole or conditional discharge. The superintendent of the institution, or any employee thereof under his control and direction, may rearrest, without a warrant, any inmate of the institution who may have escaped therefrom, in any county of this state, and shall forthwith convey her back to the institution from which she escaped; and a justice of the peace or any judicial officer may cause an escaped inmate from the institution to be rearrested and held in custody until she can be returned to the institution as in case of the first commitment thereto. Any person conditionally paroled or conditionally discharged from the institution may be also rearrested and returned thereto upon a warrant issued by the chairman of the board of directors, the warrant specifying briefly the reason for such rearrest and return, and such warrant of rearrest shall be directed and delivered to a person employed by the board of directors, and may be executed by such person in any county of this state where the paroled or conditionally discharged inmate may be found.

7360. Ungovernable inmates removed. If it shall appear to the board of directors that any inmate of the institution is or becomes ungovernable, or is exerting an unwholesome influence over any other inmate of the institution, it shall be their duty to certify the same to the governor of the state, and he thereupon may order such inmate to the state's prison or to the county jail or to the workhouse in the county in which the inmate was convicted and sentenced, where such person shall serve out her unexpired term of imprisonment.

7361. Reports to be made by directors; inspection by grand jury. The board of directors shall at least once a year file with the city and the board of county commissioners of the county in which the institution is situated a full detailed report of the institution, together with the superintendent's reports thereon. It shall be the duty of the grand jury to personally visit and inspect such institutions once every six months, and report to the court the conditions prevailing therein.

1917, c. 264, s. 9.

7362. General legislative control. Nothing in this article shall prevent the general assembly from altering, changing, and modifying the laws and regulations governing such institutions, and their officers and directors, in such manner and at such time as it may deem best.

1917, c. 264, s. 16.

CHAPTER 122

RIVERS AND CREEKS

ART. 1. COMMISSIONERS FOR OPENING AND CLEARING STREAMS.

- 7363. County commissioners to appoint commissioners.
- 7364. Overseers; appointment and duty.
- 7365. Flats and appurtenances procured.
- 7366. Neuse river in certain counties.
- 7367. Laid off in districts; passage for fish.
- 7368. Commissioners to examine streams.
- 7369. Report made and confirmed.
- 7370. Gates and dams discontinued.
- 7371. Failure of owner of dam to keep gates, etc.
- 7372. Repairing breaks.
- 7373. Entry upon lands of another to make repairs.
- 7374. Draws in bridges.
- 7375. Public landings.

ART. 2. OBSTRUCTIONS IN STREAMS.

- 7376. Obstructing passage of boats.
- 7377. Obstructing streams a misdemeanor.
- 7378. Local: sawdust in streams.
- 7379. Local: Owners of mills throwing sawdust or other material into streams.

ART. 1. COMMISSIONERS FOR OPENING AND CLEARING STREAMS

7363. County commissioners to appoint commissioners. Where any inland river or stream runs through the county, or is a line of their county, the boards of commissioners of the several counties may appoint commissioners to view such river or stream, and make out a scale of the expense of labor with which the opening and clearing thereof will be attended; and if the same is deemed within the ability of the county, and to be expedient, they may appoint and authorize the commissioners to proceed in the most expeditious manner in opening and clearing the same, by taking such lands from the public roads as the board of county commissioners shall permit and direct to be allotted to such work; which lands shall be placed under overseers in companies, every overseer and company to have a distinct portion of such river or stream to be laid off by the board of commissioners.

Rev., s. 5297; Code, s. 3706; 1887, c. 370.

See Gwaltney v. Timber Co., 111-564.

7364. Overseers; appointment and duty. Every overseer shall be appointed by the board of county commissioners; and the clerk shall issue a notice, expressing therein the name of the stream, the distance he is to work thereon, and the hands appointed under him, and the sheriff shall serve the same upon him, under the same rules as notices are served upon overseers of roads. The overseer and hands, upon receiving three days previous notice from the commissioners, shall proceed to work upon and clear out such river or stream, subject to the same rules and double the penalties imposed upon overseers and hands working upon public roads; and no overseer or hands appointed to open and clear out navigable rivers and streams shall be compelled to work on public roads. And the board of county commissioners thereafter shall annually appoint overseers, and assign such hands as they may judge proper, to work on rivers and creeks, and keep in repair any slopes erected or to be erected; and such overseers, and the hands assigned, for a failure of duty shall be subject to all the penalties imposed upon overseers of roads and the hands liable to work thereon.

Rev., s. 5298; Code, s. 3707; R. C., c. 100, s. 2; 1784, c. 227, s. 16; 1796, c. 460, s. 2; 1809, c. 782, s. 3; 1812, c. 845, ss. 1, 2, 3; 1813, c. 859, ss. 1, 2; 1844, c. 66.

See Hutton v. Webb, 124-757.

7365. Flats and appurtenances procured. The board of county commissioners appointing the commissioners may direct them to purchase or hire a flat with a windlass and the appurtenances necessary to remove loose rock and other things, which may by such means be more easily removed, and allow the same to be paid for out of the county funds.

Rev., s. 5299; Code, s. 3708; R. C., c. 100, s. 3; 1785, c. 242, s. 2.

7366. Neuse river in certain counties. The boards of commissioners of the counties of Johnston, Wayne, Lenoir, and Craven, at the first meeting which shall be held for their respective counties after the first day of July, may yearly appoint and lay off, in convenient districts, all the inhabitants of their counties, respectively, resident above Spring Garden on both sides of Neuse river, within such distances of the river as the boards of county commissioners shall appoint; and for each district appoint some person as overseer, who shall cause all persons within the district allotted to him, liable to work on public roads, to work at least six days in every year on the river, unless the boards of county commissioners shall otherwise direct; during which time he shall cause them to be employed in removing all logs, brush, and other obstructions to navigation; and for neglect he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and every person liable to work as aforesaid, or send hands, who shall fail when warned (as hands are for working on roads) to appear and work, with such tools as the overseer shall direct, shall pay for each day one dollar, to be recovered and applied in the same manner as fines for failing to work on public roads: Provided, that nothing in this section shall abridge or interfere with the rights and privileges of the Neuse river navigation company.

Rev., s. 5300; Code, s. 3709; R. C., c. 100, s. 4; 1823, c. 1197.

7367. Laid off in districts; passage for fish. The board of county commissioners may appoint commissioners to examine and lay off the rivers and creeks in their county; and where the stream is a boundary between two counties, may lay off the same on their side; in doing so they shall allow three-fourths for the owners of the streams for erecting slopes, dams and stands; and one-fourth part, including the deepest part, they shall leave open for the passage of fish, marking and designating the same in the best manner they can; and if mills are built across such stream, and slopes may be necessary, the commissioners shall lay off such slopes, and determine the length of time they shall be kept open; and such commissioners shall return to their respective boards of county commissioners a plan of such slopes, dams, and other parts of streams viewed and surveyed.

See McLaughlin v. Mfg. Co., 103-103; Gwaltney v. Timber Co., 111-564; Hutton v. Webb, 124-757.

7368. Commissioners to examine streams. The commissioners appointed by the board of county commissioners to examine and lay off the rivers and creeks within the county, or where the stream is a boundary between counties, shall have power to lay off gates, with slopes attached thereto, upon any milldam built across such stream, of such dimensions and construction as shall be sufficient for the convenient passage of floating logs and other timber, in cases where it may be deemed necessary by the said board of county commissioners; and they shall return to the board of county commissioners appointing them a plan of such gates, slopes, and dams in writing.

Rev., s. 5302; Code, s. 3712; 1858-9, c. 26, s. 1.

See McLaughlin v. Mfg. Co., 103-103; Gwaltney v. Timber Co., 111-564; Comrs. v. Lumber Co., 116-743.

7369. Report made and confirmed. Upon the confirmation of the report made by the commissioners, and notice thereof given to the owner or keeper of said mill, it shall be his duty forthwith to construct, and thereafter to keep and maintain, at his expense, such gate and slope, for the use of persons floating logs and other timber as aforesaid, so long as said dam shall be kept up, or until otherwise ordered by the board of county commissioners.

Rev., s. 5303; Code, s. 3713; 1858-9, c. 26, s. 2.

7370. Gates and dams discontinued. The commissioners at any time thereafter, appointed as aforesaid, when they may deem such gate and slope no longer necessary, may report the fact to their respective boards of county commissioners, and said boards of county commissioners may order the same to be discontinued.

Rev., s. 5304; Code, s. 3714; 1858-9, c. 26, s. 3.

7371. Failure of owner of dam to keep gates, etc. If any owner or keeper of a mill, whose dam is across any stream, shall fail to build a gate and slope therein, or thereafter to keep and maintain the same as required by commissioners to lay off rivers and creeks, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 3383; Code, s. 3715; 1858-9, c. 26, s. 4.

7372. Repairing breaks. Wherever any stream of water which is used to propel machinery shall be by freshet or otherwise diverted from its usual channel so as to impair its power as used by any person, such person shall have power to repair the banks of such stream at the place where the break occurs, so as to cause the stream to return to its former channel.

Rev., s. 5305; Code, s. 3716; 1879, c. 53, s. 1.

7373. Entry upon lands of another to make repairs. In case the break occurs on the lands of a different person from the one utilizing the stream, the person utilizing the stream shall have power to enter upon the lands of such other person to repair the same, and in case such person objects, the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the break occurs shall, upon application of the party utilizing the stream, appoint three disinterested freeholders, neither of whom shall be related to either party, who after being duly sworn shall lay off a road if necessary by which said person may pass over the lands of such other person to the break and repair said break from time to time as often as may be necessary, so as to cause the stream to return to its original channel, and assess any damage which may thereby be occasioned: Provided, the party upon whose land the work is proposed to be done shall have five days notice in writing served on him or left at his place of residence: Provided further, that it shall be the duty of said commissioners to assess the damages of any one on whose land the road shall be laid off to be paid by the applicant for said road: Provided, also, that either party shall have the right of appeal to the superior court.

7374. Draws in bridges. Whenever the navigation of any river or creek which, in the strict construction of law, might not be considered a navigable stream, shall be obstructed by any bridge across said stream, it shall be lawful for any person owning any boat plying on said stream to make a draw in such bridge sufficient for the passage of such boat; and the party owning such boat shall construct and maintain such draw at his own expense, and shall use the same in such manner as to delay travel as little as possible.

Rev., s. 5307; Code, s. 3719; 1879, c. 279, ss. 1, 2.

See Staton v. Wimberly, 122-110.

7375. Public landings. The board of county commissioners may establish public landings on any navigable stream or water-course in the same manner that public roads are laid out and established. The board of county commissioners, on any petition for a public landing, shall order how the costs shall be paid. All places heretofore established as public landings shall remain such.

Rev., s. 5308; Code, s. 2982.

ART. 2. OBSTRUCTIONS IN STREAMS

7376. Obstructing passage of boats. If any person shall obstruct the free passage of boats along any river or creek, by felling trees, or by any other means whatever, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 3561; Code, s. 3711; R. C., c. 100, s. 6; 1796, c. 460, s. 2.

Section cited in Hutton v. Webb, 124-757. Compare section 7377; State v. Pool, 74-402.

7377. Obstructing streams a misdemeanor. If any person shall wilfully fell any tree, or wilfully put any obstruction, except for the purposes of utilizing water as a motive power, in any branch, creek, or other natural passage for water, whereby the natural flow of water through such passage is lessened or retarded, and whereby the navigation of such stream by any raft or flat may be impeded, delayed, or prevented, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not to exceed fifty dollars, or imprisoned not to exceed thirty days. Nothing in this section shall prevent the erection of fishdams or hedges which do not extend across more than two-thirds of the width of any stream where erected, but if extending over more than two-thirds of the width of any stream, the said penalties shall attach.

Rev., s. 3559; Code, s. 1123; 1872-3, c. 107, ss. 1, 2.

The word "and" before the words "whereby the navigation" was originally "or," but was made "and" by judicial construction: State v. Pool, 74-402. Using water for "sluicing" a canal bed is not using it as "motive power": State v. Canal Co., 91-637.

The fact that defendant has violated this section does not make him liable for punitive damages in a civil suit: Warren v. Lumber Co., 154-34.

At common law the public has an easement in all navigable waters, which the owner of the soil cannot obstruct: State v. Narrows Island Club, 100-477.

Indictment must contain averment that the obstruction was not "for the purpose of utilizing water as a motive power": State v. Baum, 128-528; State v. Narrows Island Club, 100-477; State v. Tomlinson, 77-528. Indictment will lie at common law for obstruction of navigable water simply, but not under this section: State v. Baum, 128-600; State v. Narrows Island Club, 100-477; State v. Parrott, 71-311. Not necessary to charge or prove in an indictment at common law for obstructing navigable water that any actual damage has been suffered by any vessel: State v. Narrows Island Club, 100-477.

The charter of the Duplin canal company does not exempt it from indictment for violation of this section: State v. Canal Co., 91-673.

Section cited in Gwaltney v. Land Co., 111-571. Compare State v. Cobb, 18-115; State v. Wilson, 106-718.

NOTE.—For local legislation as to obstruction in streams, see Bladen county, 1909, c. 331; Burke county, P. L. 1911, c. 295; McDowell, 1907, c. 134; Nash, P. L. 1913, c. 340; Onslow, 1907, c. 95; P. Sale of drift timber in streams regulated in the counties of Brunswick, New Hanover, and Pender. 1909, c. 52.

7378. Local: Sawdust in streams. If any person shall throw sawdust into any stream he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished as indicated in this section.

1. By a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, in the counties of Alexander, Guilford, Henderson, Lincoln, Madison, Pamlico, Transylvania, Warren, and Yancey; in Catawba county, not to apply to sawmills run by water-power established prior to the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine; in Davidson, not to apply to mills erected prior to the eighth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and five; in Jackson, not to apply to sawmills run by water-power; in Clay and Haywood, as to all streams which contain mountain or brook trout; in Anson county, to throw timber, slabs, or sawdust into any stream.

By the same penalty as regards the streams specified in the following counties and localities: Drowning creek and its tributaries in Cumberland, Moore, and Robeson; South river in Bladen, Cumberland, and Sampson; Sawyer's creek or its tributaries in Graham; North and South Muddy creek in McDowell; Buffalo creek in Stokes; Eno river in Orange, from the head of Faucett millpond to the Durham county line; Brushy creek in Cleveland; Banners Elk and all streams in Watauga county which contain mountain or brook trout, but not to apply to sawmills run by water-power erected prior to the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, except in streams in which rainbow trout have been placed, and not to apply to Blue Ridge township, to Meadow creek and Gap creek in Stony Fork township, Elk creek in Elk Creek township, nor to Beaver Dam creek in Beaver Dam township.

2. By a fine not exceeding five dollars or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, in Edgecombe and Wilkes; and in Iredell, except as to Big Rocky creek.

1907, c. 593; 1909, cc. 209, 242, 272; P. L. 1915, c. 699.

3. By a fine not less than ten dollars and not more than fifty dollars, in Johnston, and each time is a separate offense; and in Montgomery, and each day is a separate offense.

Rev., s. 3382a; 1905, c. 206; 1909, c. 656; P. L. 1911, c. 75.

4. By a fine of fifty dollars for each offense, in Rutherford.

1907, c. 255; P. L. 1911, c. 644.

5. By a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, or imprisonment for not less than thirty nor more than sixty days, for throwing sawdust in or near any stream in Wake.

1907, c. 621; P. L. 1911, cc. 519, 611; P. L. 1915, c. 373.

6. By punishment in the discretion of the court in Swain county, and as to North Fork and its tributaries above the iron bridge in McDowell county.

Rev., s. 3382a; 1899, c. 453; 1905, c. 206; 1909, c. 763; P. L. 1911, c. 296.

NOTE.—See for similar local statutes applicable to Ashe, Watauga and parts of Alleghany, P. L. 1919, c. 121.

7379. Local: Owners of mills throwing sawdust or other material into streams.

1. If any person owning or operating a sawmill shall throw sawdust, or permit it to be thrown, into any stream he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished as indicated in this section.

a. By fine or imprisonment in the discretion of the court, in Rockingham county; in Stanly county as to all rivers and creeks; in Surry county as to all rivers and creeks, but not to apply to mills run by water-power; as to any stream in Cheoah and Yellow Creek townships in Graham county; as to Cub creek or its tributaries, Bush creek and Pokeberry creek, in Riggsbee township in Chatham county, and as to any creek or branch in said county which empties into Cape Fear river.

Rev., s. 3382a; 1899, cc. 285, 741; 1905, cc. 206, 214; 1907, cc. 254, 601, 740; 1909, cc. 280, 323, 549, 693; P. L. 1911, cc. 443, 523, 755; P. L. Ex. sess. 1913, c. 27.

b. By a fine not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, in Polk county; in Franklin county, except Tar river; in Harnett county, except Cape Fear river; in Yadkin county, but not to apply to mills run by water-power; in Cleveland county, First Broad river, Duncan's creek, Wards' creek, Hinton's creek, or their tributaries, and each day's violation is a separate offense, but this section does not apply to sawmills run by water-power.

Rev., s. 3382a; 1903, cc. 243, 721; 1907, cc. 255, 866, 873; 1909, c. 581; P. L. 1911, cc. 181, 611; P. L. 1913, c. 484.

c. By a fine of not more than ten dollars or imprisonment not more than ten days, in Macon county, but not to apply to mills run by water-power established and in operation before the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

Rev., s. 3382a; 1899, c. 285; 1905, c. 206; 1907, c. 266; 1909, s. 36.

d. By a fine of not less than twenty dollars, or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court, one half the fine to go to the informer, in Burke county, as to Cranberry creek, Linville river above gorge, Upper creek and Steele's creek, or their tributaries above the mill near Smyrna church.

Rev., s. 3382a; 1899, c. 656; 1905, c. 238; 1907, c. 430; P. L. 1913, c. 484.

2. If any person owning or operating a sawmill or other woodworking machinery shall throw, or permit to be thrown, any sawdust or other refuse from the mill into any stream, or place such material where it will wash into any stream, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished as indicated in this section.

a. by a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days, in the counties of Avery, Caldwell, Forsyth, and Richmond; and in Mitchell county, but not to apply to sawmills which saw less than three thousand feet per day.

Rev., s. 3382a; 1905, cc. 775, 776; 1907, cc. 26, 371; P. L. 1911, c. 568; P. L. 1913, c. 484.

b. By fine or imprisonment in the discretion of the court, in Burke county, but not to apply to sawmills run by water-power prior to one thousand nine hundred and seven, not located in the fishing districts unless removed to a new site.

1909, c. 765.

c. By a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars or imprisonment for twenty days, in Alamance county, as to Haw river, Big Alamance creek and Little Alamance creek, or their tributaries.

1909, c. 467.

d. By a fine of not more than fifty dollars, or imprisonment not more than thirty days, in Nash county, except as to Tar river, Fishing, Swift, Turkey, Pig-basket, Stony, and Saponey creeks in said county, but not to apply to mills operated by water-power which have no means of hauling dust from the streams.

ART. 2. ESTABLISHMENT OF CONVENIENCES IN RURAL COMMUNITIES.

- 7394. Assistance by state highway commission.
- 7395. Appropriation made.

ART. 1. ORGANIZED RURAL COMMUNITIES

7380. Petition for incorporation. The people of any rural community in North Carolina, upon petition signed by a majority of the registered voters of such community embracing in area one entire school district, may be incorporated under the provisions of this article, the title of such corporate body being "The.....Community of.....County" (or counties), the name of community and county (or counties) to be supplied in the petition for incorporation: Provided, that no part of such community shall be nearer than two miles to the nearest boundary of any incorporated town or city of five thousand or more inhabitants, and nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the extension of the limits of any town or city regularly incorporated so as to include territory incorporated under this article. After any school district has been incorporated under the provisions of this article the boundaries of such school district and incorporated rural community may be changed only in the manner prescribed by law for changing the lines of a special-tax school district, except that the county board of education shall proceed to enlarge such boundaries in accordance with law upon the written request of a majority of the school committeemen or trustees of said school district and a written request of a majority of the board of directors of the incorporated rural community.

1919, c. 202, s. 1.

7381. Certificate of incorporation. The petition for incorporation shall be addressed to the secretary of state at his office in Raleigh, who, if such petition is in due form, shall then issue the certificate of incorporation without charge therefor.

1919, c. 202, s. 2.

7382. Community meetings. The registered voters of each community incorporated under the provisions of this article shall hold a public community meeting on the first Saturday in January of each year, or on such other day as may be specified in the petition for incorporation. The place of such meeting shall also be designated in the petition for incorporation; but the time or place, or both, may be changed at any annual meeting to take effect at the following annual meeting, notice of such change to be posted in three public places in such community. At such annual community meeting the voters may adjourn to meet at some other specified date, and other meetings may be held upon petition signed by ten per cent of the registered voters of the community, provided notice of such meeting is posted at three public places in such community at least two weeks prior to such meeting. Questions involving the levy of any tax, however, shall be decided only at the regular annual community meeting.

7383. Board of directors elected. At each annual community meeting, as provided in section 7382, the voters shall elect three persons to be known as the "Board of Directors of.....Community," one of whom shall be designated as chairman and another as secretary-treasurer, each performing the duties suggested by his title.

1919, c. 202, s. 4.

7384. Duties of board of directors; compensation. The board of directors of such community shall be charged with the duty of enforcing and executing such ordinances as the community meetings may adopt; and performing such other functions not inconsistent with the laws of North Carolina or the United States as the community meetings may direct. The annual compensation, if any, of such board of directors, or any member thereof, shall be fixed at each annual meeting.

1919, c. 202, s. 5.

7385. Legislative powers of communities. At each meeting of the registered voters of a community they shall have the right to adopt, amend, or repeal ordinances, provided such action is not inconsistent with the laws of North Carolina or the United States, concerning the following subjects: the public roads of the community; the public schools of the community; regulations intended to promote the public health; the police protection; the abatement of nuisances; the care of paupers, aged or infirm persons; to encourage the coming of new settlers; the regulation of vagrancy; aids to the enforcement of state and national laws; the collection of community taxes; the establishment and support of public libraries, parks, halls, playgrounds, fairs, and other agencies of recreation, education, health, music, art, and morals: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to mean that any community incorporated under the provisions of this article shall lose its identity as a part of the road and school systems of the county or counties in which it is located, nor lose its right to participate the same as before incorporation in the benefits to be derived from county or township funds raised by taxation or otherwise for building or maintaining the public roads, for the public schools, for public health, or for other public uses.

1919, c. 202, s. 6.

7386. Power to tax and to issue bonds. For the promotion of any of the objects mentioned in section 7385, the registered voters of any incorporated community, in annual community meeting assembled, shall have the right to levy taxes or issue bonds upon the property of the community, within limits hereinafter set forth, either for specific purposes or for the general use of the community upon a method of tax division among varying objects as agreed upon by such annual community meeting. The aggregate of taxes levied for such community purposes shall not exceed five mills annually on each dollar of taxable property. The aggregate amount of the bonds issued shall at no time exceed ten per cent of the total property valuation of the community. Any tax imposed or levied under the provisions of this article may be revoked only in the manner prescribed by law for revoking special taxes in a special-tax school district.

1919, c. 202, s. 7.

7387. Majority vote for tax levy; collection. No community meeting may levy a tax unless a majority of the registered voters of the community are present at such meeting and vote by ballot for such tax; but at any annual community meeting a majority of the voters present, whatever their number, may vote to submit the question of levying such a tax to the qualified voters of the community at an election to be held not earlier than thirty days subsequent to such meeting. If the community meeting shall desire to submit separately the question of tax levy for different purposes, it shall mention a name of not more than six words by which each such tax shall be designated, as for example, "Road Tax," "Public Library Tax"; or such community meeting may submit the question of a tax levy for various purposes under the title "For Community Tax." At the election herein provided for each voter may deposit a ballot marked "ForTax" or "Against.....Tax"; and if a majority of the qualified voters of the community at such election shall vote for such tax, then the proposed tax levy shall be enforced and the tax collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes are now collected, or such incorporated community through its board of directors may name a collector of community taxes and fix his compensation, requiring both tax collector and treasurer to give bond for proper amounts.

1919, c. 202, s. 8.

7388. Directors may act as election officers; result certified to clerk of county commissioners. At any election herein provided for, the board of directors may act as election officers, judges of election, etc., and the ballots shall be counted, compared, canvassed and returned in the same manner as is now provided for general elections in the various counties of the state. The result of any such election shall be certified by the secretary of the board of directors of the community to the clerk of the board of county commissioners, who shall record the same in the minutes of the said board of county commissioners, and no further recording or declaring of the result shall be necessary.

1919, c. 202, s. 9.

7389. Supervision by bureau of community service. The bureau of community service, now directed by the state departments of education, agriculture, and health, the state college of agriculture and engineering, and the state normal and industrial college, is hereby charged with the duty of securing from the communities of the state incorporated under this article reports as to what each community is doing for the promotion of the purposes mentioned in section 7385; and the aforesaid bureau of community service shall furnish the officers of such incorporated communities forms for keeping records, accounts, etc., and for making reports. The bureau shall also provide forms and instructions to citizens of the state desiring to petition for incorporation under the provisions of this article, and shall publish annually a summary of the work accomplished by incorporated communities. The members of the board of directors of such incorporated communities are required to render such reports to the bureau of community service, and to post copies of same, together with an itemized statement of receipts, disbursements, and balances for the year, in three public places in the community, under the penalty, upon conviction, of a fine of ten dollars each. All printing required under this article shall be paid for by the state department of education.

1919, c. 202, s. 10.

7390. Standards for production and marketing of produce. The board of directors may adopt standards for the production and marketing of produce, canned vegetables, etc., and may adopt labels, trade names, and brands for the same, and regulate their use, requiring the inhabitants of said community to comply with the standards set and adopted by the directors before they can use the brand, trade name, or labels for said community; and the board of directors may adopt such regulations as may be necessary to protect said brands, trade names, etc., may have an inspection of the goods sold thereunder, and may take any and all necessary steps looking to a system of community standard production, and of coöperative community marketing.

1919, c. 202, s. 11.

7391. Violation of community ordinances a misdemeanor; community magistrates. Any person violating any ordinance adopted under the provisions of this article or any rule made by the board of directors or other governing authority authorized by any of the provisions of this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be imprisoned not exceeding thirty days or fined not exceeding fifty dollars, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any magistrate residing within the boundaries of a community incorporated under this article shall have power to hear and try all cases arising from violation of ordinances adopted by such community. If there is no magistrate residing within the boundaries of the community, or if the community shall desire an additional magistrate, there shall be nominated at each annual meeting some suitable person living within the confines of the community who shall, upon proper certification of nomination, be appointed community magistrate by the governor of the state, with all the powers of a magistrate within the bounds of said community.

1919, c. 202, s. 12.

7392. Police officers. The board of directors of any community organized under the provisions of this article are authorized and empowered to employ one or more policemen for the community, whose duties and powers shall be those prescribed by law for constables for the townships in the various counties of the state; and the said policemen shall receive as compensation the same fees that are now prescribed by law for constables.

1919, c. 202, s. 13.

7393. Precinct registrars to compile lists of registered voters. Each person charged with the duty of registering voters in an election precinct embraced in whole or in part in any incorporated community shall furnish the chairman of the board of directors of such incorporated community a complete list of the registered voters in his precinct at the preceding state election, and from such list the board of directors shall compile an official list of registered voters residing in the community for use in connection with the enforcement of this article; such registrar receiving one-half cent for each name so furnished, to be paid for by the community.

1919, c. 202, s. 14.

ART. 2. ESTABLISHMENT OF CONVENIENCES IN RURAL COMMUNITIES

7394. Assistance by state highway commission. In order to assist in providing for better and more comfortable living conditions in the rural sections throughout the state, by means of the utilization of the many small water-powers that abound in many parts of the state, and by the installation of water systems in rural homes, and by the construction of rural telephone lines, the state highway commission is herewith authorized to advise and assist in providing a water supply and electric power and electric lights for rural communities and individuals outside of incorporated towns, by investigating water-powers and preparing plans for their development and the installation of such apparatus as may be needed to utilize such water-power in developing electric power and for supplying a water system and electric light system, and to furnish plans and specifications for the installation of rural telephone lines and to advise and assist in the formation of rural mutual telephone systems.

7395. Appropriation made. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this article there is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of five thousand dollars annually, the sum to be drawn upon as directed by the state highway commission.

1917, c. 267, s. 2.

NOTE.—For provision as to moving pictures for rural communities, see Education, art. 31.

For rural libraries, see Education, art. 30.

For special-tax sanitation districts, see Public Health, art. 5.

CHAPTER 124

STATE BOUNDARIES

SEC.

- 7396. Governor to cause boundaries to be established and protected.
- 7397. Payment of expenses of establishing boundaries.
- 7398. Appointment of arbitrators.
- 7399. Disagreement of arbitrators reported to general assembly.
- 7400. Survey, how approved to be effective.

7396. Governor to cause boundaries to be established and protected. The governor of North Carolina is hereby authorized to appoint two competent commissioners and a surveyor and a sufficient number of chainbearers, on the part of the state of North Carolina, to act with the commissioners or surveyors appointed or to be appointed by any of the contiguous states of Virginia, Tennessee, South Carolina, and Georgia, to rerun and remark, by some permanent monuments at convenient intervals, not greater than five miles, the boundary lines between this state and any of the said states.

The governor is also authorized, whenever in his judgment it shall be deemed necessary to protect or establish the boundary lines between this state and any other state, to institute and prosecute in the name of the state of North Carolina any and all such actions, suits, or proceedings at law or in equity, and to direct the attorney-general or such other person as he may designate to conduct and prosecute such actions, suits, or proceedings.

Rev., s. 5315; Code, s. 2289; 1889, c. 475, s. 1; 1881, c. 347, s. 1; 1909, c. 51, s. 1.

7397. Payment of expenses of establishing boundaries. When the line has been rerun and remarked as above provided between this state and any of the contiguous states, or such portion of said lines as shall be mutually agreed by the commissioners, the governor is authorized to issue his warrant upon the state treasurer for such portion of the expenses as shall fall to the share of this state.

Rev., s. 5316; Code, s. 2290; 1889, c. 475, s. 2; 1881, c. 347, s. 2.

7398. Appointment of arbitrators. If any disagreement shall arise between the commissioners, the governor of this state is hereby authorized to appoint arbitrators to act with similar officers to be appointed by the other states in the settlement of the exact boundary.

Rev., s. 5317; Code, s. 2291; 1889, c. 475, s. 3; 1881, c. 347, s. 3.

7399. Disagreement of arbitrators reported to general assembly. In case of any serious disagreement and inability on the part of the said arbitrators to agree upon said boundary, such fact shall be reported by the governor to the next general assembly for their action.

Rev., s. 5318; Code, s. 2292; 1889, c. 475, s. 4; 1881, c. 347, s. 4.

7400. Survey, how approved to be effective. When the commissioners shall have completed the survey, or so much as shall be necessary, they shall report the same to the governor, who shall lay the same before the council of state; and when the governor and the council of state shall have approved the same the governor shall issue his proclamation, declaring said lines to be the true boundary line or lines, and the same shall be the true boundary line or lines between this and the states above referred to.

Rev., s. 5319; Code, s. 2293; 1889, c. 475, s. 5; 1881, c. 347, s. 5.

NOTE.—For special act to rerun portion of Virginia boundary between Fisger's Peak and the Tennessee line, see 1907, c. 98.

For act to rerun portion of South Carolina boundary between beginning at Atlantic ocean and corner of Columbus and Robeson counties, see 1915, c. 188; 1919, c. 166.

ART. 1. FUNDED DEBT

7401. How bonds executed; interest coupons attached; where payable; minimum amount. All bonds or certificates of debt of the state, hereafter to be issued as originals, or as substitutes for such as may be surrendered for transfer, by virtue of any act now or to be hereafter passed, shall be signed by the governor, and countersigned by the state treasurer, and sealed with the great seal of the state, and shall be made payable to such person by name as may be the purchaser, or to bearer; and the principal shall be made payable by the state at a day named in the bond or certificate. And coupons of interest, in such form as may be prescribed by the state treasurer, shall be attached to the certificates, and the certificates and coupons attached thereto shall be made payable at such bank or place in the city of New York as the state treasurer may designate, or at the office of the state treasurer at Raleigh, if preferred by the purchaser: Provided, that if the purchaser or holder may so desire, the bond or certificate shall be payable to him alone, and not to bearer: Provided further, that no certificate shall issue for a less sum than one thousand dollars, unless the same be issued for a surrendered bond of less amount; nor shall any original bond or certificate of debt of the state be sold for a sum less than par value; nor shall any such bond or certificate, issuing in lieu of a transferred bond or certificate, be payable elsewhere than may be the original, except by the consent of the holder it may be made payable at the state treasury.

Rev., s. 5020; Code, s. 3563; R. C., c. 90, s. 3; 1848, c. 89, s. 22; 1852, cc. 9, 10, s. 10.

7402. Title of act and year of enactment recited in bonds. In every bond or certificate of debt issued by the state, and in the body thereof, shall be set forth the title of the act, with the year of its enactment, under the authority of which the same may be issued; or reference shall be made thereto by the number of the chapter, and the year of the legislative session.

Rev., s. 5023; Code, s. 3566; R. C., c. 90, s. 6; 1850, c. 90, s. 6.

7403. Record of bonds kept by state treasurer. The state treasurer shall enter in a book to be kept for that purpose a memorandum of every bond or certificate of debt of the state, issued or to be issued under any act whatever, together with the numbers, dates of issue, when and where payable, at what premium, and to whom the same may have been sold or issued.

Rev., s. 5021; Code, s. 3564; R. C., c. 90, s. 4; 1852, c. 10, s. 2.

7404. Bonds and certificates transferable. All bonds or certificates of debt of the state, which now are or hereafter may be issued on behalf of the state, shall be transferable, such as are payable to bearer, by delivery, and such as are payable to the holder by name alone may be transferred by the holder or his agent in a book to be kept for that purpose by the state treasurer, on surrendering for cancellation the outstanding bond or certificate; and in this latter case of transfer, a new bond or certificate for the same amount shall be issued.

Rev., s. 5019; Code, s. 3562; R. C., c. 90, s. 2; 1848, c. 37, s. 5; 1850, c. 58, s. 4; 1852, c. 11.

7405. Registration and exchange of bonds. Any holder of the bonds of the state, whether in his own right or in a fiduciary capacity, may have the same registered at the office of the state treasurer upon application and presentation of said bonds to the treasurer as hereinafter provided, and the treasurer of the state is hereby authorized to issue registered bonds in exchange for and in lieu of any coupon bonds which have been or may be lawfully issued by the state, upon the surrender to him of said coupon bonds by the holder thereof. The registered bonds so issued shall be of the denomination of ten thousand dollars, one thousand dollars, or five hundred dollars, as the case may be, bearing the date of the day of their issue, and of the same rate of interest as the coupon bonds for which they were issued in exchange, and from the last date of payment of interest on the coupon bonds surrendered, and maturing on the date corresponding to the bonds surrendered. The treasurer is authorized to issue coupon bonds in exchange for and in lieu of any registered bonds issued by the state, upon the surrender of the registered bonds. The coupon bonds so issued shall be of denominations of one thousand dollars or five hundred dollars, bearing date of the day of their issue, and shall bear the same rate of interest and mature on the date corresponding to the bonds surrendered.

Rev., s. 5025; Code, s. 3568; 1883, c. 25; 1887, c. 287.

7406. Record of registered bonds. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to procure and provide at the expense of the state a suitable book or books, in which, upon application and presentation of a bond or bonds as aforesaid, he shall enter, in a manner to be of easy and ready reference, a description of said bond or bonds, giving the number, series, date of issue, denomination, by whom signed, and such other data as may be necessary for the ready identification thereof, together with the name of the person registering the same, the character or capacity in which said person holds said bond or bonds, and for whose benefit the same is or are registered; and the said treasurer shall enter upon each and every bond so registered as aforesaid the date of said registration, by whom registered, and in what character and capacity, and shall sign said entry officially. The registry of said bonds shall be received as evidence of their existence, amount, and when due and payable, in all cases, when the original is lost or destroyed, or cannot be obtained. The registered bonds issued in exchange under the preceding section shall be in such form as the treasurer may direct, shall be signed by the governor and treasurer, and sealed with the great seal of the state, and shall in all respects stand in the place of and be entitled to all exemption from taxation, and have the same terms of any kind which the coupon bonds now have.

7407. Fees for registration and exchange of bonds. The holder surrendering any bond for exchange shall pay to the state treasurer a fee of two dollars for every one thousand dollars or less of said bonds surrendered for exchange under any law, to be applied by the treasurer towards the expense of providing the new bonds. All bonds surrendered for exchange shall be canceled by the state treasurer and destroyed by him in the presence of the governor and attorney-general.

Rev., s. 5027; 1887, c. 287, ss. 4, 5.

7408. Transfer of registered bonds. No bonds of the state shall, after being registered as provided in this chapter, be negotiable by delivery, but may nevertheless be negotiated or transferred by the person in whose name they are registered, by registration in the name of the person to whom the same are to be transferred or negotiated, on surrendering for cancellation the outstanding bonds, and in such case of transfer a new bond for the same amount shall be issued. The old bond so surrendered shall be canceled and destroyed as provided in the preceding section.

Rev., s. 5028; Code, s. 3570; 1887, c. 287, s. 3.

7409. Chief clerk may make transfers and endorsements. In all cases where the state treasurer may be absent from his office by sickness or other cause, and coupon bonds may be presented for registration or transfer, the chief clerk, during such absence of the treasurer, may make such endorsements, and witness the same, and also such transfers of the said bonds as by law the treasurer himself is authorized to do.

Rev., s. 5024; Code, s. 3567; 1864-5, c. 24.

7410. State bonds exempt from taxation. The original bonds or certificates of debt of the state, which have been issued since the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, or which may hereafter be issued under the authority of any act whatever, as likewise the bonds and certificates substituted for such original bonds and certificates, shall be, they and the interest accruing thereon, exempt from taxation.

Rev., s. 5022; Code, s. 3565; R. C., c. 90, s. 5; 1852, c. 10, s. 4.

7411. What bonds are fundable. When any person holding and owning any bond or bonds of the state, issued in pursuance of any act of assembly passed at any time before the twentieth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, exclusive of bonds issued for the construction of the North Carolina railroad, or in pursuance of the act of the general assembly passed at its session in one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, it being chapter three of the laws of one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, or in pursuance of an act passed by the general assembly at its session in one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, it being chapter fifty-six of the laws of one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, or in pursuance of an act entitled “An act to provide for the payment of the state debt contracted before the war,” ratified on the tenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, or in pursuance of an act entitled “An act to provide for funding the matured interest on the public debt,” ratified the tenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight; or any registered certificate or certificates belonging to the board of education, issued in pursuance of an act of the general assembly of one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, shall surrender and deliver such bond or bonds, with the coupons attached thereto, or registered certificate or certificates, to the state treasurer, then and in that case it shall be the duty of the treasurer to issue and deliver to the person surrendering such bond or bonds, certificate or certificates, a new bond or bonds of the state, due and payable thirty years from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, bearing interest from date at the rate of four per cent per annum, payable semiannually on the first days of January and July in each successive year at the office of the state treasurer.

Rev., s. 5029; Code, s. 3571; 1879, c. 98, s. 1.

See Leak v. Bear, 80-271.

7412. Denomination and execution of bonds. The said bonds to be issued in place of the bonds surrendered are to be coupon bonds of the denomination of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, and one thousand dollars, and are to be numbered from one upwards, in accordance with the order of issue. They shall be signed by the governor and treasurer, and sealed with the great seal of the state; but the coupons thereon may be signed by the treasurer alone, or have a facsimile of his signature printed, engraved, or lithographed thereon.

Rev., s. 5030; Code, s. 3572; 1879, c. 98, s. 2.

7413. Form of bonds. The bonds so issued shall be in the usual form of bonds of this state, except as modified and provided by this chapter, and shall have printed on the face of the same the words:

Issued in pursuance of an act entitled “An act to compromise, commute, and settle the state debt,” ratified the....day of....., Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

And in large red letters—

“The Consolidated Debt of the State.”

Rev., s. 5033; Code, s. 3575; 1879, c. 98, s. 5.

7414. Rate of exchange of bonds. The said bonds shall be exchanged for the old bonds of the state, mentioned in section 7411, at the following rates:

Class 1. Bonds exchangeable at forty per cent:

For the bonds issued before the twentieth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, forty per cent of the principal of the bond or bonds so surrendered.

Class 2. Bonds exchangeable at twenty-five per cent:

For the bonds issued since the close of the war, by authority of acts passed before the war, to aid in the construction of the Western North Carolina railroad, and the bonds issued in pursuance of the said act of assembly of eighteen hundred and sixty-five, chapter three, and act of assembly, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, chapter fifty-six; the bonds issued October first, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, by authority of the act of eighteen hundred and sixty-one, chapter one hundred and thirty-seven, for Western (Coalfield) railroad; the bonds issued October first, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, by authority of the act of eighteen hundred and fifty-four and fifty-five, chapter two hundred and twenty-eight, section thirty-five, and resolution September the twelfth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one; and the said registered certificates of the literary fund, for the bonds issued July the first, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, by authority of act of eighteen hundred and sixty and sixty-one, chapter one hundred and forty-two, for the construction of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford railroad, twenty-five per cent of the principal of the bonds or certificates so surrendered.

Class 3. Bonds exchangeable at fifteen per cent; proviso:

And those issued in pursuance of the said funding acts of March tenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, and August twentieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, fifteen per cent of the principal of the bond or bonds so surrendered: Provided, that all bonds issued in exchange for the new bonds shall be surrendered with all the coupons attached.

Rev., s. 5032; Code, s. 3574; 1879, c. 98, s. 4.

7415. List of surrendered bonds kept; bonds destroyed. The treasurer shall provide a substantially bound book for the purpose, in which he shall make a correct descriptive list of all bonds of the state surrendered, which list shall embrace the number, date and amount of each, and the purpose for which the same was issued, when this can be ascertained, and the names of the persons surrendering the same; and after such list shall be made, such surrendered bonds, being ascertained to be present, shall be consumed by fire in the presence of the governor, the treasurer, the auditor, the attorney-general, the secretary of state and superintendent of public instruction, who shall each certify under his hand respectively in such book that he saw such described bonds so consumed and destroyed.

Rev., s. 5035; Code, s. 3578; 1879, c. 98, s. 8.

7416. List kept of bonds issued. The treasurer shall provide a well-bound book, in which shall be kept an accurate account and descriptive list of all the new bonds to be issued, and such descriptive list shall embrace the date, number, and amount of such bond or bonds for which the same was issued, and the name of the person to whom issued.

Rev., s. 5036; Code, s. 3579; 1879, c. 98, s. 9.

7417. Bonds exempt from taxation. The said bonds shall be exempt from all state, county, or corporate taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for the purposes of general revenue or otherwise. The said coupons shall be receivable in payment of any and all state taxes, and the same shall be expressed on the face of each coupon. The coupon shall bear the same number as the bonds to which they are attached, and in addition be numbered from one upwards, in accordance with the date of their maturity.

Rev., s. 5031; Code, s. 3573; 1879, c. 98, s. 3.

7418. Fiduciaries may exchange bonds. It shall be lawful for any executor, administrator, guardian, trustee, director of any corporation, and any and all other persons acting in a fiduciary capacity, holding bonds of the state, to make the exchange provided in this chapter, and they shall be absolved from all liability on account of said exchange.

Rev., s. 5037; Code, s. 3580; 1879, c. 98, s. 10.

7419. Extension of time to compromise state debt. So much of this chapter as authorizes the exchange of bonds and the issue of new bonds in compromise and settlement of the state debt, being section 7411 of this chapter, shall continue in force until the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and ten. The governor is directed to resist the collection of all such bonds as are not funded by the time specified herein: Provided, that in issuing such bonds under this extension the public treasurer shall, before delivering any new bonds thereunder, cut off and cancel all coupons whose date of maturity is prior to the time of such delivery.

Rev., s. 5038; Code, s. 3581; 1879, c. 98, s. 11; 1883, c. 6, ss. 1, 2; 1893, c. 47; 1901, c. 126; 1903, c. 39; 1907, c. 96; 1909, c. 703; 1919, c. 314, s. 5.

7420. Treasurer to give notice. The state treasurer is authorized to give public notice of this plan for a settlement of the state's indebtedness by advertising in such newspapers as he may select.

Rev., s. 5045; Code, s. 3587; 1879, c. 98, s. 17.

7421. Certain taxes applied to interest on bonds. All state taxes levied and collected from professions, trades, incomes, merchants, dealers in cigars, and three-fourths of all the taxes collected from wholesale and retail dealers in spirituous, vinous, and malt liquors, shall be held and applied to the payment of the interest on said bonds, and the provisions of this section shall be deemed and taken to be a material part of the consideration for which the bonds of the state shall or may be surrendered.

Rev., s. 5039; Code, s. 3576; 1879, c. 98, s. 6.

7422. Interest also paid out of general funds. As a further proviso for the purpose of paying the interest on the consolidated bonds, if the taxes for any one year upon the subjects of taxation hereinbefore mentioned shall be insufficient to pay said interest, then and in that case the state treasurer is authorized to apply any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated to that purpose.

Rev., s. 5040; Code, s. 3582; 1879, c. 98, s. 12.

7423. Excess funds invested in bonds. If the whole fund raised by such taxes shall not in any one year be required to pay such accruing interest, then and in that case it shall be the duty of the treasurer, with the sanction of the governor and the auditor, to invest the surplus in such of the consolidated bonds or the state bonds issued in aid of the North Carolina railroad, known as construction bonds, or in the state's prison bonds, or in the bonds of the issue of one thousand nine hundred and three, as he can buy at the lowest price; and the treasurer may, with the approval of the governor and auditor, sell any portion of the bonds so purchased if necessary to enable him to pay promptly the interest on the consolidated debt of the state. And the treasurer may, with the approval of the governor and auditor, sell any of the consolidated bonds in which he has heretofore invested such surplus and invest the proceeds in the state bonds in aid of the North Carolina railroad, known as construction bonds, to be held by the treasurer for the purpose of protecting the interest on the consolidated debt of the state and sold by him if necessary for that purpose.

Rev., s. 5034; Code, s. 3577; 1879, c. 98, s. 7; 1885, c. 403; 1887, c. 231.

7424. Contingent bonds to pay interest. In the event that the taxes collected in any one year upon the aforesaid subjects of taxation and the funds not otherwise appropriated in the treasury, when added together, shall be inadequate to pay said interest, then, in order to provide for the deficiency, the state treasurer is authorized to issue coupon bonds of the denomination of five hundred dollars, bearing date the first day of October or April of the year of the issue, according as one or the other of said dates shall be nearest in point of time to the date of the issue. Said bonds shall be payable forty years after date, but redeemable after ten years at the option of the state, with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable semiannually on the first days of April and October. Said bonds shall bear upon their face in red letters the words "Contingent Bonds," and shall be numbered from one upwards, in accordance with the order of their issue. They shall be signed by the governor and treasurer and sealed with the great seal of the state; but the coupons thereon may be signed by the treasurer alone, or have a facsimile of his signature printed, engraved, or lithographed thereon. The said bonds and coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, or corporate taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for the purposes of general revenue or otherwise, and they shall be lawful investments by all executors, administrators, guardians, and fiduciaries generally. The coupons on said bonds shall bear the same number as the bonds to which they are attached, and shall in addition be numbered from one upwards in accordance with the date of their maturity, and they shall be, and shall so express upon their face that they are, receivable at and after maturity in payment of all taxes, debts, demands, and dues to the state of every nature and kind whatsoever.

Rev., s. 5041; Code, s. 3583; 1879, c. 98, s. 13.

7425. Treasurer may sell bonds. The state treasurer shall be authorized to sell so many of said bonds at par as shall be necessary to provide for the deficiencies aforesaid: Provided, that he shall not issue and sell in the aggregate more than six hundred of these bonds.

Rev., s. 5042; Code, s. 3584; 1879, c. 98, s. 14.

7426. Payment of interest on contingent bonds. The provisions of this chapter for paying the interest on the consolidated bonds shall apply as well to the payment of the interest of the said contingent bonds.

Rev., s. 5043; Code, s. 3585; 1879, c. 98, s. 15.

7427. Appropriation to carry out this chapter. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter in relation to the furnishing of proper blank bonds and coupons, and for the purpose of advertising through the public journals, or otherwise, the details of exchange, for the information of the holders of the bonds, the state treasurer is authorized, with the approval of the governor, to use any funds not otherwise appropriated in the treasury, not exceeding the sum of five thousand dollars, and the public treasurer is authorized to use so much of such sum as may be necessary for the purpose of advertising through the public journals, or otherwise, the details of exchange for the information of holders of said bonds.

Rev., s. 5044; Code, s. 3586; 1879, c. 98, s. 16; 1901, c. 126, s. 3.

7428. New bond issue authorized. For the purpose of paying off the consolidated debt bonds of the state, issued by virtue of chapter ninety-eight of the laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, which bonds are outstanding in the sum of three million four hundred and twenty-seven thousand dollars, and mature on the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and ten, the state treasurer is authorized and directed to issue bonds of the state of North Carolina, payable forty years after the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to an amount not to exceed the sum of three million four hundred and thirty thousand dollars.

7429. Rate of interest on bonds. All of said bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and ten, until paid, which interest shall be payable semiannually on the first days of January and July of each year, so long as any portion of the bonds shall remain due and unpaid.

1909, c. 399, s. 2.

7430. Denomination of bonds; application of proceeds. The bonds authorized and directed to be issued by the preceding sections shall be coupon bonds of the denomination of five hundred dollars and one thousand dollars each, as may be determined by the state treasurer, and shall be signed by the governor and the state treasurer and sealed with the great seal of the state. The coupons thereon may be signed by the state treasurer alone, or may have a facsimile of his signature printed, engraved, or lithographed thereon; and the bonds shall in all other respects be in such form as the state treasurer may direct, and the coupons thereon shall, after maturity, be receivable in payment of all taxes, debts, dues, licenses, fines, and demands due the state of North Carolina of any kind whatsoever, which shall be expressed on the face of the bonds. Before selling the bonds herein authorized to be issued, the treasurer shall advertise the sale and invite sealed bids in such manner as in his judgment may seem to be most effectual to secure the best price. He is authorized to accept bids for the entire issue or of any portion thereof, and where the conditions are equal he shall give the preference of purchase to the citizens of North Carolina; and he is authorized to sell the bonds herein authorized in such manner as in his judgment will produce the best price. Any balance left in the hands of the state treasurer from the sale of said bonds, after paying the consolidated debt bonds and the costs of issuing the bonds herein provided for, shall be covered into the general fund.

1909, c. 399, s. 3; 1919, c. 314, s. 5.

7431. Exemption from taxation; investment by fiduciaries. The bonds and coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, or municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for purposes of general revenue or otherwise, and the interest paid thereon shall not be subject to taxation as for income, nor shall said bonds and coupons be subject to taxation when constituting a part of the surplus of any bank, trust company, or other corporation. All executors, administrators, guardians, and fiduciaries generally may invest in said bonds.

1909, c. 399, ss. 4, 5.

Investment of part of the surplus of a bank or trust company in those bonds should be deducted from the aggregate value of the assets in ascertaining the value of its shares for taxation: Pullen v. Corp. Com., 152-548. See section 7948.

7432. Payment of compromise bonds. The state treasurer is authorized to pay cash instead of issuing bonds to take up the outstanding compromise bonds according to the provisions of chapter ninety-eight, laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, at fifteen, twenty-five, and forty cents on the principal only.

1913, c. 131.

ART. 2. BONDS FOR THE CARE OF THE INSANE. 1909

7433. Bond issue authorized. For the purpose of paying the two hundred and fifty thousand dollars already borrowed by the state treasurer and to make provision for the two hundred and fifty thousand dollars yet to be expended by the state hospital commission by virtue of chapter one hundred and ninety-one of the public laws of one thousand nine hundred and seven, the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to issue bonds of the state of North Carolina, payable forty years after the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to an amount not to exceed the sum of five hundred thousand dollars: Provided, that out of the proceeds of said bonds shall be paid the sum of twenty thousand dollars deficit existing in the accounts of the state hospital at Morganton, and also the sum of eleven thousand dollars deficit existing in the accounts of the eastern hospital at Goldsboro.

So much of the surplus, over and above capital, as is invested in these nontaxable bonds, is exempt and must be deducted from the surplus in assessing the value of the stock of a bank for taxation: Pullen v. Corp. Com., 152-548.

7434. Rate of interest on bonds. All of such bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine, until paid, payable semiannually on the first days of January and July of each year, so long as any portion of the bonds remain due and unpaid.

1909, c. 510, s. 2.

7435. Formal execution and sale of bonds. The bonds authorized and directed to be issued by the preceding sections shall be coupon bonds, of the denomination of five hundred dollars and one thousand dollars each, as may be determined by the state treasurer, and shall be signed by the governor and state treasurer and sealed with the great seal of the state. The coupons thereon may be signed by the state treasurer alone or may have a facsimile of his signature printed, engraved, or lithographed thereon, and the bonds shall in all other respects be in such form as the state treasurer may direct; and the coupons thereon shall, after maturity, be receivable in payment of all taxes, debts, dues, licenses, fines, and demands due the state of North Carolina, which shall be expressed on the face of the bonds. Before selling the bonds herein authorized to be issued, the treasurer shall advertise the sale and invite sealed bids, in such manner as in his judgment may seem to be most effectual to secure the best price. He is authorized to accept bids for the entire issue or of any portion thereof, and where the conditions are equal he shall give the preference of purchase to the citizens of North Carolina; and he is authorized to sell the bonds herein authorized in such manner as in his judgment will produce the best price.

1909, c. 510, s. 3.

7436. Exemption from taxation; investment by fiduciaries. The bonds and coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, or municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for the purpose of general revenue or otherwise, and the interest paid thereon shall not be subject to taxation as for income, nor shall the bonds and coupons be subject to taxation when constituting a part of the surplus of any bank, trust company, or other corporation. All executors, administrators, guardians, and fiduciaries generally may invest in such bonds.

1909, c. 510, ss. 4, 5.

As to exemptions from taxation in investments of bank surplus, see Pullen v. Corp. Com., 152-548.

ART. 3. BONDS FOR STATE BUILDING. 1911

7437. Bond issue authorized. For the purpose of erecting a state building as provided for in chapter sixty-six of the public laws of one thousand nine hundred and eleven, the state treasurer is authorized and directed to issue bonds of the state of North Carolina, payable forty years after the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, to an amount not exceeding the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, such bonds to be issued and sold, after due advertisement, on the best obtainable terms from time to time as the money is needed to meet the expenses of the building commission. Said bonds shall not be sold for less than par. All of said bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum, from the date of issue until paid, which interest shall be paid semiannually on the first days of January and July of each year, so long as any portion of the bonds shall remain due and unpaid. If in the progress of the work funds should be needed at a time when financial conditions should seem unfavorable for the sale of bonds, then, in his discretion, the state treasurer may negotiate a temporary loan or loans upon the best obtainable terms, and, if necessary, pledge any of the unsold bonds as collateral therefor.

1911, c. 66, s. 8.

7438. Formal execution of bonds. The bonds authorized to be issued by the preceding section shall be coupon bonds of the denomination of one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, and one thousand dollars, as may be determined by the state treasurer, and shall be signed by the governor and the state treasurer, and sealed with the great seal of state. The coupons thereon may be signed by the state treasurer, or may have a facsimile of his signature printed, engraved, or lithographed thereon; and the bonds shall in all other respects be in such form as the state treasurer may direct.

1911, c. 66, s. 9.

7439. Exemption from taxation; investment by fiduciaries. The bonds and coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, or municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for the purpose of general revenue or otherwise, and the interest paid thereon shall not be subject to taxation as for income, nor shall the bonds or coupons be subject to taxation when constituting a part of the surplus of any bank, trust company, or other corporation, but when constituting a part of such surplus shall be deducted from the total assets in order to ascertain the taxable value of such shares. All executors, administrators, guardians, and fiduciaries generally may invest in such bonds.

1911, c. 66, ss. 10, 11.

ART. 4. BONDS FOR PAYMENT OF STATE DEBT (1903) AND SOUTH DAKOTA BONDS. 1911

7440. New bond issue authorized. For the purpose of paying off the bonds of the state by virtue of chapter seven hundred and fifty of the public laws of one thousand nine hundred and three, and chapter five hundred and forty-three of the public laws of one thousand nine hundred and five, all of which bonds fall due on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to issue bonds of the state of North Carolina, payable forty years after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, to an amount not to exceed the sum of five hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

1911, c. 73, s. 1.

NOTE.—For State Debt Bonds, 1903, see Revisal of 1905, ss. 5058-5061; for South Dakota Bonds, see Revisal of 1905, s. 5067a.

7441. Rate of interest on bonds. All of said bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum from the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, until paid, which interest shall be payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July of each year, so long as any portion of the said bonds shall remain due and unpaid.

7442. Formal execution of bonds; application of proceeds. The bonds authorized and directed to be issued by the preceding sections shall be coupon bonds of the denomination of five hundred dollars and one thousand dollars each, as may be determined by the state treasurer, and shall be signed by the governor and the state treasurer and sealed with the great seal of the state. The coupons thereon may be signed by the state treasurer alone, or may have a facsimile of his signature printed, engraved, or lithographed thereon; and the bonds shall in all other respects be in such form as the state treasurer may direct; and the coupons thereon shall, after maturity, be receivable in payment of all taxes, debts, dues, licenses, fines, and demands due the state of North Carolina, which shall be expressed on the face of said bonds. Before selling the bonds herein authorized to be issued, the treasurer shall advertise the sale and invite sealed bids in such manner as in his judgment may seem to be the most effectual to secure the best price. He is authorized to accept bids for the entire issue or of any portion thereof, and, where the conditions are equal, he shall give the preference of purchase to the citizens of North Carolina; and he is authorized to sell the bonds herein authorized in such manner as in his judgment will produce the best price. Any balance left in the hands of the state treasurer from the sale of the bonds, after paying the bonds falling due January first, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and the costs of issuing the bonds herein provided for, shall be covered into the general fund.

1911, c. 73, s. 3.

7443. Exemption from taxation; investment by fiduciaries. The bonds and coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, or municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for the purposes of general revenue or otherwise, and the interest paid thereon shall not be subject to taxation as for income, nor shall the bonds and coupons be subject to taxation when constituting a part of the surplus of any bank, trust company, or other corporation. All executors, administrators, guardians, and fiduciaries generally may invest in such bonds.

1911, c. 73, ss. 4, 5.

7444. Payment of bonds similar to South Dakota bonds. The state treasurer is authorized to pay to any other holder and owner of the bonds of the issue upon which the South Dakota judgment was rendered, payment of which was provided for in chapter five hundred and forty-three of the public laws of one thousand nine hundred and five, the same price per bond as he is herein authorized to pay to Schaffer Brothers, to wit, twenty-five per cent of said bonds, with interest on said twenty-five per cent.

1909, c. 718.

ART. 5. BONDS FOR CENTRAL HEATING PLANT. 1913

7445. Bond issue authorized. For the purpose of providing a central heating plant as directed in chapter one hundred and forty-three of the public laws of one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, the state treasurer is authorized and directed to issue bonds of the state of North Carolina, payable forty years after the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, to an amount not exceeding the sum of forty thousand dollars, such bonds to be issued and sold, after due advertisement, on the best obtainable terms from time to time as the money is needed to meet the expenses of the board of public buildings and grounds. Said bonds shall not be sold for less than par. All of said bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum from the date of issue until paid, which interest shall be paid semiannually on the first days of January and July of each year, so long as any portion of the bonds remain due and unpaid. If in the progress of the work funds should be needed at a time when financial conditions should seem unfavorable for the sale of bonds, then, in his discretion, the state treasurer may negotiate a temporary loan or loans upon the best obtainable terms and, if necessary, pledge any of the unsold bonds as collateral therefor.

1913, c. 143, s. 3.

7446. Formal execution of bonds. The bonds authorized and directed to be issued by the preceding section shall be coupon bonds of the denominations of one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, or one thousand dollars each, as may be determined by the state treasurer, and shall be signed by the governor and the state treasurer, and shall be sealed with the great seal of the state. The coupons thereon may be signed by the state treasurer, or may have a facsimile of his signature printed, engraved, or lithographed thereon; and the bonds shall in all other respects be in such form as the state treasurer may direct.

1913, c. 143, s. 4.

7447. Exemption from taxation. The bonds and coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, or municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for the purposes of general revenue or otherwise, and the interest paid thereon shall not be subject to taxation as for income, nor shall the bonds or coupons be subject to taxation when constituting a part of the surplus of any bank, trust company, or other corporation, but when constituting a part of such surplus shall be deducted from the total assets in order to ascertain the taxable value of such shares.

1913, c. 143, s. 5.

ART. 6. IMPROVEMENT BONDS. 1913

7448. Bond issue authorized. For the purpose of relieving the deficit in the state treasury, for furnishing, painting, and heating the new state building, for rearranging and furnishing the supreme court building, and installing a new equipment in the office of the state treasurer, and for meeting the appropriations made for permanent improvements for the several state institutions hereinafter mentioned, the state treasurer is authorized and directed to issue bonds of the state of North Carolina, payable forty years after the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, to an amount not to exceed the sum of one million one hundred and forty-two thousand and five hundred dollars.

1913, c. 102, s. 1.

7449. Rate of interest on bonds. All of said bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, until paid, which interest shall be payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July of each year so long as any portion of the bonds remain unpaid.

1913, c. 102, s. 2.

7450. Formal execution and sale of bonds. The bonds authorized and directed to be issued by the preceding sections shall be coupon bonds of the denomination of five hundred dollars and one thousand dollars each, as may be determined by the state treasurer, and shall be signed by the governor and the state treasurer, and sealed with the great seal of the state. The coupons thereon may be signed by the state treasurer alone, or may have a facsimile of his signature printed, engraved, or lithographed thereon; and the bonds shall in all other respects be in such form as the state treasurer may direct; and the coupons thereon shall, after maturity, be receivable in payment of all taxes, debts, dues, licenses, fines, and demands due the state of North Carolina, which shall be expressed on the face of the bonds. Before selling the bonds herein authorized to be issued, the treasurer shall advertise the sale and invite sealed bids in such manner as in his judgment may seem to be the most effectual to secure the best price. He is authorized to accept bids for the entire issue or of any portion thereof, and, where the conditions are equal, he shall give the preference of purchase to the citizens of North Carolina; and he is authorized to sell the bonds herein authorized in such manner as in his judgment will produce the best price.

1913, c. 102, s. 3.

7451. Exemption from taxation; investment by fiduciaries. The bonds and coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, or municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for the purposes of general revenue or otherwise, and the interest paid thereon shall not be subject to taxation as for income, nor shall said bonds and coupons be subject to taxation when constituting a part of the surplus of any bank, trust company, or other corporation. All executors, administrators, guardians, and fiduciaries generally may invest in such bonds.

7452. Application of proceeds. The proceeds from the sale of said bonds are to be expended in accordance with the provisions of the general appropriation bill, enacted at the session of the general assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, as follows: To cover the deficit in the state treasury, six hundred thousand dollars; for equipping and painting the new administration building, seventy-five thousand dollars; for remodeling and refurnishing the supreme court building and furnishing the office of the state treasurer, forty thousand dollars; for a central heating plant, forty thousand dollars; for permanent improvements at the several state institutions, as follows: state hospital at Morganton, fifty thousand dollars; state hospital at Goldsboro, twenty-five thousand dollars; North Carolina state college of agriculture and engineering at Raleigh, twenty-five thousand dollars; university of North Carolina, one hundred thousand dollars; the state normal and industrial college at Greensboro, fifty thousand dollars; the negro agricultural and technical college at Greensboro, seventeen thousand five hundred dollars; the Appalachian training school at Boone, fifteen thousand dollars; the Cullowhee normal and industrial school, fifteen thousand dollars; East Carolina teachers' training school at Greenville, forty thousand dollars; the North Carolina sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis, at Sanatorium, twenty thousand dollars; for the purchase of land for the state school for the blind and the deaf, near Raleigh, thirty thousand dollars.

1913, c. 102, s. 7.

ART. 7. BONDS FOR PAYMENT OF NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD BONDS. 1919

7453. New bond issue authorized. For the purpose of paying off the bonds issued for the purpose of renewing and adjusting a portion of the state debt incurred to aid in the construction of the North Carolina railroad, issued by virtue of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight of the laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, which bonds are now outstanding in the sum of two million seven hundred and twenty thousand dollars and will mature on the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to issue bonds of the state of North Carolina to an amount not to exceed the sum of two million seven hundred and twenty thousand dollars, which said bonds may be issued, in the discretion of the state treasurer, in one or more series, payable and maturing not exceeding forty years after the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

1919, c. 1, s. 1.

NOTE.—For North Carolina railroad bonds, see Revisal of 1905, ss. 5046-5057.

7454. Rate of interest on bonds. All of said bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum from the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, until paid, which said interest shall be payable semi-annually on the first days of October and April of each and every year, so long as any portion of the said bonds shall remain due and unpaid.

1919, c. 1, s. 2.

7455. Execution and sale of bonds; application of proceeds. The bonds authorized and directed to be issued by the preceding sections shall be coupon bonds of the denominations of five hundred dollars and one thousand dollars each, as may be determined by the state treasurer, and shall be signed by the governor and the state treasurer and sealed with the great seal of the state. The coupons thereon may be signed by the state treasurer alone, or may have a facsimile of his signature printed, engraved, or lithographed thereon; and the said bonds shall in all respects be in such form as the said treasurer may direct, and the coupons thereon shall, after maturity, be receivable in payment of all taxes, debts, dues, licenses, fines, and demands due the state of North Carolina, of any kind whatsoever, which shall be expressed on the face of said bonds. Before selling the bonds herein authorized to be issued, the treasurer shall advertise the sale and invite sealed bids in such manner as will secure the sale of the bonds at the highest price, not less than their par value. He is authorized to accept bids for the entire issue or for any portion thereof, and where the conditions are equal, he shall give the preference of purchase to the citizens of North Carolina; and he is authorized to sell the bonds herein authorized in such manner as will secure the sale of the bonds at the best price, not less than their par value. Any balance left in the hands of the state treasurer from the sale of these said bonds, after paying the said bonds issued for the purpose of renewing and adjusting a portion of the state debt incurred to aid in the construction of the North Carolina railroad, and the cost of issuing the bonds herein provided for, shall be covered into the general fund.

7456. Exemption from taxation; investment by fiduciaries. Such bonds and coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, and municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for the purpose of general revenue or otherwise, and the interest paid thereon shall not be subject to taxation as for income, nor shall said bonds and coupons be subject to taxation when constituting a part of the surplus of any bank, trust company, or other corporation. All executors, administrators, guardians, and fiduciaries generally may invest in such bonds.

1919, c. 1, ss. 4, 5.

7457. Treasurer may borrow and execute notes if bonds not sold. In the event the state treasurer shall not be able to sell any or all of the state bonds herein authorized to be issued, and shall not be able to sell the bonds authorized to be issued under article 8 of this chapter, then the state treasurer is hereby authorized, empowered and directed, by and with the advice of the governor and his council of state, to borrow for a period not exceeding two years and at the lowest rate of interest obtainable, such sum of money as shall be required to pay in full the bonds of the state of North Carolina payable on April first, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and also to the amount of the bonds authorized to be issued under article 8 of this chapter; and the state treasurer is authorized and empowered to execute and deliver, in the name of the state, notes for the money so borrowed, and to renew the same from time to time, if necessary, but, however, for a total period not longer than two years from April first, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen. And the said treasurer, in the event he shall not be able to sell, by the advertisement in this article directed, all of said bonds in this article authorized to be issued and the bonds authorized to be issued under article 8 of this chapter, is authorized, empowered and directed to sell thereafter any of said bonds from time to time, as he may be able, until the entire issues are sold, at the best price, but not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest.

1919, c. 1, s. 6.

7458. Notes exempted from taxation; investment by fiduciaries. All notes authorized under this article to be issued by the state treasurer in lieu of bonds for borrowed money shall be exempt from all state, county, and municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for purposes of general revenue or otherwise, and the interest paid thereon shall not be subject to taxation as for income, nor shall said notes be subject to taxation when constituting a part of the surplus of any bank, trust company, or other corporation. All executors, administrators, guardians or other fiduciaries generally may invest in such notes.

1919, c. 11, ss. 1, 2.

ART. 8. IMPROVEMENT BONDS. 1917

7459. Bond issue authorized. For the purpose of permanently enlarging the state's educational and charitable institutions to make them adequate to the demands and necessities of the people of the state, the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to issue bonds of the state of North Carolina, payable in the manner and at the date hereinafter described, to an amount not exceeding three million dollars, and said bonds shall be issued in the following amounts, to wit:

To be issued in the year 1917.....	$500,000.00
To be issued in the year 1918.....	$500,000.00
To be issued in the year 1919.....	$500,000.00
To be issued in the year 1920.....	$500,000.00
To be issued in the year 1921.....	$500,000.00
To be issued in the year 1922.....	$500,000.00

1917, c. 154, s. 1.

The provision under this bond issue for charitable institutions does not repeal the appropriation of ten thousand dollars annually for extension work in regard to tuberculosis: Sanatorium v. State Treasurer, 173-810.

7460. Rate of interest on bonds. All of said bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per centum per annum from the date of issue until paid, and the bonds shall bear date as of the first day of July of each year in which they are authorized to be issued from the year one thousand nine hundred and seventeen to the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, both inclusive, which interest shall be payable semiannually on the first days of January and of July of each year, so long as any portion of the bonds shall remain due and unpaid.

7461. Execution and sale of bonds. The bonds authorized and directed to be issued by the preceding sections shall be coupon bonds of the denomination of fifty dollars and of one hundred dollars and of five hundred dollars and one thousand dollars each, as may be determined by the state treasurer, and shall be signed by the governor and state treasurer and sealed with the great seal of the state. The coupons thereon may be signed by the state treasurer alone, or may have a facsimile of his signature printed, engraved, or lithographed thereon, and the bonds shall in all other respects be in such form as the state treasurer may direct. The coupons thereon shall, after maturity, be receivable in payment of all taxes, debts, dues, licenses, fines, and demands due the state of North Carolina, which shall be expressed on the face of the bonds. Before selling any of the series of bonds herein authorized to be issued, the state treasurer shall advertise the sale and invite sealed bids in such manner as in his judgment may seem to be most effectual to secure the par of the bonds at the lowest rate of interest. He is authorized to accept bids for the entire issue of the bonds in any one year, or of any portion thereof, and where the conditions are equal he shall give the preference of purchase to the citizens of North Carolina; and he is authorized to sell the bonds herein authorized in such manner as in his judgment will produce the par value of the bonds at the lowest rate of interest. He is further authorized to sell the bonds at not less than par and accrued interest at any time on and after the first day of July of each and every year until the full issue authorized to be issued under this article shall have been issued; and he may prescribe and publish the terms of payment for the bonds and receive subscriptions therefor: Provided, the state shall receive not less than the par value of the bonds, plus accrued interest thereon at the time of delivery. The bonds shall be due and payable, one hundred thousand dollars on July first, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and one hundred thousand dollars on July first of each year thereafter until the whole series authorized by this article to be issued shall be paid.

7462. Exemption from taxation; investment by fiduciaries. The bonds and coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, or municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for purposes of general revenue or otherwise, and the interest paid thereon shall not be subject to taxation as for income, nor shall the bonds and coupons be subject to taxation when constituting a part of the surplus of any bank, trust company, or other corporation. All executors, administrators, guardians, and fiduciaries generally may invest in such bonds.

7463. Application of proceeds. The proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall be used entirely and exclusively for the permanent improvement and equipment of the following institutions of the state and in the following amounts, to wit:

The state hospital at Raleigh, two hundred thousand dollars.

The state hospital at Morganton, two hundred thousand dollars.

The state hospital at Goldsboro, one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars.

The North Carolina school for the deaf, located at Morganton, sixty thousand dollars.

The Stonewall Jackson training school, near Concord, fifty thousand dollars.

The university of North Carolina, five hundred thousand dollars.

North Carolina sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis, located at Sanatorium, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

East Carolina teachers' training school at Greenville, two hundred thousand dollars.

Appalachian training school, at Boone, fifty thousand dollars.

Cullowhee normal and industrial school at Cullowhee, forty thousand dollars.

North Carolina state college of agriculture and engineering, located at Raleigh, three hundred thousand dollars.

The state normal and industrial college, located at Greensboro, five hundred thousand dollars.

For the negro agricultural and technical college at Greensboro, twenty-five thousand dollars.

For the state normal school for negroes, ten thousand dollars.

For the state board of education, for the purpose of aiding in building public schoolhouses in the state, five hundred thousand dollars.

For the erection of a state's storage warehouse in the city of Raleigh, and the purchase of land therefor, fifty thousand dollars.

For the installation of approved apparatus for the protection of the state's institutions against fire, forty thousand dollars.

The proceeds of the sale of bonds herein authorized shall be used solely and exclusively for the permanent enlargement and improvement of the state's institutions herein named and for the other purposes herein named; but the building commission is authorized and directed, if they shall deem it necessary, to use such part of the amount appropriated to any institution herein named for the repair or repairs of said institution which may in their judgment be necessary to preserve the buildings for all use.

The building commission is directed to prorate the proceeds of the sale of bonds issued each year under this article according to the amount appropriated to each institution or object. And the building commission shall not approve any expenditure or contract during the years one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and one thousand nine hundred and eighteen in excess of the appropriations for said years.

1917, c. 154, ss. 6, 8; joint resolution No. 40, 1917; 1919, c. 314, s. 5.

NOTE.—See State Departments, Institutions, and Commissions, art. 2, State Building Commission.

ART. 9. DEBT FOR CERTAIN INSTITUTIONS AUTHORIZED

7464. Treasurer authorized to borrow and execute notes. Whereas certain of the educational and charitable institutions of the state are inadequate to meet the demands of the people of the state, and it is required by the public interests that these institutions be permanently enlarged; and

Whereas the institutions for whose permanent enlargement bonds were authorized to be issued under article 8 of this chapter are now in great need of the amount of the bonds in said article apportioned to them, therefore, for the purposes recited the state treasurer is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed, by and with the advice of the governor and his council of state, to borrow for a period of two years and at the lowest rate of interest obtainable, the sum of nine hundred and forty-six thousand dollars; and he is further authorized and empowered to execute in the name of the state of North Carolina and deliver notes for the money herein authorized to be borrowed, and to renew the same from time to time, if necessary, for a total period of not longer than two years from the date of the original notes.

7465. Disposition of proceeds. The proceeds derived from the sale of such notes are appropriated and set apart for the permanent enlargement and improvement of the following educational and charitable institutions of the state and in the following amounts, to wit:

For the Caswell training school, three hundred thousand dollars.

For the state hospital at Raleigh, eighty thousand dollars.

For the agricultural and technical college for the negroes, at Greensboro, six thousand dollars.

For the state normal for the negroes, at Elizabeth City, thirty thousand dollars.

For the state normal for the negroes, at Fayetteville, thirty thousand dollars.

For the state sanatorium for tuberculosis, one hundred thousand dollars.

For the orthopedic hospital, twenty thousand dollars.

For the erection and construction of a suitable and adequate building for the agricultural department on the lot now owned by it in the city of Raleigh, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

For the erection of suitable buildings for the state prison on the state farm or other place selected, one hundred thousand dollars.

For the Slater normal and industrial school at Winston-Salem, thirty thousand dollars: Provided, that of this amount only the sum of twenty thousand dollars shall be immediately available, and the remainder, ten thousand dollars, shall become available only when the said Slater normal and industrial school shall raise from other sources and have available the sum of ten thousand dollars, which fact shall be certified to the state treasurer by the president and treasurer of said school, verified before a notary public. Out of said sum the trustees are authorized to buy such additional land and buildings for said school as may, in their judgment, be deemed necessary, not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars.

7466. Treasurer may borrow in anticipation of certain bonds. The state treasurer is further authorized, empowered, and directed to borrow, by and with the advice of the governor and his council of state, in anticipation of the bonds authorized to be issued under article 8 of this chapter, and for the institutions therein named, but, however, not exceeding the total amount of the bonds authorized thereunder, such sums of money from time to time as the trustees or directors of the said institutions therein named may need and shall be approved by the state building commission; the said sums of money to be borrowed at the lowest rate of interest obtainable, and the state treasurer is authorized and empowered to execute in the name of the state of North Carolina and deliver notes for the money in this section authorized to be borrowed, and to renew the same from time to time, if necessary, until the bonds authorized to be issued under article 8 of this chapter are issued and sold as directed; and the said treasurer is directed to pay the notes issued pursuant to the authority conferred upon him in this section with the proceeds of the sale of said bonds as fast as and as soon as the said bonds are sold.

1919, c. 328, s. 5.

7467. Exemption from taxation; investment by fiduciaries. Any and all notes issued by the state treasurer under the provisions of this article shall be exempt from all state, county, and municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for purposes of general revenue or otherwise, and the interest paid thereon shall not be subject to taxation as for income, nor shall said notes be subject to taxation when constituting a part of the surplus of any bank, trust company, or other corporation; and it shall be lawful for all executors, administrators, guardians, and fiduciaries generally to invest in said notes.

1919, c. 328, s. 6.

7468. Construction from proceeds under supervision of state building commission. All buildings built, improved, or constructed with the proceeds of the money herein authorized to be borrowed for and on account of the institutions named shall be constructed and built by and under the supervision of the state building commission.

1919, c. 328, s. 3.

7469. Liquidation of notes. The state treasurer is further authorized and directed to apply the surplus in the treasury not otherwise appropriated at the end of the fiscal year of one thousand nine hundred and twenty to the liquidation, payment, and settlement of the notes herein in section 7464 authorized to be issued to the amount the same will pay.

1919, c. 328, s. 4.

7470. State prison converted to hospital from proceeds of hospital bonds. The directors of the state hospitals are authorized to use and expend, under the supervision and direction of the state building commission, as much of the proceeds of the bonds apportioned to the state hospital at Raleigh and the state hospital at Morganton, under article 8 of this chapter, as may be required to make available and suitable the property and buildings of the state prison at Raleigh, which have been, by an act of the general assembly of one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, directed to be turned over to and incorporated with the property of the state hospital at Raleigh.

1919, c. 328, s. 7.

7471. All construction as near fireproof as practicable; exception. All buildings improved, constructed, or built for any of the institutions of the state from the proceeds of the sale of bonds authorized to be issued under article 8 of this chapter, or from the money borrowed under the provisions of this article, shall be improved, built, and constructed as near fireproof as in the judgment of the state building commission is practicable or possible, except the buildings erected by the state prison; and the approval by the state building commission of the plans furnished to it by the state institutions shall be final and conclusive.

1919, c. 328, s. 9.

7472. Sale of state blind institution property. The governor and his council of state are hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to sell for the highest obtainable price the square and the buildings thereon now occupied in the city of Raleigh by the state blind institution, and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid to the state treasurer for the use of the blind institution for the completion of its new buildings and equipment thereof. Until such sale can be made, the state treasurer is authorized and empowered to borrow a sum not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand dollars at the lowest obtainable rate of interest, and the said state treasurer is authorized to execute in the name of the state of North Carolina and deliver notes for the money herein authorized to be borrowed, and to renew the same from time to time, if necessary, until the said square and buildings are sold and paid for, when the said notes shall be discharged and paid for from such proceeds; and the surplus of said proceeds shall be placed to the credit of said blind institution.

1919, c. 328, s. 10.

ART. 1. STATE BUDGET COMMISSION

7473. State appropriations and expenditures. From and after the convening of the general assembly of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, money shall be appropriated in the manner hereinafter set out; and from and after the adjournment of the general assembly of nineteen hundred and twenty-one money shall be disbursed from the state treasury in the manner herein set out, and in no other way.

1919, c. 38, s. 1.

7474. Budget commission created; personnel; vacancies. There is hereby created a commission to be known as the budget commission, to be composed at all times of the governor of the state, who shall be chairman of the commission, and of the chairmen of the committees on appropriations and on finance of the house of representatives and of the senate; the commission to have all the powers and duties conferred by this article from and after the adjournment of the general assembly of one thousand nine hundred and nineteen. In case of a vacancy in the commission on account of death, resignation or inability to serve of any of the last four named members, the next ranking member of the committee on appropriations or finance, as the case may be, shall succeed to membership on the commission.

1919, c. 38, s. 2.

7475. State departments, institutions, etc., to report estimates of amounts needed. On or before the first day of November biennially in the even-numbered years each of the several state departments, bureaus, divisions, officers, commissions, institutions, and other agencies and undertakings receiving or asking financial aid from the state, or receiving funds under authority of any general law of the state, shall report to the budget commission, on official estimate blanks furnished for such purpose, an estimate in itemized form showing the amount needed for each year of the ensuing biennial period beginning with the first day of April thereafter. The official estimate blanks which must be used in making these reports shall be furnished by the budget commission, shall be uniform, and shall clearly designate the kind of information to be given thereon.

1919, c. 38, s. 3.

7476. State auditor to estimate needs of general assembly and judiciary. On or before the first day of November biennially in the even-numbered years the state auditor shall furnish to the budget commission an estimate of the financial needs of the general assembly, itemized in strict accordance with the budget classification adopted by the budget commission, and certified and approved by the presiding officer of each house, for each year of the ensuing biennial period beginning with the first day of April thereafter; and an estimate of the financial needs of the judiciary, as provided by law, itemized in strict accordance with the budget classification adopted by the budget commission, for each year of the ensuing biennial period beginning with the first day of April thereafter. The state auditor shall transmit to the budget commission with these estimates full and detailed explanation of all increases or decreases.

1919, c. 38, s. 4.

7477. State auditor to furnish certain statements. On or before the first day of November biennially in the even-numbered years the state auditor shall furnish to the budget commission the following statements, classified and itemized in strict accordance with the budget classification adopted by the budget commission:

(1) A statement showing the balance standing to the credit of the several appropriations for each department, bureau, division, officer, board, commission or other agency or undertaking of the state at the end of the last preceding appropriation year.

(2) A statement showing the monthly expenditures and revenues for each appropriation account, and the total monthly expenditures and revenues from all the appropriation accounts, including special and all other appropriations, in the twelve months of the last preceding appropriation year.

(3) A statement showing the annual expenditures in each appropriation account, and the revenues from all sources, including expenditures and revenues from special and all other appropriations, for each year of the last two appropriation years, with a separate column showing the increase or decrease for each item.

(4) An itemized and complete financial balance sheet for the state at the close of the last preceding fiscal year.

(5) Such other statements as the budget commission shall request.

1919, c. 38, s. 5.

7478. All agencies of state to furnish any information required. The departments, bureaus, divisions, officers, boards, commissions, institutions, or other agencies or undertakings of the state, upon request, shall immediately furnish to the budget commission, in such form as it may require, any information desired by it in relation to their respective affairs or activities.

1919, c. 38, s. 6.

7479. Public hearings; heads of state agencies to attend. The budget commission shall provide for public hearings on any and all estimates to be included in the budget, which shall be held during the month of November biennially in the even-numbered years. The budget commission shall require the attendance at these hearings of the heads or responsible representatives of all state departments, bureaus, divisions, officers, boards, commissions, institutions, or other agencies or undertakings receiving or asking financial aid from the state.

1919, c. 38, s. 7.

7480. Commission to make biennial survey of all state agencies. On or before the fifteenth day of December biennially in the even-numbered years the budget commission shall have completed a careful survey of all the departments, bureaus, divisions, officers, boards, commissions, institutions, and other agencies and undertakings of the state, through which it shall be in possession of the working knowledge upon which to base its recommendation to the general assembly.

1919, c. 38, s. 8.

7481. Budget submitted, when; certain statements to accompany. Within five days after the beginning of each regular session of the general assembly the budget commission shall submit to the presiding officer of each house printed copies of a budget, based upon its own conclusions and judgment, containing a complete and itemized plan of all proposed expenditures for each state department, bureau, division, officer, board, commission, institution, or other agency or undertaking, classified by function, character and object, and of estimated revenues and borrowings for each year in the ensuing biennial period beginning with the first day of April thereafter. Opposite each item of the proposed expenditures the budget shall show in separate parallel columns the amount appropriated for the last preceding appropriation year, for the current appropriation year, and the increase or decrease.

The budget commission shall accompany the budget with—

(1) A statement of the revenues and expenditures for each of the two appropriation years next preceding, classified and itemized in accordance with the official budget classification adopted by the budget commission.

(2) A statement of the current assets, liabilities, reserves and surplus or deficit of the state.

(3) A statement of the debts and funds of the state.

(4) A statement showing the budget commission's itemized estimates of the condition of the state treasury as of the beginning and end of each of the next two appropriation years.

(5) An itemized and complete financial balance sheet for the state at the close of the last preceding fiscal year.

(6) A general survey of the state's financial and natural resources, with a review of the general economic, industrial and commercial condition of the state.

1919, c. 38, s. 9.

7482. Tentative appropriation bill submitted. The budget commission shall also submit to the presiding officer of each house of the general assembly, at the same time it submits its budget, copies of a tentative bill for all proposed appropriations of the budget, clearly itemized and properly classified, for each year in the ensuing biennial appropriation period, which shall be known as "The Budget Bill."

1919, c. 38, s. 10.

7483. Joint committee on appropriations to consider budget. The appropriations committees of the house of representatives and of the senate shall sit jointly in open sessions while considering the budget, and shall begin such joint meetings within five days after the budget has been submitted to the general assembly by the budget commission. This joint committee may cause the attendance of heads or responsible representatives of the departments, institutions and all other agencies of the state to furnish such information and answer such questions as the joint committee shall require; and to these sessions shall be admitted, with the right to be heard, all persons interested in the estimates under consideration. The budget commission, or its representatives, shall have the right to sit at these public hearings and be heard on all matters coming before the joint committee.
1919, c. 38, s. 11.

7484. General assembly may increase or decrease items; special appropriations. The general assembly may increase or decrease items in the budget bill as it may deem to be in the public interest, but neither house shall consider further or special appropriations, except in case of an emergency, which fact shall be clearly stated in the bill therefor, until the budget bill shall have been finally acted upon by both houses; and no bill carrying an appropriation shall be thereafter passed by the general assembly unless the money to pay the same shall be in the treasury, or unless a special tax for that purpose is levied in the bill making the appropriation.
1919, c. 38, s. 12.

7485. Compensation of members of budget commission; assistants. The members of the budget commission other than the chairman shall receive as compensation for their services ten dollars per day for the number of days actually engaged in the performance of duties proposed by this article and their actual traveling expenses, to be audited and approved by the state auditor. The budget commission shall employ competent budget assistants and such special help as it may require to carry out the provisions of this article, and shall fix the compensation of such persons, to be paid by the state treasurer upon warrant of the state auditor.

7486. Laws requiring reports of similar character repealed. All laws requiring reports to be made by state departments, bureaus, divisions, officers, boards, commissions, and institutions to the general assembly, the legislative reference librarian, or to any other state department, of a similar character to the reports herein required to be made to the budget commission, or any laws in conflict with or inconsistent with this article, are hereby repealed.
1919, c. 38, s. 14.

ART. 2. STATE BUILDING COMMISSION

7487. Appointment and organization of the commission. The governor of the state is directed, authorized, and empowered to appoint a state building commission, to be composed of five members, three of whom shall be members of the majority political party of the state, and the state building commission shall organize in the city of Raleigh by electing one of its members chairman and one of its members secretary.

1919, c. 303.

7488. Duties of the commission. The building commission shall have entire supervision, direction, and control of the distribution of the proceeds of the bonds under article eight of the chapter on State Debt directed to be issued to the several institutions and purposes therein named, and to the amount to each institution and purpose therein specified, and shall have the supervision of the buildings erected by the several institutions therein named and for the purposes therein specified, except the sum of five hundred thousand dollars therein authorized to be issued to the state board of education for the purpose of aiding in the building of the public schools of the state, and except further, that the committee on public buildings and grounds shall select and purchase, if necessary, the site for the state's storage warehouse and shall have supervision and control of the construction of the state's storage warehouse.

7489. Control of all state building construction. The state building commission shall also have entire supervision, direction and control of any and all buildings hereafter to be constructed by the state or any institution under state control or management, and entire supervision and control of any alterations, repairs, or improvement of a permanent nature to be made upon any building now or hereafter to be constructed; the purpose of this article being to confer upon the state building commission power and authority to supervise, control, and direct all building operations of a permanent nature which shall be done by the state or by any institutions under the control or management of the state.

1919, c. 303.

NOTE.—For fireproof construction as near as possible of certain buildings, see State Debt, s. 7471.

7490. Vacancies; meetings of the commission. In the event of any vacancy occurring in the membership of the state building commission the governor of the state shall fill such vacancy from that political party represented by the retiring member of the commission; the commission shall meet as often as the business entrusted to them shall require, and the meetings may be held in the city of Raleigh or any of the state's institutions.

7491. Expenses of commission. The commission shall be paid annually its necessary expenses out of proceeds of the sale of the bonds authorized under article 8 of chapter State Debt, when engaged upon work connected with any of the institutions specifically referred to in article 8 of chapter State Debt, and when engaged upon other work of the state, out of the funds of the state treasury, upon itemized statements duly verified by the said members and approved by the governor of the state, who, upon approval, is authorized and directed to draw vouchers for such expenses.

7492. State architect; plans and specifications submitted to commission. Before any building shall be erected at any of the state's institutions, and before any permanent improvement shall be made to the state's institutions, the building commission shall employ a competent architect, to be known as the state architect, whose duty it shall be to draw and submit plans and specifications for any public building to be erected, or, where the commission shall deem necessary, plans and specifications for any permanent change, additions, or improvements to state buildings; and when approved by the commission, advertisement shall be made for the contract therefor and sealed bids invited upon such terms and conditions as the state building commission may prescribe.

7493. Compensation of state architect. The state architect shall be paid a salary of five thousand dollars per annum, which shall be in lieu of all commissions or other compensations, and such amount not exceeding seven thousand five hundred dollars as the commission may think necessary for additional help and expenses incurred in work on plans and specifications for state buildings, including necessary expenses for office rent and equipment. The salary shall be paid monthly when approved by the chairman or secretary of the commission, and be paid on a warrant of the auditor by the state treasurer out of such funds in the treasury as are not otherwise appropriated: Provided, that where the work done is for plans and specifications on buildings to be erected, repaired, or altered under article eight of the chapter on State Debt, then out of funds appropriated therein; and the commission may employ inspectors on such buildings, who may be paid out of the funds appropriated for such buildings. The architect herein authorized to be selected by the state building commission shall not be required to have license provided for by the laws regulating the practice of architecture in this state.

1919, c. 303.

7494. Annual report of the commission. It shall be the duty of the building commission to make annual reports to the governor of the expenditure of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds directed to be issued by article 8 of the chapter State Debt, which reports shall be transmitted by the governor to the general assembly. Each report shall name the institutions at which any part of such money has been expended during the preceding year, and shall set forth in detail all buildings erected, or if incomplete and in process of erection, then the progress made thereon, and the cost and character of the construction of all such buildings.

1917, c. 154, s. 9.

ART. 3. COÖPERATIVE PURCHASING COMMITTEE FOR CERTAIN INSTITUTIONS

7495. Creation, organization, and meetings. There is hereby created a coöperative purchasing committee, hereinafter called "the committee," which shall consist of the superintendents of the state hospitals for the insane at Morganton, Raleigh, and Goldsboro, and the superintendents of the school for the deaf at Morganton, the school for the blind at Raleigh, and the Caswell training school at Kinston, and the presidents of the university of North Carolina, the North Carolina state college of agriculture and engineering, the state normal and industrial college for women at Greensboro, and the East Carolina training school at Greenville. The committee shall organize by the election of one of its members as chairman and another as secretary. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the committee, and the secretary shall keep minutes of its proceedings. In the absence of the chairman, some other member of the committee may be selected to act in his stead during such absence. Three members of the committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The committee shall meet at least four times each year, and may, in its discretion, meet as often as once each month at such place and time as may be designated by the chairman thereof.

7496. Quarterly and annual reports. The committee shall make quarterly reports to the governor of the state, setting forth the transactions of the committee, the supplies purchased, the price, quantity and quality thereof, the total expenditures for each quarter, and the quantity and cost of all supplies purchased for and on behalf of each institution. The committee shall publish annually a report setting out in detail, with proper and sufficient tables and explanations, its transactions for the year ending November thirtieth of each year.

1917, c. 150, s. 2.

7497. Rules and regulations; clerical assistance. The committee is authorized to make such rules and regulations for the economical purchase of all the supplies for each of the institutions named in section 7495 as in its judgment may be deemed necessary to effectuate an economical administration of this article. It is authorized also to make provisions for the employment of such clerical assistance as may be necessary to carry this article into effect.

1917, c. 150, s. 3.

7498. Office; location and equipment. The office of the committee shall be located in the city of Raleigh. The board of public buildings and grounds is authorized and directed to supply and equip sufficient office room for the proper administration of this article.

1917, c. 150, s. 4.

7499. Institutions to report to committee. For the purpose of obtaining comparative information, the following institutions are required to report quarterly to the committee the amount of supplies purchased, including in a general way staple articles of diet, coal and other fuel and other institutional equipment: state's prison, East Carolina teachers' training school, the three negro normal schools, the state college of agriculture and engineering, the various state departments, the university, the normal and industrial college, the agricultural and technical college, the Stonewall Jackson training school, the Appalachian training school, and the Cullowhee normal school.

1917, c. 150, s. 5.

7500. Division of expenses among institutions. For the purpose of meeting the expenses necessary to the enforcement of this article, each of the institutions named in section 7495 shall pay its pro rata part, which shall be determined by the amount of purchases made on its behalf each year.

1917, c. 150, s. 7.

7501. Purchases for other institutions regulated. Any other state institutions may make application to the committee and request it to purchase the necessary supplies for them or any part thereof; and it shall be the duty of the committee to make such purchases for and on behalf of such institutions, and to see to the proper delivery of supplies so furnished in the same manner as if such institutions were included in this article. If any state institution not named in section 7495 shall request the purchase of supplies for it, as provided herein, it shall pay its pro rata part of the expenses incident to the enforcement of this article, in accordance with the provisions of section 7500.

1917, c. 150, s. 6.

7502. Books to be kept. The committee shall keep a full and complete set of books, which shall show in detail all transactions with and purchases for each of the institutions which are named in section 7495, or which avail themselves of the privileges of this article in accordance with the preceding section.

1917, c. 150, s. 6.

ART. 4. STATE RECONSTRUCTION COMMISSION

7503. Commission created. A commission is hereby created to be known as the state reconstruction commission, consisting of twenty-five men from the state at large, and representing as far as practicable all the various industries and employments of the state. The members of the said commission shall be appointed by the governor, who shall be ex officio chairman of the commission; and the said commission shall have the power to elect an executive chairman or secretary to carry on the details of the work.

7504. Duties. It shall be the duty of such commission to make investigations and to report in reference to the industrial, commercial, economic, sociological, and military needs and requirements of the state which have been produced by the world war and the readjustment of the state to conditions of peace; to take such advisory measures as it may deem fit in reference to such matters; to consult with the several state and federal departments and such civic organizations as may offer information or recommendations in reference to such matters; to make investigation and suggest plans for the coördination and coöperation of the resources of the state during the period of adjustment after such war, and to make investigations and recommendations on all matters requiring the coöperation of federal and state governments, and to plan methods of coöperating with the federal authorities in devising and carrying out national policies during the period of war reconstruction.

1919, c. 261, s. 2.

7505. Reports. This commission shall make written reports to the governor at such times and upon such subjects as in its discretion it may deem proper, and publish same in the newspapers of the state.

1919, c. 261, s. 3.

7506. Appropriation. The members of the commission shall serve without compensation; but a sum of not exceeding five hundred dollars per annum for the years one thousand nine hundred and nineteen and one thousand nine hundred and twenty be and the same is hereby appropriated out of the public funds of the state to be used for the payment of postage and clerical assistance in the carrying out of the work of the commission; such sum to be paid upon warrant of the state auditor by the state treasurer, upon request of the executive chairman or secretary of the said commission.

1919, c. 261, s. 4.

ART. 5. SOLDIER SETTLEMENT BOARD

7507. Object of article. The object of this article is, in recognition of military services, to provide useful employment and rural homes for soldiers, sailors, marines, and others who have served with the armed forces of the United States in the European war or other wars of the United States, including former American citizens who served in allied armies against central powers and have been repatriated, and who have been honorably discharged; and to accomplish such purpose by coöperation with the agencies of the United States engaged in work of a similar character. This article may be cited as "The North Carolina Soldier Settlement Act."

1919, c. 266, s. 1.

7508. Soldier settlement board created. A soldier settlement board is hereby created, composed of three members to be appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be chairman, and whose terms of service shall be as follows: one for two years, one for four years, and one for six years; and thereafter, on the expiration of their terms, for a period of six years, and until their successors have been appointed and qualified. The attorney-general shall be the legal adviser of the board and represent the board in any suits or actions which may arise out of the discharge of its duties.

7509. Coöperation with federal agencies. The board shall satisfy itself of the practicability of each project to be undertaken hereunder, utilizing all state agencies to such end. Projects may be undertaken in coöperation with the United States, involving the reclamation of the lands within this state by drainage, irrigation, and removal of trees and stumps, the building of levees, sea walls, necessary roads, land leveling, fertilization, sanitation, or involving such other means as may be found practicable and desirable to make the land suitable for agricultural purposes and rural homes. The board may acquire, in the name of the state, by purchase, gift, all lands and other property needed for the purposes hereof, and may take title in trust. With the consent of the coöperating federal agencies, the board may sell any land or other property acquired hereunder found not to be required for any project. The board may also utilize all lands of the state for the purposes of this article: Provided, that nothing in this section contained shall be construed to repeal any law relating to the price of state lands. The periods during which payment for state lands may be made and the rates of interest under existing statutory law may be modified by the board, if deemed advisable in order properly to cooperate with federal agencies.

7510. Power to contract with federal government and with other states. The board is authorized to contract with the United States pursuant to acts of congress and the rules and regulations thereunder for soldier settlement and related purposes. For the purposes of general cooperation with the federal government hereunder, the board may also contract with other states, and with municipal, quasi-municipal, and public corporations and private corporations and individuals.

1919, c. 266, s. 4.

7511. Powers under contract with federal government. The board may also, under contract with the United States, undertake any work of farm improvement, subdivision of the land, supervision of settlement, the selection of settlers, the agricultural training of prospective settlers, the supervision of short-term loans, the rejection of applicants for allotments, the collection of moneys, the operation and maintenance of the projects undertaken, and may perform such other acts as may be necessary to effectuate full cooperation with federal agencies.

1919, c. 266, s. 5.

7512. Additional powers; proceeds of operations. The board may also lease or assent to the lease of any lands pending receipt of application for the purchase thereof; may dedicate lands for schools, churches, roads, cemeteries, and other public purposes; may establish, develop, and open for sale such town-sites as may be desirable and provided by contract with the United States. The proceeds of all operations under this act shall be covered into the North Carolina soldier settlement fund.

1919, c. 266, s. 6.

7513. State reimbursable as provided for federal government. The board, in cooperation with the United States, is authorized to obtain suitable security by lien, by cooperation with public corporations or otherwise for the reimbursement of moneys expended hereunder by the United States, or by the state or by both jointly, or otherwise. All moneys expended by the state upon any project undertaken shall be reimbursable to the state in manner similar and to the same extent that moneys disbursed by the United States for cooperation with the state shall be reimbursable, and with the same interest, if any, upon such plan of amortization or other method or reimbursement as may be agreed upon pursuant to such acts of congress.

1919, c. 266, s. 7.

7514. State lands and lands acquired subject to taxation. State lands utilized hereunder and lands acquired pursuant to this article shall be subject to state and local taxation and assessment for improvement purposes from the date of the execution of the contract for the purchase thereof by settlers upon any project undertaken hereunder. If the contracting purchaser shall fail to pay such taxes and assessments, the same may be paid from the fund hereby provided and charged to the purchaser, with interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the date of payment.

1919, c. 266, s. 8.

7515. Reports of board. The board shall make annual report to the governor, with a full statement of its operations and the results of its investigations and experience resulting from operations under this article, together with recommendations for legislation, and shall furnish a copy of its report to the secretary of the interior.

1919, c. 266, s. 9.

7516. Board to make necessary rules and regulations. The board is hereby authorized to perform such acts and make such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary and proper to carry this article into full force and effect.

1919, c. 266, s. 10.

ART. 6. OFFICERS OF STATE INSTITUTIONS

7517. Secretary to be elected from directors. The board of directors of the various state institutions shall elect one of their number as secretary, who shall act as such at all regular or special meetings of such boards.

1907, c. 883, s. 1.

NOTE.—The state treasurer is ex officio treasurer of state institutions. See chapter State Officers, article Treasurer.

7518. Directors to elect officers and employees. All officers and employees of the various state institutions who hold elective positions shall be nominated and elected by the board of directors of the respective institutions.

1907, c. 883, s. 3.

7519. Director not to be elected to position under board. It shall be unlawful for any board of directors, board of trustees or other governing body of any of the various state institutions (penal, charitable, or otherwise) to appoint or elect any person who may be or has been at any time within six months a member of such board of directors, board of trustees, or other governing body, to any position in the institution, which position may be under the control of such board of directors, board of trustees, or other governing body.

1909, c. 831.

7520. Superintendents to be within call of board meetings. The superintendent of each of the various state institutions shall be present on the premises of his institution and within the call of the board of directors during all regular or special meetings of the board, and shall respond to all calls of the board for any information which it may wish at his hands.

1907, c. 883, s. 1.

7521. Trading by interested officials forbidden. The directors, stewards, and superintendents of the state institutions shall not trade directly or indirectly with or among themselves, or with any concern in which they are interested, for any supplies needed by any such institutions.

1907, c. 883, s. 2.

ART. 7. VARIOUS POWERS AND REGULATIONS

7522. State institutions may exercise eminent domain. Whenever the directors or managers of any state institution find it necessary to acquire lands in order to carry out the purposes of the institution, or to acquire lands, rights of way, or easements for the purposes of obtaining and protecting water supplies, or for constructing and maintaining dams, reservoirs, standpipes, pipe lines, flumes, or conduits for water-supply purposes, and are unable to purchase the same from the owners at a reasonable price, or are unable to obtain a good and sufficient title therefor by purchase from the owners, then such state institution may exercise the right of eminent domain and acquire any such lands, rights of way, or easements necessary for the aforesaid purposes by condemnation in the manner prescribed by law under the chapter Eminent Domain.

Rev., s. 3062; 1917, cc. 51, 132.

7523. Entry on land to lay water pipes. For the purpose of providing water supplies, the directors or other lawful managers of any public institution of the state may enter upon the lands through which they may desire to conduct their pipes for such purpose, and lay them under ground; and they, at all times, shall have the right to enter upon such lands for the purpose of keeping the water line in repair and do all things necessary to that end.

Rev., s. 3061; 1893, c. 63, s. 1; 1911, c. 62, s. 26.

7524. Governor to execute deeds of state lands held for institutions. The governor of the state is hereby authorized and empowered to execute a deed under the great seal of the state to any lands the title to which is now vested in the state, for the use of any state institution, upon application of the trustees or directors of such institution. The application shall show such conveyance is for the best interests of the institution, and shall be approved by the council of state.

1917, c. 129.

7525. Grant of easements to public-service corporations. The directors of the various state institutions are authorized and empowered to grant privileges and easements to individuals or companies to run telegraph, telephone, or power transmission lines over lands belonging to such institutions, when in their judgment it is right and proper to do so, and subject to such terms and conditions as they may impose, and subject in each case to the approval of the attorney-general of the state.

1909, c. 484.

7526. Injury to water supply misdemeanor. If any person shall in any way intentionally or maliciously damage or obstruct any water line of any public institution, or in any way contaminate or render the water impure or injurious, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

Rev., s. 3458; 1893, c. 63, s. 3.

7527. Keeping swine near state institutions; penalty. On the petition of a majority of the legal voters living within a radius of one-quarter of a mile of the administrative building of any state educational or charitable institution, it shall be unlawful for any person to keep swine or swine pens within such radius of one-quarter of a mile. Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars.

1909, c. 706.

7528. Expenditures for departments and institutions; accounting and warrants. All expenditures of any character allowed by the general assembly in making appropriations and not covered in the appropriations named shall be charged against the department or institution for which the expense is incurred, and the state auditor's warrant shall be made to show clearly for what purpose the expenditure is made. The warrant shall be charged against the department or institution, thereby showing the total amount expended for the maintenance and expenses of such department or institution.

7529. Institutions to file monthly statements with auditor. On the fifteenth of each month it shall be the duty of the head of each state institution to prepare an itemized statement of all the disbursements of such institution for the preceding month, and file the same with the state auditor on blanks to be prepared and furnished to him by the auditor.

1911, c. 99.

7530. Certain institutions to report to governor and general assembly. It shall be the duty of the boards of directors, managers, or trustees of the several state institutions for the insane, or the several institutions for the deaf, dumb, and blind, and of the state prison to submit their respective reports to the governor, to be transmitted by him with his message to the general assembly.

Rev., s. 5373; 1883, c. 60, ss. 2, 4.

NOTE.—For further provision as to reports from institutions and departments generally, see s. 7475. As to reports from state school for blind and deaf, see s. 5882.

7531. Reports of departments and institutions; investigations and audits. All state departments and state institutions shall make reports to the governor from time to time as may be required by him, and the governor is empowered to have all departments of the state government and state institutions examined and audited from time to time, and shall employ such experts to make audits and examinations and to analyze the reports of such institutions and departments as he may deem to be necessary.

1917, c. 58, s. 7.

NOTE.—For investigations by board of internal improvements, see s. 6553.

7532. Special investigations. At any time, upon complaint made to him or upon his own motion, the governor may appoint a special commission to investigate any state department or state institution, which commission shall have power to subpoena witnesses, require the production of books and papers, and to do all things necessary to a full and thorough investigation, and shall submit its findings to the governor. The members of such special commission shall, while engaged in the performance of their duties, receive their actual expenses and a per diem of four dollars.

7533. Commission to determine scope of reports. There is hereby established a commission to be composed of the governor, the attorney-general, and the commissioner of labor and printing, the duty of which commission shall be to confer with the various departments and to prescribe the scope of the matter to be published in any report now prescribed, required, or permitted, to the end that unnecessary matter may be eliminated.

1917, c. 202, s. 2.

7534. Reports of departments to be printed biennially. All laws requiring reports to be made, published, and printed by any department oftener than once in two years are hereby amended to the extent that the report of any department is required or permitted to be printed only once in any biennial period: Provided, that this section shall not apply to the report of the state auditor and of the state treasurer.

1917, c. 202, s. 1.

STATE FLAG

SEC.

7535. State flag.

7536. State motto.

7537. Flags to be displayed on public buildings and institutions.

7538. Flags to be displayed at county courthouses.

7539. Flags to conform to law.

7535. State flag. The flag of North Carolina shall consist of a blue union, containing in the center thereof a white star with the letter "N" in gilt on the left and the letter "C" in gilt on the right of said star, the circle containing the same to be one-third the width of said union. The fly of the flag shall consist of two equally proportioned bars, the upper bar to be red, the lower bar to be white; the length of the bars horizontally shall be equal to the perpendicular length of the union, and the total length of the flag shall be one-third more than its width. Above the star in the center of the union there shall be a gilt scroll in semi-circular form, containing in black letters this inscription: "May 20th, 1775," and below the star there shall be a similar scroll containing in black letters the inscription: "April 12th, 1776."

Rev., s. 5321; 1885, c. 291.

7536. State motto. The words "esse quam videri" are hereby adopted as the motto of this state, and as such shall be engraved on the great seal of North Carolina and likewise at the foot of the coat-of-arms of the state as a part thereof. On the coat-of-arms, in addition to the motto, at the bottom, there shall be inscribed at the top the words, "May 20th, 1775."

Rev., s. 5320; 1893, c. 145.

NOTE.—For great seal and coat-of-arms, see State Officers, article Governor.

7537. Flags to be displayed on public buildings and institutions. The board of trustees or managers of the several state institutions and public buildings shall provide a North Carolina flag, of such dimensions and material as they may deem best, and the same shall be displayed from a staff upon the top of each and every such building, at all times except during inclement weather, and upon the death of any state officer or any prominent citizen the flag shall be put at half-mast until the burial of such person has taken place.

1907, c. 838, s. 2.

7538. Flags to be displayed at county courthouses. The board of county commissioners of the several counties in this state shall likewise authorize the procuring of a North Carolina flag, to be displayed either on a staff upon the top or draped behind the judge's stand, in each and every courthouse in the state, and that the state flag shall be displayed at each and every term of court held, and on such other public occasions as the commissioners may deem proper.

1907, c. 838, s. 3.

7539. Flags to conform to law. No state flag shall be allowed in or over any building here mentioned unless such flag conforms to the description of the state flag contained in this chapter.

1907, c. 938, s. 4.

NOTE.—See Crimes, s. 4500.

SUBCHAPTER I. ENTRIES AND GRANTS

ART. 1. LANDS SUBJECT TO GRANT

7540. Vacant lands; exceptions. All vacant and unappropriated lands belonging to the state shall be subject to entry by any citizen thereof, in the manner hereinafter provided, except—

1. Lands covered by navigable waters.

2. Lands covered by the waters of any lake, or which, though now covered, may hereafter be gained therefrom by the recession, draining, or diminution of such waters, or have been so gained heretofore and not lawfully entered.

3. Marsh or swamp land, where the quantity of land in any one marsh or swamp exceeds two thousand acres, or where, if of less quantity, the same has been surveyed by the state, or by the state board of education, with a view to draining and reclaiming the same.

Rev., s. 1693; Code, s. 2751; R. C., c. 42, s. 1; 1854-5, c. 21.

For special act excepting from entry lands covered by Little river in Richmond and Montgomery counties, see 1907, chapter 433.

Land covered by navigable waters not subject of grant: Bell v. Smith, 171-116; State v. Young, 138-572; State v. Twiford, 136-603; Holley v. Smith, 130-86; State v. Spencer, 114-777; Bond v. Wool, 107-139; Hodges v. Williams, 95-331; Skinner v. Hettrick, 73-53; State v. Glen, 52-325; Ward v. Willis, 51-183; Collins v. Benbury, 27-126; Tatum v. Sawyer, 9-226. But see section 7543. "Navigable waters" defined: State v. Twiford, 136-607; State v. Baum, 128-600; Mfg. Co. v. R. R., 117-579; State v. Eason, 114-787; State v. Narrows Island Club, 100-477; Hodges v. Williams, 95-331; State v. Glen, 52-325; Collins v. Benbury, 25-277; Wilson v. Forbes, 13-30.

Swamp lands are not subject to entry, except as specified in this section: Board of Education v. Lumber Co., 158-314; Beer v. Lumber Co., 170-337.

When lands are granted they are no longer subject to entry as "vacant and unappropriated lands": Walker v. Parker, 169-150; Berry v. Lumber Co., 141-386; Lumber Co. v. Coffey, 144-560; Stewart v. Keener, 131-487; Dew v. Pyke, 145-300; Rowe v. Lumber Co., 129-97; Janney v. Blackwell, 138-437; Newton v. Brown, 134-442; Midgett v. Midgett, 129-21; State v. Bevers, 86-588; Hoover v. Thomas, 61-184; Harry v. Graham, 51-462; Lovinggood v. Burgess, 44-408; Stannmire v. Powell, 35-312; O'Kelly v. Clayton, 19-249; Featherston v. Mills, 15-596; Strothers v. Cathey, 5-164; University v. Sawyer, 1-159, 3-98.

By making entry, no title to land is acquired, but only right to call for grant upon compliance with statute, entry being a mere option to buy: Dew v. Pyke, 145-300; Frasier v. Gibson, 140-272; Janney v. Blackwell, 138-437; Newton v. Brown, 134-442; Kimsey v. Munday, 112-816; Gilchrist v. Middleton, 107-678; Bryan v. Hodges, 107-497; Hall v. Hollofield, 76-476; Plemmons v. Fore, 37-312.

Rocks in river above surface of water are vacant and unappropriated lands and subject to entry: Jones v. Jones, 2-488; McKenzie v. Hulet, 4-613.

Grant covering land, part of which not subject to entry, is good as to that part not covered by prior entry: Hough v. Dumas, 20-473.

As to burden of proof under section, see Walker v. Carpenter, 144-674; Bowser v. Wescott, 145-56.

7541. What swamp lands subject to grant. Marsh or swamp lands, lying in a swamp where the quantity of land does not in the whole swamp or marsh exceed two thousand acres, and which has not been surveyed by the state or state board of education, and marsh or swamp lands, unsurveyed as aforesaid, not exceeding fifty acres in one body, though lying within a marsh or swamp of a greater number of acres than two thousand, may be entered, when the same shall be situated altogether between the lines of tracts heretofore granted.

Rev., s. 1694; Code, s. 2751; R. C., c. 42, s. 1; 1854-5, c. 21.

See Board of Education v. Lumber Co., 158-313.

7542. Swamp lands defined. The words “marsh and swamp land” wherever employed in this chapter, and the words “swamp lands” employed in the statutes creating the literary fund and literary board of North Carolina and the state board of education of North Carolina, or in any act in relation thereto, shall be construed to include all those lands which have been or may now be known and called “swamp” or “marsh” lands, “pocosin bay,” “briary bay,” and “savanna,” and all lands which may be covered by the waters of any lake or pond.

Rev., s. 1695; 1891, c. 302.

Statute referred to in Board of Education v. Makely, 139-38; Board of Education v. Lumber Co., 158-313; Beer v. Lumber Co., 170-337.

7543. Land covered by water, for wharves. Persons owning lands on any navigable sound, river, creek or arm of the sea, for the purpose of erecting wharves on the side of the deep waters thereof, next to their lands, may make entries of the lands covered by water, adjacent to their own, as far as the deep water of such sound, river, creek, or arm of the sea, and obtain title as in other cases. But persons making such entries shall be confined to straight lines, including only the fronts of their own tracts, and shall in no respect obstruct or impair navigation. When any such entry shall be made in front of the lands in any incorporated town, the town corporation shall regulate the line on deep water to which wharves may be built. This shall not affect existing rights. For all lands thus entered there shall be paid into the treasury not less than one dollar per acre. When any person has erected a wharf on public lands of the description aforesaid, before the first of January, one thousand nine hundred and three, such person shall have liberty to enter such land, including his wharf, under the restrictions and upon the terms above set forth: Provided, no land covered by water shall be subject to entry within thirty feet of any wharf, pier or stand used as a wharf in existence, or which may hereafter be erected by any person on his own land or land under his control, or on an extended line thereof; but land covered by water as aforesaid for the space of thirty feet from the landing place or line of any wharf, pier or stand used as a wharf, as aforesaid, shall remain open for the free ingress and egress of the owner and other persons to and from such wharf, pier, or stand: Provided further, no person shall be allowed to enter and obtain a grant for any land in the waters of Onslow county, in which the tide ebbs and flows, within thirty feet of the shore at low-water mark, unless the enterer shall be the owner of the adjacent shore.

Rev., s. 1696; Code, s. 2751; R. C., c. 42, s. 1; 1854-5, c. 21; 1889, c. 555; 1891, c. 532; 1893, c. 4; 1893, c. 17; 1893, c. 349; 1901, c. 364.

See section 7540. Land covered by navigable water is not subject to entry except as herein provided: Bell v. Smith, 171-116; Barfoot v. Willis, 178-200.

Entry of riparian owner for purpose of erecting wharf is confined to straight lines including front of his own land: Holley v. Smith, 132-36; Bond v. Wool, 107-139—and such owner acquires absolute right in land up to deep water, Bond v. Wool, 107-139—and may erect wharf next to land up to deep water and by entry obtain title, Ibid.; Gregory v. Forbes, 96-77. Only owner of abutting land can make entry: Zimmerman v. Robinson, 114-39; R. R. v. Way, 169-1. Right of riparian owner to construct wharves is subject to legislative control, and also regulations of adjoining incorporated town: Bond v. Wool, 107-139. Right granted can only be transferred by conveyance of abutting land: Zimmerman v. Robinson, 114-39; Land Co. v. Hotel, 132-517. Effect of change in the nature of the land: R. R. v. Way, 172-774. The low-water mark is the boundary of the adjacent land: Shannonhouse v. White, 171-16.

Duty of incorporated town, upon application of riparian owner, to regulate line to which wharves may be built: Wool v. Edenton, 113-33, 117-1; Wool v. Saunders, 108-730—and this performance of duty may be enforced by courts, Wool v. Edenton, 113-33.

State can only grant land under navigable water for wharves, and county commissioners have no power to authorize building of wharf for purpose of public road: Gregory v. Forbes, 96-77.

Grant to riparian owner of land covered by navigable water for purpose of erecting wharves, etc., conveys only easement therein: Land Co. v. Hotel, 132-517; R. R. v. Way, 169-1.

Riparian owner has right to erect and maintain wharves subject to provisions of section declaring that navigation shall not be obstructed: Riddick v. Dunn, 145-34.

For right of fisheries on land entered, see section 1964 and annotations thereunder.

7544. Certain lakes not to be sold. White lake, Black lake, Waccamaw lake, and any other lake in Bladen, Columbus, or Cumberland counties, containing five hundred acres or more, shall never be sold nor conveyed to any person, firm, or corporation, but shall always be and remain the property of the state of North Carolina for the use and benefit of all the people of the state.

7545. Void grants; not color of title. Every entry made, and every grant issued, for any lands not authorized by this subchapter to be entered or granted, shall be void; and every grant of land made since the sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, in pursuance of the statutes regulating entries and grants, shall, if such land or any portion thereof has been heretofore granted by this state, so far as relates to any such land heretofore granted, be absolutely void for all purposes whatever, shall confer no rights upon the grantee therein or those claiming under such grantee, and shall in no case and under no circumstances constitute any color of title to any person.

Rev., s. 1699; Code, s. 2755; R. C., c. 42, s. 2; 1893, c. 490.

NOTE.—This section was amended as to Moore county by 1909, c. 896.

For entries on Slick Rock creek in Graham county, see 1913, c. 112.

See annotations under sections 428 and 7540. Entry made and grant issued in violation of provisions of chapter, void: Holley v. Smith, 130-85; Dosh v. Lumber Co., 128-86; Walker v. Parker, 169-150.

Provisions of section that junior grant shall be color of title so far as it covers land previously granted does not apply to grants issued since March 6, 1893: Weaver v. Love, 146-415; Land Co. v. Wooten, 177-248.

Though grant from state covers same land included in older grant, yet, title being no longer in state, junior grant is nevertheless color of title, which will ripen into complete title by adverse possession: Weaver v. Love, 146-415.

Adverse possession of plaintiffs, under a junior grant (which was color of title) from October, 1888, to December, 1897, vested the title in them as against owners of legal title under a senior grant, it not appearing that any of latter were exempt from operation of statute of limitations by reason of any disability, and a married woman who acquired no title by another junior grant issued to her cannot use her disability to defeat rights of plaintiffs: Berry v. Lumber Co., 141-386.

ART. 2. ENTRY-TAKER

7546. Election and term of office. The board of commissioners of the several counties shall elect one person to receive entries of claims for lands within each county; and such entry-taker shall hold his office for four years.

Rev., s. 1700; Code, s. 2756.

Entry-taker cannot hereunder appoint deputy: Pearson v. Powell, 100-86; Maxwell v. Wallace, 38-593. Acts done by one in capacity of deputy cannot be validated by subsequent acquiescence of entry-taker: Maxwell v. Wallace, 38-593. Entry made in presence of entry-taker, but without his authority, is void: Pearson v. Powell, 100-86.

7547. Oath of office; fees. The entry-taker shall take the oath of office and receive the fees, and no other, prescribed in the chapters respectively entitled Oaths and Salaries and Fees.

Rev., s. 1703; Code, s. 2760; 1868-9, c. 173, s. 5.

7548. Bond required. Every entry-taker shall enter into bond in the sum of five hundred dollars, payable to the state, with sufficient surety, approved by the county commissioners, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

Rev., s. 304; Code, s. 2758; 1868-9, c. 173, s. 3.

For action on official bonds, see section 354.

7549. Office of entry-taker at courthouse. The entry-taker shall keep his office at the courthouse of his county, or within one mile thereof, on pain of forfeiting one hundred dollars to the county, to be sued for by the county treasurer.

Rev., s. 1704; Code, s. 2759; 1868-9, c. 173, s. 4.

7550. Annual returns. Every entry-taker shall make return to the secretary of state annually, on the first day of January, of all lands entered with him, under a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Rev., s. 1705; Code, s. 2775; R. C., c. 42, s. 18; 1796, c. 455, s. 9; 1881, c. 265.

7551. Penalty for failure to make returns; how recovered. The secretary of state shall furnish the attorney-general, at every spring term of the superior court of Wake county, with a certificate of failure in every case where an entry-taker shall fail to make return according to law; and the attorney-general shall move for judgment against such entry-taker and his sureties, and the courts shall give judgment accordingly.

Rev., s. 1706; Code, s. 2776; R. C., c. 42, s. 19; 1833, c. 15.

7552. Warrants issued by successor in office. In all cases where an entry is made, and the entry-taker dies or resigns before a warrant is issued thereupon, his successor shall issue a warrant.

Rev., s. 1702; Code, s. 2772; R. C., c. 42, s. 15; 1835, c. 19.

7553. Register of deeds acts in case of vacancy. When a vacancy exists in the office of entry-taker, the register of deeds shall act as entry-taker until such vacancy is filled by an election by the commissioners. The register of deeds, in such case, shall take charge of the books belonging to the office, shall discharge all the duties and receive the emoluments, and shall be subject to the rules, regulations, and penalties prescribed for entry-takers.

Rev., s. 1701; Code, s. 2757; 1868-9, c. 100, s. 2; 1868-9, c. 173, s. 2.

Section referred to in Pearson v. Powell, 100-88.

ART. 3. ENTRIES

7554. Who entitled to make entries. Any citizen of this state, and all persons who come into the state with the bona fide intent of becoming residents and citizens thereof, have the right and privilege of making entries of, and obtaining grants for, vacant and unappropriated lands.

Rev., s. 1692; Code, s. 2754; 1869-70, c. 19, s. 1.

Legislation as to grants of Cherokee lands explained in Westfelt v. Adams, 159-409. As to entry by a resident Cherokee indian, see Colvord v. Monroe, 63-288—by nonresident who has not expressed intention of becoming resident, Wilson v. Land Co., 77-445—by nonresident, grant being issued to a person qualified to hold lands, Ibid.—by nonresident coming into state with intention of becoming citizen, Mackridge v. Howerton, 72-221—by two persons, one of whom is nonresident, Weaver v. Love, 146.

Even if an alien is prohibited from entering lands, he can nevertheless hold as against all others except the state: Johnston v. Lumber Co., 144-720, and cases cited.

A railroad company has no authority to acquire land under this section, either directly or through a trustee: Wallace v. Moore, 178-114.

Land subject to entry, and grant issued therefor, such grant cannot be collaterally attacked for fraud, irregularity or other cause: Janney v. Blackwell, 138-437; Dosh v. Lumber Co., 128-84; Wyman v. Taylor, 124-431; Gilchrist v. Middleton, 107-663, 108-705; Brown v. Brown, 103-213; Dugger v. McKesson, 100-1; Harshaw v. Taylor, 48-513; Barwick v. Wood, 48-312; Stanmire v. Welch, 48-214; Stanmire v. Taylor, 48-210; McCormick v. Monroe, 46-14; Munroe v. McCormick, 41-85; Lovinggood v. Burgess, 44-408; Stanmire v. Powell, 35-312; Tate v. Greenlee, 9-231; Strother v. Cathey, 5-162; Reynolds v. Flinn, 2-106.

Land not subject to entry, grant void, and may be attacked collaterally: Anderson v. Meadows, 159-404; Janney v. Blackwell, 138-437; Holley v. Smith, 130-85; Dew v. Pyke, 145-300; Dosh v. Lumber Co., 128-84; Gilchrist v. Middleton, 107-663, 108-705; Brown v. Brown, 103-213; Dugger v. McKesson, 100-1; Barnett v. Wood, 58-433; Harshaw v. Taylor, 48-513; Barwick v. Wood, 48-312; Stanmire v. Taylor, 48-210; McCormick v. Monroe, 46-14; Lovinggood v. Burgess, 44-408; Stanmire v. Powell, 35-312; Strother v. Cathey, 5-162; University v. Sawyer, 1-159, 3-98; Avery v. Strother, 1-558.

Interesting discussion of action to quiet title claimed by defendants by adverse possession under a grant obtained by entry of land under this section: Weaver v. Love, 146-415.

7555. Entries in writing, with description of land. The claimant of land shall produce to the entry-taker a writing, signed by such claimant, setting forth where the land is situated, the nearest water-courses and remarkable places, and such water-courses and remarkable places as may be therein, the natural boundaries and the lines of any other person, if any, which divide it from other lands; and every such writing shall be one-quarter sheet of paper at least.

Rev., s. 1707; Code, s. 2765; R. C., c. 42, s. 11; 1777, c. 114, s. 5; 1783, c. 185, s. 11; 1885, c. 132; 1891, c. 70; 1893, cc. 120, 270; 1903, c. 272, s. 3.

As to sufficiency of description, see Walker v. Parker, 169-150; Wallace v. Barlow, 165-676; Cain v. Downing, 161-593; Call v. Robinett, 147-615; Fisher v. Owen, 144-649; Grayson v. English, 115-358; McDiarmid v. McMillan, 58-29; Currie v. Gibson, 57-25; Ashley v. Sumner, 57-121; Horton v. Cook, 54-270; Fuller v. Williams, 45-162; Munroe v. McCormick, 41-85; Allen v. Gilreath, 41-252; Johnston v. Shelton, 39-85; Harris v. Ewing, 21-369.

After survey and issuance of grant, the entry cannot be attacked collaterally for vagueness: Call v. Robinett, 147-615. Where entry is too vague to give notice, it cannot be aided by parol evidence: Ibid. But where the first entry is too vague, and it is rendered more definite by a survey before a second entry, it is sufficient notice: Ibid.; Lovin v. Carver, 150-710; Cain v. Downing, 161-593.

Requirement that entry shall set out "nearest water-courses," etc., merely directory: Harris v. Ewing, 21-369.

Entry-taker has no authority to act upon application for land not situated in his county, and entry of application in such case is void: Harris v. Norman, 96-59; Lunsford v. Bostinon, 16-483; Avery v. Strother, 1-558.

Cases referring to section: In re Williams, 146-268; Walker v. Carpenter, 144-677.

7556. Duty of entry-taker. The entry-taker shall immediately endorse the same with the name of the claimant, the number of acres claimed, and date of the entry; and shall copy the same in a book well bound, and ruled with a large margin into spaces of equal distance, each space to contain one entry only, and every entry to be made in the order of time in which it shall be received, and numbered in the margin. The entry-taker shall thereupon cause a copy of the entry to be posted for thirty days at three public places in the township or townships in which the land covered by the entry is located. A copy of the entry shall also be posted for thirty days at the courthouse door of the county in which such land lies, and advertised for thirty days in a newspaper published at the county-seat of such county. If there be no newspaper published in such county, then the advertisement provided for shall be made in the nearest newspaper.

Rev., s. 1708; Code, s. 2765; 1903, c. 272, s. 3.

Notice must be published by the entry-taker: Walker v. Parker, 169-150; Beer v. Lumber Co., 170-337; Garrison v. Williams, 150-674.

Entry made on books of entry-taker by person in his presence, but without authority, is void: Pearson v. Powell, 100-86—also entry made by person in capacity of deputy, Maxwell v. Wallace, 38-593. Entry-taker's books are no notice of prior entry: Merrill v. Sloan, 5-121. Duties of entry-takers defined: Harris v. Norman, 96-61. Section referred to in In re Drewry, 129-457.

7557. Protest filed; bonds required. If any person shall claim title to or an interest in the land covered by the entry, or any part thereof, he shall, within the time of the advertisement as above provided, file his protest in writing with the entry-taker against the issuing of a warrant thereon; and upon the filing of such protest, the entry-taker shall certify copies of the entry and protest to the superior court; thereupon a notice shall be issued by the clerk of the superior court to both parties, commanding them to appear before the clerk in twenty days and file their respective bonds for costs as in other cases where the title to real estate is in controversy, and to the claimant to appear at the next term of the court and show cause why the entry shall not be declared inoperative and void. This section shall not deprive either party of the advantage of prosecuting or defending without giving bond, as provided in other cases.

Rev., s. 1709; Code, s. 2765; 1903, c. 272, s. 3; 1907, c. 66, s. 1.

General nature of proceedings in protest explained: In re Williams, 146-268; Bowser v. Wescott, 145-56. The right of protest is given only to those who claim an interest in the land, and protestant must assert his title: Walker v. Parker, 169-150; In re Williams, 146-268; In re Drewry, 130-342, overruling same case in 129-457.

Proceedings of protest against enterer on state's lands is not a civil action, but is to determine right of enterer, and burden of proof is on enterer to show, as against protestant alone, that land was vacant: Bowser v. Wescott, 145-56; In re Williams, 146-268; Walker v. Parker, 169-150; Cain v. Downing, 161-593. What the enterer and protestant must show, and who has the burden of proof: Land Co. v. Maxwell, 176-140; Walker v. Parker, 169-150.

Proceeding hereunder cannot be terminated by protestant taking a nonsuit. He may withdraw his protest, but he remains a party to the proceeding and may except to form of judgment and appeal therefrom, he being bound by the judgment: In re Williams, 146-268. For form of judgment in proceeding hereunder and taxation of costs, see Ibid.

Protest may be dismissed when not in proper form, but it is within discretion of the court to allow an amended protest to be filed: Gold v. Maxwell, 172-149. The time for filing protest is mandatory, and is a condition annexed to the right, and not a statute of limitations: Garrison v. Williams, 150-674.

Upon insufficient notice given claimant, alias notice should be issued: Lumber Co. v. Coffey, 144-560.

Where protestant shows that grant was issued to his grantor prior to entry by claimant, not error for court below to refuse to dismiss action under Hinsdale act, or to refuse to charge jury in favor of protestant if they believed the evidence, the right of entry being on "vacant and unappropriated land": Lumber Co. v. Coffey, 144-560. Not necessary that protestant make out a perfect chain of title, with no link unbroken, as in ejectment: Ibid. Protestant cannot introduce a grant to a third person under whom he does not claim for the purpose of showing that the land is not vacant: Lumber Co. v. Clarke, 152-544. When enterer introduces a valid grant, issued prior to his, it is not necessary for protestant to show a connected title therewith: Babb v. Mfg. Co., 150-139.

Proceeding in case of two entries on the same land taken in two counties: Ullery v. Guthrie, 148-417.

Section referred to in Johnson v. Wescott, 139-29.

7558. Payment of price; lapse of entry. All entries of land shall, in every event, be paid for within one year from the date of entry, unless a protest be filed to the entry, in which event they shall be paid for within twelve months after final judgment on the protest; and all entries of land not thus paid for shall become null and void, and may be entered by any other person.

Rev., s. 1731; Code, s. 2766; R. C., c. 42, s. 8; 1854-5, c. 49.

Provision that purchase money must be paid within time prescribed above not applicable to Cherokee lands: Frazier v. Gibson, 140-272; Kimsey v. Munday, 112-816.

Land must be paid for within statutory period or entry lapses: Gilchrist v. Middleton, 108-705; Wyman v. Taylor, 124-426; Wilson v. Land Co., 77-457; Bryson v. Dobson, 38-139; Plemmons v. Fore, 37-312.

7559. When entry lapses, subsequent entry valid. Whenever an entry of land shall be made in any entry-taker's office, and the enterer shall fail to have the land surveyed and pay the price for the same within the time limited by law, any person who may have made a subsequent entry for the same land may have the same surveyed and pay the price and have a grant.

Rev., s. 1710; Code, s. 2767; R. C., c. 42, s. 9; 1809, c. 771.

Enterer failing to pay price within statutory period, subsequent enterer paying price entitled to grant: Kimsey v. Munday, 112-816; Stanly v. Biddle, 57-383.

Entry by A. lapsing and subsequent entry by B. also lapsing, first one obtaining grant held to have title: Horton v. Cook, 54-270. One claiming under grant obtained upon lapsed entries cannot fall back upon subsequent entry made before issuance of such grant: Kimsey v. Munday, 112-816; Stanly v. Biddle, 57-383. Not necessary that entry should lapse before another can be made: Ibid.

Effect of notice of first entry upon person obtaining grant under junior entry: Gilchrist v. Middleton, 107-678; Dew v. Pyke, 145-300; Plemmons v. Fore, 37-312; Harris v. Ewing, 21-374; Featherston v. Mills, 15-598.

After lapse of so many years and without actual notice that purchase money for older grant had been paid, another might innocently enter and take out a grant for the land for his own benefit: Gilchrist v. Middleton, 108-705.

7560. Lapsed entries not renewed within one year. No lands entered on the books of the entry-taker, the entry of which shall be suffered to lapse by non-payment of the price thereof, shall be reëntered within one year after the time at which such entry shall lapse, by the person in whose name such entry was made, but such reëentry shall be void.

Rev., s. 1712; Code, s. 2768; R. C., c. 42, s. 10.

Section referred to in Gilechrist v. Middleton, 107-679.

7561. Entry for benefit of entry-taker. If any entry-taker shall desire to make an entry in his own name, the same shall be made in its proper place, before a justice of the peace of the county, not being a surveyor or assistant; which entry the justice shall return to the next meeting of the board of county commissioners, who shall insert it; and every entry made by or for such entry-taker, in any other manner, shall be void.

Rev., s. 1711; Code, s. 2773; R. C., c. 42, s. 16; 1777, c. 114, s. 17.

Entry made by entry-taker otherwise than as above is void: Terrell v. Manney, 6-375.

ART. 4. SURVEYS

7562. Warrant for survey issued. If no protest be filed, or where the protest is filed and the right of the claimant to make the entry is sustained, the entry-taker shall deliver to the party a copy of the entry with its proper number and a warrant to the surveyor to survey the same, which warrant shall contain a copy of the entry with its number and date, and a certificate that notice has been given as above provided, and that no protest has been filed, or that protest has been filed and that the court has decided in favor of the claimant. Each warrant shall be delivered to the surveyor in the order of time in which the entry was made.

Rev., s. 1713; Code, s. 2765; 1903, c. 272, s. 3.

When protest is withdrawn enterer is entitled to copy of entry and warrant of survey: In re Williams, 146-268. Where protestant withdraws protest, court cannot tax protestant with cost of survey of entry made after withdrawal, but all costs, including costs of any survey made by direction of court, should be taxed against him: Ibid.

7563. Duplicate warrants. When any person duly makes an entry of lands which has not become void by lapse of time, and upon which the entry-taker has issued his warrant of survey, and the same be lost by accident, the entry-taker, on due proof being made to his satisfaction, by affidavit of the claimant or the surveyor or deputy surveyor, may issue a duplicate warrant of survey, of the same tenor and date, taking care to set forth, on the face of such warrant, that the same is a duplicate; in which case such warrant shall be made as valid as the original.

7564. Surveys according to priority of entry. The surveyor shall survey all entries of land according to the priority of entry, paying due respect to the number of each warrant; and every grant obtained by any subsequent entry otherwise than is by this chapter directed, shall be void: Provided, nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any person who shall make a subsequent entry from surveying and obtaining a grant, as the law directs, for all such surplus land as shall remain, after the enterer of such land has surveyed his entry as aforesaid.

Rev., s. 1715; Code, s. 2770; R. C., c. 42, s. 13; 1787, c. 279.

Second entry good as to land remaining after survey of prior entry: Stanley v. Biddle, 57-383. Enterer cannot survey his own land even as deputy surveyor: Avery v. Walker, 8-140.

7565. Chainbearers sworn. No survey for the purpose of obtaining a grant shall be made until the chainbearers shall be sworn to measure justly and truly, and to deliver a true account thereof to the surveyor. The chainbearers shall actually measure the land surveyed. The surveyor is empowered to administer the oath.

Rev., s. 1717; Code, s. 2769; R. C., c. 42, s. 12; 1777, c. 114, s. 10.

Chainbearers must be sworn to measure justly and truly, and to deliver a true account thereof to surveyor: Avery v. Walker, 8-160.

Rev., s. 1716; Code, s. 2769; R. C., c. 42, s. 12; 1777, c. 114, s. 10; 1903, c. 272, s. 4.

The plots required to be made are evidence in a case involving boundaries: Lumber Co. v. Hutton, 152-537. Original plot part of grant for purpose of indicating shape and location of boundaries, though not conclusive evidence as to same: Redmond v. Mullenax, 113-505.

Line actually run, marked and corner made, party claiming under patent entitled to hold accordingly, notwithstanding mistake in patent: Higdon v. Rice, 119-623; Cherry v. Slade, 7-82.

Not necessary that entry should be so specified as to entirely identify boundaries, as survey is provided for that purpose: Harris v. Ewing, 21-373.

Rule of law that deeds and grants shall be so run as to include land actually surveyed with view to its execution: Higdon v. Rice, 119-626; Shaffer v. Gaynor, 117-15; Baxter v. Wilson, 95-143; Houser v. Belton, 32-358; Hough v. Horne, 20-369; Haley v. Morgan, 19-425; Cherry v. Slade, 7-82; Bradford v. Hill, 2-22; Reed v. Schenck, 2-415.

Section referred to: In re Drewry, 130-343.

7567. Plots and warrant sent to secretary of state. The surveyor shall, within one year, transmit the plots, together with the warrant or order of survey, to the office of the secretary of state, or deliver them to the claimant. The secretary of state shall, on receipt of the plots, file one in his office, and attach the other to the grant.

Rev., ss. 1718, 1734; Code, s. 2769; R. C., c. 42, s. 12; 1777, c. 114.

Surveyor required to transmit plots to secretary of state: Higdon v. Rice, 119-631; Redmond v. Mullenax, 113-512. Original plot made part of grant, though not conclusive evidence as to shape and location of land: Higdon v. Rice, 119-623; Redmond v. Mullenax, 113-505.

7568. Special surveyor appointed, if no county surveyor. When the office of county surveyor is vacant, the county commissioners may appoint a special surveyor to survey any lands that may be entered; and the plots and certificates of such special surveyor, accompanied by a copy of the order of the county commissioners appointing him, shall be held valid, as if done by a county surveyor duly elected.

Rev., s. 1719; Code, s. 2769; R. C., c. 42, s. 12; 1777, c. 114, s. 10.

7569. Special surveyor, when county surveyor interested. When a county surveyor wishes to have lands surveyed in a county where he acts as principal surveyor, for the purpose of obtaining a grant, the board of county commissioners of the county shall appoint some person to make the survey, and the entry-taker shall direct his warrant of survey to such person; and all certificates, surveys, and plots of the same shall be made under the same regulations as prescribe the duty of the county surveyor in similar cases.

Rev., s. 1721; Code, s. 2774; R. C., c. 42, s. 17; 1828, c. 23.

Enterer cannot make his own survey: Avery v. Walker, 8-160.

7570. Record of surveys to be kept. The county commissioners of the several counties of the state shall provide a suitable book or books for recording of surveys of entries of land, to be known as Record of Surveys, to be kept in the office of register of deeds as other records are kept. And such record shall have an alphabetical and numerical index, the numerical index to run consecutively. And it shall be the duty of every county surveyor or his deputy surveyor who makes a survey to record in such book a perfect and complete record of all surveys of lands made upon any warrant issued upon any entry, and date and sign same as of the day such survey was made.

Rev., s. 1722; 1905, c. 242.

Record of survey is to be kept in office of entry-taker, to give notice of all surveys; it must be definite enough to identify the land: Lovin v. Carver, 150-710.

7571. Former surveys recorded. Where any ex-county surveyor is alive and has correct minutes or notes of surveys of land on entries made by him during his term of office, it shall be lawful for him to record and index such survey in such record of surveys, and the county commissioners shall pay for such services ten cents for each survey so recorded and indexed.

Rev., s. 1725; 1905, c. 242, s. 2.

7572. What record must show; received as evidence. All surveys so recorded in such book shall show the number of the tract of land, the name of the party entering, and the name of the assignee if there be any assignee, and shall be duly indexed, both alphabetically and numerically, in such record in the name of the party making the entry, and the name of the assignee if there be any assignee. Such record of any surveyor or deputy surveyor when so made shall be read in evidence in any action or proceeding in any court: Provided, that if such record differs from the original certificates of survey heretofore made or on file in office of secretary of state, such original or certified copy of the certificate in secretary of state's office shall control.

Rev., s. 1723; 1905, c. 242, ss. 2, 3, 6.

7573. Fees for recording. For recording and indexing such surveys the surveyor may charge twenty-five cents, which shall be paid by the party for whom the survey is made; and any surveyor shall not be required to make any survey until his fees provided by law are paid, including the twenty-five cents for recording and indexing.

Rev., s. 1724; 1905, c. 242, s. 4.

7574. Penalty for failure to make record. Any county surveyor or deputy surveyor failing to make such record of any survey within sixty days after he makes a survey shall forfeit and pay to any party who may sue for the same two hundred dollars, and be subject to be removed from office by the board of county commissioners, and if any surveyor is removed the county commissioners shall appoint his successor, and all papers and records of a public nature in the possession of such surveyor so removed, or who may die, shall be turned over to his successor in office.

Rev., s. 1726; 1905, c. 242, s. 5; 1907, c. 579, s. 1.

ART. 5. GRANTS

7575. Price to be paid for land. There shall be paid to the state treasurer one dollar and fifty cents an acre for every acre of land that may be entered. All lands entered under this subchapter for which a grant has been obtained at the price of one dollar and fifty cents an acre shall be free from all claim, title, or interest that is now vested in the state of North Carolina or in the state board of education. But this section shall not have the effect to make valid grants declared to be void under article one of this subchapter.

Rev., s. 1733; 1909, c. 447.

7576. Price paid state treasurer. The state treasurer shall receive the money for vacant and unappropriated lands upon the presentation to him of the certificate of the secretary of state, setting forth the number and date of the entry, and the quantity of acres found by the surveyor to be vacant, as the same may appear by the returns made to him from the surveyor or entry-taker, or from the entry-taker's warrant, or the plots of survey.

Rev., s. 1732; Code, s. 2777; R. C., c. 42, s. 20; 1827, c. 23; 1829, c. 30.

Payment without certificate of secretary does not entitle party to grant: Buchanan v. Fitzgerald, 41-121.

7577. Grant issued on auditor's certificate. No grant shall issue on the treasurer's receipt for the money; but the auditor shall make out and deliver to the secretary of state a certificate, conformable to each receipt by him countersigned, on which the secretary shall issue the grant.

Rev., s. 1728; Code, s. 2778; R. C., c. 42, s. 21; 1799, c. 525, s. 4.

7578. Manner of issuing grant. The secretary of state, on application of claimants, shall make out grants for all surveys returned to his office, which grants shall be authenticated by the governor, countersigned by the secretary, and recorded in his office. The date of the entry,.....the number of the survey from the certificate of survey upon which the grant is founded shall be inserted in every grant, and a copy of the plot shall be attached to the grant; and no grant shall issue upon any survey unless the same be signed by the surveyor of the county. Upon certificate from the entry-taker that the claimant has assigned his interest under the entry, a grant shall be issued in the name of the assignee: Provided, that the assignee is a citizen and resident of this state, or has come into the state with the bona fide intent of becoming a resident and citizen thereof.

Rev., ss. 1729, 1734, 1735; Code, s. 2779, c. 522; R. C., c. 42, s. 22; 1783, c. 185, s. 14; 1796, c. 455; 1799, c. 525, s. 2.

Grants must be issued under the seal of state, and a paper without such seal is not a grant: Howell v. Hurley, 170-798—but the paper may be an abstract of a grant and the grant is presumed to have been regularly issued, S. c., 170-401. What is sufficient issuing by secretary of state: Fowler v. Development Co., 158-48. What is sufficient “countersigning”: Richards v. Lumber Co., 158-54.

Evidence to be received and acted upon by secretary in issuing grant: Wool v. Saunders, 108-729—and discretion of secretary in issuing same, Ibid. Authority to issue grant: Harris v. Norman, 96-59; Terrell v. Manney, 6-375. Time within which grant may issue: Krous v. Long, 41-259. Whether the grant corresponds with the entry is a question for the officers issuing the grant, and is not open to attack by a stranger to the title or by subsequent claimant: Call v. Robinett, 147-615.

An assignment of entry, though procured by fraud, does not raise presumption of fraud, and subsequent purchasers for value without notice of the fraud will be protected: Phillips v. Lumber Co., 151-519.

Effect on grant where record fails to show that great seal was affixed to grant: Broadwell v. Morgan, 142-475; Aycock v. R. R., 89-323; Steele v. Anthony, 2-98—where secretary fails to countersign it, Hunter v. Williams, 8-221—where it contains clause of reservation, Brown v. Rickard, 107-639—where it was taken out upon lapsed entry, Wilson v. Land Co., 77-445; Horton v. Cook, 54-270. Effect of mistake in grant: Lunsford v. Bostion, 16-483; Van Pelt v. Pugh, 18-210. Effect where grant not recorded in office of secretary of state: Slade v. Green, 9-226—of mistake in recording grant, Van Pelt v. Pugh, 18-210; Hughes v. Debnam, 53-131.

Where two grants issued for same land, second conveys no title: Stewart v. Keener, 131-486; see Dew v. Pyke, 145-300. As to priority of grants issued same day, see Reddick v. Leggat, 7-539; Andrews v. Mulford, 2-311; Foreman v. Tyson, 2-496.

First grant, not first entry, gives title: Seekright v. Bogan, 2-176; Andrews v. Mulford, 2-318; Dickey v. Hoodenpile, 2-358.

Grant issued cannot be made void by subsequent legislation: State v. Spencer, 114-770; Gilechrist v. Middleton, 108-705.

7579. Registration of grants. Every person obtaining a grant shall, within two years after such grant is perfected, cause the same to be registered in the county where the land lies; and any person may cause to be there registered any certified copy of a grant from the office of the secretary of state, which shall have the same effect as if the original had been registered.

Rev., s. 1729; Code, s. 2779; R. C., c. 42, s. 22; R. S., c. 42, s. 24; 1783, c. 185, s. 14; 1796, c. 455; 1799, c. 525, s. 2.

Act of 1885, chapter 147 (Connor Act), not applicable to registration of grants, same being governed by this section: Wyman v. Taylor, 124-426. It is only required that the grantee shall have his grant registered in the proper county within two years: Dew v. Pyke, 145-300. The time for such registration may be extended: Ibid.; Hill v. Jackson, 31-333. The registration of the grant is constructive notice: Ritchie v. Fowler, 132-788.

Great seal of state, together with certificate of secretary of state, sufficient authority to warrant registration of grant, without certificate of clerk: Barcello v. Hapgood, 118-712; Coltrane v. Lamb, 109-209; Ray v. Stewart, 105-472.

Registration of grant, describing land by metes and bounds, and referring to another registered grant, is not defective for failure to copy entire grant: Weeks v. Wilkins, 134-516.

Grants are proven by the seal, but the fact that a scroll or imitation of seal does not appear of record does not invalidate registry of grant: Broadwell v. Morgan, 142-475.

For extension of time for registration of grants, see section 7593.

7580. Grant issued in case of claimant's death. In case of the death of any person having made an entry of lands, pending the same or before making out the grant, the secretary shall issue the grant in the name of the decedent; and those interested, as heirs at law, devisees, tenants in dower, by the curtesy, or otherwise, shall have the same estate as if the land had been granted during the life of the decedent.

Rev., s. 1730; Code, s. 2780; R. C., c. 42, s. 23; 1715, c. 44, s. 6; 1798, c. 493, s. 6.

Enterer's death before grant, same issued in decedent's name: Henry v. McCoy, 131-587.

7581. When secretary of state may withhold grant. When application is made for a grant, if the secretary of state has reason to believe that the land covered by any entry and the surveys made in pursuance of the same is the property of the state board of education, he may, in his discretion, withhold the issuance of a grant for same until the engineer of the state board of education or surveyor appointed by the board shall have examined into the matter and made his report. And if the engineer or surveyor shall report that the lands in question are the property of the state board of education and not subject to entry, the secretary of state shall not issue a grant on such entry and surveys. If the secretary of state has reason to believe that the land for which a grant is sought has already been granted and does not belong to the state, he shall not issue grant for the same until it appears to his satisfaction that the land does belong to the state and is subject to entry.

Rev., s. 1727; 1903, c. 272, s. 3.

Prior to adoption of this section, when it appeared from warrant and survey that the law had been complied with, the claimant was entitled to a grant: Wool v. Saunders, 108-729.

7582. Cutting timber on land before obtaining a grant. If any person shall make an entry of any lands, and before perfecting title to same shall enter upon such lands and cut therefrom any wood, trees, or timber, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. One-half of any fine collected under this section shall be paid to the informer and one-half to the school fund of the county in which the land is situated. Any person found guilty under the provisions of this section shall further pay to the state double the value of the wood, trees, or timber taken from the land, and it shall be the duty of the solicitor of the district in which the land lies to sue for the same.

Rev., s. 3741; 1903, c. 272, s. 4.

7583. Lands conveyed to United States for inland waterway. For the purpose of aiding in the construction of a proposed inland waterway by the United States from the city of Norfolk, in the state of Virginia, to Beaufort inlet, in the state of North Carolina, the secretary of state is hereby authorized to issue to the United States of America a grant to the land located within a distance of one thousand feet on either side of the center of the said inland waterway, in so far as such land is subject to grant by the state of North Carolina, the said grant to issue upon a certificate furnished to the secretary of state by the secretary of war, or by any authorized officer of the corps of engineers of the United States army, or by any other authorized official, exercising control of the construction of the said waterway.

Wherever, in the construction of the said inland waterway or in the improvement of any other waterway within this state, lands theretofore submerged shall be raised above the water by deposit of excavated material, the lands so formed shall become the property of the United States for a distance of one thousand feet on either side of the center of such canal or channel, and the secretary of state is hereby authorized to issue to the United States a grant to the land so formed within the distance above mentioned, the grant to issue upon a certificate furnished to the secretary of state by some authorized official of the United States as above provided.

7584. Card index system for grants. The secretary of state shall install in his office a card index system for grants, and every warrant, plot, and survey that can be found shall be encased in separate envelopes. Each card and envelope shall show substantially the following:

.....County.Acres.
Name
Grant No.	Issued.....
Grant Book	Page.....
Entry No.	Entered.....
File No.
Location
Remarks:

Such grant books as are old and falling to pieces shall be recopied, and whenever any part of the record of a grant is partly gone or destroyed the secretary of state shall restore same, if he can do so with accuracy from the description in the plot and survey upon which the grant was issued and original record made.

1909, c. 505, ss. 1, 2, 3.

ART. 6. CORRECTION OF GRANTS

7585. Change of county line before grant issued or registered. All grants issued on entries for lands which were entered in one county, and before the issuing of the grants therefor, or the registration of the grants, by the change of former county lines, or the establishment of new lines, the lands so entered were placed in a county, or in counties different from that in which they were situate, and the grants were registered in the county where the entries were made, shall be good and valid, and the registration of the grants shall have the same force and effect as if they had been registered in the county where the lands were situate; and all persons claiming under and by such grants may have them, or a certified copy of the same, from the office of the secretary of state, or from the office of the register of deeds when they had been erroneously registered, recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county or counties where the lands lie, and such registration shall have the same force and effect as if the grants had been duly registered in such county or counties.

Rev., s. 1736; 1897, c. 37.

The provisions of this section applied in Wyman v. Taylor, 124-426. Formation of new county after entry, grant issued as of lands in new county: McMillan v. Gambill, 106-359.

7586. Entries in wrong county. Whereas many citizens of the state, on making entries of lands near the lines of the county wherein they reside, either for want of proper knowledge of the land laws of the state or not knowing the county lines, have frequently made entries and extended their surveys on such entries into other counties than those wherein they were made, and obtained grants on the same; and whereas doubts have existed with respect to the validity of the titles to lands situated as aforesaid, so far as they extend into other counties than those where the entries were made; for remedy whereof it is hereby declared that all grants issued on entries made for lands situated as aforesaid shall be good and valid against any entries thereafter made or grants issued thereon.

Rev., s. 1737; Code, s. 2784; R. C., c. 42, s. 27; 1805, c. 675; 1834, c. 17.

Provisions of this section applicable where entry of land lying partly in two counties, which is unknown to grantee, is made only in one county: Harris v. Norman, 96-59; Lunsford v. Bostion, 16-483; Avery v. Strother, 1-558. See, also, Ullery v. Guthrie, 148-417.

7587. Errors in surveys of plots corrected. Whenever there may be an error by the surveyor in plotting or making out the certificate for the secretary's office, or the secretary shall make a mistake in making out the courses agreeable to such returns, or misname the claimant, or make other mistake, so as such claimant shall be injured thereby, the claimant may prefer a petition to the superior court of the county in which the land lies, setting forth the injury which he might sustain in consequence of such error or mistake, with all the matters and things relative thereto; and the court may hear testimony respecting the truth of the allegations set forth in the petition; and if it shall appear by the testimony, from the return of the surveyor or the error of the secretary, that the patentee is liable to be injured thereby, the court shall direct the clerk to certify the facts to the secretary of state, who shall file the same in his office, and correct the error in the patent, and likewise in the records of his office. The costs of such suit shall be paid by the petitioner, except when any person may have made himself a party to prevent the prayer of the petitioner being granted, in which case the costs shall be paid as the court may decree. The benefits granted by this section to the patentees of land shall be extended in all cases to persons claiming by, from, or under their grants, by descent, devise, or purchase. When any error is ordered to be rectified, and the same has been carried through from the grant into mesne conveyances, the court shall direct a copy of the order to be recorded in the register's book of the county: Provided, no such petition shall be brought but within three years after the date of the patent; and if brought after that time, the court shall dismiss the same, and all proceedings had thereon shall be null and of no effect: Provided further, nothing herein shall affect the rights or interest of any person claiming under a patent issued between the period of the date of the grant alleged to be erroneous and the time of filing the petition, unless such person shall have had due notice of the filing of the petition, by service of a copy thereof, and an opportunity of defending his rights before the court according to the course of the common law.

Rev., s. 1738; Code, s. 2785; R. C., c. 42, s. 28; 1790, c. 326; 1798, c. 504; 1804, c. 655; 1814, c. 876.

7588. Resurvey of lands to correct grants. Persons who have heretofore entered or may hereafter enter vacant lands shall not be defeated in their just claims by mistakes or errors in the surveys and plots furnished by surveyors, but in every case where the purchase money has been paid into the state treasury within the time prescribed by law after entry and survey or plot furnished shall be found to be defective or erroneous, the party having thus made entry and paid the purchase price may obtain another warrant of survey from the entry-taker of the county where the land lies, and have his entry surveyed as is directed by existing laws, and on presenting a certificate of survey and two fair plots thereof to the secretary of state within six months after the payment of the purchase money, the party making such entry and paying such purchase price shall be entitled to receive, and it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to issue to him, the proper grant for the lands so entered.

Rev., s. 1739; 1901, c. 734.

7589. Lost seal replaced. In all cases where the seal annexed to a grant is lost or destroyed the governor may, on the certificate of the secretary of state that the grant was fairly obtained, cause the seal of the state to be affixed thereto.

Rev., s. 1740; Code, s. 2781; R. C., c. 42, s. 24; 1807, c. 727.

Section referred to in Ray v. Stewart, 105-473.

7590. Errors in grants corrected. If in issuing any grant the number of the grant or the name of the grantee or any material words or figures suggested by the context have been omitted or not correctly written or given, or the description in the body of the grant does not correspond with the plot and description in the surveyor's certificate attached to the grant, or if in recording the grant in his office the secretary of state has heretofore made or may hereafter make any mistake or omission by which any part of any grant has not been correctly recorded, the secretary of state shall, upon the application of any party interested and the payment to him of his lawful fees, correct the original grant by inserting in the proper place the words, figures, or names omitted or not correctly given or suggested by the context; or if the description in the grant does not correspond with the surveyor's plot or certificate, he shall make the former correspond with the latter as the true facts may require. In case the party interested prefer it, the secretary of state shall issue a duplicate of the original grant, including therein the corrections made; and in those cases in which grants have not been correctly recorded he shall make the proper corrections upon his records, or by rerecording, as he may prefer; and any grant corrected as aforesaid may be recorded in any county of the state as other grants are recorded, and have relation to the time of the entry and date of the grant as in other cases.

Rev., s. 1741; 1889, c. 460.

NOTE.—In Jackson and Macon counties, corrections under this section may be made only after written notice to all persons interested. Rev., s. 1742; 1901, c. 505.

Mistake in grant caused by either surveyor or secretary of state cannot prejudice grantee in certain cases: 2-378 (note by reporter).

7591. Irregular entries validated. Wherever persons have prior to January first, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, irregularly entered lands and have paid the fees required by law to the secretary of state, and have obtained grants for such lands duly executed, the title to the lands shall not be affected by reason of such irregular entries; and the grants are hereby declared to be as valid as if such entries had been properly made.

Rev., s. 1743; Code, s. 2761; 1868-9, c. 100, s. 4; 1868-9, c. 173, s. 6; 1874-5, c. 48.

NOTE.—For validation of grants made prior to 1820, when the surveys were signed by the deputy surveyor, see Rev., s. 1745; Code, s. 2783; R. C., c. 42, s. 26.

For validation of grants made prior to 1829, to surveyors or deputy surveyors who had themselves made the surveys, see Rev., s. 1746; Code, s. 2782; R. C., c. 42, s. 25.

For validating irregular entries, see Wyman v. Taylor, 124-426.

7592. Grants signed by deputy secretary of state validated. Where state grants have heretofore been issued and the name of the secretary of state has been affixed thereto by his deputy or chief clerk, or by any one purporting to act in such capacity, such grants are hereby declared valid; but nothing herein contained shall interfere with vested rights.

Rev., s. 1744; 1905, c. 512.

Section referred to in Richards v. Lumber Co., 158-54.

7593. Time for registering grants extended. All grants from the state of North Carolina of lands and interests in land heretofore made, which were required or allowed to be registered within a time specified by law, or in the grants themselves, may be registered in the counties in which the lands lie respectively at any time within two years from the first day of January, nineteen hundred and eighteen, notwithstanding the fact that such specified time has already expired, and all such grants heretofore registered after the expiration of such specified time shall be taken and treated as if they had been registered within such specified time: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be held or have the effect to divest any rights, titles, or equities in or to the land covered by such grants, or any of them, acquired by any person from the state of North Carolina by or through any entry or grant made or issued since such grants were respectively issued, or those claiming through or under such subsequent entry or grant.

Rev., s. 1747; 1893, c. 40; 1901, c. 175; 1905, c. 6; 1907, c. 805; 1909, c. 167; 1911, c. 182; Ex. sess. 1913, c. 27; Ex. sess. 1913, c. 45; 1915, c. 170; 1917, c. 84.

Time extended for registering grants, but same not affecting existing rights: Janney v. Blackwell, 138-437; Morehead v. Hall, 132-133; McCall v. Wilson, 101-598. See, also, Dew v. Pyke, 145-300.

ART. 7. GRANTS VACATED

7594. Civil action to vacate grant. When any person claiming title to lands under a grant or patent from the king of Great Britain, any of the lords proprietors of North Carolina, or from the state of North Carolina, shall consider himself aggrieved by any grant or patent issued or made since the fourth day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, to any other person, against law or obtained by false suggestions, surprise, or fraud, the person aggrieved may bring a civil action in the superior court for the county in which such land may be, together with an authenticated copy of such grant or patent, briefly stating the grounds whereon such patent should be repealed and vacated, whereupon the grantee, patentee, or the person, owner, or claimant under such grant or patent, shall be required to show cause why the same shall not be repealed and vacated.

Rev., s. 1748; Code, s. 2786; R. C., 'c. 42, s. 29.

Grant can only be set aside at suit of state or of prior grantee: Crow v. Holland, 15-417. Action only available to senior against junior grantee: Wadsworth v. Cozard, 175-15; Henry v. McCoy, 131-588; State v. Bland, 123-739; McNamee v. Alexander, 109-246; Carter v. White, 101-30; Holland v. Crow, 34-275; Hoyt v. Rich, 20-677; Miller v. Twitty, 20-10; O'Kelly v. Clayton, 19-246; Hoyle v. Logan, 15-495; Crow v. Holland, 15-417; Featherston v. Mills, 15-596. Action must be founded on fraud or mistake: State v. Spencer, 114-778; McNamee v. Alexander, 109-246; Hoyt v. Rich, 20-677. The right to sue is limited to one claiming title to the land: Jones v. Riggs, 154-281. Action to set aside several grants in different counties: Hardwood Co. v. Waldo, 161-196. A grant cannot be attacked collaterally: Waldo v. Wilson, 173-689.

7595. Judgment recorded in secretary of state's office. If, upon verdict or demurrer, the court believe that the patent or grant was made against law or obtained by fraud, surprise, or upon untrue suggestions, they may vacate the same; and a copy of such judgment, after being recorded at large, shall be filed by the petitioner in the secretary's office, where it shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose; and the secretary shall note in the margin of the original record of the grant the entry of the judgment, with a reference to the record in his office.

7596. Action by state to vacate grants. An action may be brought by the attorney-general, in the name of the state, for the purpose of vacating or annulling letters patent granted by the state, in the following cases:

1. When he has reason to believe that such letters patent were obtained by means of some fraudulent suggestion or concealment of a material fact, made by the person to whom the same were issued or made, or with his consent or knowledge; or

2. When he has reason to believe that such letters patent were issued through mistake, or in ignorance of a material fact; or

3. When he has reason to believe that the patentee, or those claiming under him, have done or omitted an act, in violation of the terms and conditions on which the letters patent were granted, or have by any other means forfeited the interest acquired under the same.

Rev., s. 1750; Code, s. 2788; C. C. P., s. 367.

Section only applicable where, upon canceling letters, land would revert in state: Henry v. McCoy, 131-589; State v. Bland, 123-739; State v. Bevers, 86-588. License is not letters patent, and this section not applicable thereto: Hargett v. Bell, 134-396. Action is brought only by attorney-general: Jones v. Riggs, 154-281. Attorney-general cannot of his own motion bring action under this section to vacate charter of incorporation: Attorney-General v. R. R., 134-481. Grant can only be vacated on part of state by proceedings under this section: Kimsey v. Munday, 112-830; see *Crow v. ART. 8. PHOSPHATE BEDS 7597. Phosphate beds in navigable waters entered. Any resident of this state who shall make affidavit before the clerk of the superior court of any county through which such navigable stream may flow, that he has discovered in any navigable stream or waters of this state any phosphate rock or phosphate deposit therein shall have authority and power to enter under the entry laws of this state so much of the bed of any such navigable stream or waters as shall not exceed in any one entry two miles in length up the middle of any such stream or water for the purpose of digging, mining, or removing any such deposit or rock.

Rev., s. 1751; 1891, c. 476.

7598. Grant obtained; term; royalty. Upon such affidavit being filed with the entry-taker, and upon a survey and plot being made of such entry by the county surveyor as is now required by law in cases of entry of land, being made and certified to the secretary of state with a copy of such affidavit and entry so made, the secretary of state shall issue a patent or grant to such person, his heirs or assigns, for a term of twenty-five years for the land, with the proviso and condition inserted therein that the grantee therein shall pay to the treasurer of the state at the end of every three months a royalty of one dollar per ton for every ton of the crude phosphate rock or deposit mined, dug, or removed.

Rev., s. 1752; 1891, c. 476, s. 2.

7599. Exclusive right to mine; bond for royalty. Such grantee, his heirs or assigns, shall have the exclusive right to mine, dig, or remove any such phosphate rock or deposit for the term of twenty-five years from the date of the patent upon paying the royalty of one dollar specified in the patent: Provided, however, that as a condition precedent to the granting of any such patent each company or person making any such entry shall enter into bond with sufficient surety in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the making of faithful and true returns to the treasurer of the state of the number of tons of phosphate rock and phosphate deposit so dug, mined, or removed, at the end of every month, and the punctual payment to the treasurer of the royalty of one dollar per ton upon every ton of the crude rock, without being steamed or dried, at the end of every three months, and the bond and sureties shall be subject to the approval now required by law for the bonds of state officers.

Rev., s. 1753; 1891, c. 476, s. 3.

7600. Navigation not obstructed by grantee. No grant issued under the provisions of this article shall confer upon the person receiving the same the right to obstruct the navigation of any such stream or water, nor confer upon such person or his assigns any other right than that granted to take, mine, or dig phosphate rock or deposit therefrom.

Rev., s. 1754; 1891, c. 476, s. 4.

7601. Fees for issuing grant for phosphate beds. No fee or cost shall be charged or collected by the secretary of state of any person or corporation receiving any patent or grant under this article, except the fee allowed by law to the secretary of state for issuing a patent under the entry laws of the state.

Rev., s. 1755; 1891, c. 476, s. 5.

7602. Failure to operate for two years vacates grant. Any person or corporation who shall fail to dig, mine or remove phosphate rock or deposit from any such stream or water to which he or it may be entitled under any patent or grant issued under the provisions of this article for the period of two years from the date of the patent, or after beginning digging, mining, or removing the same, shall fail to continue to so dig, mine, or remove the same for the period of two years, shall forfeit all rights therein granted, and the territory shall immediately thereupon become subject to entry under the provisions of this article without making the affidavit of the discovery of any such deposits or rocks.

Rev., s. 1756; 1891, c. 476, s. 6.

7603. Mining phosphate without grant. Any person or corporation resident of this state shall have the right to mine, dig, or remove phosphate rock or deposits from any of the navigable streams or waters in this state to which no exclusive patent or grant may have been issued, upon such person or corporation first entering into bond in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the treasurer of the state, for the payment of the same royalty, in the same manner and under the same regulations as are prescribed in this article for persons operating under a grant; but nothing in this section shall be construed to give to any such person or corporation any exclusive franchise or privilege to dig, mine, or remove any such phosphate rock or deposit from any stream or water of this state.

Rev., s. 1757; 1891, c. 476, s. 7.

7604. Mining phosphate rock in rivers. If any person shall dig, mine, or remove any phosphate rock or deposit from any of the navigable waters of this state, except for the purpose of prospecting and discovering as allowed by law, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall also forfeit and pay ten dollars per ton for every ton of phosphate rock or deposit so mined, dug, or removed, one-half to the use of the state and the other one-half to go to the informer.

Rev., s. 3744; 1891, c. 476, s. 8.

SUBCHAPTER II. LANDS CONTROLLED BY STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

ART. 9. SWAMP LANDS RECLAIMED

7605. Power in state board of education. The state board of education is invested with full power to adopt all necessary ways and means for causing so much of the swamp lands to be surveyed as it may deem capable of being reclaimed, and shall cause to be constructed such canals, ditches, roads, and other necessary works of improvement as it may deem proper and necessary.

Rev., s. 4036; Code, s. 2508; R. C., c. 66, s. 5; R. S., c. 67, s. 5; 1885, c. 70, ss. 1, 2, 4; 1899, c. 253, s. 5.

7606. Expenditures limited. The state board of education shall not lend or expend any part of the public moneys, stocks, funds, or property vested in it by law, or under its control, for the purpose of reclaiming lands, or for any other purpose whatsoever, except by the direction of the general assembly.

Rev., s. 4037; Code, ss. 2515, 2530; R. C., c. 66, s. 12; 1870-1, c. 279.

7607. Purchase and exchange of land. Whenever, in the process of draining, it may be necessary, in order to prevent a sacrifice of the interests of the state, to purchase small tracts owned by individuals, the corporation may buy them, or exchange for them some other portions of the swamp lands; and the lands thus acquired by the corporation shall be held by it as other swamp lands.

Rev., s. 4038; Code, s. 2517; R. C., c. 66, s. 14.

7608. Title vested in board by written consent. Whenever it is necessary to construct any such works on the lands of any individual proprietor, his written consent, without any formal deed of conveyance of the lands necessary to the work and its future enjoyment, shall vest the title thereof in the corporation forever; and when any infant or person non compos mentis or feme covert is owner thereof, his guardian is authorized to give such consent; and the feme covert and her husband may do so without any private examination; and the consent so given shall be valid for all purposes.

Rev., s. 4039; Code, s. 2509; R. C., c. 66, s. 6; R. S., c. 67, s. 6.

7609. Condemnation of lands. Whenever the consent of the proprietor shall be withheld, the corporation's agents may enter on the lands and lay off so much as may be necessary to be used in such work, the value of which shall be assessed to the proprietor according to law; and, upon the payment thereof, the title shall be vested in the corporation forever. In the assessment of valuation, the benefit that will accrue to the proprietor by reason of the improvement may be likewise reckoned and set off against the damages. The proceedings for such condemnation shall be the same as are provided for condemnation of lands by railroad corporations. And the corporation's officers and agents shall have a right to enter upon the lands of all persons whomsoever, for the purpose of surveying.

Rev., s. 4040; Code, ss. 2510, 2513; R. C., c. 66, s. 7; R. S., c. 67, s. 7.

7610. Private lands assessed for benefits. When there are lands owned by individuals which can be reclaimed by reason of the canals, ditches, or other works of the corporation, the same shall be assessed to contribute an equitable proportion of the cost of such works; which assessment shall be made by the board or a board of commissioners appointed by them, and the same shall be charged on the lands; but the corporation, by contract with individual proprietors, may agree upon the assessment, and accept payment thereof in labor or money.

Rev., s. 4041; Code, s. 2511; R. C., c. 66, s. 8; R. S., c. 67, s. 8.

7611. Regulations for surveying, reclaiming, and assessing. The state board of education may enact all necessary rules and regulations for surveying and reclaiming the swamp lands; for assessing the lands of individuals which may be improved by the works, and for collecting assessments; and the assessments shall be published weekly for five weeks in one of the newspapers published in Raleigh, and also filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the county wherein the lands assessed are situate. If no objections are filed at the court next after such advertisement, the assessments shall be confirmed by the court and the lands adjudged liable for the amount, and execution may be issued for the sale thereof to satisfy the same, on motion to the court for that purpose; and if any reasons be shown against the assessments, they shall be heard and determined by the court, and the assessments shall be increased or diminished, as the court shall adjudge.

Rev., s. 4042; Code, s. 2512; R. C., c. 66, s. 9; R. S., c. 67, s. 9; 1899, c. 253; 1901, c. 529.

7612. Engineer, surveyor, and other servants employed. The state board of education may appoint an engineer and surveyor and other servants to plan the works directed by this subchapter, and such board may annually appoint an agent to superintend and supervise all the swamp lands belonging to the state board of education.

Rev., s. 4043; Code, ss. 2512, 2523; R. C., c. 66, ss. 9, 20; R. S., c. 67, s. 9; 1854, c. 48; 1899, c. 253, ss. 1, 2, 5; 1901, c. 529.

7613. Agent's duties. Such agent shall devote his entire attention to the business; abandon all prior engagements that may conflict with the interest of the state board of education; aid and assist counsel in the preparation and trial of all suits that may be directed by the corporation; collect information as to the location and value of all such lands; survey or have surveyed such tracts of such lands, or such other lands necessary to ascertain the location of lands belonging to the corporation as he may deem necessary, under the direction of the corporation. He shall make reports from time to time to the corporation of all the information he obtains, with such suggestions as he may deem proper; and shall prepare a statement of each tract of land owned by the corporation and its location, quantity, as well as ascertained and probable value, distinguishing between those tracts the title to which is doubtful or good; and this statement shall be recorded by him in a book to be kept by the corporation and in a manner, by index or otherwise, easy for reference.

7614. Agent may be removed. The agent may be removed by the state board of education at any time and another appointed to supply the vacancy, the agent removed being paid a pro rata compensation. The agency may be continued in the discretion of the board.

Rev., s. 4045; Code, s. 2525; R. C., c. 66, s. 22; 1899, c. 253, s. 4; 1901, c. 529.

ART. 10. LANDS SOLD FOR TAXES

7615. Title vested in state board of education. The title of all lands acquired by the state by virtue of being sold for taxes is hereby vested in the state board of education.

1917, c. 209.

7616. Protection of interest in lands sold for taxes. Whenever any lands in which the state board of education has an interest, by way of mortgage or otherwise, are advertised to be sold for any taxes, special assessment, or under any lien, the state board of education is authorized, if in its judgment it is necessary to protect the interest of the board, to appear at any sale of such lands and to buy the same as any other person would, and for the purpose of paying therefor use any funds which the state board of education may have on hand, or, if necessary, borrow the money with which to make such purchase and to execute its notes therefor, and may use any funds coming to the state board of education from the sale of any property or otherwise to pay such notes.

1917, c. 246.

ART. 11. CONTROVERSIES CONCERNING LANDS

7617. Title presumed in the board; tax titles. In all controversies and suits for any of the swamp lands, to which the state board of education or its assigns shall be a party, the title to such lands shall be taken and deemed to be in that corporation or its assigns until the other party shall show that he has a good and valid title to such lands in himself.

In all controversies touching the title to or the right of possession to any lands claimed by the state, the state board of education or the university of North Carolina, under any sale for taxes at any time heretofore made or which hereafter may be made, the deed of conveyance made by the sheriff or other officer or person making such sale, or who may have been authorized to execute such deed, shall be presumptive evidence that the lands therein mentioned were, at the time the lien for such taxes attached and at the time of the sale, the property of the person therein designated as the delinquent owner; that such lands were subject to taxation; that the taxes were duly levied and assessed; that the lands were duly listed; that the taxes were due and unpaid; that the manner in which the listing, assessment, levy, and sale were conducted was in all respects as the law directed; that all the prerequisites of the law were duly complied with by all officers or persons who had or whose duty it was to have had any part or action in any transaction relating to or affecting the title conveyed or purporting to be conveyed by the deed, from the listing and valuation of the property up to the execution of the deed, both inclusive; and that all things whatsoever required by law to make a good and valid sale and vest the title in the purchaser were done, and that all recitals in such deed contained are true as to each and every of the matters so recited.

In all controversies and suits involving the title to real property claimed and held under and by virtue of a deed made substantially as above the person claiming title adverse to the title conveyed by such deed shall be required to prove, in order to defeat such title, either that the real property was not subject to taxation for the year or years named in the deed, that the taxes had been paid before the sale, that the property had been redeemed from the sale according to the provisions of law, and that such redemption was had or made for the use or benefit of persons having the right of redemption under the laws of this state, or that there had been an entire omission to list or assess the property or to levy the taxes or to sell the property; but no person shall be permitted to question the title acquired under such sale and deed without first showing that he or the person under whom he claims title had title to the property at the time of the sale, and that all taxes due upon the property have been paid by such person or the person under whom he claims title.

Rev., s. 4047; Code, s. 2527; R. C., c. 66, s. 24; 1842-3, c. 36, s. 3; 1889, c. 243.

Title presumed to be in board of education: Board of Education v. Lumber Co., 158-314; Weston v. Lumber Co., 162-165—but when a prior grant is shown, such presumption does not exist, s. c., 169-398; Shingle Co. v. Lumber Co., 178-221. As to the nature of the land to give rise to this presumption, see Beer v. Lumber Co., 170-337. See sections 7540-7542.

The presumption as to validity of tax sales under this section explained in Board of Education v. Remick, 160-563. See, also, section 8034. The provision as to forfeiture for failure to pay taxes (construed in Parrish v. Cedar Co., 133-478; Lumber Co. v. Lumber Co., 135-743; s. c., 137-444) is not now in the statute: Board of Education v. Remick, 160-563. As to validity of tax sale made under act of 1798, see Shingle Co. v. Lumber Co., 178-221.

7618. Statute of limitations. No statute of limitation shall affect the title or bar the action of the state board of education or its assigns, unless the same would protect the person holding and claiming adversely against the state; and no statute of limitation shall be a bar to the state board of education or of its assigns in the trial of any action in any court of competent jurisdiction against any person, firm, or corporation for damages for timber heretofore or hereafter cut and removed from lands owned by the board of education or for any other acts of trespass committed on such lands.

Rev., s. 4048; Code, s. 2528; R. C., c. 66, s. 25; 1842, c. 36, s. 5; 1917, c. 287.

Section referred to in Tillery v. Lumber Co., 172-296; Board of Education v. Lumber Co., 158-314.

7619. Actions by board; counsel; compromise. The state board of education may employ counsel learned in the law to aid and assist it in the investigation and prosecution of its title to any of the swamp lands; and may compromise upon such terms as to it shall seem reasonable and just, for the title, so as to secure the corporation an indefeasible right in such lands.

Rev., s. 4051; Code, s. 2516; R. C., c. 66, s. 13.

7620. Agreement with others to prosecute or survey. The state board of education has full power and authority to agree with any person to prosecute its claim to any swamp lands in any county or counties, or to survey and identify its lands in such counties, and allow to such person a share of any such land as a compensation for his services.

Rev., s. 4052; Code, s. 2526; R. C., c. 66, s. 23; 1854, c. 48.

ART. 12. SALE OF LANDS

7621. Sale of swamp lands. The state board of education is authorized and directed to sell and convey the swamp lands at public or private sale at such times, for such prices, in such portions, and on such terms as to it may seem proper; but it shall not sell at a price less than twelve and one-half cents per acre. It shall report each sale to the next session of the general assembly. The proceeds, as also money received on entries of vacant land, shall become a part of the state literary fund. The corporation shall not sell any canal by it constructed under this subchapter.

Rev., s. 4049; Code, ss. 2514, 2515, 2529; R. C., c. 66, s. 12; 1872-3, c. 194, s. 2; 1889, c. 243, s. 4.

7622. Reservation to the state. In any sale which shall be made by the state board of education the following powers shall be expressly reserved to the state, to be exercised under such laws as are now or may be enacted by the general assembly:

1. To make any expedient regulations respecting the repair of the canals which have been cut by the state, or enlargement of such canals.

2. To impose taxes on the lands benefited by those canals for their repair, and which shall not be closed.

3. That the navigation of the canals shall be free to all persons, subject to a right in the state to impose tolls.

4. That all landowners on the canals may drain into them, subject only to such general regulations as now are or hereafter may be made by the general assembly in such cases.

5. That the roads along the banks of the canals shall be public roads.

Rev., s. 4050; Code, s. 2534; 1872-3, c. 118.

7623. Forfeiture for failure to register deeds. All the grants and deeds for swamp lands, heretofore made, must have been proved and registered in the county where the lands are situate, within twelve months from November first, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and every such grant or deed, not being so registered within that time, shall be void, and the title of the proprietor in such lands shall revert to the state; but the provisions of this section shall be applicable to the swamp lands only which have been surveyed or taken possession of by, or are vested in, the state board of education or its agents.

Rev., s. 4046; Code, ss. 2513, 3866; R. C., c. 66, s. 10; R. S., c. 67, s. 10.

Section referred to in McCall v. Wilson, 101-598.

ART. 1. CLASSIFICATION AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

7624. Public state officials classified. The public officers of the state are legislative, executive, and judicial. But this classification shall not be construed as defining the legal powers of either class.

Rev., s. 5323; Code, s. 3317; 1868-9, c. 270, ss. 1, 2.

7625. Legislative officers. The legislative officers are:

1. Fifty senators;
2. One hundred and twenty members of the house of representatives.
3. A speaker of the house of representatives;
4. A clerk and assistants in each house;
5. A doorkeeper and assistants in each house;
6. As many subordinates in each house as may be deemed necessary.

Rev., s. 5324; Code, s. 3318; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 3.

7626. Executive officers. Executive officers are either:

1. Civil.
2. Military.

Civil executive officers are:

1. General, or for the whole state.
2. Special, or for special duties in different parts of the state.
3. Local, or for a particular part of the state.

The general civil executive officers of this state are as follows:

1. A governor.
2. A lieutenant governor.
3. Private secretary for the governor.
4. A secretary of state.
5. An auditor.
6. A treasurer.
7. An attorney-general.
8. A superintendent of public instruction.
9. The members of the governor's council.
10. A commissioner of agriculture.
11. A commissioner of labor and printing.
12. An insurance commissioner.

Rev., s. 5325; Code, s. 3319; 1868-9, c. 270, ss. 24, 25, 26; 1899, c. 373, c. 54, ss. 3, 4; 1901, c. 479, s. 4.

7627. Executive officers; election; term; induction into office. The executive department shall consist of a governor, a lieutenant governor, a secretary of state, an auditor, a treasurer, a superintendent of public instruction, and an attorney-general, who shall be elected for a term of four years by the qualified electors of the state, at the same time and places and in the same manner as members of the general assembly are elected. Their term of office shall commence on the first day of January next after their election and continue until their successors are elected and qualified. The return of every election for officers of the executive department shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government by the returning officers, directed to the speaker of the house of representatives, who shall open and publish the same in the presence of a majority of the members of both houses of the general assembly. The persons having the highest number of votes respectively shall be declared duly elected; but if two or more be equal and highest in votes for the same office, then one of them shall be chosen by joint ballot of both houses of the general assembly. Contested elections shall be determined by a joint ballot of both houses of the general assembly in such manner as shall be prescribed by law. On the first Tuesday after the convening of the general assembly, following the election of any or all state officers of the executive department and of the commissioner of agriculture and the commissioner of labor and printing, there shall be a joint session of the house of representatives and senate in the hall of the house of representatives, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, when and where the speaker of the house of representatives shall proceed, in compliance with the provisions of the constitution above set forth, to open and publish the vote for governor and other officers of the executive department and for the commissioner of agriculture and the commissioner of labor and printing cast at the last preceding election, and as soon as the result of the election shall be ascertained and published, as provided in this section, the person so ascertained and published to be elected governor at such election shall, in the presence of the joint session of the two houses of the general assembly, held as herein provided, take the oath of office prescribed by law and be immediately inducted into the office of governor. Should the governor-elect not be present at such joint session, then he may, as soon thereafter as he may deem proper, take the oath of office before some justice of the supreme or judge of the superior court and be inducted into office. As soon as the result of such election as to other officers of the executive department named in article three, section one, of the constitution, and as to the commissioner of agriculture and the commissioner of labor and printing, shall be ascertained and published as provided herein, the officers elected to such offices shall, as soon as may be, take the oath of office prescribed by law for such officers and be inducted into the offices to which they have been elected.

Rev., s. 5326; Const., art. 3, ss. 1, 3; 1897, c. 1, ss. 1, 2, 3.

7628. Executive officers and certain boards report to governor; reports transmitted to general assembly. It shall be the duty of the officers of the executive department to submit their respective reports to the governor to be transmitted by him with his message to the general assembly.

Rev., s. 5373; 1813, c. 60, s. 2.

NOTE.—For reports of state institutions, see State Departments, Institutions, and Commissions.

For report of state treasurer, see this chapter, article Treasurer.

ART. 2. PAYMENT OF MONEYS COLLECTED

7629. Officers collecting state moneys pay to state treasury monthly. Each and every officer of the state or of any department thereof who is authorized by law to collect any fee, license tax, tag tax, or who collects money from any corporation or person, or partnership, by authority of any statute of this state, shall pay the same to the state treasurer on the tenth day of the calendar month next following, which payment shall be accompanied by an itemized statement showing from what sources and under what statutes such amounts have been collected, and a copy of said statement shall at the same time be filed in the office of the state auditor.

7630. Expenses paid by warrants of state auditor; statements filed. All salaries, purchases of equipment and expenses authorized by law to be paid out of the various funds herebefore mentioned shall be paid by warrant drawn by the state auditor on the state treasurer. The officer of state or the head of any department thereof shall file with the state auditor an itemized statement of the salaries, bills for purchases of equipment and other expenses of his department, and the state auditor shall draw warrants on the state treasurer for the payment of all salaries, purchases of equipment, and expenses as authorized by law, to be paid by the said officer of state or head of any department thereof, as evidenced by statements so approved and filed. The state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay said warrants.

1919, c. 117, s. 2.

7631. Traveling expenses on state's business. When, to efficiently and properly carry into effect and execute any of the duties imposed by his appointment or by the provision of any statute of this state and provide for the expenses thereof, it is required that any officer of the state or any employee of any department thereof shall travel from place to place, such traveling and other expenses as shall be required shall be approved by said officer or head of the department whose employee incurs such expenses, and certified monthly to the state auditor in itemized form, and the state auditor is directed to draw his warrants upon the treasurer for such amounts.

1919, c. 117, s. 3.

7632. Emergency traveling fund; heads of departments may retain. For the purpose of providing an emergency or contingent fund to cover the traveling expenses or other authorized expenses of any officer of state or of any department of state falling within the provisions of section 7631, such officer or head of the department is permitted to retain in his hands, from the moneys, fees, or licenses so collected or received by him from the sources named in section 7629, or draw from the state treasury an amount not to exceed at any one time the sum of two thousand dollars, and from this emergency or contingent fund such officer or head of department is authorized to advance and pay the traveling expenses of himself or other employees, when the same shall be required, until vouchers covering said expense accounts can be issued by the auditor and paid by the treasurer monthly as in section 7631 provided. At the expiration of his term of office the said officer of the state or head of department shall pay to the state treasurer the money retained by him under this section.

7633. Contingent funds accounted for and statements filed with budget commission. Each and every official of the state, or of any department thereof, to whom is given by law any special contingent or other fund to be used in the work of the said official or department for contingent or other purposes, shall on or before the first day of November of each year file with each member of the legislative examining committee and with the budget committee a full and itemized statement in detail of all amounts received, with the source and date thereof, and amounts expended, to whom and for what purpose paid out, with a statement of any balance unexpended. It shall be the duty of any such official or head of department to give to the said legislative examining committee or budget committee, any further information or details that they may desire.

1919, c. 117, s. 5.

7634. Construction. This article shall not be construed as requiring the payment to the state treasurer of any money or funds collected for and directed to be paid to any party other than the state.

1919, c. 117, s. 6.

ART. 3. THE GOVERNOR

7635. Governor to reside in Raleigh; mansion and accessories. The governor shall reside in the city of Raleigh during his continuance in office. A convenient and commodious furnished dwelling-house, supplied with necessary lights, fuel, and water, shall be provided for his accommodation; and an automobile and driver shall be provided and maintained for the use of the executive mansion.

Rev., s. 5327; Code, ss. 3325, 3326; 1868-69, c. 270, ss. 32, 33; 1885, c. 244; 1919, c. 307.

7636. Powers and duties of governor. In addition to the powers and duties prescribed by the constitution, the governor has the powers and duties prescribed in this and the following sections:

1. He is to supervise the official conduct of all executive and ministerial officers; and when he shall deem it advisable he shall visit all state institutions for the purpose of inquiring into the management and needs of the same, and for the purpose of paying the expenses of such visitation the auditor is hereby directed to draw an order on the treasurer in favor of the governor to pay his expenses for each visitation.

2. He is to see that all offices are filled, and the duties thereof performed, or in default thereof apply such remedy as the law allows, and if the remedy is imperfect, acquaint the general assembly therewith.

3. He is to make the appointments and supply the vacancies not otherwise provided for in all departments.

4. He is the sole official organ between the government of this state and other states, or the government of the United States.

5. He has the custody of the great seal of the state.

6. If he be apprised by the affidavits of two responsible citizens of the state that there is imminent danger that the statute of this state forbidding prize fighting is about to be violated, he shall use, as far as necessary, the civil and military power of the state to prevent it, and to have the offenders arrested and bound to keep the peace.

Rev., s. 5328; Code, s. 3320; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 27; 1870-1, c. 111; 1883, c. 71; 1895, c. 28, s. 5; 1905, c. 446.

NOTE.—For the power of the governor to execute deeds for lands whose title is vested in the state for the use of any state institution, see State Departments and Institutions.

As to supervising conduct of executive and ministerial officers, see Russell v. Ayer, 120-180. Can bring mandamus proceedings to compel them to perform duty: Ibid.

For governor's power to appoint persons to fill offices, originally, or to fill vacancies, see art. 3, secs. 10 and 13; art. 4, secs. 25 and 28; art. 14, sec. 5, of the state constitution. The right of the governor to appoint is limited to constitutional offices and where the constitution so provides: Salisbury v. Croom, 167-223. Where he is authorized to appoint by and with the consent of the senate, he may make an ad interim appointment: Ibid.

7637. May convene council of state. The governor may convene his council for consultation whenever he may deem it proper.

Rev., s. 5329; Code, s. 3335; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 40.

7638. Private secretary; official correspondence preserved; books produced before general assembly. The governor shall appoint a private secretary, who shall enter in books kept for that purpose all such letters, written by and to the governor, as are official and important, and such other letters as the governor shall think necessary. Such books shall be deposited in the office of the executive by the private secretary, and there carefully preserved, and the governor shall produce the same before the general assembly whenever requested.

Rev., s. 5330; Code, ss. 3326, 3327; 1868-9, c. 270, ss. 33, 34.

7639. Records kept; certain original applications preserved. The governor shall cause to be kept the following records:

1. A register of all applications for pardon, or for commutation of any sentence, with a list of the official signatures and recommendations in favor of such application.

2. An account of all his official expenses and disbursements, including the incidental expenses of his department, and the rewards offered by him for the apprehension of criminals, which shall be paid upon the warrant of the auditor.

These records and the originals of all applications, petitions, and recommendations and reports therein mentioned shall be preserved in the office of the governor, but when applications for offices are refused he may, in his discretion, return the papers referring to the application.

Rev., s. 5331; Code, ss. 3322, 3323; 1868-9, c. 270, ss. 29, 30; 1870-1, c. 111.

7640. May employ counsel in cases wherein state is interested. Whenever any suit or legal proceeding is pending against the state, or which may result in any claim against the state, or affect the title of this state to any property, he may direct the attorney-general to appear on behalf of the state, and may employ such additional counsel as he may judge expedient. In case the attorney-general shall state to the governor that it is impracticable for him to render legal services to any state institution, including the state's prison, the governor may, if he deem it necessary, employ such counsel as in his judgment should be employed; and no institution supported in whole or in part by the state shall employ any counsel except by the consent and approval of the governor. In every case, civil or criminal, in any court in the state, or in any other state or territory, or in any United States court, in which the state of North Carolina is interested, the governor may employ such counsel as he may deem proper or necessary to represent the interest of the state. In all cases in which the governor is authorized to employ counsel he may direct the auditor to draw his warrant upon the treasurer to compensate such counsel.

Rev., s. 5332; Code, ss. 3320, 3324; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 6; 1870-1, c. 111; 1873-4, c. 160, s. 2; 1883, c. 71; 1901, c. 744.

7641. To appoint a day of thanksgiving. The governor is directed to set apart a day in every year, and by proclamation give notice thereof, as a day of solemn and public thanksgiving to Almighty God for past blessings and of supplication for His continued kindness and care over us as a state and a nation.

Rev., s. 5333; Code, s. 3334; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 39.

7642. Form and contents of applications for pardon. Every application for pardon must be made to the governor in writing, signed by the party convicted, or by some person in his behalf. And every such application shall contain the grounds and reasons upon which the executive pardon is asked, and shall be in every case accompanied by a certified copy of the indictment, and the verdict and judgment of the court thereon.

Rev., s. 5334; Code, s. 3336; 1869-70, c. 171; 1870-1, c. 61.

Application for pardon is considered only after conviction: State v. Newell, 172-933; In re Williams, 149-436. See section 7739.

7643. Conditional pardons may be granted. In any case in which the governor is authorized by the constitution to grant a pardon he may, upon the petition of the prisoner, grant it, subject to such conditions, restrictions, and limitations as he considers proper and necessary, and he may issue his warrant to all proper officers to carry such pardon into effect in such manner as he thinks proper.

Rev., s. 5335; 1905, c. 356.

The governor may grant a conditional pardon, which takes effect upon delivery, and is irrevocable if condition is complied with: In re Williams, 149-436.

7644. Governor's duties when conditions of pardon violated. If a prisoner who has been pardoned upon conditions to be observed and performed by him violates such conditions, or any of them, the governor, upon receiving information of such violation, shall forthwith cause him to be arrested and detained until the case can be examined by him. The governor shall examine the case of such prisoner, and if it appears by his own admission or by such evidence as the governor may require that he has violated the condition of his pardon, the governor shall order him remanded and confined for the unexpired term of his sentence; said confinement, if the prisoner is under any other sentence of imprisonment at the time of said order, to begin upon expiration of such sentence. In computing the period of his confinement the time between the conditional pardon and subsequent arrest shall not be taken to be a part of the time of his sentence. If it appears to the governor that he has not broken the conditions of his conditional pardon he shall be released and his conditional pardon shall remain in force.

Rev., s. 5336; 1905, c. 356, ss. 2, 3.

7645. Duty of sheriff and clerk on pardon granted. If a prisoner is pardoned conditionally or unconditionally, or his punishment is commuted, the officer to whom the warrant for such purpose is issued shall, as soon as may be after executing it, make return thereof, signed by him, with his doing thereon, to the governor's office, and shall file in the office of the clerk of the court in which the offender was convicted an attested copy of the warrant and return, and the clerk shall file the same in his office and subjoin a brief abstract thereof to the record of the conviction and sentence, and at the next regular term of said court said warrant shall be entered upon the minutes of the court.

Rev., s. 5337; 1905, c. 356, s. 4.

The sheriff cannot return a pardon, after its delivery and compliance with the condition, and thereby defeat the effect of it: In re Williams, 149-436.

Upon pardon granted the defendant is entitled to return of fine paid if it is still under control of the court; otherwise when it has been paid over to treasurer: Bynum v. Turner, 171-86.

7646. To procure great seal of state; its description. The governor shall procure for the state a seal, which shall be called the great seal of the state of North Carolina, and shall be two and one-quarter inches in diameter, and its design shall be a representation of the figures of Liberty and Plenty, looking toward each other, but not more than half fronting each other and otherwise disposed as follows: Liberty, the first figure, standing, her pole with cap on it in her left hand and a scroll with the word "Constitution" inscribed thereon in her right hand.

Plenty, the second figure, sitting down, her right arm half extended towards Liberty, three heads of wheat in her right hand, and in her left, the small end of her horn, the mouth of which is resting at her feet, and the contents of the horn rolling out; there shall also be inserted thereon the words “esse quam videri.” It shall be the duty of the governor to file in the office of secretary of state an impression of the great seal, certified to under his hand and attested by the secretary of state, which impression so certified the secretary of state shall carefully preserve among the records of his office.

Rev., s. 5339; Code, ss. 3328, 3329; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 35; 1883, c. 392; 1893, c. 145.

7647. Affixing great seal a second time to public papers. In all cases where any person may find it necessary to have the great seal of the state put again to any public paper, other than a grant for lands, he may prefer his petition to the governor and council, who shall, if they deem the same proper, direct the seal to be put thereto.

Rev., s. 5338; Code, s. 3333; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 38.

7648. To procure seals for departments and courts. The governor shall also procure a seal for each department of the state government to be used for attesting and authenticating grants, proclamations, commissions, and other public acts, in such manner as may be directed by law and the usage established in the public offices; also a seal for every court of record in the state, for the purpose of authenticating the papers and records of such court. All such seals shall be delivered to the proper officers, who shall give a receipt therefor and be accountable for their safe-keeping.

Rev., s. 5340; Code, ss. 3328, 3332; 1868-9, c. 270, ss. 35, 37; 1883, c. 71.

7649. Seal of department of state described. The seal of the department of state shall be two inches in diameter and shall be of the same design as the great seal of the state, with the words “State of North Carolina, Department of State,” surrounding the figures.

Rev., s. 5341; Code, s. 3330; 1883, c. 238.

7650. To provide new seals when necessary. Whenever the great seal of the state, the seal of any department or any seal of a court of record shall be lost, or so worn or defaced as to render it unfit for use, the governor shall provide a new one, and when new seals are provided the former ones shall not be used.

Rev., s. 5342; Code, s. 3331; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 36.

7651. Payment for seals. The treasurer shall pay the expense of procuring all seals provided for in this chapter, upon the warrant of the auditor.

Rev., s. 5343; Code, s. 3332; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 37; 1883, c. 71.

ART. 4. SECRETARY OF STATE

7652. Office and office hours. The secretary of state shall attend at his office, in the city of Raleigh, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and three o'clock p. m., on every day of the year, Sundays and legal holidays excepted.

Rev., s. 5344; Code, s. 3339; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 44; 1870-1, c. 111.

Referred to in Beam v. Jennings, 96-82.

7653. Bond of secretary of state. The secretary of state shall give bond with sufficient surety, approved by the governor and auditor, for the sum of twenty thousand dollars, payable to the state, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. And the bond of the secretary of state shall be deposited in the treasurer's office for safe-keeping; and he shall take the oath prescribed for public officers.

Rev., s. 287; Code, s. 3338; 1868-9, c. 270, ss. 42, 43.

7654. Duties of secretary of state. It is the duty of the secretary of state:

1. To attend at every session of the legislature for the purpose of receiving bills which shall have become laws, and to perform such other duties as may then be devolved upon him by resolution of the two houses, or either of them.

2. To attend the governor, whenever required by him, for the purpose of receiving documents which have passed the great seal.

3. To receive and keep all conveyances and mortgages belonging to the state.

4. To distribute annually the statutes, the legislative journals and documents, and the reports of the supreme court.

5. To distribute the acts of congress received at his office in the manner prescribed for the statutes of the state.

6. To keep a receipt book, in which he shall take from every person to whom a grant shall be delivered a receipt for the same; but he may inclose grants by mail in a registered letter at the expense of the grantee, unless otherwise directed, first entering the same upon the receipt book.

Rev., s. 5345; Code, s. 3340; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 45; 1881, c. 63.

The clerk of the secretary of state has no power to certify to and affix the great seal of the state to copies of grants and other papers from the secretary of state's office to be used in evidence. The statute contemplates that this officer should do all official acts himself, and does not permit any of them to be done by a deputy: Beam v. Jennings, 96-82. See section 7592.

7655. To purchase stationery and fuel. The secretary of state shall purchase suitable stationery for the general assembly, the supreme court, and state library upon the best terms the same can be procured. And he shall contract with the lowest bidder, under sealed proposals, for the necessary lights and fuel for the general assembly, the public offices, and the governor's dwelling.

Rev., s. 5346; Code, s. 3341; R. C., c. 104, s. 6; 1842, cc. 48, 68; 1873-4, c. 129.

7656. Custodian of statutes, records, deeds, etc. The secretary of state is charged with the custody of all statutes and joint resolutions of the legislature, all documents which pass under the great seal, and of all the books, records, deeds, parchments, maps, and papers now deposited in his office or which may hereafter be there deposited pursuant to law, and he shall from time to time make all necessary provisions for their arrangement and preservation.

Rev., s. 5347; Code, s. 3337; R. C., c. 104, s. 105; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 41; 1873-4, c. 129.

7657. To keep records of oyster grants. The secretary of state shall keep books of records in which shall be recorded a full description of all grounds granted for oyster beds under the provisions of chapter one hundred and nineteen of the laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and laws amendatory thereof, and shall keep a map or maps showing the position and limits of all public and private grounds.

Rev., s. 2381; 1887, c. 119, s. 14.

7658. Binding original statutes, resolutions, and documents. The original statutes and joint resolutions passed at each session of the general assembly the secretary of state shall immediately thereafter cause to be bound in volumes of convenient size. Each such volume shall be lettered on the back with its title and the date of its session.

Rev., s. 5348; Code, s. 3343; 1866-7, c. 71; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 46.

7659. Public, public-local, and private laws. The secretary of state shall divide the laws into three classes—public, public-local, and private laws; and it shall be his duty, at the time of making the marginal notes, to mark on the upper right-hand corner of each act the words “public” or “public-local” or “private,” and acts thus marked shall be kept separate by the state printer. The public laws and resolutions shall be published in one volume to themselves. The public-local and private laws shall be kept separate and indexed separately, but may, in the discretion of the secretary of state, be bound together in one or more volume or volumes, which volume or volumes shall be published and distributed as are now the private laws.

Rev., s. 5349; 1909, c. 473.

For other duties of secretary of state in regard to publishing laws, see sections 6108-6111.

7660. Supplies departments of general government with laws and documents. The secretary of state shall supply and transmit to the different departments of the general government and the New York historical society copies of the acts, both private and public, and the public documents and journals of the general assembly, and with the reports of the supreme court of this state.

Rev., s. 5350; Code, ss. 3601, 3603, 3344; R. C., c. 91, s. 2; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 48; 1885, c. 382.

7661. Transmits statutes and reports to other states. The secretary of state, as soon as published, shall transmit, at the expense of this state, to the executive of every state and territory in the Union, one copy of the statutes of each year, and of the reports of the supreme court, and request a similar transmission to be made to him of the statutes and reports of the higher courts of the several states and territories. When the statutes of any state or territory are received, he shall deposit one copy in the executive library, but in case only one copy is received it shall be deposited in the supreme court library.

Rev., s. 5351; Code, ss. 3321, 3344; 1868-9, c. 270, ss. 28, 48.

7662. Furnishes laws and documents to institutions of learning. The secretary of state, upon application made by any chartered institution of learning in this state, for which provision is not elsewhere made in this article, having a library of not less than five thousand volumes, shall furnish and transmit to each of such institutions, to be kept in its library, a copy of all future current supreme court reports, public and private acts of the general assembly and journals of both houses and public documents, whenever the same shall be ready for distribution. He shall also furnish to each of such institutions, if he have them on hand, or when reprinted or otherwise obtained, one volume each of such of the supreme court reports as have not been heretofore furnished.

Rev., s. 5352; Code, s. 3619; 1881, c. 277; 1889, c. 249.

7663. Distribution of statutes. The secretary of state shall distribute copies of the public, public-local, and private laws, as follows: To the governor, lieutenant governor, treasurer, secretary of state, auditor, superintendent of public instruction, attorney-general, commissioner of agriculture, commissioner of labor and printing, insurance commissioner, corporation commission, legislative reference library, state board of health, state highway commission, state board of charities and public welfare, state geologist, superintendents of the several state hospitals for the insane, and of the several institutions for the deaf, dumb, and the blind, and of the state's prison, to the North Carolina state college of agriculture and engineering, to the several justices of the supreme court, the judges of the superior courts, the judges of the United States courts, the several solicitors and United States district attorneys, the clerks of the superior and federal courts, the sheriffs of the several counties, the several registers of deeds, members and clerks of the general assembly, and county commissioners, one copy each; to the state library, two copies; to the library of the university, three copies; to the supreme court library, eleven copies; to the library of the supreme court of the United States, one copy; to the several states and territories of the Union, including the District of Columbia, and to the Dominion of Canada, to the provinces of Canada, to Australia and to New Zealand, one copy each, and two copies to be deposited in the offices of each department of the state government; to the several justices of the peace, one copy of the public laws only.

Rev., s. 5353; Code, s. 3632; R. C., c. 93, ss. 8, 19; 1870-1, c. 111, s. 2; 1872-3, c. 45, ss. 7, 8; 1879, c. 271; 1881, c. 107; 1885, c. 82; 1891, c. 471; 1893, c. 146, s. 2; 1897, c. 135; 1901, c. 401, s. 2; 1901, c. 88; 1903, c. 801; 1919, c. 195, s. 1.

Rev., s. 5354; Code, s. 3636; 1872-3, c. 45, s. 10; 1881, c. 16; 1901, c. 88; 1903, c. 5; 1919, c. 195, s. 2; 1919, c. 314, s. 6.

7665. Distribution of public documents. Of the public documents, seventy copies shall be delivered by the secretary of state to the secretary of the senate, as soon as printed, for the use of the senate, and one hundred and fifty to the clerk of the house for the use of the house, and the residue, three hundred and sixty-five copies, shall be distributed as follows: To the governor, lieutenant governor, treasurer, attorney-general, secretary of state, auditor, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of agriculture, commissioner of labor and printing, insurance commissioner, each clerk of the superior court, the superintendent of the several state hospitals for the insane, of the several institutions for the deaf, dumb, and the blind, and of the state's prison, to the North Carolina state college of agriculture and engineering, each representative and senator, and each judge of the supreme and superior courts, one copy each; to the state library, ten copies; to the senate library, ten copies; to the house library, twelve copies; to the supreme court library, five copies; to the library of the university, three copies.

Rev., s. 5355; Code, s. 3637; 1872-3, c. 45, s. 11; 1881, c. 16; 1901, c. 88; 1919, c. 314, s. 6.

7666. First copies of laws and reports to go to judiciary and solicitors. The secretary of state, immediately upon the receipt of the first bound copies of the laws and reports, shall transmit the same by mail, one each to the justices of the supreme court, and the judges, solicitors, and clerks of the superior court, and may then, in his discretion, expose for sale a limited number of each. The residue of the laws, reports, documents, and journals, as soon as they are delivered to the secretary of state, shall be transmitted and distributed by him according to this article, by express or otherwise, as he may deem best.

Rev., s. 5356; Code, ss. 3640, 3641; 1872-3, c. 45, ss. 14, 15; 1919, c. 314, s. 6.

7667. Distribution of supreme court reports. The supreme court reports shall be distributed by the secretary of state as follows: To the governor, lieutenant governor, attorney-general, treasurer, secretary of state, auditor, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of labor and printing, commissioner of agriculture, and insurance commissioner, corporation commission, legislative reference library, the justices of the supreme court and judges of the superior courts, the judges of the federal courts residing in the state, the clerks of the supreme and superior courts, and of the United States courts for North Carolina, one copy each; to the supreme court library, twelve copies; to the state library, two copies; to the library of the supreme court of the United States, one copy; to the library of the university and to the library of Wake Forest and Trinity colleges, three copies; to each state and territory in the Union, including the District of Columbia, one copy; and to the Dominion of Canada, to the provinces of Canada, and Australia, and to New Zealand, one copy each, and one copy each to such courts in foreign states as the supreme court may direct.

Rev., s. 5357; Code, s. 3635; 1873-4, c. 34, s. 2; 1876-7, c. 164, s. 2; 1881, c. 107; 1881, c. 104, s. 2; 1885, c. 82; 1891, c. 471; 1899, cc. 37, 667; 1903, c. 689; 1919, c. 195, s. 3.

7668. Transmission of laws, etc., for use of counties and members of general assembly. The statutes, journals, and documents for the use of each county, and for members of the general assembly and other officers therein shall be transmitted to the clerk of the court of each county in such manner as the secretary of state may think best; the statutes to be transmitted as soon as practicable after adjournment of the general assembly.

Rev., s. 5358; Code, s. 3344; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 48.

7669. Expenses of transmitting publications. The transmission of all publications directed by this article to be distributed shall be at the expense of the state.

Rev., s. 5359; Code, s. 3344; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 48.

7670. Sale of laws, journals, and documents. Such laws, journals, and documents as may be printed under the provisions of this article in excess of the number directed to be distributed, the secretary of state may sell at such price as he deems reasonable, not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents for full bound copies of the public laws; and he shall pay the proceeds into the treasury. In his annual report he shall give an account of the number sold and the number on hand. He may sell such number of copies of the journals and public documents as the general assembly may by joint resolution direct at a price not exceeding ten per centum in advance of the cost.

Rev., s. 5360; Code, ss. 3344, 3642; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 48; 1872-3, c. 45, s. 16; 1881, c. 104.

7671. Reprints of supreme court reports. The secretary of state is authorized and directed to have such of the reports of the supreme court of the state of North Carolina as he has not on hand for sale republished and numbered consecutively, retaining the present numbers and names of the reporters, and by means of star pages in the margin, retaining the original numbering of the pages. The secretary of state is authorized and directed to have such reports reprinted and annotated, the reprinting to be done as other state printing is done. Such republication shall thus continue until the state shall have for sale all of such reports, and thereafter when the editions of any number or volume of the supreme court reports shall be exhausted, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to have the same reprinted under the provisions of this section.

Rev., s. 5361; Code, s. 3634; 1885, c. 309; 1889, c. 473, ss. 1, 2, 3, 4, 6; 1907, c. 503; 1917, c. 201; 1917, c. 292.

7672. Sale of supreme court reports. The secretary of state shall sell any and all of the supreme court reports, both the current reports and the reprints, at such price as he deems reasonable, not less than one dollar and fifty cents per volume, but he may allow to regular licensed book-sellers in this state such discount as to him may seem reasonable and just. For his services in making such sales he shall receive a commission of five per centum upon his receipts, which commission he may deduct when he settles with the state treasurer, to whom he shall pay over, monthly, the moneys arising from such sales.

Rev., s. 5362; Code, s. 3635; 1889, c. 473, s. 5; 1899, c. 37; 1919, c. 195, s. 4.

See Smith v. Thompson, 122-215.

7673. Payment of accounts and expenses of secretary of state. The accounts of the secretary of state for the expenditures provided for in this subchapter, and all other expenses which he may incur, the payment whereof is not otherwise provided for, shall be passed on by the governor and council of state, and if allowed, shall be paid by the treasurer, on a warrant which the auditor shall draw.

Rev., s. 5363; Code, s. 3342; R. C., c. 104, s. 7; 1842, c. 48, s. 1; 1842, c. 68, s. 3; 1873-4, c. 129.

ART. 5. AUDITOR

7674. Office and office hours. The auditor shall keep his office at the city of Raleigh, and shall attend thereat between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and three o'clock p. m., Sundays and legal holidays excepted.

Rev., s. 5364; Code, s. 3353; 1868-9, c. 270, ss. 69, 70.

7675. Duties of auditor. It is the duty of the auditor:

1. To superintend the fiscal concerns of the state.
2. To report to the governor, annually, and to the general assembly at the beginning of each biennial session thereof, a complete statement of the funds of the state, of its revenues and of the public expenditures during the preceding fiscal year, and, as far as practicable, an account of the same down to the termination of the current calendar year, together with a detailed estimate of the expenditures to be defrayed from the treasury for the ensuing fiscal year, specifying therein each object of expenditure and distinguishing between such as are provided for by permanent or temporary appropriations, and such as must be provided for by a new statute, and suggesting the means from which such expenditures are to be defrayed.
3. To suggest plans for the improvement and management of the public revenue.
4. To keep and state all accounts in which the state is interested.
5. To examine and settle the accounts of all persons indebted to the state, and to certify the amount of balance to the treasurer.
6. To direct and superintend the collection of all moneys due to the state.
7. To examine and liquidate the claims of all persons against the state, in cases where there is sufficient provision of law for the payment thereof; and where there is no sufficient provision, to examine the claim and report the fact, with his opinion thereon, to the general assembly.
8. To require all persons who have received any moneys belonging to the state, and have not accounted therefor, to settle their accounts.
9. To have the exclusive power and authority to issue all warrants for the payment of money upon the state treasurer; and it shall be the auditor's duty, before issuing the same, to examine the laws authorizing the payment thereof, and satisfy himself of the correctness of the accounts of persons applying for warrants; and to this end he shall have the power to administer oaths, and he shall also file in his office the voucher upon which the warrant is drawn and cite the law upon said warrant.
10. To procure from the books of the banks in which the treasurer makes his deposits, monthly statements of the moneys received and paid on account of the treasurer.
11. To keep an account between the state and the treasurer, and therein charge the treasurer with the balance in the treasury when he came into office, and with all moneys received by him, and credit him with all warrants drawn or paid by him.
12. To examine carefully on the first Tuesday of every month, or oftener if he deems it necessary, the accounts of the debts and credits in the bank book kept by the treasurer, and if he discovers any irregularity or deficiency therein, unless the same be rectified or explained to his satisfaction, to report the same forthwith, in writing, to the governor.

13. To require, from time to time, all persons who have received moneys or securities, or have had the disposition or management of any property of the state, of which an account is kept in his office, to render statements thereof to him; and all such persons shall render such statements at such time and in such form as he shall require.

14. To require any person presenting an account for settlement to be sworn before him and to answer orally as to any facts relating to its correctness.

15. To annually audit the accounts of the county officers of Washington county.

Rev., s. 5365; Code, s. 3350; 1868-9, c. 270, ss. 63, 64, 65; 1883, c. 71; 1919, c. 153.

The duty of the state auditor is to examine and to liquidate the claims of all persons against the state, in cases where there is sufficient provision of law for the payment thereof, and, where there is no such provision, to examine and report the fact, with his conclusions, to the general assembly: Burton v. Furman, 115-166; Boner v. Adams, 65-639. He must use his discretion: Ibid.

The mode of proceeding against the auditor, who refuses to issue a warrant, discussed and explained in Boner v. Adams, 65-639.

Auditor can advise with attorney-general: Bank v. Worth, 117-156.

7676. Warrants for money paid into treasury by mistake. Whenever the governor and council of state are satisfied that moneys have been paid into the treasury through mistake, they may direct the auditor to draw his warrant therefor on the treasurer, in favor of the person who made such payment; but this provision shall not extend to payments on account of taxes nor to payments on bonds and mortgages.

Rev., s. 5366; Code, s. 3351; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 66.

7677. Accounts to be examined. His accounts shall be closed on the thirtieth day of November of each year, and shall be examined at the same time and by the same officials as provided for examination of the treasurer's accounts.

Rev., s. 5367; Code, s. 3360; 1885, c. 334.

7678. Warrants for surplus proceeds of sale of property mortgaged to state. Whenever any real property mortgaged to the state, or bought in for the benefit of the state, of which a certificate shall have been given to a former purchaser, is sold by the attorney-general on a foreclosure by notice, or under a judgment, for a greater sum than the amount due to the state, with costs and expenses, the surplus money received into the treasury, after a conveyance has been executed to the purchaser, shall be paid to the person legally entitled to such real property at the time of the foreclosure on the forfeiture of the original contract. The auditor shall not draw his warrant for such surplus money but upon satisfactory proof, by affidavit or otherwise, of the legal rights of such person.

Rev., s. 5368; Code, s. 3352; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 68.

ART. 6. TREASURER

7679. Office and office hours. The treasurer shall keep his office at the city of Raleigh, and shall attend there between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and three o'clock p. m., Sundays and legal holidays excepted. He shall be allowed such office room as may be necessary.

Rev., s. 5369; Code, s. 3362; 1868-9, c. 270, ss. 80, 81.

7680. Bond of treasurer. The state treasurer-elect, before qualifying, shall file with the secretary of state a bond to the state in some reliable company, or companies, in the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, conditioned that he will faithfully execute the duties of his office, and the premium on such bond shall be paid out of the general state funds. Such bond, before acceptance, shall be approved by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate, and shall be deemed to extend to the faithful execution of the office of treasurer by the person elected thereto until a new election of treasurer be made and a new bond given by the person elected.

Rev., s. 288; Code, s. 3357; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 74; 1915, c. 168, s. 2.

Treasurer's bond not only safeguard against misappropriation, but against payment of illegal warrants of auditor: Bank v. Worth, 117-156. Treasurer no right to pay out money except upon proper warrants: Arendell v. Worth, 125-111.

7681. Bonds of treasurer's clerks. The clerks in the treasurer's office shall enter into good and sufficient bonds, payable to the state of North Carolina, in the following sums: The chief clerk, ten thousand dollars, the other clerks, except the clerk charged with the stenographic duties, five thousand dollars each, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices and the faithful accounting for all moneys and things of value which may come into their hands by virtue or color of their respective offices. These several bonds shall be in addition and cumulative to the official bond of the state treasurer, and shall not be construed to affect in any way the liability of the state treasurer upon his official bond. The bonds shall be approved by the treasurer, and, if given in a surety company, the costs thereof, not to exceed forty cents on the one hundred dollars of penalty, may be paid by the state.

Rev., s. 289; 1919, c. 8.

A bond by a clerk to treasurer individually is not an official bond: Jackson v. Martin, 136-196—and does not extend beyond clerk's term of office, Ibid.; also Thomas v. Summey, 46-554. Action on bond given to treasurer individually is barred in three years: Jackson v. Martin, 136-196.

7682. To receive and disburse moneys; to make reports. It is the duty of the treasurer to receive all moneys which shall from time to time be paid into the treasury of this state; to pay all warrants legally drawn on the treasurer by the auditor; and no moneys shall be paid out of the treasury except on the warrant of the auditor; to report to the governor annually and to the general assembly at the beginning of each biennial session thereof the exact balance in the treasury to the credit of the state, with a summary of the receipts and payments of the treasury during the preceding fiscal year, and so far as practicable an account of the same down to the termination of the current calendar year.

Rev., s. 5370; Code, s. 3356; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 71.

The treasurer is not required to pay any and every warrant the auditor may sign, but only those which are legally drawn, and the fact that the auditor finds that a claim for which he has drawn his warrant is authorized by law is not binding upon or protection to the treasurer: Bank v. Worth, 117-146. Both officers are put upon their discretion: Burton v. Furman, 115-166; Boner v. Adams, 65-639.

The state treasurer is not liable to a mandamus for refusing to pay a warrant improperly drawn, and he is entitled to a mandamus to enforce the drawing of proper warrants upon the proper funds before paying them, as they are his vouchers: Arendell v. Worth, 125-111.

As it is the duty of the state treasurer to keep his accounts showing the transactions of each fiscal year, ending December 31st, he has no right to pay out money except upon proper warrants drawn upon proper funds in the treasury: Arendell v. Worth, 125-111.

When the state treasurer denies the correctness of a claim audited by the state auditor and alleges fraud in the creation of the indebtedness, or that the services, for which the warrant was issued were not rendered, mandamus will not lie to compel him to pay it, the question raised by such claim being for the legislature, and not the courts, to determine: Garner v. Worth, 122-250.

The courts cannot direct the treasurer to pay a claim against the state, however just and unquestioned, when there is no legislative appropriation to pay the same; when there is such an appropriation, the coercive power is applied, not to compel the payment of the state liability, but to compel a public servant to discharge his duty by obedience to a legislative enactment: Ibid.

7683. Discretion as to manner of paying annual appropriations. Unless otherwise provided, it shall be discretionary with the treasurer whether he shall pay any annual appropriation in monthly, quarterly, or semiannual installments or in a single payment.

Rev., s. 5372; 1897, c. 368.

7684. Deposits of state funds in banks regulated. Banks having state deposits shall furnish to the auditor of the state, upon his request, a statement of the moneys which have been received and paid by them on account of the treasury. The treasurer shall keep in his office a full account of all moneys deposited in and drawn from all banks in which he may deposit or cause to be deposited any of the public funds, and such account shall be open to the inspection of the auditor. The treasurer shall sign all checks, and no depository bank shall be authorized to pay checks not bearing his official signature. No depository bank shall make any charge for exchange or for the collection of the treasurer's checks or for the transmission of any funds which may come into his hands as state treasurer. The corporation commission and the bank examiners, when so required by the state treasurer, shall keep the state treasurer fully informed at all times as to the condition of all such depository banks, so as to fully protect the state from loss. The state treasurer shall, before making deposits in any bank, require ample security from the bank for such deposit.

The bank or banks in which any money is deposited by the state treasurer, or the insurance commissioner, or by any state department or by any state institution, shall be required to pay interest on monthly balances on said money at the rate of three per centum per annum. The interest collected on the bank balances from time to time shall be paid into the state's general fund; but the treasurer shall credit to the funds of the agricultural department all money which is received as interest on the funds of the department, and he shall notify the commissioner of agriculture when such amounts are paid.

Rev., s. 5371; 1905, c. 520; 1915, c. 168; 1917, c. 159.

7685. To make short-term notes in emergencies. Subject to the approval of the governor and council of state, the state treasurer is authorized to make short-term notes for temporary emergencies, but such notes must only be made to provide for appropriations already made by the general assembly.

1915, c. 168, s. 3.

7686. To furnish estimates of expenses of state; to draft revenue bill. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to furnish the general assembly, at the commencement of each session, with estimates of the expenses of the state government and the rates of taxation necessary to pay the same for the two years next succeeding the close of the last fiscal year, and with a scheme in the form of a complete revenue bill to sustain such estimates.

Rev., s. 5373; Code, s. 2864; 1856-7, c. 30; 1883, c. 60, s. 3.

For number of copies of reports to be printed, see section 7300.

7687. To construe revenue and machinery acts. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to decide all questions presented to him which may arise upon the construction and execution of all acts of the general assembly to raise revenue, commonly called revenue acts, and all acts providing for the assessment of property and collection of taxes, commonly called machinery acts, except where the decision of such questions is expressly conferred upon some other official or department. Such decisions of the treasurer shall be prima facie correct and a protection to the officers affected thereby.

Rev., s. 5374; 1895, c. 119, s. 17.

7688. May demand and sue for money and property of state. The treasurer is authorized to demand, sue for, collect and receive all money and property of the state not held by some person under authority of law.

Rev., s. 5375; Code, s. 3359; 1866, c. 46.

An action for the collection of license taxes made payable to the state treasurer was properly brought by that officer in his own name, although it might be brought in the name of the state: Worth v. Wright, 122-335.

When a state treasurer goes out of office pending a suit by him in his official capacity, the incoming treasurer is entitled to be made a party in his stead: Laey v. Webb, 130-545.

7689. Ex officio treasurer of state institutions; duties as such. The treasurer shall be ex officio the treasurer of the department of agriculture, of the North Carolina state college of agriculture and engineering, of the North Carolina school for the deaf and dumb at Morganton, of the North Carolina institution for the deaf and dumb and the blind at Raleigh, for the state hospitals (for the insane) at Raleigh, Morganton, and Goldsboro, for the state's prison and soldiers home. He may appoint deputies to act for him at Morganton and Goldsboro, and may pay such deputies reasonable compensation. He shall keep all accounts of the institutions, and shall pay out all moneys, upon the warrant of the respective chief officers or superintendents, countersigned by two members of the board of directors, managers, or trustees. He shall report to the respective boards at such times as they may call on him, showing the amount received on account of the institution, amount paid out, and amount on hand. He shall perform his duties as treasurer of these several institutions under such regulations as shall be prescribed in each case by their respective boards of managers, trustees, or directors, with the approval of the governor; and shall be responsible on his official bond for the faithful discharge of his duties as treasurer of each of the several institutions. As treasurer of such institutions he shall, annually, after the examination, verification, and cancellation of his vouchers, deposit the same with the respective institutions, and the superintendents thereof shall be responsible for their safe-keeping.

Rev., s. 5376; Code, ss. 2235, 2251, 3723; 1879, c. 240, s. 2; 1881, c. 211, s. 9, c. 128; 1883, c. 156, s. 12, c. 405; 1895, c. 434; 1899, c. 1, s. 11; 1919, c. 314, s. 6.

For vouchers of state's prison, see section 7711. See, also, section 6166.

7690. May authorize chief clerk to act for him; treasurer liable. The treasurer may authorize his chief clerk to perform any duties pertaining to the office, except signing checks; but the treasurer is responsible for the conduct of all his clerks.

Rev., s. 5377; Code, s. 3358; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 76.

A bond by a clerk of the treasury department executed to the state treasurer individually is not an official bond and does not extend beyond the term during which the clerk was appointed: Jackson v. Martin, 136-196.

An action against the sureties on the bond of a clerk for defalcation in the office of the state treasurer is barred after three years: Ibid.

Rev., s. 3606; Code, s. 1119; R. C., c. 34, s. 68.

7692. Fiscal year; accounts examined by commissioners for legislature. The fiscal year of the state government shall annually close on the thirtieth day of November. The accounts of the treasury, the auditor, and the charitable and penal institutions of the state shall be annually closed on that date. The accounts of the state treasurer, insurance commissioner, and auditor shall be examined during the month of December by commissioners appointed for that purpose at each session of the general assembly, to consist of two senators and three representatives.

Rev., s. 5378; Code, s. 3360; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 77; 1883, c. 60; 1885, c. 334; 1905, c. 430.

7693. Duties of commissioners. The commissioners shall examine the accounts and vouchers relating to all moneys received into and paid out of the treasury during the preceding fiscal year, and shall certify and report to the legislature at its next session the amount of moneys received and the amount of moneys paid out of the treasury during such year, by virtue of warrants drawn on the treasury by the auditor, the amount of moneys received by the treasurer when he entered his office, and the balance in the treasury at the close of the fiscal year. The attorney-general shall, as soon as may be after the first day of each month, compare the warrants drawn by the auditor on the treasury during the preceding month with the several laws under which the same purport to have been drawn, and shall certify whether the auditor had power to draw such warrants, such certificate to be filed with the warrants of the appropriate month. If any are found which, in the opinion of the attorney-general, he had no power to draw, they shall be specified in such certificate, accompanied by his reasons for the opinion, and a copy of such certificate shall in each instance be furnished forthwith to the chairman of the legislative commission. Whenever the treasurer dies or resigns during his term, or is succeeded at the expiration of his term by another, these commissioners shall examine his accounts. The commissioners shall also examine the warrants drawn on the treasurer by the officials of the various public institutions of the state, whose duty it is to draw such warrants, and the commissioners shall have the same authority over the warrants drawn by the officials of all public institutions as over the warrants drawn by the auditor.

Rev., s. 5379; Code, s. 3361; 1868-9, c. 270, ss. 78, 79; 1903, c. 738; 1919, c. 27.

ART. 7. ATTORNEY-GENERAL

7694. Duties. It shall be the duty of the attorney-general—

1. To defend all actions in the supreme court in which the state shall be interested, or is a party; and also when requested by the governor or either branch of the general assembly to appear for the state in any other court or tribunal in any cause or matter, civil or criminal, in which the state may be a party or interested.

2. At the request of the governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, corporation commissioners, insurance commissioner or superintendent of public instruction, he shall prosecute and defend all suits relating to matters connected with their departments.

3. To represent all state institutions, including the state's prison, whenever requested so to do by the official head of any such institution.

4. To consult with and advise the solicitors, when requested by them, in all matters pertaining to the duties of their office.

5. To give, when required, his opinion upon all questions of law submitted to him by the general assembly, or by either branch thereof, or by the governor, auditor, treasurer, or any other state officer.

6. To pay all moneys received for debts due or penalties to the state immediately after the receipt thereof into the treasury.

7. To compare the warrants drawn by the auditor on the state treasury with the laws under which they purport to be drawn.

Rev., s. 5380; Code, s. 3363; 1868-9, c. 270, s. 82; 1871-2, c. 112, s. 2; 1893, c. 379; 1901, c. 744.

7695. Assistant attorney-general. The attorney-general shall be allowed an assistant, to be appointed by him.

1909, c. 804, s. 1; 1911, c. 94.

ART. 8. SOLICITORS

7696. To prosecute cases removed to federal courts. It shall be the duty of the solicitors of this state, in whose jurisdiction the circuit and district courts of the United States are held, having first obtained the permission of the judges of said courts, to prosecute, or assist in the prosecution of, all criminal cases in said courts where the defendants are charged with violations of the laws of this state, and have moved their cases from the state to the federal courts under the provisions of the various acts of congress on such subjects.

Rev., s. 5381; Code, s. 1239; 1874-5, c. 164, s. 1.

7697. Compensation of solicitors in federal courts. For every such case in which the solicitor shall appear and prosecute, or assist in prosecuting, he shall be allowed twenty dollars; and if he cannot appear himself, by reason of a conflict of the time of holding his courts, or other good cause, he may appoint some one to act in his stead, who shall receive like compensation, and the prosecuting attorney shall be paid said fee by the treasurer of the state, upon the warrant of the auditor.

Rev., s. 5382; Code, s. 1240; 1874-5, c. 164, s. 2.

ART. 1. GOVERNMENT BY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

7698. Incorporation; action against state. The board of directors of the state's prison of North Carolina and their successors in office are and shall continue to be a corporation, with the name of the State Prison, which corporation shall be invested with all the property, real and personal, choses in action, and other rights now owned, held or enjoyed by the North Carolina penitentiary or state's prison, and shall be liable for all of the debts and other liabilities for which the penitentiary or state's prison is now liable. Any suit or action against such corporation shall be construed to be brought against the state, and no person shall have the right to bring or maintain any suit or action against it, nor shall any of the courts of the state have jurisdiction to try, hear, or determine any such suit or action, except as allowed by the constitution in case of claims against the state.

Rev., s. 5383; 1901, c. 472, s. 1; Const., art. 4, s. 9.

State prison cannot be sued, since it is an action against the state: Moody v. State Prison, 128-12. For an action by state prison, see State Prison v. Hoffman, 159-564.

Case of historical interest: Day's case, 124-362.

7699. Directors appointed by governor; term four years. The state's prison of North Carolina shall be governed and controlled by a board of directors which shall consist of a chairman and four other members, to be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate. The board shall be so appointed during the session of the general assembly of one thousand nine hundred and five, and every four years thereafter, and their term of office shall be four years, beginning on the fifteenth day of March next after their appointment.

Rev., s. 5384; 1901, c. 472, ss. 3, 9.

Cases of historical interest upon the status of the superintendent and the directors as public officers; as to their appointment and as to the power of the legislature to legislate them out: Day's case, 124-362; Welker v. Bledsoe, 68-457.

7700. Governor may remove directors. The governor is empowered to remove the chairman or any member of the board of directors from office for inefficiency or misconduct in office, or if he shall become neglectful of his official duties. The governor shall give such party at least ten days notice of such intended removal, and the grounds therefor, naming a day certain on which such party may be heard. On the day named the governor shall give said party a full hearing, and the governor's decision upon the matter shall be final.

Rev., s. 5385; 1901, c. 472, s. 13.

7701. Directors to fill vacancies. Whenever any vacancy shall occur in such board of directors the same shall be filled by the remaining members of such board of directors.

Rev., s. 5386; 1899, c. 601.

7702. Directors to take oath of office. The board of directors shall meet in the state's prison, near Raleigh, or in the city of Raleigh, on or after the fifteenth day of March next after appointment, and, after taking the proper oath of office before some person authorized to administer oaths, enter upon the discharge of the duties hereby imposed upon them.

Rev., s. 5387; 1901, c. 472, s. 10.

7703. Directors to employ servants and agents. The board of directors are authorized to employ such managers, wardens, physicians, supervisors, overseers, and other servants or agents as they may deem necessary for the management of the affairs of the state's prison and the safe-keeping and employment of the convicts therein confined. They shall fix the compensation of such servants or agents, prescribe their duties by proper rules and regulations, and may discharge them at will.

Rev., s. 5388; 1901, c. 472, s. 3.

7704. Employees' bonds; money paid to state treasurer. The board of directors shall require such of its officers, employees or agents as they shall authorize to receive the moneys and earnings of said institutions to enter into good bonds, to be approved by the board, in such amounts as will fully secure their faithfully accounting for the same. All moneys belonging to said institution which shall come to the hands of any of its officers or employees shall be paid into the hands of the state treasurer within ten days after the same is received, accompanied by a statement showing the source or sources from which the same was derived.

Rev., s. 5389; 1901, c. 472, s. 7.

7705. Acquisition and alienation of property. The state's prison is empowered to acquire and hold, by gift, devise, purchase, or lease, all such property and estate, both real and personal, as may be necessary or convenient in the conduct of its operations and as may be authorized by law; and to dispose of such property and estate by lease, subletting, sale, and conveyance; but no sale or conveyance of its real estate shall be made except by the sanction of a unanimous vote of the board of directors and the approval of the governor.

Rev., s. 5392; 1901, c. 472, ss. 2, 6.

7706. Directors manage property and convicts. The board of directors shall have charge of and, through its agents and employees, hold and manage all the property and effects of the corporation, and conduct the operation of all its affairs. The board of directors may adopt and enforce such rules and regulations for the government of the institution, its agents and employees, and the convicts therein confined, as to them may seem just and proper.

Rev., s. 5390; 1901, c. 472, s. 4.

7707. Custody, employment, hiring out and recapture of convicts. The board of directors shall make provision for receiving and keeping in custody, until discharged according to law, all convicts now confined in such prison, and all such as may be sentenced to imprisonment therein by the courts of this state. It shall also provide for the employment of such convicts, either in the prison or on farms leased or owned by the corporation; and may contract for the hire or employment of any able-bodied convicts, not necessary to be detained in the prison, near Raleigh, upon such terms as may be just and fair to the corporation, but such convicts, when so hired or employed, shall remain under the actual management, control, and care of the board of directors or its employees, agents, and servants; but no female convict shall be worked on public roads or streets. The board of directors may provide for the recapture of convicts that may escape from such prison, in such manner as it may deem best, and may pay such reward and expenses to any person making such recaptures as it may think proper. Any citizen of North Carolina shall have authority without warrant to apprehend any convict who may escape before the expiration of his term of imprisonment, and return him to the state's prison.

Rev., s. 5391; 1895, c. 194, s. 5; 1897, c. 270; 1901, c. 472, ss. 5, 6.

7708. Report to governor. The board of directors shall make to the governor a full report of the financial and physical condition of the said state's prison of North Carolina annually and at such other times as the governor may call for same.

Rev., s. 5393; 1901, c. 472, s. 12.

7709. Compensation of board; not eligible to other office. The members of the board of directors shall receive as compensation for their services four dollars per day each, and five cents per mile each way of travel, while in the discharge of their official duties; but the board may allow its chairman a salary in lieu of per diem and mileage, and confer such authority, and impose such duties upon him in reference to the management of the institution as it may think proper. No member of the board of directors shall be eligible to any other office or employment in connection with the state's prison.

Rev., s. 5394; 1901, c. 472, s. 11.

7710. Directors not to furnish supplies. No director shall furnish any supplies or materials, directly or indirectly, for the support of the convicts, or for the use of the state's prison.

Rev., s. 5395; Code, s. 3429; 1870-1, c. 191, s. 9; 1873-4, c. 158, s. 20; 1879, c. 333, s. 6.

See Osborn v. Leach, 135-628.

7711. Duty of state treasurer. The treasurer of the state shall keep the funds of the state's prison separate from other public funds, and shall disburse the same on account of the state's prison upon vouchers consisting of itemized accounts of the claim, and an order of payment signed by such officer or agent as the board of directors shall authorize to sign the same, approved by the chairman of the board. Duplicates of such vouchers shall be kept and filed in the office of the chairman of the board of directors, and the originals thereof shall be kept and filed when paid in the office of the state treasurer.

Rev., s. 5396; 1901, c. 472, s. 8.

7712. Work of convicts on public roads. The board of directors of the state prison are authorized to work the prisoners committed to their charge on the public roads of the state by organizing state camps for housing and feeding the prisoners while at work on such roads, but the construction of such camps must be in accordance with plans approved by the state highway commission and the state board of health, but if worked upon the public roads of any county or subdivision thereof, then such county or subdivision shall pay to the state prison such compensation as may be agreed upon by such county or subdivision thereof and the board of prison directors.

7713. Supervision of jails and camps by board of health. The state board of health shall have the same supervision of all jails, county camps, or other places of confinement of county or city prisoners in regard to method of construction, sanitary and hygienic care, as they have over the state prison, and the county and city authorities will carry out the directions of the board of health.

7714. Sanitary and hygienic care of prisoners. The sanitary and hygienic care of the prisoners shall be under the direction, supervision, and regulation of the state board of health, and all camps and camp equipment shall conform to the plans and specifications of and be approved by the state board of health; and the board of directors of the state prison shall do such things as may be necessary to carry out the recommendations of the state board of health. The supervision of the state board of health shall apply to the state prison, the state farms, and county or state camps or other places where the prisoners are confined or housed, and such recommendations as shall be made by the state board of health regarding clothes, bedding, tableware, and bathing for the prisoners shall be carried out by the board of directors of the state prison.

7715. Quarters at state farm. In order to erect suitable quarters for the prisoners kept at the state farms, the board of directors of the state prison is authorized and directed to spend a sufficient amount of the funds under the control of the board to pay for the erection of sanitary quarters for the prisoners with individual cells, when cells are deemed necessary, for each prisoner, and the plans and specifications for the erection of such quarters shall be approved by the state board of health.

1917, c. 286, s. 14.

ART. 2. PRISONERS SENT TO STATE PRISON

7716. What prisoners sent to state prison. All persons convicted of crime in any of the courts of this state whose sentence shall be for five years or more shall be sent to the state prison.

1917, c. 286, s. 1.

7717. Convicts sent to place of labor. The board of directors shall, as far as practicable, make arrangements for the conveying of convicts from the places where convicted, direct to the place where they are to be worked, when it would be to the interest of the state so to do.

Rev., s. 5397; Code, s. 3428; 1879, c. 333, s. 5; 1881, c. 289, s. 2.

7718. To be sent within five days. The sheriff, having in charge any prisoner sentenced to the state's prison, shall proceed to send him to the state's prison or place of assignment, within five days after the adjournment of the court at which he was sentenced, if no appeal has been taken.

Rev., s. 5398; Code, s. 3432; 1869-70, c. 180, s. 3.

7719. Copy of affidavit filed with commissioners. The sheriff shall file with the board of commissioners of his county a copy of his affidavit as to necessary guard, together with a copy of his itemized account of expenses, both certified to by the auditor as true copies of those on file in his office.

Rev., s. 5399; Code, s. 3437; 1874-5, c. 107, s. 3.

Failure to file affidavit a misdemeanor, see sections 4384, 4386.

7720. State not liable for expenses before convicts received. The state is not liable for the expense of maintaining convicts until they have been received by the state's prison authorities, nor shall any moneys be paid out of the treasury for support of convicts prior to such reception.

Rev., s. 5400; Code, s. 3438; 1870-1, c. 124, s. 3.

See Taylor v. Adams, 66-338.

ART. 3. PRISON REGULATIONS

7721. Board to make regulations. The board of directors is authorized to adopt such rules and regulations for enforcing discipline as their judgment may indicate, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the state. And they shall print and post the same in the cells of the convicts, and the same shall be read to every convict in the state's prison when received.

Rev., s. 5401; Code, s. 3444; 1873-4, c. 158, s. 15.

7722. Infraction of rules recorded. The board of directors shall require to be kept a book in which shall be entered a record of every infraction of the published rules of discipline with the name of the prisoner so guilty, and the punishment inflicted therefor, which record shall be submitted to the directors at their monthly meeting.

Rev., s. 5402; Code, s. 3445; 1873-4, c. 158, s. 16; 1899, c. 457.

7723. Prisoners classified and distinguished. The board of directors of the state prison shall direct the classification of all male prisoners committed to their charge into three classes or grades, as follows: In the first class shall be included all those prisoners who have given evidence that they will, or whom it is believed will, observe the rules and regulations and work diligently, and are likely to maintain themselves by honest industry after their discharge; in the second class shall be included those prisoners who have not as yet given evidence that they can be trusted, but are competent to work and are reasonably obedient to the rules and regulations of the institution; and in the third class shall be those prisoners who have demonstrated that they are incorrigible, have no respect for the rules and regulations, and seriously interfere with the discipline and the effectiveness of the labor of the other prisoners. The men of the first class shall be known as honor men, and when grouped together in camps as hereinafter provided for, the camp shall be known as an "honor camp," and they shall wear a distinctive but not very conspicuous uniform, and shall be worked without guards, and when in prison or camps, or in any other place of detention, they shall not be chained or under armed guards at night. The men of the second class shall wear a conspicuous uniform, and shall be worked under armed guards, but shall not wear chains while at work, but may or may not be chained at night, in the discretion of the superintendent. The men of the third class shall be dressed in stripes, shall be worked under armed guards, wear chains during the day, whenever this is considered necessary, and be chained at night when in camp, and shall be worked as far as possible in stockades, inclosing rock quarries, but may be worked on public roads in camps containing only this class of men, at the discretion of the superintendent, or that may hereafter be made by the general assembly. The classification of male prisoners shall apply to female prisoners so far as it relates to commutation of time and pay for their work. Honor men may be worked wherever any work is being carried on by the prison, provided their privileges and immunities as set forth in this section are in no wise abridged.

7724. Assignment to classes and changes. Persons sentenced to the penitentiary or state prison for the first time shall be placed in the first or second class, but the assignment of a prisoner to any one of the three classes referred to in this article shall not be considered to mean that such prisoner must remain in such class, but a prisoner may be changed from a lower to a higher class or from a higher to a lower class, depending upon his behavior, and it is the purpose and intent of this section to direct the board of directors of the state prison to encourage and assist the men to so improve themselves that they can be transferred from a lower to a higher class or grade.

7725. Commutation of time, allowances, and earnings. The men of the first class shall be allowed a commutation of their sentence of one hundred and four days for each year served, and the men of the second class shall be allowed a commutation of their sentence of seventy-eight days for each year they serve, and the men of the third class shall be allowed a commutation of their sentence of fifty-two days for each year they serve. If a man remains in the third class for three continuous years, he shall not be allowed any further commutation of time. In the event any prisoner shall be sentenced for a less period of time than one year, said prisoner shall be entitled to a proportionate commutation of his sentence. The men of the first class shall be allowed fifteen cents per day for each day they work, and those in the second class ten cents per day, and those in the third class five cents per day for each day they work; and the sums shall, in case the prisoner has a family which was dependent upon him, be paid monthly to such family. In case the prisoner has no family, then the money earned by said prisoner shall become accumulative, to be paid over to the prisoner at the time of his discharge, or to be drawn upon by the prisoner for the purchase of such things as he may desire and for other purposes, by and with the approval of the superintendent. All life prisoners shall receive four cents per day for each day they work. This amount to be placed to their credit on the books of the institution; one-half of which may be drawn out semiannually and used as they see fit, and the other half to remain to their credit on the books of the institution and paid to them in case they are pardoned.

Rev., ss. 5402, 5403; Code, s. 3445; 1873-4, c. 158, s. 16; 1899, c. 457; 1901, c. 726; 1911, c. 153; 1917, c. 286, s. 6; 1919, c. 80, s. 3.

A prisoner for life is not entitled to diminution of imprisonment for good behavior: In re McMahon, 125-38—but a prisoner whose term for life has been commuted to a term for years is so entitled, from and after the date of such commutation, but not before, Ibid.

7726. Employment at useful labor; hours per day. The board of directors of the state prison shall, through the superintendent, wardens, managers, or officials of the penitentiary, state farms, or reformatories in the state, so far as is practicable, cause all the prisoners in such institutions who are physically capable thereof to be employed at useful labor not to exceed ten hours of each day, other than Sundays and public holidays: Provided, that not more than nine hours work per day shall be permitted when prisoners are hired to private persons, firms, or corporations. This section shall not apply to work on the state farm, nor to existing contracts heretofore made by this state.

7727. Prisoners examined for assignment to work. Each prisoner committed to the charge of the board of directors of the state prison shall be carefully examined by a competent physician in order to determine his physical and mental condition, and his assignment to the prison, farm, or camps, and the work that he is required to do, shall be dependent upon the report of said physician as to his physical and mental capacity.

1917, c. 286, s. 22.

7728. Whipping or flogging prisoners. It is unlawful for the board of directors of the state prison to whip or flog, or have whipped or flogged, any prisoner committed to their charge until twenty-four hours after the report of the offense or disobedience, and only then in the presence of the prison physician or prison chaplain; and no prisoner other than those of the third class as defined in this article shall be whipped or flogged at any time.

1917, c. 286, s. 7.

Convicts not subjected to flogging, except under regulations prescribed by proper authorities: State v. Mincher, 172-895; State v. Nipper, 166-272.

7729. Prisoner's supplies and clothes to be marked. The prisoner's number shall be used for marking all clothes, bedclothing, beds, and other supplies used by prisoners, so that when such clothes, bedclothing, and supplies are washed and cleaned they shall be always returned for the use of the same prisoner.

1917, c. 286, s. 9.

7730. Uniform for prisoners; felon's stripes. It is the duty of the several judicial officers of the state, in assigning any person to work the public roads of any county, to designate in each judgment that such as may be convicted of a felony shall wear felon's stripes, and such as are convicted of a misdemeanor shall not wear felon's stripes. In order to carry into effect the provisions of this section, the state prison board shall prescribe a uniform to be worn by persons convicted of felony, and a uniform to be worn by persons convicted of a misdemeanor which shall be different and easily distinguished from the uniform of the felon; but the state prison board or other governing authority may in their discretion allow prisoners sentenced for misdemeanor only to wear clothes similar to that worn by the ordinary citizen. The board of commissioners of the respective counties in which convicts are worked on the public roads shall provide uniforms of each kind, except in those cases exempted in this section.

The judge should designate in the sentence whether the offense is a felony or misdemeanor or designate the kind of clothes for the convict: State v. Earnhardt, 170-725.

7731. Violation as to work in felon's uniform; officer liable. It shall be unlawful to work persons convicted of a felony in other than the uniform of a felon, or to clothe a person convicted of a misdemeanor in the uniform of a felon. Any superintendent of convicts or other person in authority who shall violate this law shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the court; and, moreover, be liable in damage to the party aggrieved, to be recovered in a civil action, which may be brought in either the county from which the party was sentenced or the county in which the wrong was done.

Person not guilty unless the sentence designates the nature of the offense or the clothes to be worn: State v. Earnhardt, 170-725. Section referred to in State v. Nipper, 166-272.

7732. Recreation and instruction of prisoners. The board of directors of the state prison is authorized and directed to arrange certain forms of recreation for the prisoners, and to arrange so that the prisoners during their leisure hours between work and time to retire shall have an opportunity to take part in games, and attend lectures, and take part in other forms of amusement as may be provided by the board. The board is also authorized and directed to make such arrangements as are necessary to enable classes to be organized amongst the prisoners, so that those who desire may receive instruction in various lines of educational pursuits. The board shall utilize, where possible, the services of the prisoners who are sufficiently educated to act as instructors for such classes in education; such services, however, shall be voluntary on the part of the prisoner. The board is further authorized and directed to make such arrangements as will be necessary so that religious services may be held for the prisoners on Sunday and at such other times as they may deem wise. The attendance of the prisoners at such religious services shall be voluntary. The provisions of this section shall apply to the state prison, state farm, and state camps.

1917, c. 286, s. 15.

7733. Use of intoxicants forbidden to employees. No one addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors shall be employed as superintendent, warden, guard, or in any other position connected with the state prison, state farm, state camps, where such position requires the incumbent thereof to have any charge or direction of the prisoners; and any one holding such position, or any one who may be employed in any other capacity in the state prison, state farms, or state camps, who shall come under the influence of intoxicating liquors shall at once cease to be an employee of any of the institutions and shall not be eligible for reinstatement to such position or be employed in any other position in any of the institutions. Any superintendent, warden, guard, supervisor, or other person holding any position in the state prison who curses a prisoner under his charge shall at once cease to be an employee of the institution and shall not be eligible for reinstatement.

1917, c. 286, s. 16; 1919, c. 80, s. 8.

7734. Correspondence of prisoners regulated. The prisoners confined at any state prison, state farm, or state camp who are in the first class or grade authorized by this article shall be allowed general correspondence privileges in so far as such correspondence does not interfere with the work and discipline of the prison, farm, or camp; prisoners who are in the second class or grade shall be allowed similar correspondence privileges, but somewhat more restricted than those in the first class or grade; and prisoners who are in the third class or grade shall only be allowed such correspondence privileges as may be deemed best by the superintendent. Any prisoner shall be permitted to write a letter to the governor of the state at any time he desires; and such letter shall be mailed for him as other letters are mailed.

7735. Divine services; Sunday school. The board of directors is authorized to provide for divine service for the convicts each Sunday, if possible, and to secure the visits of some minister at the hospital to administer to the spiritual wants of the sick, and an appropriation of not more than five hundred dollars per annum may be made for these purposes. The sum of fifty dollars per annum is appropriated for the use of the state's prison Sunday school, to be paid to the warden of the state's prison by the state treasurer on the warrant of the auditor.

Rev., s. 5405; Code, s. 3446; 1873-4, c. 158, s. 18; 1883, c. 349.

7736. Religious instruction at Caledonia farm. The board of directors of the state's prison is authorized and directed, in order to provide religious worship for the prisoners confined in the state's prison, known as the Caledonia farm, to employ a resident minister of the gospel and to provide for his residence and support in such manner as the board may determine. It shall be the duty of such resident minister of the gospel to render religious services to the prisoners in accordance with such rules and regulations as the board of directors may prescribe.

7737. Parole system regulated. The board of directors of the state prison is authorized and directed to establish such rules and regulations as may be necessary for developing a system for paroling prisoners, and are authorized and directed to put into practice such rules and regulations as early as it can be consistently done.

1917, c. 286, s. 18.

7738. Indeterminate sentence and discharge. The various judges of the superior courts of North Carolina are authorized and directed, in their discretion, in sentencing prisoners to the state prison to pass upon such prisoner a minimum and maximum sentence, thus making the sentence of the prisoner an indeterminate sentence, and the board of directors of the state prison is authorized and directed to consider at least once every six months the cases of such prisoners as have been committed to the state prison with an indeterminate sentence, as to whether such prisoner is entitled to a discharge, and to take into consideration the prisoner's record since committed to the charge of the board of directors of the state prison: Provided, that the prisoner has served the minimum time to which he was sentenced after allowing credit for good behavior as authorized by law.

1917, c. 286, s. 19.

7739. Application for pardon to include record. Any application for the pardon of a prisoner committed to the discharge of the board of directors of the state prison shall include a record of such prisoner since he was committed to the charge of the board; and in determining whether or not a parole or pardon shall be granted, consideration shall be given to the record of such prisoner; and the record of such prisoner shall be available to those making the application.

1917, c. 286, s. 20.

7740. Prisoners of different races kept separate. White and colored prisoners shall not be confined or shackled together in the same room of any building or tent, either in the state prison or at any state or county convict camp, during the eating or sleeping hours, and at all other times the separation of the two races shall be as complete as practicable. Any officer or employee of either the state or any county in the state having charge of convicts or prisoners who shall violate or permit the violation of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days.

1909, c. 832, ss. 1, 2; 1917, c. 286, s. 24.

7741. Separation of youthful prisoners. Youthful convicts shall be kept separate from old and hardened criminals in sleeping quarters.

1917, c. 286, s. 24.

7742. Punishment for recaptured prisoners. If a prisoner of the first or second class or grade attempts to escape or leaves the state prison, state farm, or state camp without permission, he shall, upon being recaptured, be reduced to the third class or grade and shall permanently lose all his accumulated time and money; and the board of directors of the state prison is authorized and directed to use every means possible to recapture any man escaping or leaving, without permission, any of the state prisons, camps, or farms, regardless of expense.

Rev., s. 5407; Code, s. 3442; 1873-4, c. 158, s. 13; 1917, c. 286, s. 13.

7743. Recapture of escaped felons; reward. It is the duty of the superintendent of the state's prison, when any person escapes from the state's prison who has been confined or placed to work, to immediately notify the governor, and to accompany such notice with a full description of the escaped, together with such information as will be of service in the recapture. The governor is authorized to offer such reward as he may deem advisable and necessary for the recapture and return to the state's prison of any person who may escape or who heretofore has escaped therefrom. Such reward when earned shall be paid by the treasurer of the state upon the warrant of the governor and charged to the penitentiary board, and by said board to be repaid to the state treasurer, and accounted for as a part of the expense of maintaining the state's prisoners.

7744. Copy of this article supplied to prisoners. This article shall be printed in pamphlet form and each prisoner committed to the charge of the board of directors of the state prison shall be supplied with a copy, and its contents shall be explained to him at the time he is brought to the state prison.

1917, c. 286, s. 21.

7745. Overseers and guards may maintain discipline. When a convict or several combined shall offer violence to any officer, overseer or guard, or to any convict, or attempt to do any injury to the prison building or the workshops, or shall attempt to escape, or shall resist or disobey any lawful command, the officer, overseer, or guard shall use any means necessary to defend himself, to enforce the observance of discipline, to secure the person of the offender and to prevent an escape.

Rev., s. 5408; Code, s. 3443; 1873-4, c. 158, s. 14.

For selling liquor and furnishing weapons to convicts, see sections 4508, 4406.

Superintendent of a convict gang, not known to be an officer, has no right to shoot or kill one who, having committed petty larceny and having escaped from prison, is running away to avoid arrest: State v. Stancill, 128-606.

7746. Death of convict investigated by directors. It shall be the duty of the board of directors, or some member thereof, upon information of the death of a convict other than by natural causes, to investigate the cause thereof and report the results of such investigation to the governor, and for this purpose the board of directors, or any member thereof, shall have power to administer oaths, and send for persons and papers.

Rev., s. 5409; 1885, c. 379, s. 2.

7747. Convict furnished transportation out of commutation money. The superintendent of the state's prison shall furnish to every convict, upon the expiration of his term of imprisonment, a certificate of transportation or railroad ticket to the county in which such convict was convicted, or to any other county less distant which such convict may designate, and in which the state's prison may not have convicts employed, and shall pay the cost thereof out of commutation money, if there be any to the credit of such convict, under the provisions of this chapter; and the superintendent shall so countersign such certificates or tickets as to render them nontransferable, and shall compel every convict, as the proper holder thereof, to take passage upon the train or steamboat bound for the destination of such convict.

Rev., s. 5404; 1893, c. 370.

7748. Children born in state's prison. Any child born of a female convict while she is in the custody of the state's prison that shall not be taken in charge upon arrival at an age suitable to be separated from the mother by some of its kindred or other responsible party shall, on the application of the deputy warden to the clerk of the superior court of the county of Wake, be disposed of as the law provides in the case of children whose parents are dead or unable to provide for them.

Rev., s. 5406; Code, s. 3447; 1873-4, c. 158, s. 19.

NOTE.—See art. 2, chapter Child Welfare.

For convicts becoming insane, see section 6238.

ART. 4. BOARD OF PAROLE

7749. Creation of board; duties and powers. There is established a board to be known and designated as an "Advisory Board of Parole," consisting of the attorney-general, chairman, the chairman of the board of directors of the state's prison, and the chairman of the board of state charities, whose duties and powers shall be to act in an advisory capacity to the governor with respect to the parole or conditional pardon of prisoners in the state's prison. The chairman of the board of directors of the state's prison and the chairman of the board of state charities shall be paid for their services as members of such board the same per diem and expenses as are now or may be allowed by law to the chairman of the board of directors of the state's prison, and such payment shall be made by the state treasurer upon voucher from the state auditor issued upon itemized statement approved by the chairman of the board of parole, and sums now due for services for the years one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and one thousand nine hundred and eighteen shall be paid in like manner.

7750. Record of conduct of prisoners. It is the duty of the superintendent of the state's prison and superintendents of county chain-gangs or road forces, under rules and regulations to be made and promulgated by the board of parole, to keep a record of the conduct and demeanor of all prisoners held in the state's prison and on county chain-gangs. The advisory board of parole shall formulate rules for application for pardons or paroles for persons serving on county chain-gangs, and when such rules have been approved by the governor they shall be followed and observed by all persons applying for pardons or paroles for prisoners serving upon chain-gangs or in other county or local prisons.

7751. Meetings of board. The advisory board of parole shall meet once each month in the office of the attorney-general at such time as may be agreed upon by the board, and carefully consider the record and all other facts and circumstances which may be produced, to ascertain whether or not any prisoner, the consideration of whose privilege of parole may come before the board, should be recommended to the governor as a proper person to be paroled on a conditional pardon.

1917, c. 278, s. 3.

7752. Cases considered. After any prisoner has been confined in the state's prison as long as the minimum punishment prescribed by statute for the offense of which such prisoner was convicted, provided such minimum punishment is not less than one-fourth the term for which such prisoner was sentenced by the court, at the next monthly meeting of the board of parole the superintendent of the state's prison shall lay before the board the case of such prisoner to determine whether or not, in the opinion of the board, such prisoner should be discharged on parole; but this shall not be understood as depriving the board of parole of the discretion of taking up the case of any prisoner at any time prior to that above stated. The board shall ascertain from the record of such prisoner for the time during which he has been held, or for the last nine months, whether he has been of good demeanor and of meritorious conduct, as shown by obedience to the rules and regulations, and from any other facts and circumstances which may be produced with respect to his past life and conduct, whether such prisoner is a proper subject to recommend to the governor for parole under a conditional pardon.

1917, c. 278, s. 4.

7753. Report to governor; conditional pardon; allowance to prisoners. After the board has ascertained the facts mentioned above, they shall have discretion and power to determine whether or not, in their judgment, such prisoner is a proper subject for parole under a conditional pardon. And if they determine that such parole should be granted, they shall make a brief report in writing to the governor, with their findings of fact as to his record while in the state's prison, as to his previous life and conduct, and as to indications of his purpose to reform; and if the governor approve the granting of a parole in such case, he may grant a conditional pardon under his constitutional power to grant reprieves, commutations, and pardons, and according to the practice and procedure heretofore observed and followed in the granting of conditional pardons by the executive. On the discharge of any prisoner from the state's prison on parole, he shall be provided, at the expense of the state, with a suit of clothes, transportation to the county in which he has secured employment or in which it is his purpose to reside, and with five dollars in cash, all to be paid by order of the superintendent of the state's prison from the funds belonging to such prison. Such parole shall be for such time as will fill out the term of imprisonment to which the prisoner was sentenced.

1917, c. 278, s. 5.

7754. Prisoners discharged on parole to report monthly. Any person discharged on parole under this article shall, during the parole, report on the second Monday in each month to the clerk of the superior court of the county in which he resides, and show to the satisfaction of such clerk that, by his industry and good conduct, he has satisfied the condition of his parole.

1917, c. 278, s. 6.

7755. Reimprisonment. If the governor shall order the reimprisonment of any person discharged on parole, he may issue his order directly to the sheriff of the county in which such prisoner was due to report to the clerk of the superior court, or to the sheriff of any county in the state, directing the arrest of such person and his return by such officer to the state's prison, the expense of which shall be paid by the state treasurer upon a warrant issued by the state auditor on an order made by the superintendent of the state's prison.

7756. No deduction of time. If any such person be reimprisoned by order of the governor for failure to report monthly to the clerk, or for violation of the conditions of his parole, the time such person has been out on parole shall not be deducted from the term of imprisonment to which he was originally sentenced by the court, but the time of his imprisonment shall be understood as continuing from the time he was discharged on his parole.

1917, c. 278, s. 8.

7757. No impairment of governor's powers. This article is not to be taken as in any way attempting to interfere with or regulate the power of the governor to grant reprieves, commutations, and pardons upon his own initiative and executive responsibility in as full and ample a manner as it has heretofore been understood and exercised.

1917, c. 278, s. 9.

ART. 5. FARMING OUT CONVICTS

7758. Counties and towns may employ. It shall be lawful for the board of commissioners of any county, and likewise for the corporate authorities of any city or town, to contract in writing with the board of directors of the state's prison for the employment of such convicts as by existing laws may be hired to railroad companies, upon the highways or streets, for the construction or improvement of the same, of the county, city, or town whose authorities shall so hire such convicts.

Rev., s. 5410; Code, s. 3449; 1881, c. 127, s. 1.

7759. Duty to hire to counties and towns. Upon application to them it shall be the duty of the board of directors of the state's prison to hire to the board of commissioners of any county, and to the corporate authorities of any city or town, for the purpose specified in the preceding section, such convicts as may lawfully be hired for service outside the state's prison, as shall not at the time of such application be so hired; but the convicts hired for service upon the highways and streets shall be fed, clothed, and quartered while so employed by the board of directors or managers of the state's prison as in case of the hiring of convicts to railroad companies.

Rev., s. 5411; Code, s. 3450; 1881, c. 127, s. 2.

For allowing escape of or maltreating a convict, see section 4405.

7760. Contract for hire; how enforced. The board of commissioners of any county and the corporate authorities of any city or town so hiring such convicts shall pay into the treasury of the state for the labor of any convict so hired a sum of money equal to the average cost in money of feeding, clothing, guarding, and transporting such convicts to and from the place of employment for the town of such hiring, and the money so to be paid at such times as may be agreed upon in the contract of hire; and if any such county, city, or town shall fail to pay the money due for such hiring, the same shall bear interest from the time it shall become due until paid, at the rate of six per cent per annum, if such rate is agreed upon in such written contract, and an action to recover any sum of money so due and imposed may be brought by the attorney-general in the superior court of the county of Wake in the name of the state.

Rev., s. 5412; Code, s. 3451; 1881, c. 127, s. 3.

7761. Counties to appoint superintendents. The board of commissioners of any county and the corporate authorities of any city or town so hiring such convicts shall have power to appoint and remove at will all such necessary agents to superintend the construction or improvement of such highways and streets as they may deem proper, and to pay the costs and expenses incident to such hiring may levy taxes and raise money as in other respects.

Rev., s. 5413; Code, s. 3452; 1881, c. 127, s. 4.

7762. Contracts for labor or products of labor regulated. The board of directors of the state prison shall not, nor shall any other authority whatsoever, make any contract by which the labor or time of any prisoner or convict sentenced to the state prison or reformatory, or the product or profit of his work, shall be contracted, let, farmed out, given or sold to any person, firm, association, or corporation, unless such convict shall be fed and clothed by the prison and shall be quartered, guarded and worked under the sole supervision and control of the prison directors; except that the prisoner or convict may work for and the products of his labor may be disposed of to the state or for or to any public institution owned, managed, or controlled by the state, or for or to any county of the state; but the products of the state farm may be sold in the open market for the purpose of making the state prison self-supporting, as contemplated by the constitution. This section shall not apply to any bona fide contracts already made by the state with any person, firm, or corporation for the use of prisoners or convicts, if such contract is in force.

7763. Work on railroad and public works. No state convicts shall be worked upon any railroad or public works of the state or county or any subdivision of any county or any works of any character whatsoever if, in the opinion of the governor and board of directors of the state prison, the prison would thereby be made not self-sustaining; and should at any time the surplus convicts that are not already engaged in farm work be engaged in any work for state, county or any subdivision thereof, or any contract work of any nature, and, in the judgment of the governor and the board of directors, the services of such convicts should be needed at the state farm to properly cultivate or to house the crops, the said board of directors are hereby authorized and empowered to discontinue such work and move the prisoners to the state farm at once. This section shall not be construed to interfere with contracts or agreements now in existence.

1919, c. 80, s. 10.

ART. 6. REFORMATORY

7764. Directors may establish reformatory. There may be established in connection with the North Carolina state's prison, under the control and direction of the board of directors of that institution, a reformatory either within the enclosure of the penitentiary or elsewhere as said board shall deem most practicable and economical, in which reformatory convicts under the age of eighteen years sentenced to the penitentiary shall be confined separate and apart from other convicts.

Rev., s. 5414; 1887, c. 356, s. 1; 1913, c. 72.

7765. May exempt from convict garb. It shall be in the discretion of the board to exempt the convicts confined in the reformatory from the requirement of wearing the usual convict garb.

Rev., s. 5415; 1887, c. 356, s. 2.

7766. Not to apply to certain crimes. Nothing in the two preceding sections shall apply to convicts sentenced for the crimes of murder, arson, rape, or burglary.

Rev., s. 5416; 1887, c. 356, s. 3.

SUBCHAPTER I. LEVY OF TAXES (Revenue Act)

ART. 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

7767. Object for which tax is levied. The taxes hereinafter designated are payable in the existing national currency, and shall be assessed and collected under the rules and regulations prescribed by law, and applied to the payment of the expenses of the state government, the appropriations to charitable and penal institutions, other specific appropriations made by law, and the interest on the debt of this state.

Rev., s. 5106; 1917, c. 231, s. 1; 1919, c. 90, s. 1.

The general assembly has an unlimited right to tax all persons domiciled within the state, and all property within the state, except so far as this right has been limited by the constitution, either by express words or by necessary implication: Pullen v. Comrs., 66-361.

The revenue act of 1887 was enacted for the purpose of providing revenue for state purposes only: Parker v. Comrs., 104-166.

Poll taxes collected under a special act for highways cannot be diverted to schools and the support of the poor: Bd. of Education v. Comrs., 137-310.

Incidental bills of cost devolved upon the state by failure of actions brought by it (other than those specified in sections 1237 and 1239) are not "expenses of the state government" as contemplated by this section: Garner v. Worth, 122-250.

For application of state and county capitation tax, see cases cited under sec. 2, art. 5, of state constitution.

As to payment of taxes in anything but the existing national currency, see under section 7977.

7768. Tax exemptions repealed. Whenever in any law or act of incorporation, granted either under the general law or by special act, there is any limitation or exemption of taxation, the same is hereby repealed, and all the property and effects of all such corporations other than the bonds of the state and of the United States government shall be liable to taxation, except property belonging to the United States and to municipal corporations and property held for the benefit of churches, religious societies, charitable, educational, literary, or benevolent institutions or orders, and also cemeteries: Provided, that no property whatever held or used for investment, speculation, or rent shall be exempt, other than bonds of this state and of the United States government, unless said rent or the interest on or income from such investments shall be used exclusively for religious, charitable, or benevolent purposes, or the interest upon the bonded indebtedness of said religious, charitable, or benevolent institutions.

Rev., s. 5107; 1917, c. 231, s. 5; 1919, c. 90, s. 5.

Property held for rent or profit by religious societies is not exempt from taxation: Davis v. Salisbury, 161-56. This section abolishes all exemption from taxation except as therein stated: Southern Assembly v. Palmer, 166-75. This section is construed with 7901 in determining exemptions: Davis v. Salisbury, 161-56. The grant of an exemption from taxation without some consideration or equivalent therefor received by the state does not constitute a contract, but a privilege merely, which may be recalled at the pleasure of the legislature: Railroad v. Alsbrook, 110-137; see Jackson v. Commission, 130-385; Day's case, 124-389.

ART. 2. SCHEDULE A. GENERAL TAXES

Part 1. Poll and Property Tax

7769. Poll tax. On each taxable poll or male between the ages of twenty-one and fifty years, except the poor and infirm whom the county commissioners may declare and record fit subjects for exemption, there shall be annually levied and collected a tax of one dollar and forty-three cents, the proceeds of such tax to be devoted to purposes of education and the support of the poor, as may be prescribed by law, not inconsistent with the apportionment established by section two of article five of the constitution of this state.

Rev., s. 5109; 1917, c. 231, s. 2; 1919, c. 90, s. 2.

See section 1297 (2). See, also, cases under art. 5, sec. 1, state constitution.

The provision of the constitution is self-executing as to the equation between the property and poll tax; the property tax being fixed, the poll tax is automatically fixed: Kitchin v. Wood, 154-565, overruling Russell v. Ayer, 120-180. Mandamus will lie to compel county commissioners to levy sufficient poll tax: R. R. v. Comrs., 148-220.

7770. State tax on property. There shall be levied and collected annually an ad valorem tax of eleven and two-thirds cents for state purposes, four cents for pensions and thirty-two cents for public schools, making forty-seven and two-thirds cents on every one hundred dollars value of real and personal property in this state required to be listed in "An act to provide for the assessment of property and collection of taxes," subject to exemption made by law.

Rev., s. 5110; 1917, c. 231, s. 3; 1919, c. 90, s. 3.

For county levy, see section 1297 (2). For general limitations, see Const., art. 5.

Property tax and privilege taxes are distinct; both may be levied by municipal corporations, as for state and county purposes; and special exemption from one of these does not relieve from the other: Guano Co. v. Tarboro, 126-68.

The limitation as to one per cent for municipal taxation does not apply when the legislature has authorized a tax for a special purpose: Bain v. Goldsboro, 164-102; Underwood v. Ashboro, 152-641.

Provision in state constitution requiring a proportional poll and property tax does not apply to municipal corporations: Wingate v. Parker, 136-369—nor to other taxes except those levied for the ordinary state and county purposes, Moose v. Comrs., 172-419.

Requirement in the constitution, art. 5, sec. 7, that every act levying taxes shall state the objects to which they shall be appropriated, has no application to taxes levied by the county authorities for county purposes: Parker v. Comrs., 104-166.

Acts 1903, ch. 251, through the boards of equalization, provides a plain and adequate remedy at law to test the validity and regularity of a tax assessment, and it cannot be tested by injunction: Wilson v. Green, 135-343.

7771. Corporation taxes payable to state treasurer. 1. Amount to be paid. Every corporation, joint-stock association, limited partnership or company whatsoever, from which a report is required by law to be made to the corporation commission, shall be subject to and pay to the state treasurer annually the state school and pension tax as prescribed in the preceding section upon each one hundred dollars of the actual value of its whole capital stock of all kinds, including common, special, and preferred, as ascertained in the manner prescribed by law; and also the franchise tax imposed by section 7861.

2. Notice of amount and penalty; payment to be made. It shall be the duty of the state auditor to mail to every such corporation a statement of the amount of such taxes, which statement shall contain a copy of so much of this section as relates to penalty as notice of penalty for failure to pay said taxes; and it shall be the duty of the treasurer or other officer having charge of any such corporation, joint-stock association or limited partnership upon which a tax is imposed to transmit the amount of the tax to the state treasurer within thirty days from the date of such notice. If such tax is not paid by the first day of November it shall be the duty of the auditor to send, not later than November fifteenth, final notice to such delinquent corporation that penalty will be imposed if payment is not made as required by this section.

3. Enforcement of payment. If the said tax is not paid by the first day of December next following, the state treasurer shall certify to the state auditor a complete list of all such taxes due and unpaid. The state auditor shall add ten per centum to such taxes, and return to the state treasurer, charging the state treasurer with the amount so added, and the state auditor shall thereupon certify the same with such percentage added to the sheriff or tax collector of the county in which such delinquent corporation has its principal office, and charge such sheriff or tax collector with the amounts so certified. Such certificate by the state auditor to the sheriff or tax collector in any county shall have the same force and effect as a judgment and execution against the real and personal property of such corporation as is given by this chapter for the collection of other taxes, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff or tax collector to proceed to collect same, by levy, advertisement and sale, in the same manner as provided by law for the collection of other taxes. The sheriff or tax collector shall be allowed the same fees for collecting, or for levy, advertisement and sale as provided by law for collection of other taxes, the same to be allowed in settlement with the state treasurer.

4. Application of section. The provisions of this section shall apply to any taxes payable directly to the state treasurer that are due and unpaid on the tenth day of March, 1919, and such taxes may be certified for collection at any time during the year 1919: Provided, that for the purposes of this subchapter interests in limited partnerships or joint-stock associations shall be deemed to be capital stock and taxed accordingly: Provided, also, that corporations, limited partnerships, and joint-stock associations liable to tax on capital stock under this section shall not be required to make any report or pay any further tax on mortgages, bonds, other securities and credits owned by them in their own rights; but corporations, limited partnerships, and joint-stock associations holding such securities as trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, or in any other manner shall return and pay the tax imposed by this subchapter upon the securities so held by them as in case of individuals. Individual stockholders in any corporation, joint-stock association, limited partnership, or company paying a tax on its capital stock shall not be required to pay any tax on said stock or list the same, nor shall corporations legally holding capital stock in other corporations upon which the tax has been paid by the corporation issuing the same be required to pay any tax on said stock or list the same. Nor shall any individual stockholder of any foreign corporation be required to list or pay taxes on any share of its capital stock, if two-thirds in value of its entire property is situated and taxed in the state of North Carolina, or if such corporation has tangible assets within this state assessed for taxation at a value exceeding the par value of the total stock owned by citizens of this state, and the said corporation pays franchise tax on its entire issued and outstanding capital stock at the same rate as paid by domestic corporations.

See section 7941 et seq.

Corporations are not allowed to deduct from the value of their capital stock the stock which they hold in other corporations: State v. Morrison & Sons Co., 155-53. But when the corporation has paid its tax on capital stock, the county commissioners cannot assess against it the value of solvent credits, since these were considered in valuation of capital stock: Land Co. v. Smith, 151-70.

Part 2. Inheritance Tax

7772. Rate of inheritance tax. All real and personal property of whatever kind and nature which shall pass by will or by the intestate laws of this state from any person who may die seized or possessed of the same while a resident of this state, whether the person or persons dying seized thereof be domiciled within or out of the state (or if the decedent was not a resident of this state at the time of his death, such property or any part thereof within this state), or any interest therein or income therefrom which shall be transferred by deed, grant, sale, or gift, made in contemplation of the death of the grantor, bargainor, donor, or assignor, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after such death, to any person or persons or to bodies corporate or politic, in trust or otherwise, or by reason whereof any person or body corporate or politic shall become beneficially entitled in possession or expectancy to any property or the income thereof, shall be and hereby is made subject to a tax for the benefit of the state as follows, that is to say:

1. Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the lineal issue, or lineal ancestor, adopted child, or husband or wife, of the person who died possessed of such property aforesaid, at the following rates of tax for each one hundred dollars of the clear market value of such interest in such property:

	Rate of Tax
Above exemption up to $25,000.....	1 per cent
Excess over $25,000 and up to $100,000.....	2 per cent
Excess over $100,000 and up to $250,000.....	3 per cent
Excess over $250,000 and up to $500,000.....	4 per cent
Excess over $500,000.....	5 per cent

The persons mentioned in this class shall be entitled to the following exemptions: Widows, ten thousand dollars; each child under twenty-one years of age, five thousand dollars; all other beneficiaries mentioned in this subchapter, two thousand dollars each: Provided, grandchildren shall be allowed the single exemption of the child they represent, and in case of specific legacy or bequest the proportion of exemption to which they would be entitled if they took as representatives of the parent.

2. Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the brother or sister or descendant of the brother or sister of the person who died possessed as aforesaid, at the following rates of tax for each one hundred dollars of the clear market value of such interest:

	Rate of Tax
Twenty-five thousand dollars or less.....	3 per cent
Excess over $25,000 and up to $100,000.....	4 per cent
Excess over $100,000 and up to $250,000.....	5 per cent
Excess over $250,000 and up to $500,000.....	6 per cent
Excess over $500,000	7 per cent

3. Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be in any other degree of relationship or collateral consanguinity than is hereinbefore stated, or shall be a stranger in blood to the person who died possessed as aforesaid, or shall be a body politic or corporate, at the following rates of tax for each one hundred dollars of the clear market value of such interest:

	Rate of Tax
Twenty-five thousand dollars or less.....	5 per cent
Excess over $25,000 and up to $100,000.....	6 per cent
Excess over $100,000 and up to $250,000.....	7 per cent
Excess over $250,000 and up to $500,000.....	8 per cent
Excess over $500,000	9 per cent

Provided, that no tax shall be imposed or collected under this section on legacies or property passing by will or otherwise, or by the laws of this state to religious, educational, or charitable corporations (not conducted for profit) in this state, and this provision shall apply to all such legacies or property passing by will or by the laws of this state since March twelve, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen; nor shall any tax be imposed in any case where the whole amount of such legacy or devise does not exceed two hundred dollars in value.

Rev., s. 5111; 1917, c. 231, s. 6; 1919, c. 90, s. 6.

History of inheritance tax discussed: State v. Scales, 172-915; In re Morris Estate, 138-259.

A succession tax is a tax on the right of succession to property, and not on the property itself, and is not void because exemptions are granted or discriminations made between relatives and between these and strangers, nor for lack of uniformity: In re Morris Estate, 138-259. The right to impose an inheritance or succession tax does not depend upon the kind of property transferred, and the revenue act of 1903 imposing such tax on personal property only is constitutional: Ibid. An inheritance tax on realty is valid: Norris v. Durfey, 168-321. The fact that the testator, in his will, directed his executors not to make any returns of his property cannot nullify the statutory provisions as to the inheritance tax: In re Morris Estate, 138-259.

The method provided in the revenue act of 1903, ch. 247, sections 6-21, for the ascertainment, computation and collection of an inheritance or succession tax is constitutional: In re Morris Estate, 138-259. Manner of estimating inheritance tax under act of 1911, c. 46, explained: State v. Bridgers, 161-247; In re Inheritance Tax, 172-170 (annuity for wife and children). Under act of 1913, c. 201, a widow's dower over $10,000 is subject to inheritance tax: Corporation Com. v. Dunn, 174-679. A nephew living with an uncle as a member of the family and treated as a child pays the lower rate of tax: In re Inheritance Tax, 168-352. Construction as to exemptions, under act of 1915, c. 285: State v. Scales, 172-915.

7773. Deductions allowed. In calculating the value of the distributive share the following deductions, and no others, shall be allowed: Debts of the decedent, taxes, including Federal estate taxes; drainage and street assessments, funeral and burial expenses, all amounts actually expended for monuments not exceeding the sum of five hundred dollars, commissions of executors and administrators and cost of administration, including reasonable attorney's fees.

1919, c. 90, s. 6.

7774. Estates settled without administrator. Whenever an estate subject to tax under this act shall be settled or divided among the heirs at law, legatees or devisees, without the qualification and appointment of a personal representative, the clerk of the superior court of the county wherein the estate is situated shall certify the same to the corporation commission, and shall also require such heirs at law, legatees or devisees to report to him under oath the value of such real and personal estate, and shall report the valuation to the corporation commission. The clerk is authorized and required to cite all interested parties to appear before him and make the report herein required and pay to him the amount of the inheritance tax due upon said property.

Rev., s. 5111; 1917, c. 231, s. 6; 1919, c. 90, s. 6.

7775. Gifts in anticipation of death. All advancements and gifts equal to or in excess of five per cent of the decedent's estate at the time such advancements or gifts were made, and made within five years of the decedent's death, shall be prima facie made in contemplation of death. Any transfers or conveyances made upon consideration that was grossly inadequate within the same period shall be an inheritance to the extent that the consideration was inadequate at the time it was made.

1919, c. 90, s. 6.

7776. Stock in incorporated companies. 1. In foreign corporation. The words "such property or any part thereof or interest therein within this state" shall include in its meaning bonds and shares of stock in any incorporated company, incorporated in any other state or country, when such incorporated company is the owner of property in this state, and if fifty per cent or more of its property is located in this state, and when bonds or shares of stock in any such company not incorporated in this state, and owning property in this state, are transferred by inheritance, the valuation upon which the tax shall be computed shall be the proportion of the total value of such bonds or shares which the property owned by such company in this state bears to the total property owned by such company, and the exemptions allowed shall be the proportion of exemptions allowed by this act, as related to the total value of the property of the decedent.

If the incorporated company not incorporated in this state and owning property in this state be a railroad company, the proportion upon which the tax shall be paid shall be the proportion which the miles of road of such company in this state bears to the total miles of road of such company.

2. Transfer of shares in corporation. Any incorporated company not incorporated in this state and owning property in this state which shall transfer on its books the bonds or shares of stock of any decedent holder of shares of stock in such company exceeding in par value five hundred dollars, before the inheritance tax, if any, has been paid, shall become liable for the payment of said tax, and any property held by such company in this state shall be subject to execution to satisfy same. A receipt or waiver signed by the state tax commission of North Carolina shall be full protection for any such company in the transfer of any such stock or bonds.

3. Duties of tax commission. The state tax commission shall prepare and furnish, upon application, blank forms covering such information as may be necessary to determine the amount of inheritance tax due the state of North Carolina on the transfer of any such bonds or stock; it shall determine the value of such bonds or stock, and shall have full authority to do all things necessary to make full and final settlement of all such inheritance taxes due or to become due, and shall make prompt return to the state treasurer of all such taxes collected.

The state tax commission shall have authority, under penalties provided in section 7861, to require that any reports necessary to a proper enforcement of this act be made by any such incorporated company owning property in this state.

Rev., s. 5111; 1917, c. 231, s. 6; 1919, c. 90, s. 6.

7777. Statements filed by executors and administrators. 1. What statement shall contain. Every administrator shall prepare a statement in duplicate, showing as far as can be ascertained the names of all the heirs at law and their relationship to decedent, and every executor shall prepare a like statement showing the relationship to the decedent of all legatees, distributees and devisees named in the will, and the age at the time of death of the decedent of all legatees, distributees, and devisees to whom property is bequeathed or devised for life or for a term of years, and the names of those, if any, who have died before the decedent. If any of the heirs at law, distributees and devisees are minor children of the decedent such statement shall also show the age of each of such minor children. The statement shall also contain a complete inventory of all the real property of the decedent located in this state, and of all personal property of the estate, together with an appraisal under oath of the value of each class of property embraced in the inventory, and the value of the whole, together with any deductions permitted by this statute, so far as they may be ascertained at the time of filing such statement.

2. Time and manner of filing; effect of failure. The statement herein provided for shall be filed within three months after the qualification of the executor or the administrator, upon blank forms to be prepared by the state tax commission and furnished to the clerk of the superior court in each county. If any administrator or executor refuses to comply with any of the requirements of this section, he shall be liable to a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars, which shall be recovered by the state tax commission for the use of the state. Every executor or administrator may make a tentative settlement of the inheritance tax with the clerk of the superior court based upon the sworn inventory provided in this section. One copy of the duplicate report herein provided to be made shall be mailed by the clerk of the superior court to the state tax commission and one copy shall be bound or copied in a book to be kept for that purpose, by the clerk of the superior court: Provided, that this section shall not apply to estates of less than two thousand dollars in value when the beneficiaries are husband or wife or children or grandchildren of the decedent.

1919, c. 90, s. 14.

7778. Clerk to report cases where there is no administration. Whenever the clerk of the superior court shall ascertain that any real estate has passed by will or by intestate laws of this state and there shall be no executor or administrator of the deceased person, the clerk shall ascertain the names of the persons taking said property and their several interests therein, and report the same to the state tax commission and shall cause the same to be appraised, and the clerk shall enter the same in the appraisal book herein provided for, and shall collect the tax due from the person taking such property and shall enforce payment as herein provided for as fully as if there were an administrator or executor.

7779. Supervision by state tax commission. 1. Appointment of agents and their duties. The state tax commission shall have complete supervision of the enforcement of all provisions of the inheritance tax law. It shall regularly employ such attorneys, examiners or special agents as may be necessary for the reasonable carrying out of its full intent and purpose. Such attorneys, examiners or special agents shall, as often as required to do so, visit the several counties of the state to see that all statements required by this act are filed with the clerks of the superior court by administrators and executors, or by beneficiaries under wills where no executor is appointed; to examine into all statements filed by such administrators and executors; to require such administrators and executors to furnish any additional information that may be deemed necessary to determine the amount of tax that should be paid by such estate. If not satisfied, after investigation, with valuations returned by the administrator or executor, the attorney, examiner or appraiser shall make an additional appraisal, after proper examination and inquiry, or may, in special cases, designate an appraiser, who in such case shall be paid five dollars per day and expenses for his services.

2. Appeal from appraisal. The administrator or executor, if not satisfied with such additional appraisal, may appeal within thirty days to the state tax commission, and if the amount in controversy does not exceed the sum of one hundred dollars, and demand shall be made by the executor or administrator for a hearing, said state tax commission shall direct one of its members to proceed to the county in which said estate is situated, and after due notice said member of the state tax commission shall hear said appeal and render his decision on the same, which decision shall be deemed to be in all respects a decision of the state tax commission. From this decision or any other decision made after an appeal to the state tax commission the administrator or executor shall have the right to appeal to the superior court of the county in which said estate is situated for the purpose of having said issue tried by a jury, said appeal to be made in the same way and manner as is now provided by law for appeals from the decisions of the corporation commission. When the final appraisal is finally fixed as herein provided, and if any additional tax is found to be due, the same shall be collectible within thirty days from such finding.

3. Fund for expenses; special agent. A sum not exceeding three per cent of the inheritance taxes collected and paid into the state treasury in the previous year is hereby appropriated for the use of the state tax commission in carrying out the provisions of this act. Upon request the state tax commission may designate an attorney, examiner or special agent to make an appraisal before statement is filed by an administrator or executor, and to advise and assist in the making out of such statement.

1919, c. 90, s. 15.

7780. Clerk to record reports; payment of tax enforced. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court to enter in a book to be provided at the expense of the state, to be kept for that purpose, and which shall be a public record, the returns made by all administrators, executors and appraisers under this act, opening an account in favor of the state against the decedent's estate; and the clerk may give certificates of payment of such tax from such record; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court to transmit to the state tax commission on the first Monday of each month a statement of all returns made by administrators, executors and appraisers during the preceding month, giving the name of the estate and a clear valuation thereof, subject to the foregoing tax, and the amount of the tax, which statement shall be entered by the state tax commission in a book to be kept by it for that purpose, and the full amounts collected and so returned shall be immediately turned over by the state tax commission to the state treasurer with report of same to the state auditor. Whenever any such tax shall have remained due and unpaid for one year it shall be lawful for the clerk of the superior court to apply to the court by bill or petition to enforce the payment of the same; whereupon said court, having caused due notice to be given to the owner or owners of the estate charged with the tax and to such other person or persons as may be interested, shall proceed according to equity to make such decrees or orders for the payment of the said tax out of such estates as shall be just and proper.

Rev., s. 5120; 1917, c. 231, s. 17; 1919, c. 90, s. 17.

7781. Persons liable required to file account and pay tax. If the clerk of the court shall discover that such tax has not been paid according to law, the court shall be authorized to cite the executors or administrators of the decedent, whose estate is subject to the tax, to file an account, or to issue a citation to the executors, administrators, legatees or heirs, citing them to appear on a day certain and show cause why such tax should not be paid, and when personal service cannot be had, notice shall be given for four weeks, once a week, in at least one newspaper published in said county; and if such tax shall be found to be due and unpaid, the delinquent shall pay the tax, interest, and costs. And it shall be the duty of the solicitor of the district in which the delinquent resides to sue for the recovery and amount of such tax, and for such services he shall be allowed a fee, to be fixed by the judge, not to exceed five per cent of the amount recovered. The state tax commission is authorized and empowered, in settlement of accounts of any clerk, to allow him costs of advertising and other reasonable fees and expenses incurred in the collection of such tax.

Rev., s. 5122; 1917, c. 231, s. 18; 1919, c. 90, s. 18.

7782. Executor shall deduct the tax. The executor or administrator or other trustee paying any legacy or share in the distribution of any estate subject to such tax shall deduct therefrom at the rate prescribed, or if the legacy or share in the estate be not money, he shall demand payment of a sum to be computed at the same rates upon the appraised value thereof for the use of the state; and no executor or administrator shall be compelled to pay or deliver any specific legacy, or article to be distributed, subject to tax, except on the payment into his hands of a sum computed on its value as aforesaid; and in case of neglect or refusal on the part of the legatee to pay the same, such specific legacy or article, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, shall be sold by such executor or administrator at public sale, after notice to such legatee, and the balance that may be left in the hands of the executor or administrator shall be distributed as is or may be directed by law; and every sum of money retained by any executor or administrator, or paid into his hands on account of any legacy or distributive share, for the use of the state, shall be paid by him to the proper officer without delay.

Rev., s. 5116; 1917, c. 231, s. 9; 1919, c. 90, s. 9.

7783. Legacy for life, tax apportioned. If the legacy or devise subject to such tax be given to any person for life or for a term of years, or for any other limited period upon a condition or contingency, the tax thereon shall be retained upon the whole amount, and application shall be made to the court having jurisdiction of the accounts of executors and administrators to make apportionment, if the case requires it, of the sum to be paid by such life tenants and remaindermen, and for such further order relative thereto as equity shall require.

Rev., s. 5113; 1917, c. 231, s. 10; 1919, c. 90, s. 10.

7784. Legacy charged upon realty. Whenever such legacy shall be charged upon or payable out of real estate, the heir or devisee of such real estate, before paying the same to such legatee, shall deduct therefrom at the rates aforesaid, and pay the amount so deducted to the executor or administrator, and the same shall remain a charge upon such real estate until paid; and in default thereof the same shall be enforced by the decree of the court in the same manner as the payment of such legacy may be enforced: Provided, that all taxes imposed by this article shall be a lien upon the real and personal property of the estate on which the tax is imposed, or upon the proceeds arising from the sale of such property, from the time the tax is due and payable, and shall continue a lien until the tax is paid and receipted for by the proper officer of the state.

Rev., s. 5115; 1917, c. 231, s. 11; 1919, c. 90, s. 11.

7785. Payment of tax upon transfer of stock by foreign executor. Whenever any foreign executor or administrator or trustee shall assign or transfer any stocks or bonds in this state standing in the name of the decedent or in trust for a decedent, which shall be liable for the said tax, such tax shall be paid on the transfer thereof; otherwise the corporation permitting such transfer shall become liable to pay such tax.

The state tax commission is given authority to make appraisal of such stocks or bonds, and settlement of taxes due under this section. Exemptions shall be prorated as provided in subsection one of section 7772, and receipt or waiver issued by the state tax commission shall be complete protection to any such corporation for the transfer of such stock or bonds.

Rev., s. 5117; 1917, c. 231, s. 13; 1919, c. 90, s. 13.

7786. Executor, etc., liable for nonpayment. Any administrator, executor, or trustee who shall fail to pay the lawful inheritance taxes due upon any estate in his hands or under his control within two years from the time of his qualification shall be liable for the amount of such taxes, and the same may be recovered in an action against such administrator, executor, or trustee and the sureties on his official bond. Any clerk of the court who shall allow any administrator, executor, or trustee to make a final settlement of his estate without collecting the inheritance taxes due by law shall be liable upon his official bond for the amount of such taxes.

7787. When taxes due; discount for prompt payment; penalty for delay. All taxes imposed by this act shall be due and payable at the death of the testator, intestate, grantor, donor or vendor, unless in this act otherwise provided, and if the same are paid within six months from the death of the testator, intestate, grantor, donor or vendor, a discount of three per centum shall be allowed and deducted from such taxes; if not paid within one year from the date of the death of the testator, intestate, grantor, donor, or vendor, such tax shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, to be computed from the expiration of one year from the date of the death of such testator, intestate, grantor, donor, or vendor, for a period of one year, and ten per centum per annum thereafter until the same is paid.

The penalty of ten per cent herein imposed may be remitted to simple interest by the state tax commission in case of unavoidable delay in settlement of estate or of pending litigation.

Rev., s. 5112; 1917, c. 231, s. 18; 1919, c. 90, s. 8.

7788. When tax discharged. All heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors and trustees shall only be discharged from liability for the amount of such taxes, the settlement of which they may be charged with, by paying the same for the use aforesaid, as provided in this article.

Rev., s. 5118; 1917, c. 231, s. 7; 1919, c. 90, s. 7.

7789. When tax refunded. Whenever debts shall be proven against the estate of a decedent, after the distribution of legacies from which the inheritance tax has been deducted in compliance with this chapter, and the legatee is required to refund any portion of the legacy, a proportion of the said tax shall be repaid to him by the executor or administrator if the said tax has not been paid into the state treasury, or shall be refunded by the state treasurer if it has been so paid in, upon certificate of the state tax commission.

Rev., s. 5121; 1917, c. 231, s. 14; 1919, c. 90, s. 16.

7790. Clerk of superior court agent for collection of tax. The clerks of the court of the several counties of this state shall be the agents of the state for the collection of the inheritance tax, and for services rendered in collecting and paying over the same they shall be allowed to retain for their own use, in addition to other fees or salary received by them, fees according to the following schedule for each estate settled. Any provision in any local act in conflict with this provision is hereby repealed.

On the first $100 of tax collected.....	5 per cent
Above $100 and up to $1,000.....	4 per cent
Above $1,000 and up to $10,000.....	3 per cent
Above $10,000 and up to $50,000.....	2 per cent
Above $50,000 and up to $100,000.....	1½ per cent
Above $100,000 and up to $300,000.....	1 per cent
Above $300,000	½ of 1 per cent

Provided, that when the total fees collected by the clerk under this schedule shall in any one year exceed one thousand dollars the board of county commissioners may require that an amount not exceeding two-thirds of the excess above one thousand dollars shall be paid into the general county fund where the estate is settled.

Rev., s. 5123; 1917, c. 231, s. 19; 1919, c. 90, s. 19.

7791. Liability of clerk for failure to collect. If the state tax commission shall ascertain that any clerk has failed to collect or pay over any inheritance tax which he should have collected, the state tax commission shall demand payment of the same by said clerk at once, and if such clerk shall fail to account for or pay over such tax within sixty days from such demand, or to show that he has not been negligent and has made diligent effort to collect the same, he shall be liable on his official bond for double the said tax, to be recovered by the state tax commission in an action in the superior court of Wake County: Provided, that this section shall not apply to clerk where the estates have been settled and final account of the estate approved prior to the tenth day of March, 1919.

Rev., ss. 5124, 5125; 1917, c. 231, s. 21; 1919, c. 90, s. 21.

NOTE.—No county or municipal corporation may levy inheritance tax. Section 7795.

7792. Sheriff to collect after two years. If taxes imposed on inheritances are not paid within two years after the death of the decedent, it shall be the duty of the clerk to certify to the sheriff the amount of tax due upon such inheritance, and the sheriff shall collect the same as other taxes, with an addition of two and one-half per cent as sheriff's fees for collecting same; and the sheriff is hereby given the same rights of levy and sale upon any property upon which the said tax is payable as is given for the collection of other taxes. The sheriff shall make return to the clerk of the superior court of all such taxes within thirty days after collection, to be accounted for by the clerk in monthly settlement with the state auditor and treasurer as provided by law: Provided, that time for payment and collection of such tax may be extended by the state tax commission for good reason shown.

1917, c. 231, s. 8(a); 1919, c. 90, s. 8(a).

Part 3. Income Tax

7793. Taxpayer to list income. The taxpayer shall list his income for the year ending January first from any and all sources from salaries, fees, trades and professions in excess of one thousand dollars for unmarried persons and fifteen hundred dollars for married persons and widows and widowers having minor child or children.

Rev., s. 5128; 1917, c. 231, s. 22; 1919, c. 90, s. 22.

7794. What tax list must contain. The blanks for listing taxes shall contain the following questions:

(1) "Was your gross income from salaries, fees, trades, professions and property not taxed, any and all of them, for the year ending January first in excess of one thousand dollars if unmarried, or fifteen hundred dollars if married, or widow or widower with minor child or children?"

(2) "If so, what was the amount of said excess?"

Rev., s. 5129; 1917, c. 231, s. 23; 1919, c. 90, s. 23.

7795. Rate of income tax. On all gross incomes, as provided in the preceding section hereof, a tax to be collected as other taxes for that year shall be levied as follows: On the excess over the amount legally exempted up to twenty-five hundred dollars, one per cent; on the excess above twenty-five hundred dollars and up to five thousand dollars, one and one-half per cent; on the excess above five thousand dollars and up to ten thousand dollars, two per cent; on the excess over ten thousand dollars, two and one-half per cent. The above tax shall not be levied upon the income derived from property already taxed nor upon income less than one thousand dollars if unmarried, or fifteen hundred dollars if married, or widow or widower, with minor child or children. The incomes subject to the above tax are those derived from property not taxed, from salaries, fees and commissions, public or private; from annuities; from trades or professions, and from any other sources the incomes from which are not specifically exempted from taxation by law. No city, town, township, or county shall levy any inheritance tax or income tax.

Rev., s. 5127; 1917, c. 231, ss. 24, 25; 1919, c. 90, ss. 24, 25.

NOTE.—For reports on salaries and fees, see section 7942.

The state cannot tax the salary of a federal officer: Purnell v. Page, 133-125.

ART. 3. PRIVILEGE TAXES*Part 1. Schedule B. License Taxes*

7796. Taxes under this schedule defined. Taxes in this schedule shall be imposed as license tax for the privilege of carrying on the business or doing the act named; and nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve any person or corporation from the payment of tax as required in the preceding schedule. The license issued under this schedule shall be for twelve months, and shall expire on the thirty-first day of May of each year. Such license thus obtained shall be a personal privilege and shall not be transferable nor any abatement in the tax allowed; and unless otherwise provided in the section levying the tax, the tax levied for the use and benefit of the state shall be collected in each county in which the business is conducted, except as otherwise herein provided. Whenever such tax is graduated with reference to the population of the city or town in which the privilege is exercised, the minimum tax provided in such section shall be applied to the same business or privilege when conducted or exercised outside of a municipality.

Rev., s. 5132; 1917, c. 231, s. 26; 1919, c. 90, s. 26.

See section 7855 and annotations thereunder.

A tax on property and a tax on privileges are distinct taxes, and an exemption by special act from one does not relieve from the other: Guano Co. v. Tarboro, 126-68. Where several occupations are conducted in town by same individual, a privilege tax on one does not prevent a similar tax on another: Ibid.

Tax imposed directly by the legislature upon a corporation, or its gross receipts, or the cash value of the shares of its capital stock, or upon each mile of its road at a certain sum per mile, and not assessed by assessors, is a franchise or privilege tax: Worth v. R. R., 89-301.

The right of a state to tax trades, professions and avocations within the borders of the state is unquestionable, though the goods dealt in be manufactured in another state: State v. Gorham, 115-721.

The franchise tax upon every corporation doing business in the state is a tax upon the privilege of being a corporation, and its payment does not relieve it, or its lessee, from the payment of a tax imposed upon the privilege of carrying on the particular kind of business for which the corporation was chartered: Cobb v. Comrs., 122-307.

The tax on the gross receipts of an insurance company is a privilege tax, and a county may levy an ad valorem tax on the property of such company: Ins. Co. v. Stedman, 130-221.

Under article five, section three, of the constitution, the same rule of uniformity applies to the taxing of "trades, professions, franchises and incomes" as to the other species of property therein named; and there must be also uniformity in the mode of assessment: Worth v. R. R., 89-301.

Uniformity, in its legal and proper sense, is inseparably incident to the power of taxation, whether applied to taxes on property or to those imposed on trades, professions, etc.: State v. Moore, 113-697.

A tax upon an occupation must reach all who follow it, all of a class, either of persons or things: Worth v. R. R., 89-301.

7797. Theaters. On each room or hall used as a theater or opera house, where public exhibitions or performances are given for profit, the license tax shall be as follows: In cities or towns of one thousand inhabitants or less, ten dollars per annum; over one thousand to three thousand, twenty-five dollars per annum; three thousand to five thousand, fifty dollars per annum; over five thousand to ten thousand, seventy-five dollars per annum; over ten thousand to fifteen thousand, one hundred dollars; over fifteen thousand, one hundred and fifty dollars. The license under this section shall be issued by the sheriff and shall be conspicuously posted in the entrance of the vestibule of the room or hall, and said room or hall shall not be liable for any other license tax by the county, but the said tax shall be divided and one-half paid to the state and one-half to the county. Companies or individuals when performing or exhibiting in rooms or halls licensed under this section shall not be required to pay any other county or state license tax: Provided, that no city shall levy a tax greater than the amount levied by the state.

Rev., s. 5133; 1917, c. 231, s. 27; 1919, c. 90, s. 27.

A musical conservatory owning a hall in which it gives musical entertainments for the special benefit of its pupils and teachers, charging for admission thereto, is not liable for the opera house tax: Markham v. Conservatory, 130-276.

7798. Traveling theatrical companies. Every traveling theatrical company giving exhibitions or performances in any hall, tent, or other place not licensed as provided in the preceding section, whether on account of municipal ownership or for any other reason, shall pay five dollars on each day's or part of a day's exhibitions or performances; two or more exhibitions at different times on the same day and place shall only be liable for one day's tax, and the owner of the hall, tent, or other place shall be responsible for the tax; but artists exhibiting paintings or statuary, work of their own hands, shall only pay two dollars: Provided, all such places of amusement as do not charge more than a total of twenty cents for admission at the door and the right to a reserved seat, and shall perform in any given place as much as one week at a time shall only be required to pay five dollars for the first day and one dollar per day for each succeeding day. Counties, cities, or towns shall not collect a greater amount than that of the state tax, and the proprietor of any such show shall apply in advance to the sheriff of any county in which a performance is to be given for a license. Failing to do this, the show shall be subject to the actual expenses incurred by the sheriff or tax collector in enforcing payment of the license levied under this section.

Rev., s. 5134; 1917, c. 231, s. 28; 1919, c. 90, s. 28.

See Markham v. Conservatory, 130-276.

7799. Moving picture or vaudeville shows. On each room, hall, or tent used as a moving picture or vaudeville show, the tax shall be as follows: In towns of less than one thousand five hundred inhabitants, ten dollars per annum; less than five thousand inhabitants and more than one thousand five hundred, thirty dollars per annum; less than ten thousand inhabitants and more than five thousand, sixty dollars per annum; in towns or cities with more than ten thousand inhabitants and less than fifteen thousand, one hundred dollars per annum; more than fifteen thousand inhabitants, one hundred and fifty dollars per annum. Counties shall not levy any tax under this section, and cities and towns shall not levy a greater amount of license tax than that of the state.

1917, c. 231, s. 28(a); 1919, c. 90, s. 28(a).

The population is to be determined by the federal census: State v. Prevo, 178-740.

7800. Circuses, menageries, etc. 1. Rate. On every exhibition of a circus, menagerie, wild west show, dog and pony show, and every other show not licensed in the preceding sections, the tax shall be as follows, for each day or part of a day: Shows transported by wagons, $10. Shows requiring transportation of

15-car trains and less.....	$ 25.00
16 to 25-car trains.....	75.00
25 to 40-car trains.....	100.00
40 to 50-car trains.....	150.00
Over 50-car trains.....	200.00

Provided, that no county, city, or town shall levy more than one-half of the amount levied by the state. On each side-show with shows requiring less than thirty cars for transportation, ten dollars; on all other shows, twenty-five dollars. On every exhibition of a show enumerated in this section that charges more than fifty cents general admission, the tax shall be three hundred dollars. Every county shall have the power to fix the county tax on all shows enumerated in this section at such amount as the county commissioners shall deem proper, not to exceed one-half the amount levied by the state. The county commissioners of any county in North Carolina in which there is a regularly organized agricultural fair may refuse to allow any circus, menagerie, wild west show, dog and pony show, or carnival show, to exhibit within five miles of such fair either one week prior to or from its beginning to its ending: Provided, that notice is given to the sheriff by the commissioners of the county not to issue license to such entertainments sixty days prior to the date of such exhibition.

2. Statement filed. The person, firm, or corporation by whom any show taxed under this section is owned or controlled shall file with the state treasurer, not less than five days before the same shall enter the state for the purpose of exhibiting therein, a statement, duly subscribed, setting out in detail such information as the state treasurer may deem necessary to cover the places within the state where exhibitions are to be given, the character of the exhibition, etc. Upon receipt of such statement the state treasurer shall fix and determine the amount of the license tax with which such show is chargeable, and shall indorse his findings upon such report, and transmit a copy thereof to the sheriff or tax collector of each and every county in which such show is to exhibit, with full and particular instructions as to the license tax to be collected therefrom, which instructions may be modified from time to time when deemed necessary for the purpose of the proper enforcement of this section. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of each and every county in which such circuses or shows are advertised or exhibited to promptly communicate such information to the state treasurer; and in case the statement respecting any such shows as herein enumerated shall not be filed in time for certified copies thereof, with proper instructions, to be transmitted to the sheriffs of the several counties, it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to cause his duly authorized representative to attend at one or more points in the state where such circus or show is advertised or expected to exhibit, for the purpose of securing such statement, or fixing and determining the amount of the license tax with which such show is chargeable and of giving proper instructions for the collection of such tax.

3. Penalty. Any circus or show which shall exhibit in the state before said statement shall have been filed, or which shall, after the filing of such statement, give any exhibition taxable at a higher rate than the exhibition authorized by the state treasurer upon the basis of the statement filed, shall be chargeable with a license tax of fifty per cent greater than that hereinbefore prescribed, and the sheriff of any county in which such circus or show shall exhibit shall in all cases collect such excess tax and shall be charged with and make settlement therefor as for other taxes: Provided, that the state treasurer in his discretion may remit such excess tax, wholly or in part.

4. Carnival companies; week-stand engagements. On all carnival companies, traveling circuses and shows of like character, moving picture and vaudeville shows, museums and menageries, merry-go-rounds and ferris wheels, and other like amusement enterprises, conducted for profit under the same general management and filling week-stand engagements, or in giving week-stand exhibitions, whether under canvas or not, the following taxes shall be paid for each week or part of week, to wit: On all such carnival companies and traveling circuses and shows of a like character, consisting of not more than six distinct attractions, conducted for profit, one hundred dollars for the state and a like amount for the county; and when consisting of more than six distinct attractions, conducted for profit, one hundred and fifty dollars for the state and a like amount for the county: Provided, that towns and cities of less than ten thousand inhabitants may levy a like tax, in an amount not greater than that levied for both state and county purposes; and cities of more than ten thousand inhabitants may levy a like tax, in an amount not greater than twice that levied for both state and county purposes: Provided further, that no such carnival company or combination shall be relieved from the payment of the tax hereinbefore provided for, or of any part thereof, whether state, county, or municipal, by reason of the donation or appropriation of the whole or any part of the proceeds arising from the carrying on of the same to any religious, charitable, educational or other cause whatsoever: Provided, that this section does not repeal any local act prohibiting the showing of carnivals or the authority of the board of county commissioners to prohibit such shows.

Rev., s. 5135; 1917, c. 231, s. 29; 1919, c. 90, s. 29.

7801. Certain shows may be prohibited. The board of county commissioners may direct the sheriff of the county to refuse to issue any license to any of the amusement enterprises described in subsection four of the preceding section whenever in the opinion of the board the public welfare will be endangered by the licensing of such companies. But this section shall apply only to the counties of Anson, Bladen, Burke, Cabarrus, Carteret, Catawba, Duplin, Forsyth, Greene, Haywood, Iredell, Lee, Madison, Mitchell, Nash, Orange, Pamlico, Pasquotank, Polk, Randolph, Robeson, Scotland, Tyrrell, Washington, Wilson, and Yadkin.

1919, c. 164.

7802. Permanent amusement parks. All permanent "Amusement Parks," when admission is regularly charged to either the park or any show, attraction or feature contained therein, shall pay a tax of two hundred and fifty dollars: Provided, no city, town or county shall levy any additional tax on such park or show, attractions or features contained therein: Provided further, any show, attraction or feature contained in such park shall be exempt from the provisions of this act: Provided further, this section shall not apply to baseball parks or parks owned or controlled by municipalities.

1919, c. 90, s. 29a.

7803. Certain entertainments exempt. All exhibitions or entertainments given for the sole benefit of religious, charitable, or educational objects shall be exempt from taxation: Provided, that when operas, chautauquas, star courses or theatrical troupes are employed, such as usually appear in licensed halls or theaters, then the tax shall be the same as that imposed on traveling theatrical companies performing in unlicensed halls: Provided further, that no tax shall be charged for any exhibitions or entertainments for the sole benefit of religious, charitable, or educational objects and given in halls used at the time exclusively for such objects, nor for exhibitions given at city parks and other resorts, when no charges for admission are made: Provided, no county, city, or town shall levy any additional tax on chautauquas, and no tax shall be collected for the use of state on any bona fide chautauqua acting under contract with local committee of guarantors.

Rev., s. 5136; 1917, c. 231, s. 30; 1919, c. 90, s. 30.

See Markham v. Conservatory, 130-276.

7804. Attorneys, physicians, dentists, etc. Every practicing lawyer, practicing physician, dentist, oculist, photographer, optician, osteopath, architect, optometrist, veterinary surgeon, accountant, fire insurance adjuster, electrical engineer, chiropractor, civil engineer, or any person practicing any professed art of healing for fee or reward, shall pay an annual license tax of five dollars: Provided, that no city, town, or county shall levy an additional license tax under this section. Such license when paid in one county shall be good in every other county in the state.

Rev., s. 5137; 1917, c. 231, s. 31; 1919, c. 90, s. 31.

7805. Real estate and rent-collecting agents. Every individual or firm or his or their agents acting as agent in buying and selling real estate of any and every description, or collecting rent for compensation, shall pay an annual license tax, in towns of less than five thousand, ten dollars; in towns of more than five thousand and less than ten thousand, fifteen dollars; in towns of more than ten and less than fifteen thousand, twenty dollars; in towns of more than fifteen thousand, twenty-five dollars. Cities and towns may, in their discretion, levy a tax under this section not in excess of the state tax.

Rev., s. 5138; 1917, c. 231, s. 32; 1919, c. 90, s. 32.

7806. Real estate auction sales. Any person, firm, or corporation that conducts auction sales of real estate for profit shall pay a tax of ten dollars per day on which auction sales of real estate are held, and the county may levy an equal amount: Provided, this tax shall not apply to sales under mortgage, deed of trust, or order of court.

1917, c. 231, s. 32(a); 1919, c. 90, s. 32(a).

7807. Coal dealers. Every individual, corporation, firm, or association of persons engaged in and conducting the business of selling coal, at wholesale, shall pay an annual license tax of twenty-five dollars; at retail, an annual license tax in each town in which coal is sold or delivered in towns of less than two thousand five hundred inhabitants, five dollars; in towns of more than two thousand five hundred and less than ten thousand inhabitants, fifteen dollars; in towns of more than ten thousand, fifty dollars: Provided, that where the retailer does not deliver the coal to his customers by means of wagons or freight cars or other vehicles, that in such case the annual license tax in any city shall be five dollars.

Rev., s. 5139; 1917, c. 231, s. 33; 1919, c. 90, s. 33.

7808. Collecting agencies. Every collecting agency collecting accounts, bills, notes or other money, from one person in favor of another, shall pay an annual license tax of twenty dollars.

Rev., s. 5140; 1917, c. 231, s. 34; 1919, c. 90, s. 34.

7809. Dealers in second-hand clothing. Every dealer in second-hand clothing shall pay an annual license tax of forty dollars.

Rev., s. 5140; 1917, c. 231, s. 34; 1919, c. 90, s. 34(a).

7810. Undertakers, embalmers, and retail dealers in coffins. All undertakers and embalmers and retail dealers in coffins shall pay an annual license tax in towns and cities of over fifteen thousand inhabitants, fifty dollars; in towns and cities of more than ten thousand and less than fifteen thousand, thirty dollars; in towns and cities of more than five thousand and less than ten thousand, twenty dollars; in cities and towns or villages of less than five thousand inhabitants, ten dollars; in villages of less than five hundred inhabitants the annual license tax shall not be more than five dollars: Provided, that this section shall not apply to a cabinet maker (who is not an undertaker) who makes coffins to order.

Rev., s. 5140; 1917, c. 231, s. 34; 1919, c. 90, s. 34(b).

7811. Dealers in horses and mules. All persons, firms, or corporations who buy and sell horses and mules as a business or for profit shall pay an annual license tax of twenty-five dollars. If horses or mules are shipped by carload, this tax shall give authority to buy and sell one carload of horses and mules, and for each additional carload of horses or mules bought, an additional tax of five dollars per car shall be paid semiannually to the sheriff. Every person, firm or corporation engaged in this business shall keep an accurate record of invoices and freight bills covering such shipments until such invoices and freight bills have been checked up by the sheriff or traveling auditor of the state tax commission. The license for conducting said business shall be issued by the sheriff of any county in which horses and mules are bought or sold, and shall be good in any county in the state: Provided, a separate license shall be required in every county where a separate place of business is maintained. No county, city, or town shall levy or collect any tax under this section. Any person required to take out a license under this section who shall sell or attempt to sell any horses or mules without having obtained such license shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined fifty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days, the fine to be paid into the state treasury for the general school fund. No person shall feign or pretend to be partners when they are in fact not bona fide such, in order to evade the tax to which they would otherwise be liable under the provisions of this section, and a violation of this provision shall make the offender guilty of a misdemeanor. All persons, firms, or corporations operating under a livery stable license who buy horses and mules for sale shall be classed as horse dealers and, in addition to their livery stable tax, shall be required to pay such tax as he or they shall be liable for under this section: Provided, that this section shall not apply to persons dealing solely in horses or mules of their own raising: Provided, any person, firm, or corporation who pays the tax laid in this section shall not be liable for the twenty-five dollars license tax mentioned in section 7817.

Rev., s. 5141; 1917, c. 231, s. 35; 1919, c. 90, s. 35.

7812. Phrenologists. Every person engaged in the practice of phrenology shall pay an annual license tax of twenty-five dollars for each county in which such person does business.

1917, c. 231, s. 36; 1919, c. 90, s. 36.

7813. Bicycle dealers. Every individual, corporation, association, or firm, or his or their agents; engaged in the business of buying and selling bicycles or bicycle and motorcycle supplies and fixtures shall pay an annual license tax as follows: In cities or towns of twelve thousand inhabitants or over, ten dollars; in cities and towns of less than twelve thousand inhabitants, five dollars: Provided, that nothing in this section shall apply to any individual, corporation, association, or firm conducting the exclusive business of repairing bicycles.

Rev., s. 5143; 1917, c. 231, s. 37; 1919, c. 90, s. 37.

7814. Commission merchants, brokers, etc. Every commission merchant, broker, or dealer buying or selling goods and merchandise on commission shall pay ten dollars per annum; and every person, individual, firm, or corporation selling or offering for sale stock in foreign corporations, an annual tax of one hundred dollars.

Rev., s. 5144; 1917, c. 231, s. 38; 1919, c. 90, s. 38.

“Broker” defined in Schaul v. Charlotte, 118-733.

7815. Ship brokers; marine railways. Every person engaged in the business of managing the affairs occurring between the owners of vessels and the shippers or consignees of the freight which they carry, usually known as “ship brokers,” shall pay an annual license tax of forty dollars; every person owning or operating marine railways with a hauling capacity of less than eighty tons, fifteen dollars; every marine railway with a hauling capacity of more than eighty tons and less than one hundred and fifty tons, fifty dollars; every marine railway with a hauling capacity of more than one hundred and fifty tons, seventy-five dollars.

Rev., s. 5145; 1917, c. 231, s. 39; 1919, c. 90, s. 39.

“Broker” defined in Schaul v. Charlotte, 118-733.

7816. Pawnbrokers. No person shall without a license authorized by law engage in the business of lending money or other things for profit for or on account of specific articles of personal property, other than farm products, deposited with the lender in pledge. Any person who shall in any manner lend or advance money as aforesaid on the pledge and possession of such personal property shall be held to be a pawnbroker. After such person shall have forfeited his right to redeem the property the pawnbroker may cause said property to be sold at public auction. The expenses attending the sale shall be paid out of the proceeds of sale, and if any surplus arise from the sale, after satisfying the money advanced, with the interest and costs which have accrued, such surplus shall be paid over to the person depositing the property as aforesaid. Any person acting as pawn-broker without a license shall pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. A pawnbroker shall pay for the privilege of transacting business an annual license tax of two hundred dollars.

Rev., s. 5146; 1917, c. 231, s. 40; 1919, c. 90, s. 40.

There is great difference between the terms "broker" and "pawnbroker." A broker is an agent, middleman or negotiator who works for a commission. A pawnbroker is not an agent, but one who lends money upon personalty pledged as security: Schaul v. Charlotte, 118-733.

7817. Livery stables. Every person, firm, or corporation who keeps horses or mules to hire or let, with or without vehicle, shall pay one dollar for every horse or mule kept for that purpose. Such person shall, on the thirty-first day of May of each year, furnish to the sheriff a sworn statement of the number of horses or mules sold or so kept at any time during the preceding twelve months, the taxes to be collected by the sheriff or tax collector. Every person, firm, or corporation operating under a livery stable license who sells more than five horses or mules within six months shall be classed as horse dealer and shall pay an additional tax of twenty-five dollars, and shall post license from a sheriff in some conspicuous place in his office or place of business.

Rev., s. 5147; 1917, c. 231, s. 41; 1919, c. 90, s. 41.

7818. Sewing machines. 1. Rate. Every person, firm, or corporation selling sewing machines in this state shall pay an annual license tax to the treasurer of one hundred dollars ($100), and the treasurer shall issue a license to said person, firm, or corporation to sell sewing machines until July first next thereafter. In addition to the license tax above required, every person, firm, or corporation selling sewing machines shall pay a tax of eighty (80) cents on every hundred dollars of the total amount received during each year for or on account of machines sold, leased, or exchanged in this state during said year and prior thereto, after the tenth day of March, 1919, which tax shall be paid to the treasurer before securing an annual license on July first in each year. Any person, firm, or corporation selling sewing machines without having paid the license tax required by this section shall pay a penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars, to be recovered by the treasurer in a civil action in the superior court of Wake county, and shall also pay double the license and sales taxes required by this section for the year then current.

2. Statement filed. When a person, firm, or corporation makes application for the license required by this section, the treasurer shall require a sworn statement showing the amount of sales of sewing machines made by the applicant in this state for the year preceding the first day of July then last past. The treasurer may require an itemized statement and may require the production of books and papers, and may make such investigation as he may deem proper; and after making such investigation the treasurer shall find what was the amount received from sales for such year, and shall collect tax upon the amount at the rate aforesaid. If the applicant be a natural person he shall sign the application and statement of sales and swear to the correctness of the latter. If the application be made by a firm, one of the partners shall verify the application. If it be made by a corporation, the verification of the statement shall be made by one of the managing officers. Any person, firm, or corporation making a false statement for the purpose of defrauding the state out of taxes due under this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars, to be recovered by the treasurer in a civil action to be instituted in the superior court of Wake county.

3. Duplicate license. Any person, firm, or corporation taking out license under this section may employ an unlimited number of agents and secure a duplicate copy of such license for each agent by paying a fee of one dollar to the treasurer, and the county in which the applicant does business may charge a tax of five dollars; each duplicate license so issued to contain the name of agent to whom it is issued and the same to be nontransferable. An agent holding such duplicate copy of license is licensed thereby to sell only the sewing machines sold by the holder of the original license.

4. No other tax required. No person, firm, or corporation licensed under this section shall be required to pay any other license or privilege tax; and no county shall have the right to impose any license or privilege tax. No city or town shall levy a license or privilege tax exceeding twenty dollars on any dealer having an office or selling from any receiving point. No person, firm, or corporation paying a tax upon gross sales under this section shall be required to pay a tax on such sales under or by virtue of any other section of this subchapter. Any merchant or dealer who shall buy sewing machines from a manufacturer or dealer paying the license and gross sales tax hereunder may sell such sewing machines without paying any gross sales tax thereon, and without paying any license tax except the cost of securing a duplicate license in the name of the person, firm, or corporation taking out the license and paying the gross sales tax; and such duplicate license shall protect any person, firm, or corporation, selling sewing machines upon which the license and gross sales taxes shall have been paid, from any additional tax. Such duplicate license issued to such dealer may be issued in the name of the person, firm, or corporation taking out the original license and paying the gross sales tax, but may be marked for the benefit of the person, firm, or corporation desiring to again sell such sewing machines in this state.

Rev., s. 5148; 1917, c. 231, s. 42; 1919, c. 90, s. 42.

One who engages, on his own account, in the business of buying and selling sewing machines in this state is required to pay the tax and obtain the license prescribed in this section: State v. Wessell, 109-735.

Where sewing machines are shipped into the state to be delivered to consignee upon payment of purchase price, seller is liable for license tax, and sheriff can levy upon machine before such payment and delivery: Sims v. R. R., 130-556; but this ruling was reversed in R. R. v. Sims, 191 U. S., 441.

7819. Feather renovators. Every individual or firm or association of persons, or his or their agents, engaged in the business of renovating feathers, shall pay a license tax as follows: Ten dollars for each county in which such business may be solicited or conducted.

Rev., s. 5149; 1917, c. 231, s. 43; 1919, c. 90, s. 43.

7820. Peddlers. 1. Rate. Any person who shall carry from place to place any goods, wares, or merchandise and offer to sell or barter the same or actually sells or barter the same, shall be deemed to be a peddler and shall pay a license tax as follows: Each peddler on foot, twenty-five dollars for each county; each peddler with horse, ox, or mule, with or without vehicle, or with a vehicle propelled by any other power, seventy-five dollars for each county; each and every peddler of medicinal and proprietary preparations, flavoring extracts, spices, and toilet articles, whether on foot or with horse, mule, or ox, with or without vehicle, or with vehicle propelled by any other power, but having no free or paid attractions and no attractions upon the streets nor in a tent nor any other place for the purpose of receiving trade, one hundred dollars for each county; each and every peddler of medicines or drugs, whether on foot or with horse, mule, or ox, with or without a vehicle, or with a vehicle propelled by any other power, and having any free or paid attractions upon the street or in a tent or in any other place for the purpose of receiving trade, one hundred and fifty dollars for each county. Every itinerant salesman who shall expose for sale, either on the street or in a house rented temporarily for that purpose, goods, wares, or merchandise, shall pay a tax of one hundred dollars in each county in which he shall carry on such business, whether as principal or as agent for any other person.

2. Application. Every person mentioned in this section shall apply in advance for a license to the board of county commissioners of the county in which he purposes to peddle or sell, and the board of county commissioners may in their discretion issue the license upon the payment of the tax to the sheriff, which shall expire at the end of twelve months from its date. This section shall not apply to those who sell or offer for sale books, periodicals, printed music, ice, fuel, fish, vegetables, fruits, or any articles of the farm or dairy or articles of their own individual manufacture, except medicines or drugs. The board of county commissioners shall have power at their discretion to exempt from tax under this section any poor and infirm person, and shall exempt confederate soldiers, and such license shall be good in any county in the state. And no city, town, or county shall levy any tax on confederate soldiers acting as peddlers.

3. Persons included. Any person using a wagon, cart, buggy, or motor-driven vehicle, or traveling on foot for the purpose of exhibiting or delivering any wares or merchandise, shall be considered a peddler: Provided, that this section shall not apply to persons or their agents engaged in exchanging woolen goods for wool: Provided further, that this section shall not apply to drummers selling by wholesale and bona fide residents who are blind: Provided further, that each person other than a bona fide citizen of the county in which he shall undertake to do business, who shall expose for sale goods, wares, or merchandise in any building, room, or stand rented for such purpose, shall be liable to the tax herein imposed upon itinerant dealers: Provided further, that such tax shall be refunded to any such dealer who shall continue to do business in such county for a period of one year: Provided further, that nothing in this section shall prevent counties having special acts applying thereto from collecting a higher tax in accordance with the provisions of said special act.

Rev., s. 5150; 1917, c. 231, s. 44; 1919, c. 90, s. 44.

[Some of the cases annotated below are based upon statutes not entirely like this section.]

A "peddler" is one who sells and delivers the identical goods he carries about with him: State v. Lee, 113-681. A picture dealer, who contracts to sell pictures, has them sent out to him, delivers to the purchaser, and receives the price agreed upon beforehand, is no peddler: Greensboro v. Williams, 124-167. One who sells goods by sample, which goods are shipped to purchaser in care of one who sold them and delivered by him, is a peddler: State v. Franks, 127-510. A publishing company selling and delivering books through agents in sets, the title of books remaining in seller until paid for, is liable to license tax on peddlers: Collier v. Burgin, 130-632. (This decision was under sec. 54, chap. 9, of acts of 1901.)

The taxation of persons who sell books through agents and ship them to their agents to be delivered to buyers is not in violation of art. 1, sec. 8, of the constitution of the United States as to interstate commerce: Collier v. Burgin, 130-632.

Person who travels from house to house on foot selling goods by sample, and afterwards delivers them on foot, is not a peddler: State v. Frank, 130-724. Person selling watermelons in wholesale lots in the city of Salisbury, to be shipped from a nearby town, and only delivering to those from whom he had taken orders, is not an itinerant merchant or peddler: State v. Ninestein, 132-1039. The permission given to sell articles of one's own manufacture without taking out peddler's license is personal to the manufacturer and does not extend to an agent employed by the manufacturer to sell his goods: State v. Rhyne, 119-905—and does not apply for the benefit of one who merely mixes and boils certain drugs and medicines together, and sells them under a deceptive name, as "Herbs of Life," State v. Morrell, 100-506.

The exception as to "articles of the farm and dairy" includes beef butchered by a farmer from cattle raised on his farm, but not when he buys and butchers cattle for sale and peddles the meat: State v. Smith, 173-772.

General power of legislature to make classification of persons liable to license tax: Smith v. Wilkins, 164-136. Whether or not the exemption as to confederate soldiers is valid, it would not invalidate the section: Ibid. See section 5168.

7821. Mercantile agencies. Every mercantile agency or association doing or soliciting business in this state which has for its object the rating of the commercial status of persons, firms or corporations, shall pay the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, to be paid by the principal office in the state to the state treasurer; and no city, town, or county shall levy any additional license tax. Any person representing any mercantile agency which has failed to pay a license tax as above provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 5152; 1917, c. 231, s. 45; 1919, c. 90, s. 45.

7822. Gypsies or fortune-tellers. Every company of gypsies or strolling bands of persons living in wagons or tents or otherwise who trade horses or mules, or receive rewards for pretending to tell fortunes, shall pay two hundred dollars in each county in which they offer to trade horses or mules or practice any of their crafts, recoverable out of any property belonging to any of the company; but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to exempt them from indictment or penalties imposed by law; and any other person or persons receiving reward for pretending to tell fortunes or practicing the art of palmistry, and clairvoyants, shall pay twenty-five dollars in each county in which they offer to practice their profession or craft.

Rev., s. 5153; 1917, c. 231, s. 46; 1919, c. 90, s. 46.

7823. Lightning-rod agents. 1. License required. Every person, firm, or corporation selling and erecting lightning rods in the state shall pay an annual license tax to the insurance commissioner of fifty dollars for each year, ending July first next, at which time all such licenses shall expire, and the insurance commissioner, on written application in such form as he shall prescribe, shall issue a license to said person, firm, or corporation to sell licensed brands of lightning rods until July first next thereafter. In addition to the license tax above required, every person, firm, or corporation selling lightning rods shall pay a tax of eighty cents on every hundred dollars received from the sale of lightning rods, which tax shall be paid to the insurance commissioner semi-annually on or before January thirtieth and July thirtieth of each year. No license shall issue until all license fees and taxes are paid.

2. Statement filed. Sworn returns for taxes shall be made to the insurance commissioner in such form as he shall prescribe, and he may require the production of books and papers and make such investigation as he may deem proper. Any person, firm, or corporation making a false statement in any application or report required by this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall also be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by the insurance commissioner in a civil action to be instituted in the superior court of Wake county.

3. County license tax. Each county in which any applicant sells or erects or proposes to sell or erect rods shall be entitled to a tax of five dollars, to be collected by the insurance commissioner and by him shall be paid into the treasury of the county.

4. Duplicate license. Any person, firm, or corporation taking out license under this section may employ agents and secure a duplicate copy of said license for each agent by paying a fee of one dollar to the insurance commissioner, each duplicate license so issued to contain the name of the agent to whom it is issued, and the same to be nontransferable. An agent holding such duplicate copy of license is licensed thereby to sell or erect only the classes or licensed brands of rods sold by the holder of the original license.

5. Other license taxes. No person, firm, or corporation licensed under this section shall be required to pay any other license or privilege tax. No county, city, or town shall levy a license or privilege tax exceeding twenty dollars on any dealer having a general office for selling from any receiving point. No person, firm, or corporation paying a tax upon gross sales under this section shall be required to pay a tax on said sales under or by virtue of any other sections of this act. Such amount shall be payable to the insurance commissioner for the use of the state and each county upon a license being issued by him, which license he is authorized to issue to sell such brand or make of lightning rods as are standard and efficient when properly erected.

6. Approved brands sold. Only approved and licensed brands of lightning rods shall be allowed to be sold in this state and only by licensed agents. Upon the filing with the insurance commissioner of samples of brands of rods by the manufacturer or maker of lightning rods and the payment of fifty dollars for each brand, the commissioner is authorized to approve and license said brands of proper character and make.

Rev., s. 5154; 1917, c. 231, s. 47; 1919, c. 90, s. 47.

As to right to impose tax on lightning rod agents, see generally State v. Gorham, 115-721. As to interstate commerce being interfered with, see State v. Sheppard, 140-586.

The statute does not require a license for a single act of putting up lightning rods, but for "carrying on the business" of putting up rods: State v. Sheppard, 138-579. The possession of more rods than were necessary to rod a particular house is not of itself a violation of the statute, though it may have been a circumstance to be considered, tending to show that defendant was carrying on the business: Ibid.

7824. Hotels. Each hotel charging for transit custom more than one dollar and less than two dollars per day shall pay an annual tax of twenty-five cents for each and every room; hotels charging not less than two dollars nor more than three dollars per day, fifty cents per room; hotels charging in excess of three dollars per day, seventy-five cents per room. Each hotel run on the European plan shall pay an annual tax of fifty cents on each room for which the charge is one dollar and fifty cents or less; on rooms for which the charge is over one dollar and fifty cents and less than two dollars and fifty cents, one dollar; on all rooms two dollars and fifty cents or more, one dollar and fifty cents. The office, dining-room, one parlor, the kitchen and two other rooms shall not be counted when calculating the number of rooms in the hotel: Provided, that one-half of the foregoing taxes shall be collected from resort hotels and boarding-houses which are kept open for only six months or less in the year, whether the charges are made at daily, weekly, or monthly rates: Provided further, that this tax shall not apply to boarding-houses charging less than ten dollars per week.

Rev., s. 5155; 1917, c. 231, s. 48; 1919, c. 90, s. 48.

A tax is uniform and consistent with the constitution when it is equal on all persons in the same class, and hence the graduated tax imposed on hotel keepers by section 35 of the revenue act of 1897, which exempts from taxation those whose yearly receipts are less than $1,000, is constitutional: Cobb v. Comrs., 122-307.

Where a corporation chartered for the purpose of owning and conducting a hotel has paid the franchise tax, the lessee of such corporation is not relieved thereby from paying the tax imposed upon the business of conducting a hotel: Ibid.

7825. Restaurants. Each restaurant, or each hotel operating dining service on European plan shall pay an annual license tax as follows: on those having chairs for less than ten persons, five dollars; on those having chairs for more than ten persons and less than twenty-five persons, ten dollars; on those having chairs for more than twenty-five persons, fifteen dollars.

1919, c. 90, s. 48(a).

7826. Cotton compresses. Every individual, firm, corporation, or association of persons engaged in the business of compressing cotton shall pay an annual license tax of two hundred and fifty dollars on each and every compress.

Rev., s. 5156; 1917, c. 231, s. 49; 1919, c. 90, s. 49.

7827. Billiard and pool tables; bowling alleys. On each billiard or pool table, each track of the bowling alley or alley of like kind kept for public use, there shall be paid an annual license tax of twenty-five dollars: Provided, however, that it shall be unlawful for any sheriff or other officer to issue a license under this section to any person or corporation to maintain a billiard or pool table or bowling alley for public use outside of incorporated towns or cities, except with the approval of the county commissioners, and all applications for such licenses are hereby required to be filed with the county commissioners at least ten days before being acted upon, and notice thereof published in some newspaper published in the county once a week for two weeks, or posted at three conspicuous places in the community where the license is to be exercised for two weeks prior to the action of the county commissioners thereon: Provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed to require the payment of a license tax on bowling alleys in public parks or on public playgrounds not operated for gain or profit. Notwithstanding the issuance of license by the sheriff hereunder, any city or town shall have the right to prohibit the keeping, for public use, of any billiard or pool table, bowling alley, or alleys of like kind within its limits: Provided further, that one-half of the foregoing tax shall be collected from pool rooms at winter or summer resorts which are kept open for not more than five months in the year.

Rev., s. 5157; 1917, c. 231, s. 50; 1919, c. 90, s. 50.

7828. Gift enterprises; prize photographs. Any gift enterprise or any person or establishment offering any article for sale and proposing to present purchasers with any gift or prize as an inducement to purchase, shall pay twenty-five dollars; every itinerant dealer in prize photographs or prizes of any kind shall pay one hundred dollars in each county in which the business is conducted. The taxes in this section shall be paid to the sheriff or tax collector of the county, but shall not be construed as giving license or relieving such person or establishment from any penalties incurred by violation of the law.

Rev., s. 5158; 1917, c. 231, s. 51; 1919, c. 90, s. 51.

Trading stamp dealers do not conduct a gift enterprise: Winston v. Beeson, 135-271. See, also, as to gift enterprises, State v. Perry, 154-616; State v. Lipkin, 169-265; Mfg. Co. v. Benjamin, 172-53; State v. Lowe, 178-770.

7829. Slot machines. Upon every slot machine operated in this state wherein is kept any article to be purchased by depositing therein any coin or thing of value, and for which may be had any article of merchandise whatsoever, or anything that can be exchanged for any article of merchandise, there shall be paid the sum of two dollars and fifty cents for every machine for each county where set up or operated. Upon every such machine wherein may be seen any picture, or any music may be heard by depositing in the machine any coin or thing of value, and each weighing machine and every machine for making stencils by use of contrivances operated by slot, wherein money or other thing of value is to be deposited, the sum of two dollars and fifty cents for each machine in each county where set up or operated: Provided, that this section shall apply only to such slot machines where the return is in all cases both fixed and certain: Provided further, that no specific license tax shall be levied or collected on merchandise machines delivering merchandise of the market value of the coin deposited and used as an automatic clerk and kept by dealers in their storehouses and paying taxes as a merchant, or slot machines where drinking water is delivered at one cent a glass: Provided further, that any person using, running, or operating a slot machine of any description for any other purpose than above set forth, or machines exhibiting nude or obscene pictures, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than two hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than three months nor more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided further, where any machine requires a deposit of more than one cent, the tax shall be five dollars on each machine.

Rev., s. 5159; 1917, c. 231, s. 52; 1919, c. 90, s. 52.

7830. Bagatelle tables, etc. On each bagatelle table, merry-go-round, hobby-horse, switchback railway, shooting gallery, or place for any other game or play, with or without name (unless used for private amusement or exercise alone), the following graduated tax shall be paid, to wit: In cities or towns of less than five thousand inhabitants, five dollars; from five thousand to ten thousand inhabitants, ten dollars; in all cities or towns of more than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty dollars. If kept in connection with any place where drinks of any kind are sold, fifty dollars. On skating rinks (unless used for private amusement or exercise alone), the following graduated tax, to wit: In cities or towns of less than five thousand inhabitants, five dollars; from five thousand to ten thousand inhabitants, ten dollars; and all cities or towns of more than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty dollars: Provided, that on each bagatelle table, merry-go-round, hobby-horse, switchback railway or shooting gallery carried on outside of any incorporated city or town, the sum of five dollars. If kept in connection with any place where drinks of any kind are sold, fifty dollars.

Rev., s. 5160; 1917, c. 231, s. 53; 1919, c. 90, s. 53.

7831. Stockbrokers. Every dealer in stocks, bonds, or other securities shall pay for the privilege of transacting business an annual license tax in towns of less than five thousand inhabitants, ten dollars; in towns of more than five thousand and less than ten thousand inhabitants, twenty-five dollars; in towns of more than ten thousand and less than fifteen thousand inhabitants, fifty dollars; in towns of more than fifteen thousand inhabitants, one hundred dollars. No county, city, or town shall levy or collect any tax under this section exceeding twenty-five dollars for the county and ten dollars for the city or town.

Rev., s. 5161; 1917, c. 231, s. 54; 1919, c. 90, s. 54.

7832. Bottling works. Each person, firm, or corporation manufacturing or bottling soda water, coca-cola, pepsi-cola, ginger ale, and like preparations shall pay an annual tax, in rural districts and towns of two thousand five hundred inhabitants or less, thirty dollars; in towns of over two thousand five hundred and not exceeding five thousand inhabitants, sixty dollars; in towns of over five thousand and not exceeding ten thousand inhabitants, ninety dollars; in towns and cities of over ten thousand and not exceeding twenty thousand inhabitants, one hundred and twenty dollars; in towns and cities of over twenty thousand inhabitants, one hundred and fifty dollars. Every wholesale dealer dealing in the products enumerated in this section shall pay one-half of the taxes imposed in this section; and when manufacturers or bottlers are also wholesale dealers in the products of other manufacturers, they shall also be liable for the tax as wholesale dealers: Provided, that wholesale dealers dealing in products manufactured or bottled by manufacturers or bottlers who have paid the tax imposed in this section shall be liable for one-fourth of the tax imposed in this section: Provided further, that no county shall levy more than one-half of the amount levied by the state.

Rev., s. 5162; 1917, c. 231, s. 55; 1919, c. 90, s. 55.

7833. Packing houses. Upon every meat packing house doing business in this state and upon every wholesale dealer in meat packing house products who owns and operates in this state a cold storage plant or cold storage warehouse in connection with said wholesale business, the tax shall be one hundred dollars for each county in which said business is carried on: Provided, that nothing in this act shall apply to packers slaughtering within the state as much as fifty per cent of their sales.

Rev., s. 5163; 1917, c. 231, s. 56; 1919, c. 90, s. 56.

An act taxing every meat packing house doing business in the state $100 for each county in which such business is carried on is valid: Lacy v. Packing Co., 134-567.

See Comrs. v. Packing Co., 135-62.

7834. Newspaper contests. Every person, corporation, or association that conducts contests and offers a prize or prizes to obtain subscriptions to newspapers shall pay an annual license tax of ten dollars for weekly, semi- or tri-weekly newspapers, and twenty-five dollars for each daily newspaper in which said contest is advertised.

1917, c. 231, s. 57; 1919, c. 90, s. 57.

7835. Dealers in oils. Each person, firm, or corporation selling illuminating oil, lubricating oil, benzine, naphtha, or gasoline in this state shall pay an annual license tax to the state treasurer, on or before the first day of July in each year, for the twelve months preceding the first day of June, where the gross sales exceed twenty-five thousand dollars, one per centum upon such gross sales. The said amount of sales shall be returned to the state treasurer by the general manager of such oil company, if a corporation, and if a natural person, by him, and duly sworn, upon forms to be prepared by the state treasurer for that purpose. Any person, firm, or corporation subject to this license tax and doing business in this state without having paid such license tax shall be liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars and in addition thereto to double the tax imposed by this section; and the state treasurer is authorized to bring any suit for the collection of the same in the superior court of Wake county. No county shall impose any tax under this section upon the business of oil dealers. No city or town shall levy a license or privilege tax exceeding ten dollars, and only when there is located in such city or town an agency, station, or warehouse for the distribution and sale of such oils; and the person, firm, or corporation paying the tax upon the gross sales as aforesaid shall not be liable for any other tax except the ad valorem tax upon the property situate and being in this state: Provided, that no tax shall be collected under the provisions of this section while the inspection fees or charges are collected under and by virtue of article fourteen of the chapter on Agriculture, providing for the inspection of illuminating oils and gasoline, or under any act passed by the general assembly of 1917.

Rev., s. 5165; 1917, c. 231, s. 58; 1919, c. 90, s. 58.

7836. Automobiles for hire. Every person, firm, or corporation who keeps automobiles or other motor vehicles for hire, and who in each and every May lists a poll tax or property for taxation in the county in which the business is transacted, shall pay an annual tax of five dollars for each automobile or other motor vehicle kept for that purpose and having seating capacity for not more than seven persons; and for motor vehicles having seating capacity for more than seven persons, ten dollars; and if such person, firm, or corporation aforesaid does not list a poll or property for taxation, the annual tax shall be ten dollars for motor vehicles having seating capacity for not more than seven persons, and twenty dollars for motor vehicles having seating capacity for more than seven persons. Every person, firm, or corporation operating one or more automobiles for hire shall carry a number plate in a conspicuous place on each machine so operated for hire, on which shall be printed or stamped the words, "For Hire," and also number and date the license expires. Every person, firm, or corporation violating the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of five dollars for every day the offense continues without having such license plate. It shall be the duty of the state tax commission to purchase a sufficient number of plates for each county, to be paid for by the state treasurer, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff in each county to purchase a sufficient number of license plates for his county and remit to the state tax commission, to be returned to the state treasurer, one-half of the cost of the license plates to be deducted by the sheriff from the county tax. The authority herein given for purchase of license plates by the state shall include authority for payment for license plates purchased for the state for the years 1917 and 1918: Provided, the penalty provided above shall not apply if the tax has been paid and application for the tag made to the sheriff of the county until tag is furnished by the sheriff.

1917, c. 231, s. 59; 1919, c. 90, s. 59.

7837. Building and loan associations. Every building and loan association which avails itself of the exemption from ad valorem taxation on so much of the value of all its shares as may be represented by the total loans of such association as provided in section 7944, shall pay an annual privilege tax of ten cents on each share in said association issued and outstanding on December thirty-first of the preceding year as shown by report of such association to the insurance commissioner. Such tax shall be payable to and collected by the insurance commissioner for the benefit of the state and county, city or town in which said association is located, and paid over to the treasurer or sheriff of each, one-third to the state, one-third to the county, and one-third to the city or town.

1919, c. 90, s. 60.

See section 7944.

7838. Malt dealers. Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in or conducting the business of manufacturing, buying, or selling malt shall pay an annual tax of ten dollars.

1917, c. 231, s. 61; 1919, c. 90, s. 61.

7839. Tobacco warehouses. 1. License required. Every person, firm, or corporation operating a warehouse in which leaf tobacco is sold upon commission shall, on or before the thirty-first day of May in each year, obtain a license from the sheriff of the county in which such warehouse is located, for the privilege of operating such warehouse for the next ensuing year. Such license shall be a personal privilege and shall not be transferable, nor shall any abatement be made in the tax. The license shall be for twelve months and shall expire on the thirty-first day of May of the year following.

2. Amount of tax. The tax which shall be paid for such license shall be as follows: If in a warehouse in which the sales of leaf tobacco the previous year were one million pounds or less, twenty-five dollars; if sales for the previous year were more than one million pounds of leaf tobacco and less than two million pounds, fifty dollars; if the sales for the previous year were two million pounds and less than three million pounds of leaf tobacco, one hundred and twenty-five dollars; if the sales for the previous year were more than three million pounds and less than four million pounds, two hundred dollars; if the sales for the previous year were more than four million pounds and less than five million pounds, three hundred dollars; if the sales for the previous year were more than five million pounds, five hundred dollars.

3. Commissioner of agriculture to report. The commissioner of agriculture shall certify to the sheriff of each county on or before the thirtieth day of May of each year the name of each person, firm, or corporation operating a tobacco warehouse in such county, together with the number of pounds sold by such person, firm, or corporation for the preceding year. The commissioner of agriculture shall report to the solicitor of any judicial district in which a tobacco warehouse is located, which shall have failed to make reports of the tobacco sold by such warehouse, and the solicitor shall prosecute any such person, firm, or corporation under the provisions of this act.

4. Traveling auditors to assist sheriffs. The traveling auditors appointed by the corporation commissioners shall assist the sheriffs of the various counties in carrying out the provisions of this act, and shall have the right to examine the books of any warehouse for the purpose of verifying the reports made by such warehouse and ascertaining the number of pounds of leaf tobacco which shall have been sold by such warehouse.

5. Violation a misdemeanor. Any person, firm, or corporation violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in the discretion of the court.

6. No county or municipal tax. No county, city, or town shall levy any additional tax under this section.

1919, c. 90, s. 62.

7840. Newsdealers on trains. All persons, companies, or corporations carrying on the business of selling books, magazines, papers, fruits, confections or other articles of merchandise on railroad trains in this state shall pay an annual license tax as follows: Where such news company operates on less than three hundred miles of railroad or railroads, two hundred and fifty dollars; where such news company operates on three hundred miles and less than five hundred miles of railroad or railroads, five hundred dollars; where such news company operates on five hundred miles or more of railroad or railroads, one thousand dollars. No county or municipality shall levy any tax for the privilege of carrying on said business.

1917, c. 231, s. 63; 1919, c. 90, s. 63.

7841. Soda fountains and carbonated drinks. On each soda fountain operated by any person, firm, or corporation there shall be paid an annual tax as follows: In towns of less than one thousand inhabitants, five dollars; in towns of over one thousand inhabitants and less than five thousand, ten dollars; in towns of over five thousand inhabitants and less than ten thousand, fifteen dollars; in towns of over ten thousand inhabitants and less than fifteen thousand, twenty dollars; in towns of more than fifteen thousand inhabitants, twenty-five dollars. No county shall levy any tax under this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the sale of soft drinks containing cocaine or any of its salts or derivatives.

1917, c. 231, s. 64; 1919, c. 90, s. 64.

7842. Dealers in patent rights and formulas. Every person, firm, or corporation selling or offering for sale any patent right or formula shall pay an annual license tax of ten dollars for each and every county, to be collected by the sheriff.

1917, c. 231, s. 65; 1919, c. 90, s. 65.

7843. Stallions and jacks. All persons, firms, or corporations who own and keep for breeding purposes, for pay, any stallion or jack shall pay an annual license tax of ten dollars on each stallion or jack, the same to be collected by the sheriff of the county in which the horse or jack is kept or used for breeding purposes: Provided, that no county, city, or town shall levy any tax under this section.

1917, c. 231, s. 66; 1919, c. 90, s. 66.

7844. Insurance companies. The officer authorized to collect the tax on insurance, bond, and investment companies, associations, or orders, shall collect and pay into the state treasury charges, fees, and taxes as follows: For each license issued to a life insurance company or association, two hundred and fifty dollars; for each license issued to a fire insurance company or association or to any company or association of companies operating a separate or distinct plant or agencies, two hundred dollars; for each license issued to an accident insurance company or association, two hundred dollars; for each license issued to a marine insurance company or association, two hundred dollars; for each license issued to a surety insurance company or association, one hundred dollars; for each license issued to a plate-glass insurance company or association, one hundred dollars; for each license issued to a boiler insurance company or association, one hundred dollars; for each license issued to a domestic mutual insurance company, fifty dollars; for each license issued to a domestic mutual insurance company operating in not more than two counties, ten dollars; for each license issued to a fraternal order, twenty-five dollars; for each license issued to a bond, investment, dividend, guaranty, registry, title guaranty, or debenture company, one hundred dollars; for each license issued to all other insurance companies or associations, one hundred dollars: Provided, that so much of said license fee collected from fire insurance companies as may be necessary shall be used by the insurance commissioner for the prevention of fire waste and accidents. All of said companies shall pay a tax of two and one-half per centum upon the amount of their gross receipts in this state, with no deduction for dividends, whether returned in cash or allowed in payment or reduction of premiums or for additional insurance, and without any deductions except for return premiums: Provided, that if any general agent shall file with the insurance commissioner a sworn statement showing that at least one-fourth of the entire assets of his company, when his company has assets, are invested in and are maintained in any or all of the following securities or property, viz.: bonds of this state or of any county, city, or town of this state, or any property situate in this state and taxable therein, then the tax shall be one per centum upon the gross receipts aforesaid, and the license fee shall be one-half that named above; and if the amount so invested shall be three-fourths of the total assets, the tax shall be one-fourth of one per centum and the license fee one-fourth of that named above. Companies paying the tax levied in this section shall not be liable for tax on their capital stock, and no county, city, or town shall be allowed to impose any additional tax, license, or fee. The license fees and taxes imposed in this section shall be paid to the insurance commissioner and by him paid into the state treasury as provided by law.

Rev., s. 5175; 1917, c. 231, s. 67; 1919, c. 90, s. 67.

Case under former statute: Ins. Co. v. Stedman, 130-221. The tax on gross receipts means all receipts from business done in the state, whether the money is paid here or forwarded to main office: Trust Co. v. Young, 172-470.

7845. Morris plan companies. Every person, firm, association, or corporation operating what are known as Morris plan companies, or doing a similar business in this state, shall pay an annual tax of twenty-five dollars. The tax shall be paid to the insurance commissioner and by him into the state treasury as other licenses, taxes and fees collected by him.

1919, c. 90, s. 67a.

7846. Dealers in pistols, etc. Every merchant, storekeeper, or dealer who shall keep in stock, sell, or offer for sale any pistol or metallic pistol cartridges or cartridges used in pistols shall pay an annual tax of twenty-five dollars; every such dealer who shall keep in stock any bowie knife, dirk, dagger, slungshot, loaded cane or brass, iron, or metallic knuckles, shall pay an annual license tax of one hundred dollars. A separate license shall be secured for each place where sales are made. Dealers in metallic cartridges only shall pay only one-fourth of said tax.

Rev., s. 5176; 1917, c. 231, s. 68; 1919, c. 90, s. 68.

7847. Dealers in cap pistols, fireworks, etc. Every merchant, storekeeper, or dealer selling or offering for sale cap pistols, firecrackers or other fireworks, shall pay an annual license tax of twenty-five dollars. A separate license shall be secured for each place where sales are made.

Rev., s. 5176; 1917, c. 231, s. 68; 1919, c. 90, s. 68a.

7848. Pianos, organs, etc. 1. Amount of tax. Every person, firm, or corporation selling pianos, organs, graphophones, victrolas, and other instruments using disc or cylinder records, in this state, shall pay an annual license tax to the treasurer of fifty dollars, and the treasurer shall issue a license to said person, firm, or corporation to sell pianos, organs, graphophones, victrolas, and other instruments using disc or cylinder records, until July first next thereafter. In addition to the license tax above required, every person, firm, or corporation selling pianos, organs, graphophones, victrolas, and other instruments using disc or cylinder records, any one or all of them, shall pay a tax of forty cents on every hundred dollars received from the sale of pianos, organs, graphophones, victrolas and other instruments using disc or cylinder records, any one or all of them, which tax shall be paid to the treasurer before securing an annual license on July first in each year. Any person, firm, or corporation selling pianos, organs, graphophones, victrolas and other instruments using disc or cylinder records, any one or all of them, without having paid the license tax required by this section shall pay a penalty of two hundred dollars, to be recovered by the treasurer in a civil action in the superior court of Wake county, and shall also pay double the license and sales taxes required by this section for the year then current.

2. Statement filed. When a person, firm, or corporation makes application for the license required by this section the treasurer shall require a sworn statement showing the amount of sales of pianos, organs, graphophones, victrolas, and other instruments using disc or cylinder records, any one or all of them, made by the applicant in this state for the year preceding the first day of July then last past. The treasurer may require an itemized statement and may require the production of books and papers, and may make such investigation as he may deem proper; and after making said investigation, the treasurer shall find what the amount was received from sales for said year, and shall collect tax upon the amount at the rate aforesaid. If applicant be a natural person, he shall sign the application and statement of sales and swear to the correctness of the latter. If the application be made by a firm, one of the partners shall verify the application. If it be made by a corporation, the verification of the statement shall be made by one of the managing officers. Any person, firm, or corporation making a false statement for the purpose of defrauding the state out of taxes due under this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars, to be recovered by the treasurer in a civil action to be instituted in the superior court of Wake county.

3. Duplicate license to agents. Any person, firm, or corporation taking out license under this section may employ an unlimited number of agents and secure a duplicate copy of said license for each agent by paying a fee of one dollar to the treasurer, and the county in which the applicant does business may charge a tax of five dollars; each duplicate license so issued to contain the name of the agent to whom it is issued, and the same to be nontransferable. An agent holding such duplicate copy of license is licensed thereby to sell only the instruments sold by the holder of the original license.

4. No other license tax required. No person, firm, or corporation licensed under this section shall be required to pay any other license or privilege tax; and no county shall have the right to impose any license or privilege tax. No city or town shall levy a license or privilege tax exceeding twenty dollars on any dealer having an office or selling from any receiving point. No person, firm, or corporation paying a tax upon gross sales under this section shall be required to pay a tax on such sales under or by virtue of any other section of this act. The state treasurer may in his discretion exempt from tax under this section blind persons and confederate veterans selling or offering for sale musical instruments enumerated in this section, such exemption to be subject to withdrawal in the discretion of the state treasurer at any time and the license canceled.

Rev., s. 5177; 1917, c. 231, s. 69; 1919, c. 90, s. 69.

If the licensee employs more than one salesman, he must take out and furnish each salesman with an additional license: State v. Morrison, 126-1123. The legislative intent was that the $10 license authorizes only the person having it in possession to sell under it. Such has always been the policy of the law, except when duplicates or copies of the license is authorized: Ibid.

See Worth v. Wright, 122-335.

7849. Cigarettes. Every manufacturer of cigarettes shall pay the following tax: Where the annual output of cigarettes by such manufacturer is less than two hundred and fifty million, two hundred and fifty dollars; where such annual output exceeds two hundred and fifty million, but does not exceed five hundred million, five hundred dollars; where such annual output exceeds five hundred million, two thousand dollars: Provided, that no county, city or town, or township shall levy or collect any tax, assessment, license, or fee from or on such manufacturer except the ad valorem tax. And every person retailing cigarettes shall pay a license tax of five dollars per annum. No county shall levy any tax under this section. No city or town shall levy a license or privilege tax exceeding ten dollars.

Rev., s. 5178; 1917, c. 231, s. 70; 1919, c. 90, s. 70.

7850. Steam laundries. Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in operating a steam laundry shall pay an annual license tax in cities or towns of five thousand inhabitants or less, ten dollars, and cities of over five thousand and less than ten thousand inhabitants, fifteen dollars, and in cities of over ten thousand inhabitants, twenty-five dollars.

1919, c. 90, s. 71.

7851. Sale of automobiles. Every manufacturer of automobiles engaged in the business of selling the same in this state, or every person or persons or corporation engaged in selling automobiles or automobile trucks in this state, the manufacturer of which has not paid the license tax provided for in this section, before selling or offering for sale any such machine shall pay to the state treasurer a tax of five hundred dollars and obtain a license for conducting such business. Any applicant for a license shall furnish the state treasurer with the names of every class or style of machine offered for sale, with a written application for the license. The state treasurer shall, upon the written application of any one who has obtained the license provided in this section and the payment of a fee of five dollars, issue a certified duplicate containing the name of the agent representing the holder of the license, which gives him the privilege of doing business as the agent of the holder of the license. Every one to whom license shall have been issued as provided in this section shall have power to employ an unlimited number of agents to sell only the machine designated in the license, upon the payment of the tax aforesaid. Each county may levy a tax of five dollars upon each agent doing business in the county. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to have this section printed on the face of each license issued under this act, for the information and protection of parties to whom the same may be issued: Provided, that where a manufacturer, person, or corporation licensed to do business in this state as herein provided employs one or more traveling representatives, such traveling representatives may do business in any county in which the manufacturer, person, or corporation employing such traveling representatives has paid the tax of five dollars to the county as herein provided, and such traveling representatives shall not be required to pay any tax to the county: Provided further, that if any officer, agent, or representative of such manufacturer shall file with the state treasurer a sworn statement showing that at least three-fourths of the entire assets of the said manufacturer of automobiles are invested in any of the following securities or property, viz.: bonds of the state of North Carolina or of any county, city, or town of the state, or any property situated therein, and returned for taxation therein, the taxes named in this section shall be one-fifth those named: Provided further, that if, at the expiration of a state license issued under this section to any manufacturer or person selling automobiles in the state, such license shall have been in force for less than six months, then upon a renewal of such license for the following year the manufacturer or person shall be allowed by the state treasurer a rebate of two hundred and fifty dollars on the new license.

1917, c. 231, s. 72; 1919, c. 90, s. 72.

The word "automobiles" includes motor trucks and motor vehicles generally: Motor Co. v. Flynt, 178-399. The provision reducing the license tax if three-fourths of the assets invested in certain property in the state is constitutional: Ibid.

7852. Emigrant agents. Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in procuring laborers for employment out of this state shall pay an annual license tax of two hundred dollars for each county in which such person, firm, or corporation does business, the same to be collected by the sheriff. Any one violating provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not less than two hundred dollars or imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

An officer of a foreign corporation coming into this state and hiring hands for employment by himself as the officer of the corporation, is not "engaged in the business of hiring hands," etc., and is not liable for the tax on emigrant agents: Lane v. Comrs., 139-443.

Occupation of an "emigrant agent" as defined in chapter 75, acts of 1891, does not belong to that class of trades or occupations which are so inherently harmful or dangerous to the public that they may, either directly or indirectly, be restricted or prohibited: State v. Moore, 113-697.

Section does not apply to a person who comes into this state and employs laborers to work for him in another state: Carr v. Comrs., 136-125; State v. Roberson, 136-587; State v. Hunt, 129-686; State v. Moore, 113-697.

Tax on the business of procuring laborers for employment outside the state being an exercise of the power of the state to levy taxes, the amount is not reviewable by the courts: State v. Roberson, 136-587.

7853. Plumbers, steam and gas-pipe fitters. Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in business as a plumber or steam or gas-pipe fitter, and having in their employ an average of not more than three persons for the previous year, shall pay an annual license tax of ten dollars; and those engaged in such business and having in their employ an average for the previous year of more than three and not more than six persons, an annual license tax of fifteen dollars; and those having an average of more than six persons employed for the previous year, twenty-five dollars.

7854. Trading stamps. An annual license tax of two hundred dollars is hereby imposed for the state upon each corporation, firm, association, or person engaged in the business of issuing, selling, or delivering trading stamps or checks, receipts, certificates, tokens, or other similar devices to persons engaged in trade or business, with the understanding or agreement, expressed or implied, that the same shall be presented or given by the latter to their patrons as a discount, bonus, or premium or as an inducement to secure trade or patronage, and that the corporation, firm, or association or person selling or delivering the same will give to the person presenting or possessing the same, money or other thing of value, or any concession or preference in any way on account of the possession or presentation thereof. Nothing in this act shall be construed to apply to a manufacturer or to a merchant who sells the goods of such manufacturer from offering to present to the purchaser or customer a gift of certain value as an inducement to purchase such goods: Provided, that no county, city, or town shall charge more than one hundred dollars.

Under charter of city of Winston, dealers in trading stamps do not come within the provision of an ordinance taxing gift enterprises: Winston v. Beeson, 135-271.

Part 2. Schedule C. Franchise Taxes and Fees

7855. For what purposes levied. The taxes embraced in this schedule shall be listed and paid as specially herein provided, and shall be for the privilege of carrying on the business or doing the act named; and, if a corporation, shall be a tax for the continuance of its corporate rights and privileges given under its charter, if incorporated in this state, or by reason of any act of domestication, if incorporated in another state, and shall be subject to other regulations mentioned in section 7796 under schedule B.

Rev., s. 5184; 1917, c. 231, s. 76; 1919, c. 90, s. 76.

See section 7796 and annotations thereunder.

Acts 1901, ch. 91, levying an annual franchise tax on corporation is lawful, and applies to foreign corporations doing business in this state: Comrs. v. Packing Co., 135-62.

General assembly may require a corporation to pay a license tax for the privilege of carrying on its business, and forbid counties or other municipalities to exact any other license tax or fee: Loan Assn. v. Comrs., 115-410.

It is within the legislative power of taxation, in respect to corporations, to levy any two or more of the following taxes simultaneously: On the franchise (including corporate dividends); on capital stock; on tangible property of the corporation, and on the shares of the capital stock in the hands of the stockholders. The tax on the two subjects last named is imperative: Comrs. v. Tobacco Co., 116-441.

A tax imposed directly by the legislature upon a corporation, or its gross receipts, or the cash value of the shares of its capital stock, or upon each mile of its road at a certain sum per mile, and not assessed by assessors, is a franchise or privilege tax: Worth v. Railroad, 89-301.

7856. Returns by railroads. Every steam railroad company and every person or agency operating a steam railroad in this state shall, on or before the thirtieth day of July in each year, make and return to the state auditor, in such form and upon such blanks as shall be furnished by him, a true statement of the gross earnings of their respective roads for the preceding year ending the thirtieth day of June; of the number of miles of road operated by each such company or person and the number of miles in the state, and the gross earnings per mile per annum during such year; which statement shall be verified by the oath of the secretary and treasurer of such companies, or of the person so operating such railroad, and the state auditor shall certify said amount to the state treasurer.

7857. Rate of taxation on railroads. The annual license tax for operating such railroads within the state shall be as follows: When gross earnings per mile are one thousand dollars or less per year, a tax of two dollars per mile; when gross earnings per mile exceed one thousand dollars per year, but do not exceed two thousand dollars, a tax of four dollars per mile; when gross earnings per mile exceed two thousand dollars per year, but do not exceed three thousand, a tax of six dollars per mile; when gross earnings per mile are in excess of three thousand dollars per year and not over five thousand dollars per year, a tax of eight dollars per mile; when gross earnings exceed five thousand dollars per mile per year, a tax of ten dollars per mile. The tax imposed by this section shall be paid to the state treasurer at the time of making the report provided in the preceding section. No county, city, or town shall be allowed to collect any tax under this section.

7858. Tax on express companies. Every express company doing business in this state shall, on or before the thirtieth day of July in each year, make and return to the corporation commission a statement of the total number of miles of railroad lines over which such express company operates in this state, showing also the number of miles over which an express business has been in business for two years or less; the said corporation commission shall certify the same to the state treasurer as a basis for assessment and collection of the tax levied in the following schedule:

Each express company doing business in this state shall pay to the state treasurer an annual privilege or license tax of three dollars per mile for each mile of railroad over which such company operates in this state, as shown by the report of such express company to the corporation commission: Provided, that only fifty per cent of the mileage tax herein provided for shall be levied and collected from express companies which earned not more than five per cent upon their capital investment the previous calendar year: Provided, that no county shall levy any tax under this section. There may be levied and collected by every incorporated municipality in the state of North Carolina from each express company, for the privilege of doing business within the limits of such municipalities, a privilege or license tax, to be computed and based on the population of the municipalities, as follows: Those having a population of five hundred or less, five dollars per annum; those having a population of five hundred and not exceeding one thousand, ten dollars per annum; those having a population of one thousand and not exceeding five thousand, twenty dollars per annum; those having a population of five thousand and not exceeding ten thousand, thirty dollars per annum; those having a population of ten thousand and not exceeding twenty thousand, fifty dollars per annum; those having a population of exceeding twenty thousand, seventy-five dollars per annum: Provided further, that nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the imposition of any tax upon interstate commerce, or upon any business transacted for the federal government.

Rev., s. 5187; 1917, c. 231, ss. 79, 79(a); 1919, c. 90, ss. 79, 79(a).

See annotations under sections 7796, 7855.

7859. Tax on telegraph companies. Every person, firm, or corporation operating within this state the apparatus necessary to communication by telegraph shall pay, for the privilege of engaging in such business, to the state an annual license tax of two dollars per mile for each pole-mile of such telegraph line owned or operated by them within the state, as shown by the report of such telegraph company to the tax commissioners under section 7949, machinery act, and it shall be the duty of the tax commissioners to certify to the state auditor the number of miles of line operated by such telegraph company in this state, and it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to collect the tax as herein levied upon the basis of mileage as reported: Provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the imposition of any tax upon interstate commerce or upon any business transacted for the federal government: Provided, that no county shall levy any additional tax under this section, but towns may levy the following taxes: Those having a population of one thousand and not exceeding five thousand, ten dollars; from five thousand to ten thousand, fifteen dollars; from ten thousand to twenty thousand, twenty dollars; over twenty thousand, fifty dollars.

Rev., s. 5188; 1917, c. 231, s. 80; 1919, c. 90, s. 80.

See annotations under sections 7796, 7855.

7860. Tax on telephone companies. Every telephone company doing business in this state shall pay an annual tax of two and one-half per cent on the gross receipts of such telephone company within the state, reckoning for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of such gross receipts the proportion of the interstate business done within the state, which is properly credited to North Carolina: Provided, that if any such company shall file with the board of state tax commissioners a statement signed and sworn to by its principal officer in this state, showing that at least one-quarter of the entire assets of his company, when his company has assets, are invested in and are maintained in any or all of the following securities or property, viz.: Bonds of this state or of any county, city, or town of this state, or any property situated in this state and taxable therein, then the tax shall be one and one-half per cent; and if the amount so invested shall be one-half of its total assets, the tax shall be one per cent; and if the amount so invested shall be three-fourths of its total assets, the tax shall be one-half of one per cent. The superintendent, general manager, or other chief officer of every such company shall make a return, under oath, to the treasurer of the state, within ten days after the first day of January, April, July, and October of each year, of the amount of the gross receipts of the company for the quarter ending on the first day of the month immediately preceding, and pay to the treasurer the tax herein imposed at the time of making such return. It shall be the duty of each sheriff to report to the treasurer any such company doing business in his county. In case of default of such return and payment of tax, the company shall pay a penalty of one thousand dollars, to be collected by such sheriff as the treasurer of the state shall designate, by distress or otherwise: Provided further, no county, city, or town shall be allowed to impose an additional tax, license, or fee to that provided in this section, except the ad valorem tax.

Rev., s. 5189; 1917, c. 231, s. 81; 1919, c. 90, s. 81.

7861. Franchise tax on private corporations. 1. Domestic corporations.

a. Report to be made. Each corporation organized under the laws of this state for profit shall make a report, in writing, to the state tax commission, annually during the month of May, in such form as the commission may prescribe. Such report shall be signed and sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths, by the president, vice-president, secretary, or general manager of the corporation, and forwarded to the commission, and shall contain:

- (1) The name of the corporation.
- (2) The location of its principal office.
- (3) The name of the president, secretary, treasurer, and members of the board of directors, with postoffice address of each.
- (4) The date of the annual election of officers.
- (5) The amount of authorized capital stock and the par value of each share.
- (6) The amount of capital stock subscribed, the amount of capital stock issued and outstanding, and the amount of capital stock paid up.
- (7) The nature and kind of business in which the corporation is engaged, and its place or places of business.
- (8) The change or changes, if any, in the above particulars made since the last annual report.

b. Amount of tax determined. Upon the filing of such report the commission, after finding the report to be correct, shall, on or before the first Monday of August, determine the amount of the subscribed or issued and outstanding capital stock of each such corporation. On the first Monday in August, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the commission shall certify the amount so determined by it to the auditor of the state, who shall charge for collection on or about August fifteenth, as herein provided, from such corporation, a fee of one twenty-fifth of one per cent upon its subscribed or issued and outstanding capital stock, which fee shall not be less than five dollars in any case. Such fee shall be payable to the treasurer of the state on or before the first day of the following October. No county, city, or town shall have the power to levy any franchise tax under this section.

2. Foreign corporations. a. Report to be made. Annually during the month of July each foreign corporation, for profit, doing business in this state, and owning or using a part or all of its capital or plant in this state, and subject to compliance with all other provisions of law, and in addition to all other statements required by law, shall make a report in writing to the commission in such form as the commission may prescribe. Such report shall be signed and sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths, by the president, vice-president, secretary, superintendent, or managing agent in this state, and forwarded to the commission; and it shall contain:

- (1) The name of the corporation and under the laws of what state or country organized.
- (2) The location of its principal office.
- (3) The names of the president, secretary, treasurer, and members of the board of directors, with the postoffice address of each.
- (4) The date of the annual election of officers.
- (5) The amount of authorized capital stock, and the par value of each share.

(6) The amount of capital stock subscribed, the amount of capital stock issued, and the amount of capital stock paid up.

(7) The nature and kind of business in which the company is engaged and its place or places of business, both within and without the state.

(8) The name and location of its office or offices in this state, and the name and address of the officers or agents of the corporation in charge of the business in this state.

(9) The value of the property owned and used by the company in this state, where situated, and the value of the property owned and used outside of this state, and where situated.

(10) The volume of business done by the company in this state.

(11) The volume of business done by the company outside of the state, and where the said business is done.

(12) The change or changes, if any, in the above particulars, made since the last annual report.

b. Stock assessed. Upon the filing of this report the commission, from the facts thus reported and any other facts coming to its knowledge bearing upon the question, shall, on or before the first Monday in September, assess and fix the proportion of the subscribed or issued and outstanding capital stock of the company represented by its property or business in this state, and certify the same to the auditor of state on or before the first Monday in October.

c. Amount of tax. On or before October fifteenth the auditor of state shall charge for collection, as herein provided, annually, from such company, in addition to the initial fees otherwise provided for by law, for the privilege of exercising its franchise in this state, a fee of one twenty-fifth of one per cent upon the proportion of the subscribed or issued and outstanding capital stock of the corporation represented by property owned and used or business transacted in this state as found and certified by the state tax commission, which fee shall not be less than five dollars in any case. Such fee shall be payable to the treasurer of the state on or before the first day of the following December. No county, city, or town shall have the power to levy any franchise tax under this section.

3. Certain corporations exempt. Nothing in the preceding subsections shall apply to banks, insurance companies, fraternal benefit associations, building and loan associations, railroad, express, telephone or telegraph companies, or other corporations upon which a franchise tax may be levied in other sections of this act.

4. General provisions. a. Findings reviewed. Between the dates herein fixed for the determination of the amount of subscribed or issued and outstanding capital stock of a domestic corporation and the proportion of the authorized capital stock of a foreign corporation, represented by property owned and used or business transacted by it in this state, and the dates herein fixed for the certification to the auditor of the state of such amount or proportion, the commission may, on the application of any person or company interested, or on its own motion, review and correct its findings.

b. Receipt given. Upon the payment of the tax or fee to the treasurer of the state, he shall make out and deliver to the public utility or corporation so paying a receipt for the payment of the tax or fee herein provided for.

c. Lien. The fees, taxes, and penalties herein required to be paid shall be the first and best lien on all property of the public utility or corporation, whether such property is employed by the public utility or corporation in the prosecution of its business or is in the hands of an assignee, trustee, or receiver for the benefit of the creditors and stockholders thereof.

5. Penalties. If a public utility or corporation required to file a report fails or neglects to make such report as required herein, it shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars per day for each day's omission after the time limit in this act for making such report.

6. Action for recovery. Such taxes, fees and penalties thereon may be certified by the state auditor to the sheriff of the county in which such company has its home office, or of any county in which any such company may own property, for collection as provided in section 7771. If collection is not made in this way, such taxes or fees and penalties thereon may be recovered by an action in the name of the state, which may be brought in the superior court of Wake county, or in any county in which such corporation has an office or place of business, or in which such public utility is doing business, or the line of any street, suburban or interurban railroad company or railroad company is located, and such superior court shall have jurisdiction of such action regardless of the amount involved therein. The attorney-general, on request of the state treasurer, shall institute such action in the superior court of Wake county, or of any such counties as the state treasurer may direct. In any such action it shall be sufficient to allege that the tax, fee, or penalty sought to be recovered stands charged on the delinquent duplicate of the treasurer of state, and that the same has been unpaid for a period of thirty days after having been placed thereon.

7. Failure of foreign corporations to comply. All foreign corporations, and the officers and agents thereof, doing business in this state, shall be subject to all the liabilities and restrictions that are or may be imposed upon corporations of like character, organized under the laws of this state, and shall have no other or greater powers. Every contract made by or on behalf of any such foreign corporation, affecting the liability thereof or relating to its property within this state, before it has complied with the provisions of law for authority to do business within the state, shall be wholly void on its behalf and on behalf of its assigns, but shall be enforceable against it or them. Nothing contained in this subsection shall be held or construed to apply to insurance corporations, fraternal beneficiary associations, or building and loan associations, banking, railroad, express, telephone, and telegraph companies.

8. Forfeiture for violation. a. Rights terminated. If a corporation, whenever organized, required by the provisions of this section to file any report or return or pay any tax or fee, either as a public utility or as a corporation organized under the laws of this state, for profit, or as a foreign corporation for profit doing business in this state and owning and using a part or all of its capital or plant in this state, or as a sleeping car, freight line, or equipment company, fails or neglects to make any such report or return or to pay any such tax or fee for ninety days after the time prescribed for making such report or return or for paying such tax or fee, the commission shall certify such fact to the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall thereupon cancel the articles of incorporation of any such corporation which is organized under the laws of this state by appropriate entry upon the margin of the record thereof, or cancel the certificate of authority by any such foreign corporation to do business in this state, by proper entry. Thereupon all the powers, privileges, and franchises conferred upon such corporation by such articles of incorporation or by such certificate of authority shall cease and determine. The secretary of state shall immediately notify such domestic or foreign corporation of the action taken by him.

b. Penalty for acting. Any person who shall exercise, or attempt to exercise, any powers, privileges, or franchises under the articles of incorporation or certificate of authority, after the same are canceled, as provided in any section of this act, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars.

9. How charter restored. Any corporation whose articles of incorporation or certificate of authority to do business in this state have been canceled by the secretary of state, as provided in the preceding subsections, upon the filing, within two years after such cancellation with the secretary of state, of a certificate from the commission that it has complied with all the requirements of this act and paid all taxes, fees, or penalties due from it, and upon the payment to the secretary of state of an additional penalty of fifty dollars, shall be entitled to again exercise its rights, privileges, and franchises in this state, and the secretary of state shall cancel the entry made by him as to forfeiture under the provisions of this section, and shall issue his certificate entitling such corporation to exercise its rights, privileges, and franchises.

10. Injunction may issue. In addition to all other remedies for the collection of any taxes or fees due under the provisions of this act, the attorney-general shall, upon request of the state treasurer, whenever any taxes, fees or penalties due under this act from any public utility or corporation shall have remained unpaid for a period of ninety days, or whenever any corporation or public utility has failed or neglected for ninety days to make or file any report or return required by this act, or to pay any penalty for failure to make or file such report or return, apply to the superior court of Wake county, or of any county in the state in which such public utility or corporation is located or has an office or place of business, for an injunction to restrain such public utility or corporation from the transaction of any business within this state until the payment of such taxes or fees and penalties thereon, or the making and filing of such report or return and payment of penalties for failure to make or file such report or return, and the costs of such application, which shall be fixed by the court. Such petition shall be in the name of the state, and if it is made to appear to the court, upon hearing, that such public utility or corporation has failed and neglected, for ninety days, to pay such taxes, fees, or penalties thereon, or to make and file such reports or to pay such penalties for failure to make or file such reports or returns, such court shall grant and issue such injunction. All actions brought under this act shall have precedence over any civil cause of a different nature pending in such court, and such court shall always be deemed open for the trial of any such action brought therein.

11. Quo warranto proceedings. If any corporation fails or neglects to make and file the reports and returns required by this act, or to pay the penalties provided for failure to make and file such reports or returns, for a period of ninety days after the time prescribed therefor, the attorney-general, on request of the commission, shall commence an action of quo warranto in the superior court of Wake county or any county in this state in which such corporation is located or has an office or place of business, to forfeit and annul its privileges and franchises. If the court is satisfied that any such corporation is in default as aforesaid, it shall render judgment ousting such corporation from the exercise of its privileges and franchises within this state, and shall otherwise proceed as provided by law.

12. Failure of officers of corporation to comply. Whoever, being an officer, agent, or employee of any public utility, company, firm, person, copartnership, corporation, or association subject to the provisions of any law which the tax commission of North Carolina is required to administer, shall fail or refuse to fill out and return any blanks as required by such law, or shall fail or refuse to answer any questions therein propounded, or shall knowingly or wilfully give a false answer to any such question wherein the fact inquired of is within his knowledge, or who shall, upon proper demand, fail or refuse to exhibit to such commission or any commissioner, or any person duly authorized, any book, paper, account, record, or memorandum of such public utility which is in his possession or under his control, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars for each offense.

13. Forfeiture by corporation. A forfeiture of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars shall be recovered from any such public utility, company, firm, person, copartnership, corporation, or association for each violation of the preceding subsection when such officer, agent, or employee acted in obedience to the direction, instruction, or request of such public utility, company, corporation, or association, or any general officer thereof.

14. Separate offenses. Every day during which any public utility, company, corporation, association, firm, copartnership, officer, or individual, subject to the provisions of any law which the tax commission of North Carolina is required to administer, or any officer, agent, or employee thereof, shall wilfully fail to observe and comply with any order or direction of such commission or to perform any duty enjoined by such law, shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

15. Information to be furnished. Each company, firm, corporation, person, association, copartnership, or public utility shall furnish the commission, in the form of returns prescribed by it, all information required by law and all other facts and information, in addition to the facts and information in this act specifically required to be given, which the commission may require to enable it to carry into effect the provisions of the laws which the commission is required to administer, and shall make specific answers to all questions submitted by the commission.

16. Blanks prepared. The commission shall cause to be prepared suitable blanks for carrying out the purpose of the laws which it is required to administer, and, on application, furnish such blanks to each company, firm, corporation, person, association, copartnership, or public utility subject thereto.

17. Blanks filed and verified. Any such company, firm, corporation, person, association, copartnership or public utility receiving from the commission any blanks with directions to fill them, shall cause them to be properly filled out so as to answer fully and correctly each question therein propounded, and in case it is unable to answer any question, it shall, in writing, give a good and sufficient reason for such failure. The answers to such questions shall be verified under oath by such person, or by the president, secretary, superintendent, general manager, principal accounting officer, partner, or agent, and returned to the commission, at its office, within the period fixed by the commission.

18. Time extended. The commission, when it deems the same necessary or advisable, may extend to any corporation or public utility a further specified time, not to exceed ninety days, within which to file any report required by law to be filed with the commission, in which event the attaching or taking effect of any penalty for failure to file such report or pay any tax or fee shall be extended or postponed accordingly.

See annotations under sections 7796, 7855.

7862. Tax on marriage license. The tax on marriage license shall be one dollar, and shall be paid to the register of deeds. It shall be the duty of the register of deeds to render, annually, to the sheriff, on the first Monday in December, sworn statements in detail of taxes received by him under this section, and at the same time pay him the money thus received; and thereupon the sheriff shall file the statements of the register of deeds with the clerk of the superior court. The marriage license tax shall be paid to the state treasurer by the sheriff of the county in which the same is collected when he settles for the other state taxes. The counties may levy the same tax upon marriage licenses as is levied by the state.

Rev., s. 5191; 1917, c. 231, s. 83; 1919, c. 90, s. 83.

7863. Tax on official seals. Whenever the seal of state, of the treasury department, or other public officer required by law to keep a seal (not including clerks of the courts, other county officers and notaries public) shall be affixed to any paper, the tax shall be as follows, to be paid by the party applying for the same: For the great seal of the state, on any commission, two dollars; on warrants of extradition for fugitives from justice from other states, a reciprocal seal tax and fee shall be charged, i. e., the same fee and seal tax must be collected from the state making requisition which is charged this state for like service. All fees and seal taxes of whatever kind collected by the private secretary of the governor shall be paid into the treasury quarterly; for the seal of the state department, one dollar, to be collected by the secretary of state and paid by him into the treasury; for the seal of the state treasurer, to be collected by him and accounted for as other public money, one dollar. Such officers shall keep an account of the number of times their seals may be used, and shall deliver to the proper officer a sworn statement thereof. Whenever a scroll is used in the absence of a seal by any of the said officers, the tax shall be on the scroll. Seals affixed for the use of any county or the state or used on the commissions of officers of the militia, or any other public officer not having a salary, or under the pension law, or under any process of court, shall be exempt from taxation: Provided, that no fee shall be charged for the affixing of a seal to any commission issued by the governor to any person in the employ of the state or to be employed by the state under this section or under section 3859; but this shall not be construed to apply to commissions issued to notaries public or justices of the peace. The officers collecting the said taxes and fees may retain as compensation five per centum only, except in cases of sheriffs, whose compensation shall be allowed by the auditor. Any person receiving taxes under this section and wilfully refusing or neglecting to pay the same as required, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned at the discretion of the court.

Part 3. General Provisions as to Licenses

7864. License procured before beginning business. Each person, firm, or corporation who engages in any business or practices any profession for which a license is required by this chapter, except where the amount of the tax is contingent upon the amount of business transacted, shall procure such license annually in advance on or before the thirty-first day of May, or before engaging in the business or practicing the profession for which a tax is levied. Any person, firm, or corporation who engages in any business or practices any profession for which a license is required without first having procured a license therefor shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned, in the discretion of the court: Provided, the fine shall not be less than twenty per cent of the tax in addition to the tax and the cost.

1917, c. 231, s. 85; 1919, c. 90, s. 85.

7865. License must be present; no duplicates. It shall be unlawful for any person to carry on or practice any itinerant trade, business, or profession for which a license is required under this chapter without having in his actual possession at the time of so carrying on or practicing such trade, business, or profession the license or duplicate thereof. Neither the state treasurer, secretary of state nor sheriff shall have authority to issue a duplicate of any license unless expressly authorized to do so by this chapter; but each person, firm or corporation shall be required to take out a separate license for each agent. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 5200; 1917, c. 231, s. 88; 1919, c. 90, s. 88.

Each salesman must have a separate license: State v. Morrison, 126-1123.

7866. License kept posted. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to carry on any business or practice any profession for which a license is required by this act without having the special tax license therefor posted in a conspicuous place at the place where such business is carried on; and if the business that is made taxable is carried on at two or more separate places, a separate license for each business shall be required. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of twenty-five dollars.

7867. Penalty for failure to obtain license. Any person, firm, or corporation who is liable for any license or privilege tax under schedules B and C, and who practice their or its profession or trade without paying said license or privilege tax, shall be subject to a penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars, the same to be recovered by the state tax commission in an action to enforce same in the superior court of Wake county or in the county of the defendant. Every person engaged in any itinerant business that is made taxable under the revenue act shall have with him when so engaged in such business either the original license required to be obtained for engaging in each business or a duplicate thereof, and shall exhibit the same upon demand of any sheriff, deputy, constable, or other officer.

1917, c. 234, s. 117; 1919, c. 92, s. 117.

7868. License books furnished. The state tax commission shall, not later than April fifteenth in each year, furnish the sheriff in each county a book of blank license certificates, with corresponding stubs consecutively numbered, which shall provide separate blank space both for the state and for the county tax. Such license shall bear inscription, "Issued by State Tax Commission," and no other form of license certificate issued by the sheriff or tax collector of any county shall after the first day of May, 1919, be a valid license for any of the trades or professions taxable under this act.

7869. Duties of sheriff as to license tax. Except where otherwise provided, the sheriffs and tax collectors of the several counties of the state shall be the agents of the state for the issuing of license and collection of license taxes provided for in this subchapter; and it shall be their duty from time to time to make diligent inquiry if all parties within their respective counties who are liable for any such specific tax have paid the same; and if after sixty days from the first day of May any person, firm, or corporation is found to be carrying on any business or practicing any profession for which a license is required, without such license, it shall be the duty of such sheriff to demand the immediate payment of the tax, with an additional penalty of twenty per centum (the said penalty not to exceed ten dollars in any one case) as a penalty for failure to procure such license before engaging in such business or practicing such profession as required by law; and in default of such immediate payment the sheriff shall have power, and it shall be his duty, to levy upon any personal or real estate owned by such person, firm, or corporation, and sell the same for the payment of said tax, penalty, and costs, in the same manner as provided by law for levy and sale of property for collection of other taxes; and if sufficient property is not found it shall be his duty to swear out a warrant before some justice of the peace of his county for the violation of this act, as provided in section 7864: Provided, that the sheriff shall not be liable for false arrest for wrongfully levying upon any property under this section unless it shall appear that the sheriff did so maliciously: Provided further, that no sheriff shall issue any license under schedule B after the expiration of sixty days from the first day of May without collecting the penalty herein provided, unless it be shown that the person, firm, or corporation to whom such license is issued did not engage in the business or practice the profession for which license is required after the first day of May and prior to the issuance of said license.

Rev., ss. 2876, 2877, 5196; 1917, c. 231, s. 89; 1919, c. 90, s. 89.

License taxes are, in effect, assessed by statute and become due and collectible, as a debt due to state, as soon as the party assumes to exercise, as a business, the profession, trade, or occupation upon which tax is imposed: Worth v. Wright, 122-335.

An action for collection of license tax on business of selling pianos, and made payable directly to state treasurer, was properly brought by that officer in his own name, although it might have been brought in name of state: Ibid.

7870. Sheriff not liable for prosecution in good faith. No action for damages shall be prosecuted or maintained by any person against any sheriff or his deputy who in good faith has arrested or who has arrested and prosecuted, or who may hereafter arrest or who may hereafter arrest and prosecute any person who may have refused or may fail or refuse to pay to such sheriff or his deputy any tax or taxes imposed by any act of the general assembly, whether such act be valid or invalid.

Rev., s. 2878; 1905, c. 180.

7871. Highest tax collected. Should there be any doubt as to which license fee any corporation, firm, or individual should pay on account of the business partaking of the nature of more than one subject of taxation, such corporation, firm, or individual shall be charged the highest license which might be levied. But this discretion shall not be exercised by the sheriff when the businesses carried on are separate and distinct branches, but each shall then be taxed as required by law.

Rev., s. 5258; 1917, c. 234, s. 95; 1919, c. 92, s. 95.

7872. Sheriff to report on license taxes. The sheriff of each county, within ninety days after the tenth day of March, 1919, and every six months thereafter, and as often as he may be called upon, shall ascertain and furnish to the state tax commission, upon blanks to be furnished by said commission, a complete list of all subjects in his county liable for tax under schedules B and C of the revenue act, which list shall be duly verified upon the oath of the sheriff, and the state tax commission shall deliver a copy of such return to the state auditor. Any sheriff failing to make the report provided for in this section within thirty days of the time prescribed shall forfeit and pay to the state the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, to be recovered on suit instituted by the state tax commission in the superior court of Wake county.

Rev., s. 5242; 1917, c. 234, s. 90; 1919, c. 92, s. 90.

7873. Monthly returns of license taxes. All city, county, or state officers authorized to collect or receive privilege taxes or license fees for the state shall make return of the same on the first of every month to the auditor, and within ten days thereafter pay the amount mentioned in said return to the state treasurer; and further, it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to immediately notify the state tax commission of any failure upon the part of any official to account as aforesaid. Any officer violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 5243; 1917, c. 234, s. 94; 1919, c. 92, s. 94.

7874. Special agents to assist sheriff. It shall be the duty of the state tax commission to employ such number of traveling auditors or special agents, not exceeding three, as in their judgment necessary, to assist the sheriffs of the several counties of the state in securing the faithful observance of the provisions of this act and of the revenue laws of the state. Such traveling auditors, upon presentation of certificate of authority from the state tax commission, shall have access to the books and records of any county officer in any county in the state.

1917, c. 231, s. 90; 1919, c. 90, s. 90.

7875. Fines and penalties to be paid to school fund. Whenever any officer, including justices of the peace, receives or collects a fine, penalty, or forfeiture in behalf of the state, he shall, within thirty days after such reception or collection, pay over and account for the same to the treasurer of the county board of education for the benefit of the fund for maintaining the free public schools in such county. Whenever any fine or penalty is imposed by any officer the said fine or penalty shall be at once docketed, and shall not be remitted except for good and sufficient reasons, which shall be stated on the docket.

Rev., s. 5194; 1917, c. 231, s. 93; 1919, c. 90, s. 93.

See section 1324. When a defendant has paid the fine, and then a pardon is granted, he is entitled to a return of the fine if it is still within the control of the court: Bynum v. Turner, 171-86.

Fines and penalties distinguished: State v. Maultsby, 139-583, and cases cited.

7876. Misappropriation of taxes a misdemeanor. Any officer, including justices of the peace, violating the preceding section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by fine or imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

Rev., s. 5195; 1917, c. 231, s. 94; 1919, c. 90, s. 94.

See section 4276. See State v. Hill, 91-561; State v. Connelly, 104-797.

7877. County may levy similar tax unless prohibited. In cases where a specific license tax is levied for the privilege of carrying on any business, trade or profession, the county may levy the same tax, and no more: Provided, no provision to the contrary is made in the section levying the specific license tax.

Rev., s. 5197; 1917, c. 231, s. 95; 1919, c. 90, s. 95.

See section 7796.

7878. Construction of revenue act. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to decide all questions presented to him which may arise upon the construction and execution of all sections of this act imposing license taxes which are payable directly to the state treasurer, and of the state tax commission to construe all sections of this act imposing license taxes which are payable to the sheriffs and tax collectors of the several counties and to the clerks of the superior courts. Such decisions by the state treasurer and the state tax commission shall be prima facie correct and a protection to the officers affected thereby. The population of cities and towns where the license tax is graduated in this act with respect to population shall be the number of inhabitants as determined by the last census of the United States government.

1917, c. 231, s. 92; 1919, c. 90, s. 92.

7879. Appropriation to carry out this act. A sum not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars is hereby annually appropriated, out of any moneys not otherwise appropriated, to be expended by the treasurer of the state as he may deem best and necessary to secure the prompt and proper collection of taxes and the protection of the treasury; and seven thousand five hundred dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby annually appropriated to be used by the auditor of the state for the proper enforcement of the machinery act, and in the employment and expenses of a traveling auditor.

Rev., s. 5198; 1917, c. 231, s. 96; 1919, c. 90, s. 96.

7880. How far other acts repealed. All laws imposing taxes the subjects of which are revised in this act are hereby repealed: Provided, that this repeal shall not extend to the provisions of any law so far as they relate to the taxes listed or which ought to or would have been listed, or which may have been due previous to the tenth day of March, 1919.

1919, c. 90, s. 97.

SUBCHAPTER II. ASSESSMENT AND LISTING OF TAXES

(Machinery Act)

[The machinery act of 1919, chapter 92 of the public laws of 1919, is incorporated in this subchapter. The revaluation act, chapter 84 of the public laws of 1919, has been omitted because its permanency as a system seems to depend upon the action of the legislature to which report is to be made.]

ART. 4. BOARD OF STATE TAX COMMISSIONERS

7881. Corporation commission constitutes board. In addition to the duties imposed upon the board of corporation commissioners by the law creating such board, they are hereby created a board of state tax commissioners, with powers and duties prescribed under this article.

Rev., s. 1119; 1917, c. 234, s. 1; 1919, c. 92, s. 1.

An action to compel the performance of duty should be against the corporation commission as a body, and not against the individuals: Shoe Co. v. Travis, 168-599.

7882. Members take oath of office. The members of the board shall take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office, to be filed with the secretary of state.

Rev., s. 1120; 1917, c. 234, s. 2; 1919, c. 92, s. 2.

7883. General supervision of tax system. 1. It shall be the duty of such board to have general supervision of the system of taxation throughout the state, and to have and exercise general supervision over the administration of all assessment and tax laws, over all county, township, and city tax assessors and boards of equalization, to the end that all assessments of property, real, personal, and mixed, be made relatively just and uniform, and at its true value in money; to require all county, township, and city assessors, boards of equalization and levy and assessment officers, under penalty of forfeiture and removal from office as such assessors or boards, to assess all property of every kind and character at its true value in money.

2. They shall confer with and advise assessing officers as to their duties under the law, and institute proper proceedings to enforce the penalties and liabilities provided by law for public officers, officers of corporations and individuals failing to comply with this subchapter; prefer charges to the governor against assessing and taxation officers who violate the law or fail in the performance of their duties in reference to assessments and taxation; and in the execution of these powers the said board may call upon the attorney-general or any prosecuting attorney in the state to assist the board, and any person or officer who fails or refuses to comply with any lawful order of the state tax commission shall be subject to a penalty or forfeiture of one hundred dollars, the same to be imposed by order of said commission, and, in addition, any such person or officer so offending shall be liable to punishment by said board as for contempt.

3. At least thirty days previous to the date fixed for listing taxes they shall prepare a pamphlet for the instruction of tax assessors, which shall, in as plain terms as possible, explain the proper working of the tax laws of the state, and shall call particular attention to any points in the administration of the laws which have seemed to be overlooked or neglected. They shall advise the assessors of the practical working of the laws and explain any points which seem to be intricate and upon which assessors may differ.

4. They shall receive complaints as to property liable to taxation that has not been assessed or of property that has been fraudulently or improperly assessed through error or otherwise, and investigate the same, and take such proceedings and make such orders as will correct the irregularity complained of, if found to exist.

5. They shall see that each county in the state is visited by at least one member of the board as often as is necessary, to the end that all complaints concerning the law of assessment and taxation may be heard; that information concerning its workings may be collected; that all assessing and taxation officers comply with the law and all violations thereof be punished, and that all proper suggestions as to amendments and changes may be made.

6. They shall require from any register of deeds, clerk of court, mayor and clerk of towns, or any other officer in this state, on forms prescribed by the board, such annual or other reports as shall enable the board to ascertain the assessed valuations of all property listed for taxation throughout the state under this chapter, the amount of taxes assessed, collected, and returned delinquent, and such other matters as the board may require, to the end that it may have complete and statistical information as to the practical operation of this chapter. Every such officer mentioned in this section who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to furnish any report required by the commission for the purposes of this chapter, or who shall wilfully and unlawfully hinder, delay, or obstruct the commission in the discharge of its duties, shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered in an action in the name of the state. A delay of ten days to make and furnish such report shall raise the presumption that the same was wilful.

7. They shall make diligent investigation and inquiry concerning the revenue laws and systems of other states and countries, so far as the same is made known by published reports and statistics and can be ascertained by correspondence with officers thereof, and, with the aid of information thus obtained, together with experience and observation of our own laws, shall recommend to the legislature at each regular session thereof such amendments, changes, or modifications of our revenue laws as seem proper and necessary to remedy injustice and irregularities in taxation and to facilitate the assessment and collection of public revenues.

8. They shall further report to the legislature at each regular session thereof, or at such other times as the legislature may direct, the whole amount of taxes collected in the state for all purposes, classified as to state, county, township, and municipal purposes, with the sources thereof; the amount lost, the cause of the loss, the proceedings of said board, and such other matters of information concerning the public revenues as it may deem of public interest.

9. They shall discharge such other duties as are or may be prescribed by law. Rev., s. 1124; 1917, c. 234, ss. 3, 12; 1919, c. 92, s. 3.

Action to compel performance of duty should be against commission as a body: Shoe Co. v. Travis, 168-599.

7884. Annual report to the governor. The board of state tax commissioners shall, on or before the first day of January of each year, make an annual report to the governor of the state, setting forth the workings of said commission during the preceding year and containing the findings and recommendations of said commission in relation to all matters of taxation. The state tax commission shall cause two thousand copies of this report to be printed on or before the first day of February succeeding the making of the report. One hundred copies of the report shall be placed at the disposal of the state librarian for distribution and exchange, and a copy shall be forwarded by the tax commission to each member of the general assembly as soon as printed.

Rev., s. 1127; 1917, c. 234, s. 4; 1919, c. 92, s. 4.

7885. Place of meeting; power of board. Regular sessions of the board shall be held at their office in the city of Raleigh. The board and the members thereof shall have access to all books, papers, documents, statements and accounts on file or of record in any of the departments of state. It shall have like access to all books, papers, documents, statements, and accounts on file or of record in counties, townships, and municipalities. The board shall have the right to subpœna witnesses, upon a subpœna signed by the chairman of the board, directed to such witnesses, which subpœna may be served by any person authorized to serve subpœnas from courts of record in this state; and the attendance of witnesses may be compelled by attachment, to be issued by any superior court upon proper showing that such witness has been properly subpœnaed and has refused to obey such subpœna. The person serving such subpœna shall receive the same compensation now allowed to sheriffs and other officers for serving subpœnas. The board shall have the power to examine witnesses under oath, such oath to be administered by any member of the board or by the secretary thereof. The board shall have the right to examine books, papers, or accounts of any corporation, firm, or individual owning property liable to assessment for taxes, general or specific, under the laws of this state; and any officer or stockholder of any such corporation, any member of any such firm, or any person or persons who shall refuse to permit such inspection, or neglect or fail to appear before the board in response to its subpoena, or testify, as provided for in this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the state's prison for a period not exceeding two years, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Rev., ss. 1122, 1123, 3792; 1917, c. 234, s. 7; 1919, c. 92, s. 7.

7886. Record of proceedings. The board of state tax commissioners shall keep an accurate record of its official proceedings. Certified copies of its records, attested with its official seal, shall be received in evidence in all courts of the state with like effect as certified copies of other public records.

1917, c. 234, s. 6; 1919, c. 92, s. 6.

7887. State board of equalization. The state board of tax commissioners shall constitute a state board of equalization of valuation and taxes for the state. In case it shall appear or be made to appear to the board that any tax list in any county in the state is grossly irregular, unlawfully or unequally assessed, it shall be the duty of the board to equalize the valuations of real property among the several counties in the manner prescribed in this article.

1917, c. 234, s. 8; 1919, c. 92, s. 8.

7888. Lands equalized. Lands shall be equalized by adding to the aggregate assessed value thereof, in every county in which the board may believe the valuation to be too low, such rate per centum as will raise the same to its proper proportionate value, and by deducting from the aggregate assessed value thereof, in every county in which the board may believe the valuation to be too high, such per centum as will reduce the same to its proper value. Town and city lots shall be equalized in the same manner herein provided for equalizing lands, and, at the option of the board, may be combined and equalized with lands.

7889. Power to revise county valuations. After the various tax lists required to be made under this subchapter shall have been passed upon by the county board of equalization, the state board of tax commissioners or any member thereof shall have power to reconvene said board and to make such orders as the tax commissioners shall determine are just and necessary, and to direct and order such county boards of equalization to raise or lower the valuation of the property, real or personal, in any county, township, or city, and to raise or lower the valuation of property of any person, company, or corporation; and to order and direct any county board of equalization or board of county commissioners to raise or lower the valuation of any class or classes of property; and generally to perform and do any act or to make any order or direction to any county board of equalization, board of county commissioners, or any county or township assessor as to the valuation of any property or any class of property in any township, city, or county, which in the judgment of the tax commission may seem just and necessary, to the end that all property shall be valued and assessed in the same manner and to the same extent as any and all other property, real or personal, required to be listed for taxation. The tax commission or any member thereof is authorized to require county assessors to carefully place upon the assessment rolls, for taxation as provided by law, omitted property which may be discovered to have for any reason escaped assessment and taxation in previous years.

The board of state tax commissioners are authorized to require the county assessors or clerk of the board of county commissioners of each county in the state to file with them, when called for, complete abstracts of all real and personal property in the county as equalized by the county board of equalization and itemized by townships. They are authorized to make such rules and regulations as they may deem proper to carry out effectually the purposes for which the board is constituted, and to make all rules and regulations not inconsistent with law as the board may deem necessary with respect to its own meetings, proceedings, notices, and hearings.

Rev., ss. 1125, 1125 (a), 1126; 1917, c. 234, s. 5; 1919, c. 92, s. 5.

7890. Results tabulated. When the board shall have separately considered the several classes of property as hereinbefore required, the results shall be combined into one table, and the same shall be examined, compared, and perfected in such manner as the board shall deem best to accomplish a just equalization of assessments throughout the state.

1917, c. 234, s. 10; 1919, c. 92, s. 10.

7891. Rates and amounts certified to counties. When the board shall have completed its equalization of assessments for any year, the clerk of the board shall certify the rate per centum or amount finally determined by the board to be added to or deducted from the assessed valuation of each class of property in the several counties; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the board of county commissioners to extend the rates of addition or deduction as ordered by the state board of equalization.

1917, c. 234, s. 11; 1919, c. 92, s. 11.

7892. Any member may hear complaints. The board of state tax commissioners may direct that any member of the board shall hear complaints, and make examinations and investigations.

1917, c. 234, s. 12; 1919, c. 92, s. 12.

7893. Assistants employed; salaries. The corporation commission may employ such additional clerks, agents, or other help as in their judgment they may deem necessary to put into proper execution the provisions of this act. The persons so selected shall hold office during the pleasure of said board. The sum of twenty thousand dollars per annum, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated for the payment of the services of such clerks, agents, or other help. The members of the board shall receive an annual salary each of five hundred dollars in addition to their salary as corporation commissioners, and shall devote their whole time to the discharge of the duties of their office; and the clerk of the commission shall receive three hundred dollars in addition to his other salary; and they shall also receive their necessary traveling expenses, including necessary postage, stationery, and printing, in the performance of their duties, to be audited and allowed by the state auditor and paid monthly by the state treasurer out of the general fund. The state tax commission is hereby authorized to employ special assistants or counsel in the discovery and collection of all inheritance taxes that are overdue and unpaid, and whenever in the judgment of the commission the interests of the state will be conserved thereby, the compensation, not to exceed five per cent of the amounts of revenue collected, to be audited and allowed by the state auditor upon certificate of the state tax commission in the settlement of such taxes: Provided, that the commission of five per cent herein authorized for collection of inheritance taxes shall be limited to cases where actual settlement is pending on the tenth day of March, 1919.

Rev., s. 1121; 1917, c. 234, s. 13; 1919, c. 92, s. 13.

County assessor provided for, 1917, c. 234, s. 14.

ART. 5. ASSESSORS AND LIST-TAKERS

7894. Township list-takers and assessors. The board of commissioners of each county shall, on the first Monday in the month of April in each year, appoint one discreet freeholder in each township (or, in the discretion of the county commissioners of any county, they may appoint two), who shall have been a resident of the township for not less than twelve months, who shall be known as the township list-taker and assessor and who shall list and assess the real and personal property in said township for taxation: Provided, the board of commissioners may appoint an assistant list-taker and assessor for the purpose above mentioned for each ward in any city or town in their respective townships. The township list-taker and assessor shall devote such portion of time to the duties of the office as may be necessary from the first day of May to the thirtieth day of June.

Rev., ss. 5202, 5211; 1917, c. 234, s. 15; 1919, c. 92, s. 15.

7895. Oath of township list-taker and assessor. Before entering upon the discharge of the duties of his office the assistant assessor shall take and subscribe the following oath before the chairman of the board of county commissioners for his county or some officer qualified to administer oaths:

I, assistant assessor for township of county, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will discharge the duties devolving upon me as assistant assessor according to the laws in force governing said office: so help me, God.

And upon making his complete returns of his assessments, embracing an abstract of the taxable property of the township, to the county assessor, the assistant assessor shall annex the following affidavit, subscribed and sworn to before a justice of the peace, who shall certify the same:

I, the assistant assessor for township of county, make oath that the foregoing list contains, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the real and personal property required by law to be assessed in said township, and that I have assessed every tract or parcel of land or other real and personal property at its true value in money, and have endeavored to do equal justice to the public and to the taxpayers concerned.

Any assessor making a false return shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 5208; 1917, c. 234, s. 20; 1919, c. 92, s. 20.

7896. Beginning of assessment, and return of lists. The township list-taker and assessor shall begin work of assessment and listing on Tuesday after the first Monday in May of each year, and shall complete the same as early as practicable, and shall return his list of assessments so made out for the year nineteen hundred and nineteen to the county assessor, and for other years to the clerk of the board of county commissioners. The assessment of real property, when made, shall be in force for four years, or until altered, as provided by this act, by reason of structural improvement, erection, or destruction.

1917, c. 234, s. 17; 1919, c. 92, s. 17.

7897. Duties of township list-takers and assessors. Each township list-taker and assessor shall advertise in five or more public places within the township not later than the twentieth day of April, notifying all taxpayers to return to him all real and personal property which each taxpayer shall own on the first day of May, and naming the times and places at which he will be present to receive tax lists, and returns shall be made to the list-taker during the month of May under the pains and penalties imposed by law. The township list-taker and assessor shall obtain from each taxpayer a full, complete, and detailed statement of each and every piece and kind of property, real, personal, and mixed, which the taxpayer shall own on the first day of May, together with, as near as possible, the true value in money of all such property owned by him, or which may be under his control as agent, guardian, administrator, or otherwise, and which should be listed for taxation; and it shall be the duty of the township list-taker and assessor to ascertain by visitation, investigation, or otherwise, the actual cash value in money of each piece or class of property in his township, and to list such property at its actual value for taxation. He is hereby authorized and empowered to administer oaths in all cases necessary to obtain full and correct information concerning any taxable real and personal property in his township.

Rev., ss. 5206, 5212; 1917, c. 234, s. 18; 1919, c. 92, s. 18.

7898. Compensation of list-takers and assessors. The board of county commissioners shall allow each list-taker and assessor such compensation as the board shall deem just and proper for each day actually engaged in the performance of his duties, not exceeding four dollars per day; but the board of commissioners may, if in their judgment deemed wise to do so, fix the compensation on the basis of the number of tax lists taken, not to exceed fifteen cents per name.

Rev., s. 5209; 1917, c. 234, s. 15; 1919, c. 92, s. 15.

7899. Accounts must be itemized and verified. Township list-takers and assessors shall make out their account in detail, giving the date of each day when they shall have been employed, which account they shall verify under oath. They shall not be entitled to compensation until they shall have filed lists, schedules, statements, and books appertaining to assessment of property for such year with the county assessor (for the clerk of the board of county commissioners), the books to be accurately made up, showing correct total values for each class of property, average value per unit and aggregate value of all property in the township. The list-takers and assessors shall not be entitled to pay unless they have performed the labor and made return in strict compliance with the law. The county commissioners shall be the judge of the number of days actually necessary for taking the lists, and may regulate the same when a greater number of days is charged for than they deem necessary.

Rev., s. 5210; 1917, c. 234, s. 27; 1919, c. 92, s. 27.

ART. 6. ASSESSMENT AND LISTING OF PROPERTY

Part 1. General Provisions

7900. Terms defined. The words and phrases following, whenever used in this chapter, shall be construed to include in their meaning the definitions set opposite the same in this section, whenever it shall be necessary to the proper construction of this chapter:

1. Bank, banker, broker, stock-jobber—whoever has money employed in the business of dealing in coin, notes, or bills of exchange, or in any business of dealing or in buying or selling any kind of bills of exchange, checks, drafts, bank-notes, promissory notes, bonds, warrants, or other writing obligatory, or stocks of any kind or description whatsoever, or receiving money on deposit.

2. Collector or collectors—county, township, and deputy collectors, including sheriffs.

3. List-takers and assessors—have all authority conferred upon list-takers in this chapter.

4. Credits—every claim or demand for money, labor, interest or valuable things due or to become due, including money on deposit.

5. He—male, female, company, corporation, firm, society, singular or plural number.

6. Real property, real estate, land, tract, lot—not only the land itself, whether laid out in town or city lots or otherwise, with all things therein, but also all buildings, structures, and improvements and other permanent fixtures of whatever kind thereon, and all rights and privileges belonging or in any wise appertaining thereto, except where the same may be otherwise denominated by this chapter.

7. Shares of stock, shares of capital stock—the shares into which the capital stock of every incorporated company or association may be divided.

8. Tax, taxes—any taxes, special assessments or costs, interest or penalty imposed upon property.

Rev., s. 5259; 1917, c. 234, s. 96; 1919, c. 92, s. 96.

7901. What property exempt. The following real estate, and no other, shall be exempt from taxation, state and local:

1. Real estate, directly or indirectly owned by the United States or this state, however held, and real estate lawfully owned and held by counties, cities, towns, or school districts, used wholly and exclusively for public and school purposes, and all property used exclusively for educational purposes.

2. Such property as may be set apart for graveyards or burial lots, except such as is held for the purpose of speculating in the sale thereof.

3. Buildings, with the land they actually occupy, lawfully owned and held by churches or religious bodies and wholly and exclusively used for religious worship or for the residence of the minister of any such church or religious body, together with the additional adjacent land reasonably necessary for the convenient use of any such buildings. The occasional leasing of such buildings for schools, public lectures, or concerts, or the leasing of such parsonages, shall not render them liable to taxation; also buildings and land upon which is situate, lawfully owned and held by churches or religious bodies, when secured through gift by will, and when the income from said property is used exclusively for religious, charitable or benevolent purposes, and when said income does not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars annually.

4. Buildings, with the land they actually occupy, wholly devoted to educational purposes, belonging to and actually and exclusively occupied and used by churches, public libraries, incorporated colleges, academies, industrial schools, seminaries, or other corporate institutions of learning, together with such additional adjacent land owned by such churches, libraries, and educational institutions as may be reasonably necessary for the convenient use of such buildings respectively; and also the buildings thereon used as residences by the officers or instructors of such educational institutions.

5. Real estate belonging to and actually and exclusively occupied and used by young men's christian associations and other similar religious associations, orphan or other asylums, reformatories, hospitals, and nunneries, which are not conducted for profit, but purely and completely as charities.

6. Buildings, with the land they actually occupy, belonging to any benevolent or charitable association and used exclusively for lodge purposes or meeting rooms by such association, together with such additional adjacent land as may be necessary for the convenient use of the buildings for such purposes; and also the proceeds and profits arising from rents, leases, etc., or rooms in said buildings, whether occupied for lodge and meeting purposes or not, when such rents, proceeds, and profits are used for charitable and benevolent purposes.

7. The property of indians who are not citizens, except lands held by them by purchase.

The following personal property, and no other, shall be exempt from taxation, state and local:

1. Property directly or indirectly owned by the state, however held; by the United States, however held; and property lawfully owned and held by the counties, cities, towns, or school districts, used wholly and exclusively for county, city, town, or public school purposes.

2. The furniture and furnishings of buildings lawfully owned and held by churches or religious bodies and wholly and exclusively used for religious worship or for the residence of the ministers of any such church or religious body, or such ministers' private libraries, and also the private libraries of the teachers in the public free schools of the state.

3. The furniture, furnishings, books and instruments contained in buildings wholly devoted to educational purposes, belonging to and actually and exclusively used by churches, public libraries, incorporated colleges, academies, industrial schools, seminaries, or other incorporated institutions.

4. Personal property, including endowment funds, belonging to young men's christian associations and other similar religious associations, orphan or other asylums, reformatories, hospitals and nunneries, which are not conducted for profit, but purely and completely as charities.

5. The furniture and furnishings of buildings and other property belonging to any benevolent or charitable association and used for lodge purposes and meeting rooms by said association, or when such property or the proceeds of same is used for charitable or benevolent purposes.

6. Wearing apparel, private libraries, kitchen and other household furniture, not exceeding in value twenty-five dollars, and also growing crops.

Rev., s. 5223; 1917, c. 234, s. 72; 1919, c. 92, s. 72.

The revaluation act, 1919, chap. 84, sec. 24, makes the exemption from taxation in certain personal property, not to exceed $300, instead of $25, as given in subsection 6 of the above section, from and after the year 1919.

See section 7768. Power of taxation being essential to the life of government, exemptions therefrom are regarded as in derogation of sovereign authority and common right, and will never be presumed: Railroad v. Alsbrook, 110-137.

The grant of an exemption from taxation must be expressed by words too plain to be mistaken; if a doubt arise as to the intent of the legislature, that doubt must be resolved in favor of state: Railroad v. Alsbrook, 110-137—and such exemption, to be good, must be based upon some consideration or equivalent therefor, moving to the state: Ibid.

The consolidation of a railroad not exempt from taxation with one which is exempt does not extend the exemption to the property of the former, in the absence of clear, unmistakable provisions to that effect in the law authorizing the consolidation: Ibid.

In an exemption from taxation of property set apart and exclusively used for religious, charitable or educational purposes, only such property was meant as was used directly, immediately and solely for the purpose named, and hence property rented out was not exempt, though rents, so applied, were: United Brethren v. Comrs., 115-489.

The constitutional provision as to exempting property held for charitable purposes, etc., being in the disjunctive, the legislature can exempt the property up to a certain value, and tax all above it, and may also tax property held for one of the purposes named and exempt that held for others: Ibid.

Where charter vests corporate property in the stockholders, and exempts it from taxation, the individual stock is also exempt: Worth v. R. R., 89-301.

A tract of eighty acres, chiefly in forest, lying near a town, held by a religious society, on one side of which is situated a schoolhouse, is not exempt from taxation, except such part of it as is necessary for the school: United Brethren v. Comrs., 115-489.

A town residence belonging to a religious society, not needed or used for a church, parsonage, school or hospital, but rented out, is not exempt from taxation; otherwise as to the rental applied to religious, educational or charitable purposes: Ibid.

A parcel of land of twenty acres, lying within the corporate limits of a town and belonging to a religious society, and on one part of which is a church, situated on a lot fenced in, of about two acres, the same being held for sale, excepting the church lot, is not, other than the church lot, exempt from taxation: Ibid.

Solvent credits held by a religious society, the income from which is applied exclusively and faithfully to educational, religious and charitable purposes, are exempt from taxation under acts of 1893, but any part of the fund on which the interest is not so applied, but is allowed to accumulate, is not exempt: Ibid.

The exemption does not include property owned by a private corporation, although it may have some of the governmental powers of a municipal corporation: Southern Assembly v. Palmer, 166-75.

The exemption includes all property used exclusively for educational purposes, and the test is the use to which it is devoted rather than the manner in which the title is held: Corp. Com. v. Construction Co., 160-582.

Drainage district bonds are not exempt: Comrs. v. Webb, 160-594. Municipal bonds not exempt, see section 2682.

Land which owner has contracted to sell to United States is not exempt until the title passes: Land Co. v. Comrs., 174-634.

7902. Poll tax exemption. The boards of commissioners of the several counties shall have power to exempt any person from the payment of poll tax on account of poverty and infirmity; and when any such person has been once exempted he shall not be required to renew his application unless the commissioners shall revoke the exemption. When such exemption shall have been made, the clerk of the commissioners shall furnish the person with a certificate of such action, and the person to whom it was issued shall be required to list his poll, but upon exhibition of such certificate the list-taker shall annually enter in the column intended for the poll the word "Exempt," and the poll shall not be charged in computing the list.

Rev., s. 5201; 1917, c. 234, s. 41, 1919, c. 92, s. 41.

7903. Forms for assessing and listing. The state tax commission shall prepare forms to be used in assessing and listing property for taxation by assessors and list-takers. It shall transmit said forms to the clerk of the board of commissioners of each county by the fifteenth day of April, and the clerks shall deliver to each board of list-takers and assessors the necessary number of forms for their respective use. The assessors' forms shall be furnished every fourth year and the list-takers' forms annually.

Rev., s. 5215; 1917, c. 234, s. 73; 1919, c. 92, s. 73.

Part 2. Valuation of Property

7904. Real property valued. Real property shall be valued by the township list-taker and assessor, either from actual view or from the best information that the township list-taker and assessor can practically obtain, according to its true value in money. In determining the value the township list-taker and assessor shall consider as to each piece its advantage of location, quality of soil, quantity of standing timber, water privileges, water-power, mines, minerals, quarries, or other valuable deposits known to be available therein, and their value.

Rev., s. 5203; 1917, c. 234, s. 21; 1919, c. 92, s. 21.

The tax list showing assessed valuation of land is not competent evidence to show value in an action for damages: Hamilton v. R. R., 150-193.

7905. Personal property valued. All articles of personal property shall, as far as practicable, be valued by the list-takers and assessors according to their true value in money; and after arriving at the total valuation of all articles of personal property which he shall be able to discover as belonging to any person, if he or they have sufficient evidence upon which to form a belief that such person has other personal property, consisting of money, credits, debts due or to become due, or any other thing of value liable to taxation, he, they or the board of commissioners shall have power to take such action as may be necessary to get said property on the tax lists.

Rev., s. 5204; 1917, c. 234, s. 22; 1919, c. 92, s. 22.

7906. Actual value defined. The intent and purpose of the tax laws of this state is to have all property and subjects of taxation assessed at their true and actual value in money in such manner as such property and subjects are usually sold, but not by forced sale thereof, and the words "market value" or "true value," whenever used in the tax laws, shall be held and deemed to mean what the property and subjects would bring at cash sale when sold in such manner as such property and subjects are usually sold.

Rev., s. 5205; 1917, c. 234, s. 23; 1919, c. 92, s. 23.

7907. Listing in years when no assessment. Except in the year when there shall be an assessment of real property, the township list-taker and assessor shall list the lands in his township at the valuation previously assessed on the same, and shall list and assess all personal property in said township. Such township list-taker and assessor shall correct any parcel of real property on which any structure of over one hundred dollars value may have been erected or improved in excess of the value of one hundred dollars or on which any structure of the like value shall have been destroyed, agreeably to the returns made in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

Rev., s. 5211; 1917, c. 234, s. 28; 1919, c. 92, s. 28.

7908. Apportionment of valuation on division. In case within the interval between the regular periods of the valuation of lands or real property any piece of land or real property shall become divided in ownership, either by partition or sale of a portion thereof or otherwise, either of the part owners may, at any time, upon five days notice to the other part owner, apply to the board of commissioners for an apportionment of valuation. The board of commissioners shall allow such amendment to the tax duplicate as they may think just, and the person who has in custody the tax duplicates shall amend the same according to the assessment of the board of commissioners on the production of a certified copy of their proceedings ordering the change: Provided, that no amendment made after a tax has become due shall operate to affect that tax.

Rev., s. 5229; 1917, c. 234, s. 87; 1919, c. 92, s. 87.

Part 3. Listing of Property

7909. List filed by owner. Every person owning property is required to list and shall make out, sign, and deliver to the list-taker a statement, verified by his oath, of all the real and personal property, moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint-stock companies, annuities, or otherwise, and the value of improvements on real estate since same was assessed, in his possession or under his control on the first day of May, either as owner or holder thereof, or as parent, guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, agent, factor, or otherwise.

Provided, that whenever personal property has been conveyed in trust and the trustee resides out of the state, but the trustor resides within the state, then and in that case such property shall be listed for taxation in this state by the trustor where the property is situated. In all cases where a guardian, executor, or administrator resides in a city or incorporated town, all personal property in the hands of such guardian, executor, or administrator shall be listed for taxation only where their wards resided on the first day of May and where the deceased persons resided on the date of their death, unless such wards or deceased persons were nonresidents of the state on the first day of May or at the day of death, in which case the guardian, executor, or administrator shall list the property where he resides on the first day of May: Provided further, that when personal property is held in trust for another by any person, firm, or corporation in this state, whether as guardian, trustee, or otherwise, and the cestui que trust is a resident of the state, then the same shall be listed for taxation in the county and township where the cestui que trust lived on the first day of May; and if the cestui que trust lived in a county in the state other than the county of the trustee, guardian, or other person so holding such property, then the property so held in trust may be listed for taxation by forwarding a list thereof, verified by oath, to the register of deeds of the county wherein the cestui que trust lived on the first day of May, and such register shall enter the same on the tax lists of the township in which the cestui que trust lived; and banks listing their stocks held in trust shall give the county in which the cestui que trust lives and shall forward to the register of deeds of that county the names of cestuis que trustent living therein, with the number of shares held by each, and their taxable value, to the end that they may be entered for school, county, and municipal taxation. The guardian shall be exempt from municipal taxation on the personal property of his ward when the ward resides outside of the corporate limits of the city or town.

Any person who, to evade the payment of taxes, surrenders or exchanges certificates of deposit in any bank in this state or elsewhere for nontaxpaying securities, or surrenders any taxable property for nontaxable property, and after the date of listing property has passed takes such certificate or other taxable property back and gives up the nontaxpaying securities or property, or executes any fictitious note or other evidence of debt for deduction from his solvent credits, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars (one-half of which shall go to the informer), or imprisoned not less than one month nor more than six months, or both.

Rev., s. 5217; 1917, c. 234, s. 30; 1919, c. 92, s. 30.

The manner of listing herein prescribed is to be followed, and the list-taker has no authority to enter property upon the tax lists which is not listed as provided by law: Stone v. Phillips, 176-457; Rexford v. Phillips, 159-213.

Personal property held in trust is to be listed where the cestui que trust lives, if he lives in the state; otherwise, where the trustee lives: Smith v. Dunn, 160-174. See, also, sections 7911, 7912.

Funds in the hands of the clerk of superior court, awaiting final disposition by the court, are subject to taxation: Hyatt v. Walston, 174-55.

"Capital stock" is a distinct subject of taxation from "shares of capital stock," former representing entire property, business, good will, etc., of the corporation and belongs to it, while latter belongs to individual stockholders and are taxable ad valorem like other property: Comrs. v. Tobacco Co., 116-441.

Money deposited in banks loses its distinct character as money, and becomes a debt due to depositor from the bank, and as such is a proper subject for taxation: Lilly v. Comrs., 69-300.

Solvent credits are property, and like other property are liable to taxation under our revenue law. Nor does it make any difference if such credits were derived from the trade of a merchant in the usual course of a business also taxed: Lilly v. Comrs., 69-300.

7910. List filed by agent. The list shall be given by the person charged, during the months of May and June, as herein prescribed: Provided, that agents for the purpose of listing property may be appointed by females or nonresidents of the township where the property is situate, or by persons physically unable to attend and file their list at any time during the months of May and June: Provided, such persons shall be required to qualify by stating under oath that he knows the extent and has a knowledge of the true valuation of the property to be listed. The property of a corporation shall be given in by the president, cashier, treasurer, or other person appointed for that purpose.

Rev., s. 5218; 1917, c. 234, s. 31; 1919, c. 92, s. 31.

7911. Where real estate listed. All real property subject to taxation shall be listed in the township in which said property is situated on the first day of May. When the fee of the soil of any tract, parcel, or lot of land is in any person, and the right to any minerals, quarry, or timber therein is in another, the same shall be valued and listed agreeable to such ownership in separate entries specifying the interest listed, and shall be taxed to the parties owning the different interests respectively. In listing mineral, quarry, or timber interests the owner thereof shall describe the same in his list, together with the separate value of each separate tract or parcel of land in or on which the same shall be situated or located, and the list-taker shall be particular to enter the same on the tax list according to the returns. An owner of separate timber interests shall list the same, whether the timber shall be attached to or detached from the soil.

Rev., s. 5225; 1917, c. 234, s. 32; 1919, c. 92, s. 32.

Land should be listed for taxation in the name of individual owners, and not in name of the "estate" of one deceased: 89-251.

7912. Where polls and personalty listed; failure to list. All taxable polls and all personal property shall be listed in the township in which the person so charged resides on the first day of May, subject to the following exceptions:

1. Such shares of stock as are directed to be listed otherwise by this act.
2. All goods and chattels situated in some township, town, or city other than where the owner resides shall be listed in the township, town, or city where situated, and not elsewhere, if the owner or person having control thereof hires or occupies a store, mill, dockyard, piling ground, place for sale of property, shop, office, mine, farm, place of storage, manufactory, or warehouse therein for use in connection with such goods and chattels: Provided, that all farm products while owned by the raiser or producer shall be listed where raised, and that all manufactured goods consigned or stored out of the state shall be listed where the owner resides.

The residence of a person who has two or more places in which he occasionally dwells shall be that in which he dwells for the longest period of time during the year preceding the first day of May. The place where the principal office in this state is situated shall be deemed the residence of the corporation, but if there be no principal office in the state, then such property shall be listed and taxed at any place in the state where the corporation transacts business.

For purposes of assessing property and collecting taxes a copartnership shall be treated as an individual, and property shall be listed in the name of the firm. A copartnership shall be deemed to reside in the township, town, or city where its business is principally carried on. Each partner shall be liable for the whole tax. And any taxpayer who wilfully fails to list any personal property or poll liable to taxation in this state shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and the failure to list shall be prima facie evidence that such failure was wilful.

Rev., s. 5226; 1917, c. 234, s. 33; 1919, c. 92, s. 33.

See section 7909. Property in stock of corporations does not follow and is not fixed by the situs of the residence of its owner, but is fixed by the legislature prescribing where and how it shall be listed and taxed, that is, at its principal place of business: Wiley v. Comrs., 111-397.

Where a corporation or partnership has its place of business in one town with part of its personal property stored in another town, such property is only taxable in the town where its place of business is located: Winston v. Salem, 131-404.

Under the provisions of section 14, chapter 296, acts of 1893, it is the duty of the corporation, and not the individual stockholder, to list the stock for taxation and to pay the tax assessed thereon: Loan Assn. v. Comrs., 115-410.

Personal property of a nonresident (here, notes secured by land) held by his agent in this state is subject to tax here. The legal fiction that it is deemed to follow the person of the owner has no application to questions of revenue: Redmond v. Comrs., 87-122.

Nonresident holder of shares in a corporation in this state is not liable to tax here. Such property is beyond the jurisdiction of the state, and subject only to that in which holder has his domicile. The ruling in this case has no application to banking corporations formed and operated under the act of congress: Railroad v. Comrs., 91-454.

As to where stock in banks must be listed and taxed, see section 7948.

Though generally personal property is taxable at the domicile of owner, legislature may, in the absence of constitutional restrictions, subject bank stock, money or solvent credits to taxation either at domicile of owner, the constructive situs, or at the place where property is actually situated: Hall v. Fayetteville, 115-281; Buie v. Comrs., 79-267; Wiley v. Comrs., 111-397.

7913. What the list must show. The list shall state all property of the taxpayer, and also the age of the party, if a male, with reference to his liability to a poll tax. The list shall also contain, as of the first day of May, (1) the quantity of land owned in the township, together with the kind and nature of any buildings erected thereon, and the land shall be described by name, if it has one; otherwise in a way that it may be identified, and each separate tract or parcel of land shall be separately listed and described; (2) manufacturing property outside of incorporated cities and towns; (3) the number of acres of mineral, timber, and quarry lands and lands susceptible of development for water-power; (4) the number of town lots; (5) the number and value of horses; (6) the number and value of mules; (7) the number and value of jacks and jennets; (8) the number and value of cattle; (9) the number and value of hogs; (10) the number and value of sheep; (11) the number and value of goats; (12) the number and value of dogs; (13) the value of farming utensils, including farm tools and machinery of all kinds; (14) the value of carriages, harness, buggies, wagons, carts, and other vehicles; (15) the value of warehouse fixtures and office furniture; (16) the value of tools of mechanics; (17) the value of household and kitchen furniture, musical instruments, provisions of all kinds, including grain and forage; firearms; (18) the value of libraries and scientific instruments; (19) the amount of money on hand; (20) the amount of credits, including accrued interest uncollected and owing to the party, whether by a person in or out of the state, whether owing by mortgage, bond, note, bill of exchange, certificate, check, open account, or due and payable, whether owing by any state or government, county, city, town, or township, individual, company, or corporation; the value of cotton, tobacco, or other property in the hands of commission merchants or agents in or out of the state. If any credit be not regarded as entirely solvent, it should be given in at its current or market value, and the party may deduct from the amount of his credits owing to him the amount of collectible debts owing by him as principal debtor; (21) money, investments, stocks and bonds and shares of stock in incorporated companies which are not taxed through the corporation itself; (22) automobiles, pleasure boats of any and all kinds; (23) the number and value of seines, nets, fishing tackle, boats, barges, schooners, vessels, and all other floating property; (24) all other personal property whatever, including all cotton in seed or lint; tobacco, either in leaf or manufactured; turpentine, rosin, tar, brandy, whiskey, musical instruments, bicycles, goods, wares, and merchandise of all kinds; plated and silverware and all watches and jewelry possessed by the party or any minor child; (25) the income of the party for the twelve months next preceding the first day of May in the current year, if over one thousand two hundred and fifty dollars. If the party be a nonresident of the county and owns land therein, the list shall state his address, and may name an agent in the county to whom notice may be given respecting his taxes. If any person shall, with a view to evade the payment of taxes, fail or refuse to give in to the assessing officer any bonds, notes, claims, or other evidences of debt which are subject to assessment and taxation under this act, the same shall not be recoverable at law or suit in equity before any of the courts of this state until they have been listed and the tax paid thereon, together with any and all penalties prescribed by law for the nonpayment of taxes.

Rev., s. 5219; 1917, c. 234, s. 40; 1919, c. 92, s. 40.

Failure to list solvent credits does not prevent a recovery, but may postpone it until they are listed and the taxes are paid: Martin v. Knight, 147-564. Plaintiff may pay into court an amount sufficient to pay the taxes: Corey v. Hooker, 171-229; Hyatt v. Holloman, 168-386. Failure to list solvent credits for taxation must be set up in the answer as a defense: Martin v. Knight, 147-564.

Failure to list a note secured by chattel mortgage will not prevent a recovery of the property by the mortgagee: Hyatt v. Holloman, 168-386.

7914. Debts owing may be deducted. The taxpayer, upon making a return to the list-taker of his property subject to taxation under the provisions of the preceding section, shall file with the list-taker, on a blank to be prepared and furnished by the state tax commission, a statement of all the property of every kind and description owned by the taxpayer, and also a statement of his income subject to taxation under the laws of this state. All bona fide indebtedness owing by any person may be deducted by the list-taker from the amount of said person's credits, and insurance companies may deduct from solvent credits due to them an amount equal to their reinsurance reserve: Provided, that the state tax commission shall have the power, in their discretion, to summon any taxpayer to appear before any commissioner at some place within the county where the taxpayer resides and answer relative to the amount of solvent credits owned by him and the persons owing the same, as well as the nature of any indebtedness which has been deducted from solvent credits, and the name of the person to whom the indebtedness is due.

Rev., s. 5227; 1917, c. 234, s. 34; 1919, c. 92, s. 34.

7915. Trust property listed separately. Property held in trust as agent, guardian, executor, or administrator, or in the right of a feme covert, shall be returned on a separate list. The sheriff or other tax collector in any county shall be liable to suit on his official bond for failure to report any false return of property mentioned in this section which he may discover or which may be otherwise discovered and made known to him, and it shall be his duty to report such fraud to the grand jury of his county.

Rev., s. 5220; 1917, c. 234, s. 39; 1919, c. 92, s. 39.

7916. Oath by person making list. The list-taker and assessor shall require the owner, agent, guardian, personal representative, or other person having control of the property and listing such property to make and subscribe the following oath, which shall be attached to each and every schedule, to wit:

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the above and foregoing listed property is a full, true, and complete list of all and each kind of property owned by me or under my control as agent, guardian, personal representative, or otherwise, and that I have not neglected to list for taxation for the year all of each and every kind of property of which I am the owner or of which I have control as agent, guardian, personal representative, or otherwise, in the county of, state of North Carolina. That I have made full and true return of my income as required by law, and that I have not in any way connived at the violation or evasion of the requirements of law in relation to the assessment of property for taxation: so help me, God.

Rev., s. 5221; 1917, c. 234, s. 38; 1919, c. 92, s. 38.

7917. List-taker must administer oath; penalty. It shall be the duty of the list-takers and assessors of the several counties of the state, before receiving the returns of any taxpayer, to actually administer the oath required by law of taxpayers, the oath being read by the taxpayer in the presence of and in the hearing of the list-taker and assessor, or by the list-taker and assessor in the hearing and presence of the taxpayer; and for failure of said list-taker and assessor to so administer such oath, except in those cases where, by law, the oath may be made before some other person, such list-taker and assessor shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment of not less than ten days nor more than six months, and in addition shall forfeit the sum of ten dollars for each such omission, one-half to go to the person furnishing information sufficient to convict, and one-half to the educational fund of the state, such amounts to be deducted from the compensation of such list-taker and assessor.

Rev., s. 5222; 1917, c. 234, s. 37; 1919, c. 92, s. 37.

7918. Penalty for false return. Any person, firm, or corporation in this state owning or holding personal property of any nature or description, individually or as agent, trustee, guardian, administrator, executor, assignee, or receiver, which property is subject to assessment, who shall intentionally make a false statement to the list-taker and assessor of his assessment district, or to the board of equalization thereof, for the purpose of avoiding the payment of the just and proportionate taxes thereon, shall forfeit the sum of ten dollars for every hundred dollars or major fraction thereof so withheld from the knowledge of such list-taker and assessor or board of equalization. It is hereby made the duty of the sheriff of any county, upon complaint made to him by any taxpayer of the assessment district in which it is alleged that property has been so withheld from the knowledge of the list-taker and assessor or board of equalization or not included in the said statement, to investigate the case forthwith and bring an action in the superior court in the name of the state against the person so complained of. All forfeitures collected under the provisions of this section shall be paid into the county treasury.

Rev., s. 5228; 1917, c. 234, s. 36; 1919, c. 92, s. 36.

7919. Refusal to answer questions or make returns. If any person liable to be charged with taxes shall wilfully refuse to answer any questions respecting his property, or refuse to file, sign, and swear to his returns, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction, liable to be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days, or both; and it shall be the duty of the assessors or list-taker to have the offender prosecuted, and the list-taker shall complete the list from the best information he can obtain. Every list-taker and chairman of the board of county commissioners shall have power to send for persons and papers and to examine witnesses and administer oaths.

Rev., s. 5230; 1917, c. 234, s. 71; 1919, c. 92, s. 71.

See State v. Harrison, 126-1049.

7920. Removing or concealing personal property. If any person whose duty it is to list personal property for taxation shall remove or conceal same, or cause same to be removed or concealed for the purpose of avoiding taxation, or shall fail to list same for taxation, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 5260; 1917, c. 234, s. 99; 1919, c. 92, s. 99.

7921. Returns by private banks and bankers. Every bank (not incorporated), banker, broker, or stock-jobber shall, at the time fixed by this chapter for listing personal property, make out and furnish the assessor a sworn statement showing: (1) The amount of property on hand and in transit; (2) the amount of funds in the hands of other banks, bankers or brokers and subject to draft; (3) the amount of checks or other cash items, the amount thereof not being included in either of the preceding items; (4) the amount of bills receivable, discounted, or purchased, and other credits due or to become due, including interest receivable and accrued, but not due, and interest due and unpaid; (5) the amount of bonds and stocks of every kind, state and county warrants, and other municipal securities and shares of capital stock or joint-stock of other companies or corporations held as an investment or any way representing assets; (6) all other property appertaining to their business other than real estate, which real estate shall be listed and assessed as other real estate is listed and assessed under this chapter; (7) the amount of deposits made with them by other parties; (8) the amount of all accounts payable other than current deposit accounts; (9) the amount of bonds and other securities exempt by law from taxation, specifying the amount and the kind of each, the same being included in preceding fifth item. The aggregate amount of the first, second, and third items in said statement shall be listed as moneys. The amount of sixth item shall be listed the same as other similar personal property is listed under this chapter. The aggregate amount of the seventh and eighth items shall be deducted from the aggregate amount of the fourth item of such statement, and the amount of the remainder, if any, shall be listed as credit. The aggregate amount of the ninth item shall be deducted by the tax-lister from the aggregate amount of the fifth item of such statement, and the remainder shall be listed as bonds or stocks.

Rev., s. 5268; 1917, c. 234, s. 69; 1919, c. 92, s. 69.

NOTE.—For banking corporations, see sec. 7948.

7922. Stock-brokers and private bankers must have license. No person, bank, or corporation shall, without a license authorized by law, act as a stock-broker or private banker. Any person, bank, or corporation that deals in coin, foreign or domestic exchange, government stock, or other certificates of debt or shares in any corporation or chartered company, bank-notes, or other notes used as a currency, or sells the same or any of them on commission or for other compensation, or who negotiates loans upon real estate securities, shall be deemed to be a stock-broker. A stock-broker shall have the right to buy for profit or to sell on commission the coin, exchange, stocks, certificates of debt, shares in chartered companies, bank-notes, and notes used as currency as aforesaid, and may sell either privately or by auction, and also negotiate loans on real estate securities. Any person, bank, or corporation engaged in the business of receiving money on deposit, or in lending or advancing money, or in negotiating loans on any class of securities, or in discounting, buying, or selling negotiable or other paper or credits, commonly known as stock-brokers, whether in an office kept for the purpose or elsewhere, shall be deemed to be a private banker, and in the latter case the tax shall be paid for the additional privilege of private banking. Any person, bank, or corporation violating this section shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars for each offense.

Rev., s. 5269; 1917, c. 234, s. 70; 1919, c. 92, s. 70.

7923. Commissioners insert omitted property. The chairman of the board of commissioners shall examine the tax list from each township for the previous year and insert in the list the description and valuation of all property not given in, and shall charge all such persons with twenty-five per centum in addition to the tax with which they would otherwise be chargeable, unless satisfactory excuse therefor be rendered to the board of commissioners on or before the first Monday in October; and all persons who own property and wilfully fail to list it within the time allowed before the list-taker or board of commissioners shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and the failure to list shall be prima facie evidence that such failure was wilful, and it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners to present to the grand jury the names of all such persons. The list-taker and assessor shall report to the board of commissioners any change he may make to the tax list as to real estate, and the said board shall note such change in a book to be kept for that purpose. It shall be the duty of the commissioners of each county to employ a competent man, whose duty it shall be to spend such time as the commissioners may deem necessary to make diligent search for property not listed for taxes and to put such property on the tax books: Provided, the cost of listing such unlisted property shall not exceed ten per cent of the revenue so derived, the expense to be divided pro rata between the state and county: Provided further, that nothing in this section shall be construed as authorizing or empowering the county commissioners to appoint tax collectors.

Rev., s. 5233; 1917, c. 234, s. 82; 1919, c. 92, s. 82.

The list-taker is not authorized to list property under this section: Rexford v. Phillips, 159-213; Stone v. Phillips, 176-457.

7924. Commissioners enter property escaping taxation. In all cases where the board of commissioners shall have omitted, or in any future year shall omit to enter upon the duplicate of their county any land or town lots situated within their county subject to taxation, it shall be their duty when they enter the same on duplicate the next succeeding year to add to the taxes of the current year the simple taxes of each and every preceding year in which such land or town lots shall so have escaped taxation, with twenty-five per centum in addition thereto, so far back as the said lands have escaped taxation; and the state tax commission shall have like power to list unlisted railroad property. When no assessment has been made for the years in which said property has so escaped taxation, the board of commissioners shall be authorized to value and assess the same for those years: Provided, this shall not apply beyond five years. In all cases where any personal property, chose in action, or any property, except land liable to taxation, shall have been omitted, or shall be omitted in any future year, from the tax list by the owner or person required by law to list the same, the board of commissioners shall enter the same on the duplicate of the next succeeding year, and shall add to the taxes of the current year the simple taxes of such preceding year, not exceeding five years, with twenty-five per centum added thereto, in which such personal property as aforesaid shall so have escaped taxation, and the board of commissioners shall value and assess the personal property aforesaid for those years, and are empowered to examine witnesses and to call for papers to determine the value and to ascertain the persons liable for the tax upon such personal property. The provisions of this section shall extend and apply to all cities, towns, and like municipal corporations having the powers under their charters to tax the property aforesaid, and the powers and duties herein imposed upon the board of commissioners of the county shall be exercised and performed by the board of commissioners or the board of aldermen, as the case may be, of the city or town or other municipal corporation.

Although the machinery act, providing for the assessment of taxes on unlisted personal property, omits to provide that notice shall be given to owner that he may have opportunity to be heard before the tribunal having power to make the assessment, owner is entitled to such notice, art. 1, sec. 17, of the constitution prohibiting the taking of property without due process of law: Lumber Co. v. Smith, 146-199.

This power is extended to municipal corporations: Guano Co. v. New Bern, 172-258; Smith v. Dunn, 160-174.

Power of county commissioners to place property on the tax books or to revise valuation is a special power to be exercised only at the times designated: Wolfenden v. Comrs., 152-83.

7925. Discovering property not listed. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners and the several list-takers to be constantly looking out for property which has not been listed for taxation, and when discovered such property shall be duly placed upon the assessment list and properly assessed for taxation. At any time before or after the tax list has been turned over to the sheriff, as provided in this act, such property as may be so discovered, the list-taker shall make return thereof to the clerk of the board of county commissioners, who shall enter such property upon the tax books, make out a tax account, and place the same in the hands of the sheriff or tax collector and charge him with the same, and issue orders to the sheriff for collection thereof, and such orders shall have the force and effect of a judgment and execution against the real and personal property of the person charged with such list, as provided for the regular tax list.

7926. Mistakes in assessments. If on the assessment roll there is an error in the name of the person assessed, or any taxable property shall not be entered thereon, the name may be changed or the property entered on the list by the assessors after the roll has been returned to the clerk of the board of commissioners, or such error may be corrected or the omission supplied by the board of commissioners upon satisfactory evidence of such error or omission, at a regular meeting of the board; and the board, upon reasonable notice, may make an order requiring the person affected to show cause at a day to be therein appointed why the error shall not be corrected or omission supplied, and, upon reasonable notice, his name and the property be entered on the tax list.

Rev., s. 5231; 1917, c. 234, s. 97; 1919, c. 92, s. 97.

ART. 7. REPORTS MADE BY TAX OFFICERS

7927. Time for lists to be completed and returned. The list-taker and assessor shall, on or before the third Monday in June, return the tax list to the county assessor in the year when there is a general assessment of property, and in other years to the register of deeds or to the auditor in counties where the tax lists are made out by such officer. He shall also return a list of taxable polls and property of the township not given in for taxation. The returns so made shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested, and the clerk shall give to any person desiring it a copy of so much thereof as relates to his property on paying a fee of ten cents.

Rev., s. 5214; 1917, c. 234, s. 74; 1919, c. 92, s. 74.

7928. Oath of list-taker to returns. The list-taker and assessor, upon making returns to the board of commissioners of the lists and statements, shall take and subscribe an oath to the effect following, which may be administered by the chairman of the board of commissioners or any officer authorized to administer oaths:

I,, list-taker and assessor of, in county of, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the value of all real and personal property, moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint-stock companies or otherwise, of which a statement has been made to me by the persons required by law to list the same, is truly returned as set forth in that statement; that in every case where by law I have been required to ascertain the items and value of the real and personal property, moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint-stock companies, or otherwise, of any person, company, or corporation, I have diligently and by the best means in my power endeavored to ascertain the real value thereof, and that I verily believe a full list, with the value thereof estimated by the rules prescribed by law, is set forth in annexed returns; that in no case have I knowingly omitted to receive from any person, of whom by law I was required to receive, a statement of the description and value of real and personal property or of the amount of moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint-stock companies, or otherwise, which he was required to list, or in any way connived at any violation or evasion of any of the requirements prescribed by law in relation to the listing or valuation of property, moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint-stock companies, or otherwise, of any kind of taxation, and that I have returned to the board of commissioners the original returns made to me, or which I have made, or which by law I am required to procure and return.

Any list-taker and assessor making a false return, as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 5213; 1917, c. 234, s. 75; 1919, c. 92, s. 75.

7929. List of exempt property furnished. Each list-taker and assessor shall, when making the assessment roll for his district, enter on the blanks so furnished to him in regular order the name of the owner if known, and, from the best information he can obtain, a correct description of all real and personal property then exempt from taxation in his town or assessment district, together with a statement of its value, for what purpose used, and the rent, if any, obtained therefor. The list of such exempt property when completed, on or before the first day of October, shall be delivered by the list-taker and assessor to the register of deeds, who, on or before the first day of November next thereafter, shall make duplicates thereof and transmit such duplicates to the state tax commission and file the original in his office.

Rev., s. 5224; 1917, c. 234, s. 76; 1919, c. 92, s. 76.

7930. Register of deeds to make duplicates; order to collect. The board of county commissioners shall cause the register of deeds to make out two copies of the tax list for each township, as revised and settled by the tax lister, according to a form to be furnished to them by the state tax commission. Such form shall show in different columns the sum due by each taxpayer to the state and to the county, and also in separate columns the amount of school poll tax levied by the general assembly and the county commissioners, and the total amount of property school tax levied by the general assembly and the county commissioners. The register of deeds or auditor shall also fill out receipts and stubs for all taxes charged on the tax books so made out, the receipts to be written in full except date and signature of collecting officer. Receipt books for this purpose shall be furnished by the county, on order of the register of deeds or auditor: Provided, this shall not be required in counties using carbon receipt books and cash book combined, but such may be used in lieu thereof. One of said copies shall remain in the office of the clerk of the board of commissioners; the other shall be delivered to the sheriff or tax collector on or before the first Monday in October in each year, and he shall receipt for the same. The clerk shall endorse on the copies given the sheriff an order to collect the taxes therein mentioned, and such order shall have the force and effect of a judgment and execution against the real and personal property of the person charged with such list. In such list the clerk shall note all appeals from the judgment of the board of commissioners which have been perfected by the giving of a bond. The order shall be in the following or similar form:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, COUNTY.

OFFICE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS COUNTY.

To the Sheriff of County:

You are hereby commanded to collect the taxes herein mentioned according to the provisions and requirements of the existing law.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal.....day of.....19...

.....

Clerk Board of Commissioners.

The board of commissioners shall make an order for the payment to the register of deeds or auditor, as the case may be, of such a sum as may be deemed a proper compensation for the work of computing the taxes and making out the tax list and the necessary copies thereof, including the making of such abstract and returns as he may be required to furnish to the state tax commission and auditor; but the sum allowed for computing the taxes and making out the tax list shall not exceed five cents for each name appearing on the tax list, to be paid by the county treasurer out of the county funds.

Rev., s. 5238; 1917, c. 234, s. 83; 1919, c. 92, s. 83.

See Fortune v. Comrs., 140-322.

7931. Register of deeds to report to auditor. The clerk of the board of commissioners shall, on or before the first Monday in November, after the lists are deposited with him by the board of commissioners, return to the state tax commission and auditor an abstract of the same, showing the number of acres of land and their value, and the value of town lots and the number of white and negro polls separately, and specify every other subject of taxation and the amount of state and county tax payable on each subject, and the amount payable on the whole. At the same time the clerk shall return to the state tax commission and auditor an abstract of the list of the poor, county and school taxes payable in his county, setting forth separately the tax levied on each poll and on each one hundred dollars value of real and personal property for each purpose, and also the gross amount of taxes of every kind levied for county purposes.

Rev., s. 5239; 1917, c. 234, s. 85; 1919, c. 92, s. 85.

7932. Penalty for failure to report. If any register of deeds shall make a default of any of the duties prescribed in the preceding section, or shall fail to deliver to the state auditor a copy of the sheriff's return of taxes received under schedules B and C of the revenue act in this chapter, and a copy of the settlement of state tax account between the board of commissioners and the sheriff or tax collector, made, sworn to and subscribed, he shall forfeit and pay to the state one thousand dollars, to be recovered against him and the sureties of his bond in the superior court of Wake county, before the clerk thereof, on motion of the state solicitor, and it shall be the duty of the state auditor to inform the solicitor of such default and at the same time furnish him with a certified copy of the official bond of said register of deeds. The clerk of the superior court shall transmit to the state auditor, on or before the second Monday in October in each year, a certified copy of the official bond of the register of deeds and his sureties, under the same penalties for default as are prescribed in this chapter. The register of deeds shall transmit to the state auditor annually a copy of the bond of the clerk of the superior court.

Rev., s. 5240; 1917, c. 234, s. 86; 1919, c. 92, s. 86.

7933. Clerks of cities and towns to report. The clerk of each city and town shall annually make out and transmit to the state tax commission, on blanks furnished by the said commission, a statement showing the assessed valuation of all property within his town or city and separately the amount of all taxes levied therein by said town or city, including school district, highway, street and sidewalk taxes for the current year, and the purpose for which the same were levied; also a complete and detailed statement of the bonded and other indebtedness of his town or city, and of the accrued interest, if any, remaining unpaid, and the purpose for which said indebtedness was incurred.

Rev., s. 5255; 1917, c. 234, s. 91; 1919, c. 92, s. 91.

7934. City and county indebtedness reported. Each register of deeds, city or town clerk, whenever required by the state tax commission, shall furnish a full and complete statement showing the bonded indebtedness and all other indebtedness of his respective county, city, or town, the purpose for which the same was incurred, and all accrued interest, if any, remaining unpaid.

Rev., s. 5256; 1917, c. 234, s. 92; 1919, c. 92, s. 92.

7935. Penalty for failure to perform duty. Every clerk of any town or city and every assessor who shall fail or neglect to perform any duty required of him by any of the provisions of this chapter shall, for every such neglect or failure, forfeit not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars, and every clerk of the court and every register of deeds who shall fail or neglect to perform any duty required of him by this chapter shall, for every such failure, forfeit not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, and it shall be the duty of the state tax commission to cause every such forfeiture to be collected.

Rev., s. 5257; 1917, c. 234, s. 93; 1919, c. 92, s. 93.

ART. 8. COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

7936. County commissioners constitute the board. The board of county commissioners shall constitute the board of equalization in each county, and shall meet the second Monday in July in each year. The board shall equalize the valuation so that each tract or lot of land or articles of personal property shall be entered on the tax list at its true value in money, and for this purpose they shall observe the following rules; (1) They shall raise the valuation of such tracts or lots of real estate or articles of personal property, including stocks, bonds, and shares in all incorporated companies, except such as are specifically exempt by law, as in their opinion have been returned below their true value, to such price or sum as they may believe to be the true value thereof; (2) they shall reduce the valuation of such tracts and lots or articles of personal property as in their opinion have been returned above their true value, as compared with the average valuation of real and personal property, including stocks, bonds, and shares of all incorporated companies of such county. In regard to real property, they shall have due regard to the relative situation, quality of soil, improvements, natural and artificial advantages possessed by each tract or lot. The clerk of the board of county commissioners shall be clerk of the board of equalization, and shall within five days after adjournment of the board furnish the state tax commission with a copy of all proceedings of the county board of equalization with respect to any and all changes made by such board of valuations made and returned by the township list-takers and assessors. The clerk of the board shall also furnish the state tax commission within five days after adjournment of the county board of equalization, on blanks to be furnished by the commission, statement from the returns made by the township list-takers and assessors of aggregate value of real and personal property by townships and as a whole for the county and average value per unit of land acreage and of the several classes of live-stock.

Rev., s. 5234; 1917, c. 234, s. 26; 1919, c. 92, s. 26.

This power is to be exercised by the board of county commissioners as a board of equalization only at the times designated: Wolfenden v. Comrs., 152-83. The board of equalization is to determine valuation for county and municipal taxation: Guano Co. v. New Bern, 172-258.

7937. Compensation of board. The members of the board of county commissioners shall be allowed, each as a member of the board of equalization, their usual compensation per diem for the number of days actually engaged in the performance of their duties, and in addition thereto mileage at the rate of five cents for each mile necessarily traveled in attending the meetings of the board of equalization. The per diem and mileage as provided in this section shall be paid by the county.

Rev., s. 5209; 1917, c. 234, ss. 15, 29; 1919, c. 92, ss. 15, 29.

7938. Equalization of values. The board of commissioners of each county, after notice in one newspaper or by poster put up, shall meet on the second Monday in July and revise the tax lists and valuations reported to them. And it shall be the duty of the register of deeds, without additional compensation, to complete the list by computing the tax payable by each person, affixing the same opposite his name. The board of commissioners shall sit for one day at least, and, when necessary, shall sit until the revision is completed, and shall hear all persons objecting to the valuation of their property. They shall have power to summon and examine witnesses, and shall correct the lists of the list-takers and assessors as may be right and just, and so that the valuation of similar property throughout the county shall be as near uniform as possible. They shall have power, after notifying the owner or agent, to raise the valuation of such property as they shall deem unreasonably low. The board of commissioners, on tendering the prescribed oath, may take the list of any person applying to list his taxables at any meeting of the commissioners held on or before the second Monday in July, upon his paying the clerk twenty-five cents for recording the same. The board of commissioners shall ascertain the valuation of his property by the examination of witnesses, or otherwise, and insert it in the abstract, and without satisfactory excuse they shall add to the tax of the person so allowed to give in five per centum on the regular amount of his tax for that year.

Rev., s. 5235; 1917, c. 234, s. 77; 1919, c. 92, s. 77.

In revising the tax lists the commissioners of a county ex mero motu at their August meeting increased the valuation put upon the property of a railroad company, and then caused notice to be served upon the company to appear at their September meeting and show cause why the same should not be fixed at the increased sum: Held, that the notice was sufficient and action of the board warranted in law: Comrs. v. R. R., 86-541.

Due notice must be given the owner and a time for hearing fixed: Wolfenden v. Comrs., 152-83. When the board has completed the revision, the powers cease until the next time designated in the statute: Ibid.

7939. Taxpayer may complain to board. If any person shall complain before the board of commissioners that his property, either real or personal, has been improperly valued, or that he is charged with an excessive tax, he may be required to present his claim in writing, and the board of commissioners shall hear any evidence adduced by him, and shall summon and examine any witnesses necessary for a just decision of the question, including the assessors or list-takers who made the valuation. If the board of commissioners shall find that he has cause for complaint they shall direct the clerk to render a true account thereof, and the account thus rendered, certified by the clerk, shall be transmitted to the state tax commission, and if the same be approved by them they shall certify it to the state auditor, who shall credit the sheriff with the overcharge in his settlement for the year.

Rev., s. 5236; 1917, c. 234, s. 78; 1919, c. 92, s. 78.

The county commissioners have exclusive original jurisdiction to grant relief against excessive valuation of property for taxation; and from their decision, upon a petition for that purpose, there is no appeal, unless it appears from the facts found by them as to the valuation of property that they have proceeded upon some erroneous principle, for the reason that the statute gives no appeal: Wade v. Comrs., 74-81.

The owner must apply to county commissioners, and not to municipal authorities, for relief from overvaluation of property: Guano Co. v. New Bern, 172-258.

7940. Commissioners give certificate of relief granted. If the application for relief be made to the board of commissioners after the sheriff shall have settled the accounts with the state and county, the board of commissioners shall carefully examine the case, and, if in their opinion the applicant is entitled to relief, shall direct the clerk to record on the record book the cause of complaint, the amount which in the opinion of the board of commissioners should be refunded to the applicant. The clerk shall make out a copy of such record, certify the same, under the seal of the board of commissioners, and deliver it to the applicant, who shall pay the clerk a fee of twenty-five cents. Such copy shall be transmitted to the state tax commission for their approval or disapproval. If the state tax commission shall approve the same, they shall issue an order to that effect, and it shall be the duty of the auditor of the state, upon receiving a certified copy thereof, to issue a warrant on the treasurer of the state for the amount of state tax specified. The treasurer shall, on presentation of such warrant, pay to the holder of the same the amount to be refunded.

Rev., s. 5237; 1917, c. 234, s. 79; 1919, c. 92, s. 79.

ART. 9. ASSESSMENTS BY STATE TAX COMMISSIONERS

Part 1. Private Corporations

7941. Reports from private corporations. 1. What report contains. Hereafter, except in the case of such corporations as are especially mentioned by name in other sections of this chapter and required to make statements in other forms, it shall be the duty of the president, chairman, or treasurer of every corporation having capital stock, every joint-stock association or limited partnership whatsoever, now or hereafter organized or incorporated by or under any law of this state, to make a report in writing to the state tax commission, on or before the first day of July of each year, stating specifically:

- a. Total authorized capital stock.
- b. Total authorized number of shares.
- c. Number of shares of stock issued.
- d. Par value of each share.
- e. Amount paid into the treasury on each share.
- f. Amount of capital stock paid in.
- g. Amount of capital on which dividend was declared.
- h. Date of each dividend during said year ending with the first day of May.
- i. Amount of each dividend during the year ending with the first Monday in said month.

j. Highest price of sales of stock between the first and fifteenth days of May; highest price of sales of stock during the year aforesaid; average price of sales of stock during the year.

2. Appraise capital stock. In said report one of the following named officers of such corporation, limited partnership, or joint-stock association, namely, the president, chairman, secretary or treasurer, after being duly sworn or affirmed to do and perform the same with fidelity and according to the best of his knowledge and belief, shall estimate and appraise the capital stock of said company at its actual value in cash on the first day of May, after deducting therefrom the assessed value of all real and personal estate upon which the corporation pays tax, and the value of the shares of stock legally held and owned by such corporation in other corporations incorporated in this state and paying taxes on its capital stock in this state, as indicated or measured by the amount of profit made, either declared in dividends or carried into surplus or sinking fund; and when the same shall have been so truly estimated and appraised they shall forthwith forward to the state tax commission a certificate thereof, accompanied by a copy of their said oath or affirmation, signed by them and attested by a magistrate or other person duly qualified to administer the same.

3. Deductions made. Every such corporation may also show a deduction from the total amount of its capital stock, surplus and undivided profits, the total amount of its actual investment in bonds of this state and of the United States and of the federal farm loan bank and bonds of the joint-stock land bank which have been held as a continuing investment by such corporation for a period of not less than three months prior to the day on which such report is required by law to be made, except the bonds of the "Victory" loan issue may be deducted if held and paid for not later than April twentieth, nineteen hundred and nineteen.

4. Appraisal revised. If the state tax commission or either of them is not satisfied with the appraisement and valuation so made and returned, they are hereby authorized and empowered to make a valuation thereof, based upon the facts contained in the report herein required or upon any information within their possession, and to settle an account on the valuation so made by them for taxes, penalties and interest due the state thereon, of which such settlement immediate notice shall be given to such corporation by said state tax commission, with the right to the company dissatisfied with any settlement so made against it to appeal to the superior court in term-time of the county in which such company has its principal place of business in this state, and thence to the supreme court of this state.

5. Appeal allowed. Before such company shall be allowed to exercise the right of appeal it shall, within twenty days after notice of such settlement, file with the state tax commission exceptions to the particulars to which it objects, and the grounds thereof, and the state tax commission shall hear the exceptions, after ten days notice of such hearing given by the state tax commission to the company; and if they shall overrule any of the exceptions, then such company, if it desires to appeal to the superior court, shall within ten days thereafter give notice to the state tax commission of such appeal to the superior court, and the state tax commission shall thereupon transmit to the superior court a record of such settlement, with the exceptions of the company thereto, and all decisions thereon, and all papers and evidence considered in making the decision. The cause shall be placed on the civil docket of the superior court and shall have precedence of all other civil actions, and shall be tried under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed for the trial of other civil causes. The cause shall be entitled State of North Carolina on the relation of State Tax Commission against such company. Either party may appeal to the supreme court from the judgment of the superior court, under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed by law for other appeals, except that the state of North Carolina, if it shall appeal, shall not be required to give an undertaking or make any deposit to secure the costs of such appeal; and the supreme court may advance the cause on their docket so as to give the same a speedy hearing.

6. Effect of failure to report. In the event of the neglect or refusal of the officers of any corporation, company, joint-stock association, or limited partnership for a period of sixty days to make the report and appraisal to the state tax commission as herein provided, it shall be the duty of the state tax commission to estimate a valuation of the capital stock of such defaulting corporation, company, joint-stock association, or limited partnership, and settle an account for taxes, penalty, and interest thereon, from which settlement an appeal may be made to the superior court of the county in which the corporation has its principal place of business.

7. General provisions. Corporations, limited partnerships, or joint-stock associations liable to tax on capital stock shall not be required to make any report or pay any further state tax on the mortgages, bonds, other securities and credits owned by them in their own right. The state tax commission is forbidden to divulge or make public any report of a corporation required to be made to it by this section. The state tax commission shall prepare and keep a record book, upon which it shall enter a correct list of all the corporations and banks which it has assessed for taxation, and said record shall show the assessed valuation placed upon same by it.

Rev., s. 5270; 1917, c. 234, s. 43; 1919, c. 92, s. 43.

It is the assessed value of real and personal property in this state that must be deducted from the value of capital stock, and not the value of property both in and out of the state: Comrs. v. Tob. Co., 116-441.

Imposition upon a corporation of a tax on its "capital stock" in addition to a requirement that it shall list for taxation and pay the taxes assessed on the shares of its stockholders, does not make "double taxation": Ibid.

Franchise, capital stock, property consisting in land and machinery, etc., shares of capital stock, and profits arising from the business of a corporation, are each the subject of distinct taxation: Worth v. R. R., 89-301.

Notes due a corporation are to be considered in estimating the value of the capital stock, and not as separate items for taxation: Land Co. v. Smith, 151-70.

Method of estimating the value of the capital stock for taxation: State v. Morrison, 155-53. The amount invested in stock in another corporation will not be deducted: Ibid.

7942. Officers and salaries reported. 1. By corporations. In addition to the information required by the preceding section to be reported to the state tax commission by domestic corporations, all corporations, both domestic and foreign, doing business in this state and required by any section of the revenue and machinery acts to make report to the state tax commission shall also be required to report to the state tax commission names and places of residence of all officers and employees of such corporation who were paid by such corporation salaries, wages or fees for the eight months ending January first, nineteen hundred and nineteen, in excess of six hundred and sixty-six dollars and sixty-six cents for unmarried persons and in excess of one thousand dollars for married persons and widows and widowers having minor child or children, and the total amount of such compensation for said period, and annually thereafter during the month of January for the preceding calendar year, the names of all officers and employees of such corporations who were paid by such corporations salaries, wages or fees in excess of one thousand dollars for unmarried persons and fifteen hundred dollars for married persons and widows or widowers having minor child or children, and the total amount of compensation. All such corporations shall be liable for penalties provided in section 7861 for failure to make report as required by this section.

2. Reports from persons, firms, and companies not incorporated. Every person, firm, or company not incorporated shall report to the state tax commission during the month of May the name and place of residence of any one in their employ who was paid salaries, wages, fees or commissions for the eight months ending January first, nineteen hundred and nineteen, in excess of six hundred and sixty-six dollars and sixty-six cents for unmarried persons and one thousand dollars for married persons and widows and widowers having minor child or children. Every person, firm or company not incorporated failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable for the payment of the tax upon such income as they failed to report as required by this section.

3. Reports from state auditor and state institutions. The state auditor and the disbursing officer of every state institution or any agency receiving aid from the state government, and every department of the state government that pays salaries, wages, fees or commissions by any other means than by warrants issued by the state auditor, shall make report to state tax commission during the month of May for all such salaries, wages, fees or commissions paid for the eight months ending January first, nineteen hundred and nineteen, in excess of six hundred and sixty-six dollars and sixty-six cents for unmarried persons and one thousand dollars for married persons and widows or widowers having minor child or children; and annually thereafter in the month of January, for the preceding calendar year, the names of all persons who receive salaries, wages, fees or commissions in excess of one thousand dollars for unmarried persons and one thousand five hundred dollars for married persons and widows and widowers having minor child or children: Provided, that if the person, firm, company or corporation is without knowledge that the person to whom salaries, wages, fees or commissions have been paid is unmarried or married, and is unable to ascertain such fact in each case reported, the names of such persons who receive salaries, wages, fees or commissions in excess of the minimum exemption shall be reported.

4. Investigation as to incomes. It shall be the duty of the state tax commission to have its traveling auditors make diligent investigation if all parties liable for an income tax have listed the same, and it shall also be the duty of the state tax commission to have investigated the reports and records of the collectors of internal revenue in this state, in so far as the same may be available under the act of congress, to the end that all parties liable for income tax in this state shall be duly charged therewith.

5. Information not divulged. The state tax commission is forbidden to divulge or make public the information required to be reported in this section, but it shall be the duty of the state tax commission to furnish the information so reported to the registers of deeds of the several counties of the state, whose duty it shall be to compute the income tax on all such incomes liable for income tax within their respective counties and charge the same upon the tax books.

1917, c. 234, s. 43(a); 1919, c. 92, s. 43(a).

7943. Foreign corporations not exempt. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to exempt from taxation at its real value any property situate in this state belonging to any foreign corporation.

Rev., s. 5271; 1917, c. 234, s. 44; 1919, c. 92, s. 44.

A nonresident corporation is liable to taxation on such proportion of its capital as the value of its tangible property within the state bears to the value of all its tangible property: Comrs. v. Steamship Co., 128-558.

7944. Tax on building and loan associations. The secretary of each building and loan association organized and conducting business in this state shall list with the local assessor any tangible real and personal property owned by such association on the first day of May, including cash on hand on that date. Every such association shall report to the state tax commission on May first the amount of such return to the list taker and shall also report the actual value of all shares of stock of such association, and shall deduct from the actual value of all shares the total loans made by such association. No other tax than the ad valorem tax herein provided for and the privilege tax under section 7837 shall be charged or levied on said association or on the shares therein.

Rev., 5272; 1917, c. 234, s. 45; 1919, c. 92, s. 45.

The capital stock of a building and loan association is property, and hence is taxable according to the uniform ad valorem system established by the constitution: Loan Assn. v. Comrs., 115-410—and the fact that it pays a privilege tax does not exempt it from payment of ad valorem tax, Ibid.; see Guano Co. v. Tarboro, 126-68; Cobb v. Comrs., 122-307; Ins. Co. v. Stedman, 130-221; see section 7837.

7945. Foreign building and loan associations. All foreign building and loan associations doing business in this state shall list for taxation with the state tax commission, through its agent, its stock held by citizens of this state in the county, city, or town where the owners of said stock reside. In listing such stock for taxation the withdrawal value as fixed by the by-laws of each company shall be furnished the list-taker, and the stock shall be valued for taxation as other money investments of citizens of this state. Any association or officer of such association doing business in this state who shall fail or refuse to so list shares owned by citizens of this state for taxation shall be barred from doing business in this state; and any local officer or person who shall collect dues, assessments, premiums, fines, or interest from any citizen of this state for any such association which has failed or refused to list for taxation the stock held by citizens of this state shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court. All of such taxes shall be paid by the association listing said stock.

7946. Valuation certified to register of deeds. The state tax commission shall, on or before September first, certify to the register of deeds of the county in which such corporation, joint-stock association, limited partnership, or company whatsoever has its principal office or place of business the total value of the stock of such corporation, joint-stock association, limited partnership, or company whatsoever, as assessed for state taxation. The corporation, joint-stock association, limited partnership, or company whatsoever shall pay the county, township, town, or city taxes upon the valuation so certified by the state tax commission.

Rev., s. 5274; 1917, c. 234, s. 46; 1919, c. 92, s. 46.

Section referred to in Land Co. v. Smith, 151-70.

7947. Penalty for failure to report. If the officers of any such limited partnership, joint-stock association, or corporation shall neglect or refuse to furnish the state tax commission, on or before the thirty-first day of July of each and every year, with the report and appraisement of capital stock as aforesaid, as required by section 7941, they shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars, and it shall be the duty of the state tax commission to add five per centum to the tax of said limited partnership, joint-stock association, or corporation for each and every year for which said report and appraisement were not furnished, which percentage shall be settled and collected with the said tax in the usual manner of settling and collecting such taxes. If the officers of any such limited partnership, joint-stock association, or corporation, or any of them, shall intentionally fail to comply with section 7941 requiring a report and appraisal of capital stock for three successive years they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of five hundred dollars and undergo imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, or either, at the discretion of the court.

Rev., s. 5275; 1917, c. 234, s. 47; 1919, c. 92, s. 47.

7948. Bank taxation. 1. State tax paid to state treasurer. The taxes imposed for state purposes upon the shares of stock in any bank, banking association, or savings institution (whether state or national) in this state shall be paid by the cashier of such bank, banking association, or savings institution, directly to the state treasurer, and upon failure to pay the state treasurer as aforesaid he shall institute an action against the bank, banking association, or savings institution to enforce the same in the county of Wake or in the county in which the bank, banking association, or savings institution is located, which action shall be prosecuted in the name of the state of North Carolina on the relation of the treasurer of the state, and which shall be tried at the return term of court: Provided, the complaint is filed ten days before the first day of such term, and shall have precedence over all other actions. The value of such shares shall be determined as is hereafter provided in this section.

2. Real estate listed for taxation. Every bank, banking association, or savings institution (whether state or national) shall list its real estate in the county, city, or town in which such real estate is located for the purposes of county and municipal taxation.

3. Shares listed. Every such bank, banking association, or savings institution shall, during the month of May, list annually with the state tax commission, in the name of and for its shareholders, all the shares of its capital stock, whether held by residents or nonresidents, at its market value on the first day of May, or, if it has no market value, then at its actual value on that day, from which market or actual value shall be deducted the assessed value of the real and personal property which such bank, banking association, or savings institution shall have listed for taxation in the county or counties wherein such real and personal estate is located.

4. Value of shares. The actual value of such shares, where such shares have no market value, shall be ascertained by adding together the capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits, and deducting therefrom the amount of real and personal property owned by said institution on which it pays tax and dividing the net amount by the number of shares in said institution. Insolvent debts due said institution may be deducted from the items of undivided profits or surplus, if itemized and sworn to, and forwarded to the state tax commission by the cashier of such institution, also accrued and unearned interest, unpaid taxes, an amount not exceeding five (5) per cent of the bills receivable of said institution to cover any other bad or insolvent debts, and also an amount equal to the true value of any shares of stock owned in other North Carolina banks or corporations upon which the tax is paid by the owner or the corporation issuing the same. There shall also be deducted investments by such banks in bonds of this state and of the United States government and of the federal farm loan bank and bonds of the joint-stock land bank not exceeding twenty-five per cent of the capital stock and surplus of such banks. To be entitled to this deduction it must be shown by the reports of such banks that the bonds were purchased and paid for in full at least ninety days before the first day of May, except that bona fide purchases of the current issue of "Victory" bonds may be deducted if paid for in full not later than the thirtieth day of April, nineteen hundred and nineteen. If the state tax commission shall have reason to believe that the market or actual value as given in is not its true value, it shall ascertain such true value by such examination and investigation as to it seems proper, and change the value as given in to such an amount as it ascertains the true value to be, which action on the part of the state tax commission may be reviewed by the superior court by an action brought against the state tax commission in its official capacity by the party aggrieved. But no action shall lie until all taxes admitted by such aggrieved party to be due shall have been paid or tendered.

5. Tax on shares paid as other taxes. The taxes so assessed upon the shares of any such bank, company or association shall be paid by the cashier, secretary, treasurer or proper accounting officer thereof, and in the same manner and at the same time as other taxes are required to be paid in such county, special school district or city; in default of such payment such cashier, secretary, treasurer or other accounting officer, as well as such bank, company or association, shall be liable for such taxes, and, in addition, for a sum equal to ten per centum thereof. Any taxes so paid upon any such shares may, with the interest thereon, be recovered from the owners thereof by the bank, company, association or officer paying them, or may be deducted from the dividends accruing on such shares. The taxation of shares of any such bank, banking association, or savings institution shall not be at a greater rate than is assessed upon other moneyed capital in the hands of individual citizens of this state, whether such taxation is for state, county, school, or municipal purposes.

Rev., s. 5267; 1917, c. 234, s. 42; 1919, c. 92, s. 42; 1919, c. 93.

NOTE.—For private banks and bankers, see section 7921.

National bank stock is a proper subject of taxation, state, county or municipal: Kyle v. Comrs., 75-445.

Shares in national banks owned by residents of the state may be assessed for taxation either at the place where the owners reside or at the place where the bank is located, as the legislature of the state may elect: Buie v. Comrs., 79-267; Hall v. Fayetteville, 115-281; Wiley v. Comrs., 111-397.

Remarks of Smith, C. J., upon the right of the state to tax shares of stock in national banks, where there is no discrimination against such shares and in favor of other moneyed capital in the hands of individual citizens of the state: Lemly v. Comrs., 85-379.

In the taxation of shares of stock in a national bank, under the revenue act of 1885, the owner of such shares has the right to deduct from the assessed value thereof amount of his bona fide indebtedness, as in case of other investments of moneyed capital: McAden v. Comrs., 97-355.

All the bank stock is taxable at its value, less the assessed value of the bank's real and personal property; and so much of the surplus, over and above capital, as is invested in non-taxable state bonds, is exempt and must be deducted from the surplus in assessing the value of the stock: Pullen v. Corp. Com., 152-548.

Part 2. Public-service Corporations Other Than Railroads

7949. Telegraph companies. Every joint-stock association, company, copartnership or corporation, whether incorporated under the laws of this state or any other state, or of any foreign nation, engaged in transmitting to, from, through, in, or across the state of North Carolina telegraph messages, shall be deemed and held to be a telegraph company, and every such telegraph company shall, annually, between the first day of May and the twentieth day of May, make out and deliver to the state tax commission a statement, verified by oath of the officer or agent of such company making such statement, with reference to the thirtieth day of April next preceding, showing:

1. The total capital stock of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation.
2. The number of shares of capital stock issued and outstanding and the par value of each share.
3. Its principal place of business.
4. The market value of said shares of stock on the thirtieth day of April next preceding; and if such shares have no market value, then the actual value thereof.
5. The real estate, structures, machinery, fixtures, and appliances owned by said association, company, copartnership, or corporation, and subject to local taxation within the state, and the location and assessed value thereof in each county where the same is assessed for local taxation.
6. The specific real estate, together with the permanent improvements thereon, owned by such association, company, copartnership, or corporation, situated outside of the state of North Carolina and not directly used in the conduct of the business, with a specific description of each such piece, where located, the purpose for which the same is used, and the sum at which the same is assessed for taxation in the locality where situated.

7. All mortgages upon the whole or any part of its property, together with the dates and amounts thereof.

8. (a) The total length of the lines of said association or company; (b) the total length of so much of their lines as is outside of the state of North Carolina; (c) length of the lines and wire mileage within each of the counties, townships and incorporated towns within the state of North Carolina.

Rev., s. 5276; 1917, c. 234, s. 49; 1919, c. 90, s. 49.

7950. Telephone companies. Every telephone company doing business in this state, whether incorporated under the laws of this state or any other state, or of any foreign nation, shall annually, between the first day of May and the twentieth day of May, make out and deliver to the state tax commission of this state a statement verified by the oath of the officer or agent of such company making such statement with reference to the thirtieth day of April next preceding, showing:

1. The total capital stock of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation invested in the operation of such telephone business.

2. The number of shares of capital stock issued and outstanding and the par or face value of each share.

3. Its principal place of business.

4. The market value of said shares of stock on the thirty-first day of March next preceding; and if such shares have no market value, then the actual value thereof.

5. The real estate, structures, machinery, fixtures, and appliances owned by said association, company, copartnership, or corporation and subject to local taxation within the state, and the location and assessed value thereof in each county where the same is assessed for local taxation.

6. The specific real estate, together with the permanent improvements thereon, owned by such association, company, copartnership, or corporation situated outside the state of North Carolina and not used directly in the conduct of the business, with a specific description of each such piece, where located, the purpose for which the same is used, and the sum at which the same is assessed for taxation in the locality where situated.

7. All mortgages upon the whole or any of its property, together with the dates and amounts thereof.

8. (a) The total length of the lines of said association or company; (b) the total length of so much of their lines as is outside the state of North Carolina; (c) the length of the lines and wire mileage within each of the counties, townships and incorporated towns within the state of North Carolina.

Rev., s. 5277; 1917, c. 234, s. 50; 1919, c. 92, s. 50.

7951. Express companies. Every joint-stock association, company, copartnership or corporation, incorporated or acting under the laws of this state or any other state or any foreign nation, engaged in carrying to, from, through, in, or across this state, or any part thereof, money, packages, gold, silver plate, merchandise, freight, or other articles, under any contract, expressed or implied, with any railroad company or the managers, lessees, agents, or receivers thereof, provided such joint-stock association, company, copartnership, or corporation is not a railroad company, shall be deemed and held to be an express company within the meaning of this act, and every such express company shall, annually, between the first day of May and the twentieth day of May, make out and deliver to the state tax commission a statement verified by the oath of the officer or agent of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation making such statement, with reference to the thirtieth day of April next preceding, showing:

1. The total capital stock or capital of said association, copartnership, or corporation.

2. The number of shares of capital stock issued and outstanding and the par or face value of each share, and in case no shares of capital stock are issued, in what manner the capital stock thereof is divided and in what manner such holdings are evidenced.

3. Its principal place of business.

4. The market value of such shares of stock on the thirtieth day of April next preceding; and if such shares have no market value, then the actual value thereof; and in case no shares of stock have been issued, state the market value, or the actual value in case there is no market value, of the capital thereof, and the manner in which the same is divided.

5. The real estate, structures, machinery, fixtures, and appliances owned by such association, company, copartnership, or corporation and subject to local taxation within the state of North Carolina, and the location and assessed value thereof in each county where the same is assessed for local taxation.

6. The specific real estate, together with the improvements thereon, owned by the association, company, copartnership, or corporation situated outside the state of North Carolina and not used directly in the conduct of the business, with a specific description of each piece, where located, the purpose for which the same is used, and the sum at which the same is assessed for taxation in the locality where situated.

7. All mortgages upon the whole or any part of its property, together with the dates and amounts thereof.

8. (a) Total length of the line or routes over which such association, company, copartnership, or corporation transports such merchandise, freight, or express matter; (b) the total length of such lines or routes as are outside the state of North Carolina; (c) the length of such lines or routes within each of the counties or townships within the state of North Carolina.

Rev., s. 5278; 1917, c. 234, s. 51; 1919, c. 92, s. 51.

7952. Sleeping-car companies. 1. Report made. Every joint-stock association, company, copartnership, or corporation incorporated or acting under the laws of this or any other state or of any foreign nation, and conveying to, from, through, in, or across this state, or any part thereof, passengers or travelers in palace cars, drawing-room cars, sleeping cars, dining cars, or chair cars, under any contract, expressed or implied, with any railroad company or the managers, lessees, agents, or receivers thereof, shall be deemed and held to be a sleeping-car company for the purposes of this chapter, and shall hereinafter be called "sleeping-car company"; and every such sleeping-car company doing business in this state shall, annually between the first day of May and the twentieth day of May, make out and deliver to the state tax commission a statement, verified by the oath of the officer or agent of such company making such statement, with reference to the thirtieth day of April next preceding, showing:

- a. The total capital stock of such sleeping-car company invested in its sleeping-car business.
- b. The number of shares of such capital stock devoted to the sleeping-car business issued and outstanding, and the par or face value of each share.
- c. Under the laws of what state it is incorporated.
- d. Its principal place of business.
- e. The names and postoffice addresses of its president and secretary.
- f. The actual cash value of the shares of such capital stock devoted to its sleeping-car business on the thirtieth day of April next preceding such report.
- g. The real estate, structures, machinery, fixtures, and appliances owned by such sleeping-car company and subject to local taxation within this state, and the location and assessed value thereof in each county within this state where the same is assessed for local taxation.
- h. All mortgages upon the whole or any part of its property, and the amounts thereof devoted to its sleeping-car business.
- i. (a) The total length of the main line of railroad over which cars are run; (b) the total length of so much of the main lines of railroad over which the cars are run outside of the state of North Carolina; (c) the length of the lines of railroad over which such cars are run within the state of North Carolina: Provided, that where the railroads over which such cars run have double tracks, or a greater number of tracks than a single track, the statement shall only give the mileage as though such tracks were but single tracks; and in case it shall be required, such statement shall show in detail the number of miles of each or any particular railroad or system within the state.

2. State tax paid. When the assessment shall have been made by the state tax commission in accordance with section 7957, the clerk of the commission shall thereupon notify by registered letter the officer attesting such report of the amount assessed against it, and such sleeping-car company shall have thirty days within which to appear and make objection, if any it shall have, to said assessment. If no objection be made within thirty days, the amount shall be credited to the state treasurer, who shall thereupon send by registered letter to the officer attesting such report a bill for the state taxes upon said assessment, and such sleeping-car company shall have thirty days within which to pay such taxes.

3. County tax. The clerk of the state tax commission shall certify to the county commissioners of the several counties through which such cars are used the value of the property of such sleeping-car company within such county in the proportion that the number of miles of railroad over which such cars are used in said county bears to the number of miles of railroad over which such cars are used within the state, together with the name and postoffice address of the officer attesting such report of such sleeping-car company, with the information that tax bills, when assessed, are to be sent him by mail; and such value, so certified, shall be assessed and taxed the same as other property within said county. And when the assessment shall have been made in such county the sheriff or county tax collector shall send to the address given by the clerk of the state tax commission to the county commissioners by registered mail a bill for the total amount of all taxes due to such county, and such sheriff or county tax collector shall add to such tax bills the postage and registration fee, and such sleeping-car company shall have sixty days thereafter within which to pay such taxes; and upon failure of and refusal to do so, such taxes shall be collected the same as other delinquent taxes are, together with a penalty of fifty per cent added thereto, and costs of collection.

Rev., 5279; 1917, c. 234, s. 52; 1919, c. 92, s. 52.

7953. Refrigerator and freight-car companies. Every firm, person, or corporation owning refrigerator or freight cars operated over or leased to any railroad company in this state or operating in this state shall be taxed in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the taxation of sleeping-car companies, and the collection of the tax thereon shall be followed in assessing and collecting the tax on the refrigerator and freight cars taxed under this section: Provided, if it appear that the owner does not lease the cars to any railroad company or make any contract to furnish it with cars, but they are furnished to be run indiscriminately over any lines on which shippers or railroad companies may desire to send them, and the owner receives compensation from each road over which the cars run, the state tax commission shall ascertain and assess the value of the average number of cars which are in use within the state as a part of the necessary equipment of any railroad company for the year ending April the thirtieth next preceding, and the tax shall be computed upon this assessment.

Rev., s. 5280; 1917, c. 234, s. 53; 1919, c. 92, s. 53.

7954. Street railways, waterworks, etc. Every street railway company, waterworks company, electric light and power company, gas company, ferry company, bridge company, canal company, and other corporations exercising the right of eminent domain shall, annually, between the first and the twentieth of May, make out and deliver to the state tax commission a statement, verified by the oath of the officer or agent of such company making such statement, with reference to the copartnership or corporation, showing:

1. The total capital stock of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation.
2. The number of shares of capital stock issued and outstanding and the par or face value of each share.
3. Its principal place of business.
4. The market value of such shares of stock on the thirty-first day of March next preceding, and if such shares have no market value, then the actual value thereof.
5. The real estate, structures, machinery, fixtures, and appliances owned by the association, company, copartnership, or corporation and subject to local taxation within the state, and the location and assessed value thereof in each county where the same is assessed for local taxation.
6. The specific real estate, together with the permanent improvements thereon, owned by such association, company, copartnership, or corporation situated outside of the state of North Carolina and not directly used in the conduct of the business, with a specific description of each such piece, where located, the purpose for which the same is used, and the sum at which the same is assessed for taxation in the locality where situated.

7. All mortgages upon the whole or any part of its property, together with the dates and amounts thereof.

8. (a) The total length of the lines of the association or company; (b) the total length of so much of their lines as is outside of the state of North Carolina; (c) the length of the lines within each of the counties and townships within the state of North Carolina.

Rev., s. 5281; 1917, c. 234, s. 54; 1919, c. 92, s. 54.

7955. Additional information required. Upon the filing of the statements required in the preceding sections the state tax commission shall examine them, and each of them, and if the commission shall deem the same insufficient or in case they shall deem that other information is requisite, they shall require such officer to make such other and further statements as the commission may call for. In case of the failure or refusal of any association, company, copartnership, or corporation to make out and deliver to the state tax commission any statement or statements required by this act, such association, company, copartnership or corporation shall forfeit and pay to the state of North Carolina one hundred dollars for each additional day such report is delayed beyond the twentieth day of May, to be sued for and recovered in any proper form of action in the name of the state of North Carolina on the relation of the state tax commission, and such penalty, when collected, shall be paid into the general fund of the state.

Rev., s. 5282; 1917, c. 234, s. 55; 1919, c. 92, s. 55.

7956. Commission shall examine statements. The state tax commission shall thereupon value and assess the property of each association, company, copartnership, or corporation in the manner hereinafter set forth, after examining such statements and after ascertaining the value of such properties therefrom, and upon such other information as they may have or obtain. For that purpose they may require the agents or officers of said association, company, copartnership, or corporation to appear before them with such books, papers, and statements as they may require, or they may require additional statements to be made to them, and may compel the attendance of witnesses in case they shall deem it necessary to enable them to ascertain the true cash value of such property.

Rev., s. 5283; 1917, c. 234, s. 56; 1919, c. 92, s. 56.

7957. Manner of assessment. 1. The state tax commission shall first ascertain the true cash value of the entire property owned by the association, company, copartnership, or corporation from the statements or otherwise for that purpose, taking the aggregate value of all the shares of capital stock, in case shares have a market value, and in case they have none, taking the actual value thereof or of the capital of the association, company, copartnership, or corporation in whatever manner the same is divided, in case no shares of capital stock have been issued: Provided, however, that in case the whole or any portion of the property of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation shall be encumbered by a mortgage or mortgages, such board shall ascertain the true cash value of such property by adding to the market value of the aggregate shares of stock, or to the value of the capital in case there should be no such shares, the aggregate amounts of such mortgage or mortgages, and the result shall be deemed and treated as the true cash value of the property of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation.

2. The state tax commission shall, for the purpose of ascertaining the true cash value of property within the state of North Carolina, next ascertain from such statements or otherwise the assessed value for taxation, in the localities where the same is situated, of the several pieces of real estate situated within the state of North Carolina, and not specifically used in the general business of such associations, companies, copartnerships, or corporations, which assessed value for taxation shall be by the board deducted from the gross value of the property as above ascertained.

3. The state tax commission shall next ascertain and assess the true cash value of the property of the associations, companies, copartnerships, or corporations within the state of North Carolina by taking as a guide, as far as practicable, the proportion of the whole aggregate value of the associations, companies, copartnerships, or corporations as above ascertained, after deducting the assessed value of such real estate without the state which the length of lines of said associations, companies, copartnerships, or corporations, in the case of telegraph and telephone companies within the state of North Carolina, bears to the total length thereof, and in the case of express companies and sleeping-car companies the proportion shall be the proportion of the whole aggregate value, after such deduction, which the length of lines or routes within the state of North Carolina bears to the whole length of lines or routes of such associations, companies, copartnerships, or corporations, and such amount so ascertained shall be deemed and held as the entire value of the property of said associations, companies, copartnerships, or corporations within the state of North Carolina.

4. The state tax commissioners shall also assess the value for taxation of all real estate, structures, machinery, and appliances of telegraph companies within the state subject to local taxation, and this assessment, together with the franchise value, shall be certified by the commission to the counties and municipalities where located on basis of wire mileage in such county or town in which such property is situated.

5. From the entire value of the property within the state so ascertained there shall be deducted by the commissioners the assessed value for taxation of all real estate, structures, machinery, and appliances within the state and subject to local taxation in the counties as hereinbefore described in sections 7950 to 7956, and the residue of such value so ascertained, after deducting therefrom the assessed value of such local properties, shall be by the board assessed to the association.

Rev., s. 5284; 1917, c. 234, s. 57; 1919, c. 92, s. 57.

7958. Value per mile ascertained. The state tax commission shall thereupon ascertain the value per mile of the property within the state by dividing the total value, as above ascertained, after deducting the specific properties locally assessed within the state by the number of miles within the state, and the result shall be deemed and held as value per mile of the property of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation within the state of North Carolina: Provided, the value per mile of telephone companies shall be determined on a wire mileage basis.

Rev., s. 5285; 1917, c. 234, s. 58; 1919, c. 92, s. 58.

7959. Total value for each county. The state tax commission shall thereupon, for the purpose of determining what amount shall be assessed by it to the association, company, copartnership, or corporation in each county in the state, through, across and into or over which the lines of the association, company, copartnership, or corporation extend, multiply the value per mile, as above ascertained, by the number of miles in each of such counties as reported in such statements or as otherwise ascertained, and the result thereof shall be by the clerk of the board certified to the chairman of the board of county commissioners, respectively, of the several counties through, into, over, or across which the lines or routes of said association, company, copartnership, or corporation extend. All taxes due the state from any corporation taxed under the preceding sections shall be paid by the treasurer of each company direct to the state treasurer.

Rev., s. 5286; 1917, c. 234, s. 59; 1919, c. 92, s. 59.

7960. Payment of tax enforced. In case any such association, company, copartnership, or corporation, as named in this act, shall fail or refuse to pay any taxes assessed against it in any county in this state, in addition to other remedies provided by law for the collection of taxes, an action may be prosecuted in the name of the state of North Carolina by the solicitors of the different judicial districts of the state on the relation of the county commissioners of the different counties of this state, and the judgment in such action shall include a penalty of fifty per cent of the amount of taxes as assessed and unpaid, together with reasonable attorney's fees for the reduction of such action, which action may be prosecuted in any county into, through, over, or across which the lines or routes of any association, company, copartnership, or corporation shall extend, or in any county where such association, company, copartnership, or corporation shall have an office or agent for the transaction of business. In case such association, company, copartnership, or corporation shall have refused to pay the whole of the taxes assessed against the same by the state tax commission, or in case such association, company, copartnership, or corporation shall have refused to pay the taxes or any portion thereof assessed to it in any particular county or counties, such action may include the whole or any portion of the taxes so unpaid in any county or counties, but the attorney-general may, at his option, unite in one action the entire amount of the tax due, or may bring separate actions to each separate county or adjoining counties, as he may prefer. All collections of taxes for or on account of any particular county made in any such suit or suits shall be by the said board accounted for as a credit to the respective counties for or on account of which such collections were made by the said board at the next ensuing settlement with such county, but the penalty so collected shall be credited to the general fund of the state; and upon such settlement being made, the treasurers of the several counties shall, at their next settlements, enter credits upon the proper duplicates in their offices, and at the next settlement with such county report the amount so received by them in their settlement with the state, and proper entries shall be made with reference thereto: Provided, that in any such action the amount of assessment fixed by the state tax commission and apportioned to such county shall not be controverted.

Rev., s. 5287; 1917, c. 234, s. 60; 1919, c. 92, s. 60.

Part 3. Railroads

7961. State tax commission to appraise. The commissioners selected from time to time under the authority to establish the North Carolina state tax commission shall constitute a board of appraisers and assessors for railroad, canal, and steamboat companies and other companies exercising the right of eminent domain.

Rev., s. 5288; 1917, c. 234, s. 61; 1919, c. 92, s. 61.

7962. Returns to be made by officers. The president, secretary, superintendent, or other principal accounting officer within this state, of every railroad, telegraph, telephone, street railway company, whether incorporated by the laws of this state or not, shall, at such dates as real estate is required to be assessed for taxation, return to the said commission for assessment and taxation, verified by the oath or affirmation of the officer making the return, all the following described property belonging to such corporation within this state, viz.: The number of miles of such railroad lines in each county in this state and the total number of miles in this state, including the roadbed, right of way, and superstructures thereon, main and side-tracks, depot buildings and depot grounds, section and tool houses, and the land upon which situated and necessary to their use; water stations and land, coal chutes and land, and real estate and personal property of every character necessary for the construction and successful operation of such railroad or used in the daily operation, whether situated on the charter right of way of the railroad or on additional land acquired for this purpose, except as provided below, including, also, if desired by the state tax commission, Pullman or sleeping cars or refrigerator cars owned by them or operated over their lines: Provided, however, that all machine and repair shops, general office buildings, storehouses and contents located outside of the right of way, and also real and personal property, other than the property as returned above to the state tax commission, shall be listed for purposes of taxation by the principal officers or agents of such companies with the list-takers of the county where the real and personal property may be situated, in the manner provided by law for the listing and valuation of real and personal property. A list of such property shall be filed by such company with the state tax commission. It shall be the duty of the register of deeds, if requested so to do by the state tax commission, to certify and send to the commission a statement giving a description of the property mentioned in the foregoing proviso, and showing the assessed valuation thereof, which value shall be deducted from the total value of the property of such railroad company as arrived at by the commission, in accordance with section 7965, before the apportionment is made to the counties and municipalities. The registers of deeds shall also certify to the commissioners the local rate of taxation for county purposes as soon as the same shall be determined, and such other information obtained in the course of the performance of the duties of their office as the commission shall require of them; and the mayor of each city or town shall cause to be sent to the commission the local rate of taxation for municipal purposes.

Rev., s. 5290; 1917, c. 234, s. 62; 1919, c. 92, s. 62.

This section is constitutional: R. R. v. New Bern, 147-165—and the roadbed, right of way, tracks, buildings, grounds, etc., are excluded from the powers of local tax assessors: Ibid. Section referred to in Land Co. v. Smith, 151-70.

7963. Railroad companies to file maps. Every railroad company operating in this state shall also be required to file with the state tax commission a map or blue-print showing the location within the corporate limits of every incorporated city or town of its main line of road, and its length, together with location of its right of way, not exceeding one hundred feet in width, and the location and value of all real estate owned by any such company within the limits of any such city or town, and not included in the right of way so designated. Every such company shall also report the value of any and all buildings and structures within the limits of any such city or town, whether on or off its right of way, and the commission shall find the value of all such real estate, buildings and structures and shall certify to such city or town the value of same, in addition to the value per mile of so much of its main line as may be located within such city or town, for ad valorem taxation.

1919, c. 92, s. 62a.

7964. Rolling stock reported. The movable property belonging to a railroad company shall be denominated for the purpose of taxation "rolling stock." Every person, company, or corporation owning, constructing, or operating a railroad in this state shall, in the month of May, annually, return a list or schedule to the state tax commission, which shall contain a correct detailed inventory of all the rolling stock belonging to such company and which shall distinctly set forth the number of locomotives of all classes, passenger cars of all classes, sleeping cars and dining cars, express cars, horse cars, cattle cars, coal cars, platform cars, wrecking cars, pay cars, hand-cars, and all other kinds of cars, and the value thereof, and a statement or schedule as follows: (1) The amount of capital stock authorized and the number of shares into which such capital stock is divided; (2) the amount of capital stock paid up; (3) the market value, or if no market value, then the actual value of shares of stock; (4) the length of line operated in each county and total in the state; (5) the total assessed value of all the tangible property in the state; (6) and if desired, all the information required to be annually reported by railroads under section 5291 of the Revisal. Such schedule shall be made in conformity to such instructions and forms as may be prescribed by the commission and with reference to amounts and values on the first day of May of the year of which the return is made.

Rev., s. 5291; 1917, c. 234, s. 63; 1919, c. 92, s. 63.

The rolling stock of the Wilmington and Weldon railroad company used upon the branch roads, or roads otherwise acquired, ascertained by a pro rata standard based on the relative lengths thereof to the whole line, is liable to taxation: Railroad v. Alsbrook, 110-137.

The rolling stock of a nonresident railroad corporation passing through the state for purposes of interstate commerce is not liable to taxation in this state: Bain v. R. R., 105-363.

7965. Tangible and intangible property assessed separately. 1. At such dates as real estate is required to be assessed for taxation, the commission shall first determine the value of the tangible property of each division or branch of such railroad, of rolling stock, and all other physical or tangible property. This value shall be determined by a due consideration of the actual cost of replacing the property, with a just allowance for depreciation on rolling stock, and also of other conditions, to be considered as in the case of private property.

2. They shall then assess the value of the franchise, which shall be determined by due consideration of the gross earnings as compared with the operating expenses, and particularly by consideration of the value placed upon the whole property by the public (the value of the physical property being deducted), as evidenced by the market value of all capital stock, certificates of indebtedness, bonds, or any other securities, the value of which is based upon the earning capacity of the property.

3. The aggregate value of the physical or tangible property and the franchise, as thus determined, shall be the true value of the property for the purpose of an ad valorem taxation, and shall be apportioned in the same proportion that the length of such road in each county bears to the entire length of such division or branch thereof; and the state tax commission shall certify on or before the first day of September to the chairman of the county commissioners and the mayor of each city or incorporated town the amount apportioned to his county, city, or town, and the commission shall make and forward a like certificate to the auditor of the state. All taxes due the state from any railroad company shall be paid by the treasurer of each company directly to the state treasurer within thirty days after the first day of July of each year; and upon failure to pay the state treasurer as aforesaid he shall institute an action to enforce the same in the county of Wake or any other county in which such railroad is located, adding thereto twenty-five per centum of the tax. The board of county commissioners of each county through which such railroad passes shall assess against the same only the tax imposed for county purposes.

A tax imposed by the legislature directly upon a corporation, or its gross receipts, or the cash value of shares of capital stock, or upon each mile of road at a certain sum per mile, and not assessed by assessors, is a franchise or privilege tax: Worth v. R. R., 89-301. Section referred to in Land Co. v. Smith, 151-70.

7966. Railroad partly in the state; how assessed. When any railroad has part of its road in this state and part thereof in any other state, the commission shall ascertain the value of railroad track, rolling stock, and all other property liable to assessment by the state tax commission, of such company, as provided in the next preceding section, and divide it in the proportion that the length of such main line of road in this state bears to the whole length of such main line of road, and determine the value in this state accordingly: Provided, the commission shall in valuing the fixed property in this state give due consideration to the character of the roadbed and fixed equipment, number of miles of double track, the amount of gross and net earnings per mile of road in this state, and any other factor which would give a greater or less value per mile of road in this state than the average value for the entire system. On or after the first Monday in July the said commission shall give a hearing to all the companies interested touching the valuation and assessment of their property. The said commission may, if they see fit, require all argument and communications to be presented in writing.

Rev., s. 5294; 1917, c. 234, s. 65; 1919, c. 92, s. 65.

7967. Leased railroads. If the property of any railroad company be leased or operated by any other corporation, foreign or domestic, the property of the lessor or company whose property is operated shall be subject to taxation in the manner hereinbefore directed. And if the lessee or operating company, being a foreign corporation, be the owner or possessor of any property in this state other than which it derives from the lessor or company whose property is operated, it shall be assessed in respect to such property in like manner as any domestic railroad company.

Rev., s. 5294; 1917, c. 234, s. 66; 1919, c. 92, s. 66.

7968. Assessment in stock-law territory. The state tax commission shall assess the value of real estate belonging to any railroad company within stock-law territory in this state at the same time that they assess railroad property for general purposes.

Every railroad company shall report to the state tax commission, on blanks to be furnished by them, mileage of such railroad within the stock-law territory, width of right of way, weight of rails, value of rails and ties, number, description, and value of all structures within the stock-law territory, and all other information necessary to enable the commission to ascertain the value of such real estate. After assessment shall be made it shall not be changed until the year for the assessment of real property for general tax purposes, except that the commission shall correct any assessment of real property on which any structure over one hundred dollars in value may have been erected, or on which any structure of like value may have been destroyed, as the value of the real estate may be affected thereby.

1907, c. 459.

7969. Powers in assessing. The state tax commission shall have power to summon and examine witnesses and require that books and papers shall be presented to them for the purpose of obtaining such information as may be necessary to aid in determining the valuation of any railroad company. Any president, secretary, receiver, or accounting officer, servant or agent of any railroad or steamboat company having any portion of its property or roadway in this state who shall refuse to attend before the commission when required to do so, or refuse to submit to the inspection of the commission any books or papers of such railroad company in his possession, custody, or control, or shall refuse to answer such questions as may be put to him by the commission or order, touching the business or property, moneys and credits, and the value thereof of such railroad company, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction shall be confined in the jail of the county not exceeding thirty days, and shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and costs; and any president, secretary, accounting officer, servant or agent aforesaid, so refusing as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of contempt of such commission, and may be confined, by order of the commission, in the jail of the proper county until he shall comply with such order and pay the cost of his imprisonment.

Rev., s. 5289; 1917, c. 234, s. 67; 1919, c. 92, s. 67.

7970. Canals and steamboat companies. The property of all canal and steamboat companies in this state shall be assessed for taxation as above provided for railroads. In case any officer fails to return the property as provided in this section, the commission shall ascertain the length of such property in this state, and shall assess the same in proportion to length at the highest rate at which property of that kind is assessed by them.

Rev., s. 5295; 1917, c. 234, s. 68; 1919, c. 92, s. 68.

Under acts 1899, ch. 15, sec. 39, assessment of taxes on the capital stock of a steamboat company must be made by the corporation commission, and not by the county commissioners: Comrs. v. Steamship Co., 128-558.

7971. Valuation certified. The state tax commission shall, upon the completion of the assessments as directed in the preceding sections, certify an itemized list of the names of the various corporations assessed, together with the valuations assessed against each, to the auditor of the state, and it shall be the duty of the auditor to cause the state, school, and pension tax levy to be computed thereon against each corporation so certified, and to furnish the state treasurer with same for collection, and such list shall be charged against the state treasurer. All such taxes due the state shall be paid by the secretary or treasurer of any such corporation direct to the state treasurer within thirty days after receipt of bill from the treasurer of taxes due. The state tax commission shall also certify to the register of deeds of the county the total valuation as hereinbefore determined and apportioned by the commission, and in case of corporate excess, to the county in which the corporation has its principal place of business, and the board of county commissioners shall assess against same the tax imposed for county and school purposes, which shall be paid to the sheriff or tax collector of the county.

1917, c. 234, s. 67(a); 1919, c. 92, s. 67(a).

SUBCHAPTER III. COLLECTION OF TAXES

ART. 10. GENERAL PROVISIONS

7972. Subchapter to remain in force. The provisions of this subchapter shall continue in force whether or not brought forward in subsequent acts to raise revenue or acts to provide for the assessment and collection of taxes, commonly called "revenue acts" and "machinery acts," unless and until expressly repealed or amended by, or clearly inconsistent with, subsequent legislation; it being the intention of the general assembly that this subchapter shall be a standing provision for the government of the matters embraced herein, and not to be repealed by implication because omitted in whole or in part from subsequent legislation on the subject of taxation.

Rev., s. 2849.

7973. Application and construction. The provisions of this subchapter shall apply to all taxes as defined in this chapter, whether state, county, town, city, or other municipal subdivision; and shall be liberally construed in favor of, and in furtherance of, the collection of such taxes.

Rev., s. 2850.

Taxation is regulated entirely by statute, and the revenues of the state are collected under what is known as the machinery act: Wade v. Comrs., 74-81.

7974. Terms defined. Unless such construction or definition would be manifestly inconsistent with or repugnant to the context, the words and phrases following, whenever used in this subchapter, shall be construed to include in their meaning the definitions set opposite the same in this section:

1. “Tax,” “taxes.” Any taxes, special assessments or costs, interest or penalty imposed upon property or polls.

2. “He.” Male, female, company, corporation, firm, society, singular or plural number.

3. “Real property.” Real estate, land, tract, lot—not only the land itself, whether laid out in town or city lots or otherwise with all things therein, but also all buildings, structures, and improvements and other permanent fixtures of whatever kind thereon, and all rights and privileges belonging or in any wise appertaining thereto, and all estates therein.

4. “Sheriff.” Every person who is by law authorized to collect taxes, either state or municipal.

Rev., s. 2851.

7975. Sheriff includes tax collector. Whenever in this chapter a duty is imposed upon the sheriff of a county of which a tax collector has been or may be appointed, it shall be incumbent upon the tax collector to perform such office instead of the sheriff, and such tax collector shall collect all the taxes, have all the emoluments and be subject to all the penalties as provided in case of sheriffs in this chapter, and it shall be the duty of all persons having tax moneys in hand to account for and settle with such tax collector.

Rev., s. 5263; 1917, c. 234, s. 111; 1919, c. 92, s. 111.

7976. No taxes released. No board of county commissioners, or council, or board of aldermen or commissioners of any city or town shall have power to release, discharge, remit, or commute any portion of the taxes assessed and levied against any person or property within their respective jurisdictions for any reason whatever; and any tax so discharged, released, remitted, or commuted may be recovered by civil action from the members of any such board at the suit of any citizen of the county, city, or town, as the case may be, and when collected shall be paid to the proper treasurer. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the proper authorities from refunding taxes as provided in this chapter; nor to interfere with the powers of any officers or boards sitting as a board of equalization of taxes; nor construed to exempt any taxpayer or property from liability for taxes released, discharged, remitted, or commuted in violation of this section.

Rev., s. 2854; 1901, c. 558, s. 31.

County commissioners have the authority, and it is their duty, to rescind an order providently made releasing one from the assessment of a legal tax upon property: Lemly v. Comrs., 85-379.

7977. Taxes payable in national currency. Taxes are payable in the existing national currency, and shall be collected as prescribed by this chapter, except where otherwise provided by law.

Rev., s. 2853; Code, s. 3674; 1917, c. 231, s. 1; 1919, c. 90, s. 1.

Tax collector has no right to receive anything in payment of taxes except legal tender money, unless tax collector is instructed by competent authority to take county script, or other lawful indebtedness of county, for county taxes: Kerner v. Cottage Co., 123-294.

If tax collector pays or accounts for taxes under an agreement with tax debtor to do so, this will discharge the tax and lien; and he may recover amount back from tax debtor: Ibid.

7978. Enforcement of taxes payable to state treasurer. Upon failure to pay the state treasurer within thirty days after the same shall have become due any tax which by law is made payable direct to the state treasurer, it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to enforce payment of the same, and to this end shall have the same rights of levy and sale of any property owned by any such person as given in section 7869 to the sheriffs in collection of schedule B taxes, and upon application by the state treasurer it shall be the duty of the sheriff in any county to levy upon and sell such property to satisfy the tax due, together with any costs and penalties. The state treasurer may also institute an action to enforce the same in the county of Wake or in the county in which the property is located.

Rev., s. 5266; 1917, c. 234, s. 116; 1919, c. 92, s. 116.

7979. Remedy of taxpayer for unauthorized tax. Unless a tax or assessment, or some part thereof, be illegal or invalid, or be levied or assessed for an illegal or unauthorized purpose, no injunction shall be granted by any court or judge to restrain the collection thereof in whole or in part, nor to restrain the sale of any property for the nonpayment thereof; nor shall any court issue any order in claim and delivery proceedings or otherwise for the taking of any personalty levied on by the sheriff to enforce payment of such tax or assessment against the owner thereof. Whenever any person shall claim to have a valid defense to the enforcement of a tax or assessment charged or assessed upon his property or poll, such person shall pay such tax or assessment to the sheriff; but if, at the time of such payment, he shall notify the sheriff in writing that he pays the same under protest, such payment shall be without prejudice to any defenses or rights he may have in the premises, and he may, at any time within thirty days after such payment, demand the same in writing from the treasurer of the state or of the county, city, or town, for the benefit or under the authority or by request of which the same was levied; and if the same shall not be refunded within ninety days thereafter, may sue such county, city, or town for the amount so demanded, including in his action against the county both state and county tax; and if upon the trial it shall be determined that such tax or any part thereof was levied or assessed for an illegal or unauthorized purpose, or was for any reason invalid or excessive, judgment shall be rendered therefor, with interest, and the same shall be collected as in other cases. The amount of state taxes for which judgment shall be rendered in such action shall be refunded by the state treasurer.

Rev., s. 2855; 1901, c. 558, s. 30.

See, also, section 858. This section constitutional: Railroad v. Reidsville, 109-494, and cases there cited; Mathews v. Comrs., 99-69; Railroad v. Lewis, 99-62.

An injunction will not lie to restrain the collection of an invalid or excessive tax: Hall v. Fayetteville, 115-281. Where complaint alleges a tax illegal and no answer is filed thereto, the collection of the tax should be restrained until the final hearing: Armstrong v. Stedman, 130-217. The injunction to restrain collection of tax complained of in this case was properly refused: Smallwood v. Newbern, 90-36. The court will not enjoin the collection of an entire tax, if the portion conceded to be valid can be separated from that claimed to be invalid: R. R. v. Comrs., 148-220.

Effect of section is to give an additional remedy to test the validity of a tax, leaving it to the discretion of taxpayer to pay tax and sue to recover it back, or to proceed by injunction: Range Co. v. Carver, 118-328.

When county commissioners placed solvent credits on the tax books without notice to the owner, and the sheriff was proceeding to sell property to enforce payment, the owner was entitled to an injunction to restrain the sale until final hearing: Lumber Co. v. Smith, 146-199—in such action the sheriff is proper defendant, and county commissioners may be joined at their request, Ibid.

Where notes in the hands of A. were taxed in one county as the property of B., and in another county as the property of C., an action to restrain collection may be brought in either county against the sheriffs of both counties: Sherrod v. Dawson, 154-525. A special assessment levied on property for improvements is a tax, and will not be restrained if properly assessed: Marion v. Pilot Mountain, 170-118; Lewis v. Pilot Mountain, 170-109.

An injunction pendente lite in an action to test the constitutionality of chapter 158, acts 1879, will not be granted to restrain proceedings under the provisions of the act, except to restrain the collection of the tax until the merits of the controversy can be determined: R. R. v. Comrs., 82-259.

Legislature cannot compel return of legally collected taxes: Bailey v. Raleigh, 130-209.

ACTION TO RECOVER ILLEGAL TAX PAID. If tax was paid under protest, proper remedy to test its legality is by an action to recover amount paid: Murdock v. Comrs., 138-124; Hilliard v. Asheville, 118-845; Schaul v. Charlotte, 118-733; Range Co. v. Carver, 118-328.

Repayment of an invalid tax assessment cannot be recovered unless demanded in writing within thirty days: Bristol v. Morganton, 125-365; Hatwood v. Fayetteville, 121-207; Hall v. Fayetteville, 115-281—and this provision as to 30 days notice is mandatory: Hatwood v. Fayetteville, 121-207; Teester v. Wallace, 138-264; Railroad v. Reidsville, 109-494.

Requirement of demand is not confined to claims for refunding any particular taxes, or taxes alleged to be invalid on any particular account; it extends to all taxes: R. R. v. Reidsville, 109-494.

Taxpayer may maintain an injunction to prevent sale of his property under an illegal tax, or he may pay tax under protest and sue to recover it: Purnell v. Page, 133-125.

The remedy generally provided is for the taxpayer to pay the tax under protest and sue to recover the amount paid: State v. Snipes, 161-243; Marion v. Pilot Mountain, 170-118. In such case the claimant is not required to present his claim and have it passed on under sections 442, 1330: R. R. v. Brunswick, 178-254.

Where plaintiff alleged that she paid sheriff $51.80 for her taxes, and afterwards, on sheriff's removal from office, that she was forced to pay this sum a second time: Held, no cause of action was stated against county: Burbank v. Comrs., 92-257.

In action by taxpayer against county commissioners to recover amount of alleged excessive tax paid by him he is not entitled to recover unless he can show that valuation of his property upon tax books is greater than that fixed by proper authorities, or that tax which he has been forced to pay was greater than it would have been if correctly computed at legal rate on adjudged valuation: Pickens v. Comrs., 112-698; Guano Co. v. New Bern, 172-258.

Neither a taxpayer nor a sheriff can plead a set-off in a suit for taxes due and owing:

Comrs. v. Hall, 177-490; Graded School v. McDowell, 157-316; Wilmington v. Bryan, 141-679; State & Guilford Co. v. Georgia Co., 112-34; Gatling v. Comrs., 92-536; Cobb v. Elizabeth City, 75-1; Battle v. Thompson, 65-406.

ART. 11. RIGHTS OF PARTIES ADJUSTED

7980. Taxes paid in judicial sales and sales under powers. In all civil actions and special proceedings wherein the sale of any real estate shall be ordered, the judgment shall provide for the payment of all taxes then assessed upon the property and remaining unpaid, and for the payment of such sums as may be required to redeem the property, if it has been sold for taxes and such redemption can be had; all of which payments shall be adjudged to be made out of the proceeds of sale. The judgment shall adjust the disbursements for such taxes and expenses of redemption from tax sales between the parties to the action or proceeding in accordance with their respective rights. And whenever any real estate shall be sold by any person under any power of sale conferred upon him by any deed, will, power of attorney, mortgage, deed of trust, or assignment for the benefit of creditors, the person making such sale must pay out of the proceeds of sale all taxes then assessed upon such real estate and such sums as shall be necessary to redeem the land, if it has been sold for taxes and such redemption is practicable.

Rev., s. 2857; 1901, c. 558, s. 47.

Land sold on the foreclosure of a mortgage is liable for taxes assessed after execution of mortgage: Wooten v. Sugg, 114-295.

It is incumbent on a mortgagee to see to it that the land mortgaged is listed for taxes and that taxes be paid: Ibid.

Under revenue act of 1891 sheriff's deed for land sold for taxes is good as against a mortgage recorded before sale, but after levy of taxes: Powell v. Sikes, 119-231.

As to collection of taxes in arrears affecting purchasers without notice, see Moore v. Sugg, 114-292.

Where prior to the listing of land for taxes, for nonpayment of which land was sold, owner had conveyed property to a trustee in trust to pay a debt, tax collector's deed divested title of trustor, trustee, and cestui que trust, and was superior to deed of purchaser at trustee's sale: Lyman v. Hunter, 123-508.

In sale of land under order of court it is proper to direct the payment of all taxes which are liens on the land, so as to convey a clear title: Smith v. Miller, 158-99.

7981. Tax paid by holder of lien; remedy. Any person having a lien or encumbrance of any kind upon real estate may pay the taxes due by the owner thereof in so far as the same are a lien upon such real estate, and the amount of taxes so paid shall, from the time of payment, operate as a lien upon such real estate in preference to all other liens, which lien may be enforced by action in the superior court in term. The money so paid may also be recovered by action for moneys paid to his use against the person legally liable for the payment of such taxes.

Rev., s. 2858; Code, s. 3700; 1901, c. 558, s. 46; 1879, c. 71, s. 55.

Lien of tax on land is generally superior to rights of mortgagor or mortgagee, and it is duty of mortgagee and of his assigns to see to the discharge of tax liens as they fall due: Exum v. Baker, 115-242; see annotations under sections 7980, 8013, 8019.

Mortgagee is not liable for taxes, though the tax lien is superior to lien of mortgagee: Ins. Co. v. Day, 127-133.

It is incumbent on a mortgagee to see to it that land mortgaged is listed for taxes and that the taxes be paid: Wooten v. Sugg, 114-295.

Money subsequently paid by a mortgagee to acquire a tax title on the land becomes a lien on the land: Cauley v. Sutton, 150-327.

7982. Forfeiture by life tenant failing to pay. Every person shall be liable for the taxes assessed or charged upon the property or estate, real or personal, of which he is tenant for life. If any tenant for life of real estate shall suffer the same to be sold for taxes by reason of his neglect or refusal to pay the taxes thereon, and shall fail to redeem the same within one year after such sale, he shall thereby forfeit his life estate to the remainderman or reversioner. The remainderman or reversioner may redeem such lands, in the same manner that is provided for the redemption of other lands. Moreover, such remainderman or reversioner shall have the right to recover of such tenant for life all damages sustained by reason of such neglect or refusal on the part of such tenant for life. If any tenant for life of personal property suffer the same to be sold for taxes by reason of any default of his, he shall be liable in damages to the remainderman or reversioner.

Rev., s. 2859; Code, ss. 3698, 3699; 1901, c. 558, s. 45; 1879, c. 71, ss. 53, 54.

Widow who has a homestead allotted her in lands of her deceased husband in lieu of dower is a tenant for life thereof, within the purview of statutes which provide that when "a person seized as tenant for life" shall not, within one year after sale for taxes, redeem lands sold, he shall forfeit to the person next in title his or her right in the premises: Tucker v. Tucker, 108-235.

Tax title which conveys only interest of life tenant is not color of title against remainderman, nor is possession thereunder adverse until death of life tenant: Smith v. Proctor, 139-314.

Sale and conveyance by sheriff under revenue act of 1874-5 of the lands of a life tenant for default in payment of taxes on his part does not operate to convey interest of remaindermen: Ibid.

While the life tenant should pay the taxes, the remainderman or reversioner may pay to prevent a sale: Smith v. Miller, 158-99.

7983. Remedies of cotenants and joint owners. Any one of several tenants in common, or joint tenants or copartners shall have the right to pay his share of the taxes assessed or due upon the real estate held jointly or in common, or, if such estate has been sold for taxes, he may redeem his share by paying his proportionate part of the amount required for redeeming the whole. Where he has paid his share of the taxes or amount required for redemption and the land has been or shall be divided by actual partition the share set apart to him in severalty shall be free from the lien of, and shall not be liable to be subjected in any manner to, the payment of the residue of taxes assessed upon such property; but such residue of taxes and the costs and penalties incident thereto shall be a lien upon the residue of such real estate, which residue shall be subjected to the satisfaction thereof; and when he has paid his share of the taxes, or amount necessary to redeem, and the real estate is sold under judicial proceedings for partition, his share of the proceeds shall not be diminished by disbursements for the residue of such taxes or for redeeming the property, and the costs and penalties incident thereto. Any such part owner in real estate shall have the right to pay the whole of the taxes assessed thereon and all costs and penalties incident to such taxes, and to redeem such real estate as a whole when it has been sold for taxes, and all sums by him so paid in excess of his share of such taxes, costs, and penalties and amounts required for redemption, shall constitute a lien upon the shares of his cotenants or associates, payment whereof, with interest, he may enforce in proceedings for partition, actual or by sale, or in any other appropriate judicial proceeding. When one tenant in common, joint tenant, or copartner shall have paid his proportionate part of the taxes, as allowed by this section, before a sale for taxes, the sheriff shall except his undivided interest from the sale and in the certificate of sale and deed for the property.

Rev., s. 2860; 1901, c. 558, ss. 13, 14, 47.

Tenant in common may pay his share of the tax and let the other interest be sold, and purchaser of such interest will be protected by the three-year statute: Ruark v. Harper, 178-249.

The law authorizing one tenant in common to pay his share of the taxes or to redeem his share of the land does not apply where the cotenant is in possession for all: Smith v. Smith, 150-81.

7984. Taxes against infants and lunatics. The lands of a minor, lunatic, or other person non compos mentis, shall in no case be liable to be sold for taxes, but the personal property of such persons may be levied upon and sold for all taxes due upon the estates of such persons; and their real estate shall be and remain subject to a lien for all such taxes, with interest thereon at six per centum per annum, from the time such taxes fall due until paid.

Rev., s. 2861; Code, s. 3691.

7985. Fiduciaries to pay taxes. It shall be the duty of every guardian, executor, administrator with the will annexed, agent, trustee, receiver, or other fiduciary in whose care or control any property or estate, real or personal, may be, to pay the taxes thereon out of the trust funds in his hands, if any there be; and if he fail so to do he shall become personally liable for such taxes, and such liability may be enforced by an action against him in the name of the sheriff. If he permit such property to be sold by reason of his negligence to pay the taxes when he has funds in hand, he shall be liable to his ward, principal, or cestui que trust for all actual damages incident to such neglect. This section shall not have the effect of relieving the estates held in trust or under the control of fiduciaries from the lien of such taxes.

Rev., s. 2862; Code, ss. 3698, 1595; 1879, c. 71, s. 53; R. C., c. 54, s. 27; 1868-9, c. 201, s. 32; 1762, c. 69, s. 14.

The ordinary method of collecting taxes by the sheriff does not apply to taxes from a decedent's estate: Sherrod v. Dawson, 154-525. Section referred to in Headman v. Comrs., 177-261.

ART. 12. TAX LIENS

7986. No lien on personalty. Taxes shall not be a lien upon personal property, except where otherwise provided by law, but from a levy thereon: Provided, that no mortgage or deed of trust executed upon personal property shall have the effect of creating a lien thereon superior to the lien acquired by a subsequent levy upon said property for the payment of the state, county, and municipal taxes, assessed against the same; but the sheriff or other tax collector levying upon such property, for the purpose of collecting the taxes due thereon, shall give due notice to the mortgagee or trustee of such property of the amount of such taxes at least ten days before the sale of the same, and such trustee or mortgagee shall have the right to pay said taxes and the costs incident to making the levy, when the sheriff or tax collector shall release the same to such trustee or mortgagee, and the amount so paid by said trustee or mortgagee shall constitute a part of the debt secured in the mortgage or deed of trust.

Rev., s. 2863; Code, s. 3682; 1911, c. 207.

Although tax list, when placed in hands of sheriff for collection, has force of a docketed judgment and execution as to real estate, it creates no lien on personal property until levied, as against bona fide purchasers for value from taxpayer's assignee for benefit of creditors: Shelby v. Tiddy, 118-792. The proviso in this section is within the power of the legislature, but there should be a levy by the officer to give effect to it: Berry v. Davis, 158-170.

In case of an assignment by a corporation to a trustee, the sheriff or tax collector has no priority over creditors who obtained judgment and execution before assignment was registered: Alexander v. Farrow, 151-320.

7987. Lien on realty. The lien of the state, county, and municipal taxes levied for any and all purposes in each year shall attach to all real estate of the taxpayer situated within the county or other municipality by which the tax list is placed in the sheriff's hands, which lien shall attach on the first day of June, annually, and shall continue until such taxes, with any penalty and costs which shall accrue thereon, shall be paid.

Rev., s. 2864; Code, s. 3682; 1879, c. 71, s. 26.

Section referred to in Berry v. Davis, 158-170.

7988. Lien of agent paying tax. When property is assessed to any person as agent for another or in a representative capacity, such person shall have a lien upon such property or any property of his principal in his possession until he is indemnified against the payment thereof, or, if he has paid the tax, until he is reimbursed for such payment.

Rev., s. 5254; 1917, c. 234, s. 84; 1919, c. 92, s. 84.

7989. Tax lien on railroad property. The taxes upon any and all railroads in this state, including roadbed, right of way, depots, side-tracks, ties and rails, now constructed or hereafter to be constructed, are hereby made a perpetual lien thereupon, commencing from the first day of May in each current year, against all claims or demands whatsoever of all persons or bodies corporate, except the United States and this state; and the above described property or any part thereof may be taken and held for payment of all taxes assessed against such railroad company in the several counties in this state.

Rev., ss. 2865, 5296; 1917, c. 234, s. 98; 1919, c. 92, s. 98.

7990. Tax lien enforced by action to foreclose. A lien upon real estate for taxes or assessments due thereon may be enforced by an action in the nature of an action to foreclose a mortgage, in which action the court shall order a sale of such real estate, or so much thereof as shall be necessary for that purpose, for the satisfaction of the amount adjudged to be due on such lien, together with interest, penalties, and costs allowed by law, and the costs of such action. When such lien is in favor of the state or county, or both, such action shall be prosecuted by and in the name of the county; when the lien is in favor of any other municipal corporation the action shall be prosecuted by and in the name of such corporation. When such lien is in favor of any private individual or private corporation holding a certificate of tax sale or deed under a tax sale, whether as original purchaser at a tax sale or as assignee of the county or other municipal corporation or of any other holder thereof, such action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest.

Rev., s. 2866; 1901, c. 558, ss. 42, 43.

The collection of taxes may be enforced by suit instead of by summary method of levy and sale: Wilmington v. Moore, 170-52, distinguishing Berry v. Davis, 158-170.

Fact that revenue act prescribes a specific remedy for the collection of taxes does not restrict state to pursue that method, nor preclude it from seeking aid of the superior court through a creditor's suit. The specific remedy pointed out restricts only officers who collect revenue, and not the sovereign: Guilford v. Georgia Co., 112-34.

Fact that individual can be indicted for failure to list his property for taxation does not bar state from proceeding by suit to enforce payment of taxes: Ibid.

Under chapter 182, acts of 1895, authorizing collection of delinquent taxes, interest and penalties, no rate of interest being fixed therein, only six per cent interest per annum can be recovered: Wilmington v. Stolter, 122-395.

An action pending to recover arrearages of taxes brought under chapter 182, Acts of 1895, authorizing collection of unpaid taxes for past years, is not affected by repeal of such statute: Ibid.

It is no defense to a legal assessment and claim of taxes that taxes under an illegal or irregular assessment have been paid: R. R. v. Comrs., 82-259.

A tax is not a debt in the ordinary sense of that word. It is an impost levied by the sovereign for support of state, and it is not founded on contract. When statute prescribed no special manner for its collection, it may be collected by an action at law, but when a method is provided by statute, an action for its collection cannot be maintained: Gatling v. Comrs., 92-536.

Neither a taxpayer nor a sheriff can plead a set-off in a suit for taxes due and owing: Comrs. v. Hall, 177-490; Graded School v. McDowell, 157-316; Wilmington v. Bryan, 141-679; State and Guilford Co. v. Georgia Co., 112-34; Gatling v. Comrs., 92-536; Cobb v. Elizabeth City, 75-1; Battle v. Thompson, 65-406.

A law to provide for the collection of taxes for past years is constitutional; and the right of the legislature to pass such law is not affected by the lapse of time: R. R. v. Comrs., 82-259; Wilmington v. Cronly, 122-283. And collection may be enforced by appropriate action without first resorting to levy and sale: Wilmington v. Moore, 170-52.

Neither the three nor the ten years statute of limitations applies to an act authorizing the state or a county or city to recover delinquent taxes, unless such an act expressly so provides: Wilmington v. Cronly, 122-383.

7991. Lien of endorsed tax list. Every tax list before being placed in the hands of the sheriff shall be endorsed by the authorities levying the taxes with an order for their collection. The tax list, when thus endorsed, shall have the force and effect of a duly docketed judgment and of an execution against the real and personal property of the persons charged with taxes on such list.

Rev., ss. 2856, 5238; Code, s. 3681; 1917, c. 234, s. 83; 1919, c. 92, s. 83.

For form of endorsement, see section 7930.

The only authority given to a sheriff or tax collector to enforce the lien on land for taxes is the tax list, with order of clerk to sheriff to collect, endorsed thereon: Peebles v. Taylor, 121-38.

Certified copy of items in tax list incompetent as evidence: State v. Champion, 116-987.

Tax list has the force of an execution: Wilmington v. Sprunt, 114-310; Davie v. Blackburn, 117-383; State v. Lutz, 65-503—but only as between sheriff and taxpayer, Davie v. Blackburn, 117-383.

The tax list issued to a sheriff has the force of an execution, and justifies sheriff in making seizures thereunder as fully as an execution issued from a court of competent jurisdiction: State v. Lutz, 65-503; Shelby v. Tiddy, 118-792.

Tax collector can sell or distrain for taxes due only in cases where property actually appears on tax lists and has been duly assessed: Peebles v. Taylor, 121-38.

Power of sheriff in selling land for taxes, being a naked one, uncoupled with an interest, is strictly construed, so that he must conform in its execution to terms of statute which creates and confers it; but, the main object of statute being to raise revenue for state, the courts will not exact such a rigid observance of forms as will defeat primary purpose, but will apply to such sales rules applicable to execution sales for private debts: Hays v. Hunt, 85-303.

ART. 13. TIME AND MANNER OF COLLECTION

7992. Sheriff to collect taxes due. Whenever any taxes shall be due and unpaid, the sheriff, who by law is required to collect the same, shall immediately proceed to collect them as prescribed by this chapter.

Rev., s. 2867; Code, s. 3686; 1872-3, c. 115, s. 28.

Coroner, upon death or insanity of sheriff, has no right to collect taxes: Somers v. Comrs., 123-582.

A deputy sheriff, who in his deputation is authorized to collect state and county taxes out of the persons named in said deputation, is not required to exhibit a certified copy of the tax lists from the officer required to make out said list before he distrains property to enforce the payment thereof: State v. Lutz, 65-503. The fact that the sheriff has accounted for the tax does not interfere with his right to collect: Berry v. Davis, 158-170.

7993. Sureties of sheriff may collect, when. If any sheriff shall die during the time appointed for collecting taxes, his sureties may collect them, and for that purpose shall have all power and means for collecting the same from the collectors and taxpayers as the sheriff would have had, and shall be subject to all the remedies for collecting and settling the taxes, on their bond or otherwise, as might have been had against the sheriff if he had lived.

Rev., ss. 2868, 5264; 1917, c. 234, s. 112; 1919, c. 92, s. 112.

7994. Payment of taxes. 1. When due. All taxes shall be due on the first Monday in October in each year.

2. Discounts and penalties in payments. On all taxes paid in the months of October and November a discount shall be given to the taxpayer of one per cent. All taxes paid in the month of December shall be paid at the net amount charged, and from and after the first day of January a penalty of one per cent per month shall be charged and collected by the sheriff or tax collector; that is to say, that on all taxes paid in the month of January, after the first day of January, a penalty of one per cent shall be added on the taxes paid, and in the month of February, after the first day of February, a penalty of two per cent shall be added, and an additional penalty of one per cent for each additional month of delay in settlement of same. Upon all taxes paid into the state treasury and upon all county taxes paid into the county treasury by any sheriff or tax collector on or before the fifth day of December, the state auditor and county treasurer shall credit against the total amount of taxes charged against any such sheriff or tax collector a discount of one per cent, and upon all payments made into the state treasury and upon all county taxes paid into the county treasury by the sheriff or tax collector between the fifth day of December and the fifth day of January payments shall be credited at the net amount of such payments. Upon all taxes charged against any such sheriff or tax collector and remaining unpaid on the fifth day of January a penalty of one per cent shall be added, and an additional penalty of one per cent shall be added to so much of said taxes as remain charged against such sheriff or tax collector and unpaid on the fifth day of each succeeding month thereafter until paid. Any provisions in any local act prescribing a different schedule of discounts and penalties than that provided here is hereby repealed.

3. Receipt for payment. The sheriff or tax collector shall note on the tax duplicate against the name of the party the date of payment and the amount paid. He shall also give receipt to the parties, stating the amount of the state and county tax separately, and the date of payment; and for failure to give such receipt, stating the state and county tax separately, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction, shall be fined at the discretion of the court.

4. When sheriff entitled to tax books. The sheriff or tax collector shall not collect the taxes for any year until he shall have settled in full with the state and county for the taxes of the previous year (if he was sheriff or tax collector) and given the bonds required by law; and if upon examination the commissioners are not satisfied with the solvency of the surety to said bonds, they may require new bonds to be given. The sheriff or collecting officer shall produce receipts for the state and county taxes for the previous year, if he was sheriff or tax collector, before receiving the tax duplicate from the board of commissioners, and in the event the sheriff fails to produce the aforesaid receipts or give the required bond, the board of commissioners shall appoint a tax collector who shall give bond as required of the sheriff to faithfully collect and pay over the taxes according to law.

Rev., ss. 2852, 5241; 1917, c. 234, s. 88; 1919, c. 92, s. 88.

Statute which discriminates between the different counties of the state, as to the times when the payment of taxes can be compelled, is not unconstitutional, since its provisions affect every one alike in the localities to which they are applicable and contain no violation of the principle of equation of taxation: State v. Jones, 121-616.

Under section 35, chapter 169, of laws of 1897, taxpayer may pay his taxes at any time before the last day of November without incurring any penalty or punishment, but under section 36, sheriff, whenever justified reasonably by the facts in the case, may levy and collect by distress at any time after the first day of November: State v. Bryant, 121-569.

Failure to pay taxes before the day on which collector's right to collect them by distress begins is not an indictable offense under sections 52 and 53 of chapter 168, Acts of 1897: State v. Jones, 121-616.

Sureties on sheriff's bond, who have had to pay for sheriff's default, cannot recover from county commissioners for their failure to comply with this section: Hudson v. McArthur, 152-445.

7995. Sheriff collecting by deputy. When the sheriff shall collect by his deputies they shall, before the clerk of the board of commissioners or before a justice of the peace of the county, take and subscribe an oath faithfully and honestly to account for the taxes with the sheriff or other person authorized to receive the same. Such oath shall be filed with the register of deeds and kept in the office of the board of commissioners, and for failure of any deputy sheriff to pay over such taxes as he may collect he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 5241; 1917, c. 234, s. 88; 1919, c. 92, s. 88.

7996. Sheriff to attend for collection. The sheriff or his deputy or tax collector shall attend at the courthouse or his office in the county town during the months of October and November for the purpose of receiving taxes. He shall also in like manner attend at least one day during the month of October at some one or more places in each township, of which fifteen days notice shall be given by advertisement at three or more public places and in a newspaper, if one is published in the county: Provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the collecting officer from levying and selling after the first day of November, but he shall not sell before that day unless he has reason to believe the taxpayer is preparing to leave the county or state.

Chapter one hundred and fifty of the laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and amendments thereto, and all special acts prescribing or authorizing a time for collection and settlement of state taxes differing from the general provisions of this chapter for the collection and settlement of state taxes, are hereby repealed.

Rev., ss. 2870, 2882, 5242; 1903, c. 251, s. 80; 1905, c. 590, s. 80; 1917, c. 234, s. 89; 1919, c. 92, s. 89.

The principle that if a creditor by any binding contract gives time to a principal debtor, sureties are thereby discharged, applies when a state is a creditor, as well as when an individual is: Prairie v. Jenkins, 75-545.

A legislative extension of time within which a sheriff may settle state taxes does not exonerate the sureties upon his bond: Worth v. Cox, 89-44.

An injunction obtained by sureties of sheriff, staying collection of a judgment for public taxes on ground of their discharge because of extension of time, will not be continued until final hearing in order that the facts may be found whether said sheriff had performed supposed condition as to bring himself within act allowing extension of time, and did thereafter perform the conditions which he was required thereafter to perform: Prairie v. Jenkins, 75-545.

7997. Commissioners may change the time for attending in townships. The board of commissioners of any county shall have the right, by resolution spread upon the minutes of the board, to abolish altogether or to change the time or times upon which the sheriff or other tax collector is now, or hereafter may be, required to attend each township in the county for the collection of the taxes levied and placed in his hands. Upon the passage of said resolution by the board of commissioners the sheriff or other tax collector shall attend in each township in his county at such times as shall be fixed by said board for the collection of taxes thereof: Provided, that fifteen days notice of the time and place of such attendance shall be given by the sheriff or other tax collector by advertisements in some newspaper published in said county, if one is published therein, or by advertisements posted at three or more public places, if no newspaper is published therein.

7998. Time limited for collection of taxes. The sheriff and, in case of his death, the sureties, shall have one year and no longer from the day prescribed for his settlement and payment of the state taxes to finish the collection of all taxes; but the extension of time for collection shall not extend the time of his settlement of the taxes.

Rev., ss. 2869, 5265; 1917, c. 234, s. 113; 1919, c. 92, s. 113.

Section applied: Berry v. Davis, 158-170.

7999. Abstract of tax due sent to another county. If any person liable for taxes has no property in the county in which such taxes are due, but has property in any other county, the sheriff may make and certify under his hand an abstract of the taxes due by such person, as shown by the tax lists in his hands, and forward the same to the sheriff of any county in which property of such taxpayer may be found, with directions to collect such taxes. Such abstract shall have the force and effect of a tax list in any county to which it is sent, and the sheriff to whom it is sent shall collect the taxes in the same manner as he collects taxes appearing on the regular tax list of his county, and shall pay over to the sheriff from whom he receives such abstract the amount collected, less his lawful commissions. He shall make return of his proceedings under such abstract within thirty days after its receipt. Such abstract or a copy or duplicate thereof may be sent for collection to the same or some other county until the amount due shall be collected.

Rev., s. 2871; Code, s. 3692; 1872-3, c. 115, s. 28.

8000. Diligent inquiry as to removals. It shall be the duty of every sheriff or every tax collecting officer of any county, city, or town, whenever he is informed that a taxpayer has removed from his county, city, or town without paying the taxes listed for that year, to make diligent inquiry to what county, city, or town the said taxpayer has removed, and in the settlement of the sheriff or other tax-collecting officer for any county, city, or town he shall state, under oath, that he has used due diligence and made faithful inquiry for the location of all taxpayers who have removed from his county, city, or town owing tax for said fiscal year, or the same shall be charged to him and not be allowed in his insolvent list; and the board of county commissioners, or other officers with whom said sheriff or other tax-collecting officer is required by law to make his settlement, shall carefully inspect the insolvent list filed for said fiscal year, and if said sheriff or other tax-collecting officer has not complied with the law to enforce collection of taxes at all times he shall be charged with the same.

Rev., s. 2872; 1905, c. 355.

8001. Register's certificate upon removal of taxpayer. It shall be the duty of the sheriff or other tax-collecting officer of any county, city, or town, when he is informed that any taxpayer has removed from his county, city, or town without paying his taxes listed for that year and has no property in the county, city, or town, or no property in any county known to the collecting officer, to make a report of the same, with a return of the tax receipt, to the register of deeds of his county, who shall make out a certificate, under his hand and seal, that such taxes were listed for that year, that the same are due and reported unpaid by the collecting officer for such county, city, or town. The sheriff or other collecting officer of any county, city, or town shall send the receipt, with the certificate, to the collecting officer of the county, city, or town to which the taxpayer has removed, and the same shall be a tax list in his hands for the collection of such taxes.

Rev., ss. 2873, 2874; 1905, c. 355, ss. 2, 3.

8002. Tax collected upon certificate. The tax collector to whom such tax receipt has been sent shall proceed to the collection of the taxes according to the rules and regulations provided for the collection of taxes in his own county, city, or town, and shall report his proceedings to the officer from whom he received the said receipt within sixty days thereof. If such taxpayer is insolvent and the collecting officer cannot collect the tax as provided by law in his county, city, or town, he shall return the tax receipt, and shall state under his oath that he has used due diligence in making collection by levy, garnishment, or otherwise, that the taxpayer is insolvent and same cannot be collected; otherwise he shall be liable on his official bond for the tax, to be collected in a suit in any court in this state in the corporate name of the county, city, or town to which such taxes are due. The collecting officer shall be allowed a compensation of ten per centum for making collection of such taxes, and the register of deeds shall be allowed ten cents for making the above certificate, to be paid by the county, city, or town to which the taxes are due.

Rev., s. 2875; 1905, c. 355, ss. 4-6.

8003. Property in hands of receiver. Whenever taxes are duly assessed against any corporation having chartered rights, or doing business in this state, or having property in this state, or against any person resident in this state or doing business, or having property in this state, and the tax list is in the hands of the sheriff, it shall be competent for such sheriff whenever such taxes, whether listed or unlisted, are due and unpaid, to levy upon and sell such part of the property, real and personal, belonging to such person or corporation as may be necessary to pay such taxes, listed or unlisted, whether the property of such corporation or person be in the hands of a receiver duly appointed or not; and in such cases it shall not be necessary for such officer to apply to and obtain from the court appointing such receiver, or having jurisdiction of the property or of the receiver, an order for the payment of such taxes, but the same may be collected as if the property was not in the hands of a receiver or in the custody of the law. The powers conferred by this section upon the sheriff shall not have the effect to relieve the receiver from his duties and liabilities to pay taxes as provided elsewhere in this chapter.

Rev., s. 2879; Code, ss. 699, 700; 1879, c. 2451, ss. 1-4.

The right to have the charter of corporation declared forfeited for failure to pay taxes does not prevent the state from enforcing payment by means of a receiver: Guilford v. Georgia Co., 112-34. That the property is in the hands of a receiver does not render a tax sale invalid: Headman v. Comrs., 177-261.

8004. Attachment and garnishment proceedings. If any poll tax or other tax shall not be paid within sixty days after the same shall be demandable, it shall be the duty of the sheriff, if he can find no property of the person liable sufficient to satisfy the same, to attach any debt or other property incapable of manual delivery, due or belonging to the person liable, or that may become due before the expiration of the calendar year, and the person owing such debt or having such property in possession shall be liable for such tax. Any corporation, firm, or person who shall, on demand made, refuse to give to the tax collector of any county, city, or town a list giving the names of all persons employed by them who are liable for tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this section, the following form shall be used as an attachment, viz.:

To A. B.: Take notice, that this is to attach any debt that is now due or may become due to C. D., a delinquent in his poll (or property) tax for the year of nineteen hundred and, and you are hereby summoned to appear before E. F., an acting justice of the peace for county, and disclose any indebtedness which is or may be due said delinquent by you during the present calendar year, and to show cause why judgment should not be rendered against you for said delinquent tax and costs of this proceeding. day of, 19....

....., E. F.,

Justice of the Peace.

For serving notice the sheriff shall receive twenty-five cents, and if judgment is rendered, the justice shall receive twenty-five cents as costs. The justice shall hear and determine the matter as in other civil actions, and, if he find that the garnishee owes the delinquent any sum due or to become due during the calendar year, or has property or effects belonging to such delinquent, he shall give judgment against the garnishee for the taxes due by the delinquent and for costs, or for so much of such taxes and costs as the facts will warrant. If the amount of the tax be beyond the jurisdiction of the court of a justice of the peace, the sheriff may proceed by action and attachment in the superior court. All actions and proceedings instituted under this section shall be in the name of the sheriff. In no case shall the garnishee be adjudged to pay a greater sum than his indebtedness to the taxpayer or the value of the property of such taxpayer in his hands or under his control.

Rev., ss. 2880, 5201; Code, s. 3675; 1917, c. 234, s. 41; 1919, c. 92, s. 41.

Where an assignee for the benefit of creditors of taxpayer sells personal property of his assignor, on which a tax had been assessed, but not levied prior to assignment, the proceeds in hands of assignee are not subject to garnishment for payment of tax, but belong to creditors: Shelby v. Tiddy, 118-792.

8005. Corporation failing to pay taxes; garnishment; penalty. Whenever any corporation doing business in this state shall be delinquent in the payment of any taxes assessed or charged against it, the sheriff may notify any agent or officer of such corporation, or any person indebted thereto, of the amount of taxes due and unpaid by such corporation, and thereupon such agent, officer, or debtor shall pay to such sheriff or tax collector the amount he has in hand for, or of his indebtedness to, such corporation, or so much thereof as will satisfy such taxes and costs. The amount so paid shall be a discharge pro tanto of such agent, or officer, or debtor from his liability to such corporation. Any such agent, officer, or debtor who shall fail to pay over to the sheriff as required by this section shall be liable for such money in civil action to be brought by such sheriff in his name and official capacity; and such officer or agent of such corporation shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. If any corporation be delinquent for six months in the payment of the taxes lawfully assessed and charged upon or against it or its property, its charter shall be forfeited and a receiver shall be appointed to wind up its affairs in an action to be prosecuted by the attorney-general in the name of the state.

Rev., ss. 2881, 3786; 1901, c. 558, s. 29.

ART. 14. TAX SALES.

Part 1. Sale of Personalty

§006. Personalty first exhausted. The personal property of a taxpayer shall be levied upon and shall be sold for the satisfaction of his taxes before resorting to his real estate, if sufficient personalty subject to levy and sale can be found in the county of the sheriff having the tax list in hand. Upon the service of the notice required by this chapter, that his real estate is to be sold for taxes, it shall be incumbent upon the taxpayer to point out to the sheriff personalty out of which the taxes may be made, or else such taxpayer shall forfeit his rights under this section.

Rev., s. 2884; Code, s. 3688; 1901, c. 558, s. 1.

8007. Levy as under execution. The seizure and sale of personal property for taxes shall be governed by the laws regulating levy and sale under execution.

Rev., s. 2885; Code, s. 3688; 1901, c. 558, s. 1.

8008. What subject to levy. All personal property subject to taxation shall be liable to be seized and sold for taxes, and the personal property of any deceased person shall be liable in the hands of any executor or administrator for any tax due by any testator or intestate; and all transfers of personal property by any taxpayer, made after his taxes are due, by way of gift, or mortgage, or deed of trust, or of assignment for creditors, or bequest by will, or in any other way or for any other purpose than a bona fide sale for value, in the ordinary course of dealing, shall be null and void as to such taxes and shall have no effect upon the rights, powers, and duties of the sheriff to levy upon and sell such property for such taxes: Provided, such levy be made within sixty days after such transfer.

Rev., s. 2886; Code, s. 3682.

Section referred to in Berry v. Davis, 158-170.

8009. Fees of sheriff and expenses of sale of personalty and realty. The sheriff shall be entitled to fifty cents for each actual levy and sale of personalty and fifteen cents for each advertisement of such sale, but in no case shall such sums be collected where no levy or sale or advertisement is made. For advertising lands for sale for taxes, twenty cents for each parcel advertised. For making each certificate of the sale and purchase of real estate, and for each deed for real estate, fifty cents. For entering memorandum or redemption on sale book, twenty-five cents. The county commissioners shall allow him in settlement such other sums as he has actually expended which were necessary for the due execution of his duties under this chapter.

Rev., s. 2883; 1903, c. 251, ss. 80, 97; 1901, c. 558, ss. 10, 11; 1917, c. 234, s. 89; 1919, c. 92, s. 89.

Part 2. Sale of Realty

8010. When land is liable. If personal property of any taxpayer, sufficient for the satisfaction of his taxes and subject to levy, is not to be found in the county of the sheriff having the tax list in hand for collection, it shall be the duty of such sheriff to sell the real estate of such taxpayer, if delinquent in the payment of his taxes, under the directions set forth in this chapter.

Rev., s. 2887; Code, ss. 3688, 3691; 1901, c. 588, s. 1.

Sale of land for taxes before resorting to personal property may render sheriff liable to tax debtor, but does not affect title of purchaser: Geer v. Brown, 126-238.

Semble, that sheriff would be liable in damages, as well as to indictment, for his failure to exhaust personalty of tax debtor before selling his land: Stanley v. Baird, 118-75.

Where power is given to sheriff to sell land for taxes on condition that it be exercised within a certain time, the legislature cannot, by private act, extend the power, after the time has expired: Seymour v. Cohen, 67-346.

Land is not subject to sale for taxes unless it has been properly listed: Stone v. Phillips, 176-457; Rexford v. Phillips, 159-213. Where real estate was not listed for taxation, an order given tax collector by county commissioners to list it and collect same amounts as in former years invested him with no authority under the act to proceed to a sale; nor was he empowered to collect by sale or compulsion by an order of the board of commissioners allowing party without title to list the land: Peebles v. Taylor, 121-38.

In selling lands for taxes, sheriff acts under statutory power, which must be strictly pursued, and he must not only do the acts which are required to bring his sale within the power, but he must do them within time prescribed: Seymour v. Cohen, 67-346.

8011. Sale conclusive as to liability. Where actual sales of real estate are made for taxes under the general laws of the state, the taxpayer whose real estate has been sold for taxes shall be precluded thereafter from attacking such sale on the ground that the tax could have been procured from personal property.

1917, c. 234, s. 119; 1919, c. 92, s. 120.

8012. Time and place of sale. The sale of real estate for taxes shall, unless otherwise expressly provided by law, be made at the courthouse door of the county, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon of the first Monday in May of each year, or upon the first Monday of any subsequent month, after giving the required notice of sale, but, if necessary, the sale may be continued from day to day until all the property advertised shall be disposed of. If, for any reason, the sale is not made on the day prescribed, another day may be set by the county commissioners at a regular meeting, and the sale shall be had on such day after advertisement and notice as required by this subchapter.

Rev., s. 2888; Code, s. 459; 1901, c. 558, s. 3; 1919, c. 92, s. 119.

8013. Notice to delinquent. In addition to the advertisement required by the next succeeding section, the sheriff shall, at least twenty days before a sale of real estate for taxes, serve upon each delinquent taxpayer whose real estate is advertised for sale, if such person can be found in the county, a copy of so much of such advertisement of sale as relates to him and his real estate. If such delinquent cannot be found in the county, such notice shall be mailed to him, if his postoffice can be ascertained by the exercise of reasonable diligence, and personal service shall also be made upon his agent, if he have such agent in the county to the knowledge of the sheriff, or upon some person of suitable age and discretion in possession of or residing upon the land or some portion thereof.

Rev., s. 2889; Code, ss. 457, 3691; 1901, c. 558, s. 3.

Notice to delinquent taxpayer of the sale is necessary: Matthews v. Fry, 141-586; Hill v. Nicholson, 92-24.

It is duty of a mortgagee to pay taxes on mortgaged land if mortgagor fails to do so, and, in case of a sale of land for taxes, he is barred, notwithstanding he has no notice of intended sale by sheriff: Powell v. Sikes, 119-231, overruling Hill v. Nicholson, 92-24. The lien of tax on land as against a person without notice is generally superior to rights of mortgagor or mortgagee, and it is duty of mortgagee and his assignee to see to the discharge of tax liens as they fall due: Exum v. Baker, 115-242; Wooten v. Sugg, 114-295.

Tax title derived by a purchaser at sheriff's sale of land listed in the name of the "estate" of one deceased, is defective; the law requires personal service of notice of levy and sale upon delinquent taxpayer: Morrison v. McLauchlin, 88-251.

Where evidence shows that sheriff failed to serve notice on delinquent taxpayer as required by section 51 of chapter 169, acts 1897, the presumption arising from the sheriff's deed is rebutted and purchaser at tax sale acquired no title: Matthews v. Fry, 141-582.

The failure to give notice by mail to taxpayer is a mere irregularity: Saunders v. Earp, 118-275.

When taxes are due and requirements of statute otherwise complied with, a sale now conveys the property, and not simply the interest of delinquent: Smith v. Proctor, 139-324 (rendering obsolete on this point Whitehurst v. Gaskell, 69-449; Mackay ex parte, 84-63, and other cases).

When land held in common is sold for taxes and purchased by the tenant in possession, it is held for the benefit of all: Smith v. Smith, 150-81.

8014. Sale advertised. Before any real estate shall be sold for taxes the sheriff shall give public notice of the time, place, and cause of such sale by advertisement at the courthouse door and in some newspaper published in the county, if any there be, for four successive weeks immediately preceding the day of sale. If there be no newspaper published in the county, such advertisement must be posted for four weeks at some public place in each township of the county, except that in which the courthouse is located, in addition to posting at the courthouse door. Such advertisement must contain a notice that all the lands whose owners are delinquent in payment of their taxes of the preceding year will be sold, and shall set out a list of the lands to be sold and the amount of taxes, expenses, and costs due by each delinquent owner, giving his name.

Rev., s. 2890; Code, s. 3691; 1901, c. 558, s. 3.

8015. Manner of sale. All sales of real estate for taxes shall be at public outcry to the highest bidder. All the advertised real estate of each delinquent shall be sold at the same time as one body, and no bid therefor shall be received unless sufficient in amount to discharge all the taxes due by the delinquent, together with all costs and expenses of sale. If no such bid be received, the county, city, or town, as the case may be, shall be deemed the purchaser, and the sheriff shall so record it on his sales book. If any bidder fail to pay the amount of his bid immediately upon his being declared the purchaser, the sheriff shall resell at once if he deem it proper to do so.

Rev., s. 2891; Code, ss. 3693, 3694; 1901, c. 558, ss. 37, 4.

NOTE.—For fees and expenses of sale, see section 8009.

8016. Sheriff failing to attend; selling property not liable for tax. If any sheriff shall fail to attend any sale of lands as required by law in regard to tax sales, either in person or by competent deputy, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to a penalty of three hundred dollars, to be recovered by an action in the superior court against the sheriff and his bondsmen. And if such officer or deputy shall sell or assist in selling any real property, knowing the same not to be subject to taxation, or that the taxes for which the same is sold have been paid, or shall knowingly and willingly sell or assist in selling any real property for payment of taxes to defraud the owner of such real property, or shall knowingly or willingly execute a deed for property so sold, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to a fine of not less than one thousand nor more than three thousand dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding one year, or to both fine and imprisonment, and to pay to the injured party all damages sustained by such wrongful act, and all such sales shall be void.

Rev., s. 3790; 1901, c. 558, s. 6.

8017. Record of sales kept. The sheriff shall keep a sales book in which shall be entered and shown what real estate he sells for taxes, the name of the delinquent in whose name such real estate was listed, the amount of the taxes, costs, and expenses for which it was sold, and the name of the purchaser and amount of his bid, where there was a purchaser other than the county, city, or town, as the case may be. If the county, city, or town become the purchaser under the provisions of law, he shall record the fact in such book. A copy of this book, certified by the sheriff, shall be filed with the clerk of the county commissioners, or the city or town authorities, as the case may be, within one year after the sale. Such certified copy shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of the matters therein contained, and of the regularity of the sales therein recorded. When the sheriff makes a deed to any land sold for taxes he shall make an entry to that effect in the sales book opposite the description of the land conveyed.

Rev., s. 2892; 1901, c. 558, ss. 5, 10.

8018. Records sufficient proof of sale. The books and records belonging to the offices of the register or sheriff, or copies thereof properly certified, shall be deemed sufficient evidence to prove the sale of any real property for taxes, the redemption thereof or the payment of the taxes thereon.

Rev., s. 2893; 1901, c. 558, s. 26.

8019. Land listed in wrong name. No sale of real estate shall be void because such real estate was charged in the name of any other person than the rightful owner, if such real estate be in other respects sufficiently described. But no sale of property so listed in the name of the wrong person shall be held valid where the rightful owner has listed the same and paid the taxes thereon.

Rev., s. 2894; 1901, c. 558, s. 25.

A tax deed made in pursuance of a sale of land for taxes listed in name of person other than rightful owner is not void if land be in other respects sufficiently described: Peebles v. Taylor, 118-165; Rexford v. Phillips, 159-213; Stone v. Phillips, 176-457; Headman v. Comrs., 177-261.

Where land belonging to wife was listed for taxation by her husband, and was sold for nonpayment of taxes, no tender to redeem having been made by her, or any one for her or claiming under her, a tender made by husband was ineffectual, he having no "estate or interest" in land, notwithstanding birth of issue: Eames v. Armstrong, 146-1.

8020. Irregularities immaterial. No irregularities in making assessments or in making the returns thereof in the equalization of property as provided by law, or in any other proceeding or requirement of law, shall invalidate the sale of any real estate when sold by the sheriff for delinquent taxes, nor in any manner invalidate the tax levied on any property or charged against any person.

Rev., s. 2895; 1901, c. 558, s. 27.

Certain irregularities which do not invalidate a sale: Stone v. Phillips, 176-457. See section 8021.

8021. Irregularities defined. The following defects, omissions, and circumstances occurring in the assessment of any property for taxation, or in the levy of taxes, or elsewhere in the course of the proceedings, up to and including the execution and delivery of the deed for property sold for taxes, shall be taken and deemed to be mere irregularities within the meaning of the next preceding section: The failure of the assessors to take or subscribe an oath or attach one to an assessment roll; the omission of a dollar mark or other designation descriptive of the value of figures used to denote an amount assessed, levied, or charged against any property or the valuation of any property upon any record; the failure to make or serve any notice mentioned in this chapter; the failure or neglect of the sheriff to offer any real estate for sale for delinquent taxes thereon at the time mentioned in the advertisement or notice of such sale; failure of the sheriff to adjourn such sale from day to day, or any irregularity or informality in such adjournment; any irregularity or informality in the manner or order in which real estate may be offered for sale; the failure to assess any property for taxes or to levy any tax within the time provided by law; any irregularity, informality, or omission in any such assessment or levy; any defect in the description, upon any assessment book, tax list, sales book, or other record, of real or personal property assessed for taxation, or upon which any taxes are levied, or which may be sold for taxes, provided such description be sufficiently definite to enable the sheriff, or any person interested, to determine what property is meant or intended by the description, and in such cases a defective or indefinite description, on any book, list, or record, or in any notice or advertisement, may be made definite by the sheriff in the deed by which he may convey such property, if sold for taxes, by inserting in such deed a proper and definite description of the property so defectively or indefinitely described; any other irregularity, informality, or omission or neglect on the part of any person or in any proceedings, whether mentioned in this section or not; the omission of a seal to the sheriff's deed; the neglect or omission to tax or assess for taxation any person or property; the overtaxation of persons or property liable to be taxed.

Rev., s. 2896; 1901, c. 558, s. 28.

Failure to mail notice to delinquent taxpayer is an irregularity: Sanders v. Earp, 118-275—as is also failure to mail notice to owner of property before calling for deed: Geer v. Brown, 126-238 (both of these decisions were under prior acts not exactly similar to this).

Defective description of the land is an irregularity: Stone v. Phillips, 176-457.

8022. Acts of de facto officer valid. In all actions, proceedings and controversies involving the question of title to real property held under and by virtue of a sheriff's certificate of sale for taxes or tax deed, and all acts of assessors, sheriffs, clerks, supervisors, commissioners, and other officers, de facto, shall be deemed and construed to be of the same validity as acts of officers de jure.

Rev., s. 2897; 1901, c. 558, s. 24.

8023. Cancellation of void sales and deeds. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the sheriff, either before the execution of a deed for real property sold for taxes or upon the deed being returned by the purchaser, that any real estate was sold which was not subject to taxation or upon which the taxes had been paid previous to the sale, he shall make an entry opposite such tract or lot on the record of same that the same was erroneously sold, and such entry shall be evidence of the fact therein stated; and in such cases the purchase money shall be refunded to the purchaser as provided by this chapter. If such deed has been registered, the sheriff may nullify the same by writing on the margin of the register's book, at the page on which the deed appears, that the same is canceled pursuant to this section and for the causes herein set forth.

Rev., s. 2898; 1901, c. 558, s. 22.

8024. Certificate of sale. The sheriff shall give to the purchaser of real estate sold for taxes a written certificate, under his official signature, to the effect and in the form following:

NORTH CAROLINA, COUNTY.

I,, sheriff of the county of, do hereby certify that the following described real estate in said county and state, to wit (describing the same and stating in whose name it was listed on the tax lists), was, on the day of, 19...., duly sold by me, in the manner provided by law for the delinquent taxes of for the year 19...., amounting to dollars, including interest and penalty thereon and the cost allowed by law, when and where (name of the purchaser) purchased said real estate at the price of dollars, he being the highest and best bidder for the same. And I further certify that unless redemption is made of said estate in the manner provided by law, the said, his heirs or assigns, will be entitled to a deed in fee therefor on and after the day of, A. D. 19...., on surrender of this certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, this day of, A. D. 19...., Sheriff.

Rev., s. 2899; 1901, c. 558, s. 9.

Presumption arises from certificate of tax sale that all prior proceedings were regular: Basnight v. Smith, 112-229. Section referred to in Townsend v. Drainage Comrs., 174-556.

8025. Separate certificates required. The real estate of each delinquent shall be inserted in a separate certificate notwithstanding the fact that the same person may have purchased the real estate of several delinquents. But this shall not apply to lands held in cotenancy or joint tenancy. Such lands may be inserted in one certificate, no matter how many delinquents may be interested therein.

Rev., s. 2900; 1901, c. 558, s. 9.

8026. Certificate to county, city, etc.; right to transfer. When the county or other municipal corporation becomes the purchaser, under the provisions of this chapter, of any real estate sold for taxes, the sheriff shall issue a certificate of purchase in the name of such corporation substantially in the form provided by the two preceding sections. Such certificates shall remain in the custody of the sheriff, and at any time the county commissioners may assign such certificates to any person wishing to buy, for the amount expressed on the face of the certificate and interest thereon at the rate per centum which the taxes were drawing at the time of the purchase, or for the total amount of all tax on such real estate.

Such assignment may be made by the endorsement of the name of the county by the chairman of the board of county commissioners, and such endorsement shall be made when ordered by the county commissioners. The commissioners or other governing body of the municipal corporation other than a county shall have the same right of transfer as is above conferred, such transfer to be made by the mayor or treasurer of such corporation and in its name.

Rev., s. 2901; 1901, c. 558, ss. 37, 39.

Assignee of county commissioners of the certificate of sale only obtains such interest as the county (assignor) possessed, which was a right to foreclosure: McNair v. Boyd, 163-478; Huss v. Craig, 124-743; Kerner v. Cottage Co., 126-356; Collins v. Pettitt, 124-726; Whitman v. Dickey, 124-741; Collins v. Bryan, 124-738; Wilcox v. Leach, 123-74.

A deed made by county commissioners for land bought in by them (in 1899) without foreclosure of certificate, is void: Smith v. Smith, 150-81. But see section 8030.

8027. Certificate presumptive evidence of validity. The sheriff's certificate of sale and purchase shall be presumptive evidence of the regularity of all prior proceedings incident to such sale and purchase and of the due performance of all things essential to the validity thereof.

Rev., s. 2902; 1901, c. 558, s. 9.

Part 3. Tax Deeds

8028. Purchaser to give notice. No purchaser or assignee of such purchaser of any real estate, at any sale for taxes or special assessments due either to the state or any county or any incorporated town or city within the same, or at any sale for taxes authorized by the law of this state, shall be entitled to a deed for the real estate so purchased until the following conditions have been complied with, to wit: Such purchaser or assignee shall serve or cause to be served a written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, notice of such purchase on every person in actual possession or occupancy of such land or lot, and also on the person in whose name the same was taxed or specially assessed, if upon diligent inquiry he can be found in the county, and also upon any person, firm, or corporation having a mortgage or deed of trust upon said land or lots recorded in the county where the land is situated, if upon diligent inquiry such person, firm, or corporation can be found, and if he, they, or it cannot upon diligent inquiry be found, then publication shall be made as hereinafter provided, at least three months before the expiration of the time of redemption, in which notice he shall state when he purchased the land or lot, a description thereof, in whose name it was taxed, for what year taxed or specially assessed, and when the time of redemption will expire. If no person is in actual possession or occupancy of such land or lot, and the person in whose name it was taxed or assessed cannot upon diligent inquiry be found in the county, then such person or his assignee shall publish such notice in some newspaper published in such county, and if no newspaper is published in the county, then the newspaper that is published in this state nearest the county-seat of the county in which such real estate is situated, or in some newspaper published in an adjoining county, which notice shall be inserted three times, the first not more than five months and the last time not less than three months before the time of redemption shall expire. The fee for such publication in a newspaper shall not exceed three dollars for each tract so advertised.

Rev., s. 2903; 1901, c. 558, ss. 15, 17; 1905, c. 431; 1907, c. 950.

The requirements as to giving notice must be complied with by the purchaser: Sanders v. Covington, 176-454; Fowle v. Whitley, 166-445; Johnson v. Whilden, 166-104; s. c., 171-153; McNair v. Boyd, 163-478; Rexford v. Phillips, 159-213; Thomas v. Nichols, 127-319.

Sheriff's deed is only presumptive evidence that notice to owner or delinquent taxpayer has been given and publication made as required, but notices required to be given by purchaser to owner of land must be proved by him: Matthews v. Fry, 141-582.

Tax deed is not presumptive evidence that notice required in this section was given: King v. Cooper, 128-347.

8029. Affidavit of purchaser. Every person who has purchased any land at a tax sale, or the assignee of such person, by himself or agent, before he shall be entitled to a deed for such land, shall make an affidavit of his having complied with the conditions of this chapter as to giving notice of such purchase, stating particularly the facts relied on as such compliance, which affidavit shall be presented to the person authorized by law to execute such tax deed, to be by such officer delivered to the register of deeds and entered on the record of his office and carefully preserved among the files of his office, which record or affidavit shall be prima facie evidence that such notice had been given. The register shall be entitled to the same fee therefor as is allowed by law for registering deeds. The conditions of this and the next preceding section shall not be required when any county or incorporated town or city shall become the purchaser.

Rev., s. 2904; 1901, c. 558, s. 16.

The affidavit is necessary to obtain a deed: Sanders v. Covington, 176-454; Rexford v. Phillips, 159-213.

8030. Deed; when and by whom made. At any time after one year, and within two years, from the day of sale of any real estate for taxes, and upon demand of the purchaser and his production of the certificate of such sale and purchase, the sheriff shall, if the real estate has not been previously redeemed, as allowed by law, execute a conveyance to the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, for the real estate described in the certificate. If the certificate be lost, such conveyance may be made by the sheriff upon his being satisfied of such loss. When the sheriff has made due sale of land for taxes and dies before executing a deed thereto, or when a sheriff dies, and, in collecting taxes due on lists that were in his hands for collection, his executor or administrator, or any one acting for the sureties on his bond, shall have made sale for taxes as contemplated by law in all such cases, his successors in office shall execute a deed or conveyance to the person entitled to the same. If the county or other municipal corporation be the purchaser or holder of the certificate, the sheriff shall execute such deed upon demand of the county commissioners or governing board of such other municipal corporation.

Rev., s. 2905; 1901, c. 558, s. 18.

See section 995.

THE INTEREST CONVEYED BY TAX DEED; FORCE AND PRIORITY OF THE TITLE. When taxes are due and requirements of statute otherwise complied with, a sale now conveys the property, and not simply interest of delinquent: Smith v. Proctor, 139-324.

The purchaser at tax sale may demand a deed or proceed by foreclosure: Headman v. Comrs., 177-261; Townsend v. Drainage Comrs., 174-556.

Prior to 1887, a sheriff's deed under a sale for taxes was (without other evidence) only color of title and not effective, unless aided by open, notorious and continuous possession for statutory period: Worth v. Simmons, 121-357.

Under this section a tax deed may be color of title, though without a seal, and three years possession would bar right to redeem: Ruark v. Harper, 178-249; Kivett v. Gardner, 169-78; Jordan v. Simmons, 169-140. The tax deed as color of title is not affected by failure of sheriff to bid in the land for the county: Greenleaf v. Bartlett, 146-495.

Tax title which conveys only interest of life tenant is not color of title against remaindermen, nor is possession thereunder adverse until death of life tenant: Smith v. Proctor, 139-314. A sale and conveyance by sheriff under revenue act of 1874-5 of the lands of a life tenant for default in payment of taxes on his part does not operate to convey interest of remaindermen: Ibid.

Under revenue act of 1891 sheriff's deed for land sold for taxes is good as against a mortgage recorded before sale, but after levy of taxes: Powell v. Sikes, 119-231.

Where prior to listing of land for taxes, for nonpayment of which the land was sold, owner had conveyed property to a trustee in trust to pay a debt, tax collector's deed divested title of trustor, trustee, and cestui que trust, and was superior to deed of purchaser at trustee's sale: Lyman v. Hunter, 123-508.

VALIDITY OF THE TAX DEED. Tax deed, signed and executed by one who was sheriff of county at time of sale of land for taxes, after expiration of his term of office, as "ex-sheriff," is authorized by section 995, and is to that extent valid: Mfg. Co. v. Rosey, 144-370.

Tax deed made in pursuance of sale of land for taxes listed in name of person other than rightful owner is not void if land be in other respects sufficiently described: Peebles v. Taylor, 118-165.

Sale of land for taxes will not pass title unless notice of levy and sale has been first served upon "delinquent" as directed by revenue law: Hall v. Nicholson, 92-24—but a mortgagee is not entitled to notice, Powell v. Sikes, 119-231.

Tax title derived by purchaser at sheriff's sale of land, listed in name of "estate" of one deceased, is defective; the law requires personal service of notice by levy and sale upon delinquent taxpayer: Morrison v. McLauchlin, 88-251.

Where nonobservance of statutory requirements is known to purchaser, or where he has participated in their violation, he will get no benefit from his purchase: Hays v. Hunt, 85-303.

Where land has been sold for taxes and bid off by county commissioners, but is redeemed for owners by payment of taxes, interest and costs, although some time after time limited by law, a subsequent order to tax collector to make a deed to another party is invalid, and deed is of no effect: Merrimon v. Lyman, 124-434.

A description which may be aided by parol evidence is sufficient to pass title, as between taxpayer and purchaser at tax sale: Fulcher v. Fulcher, 122-101; Stone v. Phillips, 176-457.

Under this section, a county may purchase land at tax sale and take a deed without resorting to foreclosure: Headman v. Comrs., 177-261; Kivett v. Gardner, 169-78. For former law, see McNair v. Boyd, 163-478; Smith v. Smith, 150-81.

Wife may purchase husband's land at tax sale: Jordan v. Simmons, 169-140—but husband cannot acquire such title against the wife, though he may do so as against others who are tenants in common with the wife, Ibid.; Ruark v. Harper, 178-249.

One tenant in common, holding possession for all, cannot acquire title by tax sale as against his cotenants: Smith v. Smith, 150-81.

A tax deed made by a sheriff more than "two years from the day of sale of the real estate for taxes" is void: Mfg. Co. v. Rosey, 144-370.

Where owner of land sold for taxes dies before sheriff makes deed, the validity of the deed is not thereby affected: McMillan v. Hogan, 129-314.

Title good though personalty was not first exhausted: Stanley v. Baird, 118-75.

Deed valid though sheriff did not mail notice to owner: Sanders v. Earp, 118-275.

Sheriff's deed made to purchaser of land for taxes within the twelve months after the sale is void and passes no title: Ward v. Phillips, 89-215.

Where tract of land was sold for taxes on 3d day of May, 1892, a deed made on 3d day of May, 1893, by sheriff, in pursuance of such sale is void: Burgess v. Burgess, 117-447.

Where there was a mistake in the payment of taxes as to one tract of land, and this was afterwards sold by the sheriff without notice to the owner, the sale conveyed no title: Wooten v. White, 125-403.

One relying upon a tax deed as title must show compliance with statutory requirements; there is no presumption in favor of it other than that provided in the statute: Warren v. Williford, 148-474.

AS TO ACTIONS INVOLVING TAX TITLES. As to presumption arising from tax deed, see section 8034 and annotations thereunder. As to the requisites of a seal to deed, see section 8031. As to title acquired by assignment of certificate from county commissioners, see section 8026. As to what are considered irregularities, see section 8021.

Defendant seeking to defeat tax title must show that the taxes for the land in question were duly paid: Moore v. Byrd, 118-688; McMillan v. Hogan, 129-314; see section 8034.

Under act of 1887 (and subsequent acts) the onus is on claimant of land, not purchaser: Fulcher v. Fulcher, 122-101.

In action to set aside tax deed as a cloud on title, it was not necessary that complaint allege that all taxes had been paid, provided evidence of that fact was introduced at trial: Beck v. Meroney, 135-532.

In action to remove cloud from title plaintiff need not prove title out of state: Edwards v. Lyman, 122-741.

Where complaint alleges that plaintiff was seized and possessed of land sold for taxes, and answer admits that plaintiff was "possessed" thereof, such admission is sufficient evidence of title within purview of revenue act of 1895: Wooten v. White, 125-403.

Recitals in, not sufficient alone to sustain title: Stewart v. Ferguson, 133-276.

Section 74 of chapter 137, acts of 1887 (which is the same as section 66, ch. 119, acts of 1895) is not in conflict with the constitution in providing that, in actions to recover land on title based on tax deed, person claiming adversely to tax deed must, in order to defeat tax title, prove either that property was not subject to taxation for year named in deed or that taxes had been paid at time of sale: Moore v. Byrd, 118-688.

It is not allowable to a defendant in the trial of an action to recover land to prove an equitable interest for amount bid for land at tax sale, as evidenced by an invalid deed of sheriff, where he did not set up such equity in his answer: Patterson v. Galliher, 122-511.

Under revenue act, chapter 119, section 69, laws 1895, an action for recovery of land sold for taxes is barred by lapse of three years after such sale, unless owner be under legal disability: Lyman v. Hunter, 123-508; see section 441.

Where evidence shows that sheriff failed to serve notice on delinquent taxpayer as required by section 51 of chapter 169, acts of 1897, presumption arising from sheriff's deed is rebutted, and purchaser at tax sale acquired no title: Matthews v. Fry, 141-582.

An action to set aside a tax deed as a cloud upon title is not barred within three years from sale: Beck v. Meroney, 135-532; see section 441.

Person who lists land of another in his own name for taxes, allows it to be sold for taxes, and becomes purchaser and takes sheriff's deed, simply pays his own taxes, and acquires no title under the deed: Griffith v. Silver, 125-368.

Where taxes, interest and costs, for which land was sold, were paid by tax debtor during year allowed for redemption, the tax deed, valid on its face, constituted a cloud on the title: Beck v. Meroney, 135-532.

When answer contains an admission that land had been advertised and sold for taxes and bought by plaintiff, through an agent, inquiries of clerk if there was any record in his office of lands levied upon for sale for taxes, and of sheriff, if he had sold land for taxes, and of editor of county newspaper in regard to advertisement of tax sales, were properly excluded: Geer v. Brown, 126-238.

8031. Form of tax deed. Deeds made by the sheriff for real estate sold for taxes shall be substantially in the following form:

NORTH CAROLINA, COUNTY.

Whereas, at a sale of real estate for the nonpayment of taxes, made in the county of, on the day of, 19...., the following described real estate which was listed in the name of, in township of said county, was sold, to wit (here place description of real estate conveyed); and,

Whereas, the same not having been redeemed from such sale, and it appearing that the holder of the certificate of purchase of said real estate has complied with the laws of North Carolina necessary to entitle (insert the name of grantee) to a deed of said real estate:

Now, therefore, I,, sheriff of said county of, in consideration of the premises and by virtue of the statutes of North Carolina in such cases provided, do hereby grant and convey unto in fee simple the said real estate hereinbefore described, subject, however, to any right of redemption provided by law.

Given under my hand and seal, this day of, A. D. 19....
 Rev., s. 2906; 1901, c. 558, s. 19., Sheriff. (Seal.)

Section 65 of chapter 119, acts of 1895, requiring attestation clause of a sheriff's deed for land sold for taxes to be in form as follows: "Given under my hand and seal, this----- day of -----, A. D. -----, -----, sheriff," does not dispense with necessity for a seal: Patterson v. Galliher, 122-511.

Failure of sheriff to affix seal to deed for land sold for taxes is not an irregularity which can be cured by section 74, chapter 119, acts of 1895: Ibid.

Where sheriff's deed has been lost and copy on registration books is offered in evidence, but has no seal thereto, the law will not presume from words "Given under my hand and seal" that original bore a seal: Strain v. Fitzgerald, 128-396.

Where a pretended deed for land sold for taxes is invalid for want of a seal, it is not incumbent on one claiming against it to prove that property covered by it was not subject to taxation for years named in deed, or that taxes had been paid before sale: Patterson v. Galliher, 122-511.

See section 3353.

8032. Separate deeds required. The real estate of each delinquent shall be conveyed by a separate deed, notwithstanding the fact that the same person may have purchased the real estate of several delinquents. This shall not apply to lands held in cotenancy or joint tenancy. Such lands may be conveyed by one and the same deed, no matter how many delinquents may be interested therein.

Rev., s. 2907; 1901, c. 558, s. 10.

8033. Tax deeds registered. All deeds made pursuant to this chapter by the sheriff shall be registered in the same manner as other conveyances of real estate, and shall vest in the grantee, his heirs and assigns, the title of the property therein described.

Rev., s. 2908; 1901, c. 558, s. 19.

8034. Tax deed presumptive evidence. Deeds made by a sheriff for real estate sold for taxes shall be presumptive evidence in all courts of this state, in all controversies, actions, and proceedings in relation to the rights of the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, to the lands thereby conveyed, of the following facts:

1. That the real estate conveyed was subject to taxation for the year or years stated in the deed.
2. That the taxes were not paid at any time before the sale.
3. That the real property conveyed had not been redeemed from the sale at the date of the deed.
4. That the property had been listed and assessed.
5. That the taxes were levied according to law.
6. That the property was sold for taxes, as stated in the deed.
7. That all notices of such sale required to be served upon the delinquent or others had been duly served, and due advertisement of the sale had been made.

And such deeds shall be conclusive proof of the following facts:

1. That the manner in which the listing, assessment, levy, and sale were conducted was in all respects as the law directed.

2. That the grantee named in the deed was the purchaser or his assignee.

3. That all the prerequisites of the law were complied with by all the officers who had or whose duty it was to have had any part or action in any transaction relating to or affecting the title conveyed or purporting to be conveyed by the deed, from the listing and valuation of the property up to the execution of the deed, both inclusive, and that all things whatsoever required by law to make a good and valid sale and to vest the title in the purchaser were done, except in regard to the points named in this section, wherein the deed shall be presumptive evidence only.

And in all controversies, actions, and proceedings involving the title of real property claimed and held under and by virtue of a deed made substantially as required by this chapter, the person claiming title adverse to the title conveyed by such deed shall be required to prove, in order to defeat the title which such deed purports to convey, either that such real property was not subject to taxation for the year or years named in the deed or that the taxes had been paid before the sale, or that the property had been redeemed from the sale according to the provisions of this chapter, and that such redemption was had or made for the use and benefit of the persons having the right of redemption under the laws of this state, or that there had been an entire omission to list or assess the property, or to levy the taxes, or to sell the property. No person shall be permitted to question the title acquired by a sheriff's deed made pursuant to this chapter without first showing that he or the person under whom he claims title had title to the property at the time of the sale, and that all taxes due upon the property have been paid by such person or the persons under whom he claims title. But such deeds shall not pass title where the taxes for which the sale was had had been paid in full prior to such sale. And in all cases where the owner of lands sold for taxes shall resist the validity of such tax title, such owner may prove fraud committed by the officer selling the same, or in the purchaser, and if such fraud is established, such sale and title shall be void. No action for the recovery of real property sold for the nonpayment of taxes shall lie unless the same be brought within three years after the sheriff's deed is made as above provided: Provided, that where the owner of such real property sold as aforesaid at the time of such sale be a minor or insane or a convict in the penitentiary, three years after such disability shall be removed shall be allowed such person, his heirs or legal representatives, to bring action.

Rev., s. 2909; 1901, c. 558, s. 20.

See, also, sections 407, 441. In the absence of statutory provision—one claiming land under tax sale must show that delinquent taxpayer was owner of land at time of sale (or when lien for the taxes attached), that it had been duly listed and that taxes were assessed against it and are due thereon, and that all of the existing prerequisites to sale were observed: Shingle Co. v. Lumber Co., 178-221; Land Co. v. Board of Ed., 101-35 (many cases holding likewise were based upon statutes enacted prior to 1887, and are now obsolete).

Under the law since 1887 the tax deed is conclusive evidence of the regularity of matters of routine and presumptive evidence of all other matters: Board of Education v. Remick, 160-563; Jones v. Schull, 153-517; Collins v. Pettitt, 124-729; Lyman v. Hunter, 123-508; Powell

v. Sikes, 119-231; Moore v. Byrd, 118-688; Sanders v. Earp, 118-275; Peebles v. Taylor, 118-165; Stanly v. Baird, 118-75; Basnight v. Smith, 112-229.

Deed of sheriff for land sold for taxes is presumptive evidence of regularity of the sale: McMillan v. Hogan, 129-314.

Tax deed is not presumptive evidence that notice required of purchaser under acts 1897, ch. 169, secs. 64 and 65, was given: King v. Cooper, 128-347.

Notwithstanding conclusive presumptions enumerated in statute in support of tax title, it is permissible to show in evidence that plaintiff was assignee of county of certificate executed by the tax collector to the county: Wilcox v. Leach, 123-74.

Evidence that land sold for taxes had never been listed or assessed rebuts the presumption raised by section 72 of the act of 1889 that sheriff's deed shows a proper listing and assessment: Peebles v. Taylor, 121-38; see, also, Stone v. Phillips, 176-457; Greenleaf v. Bartlett, 146-495.

Collection of taxes upon real estate being in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and each tract of land being under a liability, which it cannot escape, to contribute its pro rata to the support of the government, it is competent for the legislature to make the deed executed by sheriff to one who has purchased under the state's preferred lien a prima facie title: Moore v. Byrd, 118-688.

Since statute makes sheriff's tax deed prima facie evidence of title, purchaser, as plaintiff in ejectment, is entitled to recover upon proof of the tax deed conveying the land, if defendant introduces no evidence of his title and of his having paid taxes for which land was sold: Moore v. Byrd, 118-688.

Sheriff's deed for land sold for taxes is only presumptive evidence of due publication, and may be controverted by the tax debtor, in a suit by the purchaser. Want of notice through the mails is only an irregularity, not affecting title of purchaser: Geer v. Brown, 126-238.

Who may question tax title, see Townsend v. Drainage Comrs., 174-556; Eames v. Armstrong, 146-1. The purchaser at tax sale must comply with statute as to giving notice: Headman v. Comrs., 177-261; McNair v. Boyd, 163-478; Rexford v. Phillips, 159-213.

To set aside a tax deed, plaintiff must comply with the statute by showing his title, payment of taxes, and rebut the statutory presumption as to regularity: Ruark v. Harper, 178-249; McMillan v. Hogan, 129-314; Moore v. Byrd, 118-688. But presumption as to compliance with the statute does not arise in case of a void deed, nor need the owner show that the land was not subject to taxation nor that the tax had been paid: Rexford v. Phillips, 159-213.

Part 4. Remedies of Purchaser at Tax Sales

8035. Adjustment on sale by mistake. When by mistake or wrongful act of the sheriff real estate has been sold on which no tax was due at the time, or whenever land is sold in consequence of error in describing such land in the tax receipt, the county or other municipal corporation shall reimburse the purchaser by paying to him the amount of principal and costs by him expended in such purchase, with interest thereon at six per centum per annum; and the sheriff shall be liable to the county, or other municipal corporation, upon his tax bond, for all amounts so expended by it, or the purchaser and assigns may recover such amount and interest directly from the sheriff in an action upon his tax bond. But the sheriff and his sureties in all such cases as are provided for in this section shall be liable only for the wrongful acts of the sheriff and his deputies. Any amount paid by the county under this section for state taxes shall, on proper certificate from the chairman of the board of county commissioners, be allowed by the auditor and paid by the state treasurer.

Rev., s. 2910; 1901, c. 558, s. 21.

8036. Lien of purchaser. The purchaser at a sale for taxes, and his heirs and assigns, shall have a lien on the real estate by him purchased at such sale for the amount of the purchase money paid and all interest, penalties, costs, and charges allowed him by law; and if, after his purchase, he pays any taxes levied upon or which constitute an encumbrance upon such real estate, whether assessed before or after such purchase, he shall have a lien for all sums so paid out and for all interest, penalties, costs, and charges allowed him by law.

Rev., s. 2911; 1901, c. 558, s. 9.

Purchaser of land at a tax sale under statute, subsequently acquiring an invalid title by reason of insufficient description, or void for not having been made within the statutory time, is entitled to have amount he has paid therefor declared a lien on land in his favor: Mfg. Co. v. Rosey, 144-370.

8037. Purchaser may foreclose. Every holder of a certificate of sale of real estate for taxes shall be subrogated to the lien of the state and of the county or other municipal corporation, for the taxes for which such real estate was sold, and, instead of demanding a deed for such real estate under the provisions of this chapter, shall be entitled to a judgment for the sale of such real estate for the satisfaction of whatever sums may be due to him upon such certificate of sale and for any other amounts expended by him upon any other such certificate of sale of such real estate, or for taxes paid which were a lien upon such real estate, whether paid prior or subsequent to the acquisition of such certificate of sale. Such relief shall be afforded in an action in the nature of an action to foreclose a mortgage, which action must be commenced within two years from the date of the last certificate of sale held by the plaintiff. Such action shall be governed in all respects, as near as may be, by the rules governing actions to foreclose a mortgage. Any one who has paid taxes on the subject-matter of the action, or who holds a certificate of sale thereof, may be made a party and his rights enforced therein.

In such action the plaintiff must show that he gave ten days written notice of his intention to commence the same to the owner or occupant of the real estate which it is sought to sell; and in the complaint filed in such action each certificate of sale held by the plaintiff and each sum expended by him for taxes on such real estate shall be set out as a separate cause of action. Inability to find the owner or occupant in the county shall excuse a failure to notify him of plaintiff's intention to sue.

The holder of a deed for real estate sold for taxes shall be entitled to the remedy provided by this section, if he elects to proceed thereunder. He must commence such action within two years from the last deed or certificate of sale held by him.

Every county or other municipal corporation shall have the right to foreclose for taxes under the provisions of this section, and it shall be the duty of its commissioners or other governing body or officials to institute and diligently prosecute such actions for all taxes on real estate for which it holds tax sale certificates or deeds remaining unredeemed as much as four years from the dates of such instruments. No such actions by such corporations shall be barred by the lapse of time as is above provided in this section, or by law for other actions, but only by the lapse of five years from the delivery of the certificate of sale or deed sought to be foreclosed.

In every action brought under this section, whether by a private individual or by the county or other municipal corporation, or any other corporation, the plaintiff shall, except in cases otherwise provided by law, be entitled to recover interest at the rate of twenty per centum per annum on all amounts paid out by him, or those under whom he claims, and evidenced by certificates of tax sale, deed under tax sale, and tax receipts. Such interest shall be computed from date of each payment up to the time of redemption or final judgment, and shall be added to the principal of the final judgment, which judgment shall bear interest as in other cases.

Rev., s. 2912; 1901, c. 558, ss. 34, 35, 36, 44.

An individual purchaser at tax sale, or his assignee, may proceed by foreclosure, or demand a fee-simple deed from sheriff or tax collector after the time of redemption is past: Wilcox v. Leach, 123-74; Townsend v. Drainage Comrs., 174-556.

Where land is sold for taxes and bid in for county, the county becomes mortgagee, and must collect by foreclosure: Kerner v. Cottage Co., 126-356.

Where land is sold for taxes and county buys and takes sheriff's certificate, the interest acquired is that of mortgagee, and assignee of such certificate acquires same interest and, although receiving the sheriff's deed after time of redemption, in order to complete his title must resort to foreclosure: Huss v. Craig, 124-743; Kerner v. Cottage Co., 126-356; Collins v. Pettitt, 124-726; Wilcox v. Leach, 123-74; Collins v. Bryan, 124-738; Whitman v. Dickey, 124-741. That county may also take a deed, see section 8030.

Part 5. Redemption from Tax Sales

8038. Manner of redemption. The owner or occupant of any land sold for taxes, or any person having a lien thereon or any interest or estate therein, may redeem the same, at any time within one year after the day of such sale, by paying the sheriff for the use of such purchaser, his heirs or assigns, the sum mentioned in his certificate, with interest thereon at the rate of twenty per centum per annum from the date of purchase, together with all other taxes subsequently paid, whether for any year previous or subsequent to such sale, and interest thereon at the same rate from the date of such payment, together with all costs and expenditures made or incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. The sheriff shall enter a memorandum of the redemption in the list of sales and give a receipt therefor to the person redeeming the same, for which he may charge a fee of twenty-five cents, to be paid by the person redeeming, and shall hold the redemption money paid, subject to the order of the purchaser, his agent or attorney. But if any such purchaser, other than a county or other municipal corporation, shall suffer such real estate to be again sold for taxes, he shall be entitled to only ten per cent interest, instead of twenty per cent, as allowed in this and the next preceding section. Infants, idiots, and insane persons may redeem any land belonging to them within one year after the expiration of such disability on like terms as if the redemption had been made within one year from the date of said sale and from the date of each subsequent payment of taxes thereon at the rate of twenty per centum per annum on the several amounts so paid by the purchaser until redemption.

Rev., s. 2913; 1901, c. 558, ss. 11, 12.

To be entitled to redeem, the owner must pay or tender, in apt time, the tax with interest and costs, and show prima facie title in himself: Headman v. Comrs., 177-261; Townsend v. Drainage Comrs., 174-556; Lumber Co. v. Pearce, 166-588; Green v. Dunn, 162-340.

Where tax debtor paid amount demanded by sheriff to redeem land from tax sale, such payment constituted a redemption, though sheriff erroneously computed amount due: Beck v. Meroney, 135-532.

In order to entitle a minor to an extension of time for redemption of land sold for taxes, beyond statutory period, he must have been owner of property at time of sale: McMillan v. Hogan, 129-314.

Where owner of land has until a certain day to redeem land sold for taxes, a tender of tax on that day by owner, or agent, is in time: Thomas v. Nichols, 127-319.

Where land belonging to wife was listed for taxation by her husband and was sold for non-payment of taxes, no tender to redeem having been made by her, or any one for her or claiming under her, a tender made by husband was ineffectual, he having no "estate or interest" in the land, notwithstanding birth of issue: Eames v. Armstrong, 146-1.

Where owner of land pays sheriff the taxes, costs and interest on land sold for taxes, and sheriff tenders money to purchaser, it is sufficient, though payment was made to sheriff by check: Beck v. Meroney, 135-532.

A remainderman has two years in which to redeem from a tax sale, and this applies to taxes of the city of Greensboro: Tiddy v. Graves, 127-502.

8039. To whose benefit it inures. Any redemption made shall inure to the benefit of the person having the legal or equitable title to the property redeemed, subject to the right of the person making the same to be reimbursed by the person benefited, which reimbursement is hereby made a condition precedent to the vesting of any interest or estate, under the benefits of this section, in the real estate redeemed in the person whose duty it is to make such reimbursement.

Rev., s. 2914; 1901, c. 558, s. 11.

When land is sold for taxes in this state the purchaser, during time allowed for redemption, has a statutory lien upon the land for taxes, costs and interest; but, when taxes and charges are paid within year allowed for redemption, lien is discharged by payment: Beck v. Meroney, 135-534.

In selling lands for taxes, sheriff acts under statutory power which must be strictly pursued, and he must not only do the acts which are required to bring his sale within the power, but he must do them within time prescribed: Seymour v. Cohen, 67-346.

ART. 15. SHERIFF'S SETTLEMENT OF TAXES

Part 1. Settlements With State Treasurer

8040. Record of settlement of taxes kept. Every sheriff shall keep a record of the taxes collected by him from the clerk of the court, register of deeds, and under schedule B of license taxes in this chapter. A suitable book for the purpose shall be provided by the state auditor for recording all forfeitures, arrears from insolvents, double taxes and taxes on unlisted subjects; and on the first Monday in December in each year the sheriff shall deliver, on oath, to the board of commissioners a statement setting forth all sums received to that date not previously accounted for, the date of such receipts, the person from whom received, the amount received from each person, the subjects on which received, and the aggregate amounts, accompanied by an affidavit taken and subscribed before the clerk of the commissioners and attested by him, that the statement is correct, and that no receipts have been omitted; and the register of deeds shall record the same in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall, before the second Monday in December, send an abstract of such statement, with the affidavit, to the state auditor, on a blank to be furnished by the state auditor, record the same in a book kept in his office for that purpose, and keep a copy of the same in a conspicuous place in the courthouse until the first day of January next ensuing.

Rev., s. 5244; 1917, c. 234, s. 89; 1919, c. 92, s. 100.

8041. How insolvents allowed. No tax due from insolvents shall be credited to the sheriff in settlements with the state auditor except such as shall be allowed by the board of commissioners, a list whereof, containing the names and amounts and subscribed by the sheriff, shall be returned by him to the board of commissioners, and the same shall be allowed only on his making oath that he has been at the dwelling-house or usual place of abode of each of the taxpayers and could not there or elsewhere in the county find any property wherewith to discharge his taxes or such part thereof as is returned unpaid, and that the persons named in the list were insolvent at the time when by law he ought to have endeavored to collect the taxes. Such list shall be recorded in the commissioners' docket and a copy thereof shall be returned to the state auditor on or before the day of the settlement of the sheriff with the treasurer.

8042. Time and manner of settlement. The sheriff or other accounting officer shall, on or before the second Monday of January in each year, settle his state tax account with the commissioners of his county and pay the amount for which said sheriff or collector is liable to the treasurer of the state, in such manner or at such place as he shall direct, on or before the third Monday of said month: Provided, the state treasurer may extend the time on a sufficient amount to cover the state tax on the land sales in each county to the first Monday in May. The commissioners shall forthwith report to the state auditor the amount due from such accounting officer, setting forth therein the net amount due to each fund; and the treasurer, upon a statement from the state auditor, shall open an account against such officer and debit him accordingly. Upon the failure of the board of county commissioners to make this report to the state auditor on or before the third Monday of January of each year, or if a report has been filed which is not correct and the commissioners fail to file an amended and corrected report within thirty days after being notified so to do by the state auditor, the commissioners of such county shall each personally be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars, and it shall be the duty of the state auditor forthwith to institute an action in the county of Wake to enforce the same. The sheriff or tax collector, in making his settlements as aforesaid, shall file with the commissioners a duplicate of the list required in this chapter. In such settlement the sheriff or other officer shall be charged with the amount of public tax as the same appears by the abstract of the taxables transmitted to the state auditor; also with all double taxes on unlisted property by him received, and with other tax which he may have collected or for which he is chargeable. The state auditor shall give to each sheriff or tax collector a certified statement embracing the subjects of taxation contained in both lists and the amount of tax on each subject which the sheriff or tax collector shall deposit with the clerk of the commissioners of his county for public inspection. The sheriffs and tax collectors shall receive five per cent on all taxes collected by them for state, county, township, school district, or other purposes whatsoever, up to the sum of fifty thousand dollars, and upon all such sums so collected by him in excess thereof he shall receive two and one-half per cent commission, and the sheriffs or tax collectors shall receive for their own use, in addition to other fees or salary received by them, commission of five per cent on all privilege and license taxes collected under schedule B of the revenue act, and any provision in any local act in conflict with this provision is hereby repealed. All laws and clauses of laws, whether general or special, in conflict herewith are hereby repealed: Provided further, that this section shall not apply so as to affect the compensation of the sheriff or tax collector of Buncombe county as fixed by private statute.

Rev., s. 5245; 1917, c. 234, s. 101; 1919, c. 92, s. 101.

While the office of sheriff is a constitutional one, yet the regulation of fees is within the control of the legislature, and same may be reduced during term of the incumbent: Comrs. v. Stedman, 141-448.

Where this section fixes the commissions to be paid to the sheriff at five per cent on all taxes, etc., up to the sum of fifty thousand dollars, and upon all sums in excess thereof at two and one-half per cent, the direction to the auditor to deduct five per cent cannot, by implication, repeal the clearly expressed limitation upon the commissions given sheriff, and this is clearly an inadvertence: Comrs. v. Stedman, 141-448.

A sheriff is entitled to commissions for the collection of school tax: Board v. Comrs., 137-63.

A sheriff whose term expires is entitled to collect the taxes on the lists in his hands and to receive commissions therefor, notwithstanding the office has been placed upon a salary basis for his successor: Comrs. v. Bain, 173-377; but he receives only the salary if reelected, Mills v. Deaton, 170-386.

8043. Deductions allowed sheriff. The state auditor, in making the settlement of the amount due from the sheriff or tax collector aforesaid, shall deduct from the list returned—

1. Taxes on personal property certified by the clerk of the commissioners of the county, by order of the commissioners, to be insolvent and uncollectible.
2. All overpayments made in former settlements by reason of any error in the clerk's abstracts of taxables.
3. The commission allowed by law.

Rev., s. 5246; 1917, c. 234, s. 102; 1919, c. 92, s. 102.

The sheriff cannot use as a set-off or counterclaim against his liability for taxes a claim which he holds against the county: Comrs. v. Hall, 177-490; Graded School v. McDowell, 157-316.

8044. Sheriff's compensation for settlement. For his settlement with the state treasurer the sheriff or tax collector shall be allowed by said board of commissioners, and deducted from the amount due the state, three dollars for each day he may be actually necessarily engaged therein with the commissioners at the county-seat.

Rev., s. 5247; 1917, c. 234, s. 103; 1919, c. 92, s. 103.

8045. Penalty for failure to settle. In every case of failure by the sheriff or other accounting officer to settle his account within sixty days from the time prescribed by section 8042 for such settlement, and to take the oath required in his settlement and pay the amount due to the treasurer, the state auditor shall forthwith report to the treasurer the account of such sheriff or officer, as shown by abstract of listed and unlisted taxables furnished by the register of deeds or auditor for such county, deducting therefrom for commissions, but adding thereto one thousand dollars and ten per centum of the amount of taxes with which said sheriff is charged for the amount of taxes supposed not to appear in the list transmitted by the register of deeds or auditor, and furnish him a copy of the official bond of the said officer and his sureties; and if the whole amount be not paid, the treasurer, on motion of the solicitor in superior court of Wake county, before the clerk thereof, within thirty days after default shall have occurred, shall recover judgment against him and his sureties, without other notice than is given by the delinquency of the officer; and to the end that obligations and names may be known, the clerk of the superior court shall, on or before the second Monday in each year, transmit to the state auditor a copy, certified under the seal of the court, of the bond of the sheriff and his sureties, upon pain for his default of forfeiting to the state one thousand dollars, which the state auditor shall and is hereby specially charged to collect in like manner and at such times as is provided in this section.

Rev., s. 5248; 1917, c. 234, s. 104; 1919, c. 92, s. 104.

The act of assembly authorizing the summary method of obtaining judgment against sheriff who is delinquent in settling state taxes is constitutional, and the settled law of this state: Worth v. Cox, 89-44; Prairie v. Jenkins, 75-545; Oates v. Darden, 5-500.

Demand is not necessary before suit by the county treasurer on a sheriff's bond, as sheriff is required by law to settle on or before a certain day: McGuire v. Williams, 123-349; Prairie v. Jenkins, 75-545.

8046. Penalties may be released. The treasurer of the state, with the advice and approval of the attorney-general, is hereby authorized, when in the judgment of these officers it may be best to secure the interest of the state and will not lose any lien held by the state, to grant indulgence to defendants in execution and relinquish penalties upon payment of amount of dues owing to the state; and likewise to bid for in behalf of the state and purchase property of said defendants when deemed necessary to secure the payment of the dues.

Rev., s. 5252; 1917, c. 234, s. 106; 1919, c. 92, s. 106.

8047. Sheriff may recover overpayment. If a sheriff or tax collector shall, in consequence of an error in the abstract of taxes sent to the state auditor, or otherwise, be charged with more than the true amount with which he should be chargeable, and pay the amount so charged in excess to the treasurer of the state, the auditor shall, upon the certificate of the board of commissioners setting forth the nature of such error, give his warrant upon the treasurer of the state for the amount so paid in excess, and the treasurer shall pay the same.

Rev., s. 5261; 1917, c. 234, s. 80; 1919, c. 92, s. 80.

The errors for which deduction is to be made under this section consist of mistakes in abstract of taxables, and not errors made in former settlements: Comrs. v. Hall, 177-490, and cases cited.

Part 2. Settlement of County Taxes

8048. Time for settlement of county taxes. The sheriff or tax collector shall pay the county taxes to the county treasurer or other lawful officer. He shall at no time retain over three thousand dollars for a longer time than ten days, under a penalty of two per centum per month to the county upon all sums so unlawfully retained, and shall, on oath, render a statement to the board of commissioners at their monthly meeting of the amount in his hands. On or before the first Monday of February in each year the sheriff shall account to the county treasurer or other lawful officer for all taxes due the county for the fiscal year, and on failing to do so he shall pay the county treasurer a penalty of two per centum per month on all sums unpaid, and this shall be continued until final settlement: Provided, the board of county commissioners may in their discretion relieve the sheriff or tax collector of said penalty of two per centum per month upon payment in full of the county taxes: Provided further, the county commissioners may extend the time of settlement of county taxes by the sheriff of the county to the first Monday in May.

Rev., s. 5249; 1917, c. 234, s. 105; 1919, c. 92, s. 105.

8049. Manner of settlement. The sheriff or tax collector shall be charged with the sums appearing by the tax list as due for the county taxes, and shall be allowed to deduct therefrom, in like manner as is prescribed by law in regard to his settlement of the state taxes, all insolvents and uncollectible poll taxes, and also the amount of county tax on the lands bid off by the county, and costs and fees, which shall be, for making a deed, fifty cents; for registering, twenty-five cents; and such other necessary sums as were actually paid by the sheriff: Provided, a majority of any board of county commissioners may extend the time for collecting and settlement of county taxes in the respective counties to such time as they may deem expedient, not to extend beyond the first of May in the year following in which taxes were levied: Provided further, that any sheriff, tax collector or county treasurer who shall use any part of the county or state taxes otherwise than as directed by law shall forfeit double the amount of his commission on county and state taxes for the year in which he so misused said taxes. No mortgage or lien on any property shall be superior to the taxes on such property, whether said mortgage or lien was given prior or subsequent to the levy of the taxes.

Rev., s. 5250; 1917, c. 234, s. 107; 1919, c. 92, s. 107.

Where sheriff failed to settle for taxes within time appointed by law and not having had allowance made him by commissioners for insolvents at time and in manner prescribed by law, he cannot have such allowances made by the court in an action brought against him on his official bond for balance due by him on tax list: Comrs. v. Wall, 117-377. He cannot use as a set-off or counterclaim errors made in former settlements: Comrs. v. Hall, 177-490.

Sureties on sheriff's bond, who have had to pay for his default, cannot recover amount from county commissioners because they failed to comply with this section: Hudson v. McArthur, 152-445.

8050. Auditing accounts of officers. The board of county commissioners, at their last regular or other subsequent meeting in each year, shall appoint one or more of their number, not to exceed three, to be present at the accounting and settlements between the sheriff and county treasurer provided for in the preceding section, and also to audit and settle accounts of the county treasurer and all other county officers authorized to receive or disburse county funds. The account so audited shall be reported to the board of county commissioners, and when approved by them shall be filed with the clerk and recorded on his book, and shall be prima facie evidence of their correctness, and impeachable only for fraud or special error: Provided, the compensation allowed the committee for their services shall not exceed three dollars per day each for the time actually spent in said settlements, and there shall be no allowance for extra clerical aid.

Rev., s. 5251; 1917, c. 234, s. 108; 1919, c. 92, s. 108.

The auditing of account of sheriff by county commissioners is prima facie evidence of its correctness, and it is impeachable only for fraud or special error: Williamson v. Jones, 127-

178; Comrs. v. Kerner, 127-181; Comrs. v. White, 123-534; Comrs. v. Wall, 117-377; Suttle v. Doggett, 87-203; Davenport v. McKee, 98-509—and when account is not true it is prima facie fraudulent, Comrs. v. Taylor, 77-404.

All school taxes are included in the accounting to be made between the county treasurer and the sheriff, and for the failure to pay over such taxes, whether exclusively school taxes or of that part collected for county purposes, sheriff is liable for statutory penalty: Tillery v. Candler, 118-888.

8051. Penalty for failure to account with county. In case the sheriff of a county shall fail, neglect, or refuse to account with the county treasurer and auditing committee as above required, or to pay what may rightfully be found due on such accounts, he shall forfeit and pay to the state for the use of the county a penalty of twenty-five hundred dollars. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer, and if he neglect or refuse to perform it, it shall be the duty of the chairman of the board of commissioners to cause an action to be brought in the superior court of the county on the bond of the sheriff, against him and his sureties, to recover the amount owing by him and the penalty aforesaid. If the sheriff shall fraudulently and corruptly fail to account as aforesaid, he shall be criminally liable thereupon in like manner and with same penalties imposed for such criminal defalcation as provided in section 8045 for failure to settle the state taxes.

Rev., s. 5253; 1917, c. 234, s. 109; 1919, c. 92, s. 109.

For action on sheriff's bond, see section 3930.

The collection of revenues is under the controlling power of the legislature, and sheriffs and their bondsmen are affected with notice thereof and subject to its exercise. It enters into and becomes a part of their contract with state, and is as binding as any express condition of the bond: Worth v. Cox, 89-44.

Where a sheriff's settlement of one tax fund is made partially by an amount deducted from another tax fund, settlement exonerates him and his surety from liability on the bond for taxes settled; he and his sureties on the bond for the taxes misappropriated, in an action for failure to settle the same, are liable for such defalcation: McGuire v. Williams, 123-349.

School taxes are included in the accounting and sheriff liable to penalty for failure to settle: Tillery v. Candler, 118-888.

An account stated and settlement made between parties (here a county and its tax collector) have the force of a contract, and operate as a bar to a subsequent accounting, except upon a specific allegation of fraud or mistake: Suttle v. Doggett, 87-203.

One who is specially deputed by a sheriff to collect taxes continues to be deputy for that purpose after resignation by his principal; and the sureties upon his bond are liable for the money by him collected after that time: Perry v. Campbell, 63-257.

Fact that tax books were attached in a suit against sheriff by his creditors subsequently to the time when he should have settled with commissioners, was no defense to action instituted for the collection of the balance of taxes due, nor can sheriff be excused upon ground that he misunderstood the order of reference made in the action: Comrs. v. Wall, 117-377.

Where an action is brought against sheriff for failure to collect and pay over taxes, he is properly chargeable with amount of the tax list, and the burden of proving a discharge of any part thereof is upon him: Ibid.

Where sheriff had rendered an account of the taxes collected by him in a settlement with county treasurer, which account was not itemized: Held, in an action upon his bond, that it was not necessary for the complaint to specify any errors in such settlement: Comrs. v. Taylor, 77-404.

Bond of sheriff, conditioned for the due collection of taxes during his continuance in office, is liable for taxes collected by him upon a tax list which had been in the hands of his predecessor in office: Comrs. v. Taylor, 77-404.

Where defense of sheriff to an action on his bond for taxes due by him is a refusal of credits to which he claims he is entitled, he must set out such credits specifically in his answer: Williamson v. Jones, 127-178.

The treasurer is the proper officer to bring action for the public money, and to make the county commissioners liable for failure to perform their duty it is necessary to allege and prove negligent failure or wilful refusal: Bray v. Barnard, 109-44.

Previous settlements with sheriff, when approved by the board of commissioners, are prima facie correct, and the burden of proving to the contrary rests upon them: Comrs. v. White, 123-534.

8052. County treasurer to fix day for settlement. In each year the county treasurer shall give five days notice to all the county officers (except the sheriff) authorized to receive or disburse the county funds, to appear at the courthouse on a certain day in January, before him and the committee appointed by the board of commissioners, and present an account of all sums received or disbursed for the county, with their vouchers, and any officer failing to attend and account shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. The accounts, when audited, shall be reported to the board of commissioners at their next meeting, and if approved, shall be filed with the clerk and recorded in their proceedings, together with their approval, and shall be deemed prima facie correct,

Rev., s. 5262; 1917, c. 234, s. 110; 1919, c. 92, s. 110.

CHAPTER 132

UNITED STATES LANDS

SEC.

8053. Acquisition of lands for specified purposes authorized; concurrent jurisdiction reserved.
8054. Unused lands to revert to state.
8055. Exemption of such lands from taxation.
8056. Conveyances of such lands to be recorded.
8057. Forest reserve in Western Carolina authorized; powers conferred.
8058. Acquisition of lands for river and harbor improvement; reservation of right to serve process.
8059. Acquisition of lands for public buildings; cession of jurisdiction; exemption from taxation.

8053. Acquisition of lands for specified purposes authorized; concurrent jurisdiction reserved. The United States is authorized, by purchase or otherwise, to acquire title to any tract or parcel of land in the state of North Carolina, not exceeding twenty-five acres, for the purpose of erecting thereon any custom-house, courthouse, postoffice, or other building, including lighthouse, light-keepers' dwellings, life-saving stations, buoys and coal depots and buildings connected therewith, or for the establishment of a fishcultural station and the erection thereon of such buildings and improvements as may be necessary for the successful operations of such fishcultural station. The consent to acquisition by the United States is upon the express condition that the state of North Carolina shall so far retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States over such lands as that all civil and criminal process issued from the courts of the state of North Carolina may be executed thereon in like manner as if this authority had not been given, and that the state of North Carolina also retains authority to punish all violations of its criminal laws committed on any such tract of land.

Rev., s. 5426; Code, ss. 3080, 3083; 1887, c. 136; 1899, c. 10; 1870-1, c. 44, s. 5.

8054. Unused lands to revert to state. The consent given in the preceding section is upon consideration of the United States building lighthouses, lighthouse-keepers' dwellings, life-saving stations, buoys, coal depots, fish stations, post-offices, custom-houses, and other buildings connected therewith, on the tracts or parcels of land so purchased, or that may be purchased; and that the title to land so conveyed to the United States shall revert to the state unless the construction of the aforementioned buildings be completed thereon within ten years from the date of the conveyance from the grantor.

Rev., s. 5426; Code, ss. 3080, 3083; 1899, c. 10; 1887, c. 136; 1870-1, c. 44, s. 5.

8055. Exemption of such lands from taxation. The lots, parcels, or tracts of land acquired under this chapter, together with the tenements and appurtenances for the purpose mentioned in this chapter, shall be exempt from taxation.

Rev., s. 5428; Code, s. 3082; 1870-1, c. 44, s. 3.

Land which the owner has contracted to sell to United States is not exempt from taxation until the title passes: Land Co. v. Comrs., 174-634.

8056. Conveyances of such lands to be recorded. All deeds, conveyances, or other title papers for the same shall be recorded, as in other cases, in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the lands so conveyed may lie, in the same manner and under the same regulations as other deeds and conveyances are now recorded, and in like manner may be recorded a sufficient description by metes and bounds, courses and distances, of any tract or legal division of any public land belonging to the United States, which may be set apart by the general government for the purpose before mentioned, by an order, patent, or other official document or paper so describing such land.

Rev., s. 5429; Code, s. 3081; 1870-1, c. 44, s. 2; 1872-3, c. 201.

8057. Forest reserve in western Carolina authorized; powers conferred. The United States is authorized to acquire by purchase, or by condemnation with adequate compensation, except as hereinafter provided, such lands in western North Carolina as in the opinion of the federal government may be needed for the establishment of a national forest reserve in that region. This consent is given upon condition that the state of North Carolina shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over such lands so far that civil process in all cases, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of the state of North Carolina against any person charged with the commission of any crime without or within said jurisdiction, may be executed thereon in like manner as if this consent had not been given. Power is hereby conferred upon the congress of the United States to pass such laws as it may deem necessary to the acquisition as hereinbefore provided, for incorporation in such national forest reserve such forest-covered lands lying in western North Carolina as in the opinion of the federal government may be needed for this purpose, but as much as two hundred acres of any tract of land occupied as a home by bona fide residents in this state on the eighteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and one, shall be exempt from the provisions of this section. Power is hereby conferred upon congress to pass such laws and to make or provide for the making of such rules and regulations, of both civil and criminal nature, and to provide punishment therefor, as in its judgment may be necessary for the management, control, and protection of such lands as may be from time to time acquired by the United States under the provisions of this section.

Rev., s. 5430; 1901, c. 17.

8058. Acquisition of lands for river and harbor improvement; reservation of right to serve process. The consent of the legislature of the state is hereby given to the acquisition by the United States of any tracts, pieces, or parcels of land within the limits of the state, by purchase or condemnation, for use as sites for locks and dams, or for any other purpose in connection with the improvement of rivers and harbors within and on the borders of the state. The consent hereby given is in accordance with the seventeenth clause of the eighth section of the first article of the constitution of the United States, and with the acts of congress in such cases made and provided; and this state retains concurrent jurisdiction with the United States over any lands acquired and held in pursuance of the provisions of this section, so far as that all civil and criminal process issued under authority of any law of this state may be executed in any part of the premises so acquired, or the buildings or structures thereon erected.

1907, c. 681.

8059. Acquisition of lands for public buildings; cession of jurisdiction; exemption from taxation. The consent of the state is hereby given, in accordance with the seventeenth clause, eighth section, of the first article of the constitution of the United States, to the acquisition by the United States, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, of any land in the state required for the sites for custom-houses, courthouses, postoffices, arsenals, or other public buildings whatever, or for any other purposes of the government.

Exclusive jurisdiction in and over any land so acquired by the United States shall be and the same is hereby ceded to the United States for all purposes except the service upon such sites of all civil and criminal process of the courts of this state; but the jurisdiction so ceded shall continue no longer than the said United States shall own such lands. The jurisdiction ceded shall not vest until the United States shall have acquired title to said lands by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise.

So long as the said lands shall remain the property of the United States when acquired as aforesaid, and no longer, the same shall be and continue exempt and exonerated from all state, county, and municipal taxation, assessment, or other charges which may be levied or imposed under the authority of this state.

1907, c. 25.

1915, c. 230, s. 1; 1909, c. 555, s. 1; 1917, c. 34.

8061. Congressional standards adopted. No trader or other person shall buy or sell, or otherwise use in trading, any other weights and measures than are made and used according to the standard prescribed by the congress of the United States: Provided, that this chapter shall not prevent the citizens of the state from buying and selling grain by measure as may be agreed upon between the parties.

Rev., s. 3063; Code, s. 3837; R. C., c. 117, s. 1; 1741, c. 32, s. 2; 1866, c. 125.

History of legislation in regard to weights and measures reviewed in Nance v. R., 149-366.

8062. Area of acre. The measure of an acre of land shall be equal to a rectangle of sixteen poles or perches in length and ten in breadth, and shall contain one hundred and sixty square perches or poles, or four thousand eight hundred and forty square yards, six hundred and forty such acres being contained in a square mile.

Rev., s. 3065; Code, s. 3843; R. C., c. 117, s. 7; 33 Edw. I, c. 6.

8063. County commissioners to provide standards. The board of commissioners of each county shall, at the charge of their county, procure standard sealed weights of half hundred, quarter hundred, ten pounds, five pounds, two pounds, and one pound, one-half pound, one-quarter pound, two ounces, one ounce, one-half ounce, gauging rod and waist sticks, yardsticks, half-bushel, peck, half-peck, quarter-peck, and one-eighth peck; gallon, half-gallon, quart, pint, half-pint, and gill measure, of the United States standard, sealed and branded "N. C."

Rev., s. 3064; Code, s. 3838; 1866-7, c. 126; 1881, c. 199.

8064. Penalty for using untested standards. If any person, after demand by the standard-keeper for permission to examine and adjust the same, shall buy, sell or barter by any weight or measure which shall not be tried by the standard, and sealed or stamped as aforesaid, he shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay forty dollars, and if any person shall sell and deliver by less measure than the standard, he shall forfeit and pay for each offense forty dollars to the person suing therefor.

Rev., s. 3067; Code, s. 3842; 1893, c. 100.

The penalty applies to using untested weights and measures in buying, selling or bartering: Nance v. R. R., 149-366.

ART. 2. STATE STANDARD-KEEPER

8065. Appointment; bond; keeper of capitol to act. The governor is authorized to appoint a suitable person to take care of the balances, weights and measures, and perform the duties relating to weights and measures heretofore imposed on the governor, and such other duties as the governor may prescribe, touching said balances and weights and measures; and he shall take from such person a bond with surety, to be approved by the governor, in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, for the safe-keeping of said weights and measures and for the performance of all his duties. And in case the governor fails to appoint, or the person appointed fails to qualify or discharge said duties, the keeper of the capitol shall be ex officio the keeper of weights and measures, and discharge the duties and receive the compensation provided.

Rev., s. 3068; Code, s. 3844; 1866-7, res., p. 228; 1881, c. 199, s. 3.

8066. To procure and supply standards to counties. It shall be the duty of the keeper of weights and measures, under the direction of the governor, to procure and furnish, at prime cost, to any of the counties, upon an order of the board of county commissioners, any of the standard sealed weights and measures required by law to be kept, and he is hereby authorized, by and with the approval of the governor, to contract for the manufacture of plain sealed weights substantially made of iron, steel, or brass, as the county ordering may direct; yardstick made of substantial wood, each end neatly covered with metal, sealed, marked and stamped "N. C."; half-bushel, peck, half-peck, quarter-peck, and one-eighth peck, made of substantial, well-seasoned wood, with secure metallic binding and casing; gallon, half-gallon, quart, pint, half-pint, and gill measure, made of light sheet copper with iron handles. He shall procure and furnish as herein provided to the board of commissioners of any county ordering the same, dry and liquid sealed measures and yardstick made of brass or copper.

Rev., s. 3069; Code, s. 3839; 1881, c. 199, s. 2.

8067. Counties to pay costs of standards. It shall be the duty of the state standard-keeper to supply to each county which shall call for the same such standard weights as the standard-keeper of such county shall demand, duly sealed, such county paying to the state treasurer the actual cost of such weights, upon the certificate of the state standard-keeper.

Rev., s. 3070; Code, s. 3846; 1866-7, c. 126, s. 1.

8068. To keep record. It shall be the duty of the state standard-keeper to keep a book, in which he shall keep an accurate account of all the weights and measures by him delivered, and the expenses incurred by him in the purchase of such weights and measures, subject to the inspection of the state treasurer and the general assembly.

Rev., s. 3071; Code, s. 3847; 1866-7, c. 126, s. 2.

ART. 3. COUNTY STANDARD-KEEPER

8069. Appointment; term; oath; bond. The weights and measures, stamps and brands thus provided shall be kept at the courthouse of the respective counties by a standard-keeper, to be elected by the board of commissioners for the term of two years; the person thus elected shall, before the board of county commissioners, take the oath required for public officers and also an oath of office, and shall give bond, with good and sufficient surety, payable to the state of North Carolina, in the sum of two hundred dollars, conditioned for the safe-keeping of weights and measures, stamps and brands of said county, and for the faithful performance of the duties of his office.

Rev., ss. 306, 3072; Code, s. 3840; R. C., c. 117, s. 4; 1741, c. 32, s. 3; 1816, c. 901, s. 2; 1827, c. 22, s. 3.

8070. Removal of standards. The standard-keeper may remove the weights and measures, stamps and brands from the courthouse, not to exceed sixty days in any one year, for the purpose of testing weights and measures throughout the county.

Rev., s. 3072.

8071. Testing and marking standards; penalty. Every person, firm, or corporation using weights and measures of any and every kind which shall be used in buying or selling or bartering, or for hire, or in fixing or determining the amount of toll or charge or rate for any service shall allow or permit the standard-keeper of the county to try, examine, and adjust by the standard, at least once every two years, all the said weights and measures of any and every kind used as aforesaid, and every person, firm, or corporation who shall neglect to comply with the requirements of this section shall forfeit and pay fifty dollars, to be recovered at the suit of the standard-keeper, one-half to his use and the other half to the use of the county wherein the default occurs. It shall be the duty of the standard-keeper, when practicable, to mark, by stamp or brand, the weights or measures found or made to agree with the standard, and shall give a certificate of such examination and adjustment, stating the weights and measures examined and adjusted.

Rev., s. 3073; 1909, s. 695.

Penalty portion of section as to division of recovery held constitutional: Sutton v. Phillips, 116-502; approved in McDonald v. Morrow, 119-674. The penalty applies only to those who use untested weights and measures in buying, selling or bartering: Nance v. R. R., 149-366.

8072. Destruction of unadjusted standards. In every instance where the standard-keeper shall have before him for adjustment, or shall find in the possession of any person, intending to use the same, any weight or measure that cannot be adjusted so as to meet the requirements of the law, it shall be the duty of the standard-keeper to destroy the same.

Rev., s. 3074; Code, s. 3848; 1866-7, c. 126, s. 4.

8073. Local: Office abolished in certain counties. The office of county standard-keeper is abolished in the following counties, and in these counties the section regulating that office and its duties do not apply: Ashe, Beaufort, Bertie, Bladen, Brunswick, Camden, Cumberland, Currituck, Gaston, Halifax, Lincoln, Montgomery, Moore, Northampton, Rutherford, Swain, Warren, Yadkin, Yancey.

Rev., ss. 3072, 3073; 1909, c. 106 (Ashe); 1909, c. 354 (Camden); 1909, c. 695 (Swain); P. L. 1911, c. 153 (Vance); P. L. 1911, c. 593 (Brunswick, Cumberland, Yadkin).

NOTE.—For local laws regulating standard-keepers in certain counties, see:

Beaufort: P. L. 1913, c. 557; P. L. 1915, c. 17; P. L. 1917, c. 167 (authorizing commissioners to appoint standard-keeper).

Cumberland: P. L. 1911, c. 706 (on complaint commissioners may appoint competent person to examine weights and measures).

Harnett: 1909, c. 725 (purports to bring Harnett within this article).

Nash, Sampson, and Wilson: Rev., s. 3174; 1909, c. 340; P. L. 1911, c. 446 (after a person's standards are once tested he is not required to have them tested again unless on oath of a responsible person in the county filed with the standard-keeper that he has reason to believe such standards are not properly adjusted, and notice thereof given the owner of the standards. For failure to have standards examined after notice, the owner is liable to the penalty above provided for using untested standards).

ART. 4. SURVEYORS

8074. Standard surveyor's chain; tests. The standard measure for a surveyor's chain shall be twenty-two standard yards, a standard half or two-pole chain shall be eleven standard yards, a standard quarter or one-pole chain shall be five and one-half standard yards; but every person using a surveyor's chain, half-chain, or quarter-chain for measuring land shall every two years test the same in the manner hereinafter provided.

Rev., s. 3075; 1889, c. 409; 1899, c. 665.

8075. Using untested chain misdemeanor. If any person who shall use any chain for measuring land without having the same first measured and sealed by the standard-keeper, or who shall use the same for a longer period than two years without bringing it to the standard-keeper and having the same measured and sealed by him, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding ten dollars.

Rev., s. 3684; 1889, c. 409, s. 2.

8076. Tests for magnetic variation and for chain. Every surveyor operating in any of the counties of this state with magnetic instruments, whether in a public or private capacity, shall, between the first day of January and thirty-first day of December in each and every year, carefully test his needle upon the official meridian monuments in the county in which he resides or the nearest county in which such monuments have been erected, by adjusting his instrument over the intersection of the lines cut into the top of one of the meridian monuments so established and sighting to the intersection of the lines cut into the top of the other meridian monument, noting the variation of the magnetic from the true meridian and the direction thereof, and shall test the chain or other instrument of linear measure upon the distance from center to center as indicated by intersecting lines of the two beams, tablets, or other official monuments set at or near the county courthouse for this purpose, noting the error of such instrument as compared with the standard of the monuments.

Rev., s. 3076; 1899, c. 665, s. 1; 1901, c. 642.

8077. Magnetic variation to be recorded with survey. On every official record of a survey of lands made after the first day in July, nineteen hundred and one, in any county in which meridian monuments have been erected, there shall be entered by the surveyor making such survey a record as to the date of testing the magnetic instrument used, and the amount of declination or variation of the magnetic needle indicated at such test.

Rev., s. 3076.

8078. Surveys in another county; data as to variation recorded. Before making surveys in any county other than the one in which the magnetic instrument and instruments for linear measure to be used have already been tested, said surveyor shall procure in writing from the register of deeds of the county in which said monuments have been established, nearest to the point where the survey is to be made, a statement giving the declination of the magnetic needle for the year in which it was last determined, and the rate and direction of the variation of said magnetic needle since that time, and this data shall be recorded as a part of the record of his survey. But no surveyor shall be required to go outside of the county in which he resides for the purpose of testing the instruments herein named.

Rev., s. 3077; 1899, c. 665, s. 1.

8079. Tests returned to register; records kept. Such tests and the correction, if any, resulting therefrom shall be returned by the surveyor in writing and under oath to the register of deeds for the county in which such meridian is situate within ten days from the taking of the observations, setting forth the name of the surveyor, his residence, the character of the instrument tested, the date of the observations, the declination east or west of the magnetic needle from the true meridian, together with a fee of ten cents for filing and registering the same; and such return shall be filed and registered by the register of deeds in a book properly ruled and lettered, to be furnished by the board of commissioners of the county, to be used for such purpose exclusively and entitled "The Meridian Record."

Rev., s. 3078; 1899, c. 665, s. 1.

8080. Meridian monuments protected by county commissioners. It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners to maintain and protect the meridian monuments and tablets or monuments for the testing of chains or other instruments of linear measure established by the state, or national surveys coöperating with the county authorities, in good order and condition as the official standards of the county.

Rev., s. 3079; 1899, c. 665, s. 2.

8081. Defacing meridian monuments misdemeanor. If any person shall in any manner injure, deface, remove, or destroy any meridian monument or tablets, or any part thereof, or shall fail, neglect, or refuse to do and perform any act, matter, or thing by law required of him to be done in connection with such monuments or tablets, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine or be imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Rev., s. 3743; 1899, c. 665, s. 3; 1893, c. 282, s. 4.

CHAPTER 134

WRECKS

SEC.

- 8082. Number and boundaries of wreck districts.
- 8083. Commissioners of wrecks; appointment, residence, and term of office.
- 8084. Commissioners to give bond.
- 8085. Commissioners to take oath of office.
- 8086. Duty of commissioners.
- 8087. Salvage to be paid, or its payment secured, before release of goods.
- 8088. Adjustment of salvage where the parties cannot agree.
- 8089. Sale of wrecked property for salvage; compensation of commissioner.
- 8090. Compensation of commissioner where there is no sale.
- 8091. Sale of unclaimed property.
- 8092. Proceeds of sale to be paid to clerk of superior court.
- 8093. Disposition of proceeds of sale by clerk.
- 8094. Proof of ownership of property sold.
- 8095. Stranded property to be reported; failure to report misdemeanor.
- 8096. Expenses to be deducted from proceeds of sales.
- 8097. Violation of chapter a misdemeanor.
- 8098. Commissioner violating chapter liable for double damages and guilty of a misdemeanor.
- 8099. Interfering with commissioner in the discharge of his duties.

8082. Number and boundaries of wreck districts. The counties of Currituck, Dare, Hyde, Carteret, Onslow, Brunswick, and New Hanover are hereby divided into the following wreck districts, namely:

Currituck.—The first to extend from the Virginia state line to Judy's cove; the second to extend from Judy's cove to Josephus Baum's fish-house; the third to extend from Josephus Baum's fish-house to the county line of Dare.

Dare.—The first to extend from the county line of Currituck to the north point of Oregon inlet; the second to extend from the north point of Oregon inlet to the south point of New inlet; the third to extend from the south point of New inlet to the patrol house between Gull Shoal and Little Kennakeet life-saving stations; the fourth to extend from the last named patrol house to the patrol house between Big Kennakeet and Cape Hatteras life-saving stations; the fifth to extend from the last named patrol house to Creed's Hill life-saving stations; the sixth to extend from Creed's Hill life-saving stations to the county line of Hyde county.

Hyde.—The county of Hyde shall constitute one wreck district, which shall extend from the Dare county line to the Carteret county line.

Carteret.—The first from the Hyde county line to Core Banks life-saving station; the second from Core Banks life-saving station to Old Topsail inlet; the third from Old Topsail inlet to the Onslow county line.

Onslow.—The first from Bogue inlet to New River inlet; the second from New River inlet to the New Hanover county line.

New Hanover and Brunswick.—To extend from the Onslow county line to the South Carolina state line.

Rev., s. 5429; 1899, c. 79, ss. 1-9; 1903, c. 85; 1905, c. 199; 1915, c. 42.

8083. Commissioners of wrecks; appointment, residence and term of office. The governor, whenever it may be necessary, shall appoint a commissioner of wrecks for each of the districts designated in the preceding section. Each commissioner shall reside in the district for which he is appointed, unless separated by navigable waters, in which case the distance shall not exceed three miles. The restrictions as to residence shall not apply to Hyde county. No person who holds any office of profit or trust under the laws of the United States or the state of North Carolina, nor any person who is a pilot, shall hold the office of commissioner of wrecks. The term of office shall be for two years.

Rev., s. 5440; 1899, c. 79, ss. 10, 12, 13; 1903, c. 85; 1907, c. 398.

8084. Commissioners to give bond. Every person appointed a commissioner of wrecks shall enter into a bond, with good and sufficient surety, in the sum of two thousand dollars, payable to the state of North Carolina and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. This bond shall be approved by the board of county commissioners and deposited in the office of the clerk of the superior court.

Rev., s. 305; 1899, c. 79, s. 10.

8085. Commissioners to take oath of office. Every person appointed a commissioner of wrecks, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall go before some officer duly authorized to administer oaths and take an oath to perform faithfully the duties of his office, and the oaths to support the constitution of the state and of the United States.

Rev., s. 5441; 1899, c. 79, s. 11.

8086. Duty of commissioners. Upon the earliest intelligence given that any ship or vessel is stranded, it shall be the duty of the commissioner in whose district the same is stranded, or his duly authorized agent, to repair at once to such wrecked ship or vessel, and upon the permission of its master to summon immediately a sufficient number of men who, acting under the direction of the commissioner or his agent, shall at once proceed to save the cargo and material of such wrecked vessel. As soon as any such stranded property is saved it shall be immediately placed under guard, one guard to be selected by the commissioner or owner representing the same, and one other guard to be selected by the salvors. Such goods or stranded property shall be kept under strict guard until sold or the salvors are paid as provided in this chapter.

Rev., s. 5442; 1899, c. 79, s. 14; 1901, c. 178.

See old cases of interest: Hetfield v. Baum, 35-395; Etheridge v. Jones, 30-100.

8087. Salvage to be paid, or its payment secured, before release of goods. Every person who assists in saving such cargo or material shall, within thirty days after saving the same, be paid a reasonable reward by the owner or master of the stranded vessel, or by the merchant whose vessel or goods are saved. In default of payment of a reasonable compensation the goods or other property so saved shall remain in the joint custody of the commissioner and salvors until all such charges are paid, or until the payment thereof is secured to the satisfaction of the parties saving such goods or other property.

Rev., s. 5443; 1899, c. 79, ss. 14, 15.

8088. Adjustment of salvage when the parties cannot agree. If the parties shall disagree touching the amount of reward or salvage to be paid to the persons employed, the commander, owner, or commissioner who represents the property saved shall choose one disinterested person, and the salvors shall nominate one other, who shall adjust and ascertain the same. If the persons thus chosen cannot agree, they shall choose one other indifferent person as umpire to decide between them: Provided, that the amount to be paid the salvors shall be determined and agreed upon before sale is made of such property.

Rev., s. 5444; 1899, c. 79, s. 16.

8089. Sale of wrecked property for salvage; compensation of commissioner. If the owner of the vessel, or the property which has been saved, shall fail for thirty days after the salvage has been ascertained, either by agreement or as provided for in the preceding section, to pay such salvage, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of wrecks in charge of such stranded or wrecked vessel or other property to sell the same at public sale, after first advertising such sale in the same manner as is required for sales of personal property under execution. Each commissioner shall provide himself with books and shall record in them all such sales by him made. He shall receive for selling any such wrecked or stranded property five per centum on the amount of sales, and in addition thereto he shall receive his actual expenses incurred in going to and returning from the place of the wreck, or where the property is stranded, to be paid out of the gross amount of such sales. At any public sale of stranded property, the salvors may select one person and the commissioner one other, who shall keep an accurate account of the sales, make the collections, settle with the commissioner his fees, and pay to the salvors the amount agreed on or awarded by the referees.

Rev., s. 5445; 1899, c. 79, s. 17; 1901, c. 178; 1905, c. 66.

Old cases of interest: Hetfield v. Baum, 35-395; Etheridge v. Jones, 30-100.

8090. Compensation of commissioner when there is no sale. If any owner or merchant shall remove any such goods or other stranded property from the custody of any commissioner without a sale, then such commissioner shall receive, in addition to his actual expenses incurred for the purposes mentioned in the preceding section, two and one-half per centum on the amount of the value of such property, which amount shall be ascertained in the same manner as is provided for ascertaining the amount of the reward to be paid salvors in those cases where such reward cannot be determined by agreement. No commissioner shall receive any salvage or other reward except the commission prescribed in this chapter.

Rev., s. 5446; 1899, c. 79, ss. 17, 18; 1905, c. 66.

Old cases of interest: Hetfield v. Baum, 35-395; Etheridge v. Jones, 30-100.

8091. Sale of unclaimed property. Whenever any vessel, cargo, or material of any ship or vessel or any other property shall be cast ashore or taken up at sea and brought to shore, and no person is present to claim the same as owner, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of the district where the same is brought or cast ashore to take charge of such property and to proceed to advertise and sell it at public sale, first giving twenty days notice of such sale at three public places.

On making any such sale the commissioner shall, out of the gross proceeds thereof, retain a commission of five per centum as his compensation and the amount awarded to the salvors pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

Rev., s. 5447; 1899, c. 79, ss. 19, 20.

8092. Proceeds of sale to be paid to clerk of superior court. When any commissioner shall undertake to sell any property where no person is or has been present to claim the same, it shall be his duty to notify the clerk of the superior court of his county of such sale. After any such sale is made, the commissioner shall forward to such clerk the proceeds of the sale, after deducting his commission of five per centum and paying the salvors the amount awarded to them as provided in this chapter.

Rev., s. 5448; 1899, c. 79, s. 21.

8093. Disposition of proceeds of sale by clerk. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the superior court to make a record and keep an account of all moneys received by him from any commissioner of wrecks, and he shall advertise in some weekly newspaper published in North Carolina the amount so received, giving a true description of the marks, numbers, and kinds of goods or other stranded property for which the same was sold. Each commissioner shall give the clerk of the superior court all necessary information for the proper enforcement of this section in each return made by him to the clerk. The clerk shall advertise for the space of sixty days, and if no person shall come to claim the money within a year and a day from the date of advertisement, then the clerk holding such money shall transmit the same, after deducting one per centum for his trouble and also after deducting the cost of advertising, to the treasurer of the state for the benefit of the public school funds.

Rev., s. 5449; 1899, c. 79, s. 22.

8094. Proof of ownership of property sold. If any person shall claim to be the owner of any property sold as provided in the third preceding section and shall present his claim to the clerk holding the money arising from the sale of such property, it shall be the duty of such person to prove his title to the satisfaction of the clerk. If any person making a claim to such property be unknown to the clerk, then the clerk shall submit such claim to the consideration of three disinterested persons, one of whom shall be chosen by the claimant, and the decision of such referees shall always be final.

Rev., s. 5450; 1899, c. 79, s. 23.

8095. Stranded property to be reported; failure to report misdemeanor. If any person shall find any wrecked or stranded property on or near the seashore, no person being present to claim the same, he shall as soon as possible give information thereof to the nearest commissioner of wrecks, who shall advertise and sell the same as provided in this chapter. If such finder shall refuse to report the goods so found, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days.

Rev., ss. 3548, 5451; 1899, c. 79, s. 24.

8096. Expenses to be deducted from proceeds of sales. All necessary expenses shall be deducted from the gross proceeds of any sales made under this chapter.

Such necessary expenses shall include only the cost of advertising, guarding, and surveying, when a survey is called by a notary public, as is provided by the Revised Statutes of the United States.

Rev., s. 5452; 1899, c. 79, s. 19.

8097. Violation of chapter a misdemeanor. If any person shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 3562; 1899, c. 79, s. 26.

8098. Commissioner violating chapter liable for double damages and guilty of a misdemeanor. If any commissioner of wrecks shall by fraud or wilful neglect violate any of the provisions of this chapter, or abuse the trust reposed in him, he shall forfeit and pay double the amount of damages to the party aggrieved. He shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall forfeit his office and shall thereafter be incapable of acting as commissioner.

Rev., s. 3563; 1899, c. 79, s. 25.

8099. Interfering with commissioner in the discharge of his duties. If any person shall wilfully and unlawfully resist, delay, or obstruct any commissioner of wrecks in discharging or attempting to discharge his duties as such commissioner, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Rev., s. 3564; 1905, c. 66, s. 2.

CONCERNING THE CONSOLIDATED STATUTES

SEC.

- 8100. Title of revision.
- 8101. Effect as to repealing other statutes.
- 8102. Repeal not to affect rights accrued, nor suits commenced.
- 8103. Offenses and penalties not affected.
- 8104. Pending actions and proceedings not affected.
- 8105. Effect of repeal on persons holding office.
- 8106. What statutes not repealed.

8100. Title of revision. This revision of the statutes may be known and cited as The Consolidated Statutes.

8101. Effect as to repealing other statutes. All public and general statutes not contained in the Consolidated Statutes are hereby repealed, with the exceptions and limitations hereinafter mentioned. No statute or law which has been heretofore repealed shall be revived by the repeal contained in any of the sections of the Consolidated Statutes. All public and general statutes passed at the present session of the general assembly shall be deemed to repeal any conflicting provisions contained in the Consolidated Statutes.

8102. Repeal not to affect rights accrued, nor suits commenced. The repeal of the statutes mentioned in the preceding section shall not affect any act done, or any right accruing, accrued or established, or any action or proceeding had or commenced in any case before the time when such repeal shall take effect; but the proceedings in every such case shall be conformed, when necessary, to the provisions of the Consolidated Statutes.

8103. Offenses and penalties not affected. No offense committed and no penalty or forfeiture incurred under any of the statutes hereby repealed, and before the time when such repeal shall take effect, shall be affected by the repeal.

8105. Effect of repeal on persons holding office. All persons who at this time shall hold any office under any of the acts hereby repealed shall continue to hold the same according to the tenure thereof.

8106. What statutes not repealed. The Consolidated Statutes shall not have the effect to repeal any public-local statute, any public statute which affects only a particular locality, any private statute, any statute relating to the boundary of the state or of any county, any act ceding the lands of the state to the general government, or any statute relating to the Cherokee lands, if the statute referred to was in force on the first day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

8107. Consolidated Statutes effective August 1, 1919. All provisions, chapters, subdivisions of chapters and sections contained in the Consolidated Statutes shall be in force from and after the first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

Adopted April 24, 1868, with amendments to 1920.

See Freeman v. Lide, 176-434.

PREAMBLE

We, the people of the State of North Carolina, grateful to Almighty God, the Sovereign Ruler of nations, for the preservation of the American Union and the existence of our civil, political and religious liberties, and acknowledging our dependence upon Him for the continuance of those blessings to us and our posterity, do, for the more certain security thereof, and for the better government of this state, ordain and establish this Constitution :

Const. 1868.

ARTICLE I

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS

That the great, general and essential principles of liberty and free government may be recognized and established, and that the relations of this state to the union and government of the United States, and those of the people of this state to the rest of the American people may be defined and affirmed, we do declare :

Const. 1868.

Section 1. The equality and rights of men. That we hold it to be self-evident that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, the enjoyment of the fruits of their own labor, and the pursuit of happiness.

Const. 1868; Decl. Independence.

State v. Hay, 126-1006; State v. Hill, 126-139.

Sec. 2. Political power and government. That all political power is vested in, and derived from, the people; all government of right originates from the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole.

Const. 1868; Const. 1776, Decl. Rights, s. 1.

Quinn v. Lattimore, 120-428; Nichols v. McKee, 68-430.

Sec. 3. Internal government of the state. That the people of this state have the inherent, sole and exclusive right of regulating the internal government and police thereof, and of altering and abolishing their constitution and form of government whenever it may be necessary for their safety and happiness; but every such right should be exercised in pursuance of the law, and consistently with the constitution of the United States.

Const. 1868; Const. 1776, Decl. Rights, s. 2.

State v. Railway, 145-496; State v. Herring, 145-418; State v. Hicks, 143-689; State v. Lewis, 142-626; Durham v. Cotton Mills, 141-616; State v. Sutton, 139-574; State v. Holoman, 139-642; State v. Patterson, 134-612; State v. Gallop, 126-979; Humphrey v. Church, 109-132; Winslow v. Winslow, 95-24.

Sec. 4. That there is no right to secede. That this state shall ever remain a member of the American Union; that the people thereof are part of the American nation; that there is no right on the part of the state to secede, and that all attempts, from whatever source or upon whatever pretext, to dissolve said union, or to sever said nation, ought to be resisted with the whole power of the state.

Const. 1868.

Sec. 5. Of allegiance to the United States government. That every citizen of this state owes paramount allegiance to the constitution and government of the United States, and that no law or ordinance of the state in contravention or subversion thereof can have any binding force.

Const. 1868.

Sec. 6. Public debt; bonds issued under ordinance of convention of 1868, 68-69, 69-70, declared invalid; exception. The state shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; nor shall the general assembly assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any tax to pay, either directly or indirectly, expressed or implied, any debt or bond incurred, or issued, by authority of the convention of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, nor any debt or bond incurred or issued by the legislature of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, either at its special session of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight or at its regular sessions of the years one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight and one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine and one thousand eight hundred and seventy, except the bonds issued to fund the interest on the old debt of the state, unless the proposing to pay the same shall have first been submitted to the people and by them ratified by the vote of a majority of all the qualified voters of the state, at a regular election held for that purpose.

APPENDIX I

Sec. 21. Habeas corpus. The privileges of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended.

Const. 1868.

Ex parte Moore, 64-802

Sec. 22. Property qualification. As political rights and privileges are not dependent upon, or modified by, property, therefore no property qualification ought to affect the right to vote or hold office.

Const. 1868.

Wilson v. Charlotte, 74-756.

Sec. 23. Representation and taxation. The people of the state ought not to be taxed or made subject to the payment of any impost or duty without the consent of themselves, or their representatives in general assembly, freely given.

State v. Wheeler, 141-773; Winston v. Taylor, 99-210; Moore v. Fayetteville, 80-154; Worth v. Comrs., 60-617.

Sec. 24. Militia and the right to bear arms. A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed; and, as standing armies in time of peace are dangerous to liberty, they ought not to be kept up, and the military should be kept under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power. Nothing herein contained shall justify the practice of carrying concealed weapons, or prevent the legislature from enacting penal statutes against said practice.

Sec. 25. Right of the people to assemble together. The people have a right to assemble together to consult for their common good, to instruct their representatives, and to apply to the legislature for redress of grievances. But secret political societies are dangerous to the liberties of a free people, and should not be tolerated.

Const. 1868; Const. 1776, Decl. Rights, s. 18; Convention 1875.

Sec. 26. Religious liberty. All men have a natural and unalienable right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own consciences, and no human authority should, in any case whatever, control or interfere with the rights of conscience.

CONSTITUTION OF NORTH CAROLINA

Sec. 28. Elections should be frequent. For redress of grievances, and for amending and strengthening the laws, elections should be often held.

Const. 1868; Const. 1776, Decl. Rights, s. 20.

Sec. 29. Recurrence to fundamental principles. A frequent recurrence to fundamental principles is absolutely necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty.

Const. 1868; Const. 1776, Decl. Rights, s. 21.

Sec. 30. Hereditary emoluments, etc. No hereditary emoluments, privileges or honors ought to be granted or conferred in this state.

Graham, 8-96; Bank v. Taylor, 6-266.

Sec. 32. Ex post facto laws. Retrospective laws, punishing acts committed before the existence of such laws, and by them only declared criminal, are oppressive, unjust and incompatible with liberty; wherefore no ex post facto law ought to be made. No law taxing retrospectively sales, purchases, or other acts previously done ought to be passed.

ARTICLE II

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

Section 1. Two branches. The legislative authority shall be vested in two distinct branches, both dependent on the people, to wit: a senate and house of representatives.

Const. 1868; Const. 1776, s. 1.

Wilson v. Jordan, 124-719; Comrs. v. Call, 123-323.

Sec. 2. Time of assembly. The senate and house of representatives shall meet biennially on the first Wednesday after the first Monday in January next after their election; and when assembled shall be denominated the general assembly. Neither house shall proceed upon public business unless a majority of all the members are actually present.

Const. 1868; 1872-3, c. 82; Convention 1875; Const. 1776, ss. 4, 46; Convention 1835, art. 1, s. 4, cl. 7.

Herring v. Pugh, 126-862.

Sec. 3. Number of senators. The senate shall be composed of fifty senators, biennially chosen by ballot.

Const. 1868; Convention 1835, art. 1, s. 1, cl. 1.

Sec. 4. Regulations in relation to districting the state for senators. The senate districts shall be so altered by the general assembly, at the first session after the return of every enumeration by order of congress, that each senate district shall contain, as near as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a senate district, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more senators.

Const. 1868; 1872-3, c. 81.

Sec. 5. Regulations in relation to appointment of representatives. The house of representatives shall be composed of one hundred and twenty representatives, biennially chosen by ballot, to be elected by the counties respectively, according to their population, and each county shall have at least one representative in the house of representatives, although it may not contain the requisite ratio of representation; this apportionment shall be made by the general assembly at the respective times and periods when the districts for the senate are hereinbefore directed to be laid off.

Const. 1868; 1872-3, c. 82; Convention 1835, art. 1, s. 1, cls. 2, 3.

Comrs. v. Ballard, 69-18; Mills v. Williams, 33-563.

Sec. 6. Ratio of representation. In making the apportionment in the house of representatives, the ratio of representation shall be ascertained by dividing the amount of the population of the state, exclusive of that comprehended within those counties which do not severally contain the one hundred and twentieth part of the population of the state, by the number of representatives, less the number assigned to such counties; and in ascertaining the number of the population of the state, aliens and indians not taxed shall not be included. To each county containing the said ratio and not twice the said ratio there shall be assigned one representative; to each county containing two but not three times the said ratio, there shall be assigned two representatives, and so on progressively, and then the remaining representatives shall be assigned severally to the counties having the largest fractions.

Const. 1868; Convention 1835, art. 1, s. 1, cl. 4.

Moffitt v. Asheville, 103-237; Comrs. v. Ballard, 69-18.

Sec. 7. Qualifications for senators. Each member of the senate shall not be less than twenty-five years of age, shall have resided in this state as a citizen two years, and shall have usually resided in the district for which he was chosen one year immediately preceding his election.

Const. 1868.

Sec. 8. Qualifications for representatives. Each member of the house of representatives shall be a qualified elector of the state, and shall have resided in the county for which he is chosen for one year immediately preceding his election.

Const. 1868.

Sec. 9. Election of officers. In the election of all officers, whose appointment shall be conferred upon the general assembly by the constitution, the vote shall be viva voce.

Const. 1868; Convention 1835, art. 1, s. 4, cl. 1.

Cherry v. Burns, 124-766; Stanford v. Ellington, 117-161.

APPENDIX I

Sec. 10. Powers in relation to divorce and alimony. The general assembly shall have power to pass general laws regulating divorce and alimony, but shall not have power to grant a divorce or secure alimony in any individual case.

Const. 1868; Convention 1835, art. 1, s. 4, cl. 3.

Cooke v. Cooke, 164-272; In re Boyett, 136-415; Ladd v. Ladd, 121-118; Baity v. Cranfill, 91-293.

Sec. 11. Private laws in relation to names of persons, etc. The general assembly shall not have power to pass any private law to alter the name of any person, or to legitimate any person not born in lawful wedlock, or to restore to the rights of citizenship any person convicted of an infamous crime, but shall have power to pass general laws regulating the same.

Const. 1868; Convention 1835, art. 1, s. 4, cl. 4.

Sec. 12. Thirty days notice shall be given anterior to passage of private laws. The general assembly shall not pass any private law, unless it shall be made to appear that thirty days notice of application to pass such a law shall have been given, under such direction and in such manner as shall be provided by law.

Sec. 13. Vacancies. If vacancies shall occur in the general assembly by death, resignation or otherwise, writs of elections shall be issued by the governor under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

Const. 1868; Convention 1835, art. 1, s. 4, cl. 6.

Sec. 14. Revenue. No law shall be passed to raise money on the credit of the state, or to pledge the faith of the state, directly or indirectly, for the payment of any debt, or to impose any tax upon the people of the state, or allow the counties, cities or towns to do so, unless the bill for the purpose shall have been read three several times in each house of the general assembly and passed three several readings, which readings shall have been on three different days, and agreed to by each house respectively, and unless the yeas and nays on the second and third readings of the bill shall have been entered on the journal.

Sec. 21. Style of the acts. The style of the acts shall be: "The general assembly of North Carolina do enact."

Const. 1868.

State v. Patterson, 98-664.

Sec. 22. Powers of the general assembly. Each house shall be judge of the qualifications and election of its own members, shall sit upon its own adjournment from day to day, prepare bills to be passed into laws; and the two houses may also jointly adjourn to any future day, or other place.

Const. 1868; Const. 1776, s. 10.

Sec. 23. Bills and resolutions to be read three times, etc. All bills and resolutions of a legislative nature shall be read three times in each house before they pass into laws, and shall be signed by the presiding officers of both houses.

Const. 1868; Const. 1776, s. 11.

APPENDIX I

State v. Patterson, 134-620; Wilson v. Markley, 133-616; Cotton Mills v. Waxhaw, 130-293; Smathers v. Comrs., 125-486; Comrs. v. Snuggs, 121-400; Russell v. Ayer, 120-211; Bank v. Comrs., 119-222; Cook v. Mears, 116-592; Carr v. Coke, 116-234; Scarborough v. Robinson, 81-409.

Sec. 24. Oath for members. Each member of the general assembly, before taking his seat, shall take an oath or affirmation that he will support the constitution and laws of the United States, and the constitution of the state of North Carolina, and will faithfully discharge his duty as a member of the senate or house of representatives.

Const. 1868; Const. 1776, s. 12.

Sec. 25. Terms of office. The terms of office for senators and members of the house of representatives shall commence at the time of their election.

ARTICLE III

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Section 1. Officers of the executive department; terms of office. The executive department shall consist of a governor, in whom shall be vested the supreme executive power of the state; a lieutenant-governor, a secretary of state, an auditor, a treasurer, a superintendent of public instruction, and an attorney-general, who shall be elected for a term of four years by the qualified electors of the state, at the same time and places and in the same manner as members of the general assembly are elected. Their term of office shall commence on the first day of January next after their election, and continue until their successors are elected, and qualified: Provided, that the officers first elected shall assume the duties of their office ten days after the approval of this constitution by the congress of the United States, and shall hold their offices four years from and after the first day of January.

Const. 1868; Convention 1835, art II, s. 1.

Sec. 2. Qualifications of governor and lieutenant-governor. No person shall be eligible as governor or lieutenant-governor unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years, shall have been a citizen of the United States five years, and shall have been a resident of this state for two years next before the election; nor shall the person elected to either of these two offices be eligible to the same office more than four years in any term of eight years, unless the office shall have been cast upon him as lieutenant-governor or president of the senate.

APPENDIX I

Const. 1868; Const. 1776, s. 15.

Sec. 3. Returns of elections. The return of every election for officers of the executive department shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government by the returning officer, directed to the speaker of the house of representatives, who shall open and publish the same in the presence of a majority of the members of both houses of the general assembly. The persons having the highest number of votes respectively shall be declared duly elected; but if two or more be equal and highest in votes for the same office, then one of them shall be chosen by joint ballot of both houses of the general assembly. Contested elections shall be determined by a joint ballot of both houses of the general assembly, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

Winslow v. Morton, 118-486; O'Hara v. Powell, 80-108.

Sec. 4. Oath of office for governor. The governor, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall, in the presence of the members of both branches of the general assembly, or before any justice of the supreme court, take an oath or affirmation that he will support the constitution and laws of the United States and of the state of North Carolina, and that he will faithfully perform the duties appertaining to the office of governor to which he has been elected.

Const. 1868; Convention 1835, art. II, s. 5.

Sec. 5. Duties of governor. The governor shall reside at the seat of government of this state, and he shall, from time to time, give the general assembly information of the affairs of the state, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall deem expedient.

Const. 1868.

Sec. 6. Reprieves, commutations and pardons. The governor shall have power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons, after conviction, for all offenses (except in cases of impeachment), upon such conditions as he may think proper, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law relative to the manner of applying for pardons. He shall biennially communicate to the general assembly each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon granted, stating the name of each convict, the crime for which he was convicted, the sentence and its date, the date of commutation, pardon or reprieve, and the reasons therefor.

Sec. 8. Commander-in-chief. The governor shall be commander-in-chief of the militia of the state, except when they shall be called into the service of the United States.

Const. 1868; Const. 1776, s. 18.

Winslow v. Morton, 118-486.

Sec. 9. Extra session of general assembly. The governor shall have power on extraordinary occasions, by and with the advice of the council of state, to convene the general assembly in extra session by his proclamation, stating therein the purpose or purposes for which they are thus convened.

Const. 1868.

Sec. 10. Officers whose appointments are not otherwise provided for. The governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of a majority of the senators-elect, appoint all officers whose offices are established by this constitution and whose appointments are not otherwise provided for.

Pender*, 66-317; Railroad v. Holden, 63-410.

Sec. 11. Duties of the lieutenant-governor. The lieutenant-governor shall be president of the senate, but shall have no vote unless the senate be equally divided. He shall, whilst acting as president of the senate, receive for his services the same pay which shall, for the same period, be allowed to the speaker of the house of representatives; and he shall receive no other compensation except when he is acting as governor.

Const. 1868.

Sec. 12. In case of impeachment of governor, or vacancy caused by death or resignation. In case of the impeachment of the governor, his failure to qualify, his absence from the state, his inability to discharge the duties of his office, or in case the office of governor shall in anywise become vacant, the powers, duties and emoluments of the office shall devolve upon the lieutenant-governor until the disabilities shall cease or a new governor shall be elected and qualified. In every case in which the lieutenant-governor shall be unable to preside over the senate, the senators shall elect one of their own number president of their body; and the powers, duties and emoluments of the office of governor shall devolve upon him whenever the lieutenant-governor shall, for any reason, be prevented from discharging the duties of such office as above provided, and he shall continue as acting governor until the disabilities are removed or a new governor or lieutenant-governor shall be elected and qualified. Whenever, during the recess of the general assembly, it shall become necessary for the president of the senate to administer the government, the secretary of state shall convene the senate, that they may elect such president.

APPENDIX I

Const. 1868.

Rodwell v. Rowland, 137-626; Caldwell v. Wilson, 121-476.

Sec. 13. Duties of other executive officers. The respective duties of the secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction and attorney-general shall be prescribed by law. If the office of any of said officers shall be vacated by death, resignation or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the governor to appoint another until the disability be removed or his successor be elected and qualified. Every such vacancy shall be filled by election at the first general election that occurs more than thirty days after the vacancy has taken place, and the person chosen shall hold the office for the remainder of the unexpired term fixed in the first section of this article.

Sec. 14. Council of state. The secretary of state, auditor, treasurer and superintendent of public instruction shall constitute, ex-officio, the council of state, who shall advise the governor in the execution of his office, and three of whom shall constitute a quorum; their advice and proceedings in this capacity shall be entered in a journal, to be kept for this purpose exclusively, and signed by the members present, from any part of which any member may enter his dissent; and such journal shall be placed before the general assembly when called for by either house. The attorney-general shall be, ex-officio, the legal adviser of the executive department.

Const. 1868; Const. 1776, s. 16.

Sec. 15. Compensation of executive officers. The officers mentioned in this article shall, at stated periods, receive for their services a compensation to be established by law, which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the time for which they shall have been elected, and the said officers shall receive no other emolument or allowance whatever.

Const. 1868.

Sec. 16. Seal of state. There shall be a seal of the state, which shall be kept by the governor, and used by him, as occasion may require, and shall be called "the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina." All grants and commissions shall be issued in the name and by the authority of the state of North Carolina, sealed with "the Great Seal of the State," signed by the governor and countersigned by the secretary of state.

ARTICLE IV

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

Section 1. Abolishes distinction between actions at law and suits in equity, and feigned issues. The distinctions between actions at law and suits in equity, and the forms of all such actions and suits, shall be abolished; and there shall be in this state but one form of action for the enforcement or protection of private rights or the redress of private wrongs, which shall be denominated a civil action; and every action prosecuted by the people of the state as a party, against a person charged with a public offense, for the punishment of the same, shall be termed a criminal action. Feigned issues shall also be abolished, and the fact at issue tried by order of court before a jury.

Caldwell v. Wilson, 121-476.

Sec. 4. Impeachment. The house of representatives solely shall have the power of impeaching. No person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the senators present. When the governor is impeached the chief justice shall preside.

Const. 1868; Convention 1835, art. III, s. 1, cl. 3.

Sec. 5. Treason against the state. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it, or adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court. No conviction of treason or attainder shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture.

Const. 1868. See Const. U. S., art. III, s. 3.

Sec. 6. Supreme court justices. The supreme court shall consist of a chief justice and four associate justices.

Sec. 11. Residences of judges; rotation in judicial districts; special terms. Every judge of the superior court shall reside in the district for which he is elected. The judges shall preside in the courts of the different districts successively, but no judge shall hold the courts in the same district oftener than once in four years; but in case of the protracted illness of the judge assigned to preside in any district, or of any other unavoidable accident to him, by reason of which he shall be unable to preside, the governor may require any judge to hold one or more specified terms in said district in lieu of the judge assigned to hold the courts of the said district; and the general assembly may by general laws provide for the selection of special or emergency judges to hold the superior courts of any county or district when the judge assigned thereto, by reason of sickness, disability, or other cause, is unable to attend and hold said court, and when no other judge is available to hold the same. Such special or emergency judges shall have the power and authority of regular judges of the superior courts, in the courts which they are so appointed to hold; and the general assembly shall provide for their reasonable compensation.

Sec. 27. Jurisdiction of justices of the peace. The several justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction, under such regulations as the general assembly shall prescribe, of civil actions founded on contract, wherein the sum demanded shall not exceed two hundred dollars, and wherein the title to real estate shall not be in controversy; and of all criminal matters arising within their counties where the punishment cannot exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for thirty days. And the general assembly may give to justices of the peace jurisdiction of other civil actions wherein the value of the property in controversy does not exceed fifty dollars. When an issue of fact shall be joined before a justice, on demand of either party thereto he shall cause a jury of six men to be summoned, who shall try the same. The party against whom the judgment shall be rendered in any civil action may appeal to the superior court from the same. In all cases of a criminal nature, the party against whom the judgment is given may appeal to the superior court, where the matter shall be heard anew. In all cases brought before a justice, he shall make a record of the proceedings, and file the same with the clerk of the superior court for his county.

ARTICLE VIII

CORPORATIONS OTHER THAN MUNICIPAL

Section 1. Corporations under general laws. No corporation shall be created nor shall its charter be extended, altered, or amended by special act, except corporations for charitable, educational, penal, or reformatory purposes that are to be and remain under the patronage and control of the state; but the general assembly shall provide by general laws for the chartering and organization of all corporations and for amending, extending, and forfeiture of all charters, except those above permitted by special act. All such general laws and special acts may be altered from time to time or repealed; and the general assembly may at any time by special act repeal the charter of any corporation.

ARTICLE XI

PUNISHMENTS, PENAL INSTITUTIONS AND PUBLIC CHARITIES

Section 1. Punishments; convict labor; proviso. The following punishments only shall be known to the laws of this state, viz.: Death, imprisonment with or without hard labor, fines, removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under this state. The foregoing provision for imprisonment with hard labor shall be construed to authorize the employment of such convict labor on public works or highways, or other labor for public benefit, and the farming out thereof, where and in such manner as may be provided by law; but no convict shall be farmed out who has been sentenced on a charge of murder, manslaughter, rape, attempt to commit rape, or arson: Provided, that no convict whose labor may be farmed out shall be punished for any failure of duty as a laborer, except by a responsible officer of the state; but the convicts so farmed out shall be at all times under the supervision and control, as to their government and discipline, of the penitentiary board or some officer of this state.

Const. 1868; Convention 1875.

State v. Nipper, 166-272; State v. Young, 138-574; State v. Burke, 73-83; State v. King, 69-419.

Sec. 2. Death punishment. The object of punishments being not only to satisfy justice, but also to reform the offender, and thus prevent crime, murder, arson, burglary and rape, and these only, may be punishable with death, if the general assembly shall so enact.

Const. 1868.

State v. Lytle, 138-744; State v. Burke, 73-83; State v. King, 69-419.

CONSTITUTION OF NORTH CAROLINA

Sec. 3. Penitentiary. The general assembly shall, at its first meeting, make provision for the erection and conduct of a state's prison or penitentiary, at some central and accessible point within the state.

Day's Case, 124-367; Welker v. Bledsoe, 68-457; R. R. v. Holden, 63-436.

Sec. 4. Houses of correction. The general assembly may provide for the erection of houses of correction, where vagrants and persons guilty of misdemeanors shall be restrained and usefully employed.

Const. 1868.

In re Watson, 157-340; Moffitt v. Asheville, 103-237.

Sec. 5. Houses of refuge. A house or houses of refuge may be established whenever the public interest may require it, for the correction and instruction of other classes of offenders.

Const. 1868.

Sec. 6. The sexes to be separated. It shall be required, by competent legislation, that the structure and superintendence of penal institutions of the state, the county jails, and city police prisons secure the health and comfort of the prisoners, and that male and female prisoners be never confined in the same room or cell.

Const. 1868.

Moffitt v. Asheville, 103-237.

Sec. 7. Provision for the poor and orphans. Beneficent provision for the poor, the unfortunate and orphan, being one of the first duties of a civilized and Christian state, the general assembly shall, at its first session, appoint and define the duties of a board of public charities, to whom shall be entrusted the supervision of all charitable and penal state institutions, and who shall annually report to the governor upon their condition, with suggestions for their improvement.

Const. 1868.

Comrs. v. Spitzer, 173-147; Bd. of Ed. v. Comrs., 137-314; Miller v. Atkinson, 63-540.

Sec. 8. Orphan houses. There shall also, as soon as practicable, be measures devised by the state for the establishment of one or more orphan houses, where destitute orphans may be cared for, educated, and taught some business or trade.

Const. 1868.

Miller v. Atkinson, 63-537.

Sec. 9. Inebriates and idiots. It shall be the duty of the legislature, as soon as practicable, to devise means for the education of idiots and inebriates.

Const. 1868.

Board of Education v. State Board, 114-313.

Sec. 10. Deaf-mutes, blind and insane. The general assembly may provide that the indigent deaf-mute, blind and insane of the state shall be cared for at the charge of the state.

APPENDIX I

Sec. 11. Self-supporting. It shall be steadily kept in view by the legislature and the board of public charities that all penal and charitable institutions should be made as nearly self-supporting as is consistent with the purposes of their creation.

Const. 1868.

ARTICLE XII

MILITIA

Section 1. Who are liable to militia duty. All able-bodied male citizens of the state of North Carolina, between the ages of twenty-one and forty years, who are citizens of the United States, shall be liable to duty in the militia: Provided, that all persons who may be averse to bearing arms, from religious scruples, shall be exempt therefrom.

Const. 1868.

Sec. 2. Organizing, etc. The general assembly shall provide for the organizing, arming, equipping and discipline of the militia, and for paying the same, when called into active service.

Const. 1868.

Winslow v. Morton, 118-486; Worth v. Comrs., 118-112.

Sec. 3. Governor commander-in-chief. The governor shall be commander-in-chief, and shall have power to call out the militia to execute the law, suppress riots or insurrection, and to repel invasion.

Const. 1868.

Winslow v. Morton, 118-486; Worth v. Comrs., 118-112.

Sec. 4. Exemptions. The general assembly shall have power to make such exemptions as may be deemed necessary, and to enact laws that may be expedient for the government of the militia.

Const. 1868.

ARTICLE XIII

AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Convention, how called. No convention of the people of this state shall ever be called by the general assembly unless by the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members of each house of the general assembly, and except the proposition, convention or no convention, be first submitted to the qualified voters of the whole state, at the next general election, in a manner to be prescribed by law. And should a majority of the votes cast be in favor of said convention, it shall assemble on such day as may be prescribed by the general assembly.

APPENDIX II

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution for the United States of America.

ARTICLE I

Section 1. All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a congress of the United States, which shall consist of a senate and house of representatives.

Sec. 2. [1.] The house of representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several states, and the electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislature.

[2.] No person shall be a representative who shall not have attained to the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of the state in which he shall be chosen.

[3.] Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states which may be included within this union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons. The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. The number of representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each state shall have at least one representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the state of New Hampshire shall be entitled to chuse three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

The first sentence of this clause (art. I, sec. 1, cl. 3) is amended by amendment XIV, sec. 2.

[4.] When vacancies happen in the representation from any state, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

[5.] The house of representatives shall chuse their speaker and other officers; and shall have the sole power of impeachment.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

Sec. 3. [1.] The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, chosen by the legislature thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote.

Art. I, s. 3, cl. 1, is superseded by amendment XVII.

[2.] Immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year, and of the third class at the expiration of the sixth year, so that one-third may be chosen every second year; and if vacancies happen by resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the legislature of any state, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.

[3.] No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained to the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state for which he shall be chosen.

[4.] The vice president of the United States shall be president of the senate, but shall have no vote, unless they be equally divided.

[5.] The senate shall chuse their other officers, and also a president pro tempore, in the absence of the vice president, or when he shall exercise the office of president of the United States.

[6.] The senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose, they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the president of the United States is tried, the chief justice shall preside: And no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

[7.] Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under the United States: but the party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to law.

Sec. 4. [1.] The times, places and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof; but the congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of chusing senators.

[2.] The congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

Sec. 5. [1.] Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

[2.] Each house may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behaviour, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member.

APPENDIX II

[3.] Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such parts as may in their judgment require secrecy; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the journal.

[4.] Neither house, during the session of congress, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting.

Sec. 6. [1.] The senators and representatives shall receive a compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law, and paid out of the treasury of the United States. They shall in all cases, except treason, felony and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either house they shall not be questioned in any other place.

[2.] No senator or representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States which shall have been created or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time; and no person holding any office under the United States shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office.

Sec. 7. [1.] All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the house of representatives; but the senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills.

[2.] Every bill which shall have passed the house of representatives and the senate shall, before it become a law, be presented to the president of the United States. If he approve, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the president within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the congress by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

[3.] Every order, resolution, or vote to which the concurrence of the senate and house of representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment) shall be presented to the president of the United States; and before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him, or, being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two-thirds of the senate and house of representatives, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

Sec. 8. The congress shall have power [1.] To lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts and excises, to pay the debts and provide for the common defence and general welfare of the United States; but all duties, imposts and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States;

[2.] To borrow money on the credit of the United States;

[3.] To regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several states, and with the indian tribes;

[4.] To establish an uniform rule of naturalization, and uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States;

[5.] To coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin, and fix the standard of weights and measures;

[6.] To provide for the punishment of counterfeiting the securities and current coin of the United States;

[7.] To establish post offices and post roads;

[8.] To promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited times to authors and inventors the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries;

[9.] To constitute tribunals inferior to the supreme court;

[10.] To define and punish piracies and felonies committed on the high seas, and offences against the law of nations;

[11.] To declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water;

[12.] To raise and support armies, but no appropriation of money to that use shall be for a longer term than two years;

[13.] To provide and maintain a navy;

[14.] To make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces;

[15.] To provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the union, suppress insurrections and repel invasions;

[16.] To provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the United States, reserving to the states respectively the appointment of the officers and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by congress;

[17.] To exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, over such district (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, by cession of particular states, and the acceptance of congress, become the seat of the government of the United States, and to exercise like authority over all places purchased by the consent of the legislature of the state in which the same shall be, for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dock-yards, and other needful buildings;—and

[18.] To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this constitution in the government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

Sec. 9. [1.] The migration or importation of such persons as any of the states now existing shall think proper to admit shall not be prohibited by the congress prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, but a tax or duty may be imposed on such importation, not exceeding ten dollars for each person.

[2.] The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it.

[3.] No bill of attainder or ex post facto law shall be passed.

[4.] No capitation or other direct tax shall be laid, unless in proportion to the census or enumeration hereinbefore directed to be taken.

[5.] No tax or duty shall be laid on articles exported from any state.

[6.] No preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue to the ports of one state over those of another: nor shall vessels bound to, or from, one state, be obliged to enter, clear or pay duties in another.

[7.] No money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law; and a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published from time to time.

[8.] No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States: And no person holding any office of profit or trust under them shall, without the consent of the congress, accept of any present, emolument, office or title, of any kind whatever, from any king, prince, or foreign state.

Sec. 10. [1.] No state shall enter into any treaty, alliance, or confederation; grant letters of marque and reprisal; coin money; emit bills of credit; make anything but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts; pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligations of contracts, or grant any title of nobility.

[2.] No state shall, without the consent of the congress, lay any imposts or duties on imports or exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws, and the net produce of all duties and imposts laid by any state on imports or exports shall be for the use of the treasury of the United States; and all such laws shall be subject to the revision and controul of the congress.

[3.] No state shall, without the consent of congress, lay any duty of tonnage, keep troops, or ships of war in time of peace, enter into any agreement or compact with another state, or with a foreign power, or engage in war, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent danger as will not admit of delay.

ARTICLE II

Section 1. [1.] The executive power shall be vested in a president of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of four years, and, together with the vice president, chosen for the same term, be elected, as follows:

[2.] Each state shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors, equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the state may be entitled in the congress: but no senator or representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector.

[3.] The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves. And they shall make a list of all the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each; which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate. The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the house of representatives shall immediately chuse by ballot one of them for president; and if no person have a majority, then from the five highest on the list the said house shall in like manner chuse the president. But in chusing the president, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. In every case, after the choice of the president, the person having the greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the vice president. But if there should remain two or more who have equal votes, the senate shall chuse from them by ballot the vice president.

Art. II, s. 1, cl. 3, is superseded by amendment XII.

[4.] The congress may determine the time of chusing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes; which day shall be the same throughout the United States.

[5.] No person except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States at the time of the adoption of this constitution, shall be eligible to the office of president; neither shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, and been fourteen years a resident within the United States.

[6.] In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice president, and the congress may by law provide for the case of removal, death, resignation, or inability, both of the president and vice president, declaring what officer shall then act as president, and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed, or a president shall be elected.

[7.] The president shall, at stated times, receive for his services a compensation, which shall neither be increased or diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States, or any of them.

[8.] Before he enter on the execution of his office, he shall take the following oath or affirmation:—"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States, and will to the best of my ability preserve, protect and defend the constitution of the United States."

Sec. 2. [1.] The president shall be commander in chief of the army and navy of the United States, and of the militia of the several states, when called into the actual service of the United States; he may require the opinion, in writing, of the principal officer in each of the executive departments, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices, and he shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offences against the United States, except in cases of impeachment.

[2.] He shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, judges of the supreme court, and all other officers of the United States whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by law: but the congress may by law vest the appointment of such inferior officers, as they think proper, in the president alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments.

[3.] The president shall have power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session.

Sec. 3. He shall from time to time give to the congress information of the state of the union, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient; he may, on extraordinary occasions, convene both houses, or either of them, and in case of disagreement between them, with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper; he shall receive ambassadors and other public ministers; he shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed, and shall commission all the officers of the United States.

Sec. 4. The president, vice president and all civil officers of the United States shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of, treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors.

ARTICLE III

Section 1. The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one supreme court, and in such inferior courts as the congress may from time to time ordain and establish. The judges, both of the supreme and inferior courts, shall hold their offices during good behavior, and shall, at stated times, receive for their services a compensation which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

Sec. 2. [1.] The judicial power shall extend to all cases, in law and equity, arising under this constitution, the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority;—to all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls;—to all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction;—to controversies to which the United States shall be a party;—to controversies between two or more states;—between a state and citizens of another state;—between citizens of different states,—between citizens of the same state claiming lands under grants of different states, and between a state, or the citizens thereof, and foreign states, citizens or subjects.

See amendment XI, as to suits against a state by citizens of another state or citizens or subjects of a foreign state.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

[2.] In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a state shall be party, the supreme court shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other cases before mentioned, the supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact, with such exceptions and under such regulations as the congress shall make.

[3.] The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury; and such trial shall be held in the state where the said crimes shall have been committed; but when not committed within any state, the trial shall be at such place or places as the congress may by law have directed.

Sec. 3. [1.] Treason against the United States shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

[2.] The congress shall have power to declare the punishment of treason, but no attainder of treason shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture, except during the life of the person attainted.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1. Full faith and credit shall be given in each state to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of every other state. And the congress may by general laws prescribe the manner in which such acts, records and proceedings shall be proved, and the effect thereof.

Sec. 2. [1.] The citizens of each state shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several states.

[2.] A person charged in any state with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice, and be found in another state, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the state from which he fled, be delivered up, to be removed to the state having jurisdiction of the crime.

[3.] No person held to service or labour in one state, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labour, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labour may be due.

Sec. 3. [1.] New states may be admitted by the congress into this union; but no new state shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other state; nor any state be formed by the junction of two or more states, or parts of states, without the consent of the legislatures of the states concerned as well as of the congress.

[2.] The congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this constitution shall be so construed as to prejudice any claims of the United States, or of any particular state.

Sec. 4. The United States shall guarantee to every state in this union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and on application of the legislature, or of the executive (when the legislature cannot be convened), against domestic violence.

APPENDIX II

ARTICLE V

The congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this constitution, or, on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several states, shall call a convention for proposing amendments, which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states, or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the congress: Provided, that no amendment which may be made prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight shall in any manner affect the first and fourth clauses in the ninth section of the first article; and that no state, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the senate.

ARTICLE VI

[1.] All debts contracted and engagements entered into, before the adoption of this constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this constitution as under the confederation.

[2.] This constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding.

[3.] The senators and representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several state legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.

ARTICLE VII

The ratification of the conventions of nine states shall be sufficient for the establishment of this constitution between the states so ratifying the same.

Done in Convention by the Unanimous Consent of the States present the Seventeenth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Eighty-seven and of the Independence of the United States of America the Twelfth. In Witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names,

The states ratified the Constitution in the following order:

Delaware	December 7, 1787	South Carolina.....	May 23, 1788
Pennsylvania	December 12, 1787	New Hampshire	June 21, 1788
New Jersey	December 18, 1787	Virginia	June 26, 1788
Georgia.....	January 2, 1788	New York.....	July 26, 1788
Connecticut	January 9, 1788	North Carolina	November 21, 1789
Massachusetts	February 6, 1788	Rhode Island.....	May 29, 1790
Maryland	April 26, 1788

Articles in addition to, and amendment of, the constitution of the United States of America, proposed by congress, and ratified by the legislatures of the several states, pursuant to the fifth article of the original constitution.

The first ten amendments were proposed by congress on September 25, 1789, and became effective on December 15, 1791.

[ARTICLE I.]

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

APPENDIX II

[ARTICLE II.]

A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

[ARTICLE III.]

No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

[ARTICLE IV.]

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation and particularly describing the place to be searched and the persons or things to be seized.

[ARTICLE V.]

No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

[ARTICLE VI.]

In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.

[ARTICLE VII.]

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise reëxamined in any court of the United States than according to the rules of the common law.

[ARTICLE VIII.]

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

[ARTICLE IX.]

The enumeration in the constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

[ARTICLE X.]

The powers not delegated to the United States by the constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people.

[ARTICLE XI.]

The judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by citizens of another state, or by citizens or subjects of any foreign state.

The eleventh amendment was proposed by congress on March 5, 1794, and was declared in a message from the president to congress, dated the 8th of January, 1798, to have been ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states.

[ARTICLE XII.]

The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for president and vice president, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves; they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as president, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as vice president, and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as president, and of all persons voted for as vice president, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate;—the president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted;—the person having the greatest number of votes for president shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as president, the house of representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the president. But in choosing the president, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. And if the house of representatives shall not choose a president whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the vice president shall act as president, as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the president. The person having the greatest number of votes as vice president shall be the vice president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list the senate shall choose the vice president; a quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of president shall be eligible to that of vice president of the United States.

The twelfth amendment was proposed by congress on December 12, 1803, and was declared in a proclamation of the secretary of state, dated September 25, 1804, to have been ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states.

ARTICLE XIII

Section 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Sec. 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

The thirteenth amendment was proposed by congress on February 1, 1865, and was declared, in a proclamation of the secretary of state, dated December 18, 1865, to have been ratified by the legislatures of twenty-seven of the thirty-six states.

ARTICLE XIV

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each state, excluding indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for president and vice president of the United States, representatives in congress, the executive and judicial officers of a state, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such state, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such state.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a senator or representative in congress, or elector of president and vice president, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any state, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any state legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any state, to support the constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But congress may by a vote of two-thirds of each house remove such disability.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any state shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

The fourteenth amendment was proposed by congress on June 16, 1866, and on July 21, 1868, congress adopted a concurrent resolution declaring that the legislatures of "three-fourths and more" of the states had ratified the amendment, and that it was a part of the Constitution of the United States and that it should be duly promulgated as such by the secretary of state. Accordingly the secretary of state issued a proclamation, dated July 28, 1868, declaring the fourteenth amendment to have been ratified by the legislatures of thirty of the thirty-six states.

ARTICLE XV

Section 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 2. The congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

The fifteenth amendment was proposed by congress on February 27, 1869, and was declared, in a proclamation of the secretary of state, dated March 30, 1870, to have been ratified by the legislatures of twenty-nine of the thirty-seven states.

ARTICLE XVI

The congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several states, and without regard to any census or enumeration.

The sixteenth amendment was proposed by congress on July 12, 1909 (36 U. S. Stat. at L., 184), and was declared in a proclamation of the secretary of state, dated February 25, 1913, to have been ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states. 37 U. S. Stat. at L., 1785.

ARTICLE XVII

The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote. The electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislatures.

When vacancies happen in the representation of any state in the senate, the executive authority of such state shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies: Provided, that the legislature of any state may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

APPENDIX II

This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election or term of any senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the constitution.

The seventeenth amendment was proposed by congress on May 15, 1912 (37 U. S. Stat. at L., 646), and was declared in a proclamation of the secretary of state, dated May 31, 1913, to have been ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states. 38 U. S. Stat. at L., 2049.

ARTICLE XVIII

Section 1. After one year from the ratification of this article, the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof, for beverage purposes, is hereby prohibited.

Sec. 2. The congress and the several states shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Sec. 3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the constitution by the legislatures of the several states, as provided in the constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the states by the congress.

The eighteenth amendment was proposed by congress on December 19, 1917 (40 U. S. Stat. at L., 1050), and was declared in a proclamation of the secretary of state, dated June 29, 1919, to have been ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states. 40 U. S. Stat. at L., 1941.

ARTICLE XIX

Section 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

Sec. 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

The nineteenth amendment was proposed by congress on June 4, 1919, and was declared in a proclamation of the secretary of state, dated August 26, 1920, to have been ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states.

APPENDIX III

AUTHENTICATION OF RECORDS

- [1] Authentication of legislative acts and proof of judicial proceedings.
- [2] Proof of records not pertaining to courts.
- [3] Copies of foreign records, etc., relating to land titles in United States.

[1] Authentication of legislative acts and proof of judicial proceedings. The acts of the legislature of any state or territory, or of any country subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, shall be authenticated by having the seals of such state, territory, or country affixed thereto. The records and judicial proceedings of the courts of any state or territory, or of any such country, shall be proved or admitted in any other court within the United States, by the attestation of the clerk, and the seal of the court annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate of the judge, chief justice, or presiding magistrate, that the said attestation is in due form. And the said records and judicial proceedings, so authenticated, shall have such faith and credit given to them in every court within the United States as they have by law or usage in the courts of the state from which they are taken.

U. S. Rev. Stat., s. 905.

[2] Proof of records not pertaining to courts. All records and exemplifications of books, which may be kept in any public office of any state or territory or of any country subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, not appertaining to a court, shall be proved or admitted in any court or office in any other state or territory, or in any such country, by the attestation of the keeper of the said records or books, and the seal of his office annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate of the presiding justice of the court of the county, parish, or district in which such office may be kept, or of the governor, or secretary of state, the chancellor or keeper of the great seal, of the state, or territory, or country, that the said attestation is in due form, and by the proper officers. If the said certificate is given by the presiding justice of a court, it shall be further authenticated by the clerk or prothonotary of the said court, who shall certify, under his hand and the seal of his office, that the said presiding justice is duly commissioned and qualified; or, if given by such governor, secretary, chancellor, or keeper of the great seal, it shall be under the great seal of the state, territory, or country aforesaid, in which it is made. And the said records and exemplifications, so authenticated, shall have such faith and credit given to them in every court and office within the United States as they have by law or usage in the courts or offices of the state, territory, or country, as aforesaid, from which they are taken.

U. S. Rev. Stat., s. 906.

[3] Copies of foreign records, etc., relating to land titles in United States. It shall be lawful for any keeper or person having the custody of laws, judgments, orders, decrees, journals, correspondence, or other public documents of any foreign government or its agents, relating to title to lands claimed by or under the United States, on the application of the head of one of the departments, the solicitor of the treasury, or the commissioner of the general land office, to authenticate copies thereof under his hand and seal, and to certify them to be correct and true copies of such laws, judgments, orders, decrees, journals, correspondence, or other public documents, respectively; and when such copies are certified by an American minister or consul, under his hand and seal of office, to be true copies of the originals, they shall be sealed up by him and returned to the solicitor of the treasury, who shall file them in his office, and cause them to be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose. A copy of any such law, judgment, order, decree, journal, correspondence, or other public document, so filed, or of the same so recorded in said book, may be read in evidence in any court, where the title to land claimed by or under the United States may come into question, equally with the originals.

- 37. Suits improperly in district court may be dismissed or remanded.
- 38. Proceedings in suits removed.
- 39. Time for filing record; return of record, how enforced.

Removal of suits from state to United States district courts.

Sec. 28. Any suit of a civil nature, at law or in equity, arising under the constitution or laws of the United States, or treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority, of which the district courts of the United States are given original jurisdiction by this title, which may now be pending or which may hereafter be brought, in any state court, may be removed by the defendant or defendants therein to the district court of the United States for the proper district. Any other suit of a civil nature, at law or in equity, of which the district courts of the United States are given jurisdiction by this title, and which are now pending, or which may hereafter be brought, in any state court, may be removed into the district court of the United States for the proper district by the defendant or defendants therein, being nonresidents of that state. And when in any suit mentioned in this section there shall be a controversy which is wholly between citizens of different states, and which can be fully determined as between them, then either one or more of the defendants actually interested in such controversy may remove said suit into the district court of the United States for the proper district. And where a suit is now pending, or may hereafter be brought, in any state court, in which there is a controversy between a citizen of the state in which the suit is brought and a citizen of another state, any defendant, being such citizen of another state, may remove such suit into the district court of the United States for the proper district, at any time before the trial thereof, when it shall be made to appear to said district court that from prejudice or local influence he will not be able to obtain justice in such state court, or in any other state court to which the said defendant may, under the laws of the state, have the right, on account of such prejudice or local influence, to remove said cause: Provided, that if it further appear that said suit can be fully and justly determined as to the other defendants in the state court, without being affected by such prejudice or local influence, and that no party to the suit will be prejudiced by a separation of the parties, said district court may direct the suit to be remanded, so far as relates to such other defendants, to the state court, to be proceeded with therein.

At any time before the trial of any suit which is now pending in any district court, or may hereafter be entered therein, and which has been removed to said court from a state court on the affidavit of any party plaintiff that he had reason to believe and did believe that, from prejudice or local influence, he was unable to obtain justice in said state court, the district court shall, on application of the other party, examine into the truth of said affidavit and the grounds thereof, and unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of said court that said party will not be able to obtain justice in said state court, it shall cause the same to be remanded thereto.

Whenever any cause shall be removed from any state court into any district court of the United States, and the district court shall decide that the cause was improperly removed, and order the same to be remanded to the state court from whence it came, such remand shall be immediately carried into execution, and no appeal or writ of error from the decision of the district court so remanding such cause shall be allowed: Provided, that no case arising under an act entitled "An act relating to the liability of common carriers by railroad to their employees in certain cases," approved April twenty-second, nineteen hundred and eight, or any amendment thereto, and brought in any state court of competent jurisdiction, shall be removed to any court of the United States: and Provided further, that no suit brought in any state court of competent jurisdiction against a railroad company, or other corporation, or person engaged in and carrying on the business of a common carrier, to recover damages for delay, loss of or injury to property received for transportation by such common carrier under section twenty of the act to regulate commerce, approved February fourth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, as amended June twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and six, April thirteenth, nineteen hundred and eight, February twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and nine, and June eighteenth, nineteen hundred and ten, shall be removed to any court of the United States where the matter in controversy does not exceed, exclusive of interest and costs, the sum or value of $3,000.

The last proviso to this section added by Act of Jan. 20, 1914, c. 11, 38 U. S. Stat. L., 279.

Procedure for removal.

Sec. 29. Whenever any party entitled to remove any suit mentioned in the last preceding section, except suits removable on the ground of prejudice or local influence, may desire to remove such suit from a state court to the district court of the United States, he may make and file a petition, duly verified, in such suit in such state court at the time, or any time before the defendant is required by the laws of the state or the rule of the state court in which such suit is brought to answer or plead to the declaration or complaint of the plaintiff, for the removal of such suit into the district court to be held in the district where such suit is pending, and shall make and file therewith a bond, with good and sufficient surety, for his or their entering in such district court, within thirty days from the date of filing said petition, a certified copy of the record in such suit, and for paying all costs that may be awarded by the said district court if said district court shall hold that such suit was wrongfully or improperly removed thereto, and also for their appearing and entering special bail in such suit if special bail was originally requisite therein. It shall then be the duty of the state court to accept said petition and bond and proceed no further in such suit. Written notice of said petition and bond for removal shall be given the adverse party or parties prior to filing the same. The said copy being entered within said thirty days as aforesaid in said district court of the United States, the parties so removing the said cause shall within thirty days thereafter, plead, answer, or demur to the declaration or complaint in said cause, and the cause shall then proceed in the same manner as if it had been originally commenced in the said district court.

Suits under grants of land from different states.

Sec. 30. If in any action commenced in a state court the title of land be concerned and the parties are citizens of the same state and the matter in dispute exceeds the sum or value of three thousand dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, the sum or value being made to appear, one or more of the plaintiffs or defendants, before the trial, may state to the court, and make affidavit if the court require it, that he or they claim, and shall rely upon, a right or title to the land under a grant from a state, and produce the original grant, or an exemplification of it, except where the loss of public records shall put it out of his or their power, and shall move that any one or more of the adverse party inform the court whether he or they claim a right or title to the land under a grant from some other state, the party or parties so required shall give such information, or otherwise not be allowed to plead such grant or give it in evidence upon the trial. If he or they inform the court that he or they do claim under such grant, any one or more of the party moving for such information may then, on petition and bond, as hereinbefore mentioned in this chapter, remove the cause for trial to the district court of the United States next to be holden in such district; and any one of either party removing the cause shall not be allowed to plead or give evidence of any other title than that by him or them stated as aforesaid as the ground of his or their claim.

REMOVAL OF CAUSES

Removal of causes against persons denied any civil rights, etc.

Sec. 31. When any civil suit or criminal prosecution is commenced in any state court, for any cause whatsoever, against any person who is denied or can not enforce in the judicial tribunals of the state, or in the part of the state where such suit or prosecution is pending, any right secured to him by any law providing for the equal civil rights of citizens of the United States, or of all persons within the jurisdiction of the United States, or against any officer, civil or military, or other person, for any arrest or imprisonment or other trespasses or wrongs made or committed by virtue of or under color of authority derived from any law providing for equal rights as aforesaid, or for refusing to do any act on the ground that it would be inconsistent with such law, such suit or prosecution may, upon the petition of such defendant, filed in said state court at any time before the trial or final hearing of the cause, stating the facts and verified by oath, be removed for trial into the next district court to be held in the district where it is pending. Upon the filing of such petition all further proceedings in the state courts shall cease, and shall not be resumed except as hereinafter provided. But all bail and other security given in such suit or prosecution shall continue in like force and effect as if the same had proceeded to final judgment and execution in the state court. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the state court to furnish such defendant, petitioning for a removal, copies of said process against him, and of all pleadings, depositions, testimony, and other proceedings in the case. If such copies are filed by said petitioner in the district court on the first day of its session, the cause shall proceed therein in the same manner as if it had been brought there by original process; and if the said clerk refuses or neglects to furnish such copies, the petitioner may thereupon docket the case in the district court, and the said court shall then have jurisdiction therein, and may, upon proof of such refusal or neglect of said clerk, and upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, require the plaintiff to file a declaration, petition, or complaint in the cause; and, in case of his default, may order a nonsuit, and dismiss the case at the costs of the plaintiff, and such dismissal shall be a bar to any further suit touching the matter in controversy. But if, without such refusal or neglect of said clerk to furnish such copies and proof thereof, the petitioner for removal fails to file copies in the district court, as herein provided, a certificate, under the seal of the district court, stating such failure, shall be given, and upon the production thereof in said state court the cause shall proceed therein as if no petition for removal had been filed.

When petitioner is in actual custody of state court.

Sec. 32. When all the acts necessary for the removal of any suit or prosecution, as provided in the preceding section, have been performed, and the defendant petitioning for such removal is in actual custody on process issued by said state court, it shall be the duty of the clerk of said district court to issue a writ of habeas corpus cum causa, and of the marshal, by virtue of said writ, to take the body of the defendant into his custody, to be dealt with in said district court according to law and the orders of said court, or, in vacation, of any judge thereof; and the marshal shall file with or deliver to the clerk of said state court a duplicate copy of said writ.

Suits and prosecutions against revenue officers, etc.

Sec. 33. When any civil suit or criminal prosecution is commenced in any court of a state against any officer appointed under or acting by authority of any revenue law of the United States now or hereafter enacted, or against any person acting under or by authority of any such officer, on account of any act done under color of his office or of any such law, or on account of any right, title, or authority claimed by such officer or other person under any such law; or is commenced against any person holding property or estate by title derived from any such officer, and affects the validity of any such revenue law, or against any officer of the courts of the United States for or on account of any act done under color of his office or in the performance of his duties as such officer; or when any civil suit or criminal prosecution is commenced against any person for or on account of anything done by him while an officer of either house of congress in the discharge of his official duty, in executing any order of such house, the said suit or prosecution may, at any time before the trial or final hearing thereof, be removed for trial into the district court next to be holden in the district where the same is pending, upon the petition of such defendant to said district court, and in the following manner: Said petition shall set forth the nature of the suit or prosecution and be verified by affidavit, and, together with a certificate signed by an attorney or counselor at law of some court of record of the state where such suit or prosecution is commenced, or of the United States, stating that, as counsel for the petitioner, he has examined the proceedings against him and carefully inquired into all the matters set forth in the petition, and that he believes them to be true, shall be presented to the said district court, if in session, or if it be not, to the clerk thereof at his office, and shall be filed in said office. The cause shall thereupon be entered on the docket of the district court, and shall proceed as a cause originally commenced in that court; but all bail and other security given upon such suit or prosecution shall continue in like force and effect as if the same had proceeded to final judgment and execution in the state court. When the suit is commenced in the state court by summons, subpœna, petition, or other process except capias, the clerk of the district court shall issue a writ of certiorari to the state court, requiring it to send to the district court the record and the proceedings in the cause. When it is commenced by capias or by any other similar form of proceeding by which a personal arrest is ordered, he shall issue a writ of habeas corpus cum causa, a duplicate of which shall be delivered to the clerk of the state court, or left at his office, by the marshal of the district or his deputy, or by some other person duly authorized thereto; and thereupon it shall be the duty of the state court to stay all further proceedings in the cause, and the suit or prosecution, upon delivery of such process, or leaving the same as aforesaid, shall be held to be removed to the district court, and any further proceedings, trial, or judgment therein in the state court shall be void. If the defendant in the suit or prosecution be in actual custody on mesne process therein, it shall be the duty of the marshal, by virtue of the writ of habeas corpus cum causa, to take the body of the defendant into his custody, to be dealt with in the cause according to law and the order of the district court, or in vacation, of any judge thereof; and if, upon the removal of such suit or prosecution, it is made to appear to the district court that no copy of the record and proceedings therein in the state court can be obtained, the district court may allow and require the plaintiff to proceed de novo and to file a declaration of his cause of action, and the parties may thereupon proceed as in actions originally brought in said district court. On failure of the plaintiff so to proceed, judgment of non prosequitor may be rendered against him, with costs for the defendant.

Sec. 33 as amended by Act of August 23, 1916, c. 399, 39 U. S. Stat. L., 532.

Removal of suits by aliens.

Sec. 34. Whenever a personal action has been or shall be brought in any state court by an alien against any citizen of a state who is, or at the time the alleged action accrued was, a civil officer of the United States, being a nonresident of that state wherein jurisdiction is obtained by the state court, by personal service of process, such action may be removed into the district court of the United States in and for the district in which the defendant shall have been served with the process, in the same manner as now provided for the removal of an action brought in a state court by the provisions of the preceding section.

When copies of records are refused by clerk of state court.

Sec. 35. In any case where a party is entitled to copies of the records and proceedings in any suit or prosecution in a state court, to be used in any court of the

REMOVAL OF CAUSES

United States, if the clerk of said state court, upon demand, and the payment or tender of the legal fees, refuses or neglects to deliver to him certified copies of such records and proceedings, the court of the United States in which such records and proceedings are needed may, on proof by affidavit that the clerk of said state court has refused or neglected to deliver copies thereof, on demand as aforesaid, direct such record to be supplied by affidavit or otherwise, as the circumstances of the case may require and allow; and thereupon such proceeding, trial, and judgment may be had in the said court of the United States, and all such processes awarded, as if certified copies of such records and proceedings had been regularly before the said court.

Previous attachment bonds, orders, etc., remain valid.

Sec. 36. When any suit shall be removed from a state court to a district court of the United States, any attachment or sequestration of the goods or estate of the defendant had in such suit in the state court shall hold the goods or estate so attached or sequestered to answer the final judgment or decree in the same manner as by law they would have been held to answer final judgment or decree had it been rendered by the court in which said suit was commenced. All bonds, undertakings, or security given by either party in such suit prior to its removal shall remain valid and effectual notwithstanding said removal; and all injunctions, orders, and other proceedings had in such suit prior to its removal shall remain in full force and effect until dissolved or modified by the court to which such suit shall be removed.

Suits improperly in district court may be dismissed or remanded.

Sec. 37. If in any suit commenced in a district court, or removed from a state court to a district court of the United States, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the said district court, at any time after such suit has been brought or removed hereto, that such suit does not really and substantially involve a dispute or controversy properly within the jurisdiction of said district court, or that the parties to said suit have been improperly or collusively made or joined, either as plaintiffs or defendants, for the purpose of creating a case cognizable or removable under this chapter, the said district court shall proceed no further therein, but shall dismiss the suit or remand it to the court from which it was removed, as justice may require, and shall make such order as to costs as shall be just.

Proceedings in suits removed.

Sec. 38. The district court of the United States shall, in all suits removed under the provisions of this chapter, proceed therein as if the suit had been originally commenced in said district court, and the same proceedings had been taken in such suit in said district court as shall have been had therein in said state court prior to its removal.

Time for filing record; return of record, how enforced.

Sec. 39. In all causes removable under this chapter, if the clerk of the state court in which any such cause shall be pending shall refuse to any one or more of the parties or persons applying to remove the same, a copy of the record therein, after tender of legal fees for such copy, said clerk so offending shall, on conviction thereof in the district court of the United States to which said action or proceeding was removed, be fined not more than one thousand dollars, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. The district court to which any cause shall be removable under this chapter shall have power to issue a writ of certiorari to said state court commanding said state court to make return of the record in any such cause removed as aforesaid, or in which any one or more of the plaintiffs or defendants have complied with the provisions of this chapter for the removal of the same, and enforce said writ according to law. If it shall be impossible for the parties or persons removing any cause under this chapter, or complying with the provisions for the removal thereof, to obtain such copy, for the reason that the clerk of said state court refuses to furnish a copy, on payment of legal fees, or for any other reason, the district court shall make an order requiring the prosecutor in any such action or proceeding to enforce forfeiture or recover penalty, as aforesaid, to file a copy of the paper or proceeding by which the same was commenced, within such time as the court may determine; and in default thereof the court shall dismiss the said action or proceeding; but if said order shall be complied with, then said district court shall require the other party to plead, and said action or proceeding shall proceed to final judgment. The said district court may make an order requiring the parties thereto to plead de novo; and the bond given, conditioned as aforesaid, shall be discharged so far as it requires copy of the record to be filed as aforesaid.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR A UNIFORM RULE FOR THE NATURALIZATION OF ALIENS THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES, AND ESTABLISHING THE BUREAU OF NATURALIZATION

[Act of June 29, 1906, 34 Stat. L. 596, as amended in sections 16, 17, and 19 by the act of congress approved March 4, 1909¹ (35 Stat. L., Part 1, p. 1102); in section 13 by the act of congress approved June 25, 1910² (36 Stat. L., Part 1, p. 830); by the act of congress approved March 4, 1913³ (37 Stat. L., Part 1, p. 736), creating the department of labor; and by the act of congress approved May 9, 1918 (Public, No. 144, 65th Cong., 2d sess.).⁴]

The bureau of naturalization.

SECTION 1. That the bureau of naturalization, under the direction and control of the secretary of labor, shall have charge of all matters concerning the naturalization of aliens. That it shall be the duty of the bureau of immigration to provide, for use at the various immigration stations throughout the United States, books of record, wherein the commissioners of immigration shall cause a registry to be made in the case of each alien arriving in the United States from and after the passage of this act of the name, age, occupation, personal description (including height, complexion, color of hair and eyes), the place of birth, the last residence, the intended place of residence in the United States, and the date of arrival of said alien, and, if entered through a port, the name of the vessel in which he comes. And it shall be the duty of said commissioners of immigration to cause to be granted to such alien a certificate of such registry, with the particulars thereof.

SEC. 2. [Omitted; authorizes the secretary of commerce and labor to provide necessary offices, etc.]

Courts which may naturalize.

SEC. 3. That exclusive jurisdiction to naturalize aliens as citizens of the United States is hereby conferred upon the following specified courts:

United States circuit⁵ and district courts now existing, or which may hereafter be established by congress in any state, United States district courts for the territories of Arizona,⁶ New Mexico,⁶ Oklahoma,⁶ Hawaii, and Alaska, the supreme court of the District of Columbia, and the United States courts for the Indian Territory; ⁶ also all courts of record in any state or territory now existing, or which may hereafter be created, having a seal, a clerk, and jurisdiction in actions at law or equity, or law and equity, in which the amount in controversy is unlimited.

That the naturalization jurisdiction of all courts herein specified—state, territorial, and federal—shall extend only to aliens resident within the respective judicial districts of such courts.

The courts herein specified shall, upon the requisition of the clerks of such courts, be furnished from time to time by the bureau of naturalization with such blank forms as may be required in the naturalization of aliens, and all certificates of naturalization shall be consecutively numbered and printed on safety paper furnished by said bureau.

Method of naturalization.

SEC. 4. That an alien may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States in the following manner, and not otherwise:

Declaration of intention.

First. He shall declare on oath before the clerk of any court authorized by this act to naturalize aliens, or his authorized deputy, in the district in which such alien resides, two years at least prior to his admission, and after he has reached the age of eighteen years, that it is bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, and particularly, by name, to the prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of which the alien may be at the time a citizen or subject. And such declaration shall set forth the name, age, occupation, personal description, place of birth, last foreign residence and allegiance, the date of arrival, the name of the vessel, if any, in which he came to the United States, and the present place of residence in the United States of said alien: Provided, however, that no alien who, in conformity with the law in force at the date of his declaration, has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States shall be required to renew such declaration.

NATURALIZATION LAWS

Petition for citizenship; contents; verification; accompanying certificate.

Second. Not less than two years nor more than seven years after he has made such declaration of intention he shall make and file, in duplicate, a petition in writing, signed by the applicant in his own handwriting and duly verified, in which petition such applicant shall state his full name, his place of residence (by street and number, if possible), his occupation, and, if possible, the date and place of his birth; the place from which he emigrated, and the date and place of his arrival in the United States, and, if he entered through a port, the name of the vessel on which he arrived; the time when and the place and name of the court where he declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States; if he is married he shall state the name of his wife and, if possible, the country of her nativity and her place of residence at the time of filing his petition; and if he has children, the name, date, and place of birth and place of residence of each child living at the time of the filing of his petition: Provided, that if he has filed his declaration before the passage of this act he shall not be required to sign the petition in his own handwriting.

The petition shall set forth that he is not a disbeliever in or opposed to organized government, or a member of or affiliated with any organization or body of persons teaching disbelief in or opposed to organized government, a polygamist or believer in the practice of polygamy, and that it is his intention to become a citizen of the United States and to renounce absolutely and forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, and particularly, by name, to the prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of which he at the time of filing his petition may be a citizen or subject, and that it is his intention to reside permanently within the United States, whether or not he has been denied admission as a citizen of the United States, and, if denied, the ground or grounds of such denial, the court or courts in which such decision was rendered, and that the cause for such denial has since been cured or removed, and every fact material to his naturalization and required to be proved upon the final hearing of his application.

The petition shall also be verified by the affidavits of at least two credible witnesses, who are citizens of the United States, and who shall state in their affidavits that they have personally known the applicant to be a resident of the United States for a period of at least five years continuously, and of the state, territory, or the District of Columbia,¹ in which the application is made for a period of at least one year immediately preceding the date of the filing of his petition, and that they each have personal knowledge that the petitioner is a person of good moral character, and that he is in every way qualified, in their opinion, to be admitted as a citizen of the United States.

At the time of filing his petition there shall be filed with the clerk of the court a certificate from the department of labor, if the petitioner arrives in the United States after the passage of this act, stating the date, place, and manner of his arrival in the United States, and the declaration of intention of such petitioner, which certificate and declaration shall be attached to and made a part of said petition.

Declaration on oath in open court.

Third. He shall, before he is admitted to citizenship, declare on oath in open court that he will support the constitution of the United States, and that he absolutely and ¹The word "district" amended by the act of May 9, 1918, to read "the District of Columbia."

entirely renounces and adjures all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, and particularly, by name, to the prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of which he was before a citizen or subject; that he will support and defend the constitution and laws of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic, and bear true faith and allegiance to the same.

Evidence of residence, etc.

Fourth. It shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court admitting any alien to citizenship that immediately preceding the date of his application he has resided continuously within the United States five years at least, and within the state or territory where such court is at the time held one year at least, and that during that time he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same. In addition to the oath of the applicant, the testimony of at least two witnesses, citizens of the United States, as to the facts of residence, moral character, and attachment to the principles of the constitution shall be required, and the name, place of residence, and occupation of each witness shall be set forth in the record.

Renunciation of titles, etc.

Fifth. In case the alien applying to be admitted to citizenship has borne any hereditary title, or has been of any of the orders of nobility in the kingdom or state from which he came, he shall, in addition to the above requisite, make an express renunciation of his title or order of nobility in the court to which his application is made, and his renunciation shall be recorded in the court.

Widows and minor children.

Sixth. When any alien who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States dies before he is actually naturalized the widow and minor children of such alien may, by complying with the other provisions of this act, be naturalized without making any declaration of intention.

Honorable discharge from or certain service in army or navy; effect.

¹Seventh. Any native-born Filipino of the age of twenty-one years and upward who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States and who has enlisted or may hereafter enlist in the United States navy or marine corps or the naval auxiliary service, and who, after service of not less than three years, may be honorably discharged therefrom, or who may receive an ordinary discharge with recommendation for reenlistment; or any alien, or any Porto Rican not a citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years and upward, who has enlisted or entered or may hereafter enlist in or enter the armies of the United States, either the regular or the volunteer forces, or the national army, the national guard or naval militia of any state, territory, or the District of Columbia, or the state militia in federal service, or in the United States navy or marine corps, or in the United States coast guard, or who has served for three years on board of any vessel of the United States government, or for three years on board of merchant or fishing vessels of the United States of more than twenty tons burden, and while still in the service on a reenlistment or reappointment, or within six months after an honorable discharge or separation therefrom, or while on furlough to the army reserve or regular army reserve after honorable service, may, on presentation of the required declaration of intention, petition for naturalization without proof of the required five years residence within the United States if upon examination by the representative of the bureau of naturalization, in accordance with the ¹Section four of the act entitled "An act to establish a bureau of immigration and naturalization and to provide a uniform rule for the naturalization of aliens throughout the United States," approved June twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and six, was amended by the act of May 9, 1918 (Pub. No. 144, 65th cong.) by adding subdivisions 7th to 13th, inclusive.

NATURALIZATION LAWS

requirements of this subdivision, it is shown that such residence can not be established; any alien serving in the military or naval service of the United States during the time this country is engaged in the present war may file his petition for naturalization without making the preliminary declaration of intention and without proof of the required five years residence within the United States; any alien declarant who has served in the United States army or navy, or the Philippine constabulary, and has been honorably discharged therefrom, and has been accepted for service in either the military or naval service of the United States on the condition that he becomes a citizen of the United States, may file his petition for naturalization upon proof of continuous residence within the United States for the three years immediately preceding his petition, by two witnesses, citizens of the United States, and in these cases only residence in the Philippine Islands and the Panama Canal Zone by aliens may be considered residence within the United States, and the place of such military service shall be construed as the place of residence required to be established for purposes of naturalization; and any alien, or any person owing permanent allegiance to the United States embraced within this subdivision, may file his petition for naturalization in the most convenient court without proof of residence within its jurisdiction, notwithstanding the limitation upon the jurisdiction of the courts specified in section three of the act of June twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and six, provided he appears with his two witnesses before the appropriate representative of the bureau of naturalization and passes the preliminary examination hereby required before filing his petition for naturalization in the office of the clerk of the court, and in each case the record of this examination shall be offered in evidence by the representative of the government from the bureau of naturalization and made a part of the record at the original and any subsequent hearings; and, except as otherwise herein provided, the honorable discharge certificate of such alien, or person owing permanent allegiance to the United States, or the certificate of service showing good conduct, signed by a duly authorized officer, or by the masters of said vessels, shall be deemed prima facie evidence to satisfy all of the requirements of residence within the United States and within the state, territory, or the District of Columbia, and good moral character required by law, when supported by the affidavits of two witnesses, citizens of the United States, identifying the applicant as the person named in the certificate or honorable discharge, and in those cases only where the alien is actually in the military or naval service of the United States, the certificate of arrival shall not be filed with the petition for naturalization in the manner prescribed; and any petition for naturalization filed under the provisions of this subdivision may be heard immediately, notwithstanding the law prohibits the hearing of a petition for naturalization during thirty days preceding any election in the jurisdiction of the court. Any alien who, at the time of the passage of this act, is in the military service of the United States, who may not be within the jurisdiction of any court authorized to naturalize aliens, may file his petition for naturalization without appearing in person in the office of the clerk of the court and shall not be required to take the prescribed oath of allegiance in open court. The petition shall be verified by the affidavits of at least two credible witnesses who are citizens of the United States, and who shall prove in their affidavits the portion of the residence that they have personally known the applicant to have resided within the United States. The time of military service may be established by the affidavits of at least two other citizens of the United States, which, together with the oath of allegiance, may be taken in accordance with the terms of section seventeen hundred and fifty of the revised statutes of the United States after notice from and under regulations of the bureau of naturalization. Such affidavits and oath of allegiance shall be admitted in evidence in any original or appellate naturalization proceeding without proof of the genuineness of the seal or signature or of the official character of the officer before whom the affidavits and oath of allegiance were taken, and shall be filed by the representative of the government from the bureau of naturalization at the hearing as provided by section eleven of the act of June twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and six. Members of the naturalization bureau and service may be designated by the secretary of labor to administer oaths relating to the administration of the naturalization law; and the requirement of section ten of notice to take depositions to the United States attorneys is repealed, and the duty they perform under section fifteen of the act of June twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and six (thirty-fourth statutes at large, part one, page five hundred and ninety-six), may also be performed by the commissioner or deputy commissioner of naturalization: Provided, that it shall not be lawful to make a declaration of intention before the clerk of any court on election day or during the period of thirty days preceding the day of holding any election in the jurisdiction of the court: Provided further, that service by aliens upon vessels other than of American registry, whether continuous or broken, shall not be considered as residence for naturalization purposes within the jurisdiction of the United States, and such aliens cannot secure residence for naturalization purposes during service upon vessels of foreign registry.

During the time when the United States is at war no clerk of a United States court shall charge or collect a naturalization fee from an alien in the military service of the United States for filing his petition or issuing the certificate of naturalization upon admission to citizenship, and no clerk of any state court shall charge or collect any fee for this service unless the laws of the state require such charge to be made, in which case nothing more than the portion of the fee required to be paid to the state shall be charged or collected. A full accounting for all of these transactions shall be made to the bureau of naturalization in the manner provided by section thirteen of the act of June twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and six.

American seamen.

Eighth.¹ That every seaman, being an alien, shall, after his declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, and after he shall have served three years upon such merchant or fishing vessels of the United States, be deemed a citizen of the United States for the purpose of serving on board any such merchant or fishing vessel of the United States, anything to the contrary in any act of congress notwithstanding; but such seaman shall, for all purposes of protection as an American citizen, be deemed such after the filing of his declaration of intention to become such citizen: Provided, that nothing contained in this act shall be taken or construed to repeal or modify any portion of the act approved March fourth, nineteen hundred and fifteen (thirty-eighth statutes at large, part one, page eleven hundred and sixty-four, chapter one hundred and fifty-three), being an act to promote the welfare of American seamen.

Training for citizenship provided for.

Ninth.¹ That for the purpose of carrying on the work of the bureau of naturalization of sending the names of the candidates for citizenship to the public schools and otherwise promoting instruction and training in citizenship responsibilities of applicants for naturalization, as provided in this subdivision, authority is hereby given for the reimbursement of the printing and binding appropriation of the department of labor upon the records of the treasury department from the naturalization fees deposited in the treasury through the bureau of naturalization for the cost of publishing the citizenship textbook prepared and to be distributed by the bureau of naturalization to those candidates for citizenship only who are in attendance upon the public schools, such reimbursement to be made upon statements by the commissioner of naturalization of books actually delivered to such student candidates for citizenship, and a monthly naturalization bulletin, and in this duty to secure the aid of and coöperate with the official state and national organizations, including those concerned with vocational education and including personal services in the District of Columbia, and to aid the local army exemption boards and coöperate with the war department in locating declarants subject to the army draft and expenses incidental thereto.

Five years residence and mistaken exercise of citizenship before July 1, 1914.

Tenth.¹ That any person not an alien enemy, who resided uninterruptedly within the United States during the period of five years next preceding July first, nineteen hundred and fourteen, and was on that date otherwise qualified to become a citizen of the United States, except that he had not made the declaration of intention required by law, and who during or prior to that time, because of misinformation regarding his citizenship status, erroneously exercised the rights and performed the duties of a citizen of the United States in good faith, may file the petition for naturalization prescribed by law without making the preliminary declaration of intention required of other aliens, and upon satisfactory proof to the court that he has so acted may be admitted as a citizen of the United States upon complying in all respects with the other requirements of the naturalization law.

¹See note p. 1182.

NATURALIZATION LAWS

Alien enemies.

Eleventh.¹ No alien who is a native, citizen, subject, or denizen of any country, state, or sovereignty with which the United States is at war shall be admitted to become a citizen of the United States unless he made his declaration of intention not less than two nor more than seven years prior to the existence of the state of war, or was at that time entitled to become a citizen of the United States, without making a declaration of intention, or unless his petition for naturalization shall then be pending and is otherwise entitled to admission, notwithstanding he shall be an alien enemy at the time and in the manner prescribed by the laws passed upon that subject: Provided, that no alien embraced within this subdivision shall have his petition for naturalization called for a hearing, or heard, except after ninety days notice given by the clerk of the court to the commissioner or deputy commissioner of naturalization to be present, and the petition shall be given no final hearing except in open court and after such notice to the representative of the government from the bureau of naturalization, whose objection shall cause the petition to be continued from time to time for so long as the government may require: Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed to interfere with or prevent the apprehension and removal, agreeably to law, of any alien enemy at any time previous to the actual naturalization of such alien; and section twenty-one hundred and seventy-one of the revised statutes of the United States is hereby repealed: Provided further, that the president of the United States may, in his discretion, upon investigation and report by the department of justice fully establishing the loyalty of any alien enemy not included in the foregoing exemption, except such alien enemy from the classification of alien enemy, and thereupon he shall have the privilege of applying for naturalization; and for the purposes of carrying into effect the provisions of this section, including personal services in the District of Columbia, the sum of $400,000 is hereby appropriated to be available until June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and nineteen, including travel expenses for members of the bureau of naturalization and its field service only, and the provisions of section thirty-six hundred and seventy-nine of the revised statutes shall not be applicable in any way to this appropriation.

Citizens in military or naval service of allies of United States.

Twelfth.¹ That any person who, while a citizen of the United States and during the existing war in Europe, entered the military or naval service of any country at war with a country with which the United States is now at war, who shall be deemed to have lost his citizenship by reason of any oath or obligation taken by him for the purpose of entering such service, may resume his citizenship by taking the oath of allegiance to the United States prescribed by the naturalization law and regulations, and such oath may be taken before any court of the United States or of any state authorized by law to naturalize aliens or before any consul of the United States, and certified copies thereof shall be sent by such court or consul to the department of state and the bureau of naturalization, and the act (public fifty-five, sixty-fifth congress, approved October fifth, nineteen hundred and seventeen) is hereby repealed.

Persons in military or naval service of United States at end of war or honorably discharged for disability.

Thirteenth.¹ That any person who is serving in the military or naval forces of the United States at the termination of the existing war, and any person who before the termination of the existing war may have been honorably discharged from the military or naval services of the United States on account of disability incurred in line of duty, shall, if he applies to the proper court for admission as a citizen of the United States, be relieved from the necessity of proving that immediately preceding the date of his application he has resided continuously within the United States the time required by law of other aliens, or within the state, territory, or the District of Columbia for the year immediately preceding the date of his petition for naturalization, but his petition for naturalization shall be supported by the affidavits of two credible witnesses, citizens of the United States, identifying the petitioner as the person named in the certificate of honorable discharge, which said certificate may be accepted as evidence of good moral character required by law, and he shall comply with the other requirements of the naturalization law.

¹See note p. 1182.

APPENDIX V

Notice of petition by clerk.

SEC. 5. That the clerk of the court shall, immediately after filing the petition, give notice thereof by posting in a public and conspicuous place in his office, or in the building in which his office is situated, under an appropriate heading, the name, nativity, and residence of the alien, the date and place of his arrival in the United States, and the date, as nearly as may be, for the final hearing of his petition, and the names of the witnesses whom the applicant expects to summon in his behalf; and the clerk shall, if the applicant requests it, issue a subpoena for the witnesses so named by the said applicant to appear upon the day set for the final hearing, but in case such witnesses can not be produced upon the final hearing other witnesses may be summoned.

Docketing petition; naturalization before election.

SEC. 6. That petitions for naturalization may be made and filed during term time or vacation of the court and shall be docketed the same day as filed, but final action thereon shall be had only on stated days to be fixed by rule of the court, and in no case shall final action be had upon a petition until at least ninety days have elapsed after filing and posting the notice of such petition: Provided, that no person shall be naturalized nor shall any certificate of naturalization be issued by any court within thirty days preceding the holding of any general election within its territorial jurisdiction. It shall be lawful at the time and as a part of the naturalization of any alien, for the court, in its discretion, upon the petition of such alien, to make a decree changing the name of said alien, and his certificate of naturalization shall be issued to him in accordance therewith.

Anarchists and polygamists.

SEC. 7. That no person who disbelieves in or who is opposed to organized government, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief in or opposition to organized government, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the government of the United States, or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who is a polygamist, shall be naturalized or be made a citizen of the United States.

Must speak English.

SEC. 8. That no alien shall hereafter be naturalized or admitted as a citizen of the United States who cannot speak the English language: Provided, that this requirement shall not apply to aliens who are physically unable to comply therewith, if they are otherwise qualified to become citizens of the United States: and Provided further, that the requirements of this section shall not apply to any alien who has prior to the passage of this act declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States in conformity with the law in force at the date of making such declaration: Provided further, that the requirements of section eight shall not apply to aliens who shall hereafter declare their intention to become citizens and who shall make homestead entries upon the public lands of the United States and comply in all respects with the laws providing for homestead entries on such lands.

NATURALIZATION LAWS

Final hearing.

SEC. 9. That every final hearing upon such petition shall be had in open court before a judge or judges thereof, and every final order which may be made upon such petition shall be under the hand of the court and entered in full upon a record kept for that purpose, and upon such final hearing of such petition the applicant and witnesses shall be examined under oath before the court and in the presence of the court.

Proof of residence.

SEC. 10. That in case the petitioner has not resided in the state, territory, or the District of Columbia¹ for a period of five years continuously and immediately preceding the filing of his petition he may establish by two witnesses, both in his petition and at the hearing, the time of his residence within the state, provided that it has been for more than one year, and the remaining portion of his five years residence within the United States required by law to be established may be proved by the depositions of two or more witnesses who are citizens of the United States, upon notice to the bureau of naturalization.

Examinations, etc., in opposition.

SEC. 11. That the United States shall have the right to appear before any court or courts exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings for the purpose of cross-examining the petitioner and the witnesses produced in support of his petition concerning any matter touching or in any way affecting his right to admission to citizenship, and shall have the right to call witnesses, produce evidence, and be heard in opposition to the granting of any petition in naturalization proceedings.

Clerk to file declarations, etc., with bureau of naturalization.

SEC. 12. That it is hereby made the duty of the clerk of each and every court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization matters under the provisions of this act to keep and file a duplicate of each declaration of intention made before him and to send to the bureau of naturalization at Washington, within thirty days after the issuance of a certificate of citizenship, a duplicate of such certificate, and to make and keep on file in his office a stub for each certificate so issued by him, whereon shall be entered a memorandum of all the essential facts set forth in such certificate. It shall also be the duty of the clerk of each of said courts to report to the said bureau, within thirty days after the final hearing and decision of the court, the name of each and every alien who shall be denied naturalization, and to furnish to said bureau duplicates of all petitions within thirty days after the filing of the same, and certified copies of such other proceedings and orders instituted in or issued out of said court affecting or relating to the naturalization of aliens as may be required from time to time by the said bureau.

In case any such clerk or officer acting under his direction shall refuse or neglect to comply with any of the foregoing provisions he shall forfeit and pay to the United States the sum of twenty-five dollars in each and every case in which such violation or omission occurs, and the amount of such forfeiture may be recovered by the United States in an action of debt against such clerk.

Clerks of courts having and exercising jurisdiction in naturalization matters shall be responsible for all blank certificates of citizenship received by them from time to time from the bureau of naturalization, and shall account for the same to the said bureau whenever required so to do by such bureau. No certificate of citizenship received by any such clerk which may be defaced or injured in such manner as to prevent its use as herein provided shall in any case be destroyed, but such certificate shall be returned to the said bureau; and in case any such clerk shall fail to return or properly account for any certificate furnished by the said bureau, as herein provided, he shall be liable to the United States in the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt, for each and every certificate not properly accounted for or returned.

APPENDIX V

Fees, etc.

SEC. 13.¹ That the clerk of each and every court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization cases shall charge, collect, and account for the following fees in each proceeding:²

For receiving and filing a declaration of intention and issuing a duplicate thereof, one dollar.

For making, filing, and docketing the petition of an alien for admission as a citizen of the United States and for the final hearing thereon, two dollars; and for entering the final order and the issuance of the certificate of citizenship thereunder, if granted, two dollars.

The clerk of any court collecting such fees is hereby authorized to retain one-half of the fees collected by him in such naturalization proceeding; the remaining one-half of the naturalization fees in each case collected by such clerks, respectively, shall be accounted for in their quarterly accounts, which they are hereby required to render the bureau of naturalization, and paid over to such bureau within thirty days from the close of each quarter in each and every fiscal year, and the moneys so received shall be paid over to the disbursing clerk of the department of labor, who shall thereupon deposit them in the treasury of the United States, rendering an account therefor quarterly to the auditor for the state and other departments, and the said disbursing clerk shall be held responsible under his bond for said fees so received.

In addition to the fees herein required, the petitioner shall, upon the filing of his petition to become a citizen of the United States, deposit with and pay to the clerk of the court a sum of money sufficient to cover the expenses of subpoenaing and paying the legal fees of any witnesses for whom he may request a subpoena, and upon the final discharge of such witnesses they shall receive, if they demand the same from the clerk, the customary and usual witness fees from the moneys which the petitioner shall have paid to such clerk for such purpose, and the residue, if any, shall be returned by the clerk to the petitioner: Provided, that the clerks of courts exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings shall be permitted to retain one-half of the fees in any fiscal year up to the sum of three thousand dollars, and that all fees received by such clerks in naturalization proceedings in excess of such amount shall be accounted for and paid over to said bureau as in case of other fees to which the United States may be entitled under the provisions of this act. The clerks of the various courts exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings shall pay all additional clerical force that may be required in performing the duties imposed by this act upon the clerks of courts from fees received by such clerks in naturalization proceedings.

And in case the clerk of any court exercising naturalization jurisdiction collects fees in excess of the sum of six thousand dollars in any fiscal year the secretary of labor may allow salaries, for naturalization purposes only, to pay for clerical assistance, to be selected and employed by that clerk, additional to the clerical force for which clerks of courts are required by this section to pay from fees received by such clerks in naturalization proceedings, if in the opinion of said secretary the naturalization business of such clerk warrants further additional assistance: Provided, that in no event shall the whole amount allowed the clerk of a court and his assistants exceed the one-half of the gross receipts of the office of said clerk from naturalization fees during such fiscal year: Provided further, that when, at the close of any fiscal year, the business of such clerk of court indicates in the opinion of the secretary of labor that the naturalization fees for the succeeding fiscal year will exceed six thousand dollars the secretary of labor may authorize the continuance of the allowance of salaries for the additional clerical assistance herein provided for and employed on the last day of the fiscal year until such time as the remittances indicate in the opinion of said secretary that the fees for the then current fiscal year will not be sufficient to allow the additional clerical assistance authorized by this act.

That payment for the additional clerical assistance herein authorized shall be in the manner and under such regulations as the secretary of labor may prescribe.

¹Sec. 13 as amended by act of June 25, 1910.

²See last paragraph sec. 4, subsec. 7 (p. 1184), regarding fee to be paid by alien in military service who files petition during time United States is at war.

NATURALIZATION LAWS

Binding of petitions and declarations.

SEC. 14. That the declarations of intention and the petitions for naturalization shall be bound in chronological order in separate volumes, indexed, consecutively numbered, and made part of the records of the court. Each certificate of naturalization issued shall bear upon its face, in a place prepared therefor, the volume number and page number of the petition whereon such certificate was issued, and the volume number and page number of the stub of such certificate.

Suits to set aside citizenship.

SEC. 15. That it shall be the duty of the United States district attorneys for the respective districts, upon affidavit showing good cause therefor, to institute proceedings in any court having jurisdiction to naturalize aliens in the judicial district in which the naturalized citizen may reside at the time of bringing the suit, for the purpose of setting aside and canceling the certificate of citizenship on the ground of fraud or on the ground that such certificate of citizenship was illegally procured. In any such proceedings the party holding the certificate of citizenship alleged to have been fraudulently or illegally procured shall have sixty days personal notice in which to make answer to the petition of the United States; and if the holder of such certificate be absent from the United States or from the district in which he last had his residence, such notice shall be given by publication in the manner provided for the service of summons by publication or upon absentees by the laws of the state or the place where such suit is brought.

If any alien who shall have secured a certificate of citizenship under the provisions of this act shall, within five years after the issuance of such certificate, return to the country of his nativity, or go to any other foreign country, and take permanent residence therein, it shall be considered prima facie evidence of a lack of intention on the part of such alien to become a permanent citizen of the United States at the time of filing his application for citizenship, and, in the absence of countervailing evidence, it shall be sufficient in the proper proceeding to authorize the cancellation of his certificate of citizenship as fraudulent, and the diplomatic and consular officers of the United States in foreign countries shall from time to time, through the department of state, furnish the department of justice with the names of those within their respective jurisdictions who have such certificates of citizenship and who have taken permanent residence in the country of their nativity, or in any other foreign country, and such statements, duly certified, shall be admissible in evidence in all courts in proceedings to cancel certificates of citizenship.

Whenever any certificate of citizenship shall be set aside or canceled, as herein provided, the court in which such judgment or decree is rendered shall make an order canceling such certificate of citizenship and shall send a certified copy of such order to the bureau of naturalization; and in case such certificate was not originally issued by the court making such order it shall direct the clerk of the court to transmit a copy of such order and judgment to the court out of which such certificate of citizenship shall have been originally issued. And it shall thereupon be the duty of the clerk of the court receiving such certified copy of the order and judgment of the court to enter the same of record and to cancel such original certificate of citizenship upon the records and to notify the bureau of naturalization of such cancellation.

The provisions of this section shall apply not only to certificates of citizenship issued under the provisions of this act, but to all certificates of citizenship which may have been issued heretofore by any court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings under prior laws.

ALIENS WHO ERRONEOUSLY BELIEVED THEMSELVES CITIZENS EXEMPT FROM CERTAIN FORMALITIES

[Act of June 25, 1910.]

SEC. 3. 36 Stat. L., pt. 1, p. 830. This section repealed by act of May 9, 1918 (Pub. No. 144, 65th Cong.). (See sec. 4, subdivision 10, p. 1184; act May 9, 1918, sec. 2, infra, p. 1196.)

NATURALIZATION OF WIFE AND MINOR CHILDREN OF INSANE ALIENS MAKING HOMESTEAD ENTRIES UNDER LAND LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES

[Act of February 24, 1911.]

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, that when any alien, who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, becomes insane before he is actually naturalized, and his wife shall thereafter make a homestead entry under the land laws of the United States, she and their minor children may, by complying with the other provisions of the naturalization laws, be naturalized without making any declaration of intention. (36 Stat. L., pt. 1, p. 929.)

NATURALIZATION OF DESERTERS OR PERSONS WHO GO ABROAD TO AVOID DRAFT PROHIBITED

[Act of August 22, 1912.]

SEC. 3954. [Amending Sec. 1998, U. S. R. S.] Every person who hereafter deserts the military or naval service of the United States, or who, being duly enrolled, departs the jurisdiction of the district in which he is enrolled, or goes beyond the limits of the United States, with intent to avoid any draft into the military or naval service, lawfully ordered, shall be liable to all the penalties and forfeitures of section 1996 of the revised statutes: Provided, that the provisions of this section and said section 1996 [infra] shall not apply to any person hereafter deserting the military or naval service of the United States in time of peace * * *. (4 Comp. Stat. 1916, p. 4828.)

[Act of March 3, 1865.]

SEC. 1996. All persons who deserted the military or naval service of the United States and did not return thereto or report themselves to a provost marshal within sixty days after the issuance of the proclamation by the president, dated the 11th day of March, 1865, are deemed to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited their rights of citizenship, as well as their right to become citizens; and such deserters shall be forever incapable of holding any office of trust or profit under the United States, or of exercising any rights of citizens thereof. (R. S. 1878, p. 350; 1 Comp. Stat. 1901, p. 1269.)

OFFICIAL MAIL TO BE FORWARDED BY CLERKS OF COURTS TO BUREAU FREE OF POSTAGE, AND BY REGISTERED MAIL IF NECESSARY

[Act of October 6, 1917.]

* * * That all mail matter, of whatever class, relating to naturalization, including duplicate papers required by law or regulation to be sent to the bureau of naturalization by clerks of state or federal courts, addressed to the department of labor, or the bureau of naturalization, or to any official thereof, and indorsed "Official Business," shall be transmitted free of postage, and by registered mail if necessary, and so marked: Provided further, that if any person shall make use of such indorsement to avoid payment of postage or registry fee on his or her private letter, package or other matter in the mail, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of $300, to be prosecuted in any court of competent jurisdiction.

APPENDIX V

VALIDATING CERTAIN CERTIFICATES OF NATURALIZATION WHERE DECLARATIONS WERE FILED PRIOR TO SEPTEMBER 27, 1906

[Act of May 9, 1918.]

SEC. 3. That all certificates of naturalization granted by courts of competent jurisdiction prior to December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and eighteen, upon petitions for naturalization filed prior to January thirty-first, nineteen hundred and eighteen, upon declarations of intention filed prior to September twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred and six, are hereby declared to be valid in so far as the declaration of intention is concerned, but shall not be by this act further validated or legalized.

LAWS REPEALED BY ACT OF MAY 9, 1918

[The act of May 9, 1918, Public No. 144, sixty-fifth congress, contained the following provisions:]

SEC. 2. * * * That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this act are hereby repealed; but nothing in this act shall repeal or in any way enlarge section twenty-one hundred and sixty-nine of the revised statutes, except as specified in the seventh subdivision of this act and under the limitation therein defined: Provided, that for the purposes of the prosecution of all crimes and offenses against the naturalization laws of the United States which may have been committed prior to this act the statutes and laws hereby repealed shall remain in full force and effect: Provided further, that as to all aliens who, prior to January first, nineteen hundred, served in the armies of the United States and were honorably discharged therefrom, section twenty-one hundred and sixty-six of the revised statutes of the United States shall be and remain in full force and effect, anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding.

[And specifically repealed the following: Sections 2166, 2171, 2174, United States Revised Statutes; and so much of an act approved June 26, 1894, entitled "An act making provision for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, and for other purposes" (28 Stat. L., p. 124), as relates to naturalization; and so much of an act approved June 30, 1914, entitled "An act making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1915, and for other purposes" (38 Stat. L., pt. 1, p. 392), as relates to naturalization; and so much of section 3 of an act approved June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. L., pt. 1, p. 830), as relates to naturalization; and public act, No. 55, sixty-fifth congress, approved October 5, 1917.]

CITIZENSHIP BY BIRTH

SEC. 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. * * * (Constitution, Art. XIV.)

CITIZENSHIP OF CHILDREN BORN ABROAD OF CITIZENS

[Act of February 10, 1855, amending act of April 14, 1802.]

SEC. 1993. All children heretofore born or hereafter born out of the limits and jurisdiction of the United States, whose fathers were or may be at the time of their birth citizens thereof, are declared to be citizens of the United States; but the rights of citizenship shall not descend to children whose fathers never resided in the United States. (R. S. 1878, p. 350; 1 Comp. Stat. 1901, p. 1268.)

CITIZENSHIP OF WOMEN BY MARRIAGE

[Act of February 10, 1855.]

SEC. 1994. Any woman who is now or may hereafter be married to a citizen of the United States, and who might herself be lawfully naturalized, shall be deemed a citizen. (R. S. 1878, p. 350; 1 Comp. Stat. 1901, p. 1268.)

NATURALIZATION LAWS

CHILDREN OF PERSONS NATURALIZED UNDER CERTAIN LAWS TO BE CITIZENS

[Act of April 14, 1802.]

SEC. 2172. The children of persons who have been duly naturalized under any law of the United States, or who, previous to the passing of any law on that subject, by the government of the United States, may have become citizens of any one of the states, under the laws thereof, being under the age of twenty-one years at the time of the naturalization of their parents, shall, if dwelling in the United States, be considered as citizens thereof; and the children of persons who now are, or have been, citizens of the United States shall, though born out of the limits and jurisdiction of the United States, be considered as citizens thereof; but no person heretofore proscribed by any state, or who has been legally convicted of having joined the army of Great Britain during the Revolutionary War, shall be admitted to become a citizen without the consent of the legislature of the state in which such person was proscribed. (R. S. 1878, p. 380; 1 Comp. Stat. 1901, p. 1334.)

EXPATRIATION OF CITIZENS AND THEIR PROTECTION ABROAD

[Act of March 2, 1907.]

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the secretary of state shall be authorized, in his discretion, to issue passports to persons not citizens of the United States as follows: Where any person has made a declaration of intention to become such a citizen as provided by law and has resided in the United States for three years a passport may be issued to him entitling him to the protection of the government in any foreign country: Provided, that such passport shall not be valid for more than six months and shall not be renewed, and that such passport shall not entitle the holder to the protection of this government in the country of which he was a citizen prior to making such declaration of intention.

SEC. 2. That any American citizen shall be deemed to have expatriated himself when he has been naturalized in any foreign state in conformity with its laws, or when he has taken an oath of allegiance to any foreign state.

When any naturalized citizen shall have resided for two years in the foreign state from which he came, or for five years in any other foreign state, it shall be presumed that he has ceased to be an American citizen, and the place of his general abode shall be deemed his place of residence during said years: Provided, however, that such presumption may be overcome on the presentation of satisfactory evidence to a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States, under such rules and regulations as the department of state may prescribe: and Provided, also, that no American citizen shall be allowed to expatriate himself when this country is at war.

SEC. 3. That any American woman who marries a foreigner shall take the nationality of her husband. At the termination of the marital relation she may resume her American citizenship, if abroad, by registering as an American citizen within one year with a consul of the United States, or by returning to reside in the United States, or, if residing in the United States at the termination of the marital relation, by continuing to reside therein.

SEC. 4. That any foreign woman who acquires American citizenship by marriage to an American shall be assumed to retain the same after the termination of the marital relation if she continue to reside in the United States, unless she makes formal renunciation thereof before a court having jurisdiction to naturalize aliens, or if she resides abroad she may retain her citizenship by registering as such before a United States consul within one year after the termination of such marital relation.

SEC. 5. That a child born without the United States of alien parents shall be deemed a citizen of the United States by virtue of the naturalization of or resumption of American citizenship by the parent: Provided, that such naturalization or resumption takes place during the minority of such child: and Provided further, that the citizenship of such minor child shall begin at the time such minor child begins to reside permanently in the United States.

SEC. 6. That all children born outside the limits of the United States who are citizens thereof in accordance with the provisions of section nineteen hundred and ninety-three of the revised statutes of the United States and who continue to reside outside the United States shall, in order to receive the protection of this government, be required upon reaching the age of eighteen years to record at an American consulate their intention to become residents and remain citizens of the United States, and shall be further required to take the oath of allegiance to the United States upon attaining their majority.

SEC. 7. That duplicates of any evidence, registration, or other acts required by this act shall be filed with the department of state for record. (34 Stat. L., pt. 1, p. 1228.)
